Gao Xiaolian found that this up, she was all said and done with a bit of a heartbeat.

In fact, Gao Xiaolian did think that her current life wasn't what she wanted, and if she could make a big splash, it wouldn't necessarily be better than muddling through it now.

"Xiao Yue, how's the consideration?"

"Shut up, who told you to call me Xiao Yue, you're a Golden Immortal brat, how dare you call me Xiao Yue." Gao Xiaolian yelled.

omi smiled, "You're my daughter-in-law, if I don't call you Xiao Yue do I have to call you senior ah."

"I'm one of the dozens of strongest war gods in the Immortal Realm, I'm your senior now, if you dare to be rude to me again, don't blame me for being rude."

"So then, you don't object to the fact that you're my daughter-in-law, la."

"Ew."

"I just said you're my daughter-in-law and you didn't even refute that, instead you're obsessing over the title of senior, psychologically speaking, you're yearning to be my daughter-in-law inside."

"You're looking for death."

Suddenly, omi took advantage of Gao Xiaolian's lack of attention and kissed her in one bite. One second to remember to read the book

"Ah." Gao Xiaolian shuddered and felt as if he was weak all over.

"Why is this happening, why is there no strength, and why is my body all soft." At this moment, Gao Xiaolian's heart was shocked, moreover, her body was getting softer and softer, she thought that omi had done something to her, but it immediately happened that this was his heartfelt weakness.

The first thing you need to know is how to get rid of the problem," he said.

No more details after that, skip a million words here.

A few hours later.

Gao Xiaolian was lying weakly on omi's chest, but there was no resentment on her face, instead, she was wearing a faint smile.

omi, on the other hand, was resting his hands on the back of his head, looking like he was at ease.

Gao Xiaolian raised her little fist and punched omi's chest gently twice, and said in a whiny voice, "You little villain, just like that, you've conquered, there's really nothing I can do with you."

"Hahaha." omi laughed in a series of smug laughs.

omi said, "Xiao Yue, do you admit to being my daughter-in-law now?"

"People are being like that to you, can I not admit it."

"Then you should think about it, being my daughter-in-law can be risky. In short, today you'll be my daughter-in-law, tomorrow I'll make you a fairy mother."

"Shh, keep your voice down."

"Whisper my ass, the Immortal Emperor doesn't know unless he happens to be at the door and he hears it."

"This is within the boundaries of the Fairy Realm, after all, it's not good to say such things so openly."

"Those who will all be Fairy Mothers from now on, look at this little bit of your outlook."

"Alright, alright, I'll listen to anything you say." High.

"Hehehe." omi said to himself, it seems that sometimes, being handsome isn't too bad.

At that moment, omi suddenly asked, "By the way, how's the French Dynasty? Is it gone?"

Gao Xiaolian said, "Not exactly counting it."

"What do you mean, not fully counted."

"Our Immortal Court and the Fa Dynasty, fought for seven days and seven nights, the Fa Dynasty's 100,000-odd troops were completely annihilated, most of the Immortal-level powerhouses also died, and the high ranking Battle Gods, the Fa Dynasty originally had seven or eight of them, but now they're almost dead, leaving only one Fa Wu Tian still escaped."

"Ah, that doesn't mean it's completely destroyed."

"Yes, you could say that, but a small part of the Fa Dynasty escaped, but the Immortal Emperor wasn't very happy because the Fa Wu Tian who the Immortal Emperor wanted him dead the most escaped."

omi sighed and wondered if Fa Lan

Miss is dead yet.

omi didn't ask Gao Xiaolian because she definitely didn't know who Miss Falan was, and besides, it was dangerous in case it made her jealous or something like that.

Gao Xiaolian asked, "Husband, what are you going to do now ah, take me away?"

"Anytime, yeah, but I have to teach the Immortal Emperor a lesson before I go."

"What do you mean?"

"I'll hide in the monolith, you take me to the fairy court, I want to take a sh*t in the fairy emperor's bed."

"Khan."

"What? You don't want to do me that favor?"

"But, it's too risky."

"How could it be, you carry me with you, the average person who sees that tablet won't even know what's there, and besides, with me there, the Immortal Emperor can't sense the tablet at all, and even right now if the Immortal Emperor senses you, he can't sense what you're doing right now."

"Then wouldn't I be in danger."

"What is the Immortal Emperor doing sensing you for good reason, the probability of that is very low, if he really sensed you, he would have appeared long ago."

"Also, there are so many immortals in the immortal world, it's always impossible for the Immortal Emperor to have nothing to do to sense one by one every day."

"When can you go to the Immortal Court?" omi asked.

"I don't get many chances to go to the Immortal Court, and I can't go there without being summoned by the Immortal Emperor, but I have a cousin who is a palace maid in the Immortal Court, and she goes to the Immortal Court every day for her rotation, and since she's too lowly and completely ignored by the Immortal Emperor in the lowest role, I think she's more suitable to take you into the Immortal Court."

"Okay, then she is, where is she?"

"But do you really want to do something so boring?"

"How can this be considered boring, think for yourself, when the Immortal Emperor wants to sleep, he lifts the covers and finds a pile of sht with a note underneath it, the note says, "omi came here to take a sht, how do you think the Immortal Emperor feels?"

"Pfft." Gao Xiaolian couldn't help but laugh, it was indeed amusing, but it was too childish, but omi liked to do that, she supported it.

"Go on then, and be safe."

"Don't worry."

The next day, Gao Xiaolian brought the tablet with her to her cousin's residence. The place where Gao Xiaolian's cousin lived was also in Gao Xiaolian's house.

"Cousin, you came to see me." A little girl said happily.

This little girl, with an average appearance, far less durable than Gao Xiaolian, and even ordinary, this kind of girl was really not easy to attract anyone's attention.

omi saw Gao Xiaolian's cousin through the stone tablet.

Gao Xiaolian Yue took out a belt and said, "Yun, this is for you."

Behind this belt, there was a button-sized gray stone that looked like it was embedded with a gemstone.

This item was the stone tablet that omi had changed from.

Originally, omi thought that the stone tablet was too big, but he didn't expect that he could change it into any shape just by chanting the incantation.

"Thank you, cousin."

"Tie it on."

"Mmhmm."

The one called Yun, happily tied the belt.

"Yun, are you going to Xian Court today?"

"Yeah, I'm taking my shift at night."

"Well, do a good job."

"Don't worry, cousin, I won't embarrass you."

"Go ahead."

That afternoon, omi entered the Immortal Court through Xiao Yun.
