

Chapter 951

“What for?” Mu Qianji was holding Omi, and not too far after he walked in, a strong man from the mid Unity Realm rushed out.

“What are you doing? Who told you to break into Master Eugens’ mansion.”

Mu Qianji said indifferently, “Where is Eugens?”

“What are you? I asked you why you broke into Eugens’ mansion.”

“Never mind who I am, I’m just telling you to get Eugens out here right now, or don’t blame me for being rude.”

“Buzz.” After saying that, Mu Qianji’s sword slashed across, cutting off the other party’s hair in the blink of an eye.

The other party trembled and said nothing, immediately returning to the backyard to deliver a message.

Not long after, an old man came out with an angry face.

“What kind of people, dare to cause trouble in my house.” That old man said angrily.

“Buzz.” In the next second, a sword was laid across his neck length.

Mu Qianji said coldly, “This is my younger brother, he is suffering from mental reversal, thus causing his brain to degenerate, his current IQ is only a child of a few years old, you heal him, if you can’t, I’ll kill you.” One second to remember to read the book

Eugens was furious, but with a knife across his neck, he was a healer and certainly not in martial arts, not to mention that Mu Qianji was still a Unity Realm Completion level. Mu Qianji was now at the first level of Unity Realm Perfection.

“Don’t challenge my patience, kill you, I can still find other healers past you, and you only have one life.”

“Phew.” Eugens took a deep breath and used his gaze to hint at the man standing next to him, as if hinting that the man was going to move help, this was the imperial capital of the Moonless Empire, there were many powerful people, even the king of the Moonless Empire lived here, so as long as he could move help, killing Mu Qianji would be easy.

However, Mu Qianji instantly saw what Eugens was trying to do.

“Swoosh.” In the next second, the man fell down.

“Do you want him to move help, don’t fantasize, you only have to treat my brother honestly now, there’s no second way.”

About halfway through the diagnosis, “Your brother’s problem is too complicated, the brain is supposed to be the hardest part, so I can’t treat it.”

“I told you, if you can’t cure it, I’ll kill you.”

“Even if you were to kill me, I can’t cure it. But I can show you a clear path.”

“Moon City’s Green Willow Alley, my senior brother lives there, he can definitely cure it.”

“Seriously.”

“Don’t you know from going there that my brother’s skills far surpass mine, he surely can,” Eogens said.

Mu Qianji was confused, she wasn’t someone who was easily fooled, previously in that ruined town, the tavern owner’s wife said that the number one healer of the Moonless Empire was Eogens, and if Eogens really had a brother who was much more powerful than him, then it was impossible for the tavern owner’s wife, who was a local, to not know that.

Therefore, Mu Qianji highly suspected that this Eogens was playing a conspiracy trick, after all, Mu Qianji had killed someone here and threatened him, and Eogens had just attempted to get someone to move help, so the possibility of him playing a conspiracy trick now was extremely high.

But, this matter concerns Omi, so even though he suspects that Eogenes is playing conspiracy tricks, Mu Qianji still has to go to find out what’s going on.

“Well, you take us there.”

“I am not free, I can give you a letter of recommendation, my elder brother will certainly treat your younger brother when he sees the recommendation.”

“No need, you go with us, there is a carriage outside, now get me into it at once.”

“Okay.” Eugens nodded, but his face was calm, causing Mu Qianji to wonder if he really had an older brother who was better than him.

Mu Qianji forced Eugens to get into the carriage at the entrance and headed somewhere.

“Up ahead is where my senior brother lives, my senior brother has a low profile, so not many people know about him.”

“Pah.” Mu Qianji nudged Eugens in one swift motion.

“Ugh.” Eugens was stunned, seemingly not expecting that there would still be people who could do the legendary pointing method, the pointing method, which was almost extinct.

Mu Qianji said, “Follow me inside and find that senior brother of yours.”

“Good.” Eugens nodded very quickly and seemed to have the look of a confident man, he either really had a senior brother, or his senior brother could completely spike Mu Qianji.

Mu Qianji brought Omi with him and entered the hidden mansion in front together.

As soon as Mu Qianji walked through the door, he sensed that this was by no means a place where healers lived, as there was no smell of medicine here at all, but instead there was the smell of some poisonous snakes and fierce beasts.

