"Huanhuan, I thought it was someone with the same name, but it really is you, haha."

"Husband, I've missed you."

"Me too."

At that moment, Nong Yao chilled and asked, "Who exactly is your Excellency? Why are you using a blade."

Only then did omi turn his head to look at Nong Yao and snorted, "You say it again Your Excellency, I believe I'll cut you, you defeated man, if you don't call your grandfather quickly, you still call me Your Excellency."

"You." Nong Yao was angry, but what could he do.

omi said, "Nong Yao, listen carefully, I am from the Air Tearing Department, Tang Huan is already my wife, if you dare to harass my wife again, don't blame me for being rude to you."

Nong Yao's face was extremely ugly, what did he want to say and didn't say, in short, today was a disgrace. Thought Tang Huan could easily take it down, but an expert of the Air Tearing Department appeared.

"Roll." omi shouted at the dazed Nong Yao.

"You." Nong Yao was yelled at and was so angry that he had to vomit blood, so he could only accosted and roll away in full view of the crowd.

At this moment in the crowd, Hua Mingxin looked at omi and said inwardly in shock, "Oh my god, he can even do the Air Tearing Technique? Doesn't he practice Immortal Pill?" One second to remember to read the book Hua Mingxin was truly stunned, although before, she had heard Yun Duo say that omi wanted to go to the Air Tearing Department, and thought, he was just to gain some insight, never thought that his Air Tearing technique was so powerful that it was outrageous.

omi looked at the crowd of onlookers and shouted, "Everyone, there's no more excitement to see, let's disperse."

The onlookers only gradually dispersed at this point.

"Husband, this is my dormitory, follow me into the dormitory."

"Good." omi was also excited, he had been holding it in for over a million years.

Only, after omi entered Tang Huan's dormitory, he discovered that there was a woman inside.

"Er." omi was startled, this woman looked quite powerful.

"Hello, omi, we've finally met."

"You are?" omi had not seen this person before.

Tang Huan smiled, "Husband, she's my mother from my previous life."

"Ah, yes, it's Auntie." omi was shocked, when he was still in the Spiritual Realm and in the Spiritual Realm Flying Cloud Sect, omi called her auntie.

Tang Huan's mother sighed, "Auntie, hehe, yes, I am an auntie, I finally heard you call me auntie to my face. It's really poignant to say the least. Back then, when you called me auntie, you were so weak, but now, it's about to catch up to me."

omi bowed, "Senior pays his respects to Auntie."

"You're welcome, sit down."

"Thank you, Auntie."

"omi, seeing you here today, auntie is really very surprised, it's unbelievable, how can you appear here, and also, you've become a late stage Upper Immortal, your growth rate is unbelievable."

omi smiled and said, "Auntie's words are too important."

At that moment, Tang Huan's mother immediately set up a restraining system.

"Er, auntie, why did you suddenly set up a ban?"

"omi, when you were still in the Spirit Realm before, I heard you say that you knew the Nine Daoist Demons, right."

"Er." omi couldn't help but be wary, the Nine Dao Demon King had been out of touch for a long time, and now he didn't know if he was dead or alive, it was better to be cautious.

omi said, "Why is Auntie suddenly saying this."

"omi, I've already set up a ban, it's okay, you can talk to auntie."

"This is the Immortal Academy, everything is under the control of the dean, right?"

Tang Huan's mother smiled, "The dean is my father, I have set up a ban, my father won't check on me no matter what."

"Ah, the dean is your father."

"Yeah."

"Khan, I didn't think you had quite a big backstage, I thought you were someone with little background before, I heard Tang Huan say that she just followed you around in her previous life when she was little."

"Oh, let's not talk about this matter."

Tang Huan said, "Husband, it's fine, you can trust my mother."

"Well, yes, I do know the Nine Dao Demon King, in fact, I was just about to ask you about it."

Tang Huan's mother said, "omi, when you go out in the future, don't ever say the words Nine Dao Devil King, I heard that the Nine Dao Devil King has a deep secret method, there are many people who want to inquire about his whereabouts."

"Oh." omi said inwardly, "It seems that Tang Huan's mother doesn't know much about the Nine Daoist Demon King either."

"Do you know what secret method the Nine Dao Demon King is hiding? It's a kind of Tathagata, and many powerful people in the Heavenly Realm are looking for the Nine Demons, so if you're asking me where the Nine Demons are, I don't know."

"Oh."

Tang Huan's mother sized up the situation for a moment and asked, "omi, honestly, does your cultivation so fast have anything to do with the Nine Dao Demon King?"

"Oh, do I practice fast? I'm more than four million years old now, I'm only in the late stage of Upper Immortal, so it doesn't seem to be outstanding, right?"

Tang Huan's mother swept a look at omi, sure enough, over four million years old.

"How is that possible, others don't know, but I do, you came to the Immortal World with Tang Huan, how come you're so much older than her."

Tang Huan also wondered, "Yeah, I'm only a million years old, how come you're over four million years old?"

"Hahaha, auntie, truth be told, I have a secret method that can modify my own age, but of course, the modification is what others see, while I myself have not aged at all."

"So, you're over a million years old and you've become a late stage Upper Immortal, omi, you're definitely related to that spitting method on the Nine Dao Demon King."

omi, seeing this, had nothing to argue with, so he could only say, "If I say yes, what will happen to Auntie?"

Tang Huan's mother said, "Don't worry, although many Heavenly Realm powerhouses are looking for this Tathagata, I don't have one, but, omi, I have to remind you ah, once people find out that you have the Nine Demons' Tathagata on you, not to mention me, plus my father won't be able to keep you safe, besides, my father definitely won't be able to keep you safe, you'd better stop using it from now on. It's safer to be honest and go up step by step."

omi said, "Thank you Auntie for reminding me, don't worry, I will, even if I don't care about my own life, I still have to think about Huanhuan and the others. Also, truth be told, the Immortal Machine Spitting Method is not as powerful as the rumors, and even if I continue to use it in the future, it probably won't be very effective."

"Why do you say that?"

"I've used it myself, that's why I know very well that the more I'm behind, the greater the demand for immortal pills becomes more and more difficult to satisfy, and it's not like at the beginning when I was able to absorb whatever immortal pills and herbs to increase my Immortal Fate. Of course, I can't rule out the Nine Dao Demon King having reservations about me."

"That's just as well, I'll tell you, God doesn't give people a single step to reach the heavens, and ultimately you have to rely on your own efforts. Alright then, I'll leave you guys alone, I'm sure you've had a lot to say and do since you've been apart for so long." Tang Huan's mother gave the two of them an ambiguous look.

Tang Huan blushed, and in a fit of anger, "Mother, what are you talking about."

omi, on the other hand, arched his hand: "Thank you Auntie for fulfilling your wish."
