omi took a glance around and noticed that there were hundreds of people watching.

omi felt that business was here, and immediately shouted, "Everyone, if anyone thinks I'm still good, they can come to me for guidance, five immortal coins at a time."

After saying that, omi flew back to his cave, not knowing if anyone would come to him for guidance.

However, defeating Lin Huajun this time was indeed not as shocking as one beating four three years ago.

Not long after, Bai Hanyan flew in and said, "Five Immortal Coins to find you guidance once?"

"Yes. Is there a problem."

"Surely no one wants it."

"How do you know no one wants to."

"There were people outside just now talking about it, saying that you're crazy for wanting immortal coins, and that five immortal coins to guide you once is a good deal, and one immortal coin to guide you a hundred times is more like it."

omi's eyebrows furrowed and said, "That's really what people outside are saying."

"Yeah, just after you flew into the cave, that's what the people outside were talking about ah."

"What the hell, one immortal coin to guide a hundred times, I'm sick, my guidance is definitely worth five immortal coins once, these people, it seems they don't deserve my guidance. Let's just say, now that I've stepped into the middle Upper Immortal stage, I don't want to stay here anymore, I'll go to the valley next door to the middle Upper Immortal stage."

After saying that, omi flew out of the cave.

Bai Hanyan was busy chasing after him, "What about me?"

"You? Of course you'll just continue practicing the Shura Divine Blade here, I can't take you away, you haven't even reached the middle stage of Upper Immortal yet, and you can't come with me."

"Oh." Bai Hanyan looked lost all over.

"Then I'll go, I'll see you again if it's fate." omi said.

Bai Hanyan's nose was sore, she finally knew how it felt to like someone but not get him, and at this moment, she seemed to understand a bit how Lin Huajun, Johnny and the others who were pursuing her felt.

“omi.”

After flying a few dozen meters away, Bai Hanyan shouted.

“Is there anything else?”

Bai Hanyan asked, “Don’t you have any feelings for me at all?”

“Uh, you want to be my girlfriend too?” omi asked.

Bai Hanyan almost didn’t die of anger, wasn’t it obvious enough?

Although Bai Hanyan was usually a subtle person, when she met someone she liked very much, even the most subtle woman would explode with extraordinary courage.

Bai Hanyan said loudly, “Yes, I so want to be your girlfriend, do you want me?”

In the valley behind Bai Hanyan, many people shouted with a wow.

In the crowd, there were also a few men who had chased after Bai Hanyan before, and those men immediately flew up, including Johnny.

“Hanyan, you.”

“Bai Hanyan, didn’t you say that you wouldn’t fall in love at the Academy of Immortality.”

Those men all looked depressed, feeling that Bai Hanyan had acted like a white lotus flower before, but now she was acting so boldly towards another man.

Bai Hanyan didn’t have the heart to pay attention to those men at the moment, her eyes looked straight at omi with expectation in her eyes, hoping that omi would give her a positive answer. At this moment, she doesn’t want any disgrace or shame.

Women, crazy for love is also very scary.

omi looked at Bai Hanyan’s expectant eyes and didn’t know how to refuse. However, Tang Tzu-Chen really wasn’t in the mood to think about women right now, and he didn’t know if it was because he was getting old.

After hesitating for a moment, omi said, “Bai Hanyan, thank you for your love for me, but I really have no plans to find a girlfriend at the Immortal Academy.”

“Sooooo.” Bai Hanyan cried out.

omi was busy saying, “Really, I’m not lying to you.”

Bai Hanyan pointed at omi and cried, “You stole my lines.”

“Er.” omi suddenly reacted to the fact that Bai Hanyan had also rejected her suitor in the same way before.

omi was speechless, "I really didn't steal it, alright, no more nonsense with you, you should also hurry up and practice your Shura Divine Blade, anyway, you have to believe that you will find a better one than me."

"Sooooo." Bai Hanyan cried even more sadly, this was all what she had told others, today, it was finally her turn, was this retribution?

omi finally said, "If anyone bullies you in the future, come to me, I will certainly not let go. Love is not benevolent in the future."

omi only flew away with this.

"Woo-hoo." Bai Hanyan wept sadly as she watched omi's back.

Johnny hummed, "Bai Hanyan, you now finally feel our heart for chasing you, to be honest, I hated that omi just now, but at this moment, I actually admire him, hahaha."

Another man also said, "Yes, I admire him and envy him too. Bai Hanyan, forget about him, he doesn't like you, just like you don't like us, it's fruitless, it's better to find someone who loves you, like me."

Bai Hanyan snorted, "Will you guys give up chasing me?"

"Of course not."

"Never give up."

"My heart for you lasts forever."

Those men panicked to state their position.

Bai Hanyan said, "So, like you guys, I will never give up and love his heart for the longest time."

"Shit." A few men were depressed and cursed, but it turned them back.

omi came next door to the valley where he was practicing the Shura Divine Blade.

"What should I do in order to attract others to come to me for guidance? What about making me another big profit?"

omi casually looked for a mid Upper Immortal to inquire, "Hello, who is the person in our mid Upper Immortal class who has trained to the highest level of the Shura Divine Blade?" omi was too shameless to say 'our class', it was impersonation.

The one who was asked said, "Thirteenth floor now."

"Wow, that impressive."

"Yeah, you're new here, aren't you."

"Oh, no, I've also practiced to the thirteenth floor." omi said.

"Ah, it can't be, we're in the Upper Immortal Middle Class, everyone knows that only one person has practiced to the thirteenth level of the Shura Divine Blade." The man looked at omi in disbelief and said.

omi smiled and said, "Brother, how many layers have you practiced to?"

"The tenth floor."The man was busy saying.

omi said, "Let's say, brother, I'm fated with you, I'll guide you, you rehearse the tenth layer of the Shura Divine Blade in front of me right now, so that I'll know where you're lacking after reading it, and I'll give you some advice."

"Good."The man didn't hesitate at all, although he didn't know if omi was really at the thirteenth level of the Shura Divine Blade, but there was no loss in practicing it once for him to see, what if he really reached the thirteenth level.

omi laughed inwardly.

The template for the tenth level of the Shura Divine Saber was found.