Mu Qianji snorted internally, “There is indeed a deception here, no wonder Eugens is so confident, this is the residence of a poison master, and also, a very strong poison master, but unfortunately, this lady has been playing with poison since birth, I would like to see how powerful this poison master is.”

Mu Qianji directly walked in, generally speaking, one had to be very careful where a Poison Arts Master existed, because if one wasn't careful, one wouldn't even know how they were poisoned or even how they died.

However, Mu Qianji walked in without any hesitation.

When Eugens saw that Mu Qianji went in without any hesitation, he snorted in his heart, "My senior brother is the Moon Never Falling Empire, the number one poison master, if you dare to come and threaten and kill my guards, I will make you pay."

After walking into the gate of the residence, Mu Qianji immediately smelled a smell in the air that was extremely difficult to perceive, but Mu Qianji was an expert at playing with poison, and this kind of little trick was too small.

The way in along the door has been in, to a small hall, here there is another smell, this smell and the smell smelled at the door, interacting with each other, will generate a poison in the body, making people weak. Mu Qianji instantly judged that this poison master had adjusted the ratio so precisely, showing that the poison art was extraordinary.

"Senior brother, senior brother, your healing skills are better than mine, help me heal a person." Eugens shouted.

Not long after, an equally old man came out.

When that old man heard the voice, he knew that his senior brother was being coerced, after all, his senior brother was weak in martial arts and had been coerced before, then brought here, he easily helped his senior brother take care of the other person, after all, he was the number one Poison Master of the Moonless Empire, a fifteen-grade Poison Master, even though the Moonless Empire had two fifteen-grade Poison Masters, another fifteen-grade Poison Master was not as good as him at all.

"Brother, someone has asked me to cure you again." The old man who came out smiled.

“Yes, senior brother, this woman, suddenly came to my door and asked me to treat my brother, if I couldn’t cure him, she would kill me, unfortunately ah, I can’t do anything about it, thinking that senior brother’s medical skills are higher than mine, so I brought him here and begged senior brother to help me treat him.”

“Hahaha, don’t worry, senior brother will help you cure him properly.”

The two of them were playing riddles there, thinking that Mu Qianji didn’t know anything, unbeknownst to them, Mu Qianji already knew from the moment he entered the door.

Inwardly, Mu Qianji said, “Fine, then let me see who treats whom.”

Without moving a muscle, he slipped out a tiny pill from his inner sleeve, and with a shock of his inner strength, the smell of the pill emitted into the air, and Mu Qianji emitted several pills in succession.

That poison art master on the other side, seemed to be completely unaware that his poison gas structure had been silently modified by Mu Qianji and, turned into the poison gas that Mu Qianji had laid down, backstabbing his guests.

Mu Qianji’s poisonous technique far surpassed this fifteen-grade poison master.

And Omi, suddenly said, “Sister, little minister has no strength left.”

Mu Qianji said, “Little Minister, what’s wrong with you?”

“Sister, little minister has to, has to sit down.” After saying that, Omi’s legs fell weakly to the ground.

Mu Qianji wasn’t worried, but it was just in her expectation.

Mu Qianji also pretended to be poisoned, oops, and went down to the ground. The first website
m.kanshu8.net

“How come I don’t have the strength.” Mu Qianji said falsely, but even with the fake appearance, the other two even believed it and laughed.

Eugenson was furious, “You bitch, you dared to threaten me and killed one of my door boys and one of my guards, if I hadn’t been clever enough to trick you into coming to my senior brother’s house, I don’t know what would have happened to you. Do you think that my senior brother is really a better healer than me, no, he is a poison master, the number one poison master of the Moonless Empire.”

Mu Qianji snorted, “Good First Poison Artificer of the Moon Never Falling Empire.”

That first Poison Art Master laughed, “Little bitch, it’s your bad luck to fall into my hands today, I’m sure you still don’t know, you were hit by the unique poison I developed, called Smell the Wind, your nerves have been completely paralyzed, you feel powerless, no matter how high your martial arts skills are, it’s useless, I, Old Toad, can even deal with a strong man of the Unity Realm, let alone you, this littleBitch.”

