"If you don't turn it off, don't blame me for being rude."

"How rude, do you want to kill me?"

"You think I wouldn't dare?"

"Hahaha, the training course is inferior to me, and you're trying to kill me, don't you think you're ridiculous? You've made a lot of money over the years, too. Don't you think about who first invented the course, if I hadn't been the first to invent it, do you think you could have come up with it? I haven't even f*ck ing charged you the royalties yet."

"Just you wait and see, Omi, you think I'm the only one who will come after you? Wrong, I'm sure it won't be long before more people come looking for you."

"Then come find me, I'd like to see if I dare to kill me." Omi gave a sneer.

Hu Haith flew away with a fling of his sleeves.

He didn't dare to do it alone today, after all, this was the Academy of Immortality and the reason for killing was a bit too strange.

Fatty said, "Brother, aren't you really not afraid?"

"There's nothing to be afraid of, Fatty, I'm going away for a few days, so I'll leave you to take care of the place."

"Good." First URL m.kanshu8.net

Omi left the Air Tearing Department and headed for the Spell Department.

"Tang Huan."

"Husband, you're here, how's your training course going now, the last time you were here, it was a thousand years ago."

This ten thousand years, Omi would visit Tang Huan around a thousand years ago.

"Business is good now, and I'm already a billionaire."

"Ah, really?"

"Yes, but there's been a bit of trouble, other courses are losing business, so the Air Tear Department has had instructors come and bother me, calling it unfair competition, which is ridiculous when you think about it. They just don't know how I run my business."

"Husband, it's fine, if you have any trouble, you can go to my mother. My mother is also a tutor of the Immortal Academy."

"But outsiders don't know about your mother's relationship with the dean ah."

"There's no need to know ah, I really can't, I'll go to my grandfather, there's no way someone in the Immortal Academy can still bully you anyway."

"Also. However, I came to look for you this time, one reason is to meet up with you."

Tang Huan gave Omi a blank glance, her pretty face blushing slightly.

"The second, is to ask if I can pay a visit to your grandfather."

"Ah, you want to see my grandfather."

"Yes, can you introduce him?"

"Why? Is it because you're afraid those people will come after you?"

"That's not true, but now that I've made some money, at any rate, I'm a billionaire, I've earned so many immortal coins here, in a way, I'm a big deal, I have to pay my respects to your grandfather, and of course, after making so much money, I have to pay proper respects to your grandfather as well. I'm going to take out two hundred million out to your grandfather."

"Wow, two hundred million."

"That's a lot, isn't it."

"Not much."

"Two hundred million isn't a lot."

Tang Huan said, "Do you know my grandfather's family background? Although my grandfather is the president of the Immortal Academy, his family, all of them are in heaven, I've been to heaven once before with my mother, my grandfather's immortal residence in heaven, that's what's called luxury, his immortal residence is worth more than three thousand holy coins, so if you honor him with two hundred million immortal coins, my grandfather may not look at it."

"What are holy coins?"

"Sacred coins are something of greater value than immortal coins. If you want to convert it, about 100 million immortal coins is equal to one holy coins. The two hundred million immortal coins you filially gave to my grandfather is only two sacred coins."

"Khan, so that's nothing for me to be billionaire immortal coin rich."

"But in the Earth Immortal Realm, it's considered an earthly tycoon. But compared to the Heaven Realm, a few hundred thousand Saint Coins or millions of Saint Coins is nothing."

"Oh."

"I'll go ask my mother and see if it's appropriate for her to take you to my grandfather now."

"Okay."

Omi and Tang Huan found Tang Huan's mother.

Tang Huan's mother's real name was Ding Lan.

"Mother."

"Why are you guys here together." Omi and Tang Huan's comings and goings were not stopped by Ding Lan, allowing them to have frequent private meetings.

Tang Huan said, "Mother, you know about my phase's opening a training course in the Air Tearing Department."

"Well, I know, but the competition is so great that you can't make much money, so you might as well spend your time on cultivation."

"Mother, that's not necessarily true, after ten thousand years of operation, Omi has become the largest training shop in the Air Tearing Department, and he's now a billionaire."

"What." Ding Lan was startled.

"Mother, my husband wants to pay a visit to my grandfather, do you think, now is the time?"

Ding Lan smiled, "Omi, do you have the heart for this, but I don't think it's time yet, you've made some money, but not enough to impress my father to the point where he's impressed with you. Going to pay him a visit now will undoubtedly let him know of your relationship, my grandfather has accepted Huanhuan, he's a very powerful man, now is not the time, or he will be easily broken up by my father."

"When will that be?"

Ding Lan said, "I think that when you cause my father's idea, for example, when you become the largest training shop in the entire Immortal Academy, when you become a ten billion or hundred billion, perhaps, my father will be a little more impressed with you. The average big power in the Earth Immortal Realm, they're between ten billion and a hundred billion. When it's hot, it's talking about immortal coins."

"Alright."

Tang Huan said, "Mother, but now that they're empty tearing up the department, what if a mentor finds trouble with him?"

"I'm sure he can handle this, right, Omi."

Omi smiled, "I don't take this seriously at all, this is the Immortal Academy, they don't dare to do anything to me at all. There's nothing else to worry about, so we'll be leaving first."

"Go."

After returning to Tang Huan's dormitory, a gust of wind was left unsaid.

After it was over, Omi and Tang Huan embraced each other.

Tang Huan said, "It's been so long, I've missed Thousand Splendors, Rainy Creek and the others, Husband, why don't we go back there sometime."

"The point is, the Immortal Academy isn't a place where you can come and go whenever you want, didn't your mother always restrict you from going before?"

"I don't care, we're going straight."

"Why would you suddenly want to go home and visit?"

"Because you're rich now, you've got hundreds of millions of dollars on you, we can buy our way into the janitor of the Academy of Immortals, and I think they're willing to give us the chance to sneak out."

"Good."

"Mmhmm, when the time comes, we'll bring them all over to the Northern Club and live near the Academy of Immortality."

"The question is, how can they resist the gravitational force of the spatial boundary here? When I came here before, if it wasn't for the constant defense of Grandpa Qingtian, I would have been sucked out long ago."

Tang Huan said, "Is this kind of problem still difficult for me?"
