

King of kings

Chapter 2296

Omi left the restaurant after finishing his drink with Ming Cheng, who returned to the barracks, while Omi, rejoined the place where he had looked for the Devil King earlier.

Omi wanted to try again.

So, Omi circled around this vicinity again.

"Hey, it seems that the Devil King is really in trouble."

However, at this moment, a voice suddenly came from Omi's ears, "Omi."

"Ah, Senior Demon King."

"Omi, I finally see you again."

"Senior Demon King, where the hell are you, ah? I've been looking for you for a long time."

"Didn't I tell you last time that I was locked up in a place called Gurnow Immortal House, and that the person who wanted the Immortal Machine Spitting Method was a lowly immortal named Gurnobar." The devil king said.

Omi said, "That's impossible, it should be the Leng Clan that's holding you."

"What Leng Clan?" One second to remember to read the book

"Senior Demon King, I followed what you said last time and turned backwards to the fifth Hanging Island, and went to this Hanging Island and found that there are only four families on it, two-thirds of which are occupied by the Leng Clan. I thought you were supposed to be in the Leng family."

"Ah, you're mistaken, my Immortal Sense can clearly scan right now, this hanging island I'm on, there's a Gurnow Immortal Palace, how is it different from what you said."

"Then you can see me now:"

"Yes, you're not far behind me now, it's this hanging island I'm on." The Devil King said.

Omi nodded and said, "That's right, this hanging island behind me is the one you said last time, but I've already inquired about it, and there are four families living on it, with the Leng family covering the largest area. There's definitely no Gurnow Immortal House you've mentioned, let alone heard of Gurnowba the Immortal."

"Ah this. What's going on."

The Devil King was surprised, why was the same place, what his immortal sense swept, and what Omi actually saw, completely different? Could it be that the Demon King's Immortal Sense Scan was wrong?

Or was.

Just then, the Demon King suddenly shouted, "No, it might be a trap, Omi, you should run."

"Senior Demon King, what's happening?" Don Omi was puzzled.

"Omi, in short, run."

"What the hell is going on?"

Omi felt blindfolded, what they saw didn't match and the Demon King told him to run.

Right now, at the Leng Clan.

"Third Master, just discovered, Li Jiudao has contacted that mysterious person again."

"Good, not in vain I've waited for so many years, he's finally appeared again, make sure to catch him."

"Third Master, don't worry, we didn't catch him in time last time, this time, I promise, it's absolutely possible, our people have locked on to him."

"Hmph, Li Jiu Dao, he really thinks we don't know anything, we already know that he's been contacting the Earth Immortal Realm to see if he can foster an Earth Immortal genius and finally save him. Unfortunately, he was too naive in his thinking, except that in the past, in the Earth Immortal Realm, the area was too vast for us to track his immortal consciousness, so we couldn't find anyone who contacted him. Now, however, the people he once fostered have become powerful and have entered the Immortal Realm, and, to a certain extent. As long as Li Jiudao has contacted that person within that certain range, we can lock down the other person's location and arrest both of them, hahaha."

"Third Master is wise, if Third Master is able to capture that person and force him to surrender the Immortal Spitting Method, you'll

After making a meritorious contribution to our family, the master will definitely reward you heavily."

"I'm afraid that the people Li Jiudao fosters are just as stubborn as Li Jiudao and will die without saying anything."

"Two people always have a better chance. Now that Li Jiudao, and I don't know that it was our Leng Family that captured him, when the Third Master set up a mental barrier, the Gouno Immortal Mansion that Li Jiudao's Immortal Sense saw was just a fake. In this world, there's no such thing as an Ancient Norse Immortal Mansion, it's just a mental barrier law, hahaha."

"Alright, quickly go and arrest that person that Li Jiu Dao fostered, it's time to end this matter."

"Yes."

At this moment, Omi was feeling baffled.

"Omi, run quickly."

At this moment, there was a sneering voice: "Run? Hugh."

Omi saw that a group of people had gathered around, and among this group of people was a low-level Immortal.

“Who are you guys?”

“Well, if you come with me you’ll know who we are.”

“Arrest them.”

A group of people immediately came around.

Omi cut down with his sword.

However, this group of people were too strong, Omi’s Heavenly Yuan Great Compassion Sword couldn’t hurt them at all, after all, it wasn’t at the same level at all, and there was still an Immortal, Omi was just a Xuan Immortal, and above the Xuan Immortals there were Tai Immortals, Golden Immortals, Da Luo Golden Immortals, and God Immortals.

Immortals were powerful because underneath them, no one could be an opponent, even if they were just ordinary immortals, because immortals mastered an ability that immortals didn’t have at all, and that was the power of God.

When Omi opened his eyes, he found that he was imprisoned in a dark and damp prison that was surrounded by a powerful ban, and he couldn’t get out unless his strength surpassed that of the person who placed the ban.

“Ah, where is this?” Omi was busy climbing up.

A voice came from Omi’s ear, “Stop shouting, it’s useless, I’ve been here for countless years.”

“Senior Demon King.” Omi immediately turned his head to see a man with a full beard, but not an old man, as his beard was caused by not cleaning it for a long time, he himself was not old, and yet he was still a middle-aged man.

“Omi, we have finally met in reality.”

“Senior Demon King, how are you.”

“Hahaha, I’m fine, but how are you.”

“I’m fine too, by the way, this place is?”

“Yes, this is the prison.”

“Ah.”

“Omi, you’ve been arrested, and I’m afraid we’ll have to keep each other company from now on.”

“Son of a bitch.” Omi was furious.

The Devil King laughed bitterly to, “I’m sorry, I’m the one who got you involved, and after all these years, my plan has officially failed. I also thought that I could nurture an Earth Immortal genius to finally help me out of the sea of misery, but I didn’t expect that I did nurture you up, but where so what, they are still skilled enough to capture you along with them, hahaha, hahaha."The Nine Dao Demon King laughed loudly.

"Senior Demon King, why are you so frustrated."

"Alas, little people like you and me can't fight them after all, you are now a Xuan Immortal, and I am now, still a Dao Immortal, you don't have to call me senior anymore, I'm the one who called you senior."

"Ah."Omi took a look, and sure enough, the Demon King was still a Dao Immortal, mid Dao Immortal.