“Brother, this little bitch almost killed me, can’t keep it, it’s a foreigner from nowhere anyway, just kill it.” Eogens said.

That poison master called Toad Old Ghost, however, shook his head and laughed, “No, it would be a pity to kill it, look at this little bitch, she’s so beautiful looking, if I were still young, I’m sure I would be tempted. It would be a pity to kill her like this, why don’t, offer her to His Majesty Moon Mang.”

Eugens looked at Mu Qianji and said, "Well, the looks are indeed tender, His Majesty Moon Mang is lustful by nature and highly skilled in martial arts, it would be best to offer her to him, it would also strengthen our brothers and sisters' position in Moon City as a result. Although we are the first Healing Master and the first Poison Master, it's just a pity that we are poor in martial arts after all, it's hard for us to truly command the respect of those top powerhouses."

"Hahaha." Old Toad and Eugens laughed loudly.

Just at this moment, Mu Qianji's voice suddenly rang out behind the two of them, "Had enough laughing?"

"Uh." Toad Old Ghost and Eugens were stunned, busy looking at the ground in front of them, where there was still the figure of Mu Qianyi falling on the ground, they immediately turned back, Mu Qianyi never knew when, standing behind them went.

"You, didn't you fall in front of us?"

Mu Qianyi.

Hmph: "With this little poison art, you still want to deal with me, and you don't even look at your own catty."

"That's impossible, I'm a fifteen-ranked Poison Art Master."

"Hahaha, is a fifteen-grade Poison Art Master very powerful? Listen up, my lady is a sixteen-grade poisoner."

"Ah, sixteen pins, sixteen pins, the legendary sixteen pins?"

“Or what? I have changed the structure of the poisonous gas you have laid down, and now, the air in this hall is poisoned, and you all have been poisoned, but unfortunately, you don’t know it yet.”

“You’re farting.”

The two of them were busy raising their palms, and at some point, there was a blood red mark on their palms that looked extremely disgusting.

“Ah, this is.”

“You, as a fifteen-grade poison master, don’t you know? You already have a short time to live, no one can live past three days after being poisoned by me.”

“How is it possible, you, you’re really a sixteen-grade poisoner? As far as I know, in this world, there is no such thing as a sixteen-grade poison master, not even a healer or a mesmerizer, it’s impossible.”

Mu Qianji snorted, “Whether I am or not means nothing to you, just prepare to accept death.”

“Ah.” Old Toad’s face was pale, as well as Eogens, he never expected that this young woman’s attainment in poisoning would far surpass his senior brother’s and reach the legendary sixteen-grade.

In fact, Mu Qianji hadn’t reached the level of a sixteen-grade poison master at all, however, Mu Qianji had definitely surpassed all the fifteen-grade poison masters in this world as well, and Mu Qianji also believed that she wouldn’t need a few years to reach a sixteen-grade poison master.

Mu Qianji walked up to Omi and slapped Omi on the back, Omi protruded a mouthful of blood and then regained his strength.

Toad Old Ghost and Eogens also learned to give a pat on the back, but unfortunately, it had no effect.

Mu Qianji said, "Eugens, don't blame me for not giving you a chance, I gave you the chance to heal my brother for me, I gave you a chance to live, but unfortunately, you don't know how to cherish it, and you have to take one of your brother's lives, you will die together, I won't kill you either, the poison on your body, you will die after three days, take your time to enjoy the coming of death."

"No, don't go, I'm begging you, give me another chance."

"Give you another chance? Didn't you say you couldn't cure my brother?"

"No, I, I didn't actually diagnose it properly at all, and while your brother's mental revolt is really overbearing, it's not impossible if you try your best, please, give me a chance to fight, please." Eugens kowtowed.

Mu Qianji hesitated and said, "Okay, I'll give you a life-renewing antidote, this life-renewing antidote will keep you from dying for fifteen days, after fifteen days, you will surely die."

"Thank you."

Mu Qianji immediately gave them a slap on the back, they each vomited a mouthful of blood, but the bloody marks on their hands did not disappear, they felt disappointed and frightened.

"It's just that there's only one fight left." Eugens said.

Old Toad Ghost asked, "Brother, honestly, how sure are you of this?"

