As soon as omi and the four of them reached the valley of the middle Upper Immortal, a man flew up from afar.

"Haha, Bai Hanyan, you're back." The man flew up excitedly upon seeing Bai Hanyan.

omi's eyebrows furrowed and said, "Isn't this that who?" omi was somewhat impressed, but forgot the name, Lin something or other, who tried to force Bai Hanyan to be his girlfriend back then, but was beaten away by omi.

Bai Hanyan said, "Lin Huajun."

omi smiled, "Come to think of it, Lin Huajun, what, still chasing Bai Hanyan now? Hadn't I convinced you in the first place?"

Lin Huajun suddenly looked at omi and said in shock, "It's you, why have you appeared again."

The fatty said, "Lin Huajun, now I, Brother Tang, am a seventh-grade Immortal Pillar Master, speak in a more respectful tone."

"Ah, a seventh level Xian Dan Master, how is that possible." Lin Huajun was startled, a hundred years and ten thousand unseen, but he was a seventh-grade Immortal Pill Master, no wonder Bai Hanyan had always liked him. Lin Huajun suddenly felt powerless inside, with such a strong rival, how could he compete against him, perhaps it was time to give up on Bai Hanyan.

omi said, "Lin Huajun, I didn't expect that after so many years, you're still in the middle stage of the Upper Immortal, remember a white million years ago, you were the middle stage of the Upper Immortal."

"A million years ago, you were also only mid Upper Immortal, and you're actually late Upper Immortal now." Lin Huajun looked at omi and was jealous as to why omi's Immortal destiny was so deep.

Under normal circumstances, ten million years might not be enough to reach the late stage from the middle stage of Upper Immortal, even if the talent was extremely deep, most of them would take several million years. The first website m.kanshu8.net omi said, "Lin Huajun, I'm going to open a training and guidance shop, I don't know if you're willing to work with me."

"Me?"

"Yeah, are you interested?"

"But you don't hate me?"

"I have no quarrel with you, so if you don't want to, forget it."

"I'm willing." Lin Huajun was busy nodding his head.

"Then let's go, come with me to the area of the Shura Divine Blade again, I still have a few friends over there."

At this moment, in the spell department of the Immortal Academy.

A beautiful woman came out of one of the classes, when a beautiful woman at the entrance greeted her and said happily, "Huanhuan, how was the practice."

"Average."

"Huanhuan, you have such good resources, don't let down your mother and your grandfather's good intentions."

"Don't talk so nicely, grandfather, if you really think I'm your family from my past life, you should bring all my family from this life here, isn't there so many students in the Immortal Academy, what's the harm in having a few more people."

"Huanhuan, your grandfather also has a hard time, even though he is the president of the Immortal Academy, he has a lot of restrictions ah, he's not in a position to do anything ah, so to speak, he's in a high place. Do you want to see your grandfather lose power in the Celestial Realm?"

"It's just a few more people to stuff in, is that so bad?"

"Huanhuan, you don't understand, the Academy of Immortality is now the thing with the most rights and wrongs in the Three Realms, and I don't know how many people are watching. Although your grandfather is in charge of the Academy of Immortality, it doesn't mean that the Academy of Immortality is your grandfather's ah. Your grandfather was only appointed by the Heavenly Realm to be the director and train talents for the Heavenly Realm. However, there are too many forces staring at this position, and your grandfather is not free."

"Oh."

"Also, your grandfather didn't like you very much in the first place, not to mention that you're now reincarnated."

"Mother, I'm sorry for the trouble I've caused you."

"What trouble are you talking about, you're my daughter for one day, for life, regardless of past and present lives. Well, come home with me today, and have a dinner with grandfather tonight."

"But I, I really miss my family in this life, it's been a million years, and if I don't go looking for them, I'm afraid they'll forget me."

"There will be a chance, if it's so easy to forget, it's not family."

"So when am I going to get to them?"

"When you become an Upper Immortal, you'll be fine."

Saying that, the woman pulled her daughter and flew away, shortly arriving at a very mysterious place in the Immortal Academy that outsiders couldn't even find or see.

In this mysterious place, there were three words written on the door of the dean's residence.

This was the place where the Dean of the Immortal Academy lived, except that the people who could see the Dean of the Immortal Academy were few and far between.

Tang Huan, on the other hand, was free to come and go, which was too high for the other students and teachers of Immortal Academy, but no one in Immortal Academy knew what relationship Tang Huan had with the dean.

Right now, in this dean's house, a person was reporting to the dean, "Dean, what should we do about this? Are we going to let those training and instruction classes make a lot of money here?"

A half old man laughed and said, "When did this rise up?"

"About 100W years ago, I heard that it started as an idea thought up by a gifted student, and then many people saw the huge benefits and followed suit. Now, it has become a certain size, Dean, do we need to curb it?"

That dean said, "This matter is really a bit interesting."

"Dean, this is a place of meditation, not a place for those who are profit-minded to make money, if this continues, it will ruin the atmosphere of the Immortal Academy ah. Right now, almost all instructors, when they hear how profitable it is, they want to open a training course to make some extra money. Whereas being a tutor here is only a reward of 100 Xian coins for 10,000 years, opening a training course, even if the business is bad, can earn hundreds or thousands of Xian coins for 10,000 years, while those shops that do very big can even earn over 100,000 Xian coins for 10,000 years. Dean, curb it."

That dean thought for a few minutes and said, "There's no need to curb it."

"Why?"

"These people, who can earn money, that's also dependent on their own abilities. If curbed, the Immortal Academy will definitely return to the old days, where everyone studied alone, deadly, and no one would share their own experiences, which is not the best way to cultivate talent. Nowadays, for the sake of profit, some people would try their best to guide those who were willing to spend money, and with so many instructors and talented students competing against each other, those who were less qualified would benefit, while they would only need to pay a few immortal coins, so why not? In the past, without the profit motive, some mentors would not appear even once in thousands of years, let alone mentoring some students, especially in the Air Tearing Department. Nowadays, however, it's different, and mentors appear frequently, isn't that better?"

"Er, this."

"Let's just do it, let's go with the flow, I also want to see who can laugh at these people who run mentoring classes and training courses and become the final winner. Hahahaha, interesting, interesting."

"Alright, then, listen to the dean, the academy will not interfere in any way."
