

King of kings

2242

About ten minutes later, Omi stopped everything he was doing.

At this moment, the perceptions in Omi's mind were completely muddled, unable to continue any further.

Omi sighed with some regret.

However, it wasn't bad, in just ten minutes, he had trained the Shura Divine Blade to more than eighty layers.

Of course, the so-called short ten minutes, this was for the outside world, but for Omi, he entered that state with his whole body and mind, as if deep sleep was the same as ordinary sleep, five minutes of deep sleep, compared to one night of ordinary sleep, Omi just had that state, ten thousand times more than the difference between deep sleep and ordinary sleep.

So, ten minutes outside, and for Omi himself, it felt like it had taken tens of thousands of years.

When Omi opened his eyes, the concept of time naturally returned to reality.

Omi looked at the scene and noticed that the first round of elimination was actually not over yet, and many people were still grabbing the flag.

It seemed that if Captain Mingcheng hadn't let the water out, how could Omi have passed the first round so easily.

At this moment, the captain walked over to Omi.

"Captain, what is the matter?" Don Omi asked. One Second Remember to Read the Book

"Omi, did you just, feel like you were in a state, a wonderful state that felt like a long time had passed, but only a very short time had passed when you opened your eyes, yes?"

"Uh, Captain, how did you know?"

"Hehe, don't ask me how I know, anyway, that state you were in just now is hard to find in billions and desired by countless people, I never thought there would be a genius like you in my army. By the way, you've just trained the Shura Divine Blade, to what level?"

"86th floor."

"Eighty-six floors? And how many floors were you before?"

"Forty layers before that."

"Only ten minutes, you actually practiced so many layers, admiration, admiration, that ten minutes you just had, you feel like how long it's been."

"It felt like tens of thousands of years had passed, but the moment I opened my eyes I immediately felt that it was actually only ten minutes."

"Tens of thousands of years, tsk, tsk, awesome, I'm afraid, even my sister can't compare to you."The captain said.

"Your sister?"

"Oh, you don't know."

"Oh."Omi felt that Captain Mingcheng's sister must be a genius as well.

After Omi had trained the Shura Divine Sword to the 86th level, his strength had also increased by a large margin, if he could also train the Sun and Moon Divine Sword to the 80th level, then if he combined the two swords again, the power would definitely be extraordinary, the might might might even be comparable to practicing to the 150th level and above.Unfortunately, Omi swept a glance at the scene, and among those who were fighting, no one was displaying the Sun and Moon Divine Sword.

However, even if someone cast the Sun Moon Divine Sword, Omi might not still be able to enter that state again, just that state was unattainable, not whenever he wanted to enter that state.

After another ten minutes, the first round of elimination was finally over.

"Congratulations, you have entered the top twenty."The captain said to the twenty people who got the flag.

"Next, the competition for the top ten will take place, any of you, are not weak, but being a commander is not just about being strong, you must have the ability to command, the ability to command, and the ability to adapt on the spot, so, in the second round, there will be no more competition of who is strong."

"What? No more comparison of strength?"Everyone was shocked, completely unexpected, and everyone thought that the second round was the most important battle.

"That,

Than what?"

"In the second round, it's a competition between the ability to command, the ability to command, and the ability to adapt to change.Any objections from everyone?"

"But."

"I'm going to choose a commander, not a reckless man, in the first round, you all proved that you're not weak, there's no need to fight and end up hurting the peace.In the second round, you all use your brains, if you have no brains, no matter how strong you are, you won't meet my requirements."

"Whatever the captain says, I won't lose to anyone anyway."Shen Medicine said confidently.

"Well then, please take out a pen and paper immediately, I will now draw a battle map out, you will each describe, in this situation, how to lead a group for battle; how to command; how to face the strain of the scene, give me three answers."After saying that, the captain drew a military map in the void.

Everyone answered by themselves.

Omi's heart was secretly happy, it was an advantage for him instead, because his fighting strength was on the weak side, if he really relied on fighting, he might not be able to enter the top ten, after all, several mid-Dao Immortals took up half of the positions, mid-Dao Immortals, Omi could in any case incomparably make up for the gap in the realm.

Two hours later, everyone had finished answering.

The captain immediately asked his several assistants to judge, and each person's answers were sealed with their names, so there was no way to cheat.

Another hour later, a few assistants reported, "Report Captain, all twenty answers have been scored."

"Good, put the twenty answers in front of everyone, don't reveal the names yet, but make sure everyone is convinced before revealing the names."

"Yes."

Since we don't know who's, we won't bring our personal emotions, we can all only look at the content, whether we are convinced or not.

"For the first answer, regarding the ability to command, the first place can score 95 points; the second place, 80 points, and the third place, 79 points."The assistant laid out the twenty papers one by one, according to their scores.

The captain said, "Everyone, you also come up here and look at them together, if you feel that the score of that one paper is unreasonable and you are not convinced, feel free to bring it up, and only when everyone agrees will the names be revealed."

Omi and the others all came up to look.

The first thing everyone looked at was the first place, what answer could be scored 95.

As soon as Omi saw the first place one, he knew it was his answer.

"Haha, I actually scored 95 points."Omi was delighted inside, but Omi's face didn't move.

"First place, does anyone have any objections?"The captain asked.

Everyone shook their heads.

Shen Medicine said, "This first place is really very impressive, at least I'm convinced, I can't think of such a good plan for a commander."

"Me too."

The captain said, "Very good, then the first place is confirmed, go on to the second place."

Omi smiled in his heart, if Shen Medicine knew that the first place was Omi's, he would be the first to be unconvinced, that's why the captain didn't reveal the name.

After that, one by one, all the rolls were looked at, no one had any objections, even if there were a few objections, they had all been resolved.

"Next, let's look at the second one."

The second one, the answer on command ability.

The assistant spread out the twenty answers.

Everyone immediately went to the first one, which had 98 points written on it.

“Wow, that high.”
