

King of kings

Chapter 2512

"My name is Oya, the winner of the sixty horse Nakagami group."The woman said with an easy face.

omi said, "What do you want?"

"If you can defeat me, I'll recognize you as having successfully crossed forty horses, otherwise, I won't."

omi said, "Then let's just pretend that I crossed level thirty-nine, it's not like I have to be forty, I crossed level thirty-nine and I'm still the best in the universe."

"Wind Lightning, I didn't expect you to be so gutless."

"Sorry, I'm tired today, if you really want to have a high resolution with me, please another day, at that time, I will definitely accompany you."

"Good, some other day, I will definitely come to you."

omi said to Old Sang, "Master, let's go back."

"Good, the Super Banquet is almost over anyway."

omi left with Old Sang in full view of the crowd.

After leaving, Old Sang asked, "Wind Lightning, are you alright?" One second to remember to read the book

"It's fine, it's just that I'm powerless, I need to take a break."

At the scene of the Super Banquet, the host said, "Ladies and Gentlemen, the second round of the Divine Martial Competition, the over the top competition, seems to be unnecessary, it is definitely impossible for anyone to surpass Wind Lightning, of course, if anyone thinks they can surpass Wind Lightning, please come forward, if not, then this session of the Super Banquet, this is the end."

After waiting for a while, no one came forward.

"Everyone disperse, we'll see you at the next Super Banquet."

The crowd dispersed.

omi and Old Sang, soon returned home.

Old Sang looked at the trophies of several champions and laughed, "This time, it's really out of the ordinary, Wind Lightning, I really have to thank you."

"Khan, mutual thanks."

"No, I haven't given you any so far, and you, on the other hand, have given me so much glory."

"Er." It also seemed that Old Sang hadn't even started cultivating omi or anything, and even if omi was willing to marry Ah Luo right now, then the committed relationship between Old Sang and omi would be complete.

"Senior Sang, if it wasn't for you taking me to the Super Banquet, I'd still be a hunter in Miss Ah Luo's Per Beast Butcher Shop."

"Let's not talk about that, when will you recover? I'll have to figure out how to train you soon."

"Give me three days."

"Good."

omi immediately went to retreat.

During these three days of recuperation, omi carefully studied the divine Power Booster. He could probably supercharge over forty horses of divine power, only, after supercharging, his body would be very weak, this was something omi could not avoid, divine power supercharging was somewhat similar to the life blood he had once hidden.

Three days later, omi walked out of the secret room.

"Senior Sang, I'm fine."

"Wind Light Cloud, I want to talk to you about something now."

"You say."

"Now that people think you're my disciple, how about you continue to call me master, of course, I'm not taking advantage of you, simply because I don't want outsiders to be suspicious."

"Of course, Master."

"Well then, from today onwards, I'll start cultivating you, but I must tell you in advance that not everyone can cultivate, if it's someone with poor chance, no matter how much you cultivate, it's useless. Moreover, having become a god, if you want to continue to be stronger, you can't rely on any external objects, except yourself."

omi said, "Then how did you become God Emperors in the first place?"

"In the beginning, and after countless years, every time we appeared in the Cosmic Divine Pattern, the Little by little, it accumulated. The Cosmic Divine Pattern is the only external object that I assist in growing. People are selfish, so the Super Banquet, only those from the God Emperor Family can attend, and those from non-God Emperor Families don't have the chance to attend, so they don't get to see the Cosmic Divine Pattern, and lose the greatest aid of all."

"Understood, you let me continue to call you master, there must be a reason for that as well."

"Yes, actually, Wind Lightning, if I were you, there would be no rush to enhance it, with your potential, you just need to attend every Super Banquet on time, feel the Cosmic God Pattern, and in time, you can become a God Emperor. This time, you grew forty horses of divine power, what about the next time? What about next time? Accumulating like this, it's completely within reach for you to become a God Emperor."

omi said, "Unfortunately, I don't like being weak, I can still attend the next Super Banquet, and I'm going to go ahead with the calendar as usual, so why not do both."

"Oh, go on the adventure, you have to be prepared for death."

"Sure."

"Go."

omi immediately followed Old Sang and left the house.

"Master, where are we going?"

"Go to the Kamigahara Youlin."

"What is the Divine Plains You Forest?"

"It's the place with the most Cosmic Divine Beasts, and there are only two ways to improve, fight, fight, and keep fighting, or, wait for the Cosmic Divine Pattern. However, waiting for the Cosmic Goddess Tattoo is the next best thing after all. Because no one can be sure that one will always get something out of it. You, for example, might gain nothing from the next Cosmic Godmark."

"Oh."

omi soon arrived at the Divine Plains You Forest.

However, what omi didn't expect was that many wooden houses had been built on the outskirts of the Divine Plains You Forest, as if many people lived here, completing like a spontaneously formed big city.

"Master, why are there so many people?"

"Oh, it's not strange, since you all want to improve through practice, other people want to do the same, and over time, more people will come here, and then it will evolve like a small city. Let's find an inn to stay at first."

"Good."

Unexpectedly, there was an inn, and omi was speechless.

"Xiao Er, is there any room left?"

"I'm sorry, guest, but there's no room." The inn.

"I don't care what you say, prepare a room for me immediately."

"Guest, there's really no room."

At that moment, the innkeeper came out and busily said, "Greetings to Old Sang God Emperor."

"Yoho, know me."

"How could Old Sang God Emperor not know me?"

"Don't be so friendly, give me two rooms."

"Old Sang God Emperor forgive me, there really aren't any more rooms, however, the guest in one of the rooms hasn't returned for more than half a month and has most likely died, if you don't mind, you can stay in that room."

Old Sang said to omi, "What do you think?"

"I'm fine with that."

Just at this moment, "Boss, the guest in room 008 has checked out."

As soon as the shop owner heard this, he was busy saying to Old Sang and omi, "Two guests, exactly one guest has checked out, including the one who just might have died and didn't come back, there are already two rooms."

"Take us there immediately."

"Yes yes yes."

Old Sang was taken to room 008, while omi, was taken to room 019.

This room, omi, was the same room where the previous tenant might have died.
