

King of kings

Chapter 2191

"I want to ruin this handsome face, and when I do, I'll see who still likes me."

At this point, Maeve was busy, "omi, it's no use, I like you not because of your face, but because of your inner self."

"Me too." Su Xiao Qiao was not willing to lag behind.

"Ugh." omi sighed and said, "I'm sorry, Su Xiao Qiao, Mei Fu, I can't be your boyfriend, I'm at home, I already have a wife, sorry."

Su Xiao Qiao was busy saying, "It's okay, I'm willing to be your girlfriend during the Immortal Academy, and never stick around after graduation."

"Me too."

"That's not okay either, well, I have to go busy, I have to open a training shop and I need to find a few more hands."

Sue: "Can I?"

"I'm going to help you do it too." Maeve was busy.

omi nodded, "That's good, you two will also follow me to do it."

Shi Haoxiang, who was on the side, suddenly moved inside and smiled, "omi, are you still short of manpower?" One second to remember to read the book

"What? You want to hang out with me too?"

"Oh, if you're still missing, count me in."

"OK."

"Thanks."

omi swept a glance, the manpower should be about the same now.

In total, they were Fatty, Bai Hanyan, Johnny, Lin Huajun, Zi Ling, Mei Fu, Su Xiao Qiao, and Shi Haoxiang.

Including omi himself, nine people now.

"Alright, everyone, let's find a place to meet."

Su Dao: "Let's go to my cave."

“Okay.”

Entering the cave, omi said, “Now I’m going to hold a training course, competing with those instructors, the advantage is very small, however, I have a condition they don’t have. That is, this idea was the first one I came up with, and all of them mimicked me. Next, I need all of you to help me, to think of every way to go to the four regions of the Air Tear Department to promote it, and make sure to let everyone know one thing, and that is, all of them who open the training course are imitating me, omi.”

Shi Haoxiang asked, “May I ask what the significance of this is?”

“Of course it makes sense, firstly, this is supposed to be a parody of me, and I have to let everyone know that fact; secondly, this will raise my popularity, and when the popularity comes up, it’s always easier to do anything.”

Bai Hanyan asked, “Then how are we going to publicize it, in case people aren’t interested in knowing about it?”

“It’s a good question, so we have to find a conflict to start with. Everyone knows now that it’s very lucrative to open a training guide, right.”

“Yes, almost all instructors, all geniuses, want a piece of the training shop.”

“Here’s that entry point. You guys go out and advertise it to everyone, and just say: what an injustice for omi, he was the first to open a training, and now, as a result, he’s out of work himself, and those who imitate him are making a lot of money. After hearing such comments, I want everyone to feel sorry for me, to gain everyone’s sympathy and comfort. Do you all understand what I mean?”

“Understood, designed to make everyone sympathize with you and feel depressed and unjust for you.”

“Yes.”

Lin Huajun smiled after hearing that, “A bit interesting, at first I didn’t understand your intention, but now that I think about it, it’s

It is indeed necessary.”

Bai Hanyan said, “My brother Tang, is not a vegetarian, I believe that one day, the dozens and hundreds of training institutions nowadays will not be Tang’s match.”

omi said, “Now is not the time to compliment me, since you all have chosen to work with me, let’s get to work, you can go find helpers, there are hundreds of people that I mentored back then, these people can be used, at least they know that I exist.”

“Good, but if you want everyone to know about you, it will probably take quite a bit of time.”

omi said, “One hundred years, is that enough?”

“I think that’s about enough.”

“Then I’ll give you all a hundred years.”

“What about you?”

"Of course I can't promote myself, others can promote me, but I can't promote myself. Also, it's best that I don't appear in the Air Tear Department for the past one hundred years, I want others to know that I'm not in the Air Tear Department for the past one million years to study something else in another department."

"Then you're going to return to the Xiantian Department?"

"No, I'm going to the spell department to prepare for the chain of future training courses in the spell department, so I'm going to learn some advanced spells first, and practice him a few dozen spells, refining him another dozen layers of each."

"Wow damn." Everyone exclaimed for a moment, wondering if omi was bragging or not .

omi smiled, "Not only the spell department, I will also go to the Immortal Pill Department to assess and become an Immortal Pill Master, in that case, it will also raise my reputation, at least I will be a tutor, and I can freely enter and leave the Immortal Academy in the future."

"omi, you're awesome, I admire you, it's just that I can't compete with you at all, Su Xiao Qiao and Mei Fu, I'll let you have it." Shi Haoxiang said.

"No need to let me, if you can catch up with them, go ahead, I didn't agree to be their boyfriends. All right, get to work, I'll leave you guys here."

"Don't worry, within a hundred years, we will definitely let everyone in the Air Tear Department know that you are the originator of the training course, the legend who once made two thousand cents in three days." Fatty said, this was something that no one else knew about yet, except Fatty and Bai Hanyan.

Lin Huajun said in shock, "Earned two thousand in three days?"

omi nodded and said, "Yes, I once held two training sessions, each of which was only three days long, and I made close to two thousand Xian coins in three days, and there were still many people lining up after three days. This matter can also be heavily publicized, I don't think there's anyone in those training sessions nowadays who makes two thousand in three days."

"There are so many training shops now, how is that possible, and the unit price is also low now, this record of yours is simply unbreakable by anyone, it's beyond the reach of all training courses, haha, omi, you are really worthy of being the originator of training courses ah, there's something to brag about when you go out."

"I'm counting on you all, I'm leaving first."

omi left the Air Tearing Department, leaving the matter here to them.

omi came to the Department of Spells.

For the next one hundred years, omi would learn spells here, and in the future, his training courses would also open a chain here, and of course, the Department of Immortality would also open a chain of stores, omi was going to be the first, and the entire Immortal Academy would open a chain of stores.

omi would have to earn many, many Immortal Coins, only with more Immortal Coins could all of his relatives grow faster.

"I don't know how Tang Huan is doing now." When omi thought of his relatives, he thought of Tang Huan, and wondered what kind of status Tang Huan's mother had, could she give Tang Huan the best resources, it would be bad if the resources were not as good as being around omi.
