"Young Master, Belinda Ma requests an audience."The butler came to report.

"Uh, let her in."

Soon after, Julie Ma came and seemed to have lost weight.

"Belinda Ma, when did you come to the Xian imperial capital."

"Been here for half a month."

"Uh, so how."

"I didn't dare to bother you, you've been given in marriage."Belinda Ma said with a sad look.

"Oh, and why do you bother."

"Zhou Mi, what should I do."

Omi said, "I'm sure you'll find a better one than me."

"I don't want to."Belinda Ma cried out. Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

Belinda Ma said, "Zhou Mi, I really can't leave you, without you, I already feel like living is meaningless, but, you're called a son-in-law again, I don't dare, sooooo."

Omi saw her crying so sadly, so he had to hug her.

Omi said, "Indeed, my current status is as a son-in-law, I'm afraid I'll even lose my own life if I mess up again."

"I really can't leave you."Belinda Ma cried, she also knew that she couldn't be with Omi anymore, she had been heartbroken for the past half month.However, she still couldn't hold back today and came to look for Zhou Mi.

Omi smiled, "However, the reason is like this, but I, Tang someone, don't like to be restricted, no matter if he is an emperor or some heavenly king, don't try to restrict me.Belinda Ma, if you still want to be with me, there's only one way."

"What way?"

"I'll tell Yun Zi to make you her personal maid, so that you and Yun Zi can be together often, and we, too, can be together often, hehe."Omi smiled proudly.

"Ah, will Princess Yun Zi agree?"

"Of course I'll agree, I'm in charge of this family, Yun Zi dares to disagree, spank her."

Belinda Ma blushed and was happy inside.

"It's just that it's going to be hard on you, but of course, the maid is only a superficial identity."

"Then if the Emperor knows?"

"No, Cloud Violet won't say, he'll cover for you."

"Ah, that doesn't make sense."

"Alright, never mind that, I'll arrange it, you leave my place before anyone finds anything."

"Uh-huh."

Belinda Ma left happily.

Omi inwardly sighed helplessly, it was fortunate that he had met a princess who was so good to him, if he had been replaced by a careful one, Omi would have been in a very bad position.

That night, Omi returned to the palace and went to have a good time with Yun Zi, since she was so reasonable, Omi couldn't begrudge her until three days later.

Omi went to the Pill Room.

"Senior Black Prisoner, have I trained my Immortal Pill yet?"

"Well, it's already refined, take it." The Black Prisoner took the three immortal pills to Omi.

These three Immortal Pills, the Black Prisoner was also gluttonous, only, he wouldn't touch them, he was the Emperor's brother and the person the Emperor trusted the most, that's why the Emperor sent him here to guard Master Chen.

"Thank you, Senior Black Prisoner, I'll leave first then."

"Brother-in-law Zhou, take care."

After Omi took the Immortal Pill, he immediately secretly went to a certain other courtyard to check on Mu Qianji and Little Fire and the others.

"Brother Chen, you're here."

"How are you guys doing, have you become immortal?" Don Omi asked.

"Minister, what are you kidding, it's only been a few days, you think it's so easy, it feels so far away."..

Mu Qianji also stopped cultivating.

"Alas, there's no progress at all, the immortalization spell you taught us feels too difficult to understand." Mu Qianji said somewhat petulantly.

Omi said, "There's no hurry, take your time, today I brought immortal pills, this time it's 100 million years old, and it's made by a second level Immortal Pill Master, the effect is doubled."

After saying that, Omi took out an Immortal Pill, this Immortal Pill was huge, the size of a pigeon egg, which meant that the black prisoner didn't give Omi a deduction.

Omi divided this Immortal Pill into several portions, one for each of them.

The large Immortal Pill turned into a dozen smaller ones.

"One for each of them, call everyone else up."

"Omi, where did you get this? A 100 million year old Immortal Pill, that's too extravagant, normally, it's impossible to get, before, even that former father of yours couldn't get one."

"Indeed, apart from emperors, ordinary mortal immortals really don't even think about it, the reason why I was able to obtain three 100 million year old Immortal Pills, this is because, I was just about to tell you guys." Omi had difficulty speaking.

Dao: "It shouldn't be because you married a certain princess."

Black Pupil just happened to wake up and was busy saying, "How is that possible, my minister uncle is not like that, he's not interested in women anymore."

Omi stared at Black Pupil in depression, how did he know that his eyes saw that Omi was not interested in women anymore, making it so hard for Omi to step down.

Omi said, "I'd better start from the beginning, starting from the last time I attended the Genius Auction."

Omi began again, finishing the process of getting to know Yun Zi without missing a beat.

"Alright, that's it, I was forced, had no choice, had to, very grievously and helplessly, marry Yun Zi. I believe that all of you can feel my helplessness and pain." Omi concluded.

Tang Huan said, "Yes, I can indeed understand."

Lu Yuxi said, "Yes, I can understand too, Omi, you've worked hard."

"Yes, I've really wronged you."

Omi saw them, one by one, all full of sarcasm, and laughed, "Alright, alright, don't be sarcastic, although I am, right now, not without feelings for Yun Zi, but it's true that I have no choice."

Mu Qianji said, "You thought we wouldn't understand you, you're wrong, you could have abandoned us for these burdens, but you didn't, what more can we ask of you. It's just marrying a princess, besides, you obtained the Immortal Pill and came to share it with us in the first place, we really have no complaints, you don't need to look so guilty."

Everyone nodded, in fact they were very grateful that Omi had never abandoned them, if they had been some thin-hearted ones, they would have thrown these burdens away long ago, but Omi always had to take them with him.

Omi smiled, "Alright, take the immortal pills first, I can't come here often now, I'll have to be more careful in the future, even though Yun Zi doesn't mind, the emperor definitely does, if the emperor knew, you would definitely be killed, and I might die too."

"Well, then, contact less in the future, just send a henchman."

"A henchman? There's no henchmen for now, don't worry, with Yun Zi covering for me, it's not that hard for me to meet with you guys. That's it, I'm leaving first."

Omi didn't stay long, it hadn't been more than a few months since we last met, and if it wasn't for the gift of Immortal Pills, Omi wouldn't have come here again so soon.

Omi walked carefully all the way, not going home and heading straight to the palace to go to Yun Zi's.

The emperor must have known that Omi had received the Immortal Pill, so the emperor must have been secretly observing how effective Omi was in taking the Pill this time.
