"Hmph, you don't even know me, it seems that you're really young enough, you've entered the relic in the last few hundred million years, right?"

"Exactly, I don't know senior's honorable name." Omi asked in fear, if these three people wanted to kill Omi, Omi would have to do the same old trick and hide in the Qiankun stone.

"Listen, my name is Huang Xue, his name is Fu Rong, and his name is Dagger."

Omi was shocked, the three of them, they were from the four factions of the Evil God Relic.

"Omi pays his respects to the three seniors."

"Yo, kid, you're quite polite."

"Uh, huh."

"However, politeness is politeness, damn it, and death." The man called Huang Xue said.

"What? Senior, why did you want to kill me." Omi was depressed.

"Because, one more person in the Evil God Relic is one less hope for everyone. Knife, slaughter him." Huang Xue instructed a woman behind him called Knife Blade.

"Yes, Boss Huang." One Second Remember to Read the Book

In his heart, Omi raged, "Sure enough, there's not a single good person in the Evil God Relic, heh."

Omi could only continue to use the old method and suddenly shouted to their backs, "Boss, they want to kill me."

Huang Xue, Fu Rong, and Daggerblade, immediately turned around and found no one there, then turned their heads in anger and found that Omi had already disappeared.

"What? How did he escape?" The three of them were shocked.

This was in the space of the Evil God's relic, and the perception ability couldn't be compared to the outside world, which was why they had been fooled by Omi's little trick and thought that someone was really behind it.

"Search, search him out immediately." Huang Xue ordered.

Thus, it took Omi several years before he finally managed to leave the Evil God's Relic.

After leaving the Evil God Relic, Omi immediately went to the depths of the South China Sea.

Half a year later, Omi was once again standing in an uninhabited area at the edge of the South China Sea.

Omi looked at the Kam-blue sea surface and suddenly rushed into the bottom of the sea.

At the bottom of the sea, Omi dived for a long, long time, and finally, he once again arrived at the deep relics of the sea that he had come to before.

Only, unlike last time, this time, Omi didn't fall into a coma as soon as he arrived at this ruin.

Omi was standing in a ruined ruin hall.

The last time Omi was here, he fantasized countless things, what kind of women with shaved scalps, disappearing statues, suddenly appearing portraits of himself and so on, this time, Omi didn't feel those visions anymore, Omi's mind was clear.

Omi sat down in this ruined relic hall, then closed his eyes.

Omi allowed his body and mind to remain in the state of three no-space.

Just then, Omi felt the sound of footsteps coming from his ears.

The footsteps were clear, as if someone was coming.

However, Omi did not open his eyes.

The footsteps seemed to have reached behind Omi's back.

Then, it stopped behind Omi's back.

Then, a voice sounded behind Omi, "Kid, you're here again."

Omi's pores suddenly shrank, but, Omi still did not open his eyes.

Omi tried to say, "Who are you? Why do you say again?"

"Oh boy, the last time you came here, it's just that at that time you were very weak and you couldn't handle the space here, so you fell unconscious. The illusions you saw here when you were unconscious were, in fact, not fake, they were all real."

"What, real? The woman who shaved her head, is that true too?"

"Yes, the woman who shaved her scalp, that's me."

"Ah." Omi shouted in fright, but still, Omi didn't open his eyes.

"Don't be afraid, kid, it's true, but that was a long, long time ago, and what you're seeing and hearing now is just a will I left behind before my demise."

"Will?"

"Yes."

"What do you mean you perished, senior?"

"It is that I am long dead, and now everything is just a little will I had in life, young man, and I'm sure that when you saw me, the Celestial World was already restored."

"I don't understand, what is the Celestial World?"

"Don't you understand? well, after all, we're too far apart. Is there anything you want me to answer you about, young man? The fact that you can see my will means that you're still quite strong."

Omi said, "Senior, may I ask why I couldn't sense you before?"

"You used to be weak, right."

"Well, you just said perish, why did you perish?"

"There is a powerful extra-planar Heavenly God Team that entered our Heavenly World and plundered it, moreover, it broke our Heavenly World, and now, the Heavenly World is gradually collapsing, and our extinction is inevitable."

"What? The Celestial God Team, how come I've never heard of it."

"We also encountered it for the first time, that Heavenly God Team, there were two gods, our Heavenly World, there was no god that could resist them, so one of them, one of their gods, shattered the Heavenly World with a single punch."

"Understood." At this moment, Omi seemed to understand a little bit in his heart why the previous ones perished.

Omi was busy asking, "Senior, I have now discovered an evil god relic, do you know what it is?"

"Relic of the Evil One? Evil God I know, it's a friend of mine, he's one of the gods of our Sky World, he calls himself Evil God." The voice behind Omi said.

Omi was busy saying, "Your friend."

"Yes, there aren't many gods in the Sky World, the Evil God is considered to be one of the more powerful ones, you just said Evil God Relic, right?"

"Yes."

"Looks like the Evil God is dead too, and managed to leave a little something behind, huh?" The voice laughed bitterly.

Omi said, "In the Evil God's ruins, there was the will left behind by the Evil God, but now, many of us here can't find that will, you know?"

"I don't know, but you were able to sense me, so that means that our plan, in the first place, worked?" The voice behind him said.

"What do you mean, Senior?"

The voice said, "Oh, I didn't expect that our original plan really succeeded, hahaha, good, good, our Heavenly World, at last, it's not completely extinct, there's still hope."

"Senior, can you make it clearer?"

"Of course, our Heavenly World, the world was shattered by the alien celestial team, it was inevitable that the world would collapse, but we would not be willing, all the gods of our Heavenly World were trying to find a way. However, the collapsing world is not something we can fix, but all of us, all the gods of the Sky World, still unwillingly united and created a 'protection plan', we put some infant seeds and buried them in the Sky World plan. We believed that after the collapse of the Sky World, someday long, long in the future, it would definitely still gradually merge, revive and survive again, so the first batch of our plan preserved ten people, which were the descendants of the ten gods of the Sky World. If the plan was successful, there would be a second batch, a third batch, a fourth batch, and a fifth batch. In this way, the reintroduced Heavenly World will not be completely extinct, and there will still be payoffs."

"Oh, I see." Omi seemed to completely understand.
