Chapter 2031

Omi didn't linger any longer, turned around and flew away.

The scene was sobbing, never expected that Zhou Mi would be so outstanding in reincarnation. It was almost rare to see another Immortal Pill Master and a genius expert.

Yun Zi involuntarily walked up to the ring, stood in front of Gu Wunba, and proudly said, "Gu Wunba, now you should, why didn't I choose your brother, Gusi Ba? Because, Zhou Mi is even better than whatever Gao Qiong you like, you said yesterday that I have poor eyes, but unfortunately, the Gao Qiong you like is not even close to being as good as Zhou Mi." After saying that, Yun Zi proudly walked out of the ring amidst countless gazes.

Gu Ru Ruoba stood stunned in the ring as everyone began to disperse, and she was still standing there, incomparably frustrated and lost.

A young man who looked a bit weak walked up to her and said comfortingly, "哼巴, don't listen to that bitch's nonsense, that Zhou Mi, even though he is a first-grade Xian Dan Master, I guarantee that he must be the worst Xian Dan Master, because no one, really, can specialize in two things.哼巴, you have to believe me, I, Gao Qiong, am definitely several blocks away from him in terms of strength in Immortal Pill, and my future achievements are not something he can compare to."

"Really?" Like a wounded bird, Gu Fangba was busy looking at the young man.

"Yes, really, you mustn't be intimidated by him, if he was really that talented in Immortal Pill, he would have been famous long ago, why does no one even know that he is an Immortal Pill Master? It's still because he's just a person who sells his reputation."

"Mmhm, Gao Qiong, you must help me defeat him, I don't want others to see that the person I like is even worse than him."

"Don't worry, 哼巴, in ten years' time, the Upper Yama Continent will hold another Immortal Pill Conference, when it happens, I will definitely make my mark in the conference, and the Immortal Pills I concocted will get the top ten spots, trust me."

Omi had gone back to the inn, and Belinda Ma would be back soon.

Omi breathed a deep sigh of relief, he had defeated Gu Ruinba today and believed that his fame would soon be fought out in the Upper Fellows' Yama Continent. And he also announced his status as a First Grade Immortal Pill Master, which would make his fame even greater. One second to remember to read the book

Sure enough, before Omi's butt was even warm in the inn, there was a knock on the door.

"Come in."

A strong man from the late Human Immortal stage walked in.

"Hello, Master Zhou."

"Hello, and you are?"

"My name is Horse Oil, I adore you so much, can I follow you?"

"With me what?"

"Hanging out with you, you'll be my big brother from now on, I'll worship you as my big brother." After Ma Oil said that, he immediately kneeled, "Big brother again, please accept my worship."

"Khan, did I promise to take you as my little brother?"

"Brother, I'm pitiful, just take me."

"How pitiful?"

"I don't have any status at all in my family, I'm the illegitimate son of my family, and I have good talent, but unfortunately, because I'm an illegitimate son, my family's resources for immortal cultivation don't give me much, which makes it hard for me to progress."

"What family is your family?"

"Truth be told, my family is not inferior to Kuvunba's family, and the strongest person in my family is a mid Earth Immortal."

"Ugh." Omi thought it was some kind of kitten or puppy, but it turned out that it was also a young master from a pretty big family, but, it was a bastard young master, but no matter what, it was a pretty high status.

Horse Oil said, "Brother, I know that with your identity, an ordinary kitten or puppy would definitely not be worthy of hanging out with you, but although I'm not an ordinary kitten or puppy, I'm a genius of the Upper Fellows' Yama Continent, ranked in the top 100 in the late Human Immortal stage."

"What? You're a top 100 ranked Heavenly

Only?"

"Yeah."

"Why do you want to worship me as your big brother when you're so powerful? It's not common sense, right."

"Big brother, I'm a top 100 ranked one, what's that in front of you, I'm nothing in front of you ah, you're an Immortal Pill Master and a top 20 ranked one, I'm not ashamed to worship you as my big brother at all ah."

Omi was startled, it seemed to make some sense.

"Alright, then I'll take you in as my little brother."

"Thank you, big brother."

“However, although I’ll take you in, you don’t have to follow me, but I’ll remember that you’re my little brother.”

“Alright, thank you big brother.”

“You can go back first.”

“Good.” Ma Oil left first with some disappointment, originally, he wanted Omi to concoct a pill for him, after all, it was a bit bold to worship him as his big brother, but it was worth it for the Immortal Pill.

Omi quickly sent this horse oil away, Omi didn’t let him follow him because he didn’t want to expose his secret and also wanted to test him, after all, people’s hearts were unpredictable, besides, this horse oil worshipped him for nothing more than to see Omi’s identity as an Immortal Pill Master, he must have expected Omi to refine pills for him.

Then Omi foolishly helped people alchemy, in order to be a big brother in vain, Omi does not need, Omi is not those who only alchemy, no strength of the Immortal Pill Master.

“Belinda Ma, let’s go, this place is no longer a place to stay for long, there will definitely be more people coming to me afterwards.”

“Zhou Mi, isn’t this a good thing?”

“There are no good things for no reason, they’re all directed at me for having use value, like that horse oil just now, I guess he’s just looking for a long-term free alchemist, he said it himself, he doesn’t have any resources in the family.”

“Then why did you take him in as your little brother?”

Omi and Belinda Ma, immediately left that inn.

Sure enough, not long after Omi left, several more mid and late Earth Immortals came, all of whom wanted to hang out with Omi.

“Where are we going now?”

“I don’t know, why don’t we just go back to the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom.”

“Mhmm, I also want to go back, the water here is too deep, and if I’m not careful, I might as well go back to the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom.”

Omi nodded his head and immediately sensed Yun Zi’s location.

Yun Zi was currently at the Yang Residence.

In the hall of the Yang Residence, everyone was relatively speechless, and the Yang family, who had previously scowled at Omi, seemed to have nothing to say when they returned this time.

Yun Zi said, “Cousin, cousin, now you have nothing to say, I have good eyes, right.”

Yun Zi’s cousin cousin wanted to say something, but couldn’t.

Yun Zi said, "Alright, I won't talk to you guys anymore, I'm going back to find Zhou Mi."

Just at this moment, Yun Zi's uncle walked in.

"Uncle." Yun Zi had a proud look on his face.

Yang Qilu said, "Yun Zi, although that Zhou Mi reincarnation is quite a genius, unfortunately, his backstage is too weak, I don't think he's suitable for you, in the Immortal World, without a backstage, what's the use of a strong talent."

"How can it be useless, he will definitely be strong in the future, at that time, he himself will be the strongest backstage."

Yun Zi's uncle snorted, "If I go and kill him now, does he still have a backstage to speak of?"
