

King of kings 2001

2002

"No, Zhou Mi is just a dude trash, that's never possible."

"Dancing water, Zhou Mi he's not what you think, he's very powerful, although I now have the strength of the top 80, but, if I were to fight Zhou Mi, I would probably be defeated in one breath. Mai Shui, don't go to seek revenge on Zhou Mi, and don't even try to steal me back, because, you're not even a match for him, and I don't want you to get hurt again. You'll go back alone."

"Ahhhh." Niu Dancing Water hissed, he thought that in these three years, he had turned his grief into strength and increased his strength so much that he could completely crush Zhou Mi and bring his beloved fiancée home. But as a result, even his fiancée, who had been disciplined in Zhou Mi's hands for three years, was stronger than him, not to mention Zhou Mi himself.

Niu Dancing Water couldn't accept such a result.

This scene, in fact, Omi, who was far away, had already seen it.

Omi saw the exchange between Niu Dancing Water and Belinda Ma, but Omi didn't go up to disturb it, Omi wanted to see how Belinda Ma was evaluating him now.

Omi smiled, Belinda Ma didn't scandalize Omi and didn't waste Omi's efforts to cultivate her.

At this moment, Omi felt happy to see Niu Dancing Water's painful appearance.

At this moment, the judge flew next to Niu Danceshui and said, "You, are disqualified."

"Ah, why?" Niu Dancing Water panicked to stop hissing.

"During the competition, making loud noises and affecting others, you are disqualified, and, I am punishing you with a ten-year ban from participating, go down immediately." First URL m.kanshu8.net

"No."

The referee slapped his palm and with a swoosh, Niu Dancing Water was blown out of the sky and fell into the crowd.

The Niu Dancing Water roared in pain and actually howled on the ground, it was truly a double blow to the spirit and flesh.

Belinda Ma sighed.

Soon, an hour passed and the first 1000 were born.

However, it was immediately followed by the first 500, the first 300, and the first 200.

For the three rounds after that, Omi easily passed all three, and Belinda Ma easily passed as well.

In the crowd, Niu Dancing Water, who had stopped crying, was incomparably disappointed when he saw that Julie Ma had entered the top 200, which was his expectation, but as a result, his fiancée had easily entered, and he, on the other hand, was disqualified and not allowed to participate for 500 years.

“Everyone, the top 200 were born smoothly congratulations to the 200 people who are still standing on the ring at this moment, they, are the 200 most talented pre-mortal people in our entire Yunluo Immortal Country, everyone salute with a warm applause.”

“Pah-pah.” There was thunderous applause.

The referee said, “However, the competition has not ended, instead, the contest of true geniuses has just begun.”

Everyone felt a surge of excitement.

“The next thing that will take place immediately is, the battle for the top 100. What the top 100 means, I think you all know, every single one of them that enters the top 100, will receive a commemorative medallion from the Immortal Kingdom, and, will be sealed as a ninth-grade Chu Chen by the Immortal Kingdom.”

Hearing about the Nine Chu Chen, everyone felt a surge of excitement and hated to be able to enter the top 100.

At this moment, Belinda Ma was also excited inside, if she was able to obtain the title of Ninth Grade Chu Chen, then she would be the first to obtain this title in the history of Xixing Town, and would be the most talented person in the history of Xixing Town, and would definitely become the pride of everyone in Xixing Town.

Thinking of this, Belinda Ma couldn't help but look at the few people standing next to her.

A position of Omi.

Unconsciously, Omi had completely changed his impression in her mind, and it seemed that she could no longer associate Omi with the rogue who had defiled her three years ago.

“Alright, the top 100 competition, it's official. Now, I'll explain the rules, the same water circle, but, what's different this time is that this time, the water circle is divided into ten ranks, a total of 100 water circles. The largest water circle represents the highest rank, if the ten people who grabbed the largest water circle, then it means that they are in the top ten. If he grabbed the next smallest water circle, it meant that he entered the top twenty, and so on, and if he grabbed the ten with the smallest water circle, it meant that he entered the 90th to 100th. Everyone, do you all understand.”

“Understood.”

“Very well, 200 of you, whoever is able to enter 100 and whoever has the ability to enter which stage in the top 100, it depends on this moment.” After saying that, the referee scattered his hands, and the ten largest water circles appeared in the air.

Everyone looked at the ten largest water circles, their eyes filled with longing, being able to grab the ten largest water circles meant the top ten.

Then the referee spilled his hand again, ten second largest water rings, and grabbing this second largest meant 11th through 20th.

The referee scattered his hand ten times, and a total of 100 large and small water rings floated in mid-air.

Suddenly, the 200 people on the stage, eyes are locked in the mid-air for large and small water ring, each person has their own goal, to grab which level of the water ring.

For example, Omi, at the moment, his eyes locked directly on the largest number of water ring, directly into the top ten.

It was just a pity that the people whose gazes were locked on the largest numbered water circle were far more than Omi, and even more than ten people, there were at least thirty people whose gazes were directly locked on the largest numbered water circle.

All the spectators, at the moment, carried a nervous heart.

The referee said: "Everyone, I hope you will accurately judge your own strength, the bigger the water circle, the more aggressive it is, if you don't have that strong strength, it's best not to be over-ambitious and hurt yourselves. Alright, I'm not going to say anything more, let's begin."

The referee said start, and all of a sudden, 200 people in the ring stormed into the sky.

Everyone's goal seemed to be clear, on average, two people grabbed a water ring and had to resist the ring's attacks, so it wasn't that easy to get into the top 100.

Omi dashed directly towards the ten largest water circles.

In the blink of an eye, Omi rushed to one of the largest water circles, but the person who wanted to grab this one water circle was also a prince, and that prince's name was Yun Camel.

Yun Camel saw Zhou Mi snatching the hitting book ring from him, and roared, "Zhou Mi, don't look for death, the largest numbered water ring, meaning the top ten, is it something you can snatch?"

This Cloud Camel, although he was also in the early stages of Human Immortality, he was already at the end of the early stages of the road, while Omi was only halfway there, so in theory, Omi was not strong enough to compete for the largest number of water circles.

But theory is theory.

Omi snorted, "I can't take it, can you."

"Roll." Cloud Camel slapped at Omi, trying to knock down Omi who didn't know the meaning of the word.

At this moment, on the audience podium, the emperor and all the other royals were looking at the mid-air.

A minion beside the emperor snorted, "That Zhou Mi, he really doesn't know how to behave, thinking that he had defeated Grandmother Hu before, but now he actually wants to enter the top ten and go for the largest water ring, he is really deceiving himself and others. Prince Cloud Camel will definitely beat him up so badly that he won't even think of a second level water circle and roll to after the 20th."
