Chapter 2456

However, it didn't matter, Omi's main goal was just to obtain the Heart of the Hong Meng, and he didn't care if he could sense other people's past lives or not.

Omi immediately closed his eyes and closed his door in place.

Nian Tian, on the other hand, could only temporarily pretend that he was still an Immortal Emperor.

Omi sensed that there were many powerful wills coming from the Heart of the Hong Meng, some gentle, some courageous, and some resolute, all of them had their own understanding of God.

It was just that there were too many, and it was difficult for Omi to digest them in a short period of time.

Through the wills of the gods, Omi discovered that originally, the so-called Three Noes were the space between the universes, if I didn't master the Three Noes, then I couldn't enter the universe.

To put it bluntly, mastering the Three Nothing Spaces, going to outer space is easy as pie.

With this will of the gods, Omi's strength was rising fast.

Three days later, Omi's condensing power, reached three horses.

Half a month later, Omi's condensation reached four horsepower.

Three months later, the condensation reached five horses. The first website m.kanshu8.net

One year later, Omi's coagulation reached six horses.

Three years later, Omi's condensation reached seven.

At this level, it was already on par with the strongest of those in the Evil God Relic.

Ten years later, Omi's Three No Realm Condensation reached eight horsepower.

Omi, with ease, stood at the pinnacle of the world.

None of those people in the Evil God's Relic were a match for Omi, and their strongest only reached seven-horse condensation.

"Hahaha, hahaha." Omi laughed heartily, only ten years after obtaining the Heart of the Hong Meng, he had reached eight horse condensation, who else was there?

Moreover, this was just the tip of the iceberg of digesting the Will of the Gods.

If he waited for Omi to completely digest the will of the gods, then even if he couldn't become a god, it would be almost the same.

Omi did not continue, but stopped to properly relax.

Omi perceived the Three Realms and found that some parts were a bit messed up, so he fixed it with a thought. It wasn't at all as difficult as the previous Immortal Emperor had said, and it seemed that it had something to do with strength or weakness.

"Immortal Emperor, you've finished your retreat." Nian Tian walked in and asked Omi, his heart quite complicated.

Omi said, "Niantian, go inform everyone and come to court tomorrow to officially announce my identity as Immortal Emperor."

"Yes. That, Immortal Emperor, you said before that you wanted me to help you manage the Immortal Court, this matter?" Immortal Emperor asked.

An Immortal Realm was so big, although there were some things that had to be handled by Omi, there were many, many more things that could be hired to handle, otherwise what was the point of having so many Immortal Officials in the Immortal Court.

Omi smiled and said, "This, well said."

"Immortal Emperor, then how about, you make me the President of the Immortal Court, after all, I have been an Immortal Emperor for so many years, everything is very familiar."

Omi shook his head, "This, let's say again, I still have so many relatives and offspring at home, they're bored with cultivating all the time, so why not arrange for them to do something."

"Oh." The Immortal Emperor looked lost.

If Omi was the emperor, then the president of the court would be at least equal to the prime minister or something.

Omi said to himself, "How could he give such a powerful Immortal Officer to Nian Tian, it would be nice to just appoint him as a general."

Omi.

He wasn't told that he could go and inherit the Evil God Relic, otherwise, the Immortal Emperor, even if he was stupid, could improve much, much more.

This opportunity, Omi still took Nianzhi with him, good things still had to be given to his own people, although, Nianzhi and he hadn't established a relationship yet.

Omi immediately returned to his own home and called all of his closest family members over.

More than twenty wives, naturally, needless to say, as well as his brothers, and his children, such as Feng Qin Nui and so on, dozens of people, gathered in the main hall.

At a glance, Mu Qianji could see that Omi's aura had changed much, much more, and there was an air of being too high up to look up to.

Omi smiled and said, "Everyone, don't look at me like that."

Ao Scuttle was the first to say, "Omi, why do you suddenly feel, unable to look up to you? It feels like you've become a thousand times stronger."

"Hahaha." Omi laughed, "Ao Ba, you have good eyes."

The divine nun said, "Don't sell out, everyone in this room can see what you've been through."

Omi told all about his trip to the Evil God's Ruins, the strange encounters he encountered, and how he came back and directly became an Immortal Emperor, gaining the will of the gods and reaching eight horse condensation in strength.

"Ah." The room full of people were incredulous.

As the saying goes, people are happy when they are happy, Omi laughed and said, "Now, even though I haven't become a god yet, I'm already the most powerful person in this world. Tomorrow, you will all go to the Nine Heavens Xuan Temple, and I will reshuffle the personnel structure of the Immortal Court."

"What do you mean?"

"Don't you understand, if the Immortal Court is likened to a court, I am the Emperor, under the Emperor there are also the Prime Minister, and so on and so forth officials, I'm going to put my relatives, into various positions, the whole Immortal Court."

Li Xuan'er didn't quite understand, and asked, "But then, will we lose the people's support, will people be displeased?"

"Hahaha, so what if you're not convinced? This is a world where strength is paramount, I have a table on the structure of Immortal Officials here, you guys take it and study it, whoever is interested in being an official of any kind, feel free to bring it up."

Omi waved his hand, and each person obtained a table in their hands.

There were many, many Immortal Officials in the Immortal Court, just the number of Immortal Official positions above the fourth rank was over ten thousand.

If all the positions from one to nine grades were listed, there would be at least 100,000 positions, not including ordinary celestial soldiers.

Song Yu'er suddenly said, "Omi, I want to be the director of the Immortal Court's Singing and Dancing Division."

Song Yu'er was still more interested in singing and dancing.

Omi nodded, "Of course you can, but this Director of the Singing and Dancing Division, this official position is only plus six, are you sure?"

"Of course, I don't care about the number of characters, it's mainly because I'm interested in myself, besides, there are also thousands of immortal world singers for me to control under this Song and Dance Division, hehe, all the songs and dances you'll see in the future are from my hands, I'll bring all kinds of dances from the mortal world to the immortal court, hehe." Song Yu'er said excitedly.

Omi smiled: "According to you."

Li Xuan'er said, "Omi, actually, it's really tiring to cultivate every day, if there's a job, it could really be better. Then I'll choose the Three Realms Hundred Flowers Bureau."

Omi nodded, "Not bad, quite suitable for your interest, being in charge of the Three Realms Hundred Flowers, I hope that when the time comes, under your management, every place in the Three Realms will be filled with the fragrance of flowers."

"Mhmm." Li Xuan'er was excited.

Omi looked at Little Fire and asked, "Little Fire, what about you? What do you want to do?"