Eugens said bitterly, "Less than a point."

"Ah." Old Toad's face went white, wouldn't that be, their hope of survival, less than one point.

"How could it be so hard."

"Senior brother, the spirit reversal in this kid is incomparably overbearing, although I didn't diagnose it carefully, I have roughly diagnosed it, it's simply not something ordinary people can do, although I'm a fifteen-grade healing master, but it's something that involves nerves as well as the brain, it's really unpredictable ah. In fact, if I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed that he would still be alive after such a tyrannical spirit revolt. It's a miracle in itself that he's still alive, and now that I'm allowed to heal, it's so hard that I'm talking nonsense when I say one point of hope."

"Ah." Old Toad's ghost was sweating coldly.

Mu Qianji heard Eugens' words and said, "So, you have no healing ability at all, in that case, I don't want to waste my time, you guys go to hell."

"No, heroine, please, give us hope, I want to fight, please."

"Fine, I'll give you a hope to fight, it's also a hope for my brother, if you can't be cured, there's no point in you living."

The two old ghosts were depressed, did they live just to treat Don Omi.

For the rest of the day, Eugens was seriously diagnosing Omi.

"It's been a day already, how much longer do you need to diagnose?" She has been suppressing the hostility within her, and this Eugenes has been diagnosing Omi for a day and is still frowning, so it makes Mu Qianji feel very irritated and the hostility within her grows stronger. Remember the website .kanshu8.net

Beside him, the old ghost of Toad urged, "Brother, hurry up and bring out a cure, if you don't bring out a cure, I'm afraid we'll both die."

"Ahhh, stop it." Eugenes hissed in pain, in fact he didn't even have a single thought, he couldn't even bring out a random treatment plan.

"Buzz." Mu Qianji was completely out of patience, not being able to come up with a single treatment idea for a day was a complete waste of time, so, a sword kill.

"Wait, I've thought of a way." Eugenes was busy yelling.

"Say, what way."

"The way is, the way is, the way is." Eugenes was sweating, but, nothing was said about the way.

"Say it."

At that moment, Eugenes remembered that the Moonless Empire had a treasure, the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, which even the king didn't dare to take because, it was something that the emperor had been reluctant to take, and the emperor planned to take the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng in the future when he sensed a state of mind that surpassed the Unity Realm, and maybe he could surpass the Unity Realm in one fell swoop.

In a hurry, Eugens had no choice but to say, "I know how to treat it, the Moonless Empire has a Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, if your younger brother can take this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, he will definitely be able to recover, so now you must find a way to enter the palace and steal this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, then make a medicinal primer and give it to your younger brother to take."

"Ten Thousand years of ginseng?" Mu Qianji's eyebrows raised, a ten thousand year old ginseng, this was definitely an extraordinary treasure.

"Yes."

"Where is the Ten Thousand Year Old Ginseng?"

"In the palace, it is rumored that this is the Supreme Emperor preparing to hit the next mystical realm in the future

When, used to assist."

"I'm asking you what it takes to get this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng."

"I don't know about that, but this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng is the number one treasure of our Moonless Empire, it's not that easy to get it, girl, you'd better give up, it's not that I won't save your brother, it's because without this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng as a medicinal primer, it's really impossible to cure ah. If the girl can get the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, then I will definitely have the confidence to cure your brother."

"Good, then I'll go steal out the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng."

"Good, then I'll wait for you to get it back." Eugenes tapped inside and said under his breath, "Silly woman, the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng is used by our Supreme Emperor, one of the world's thirty strongest pinnacle powerhouses to strike the next realm, and you want to steal it, wait for your death."

Mu Qianji also knew that if she really wanted to enter the palace to steal the Moonless Empire's number one greatest treasure, the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, I'm afraid it would be dangerous, but no matter how dangerous it was, Mu Qianji was going to steal it and give it to Omi to use, even if this Eugens was lying to her, she would steal this Ten Thousand Year Ginseng for the sake of even the slightest hope.

"Listen to me, you two, take good care of my brother, I'm going to enter the palace to steal the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng."

"Fine, fine, don't worry, we will definitely serve your brother well."

"If he has any damage, or is unhappy in any way, I'll kill you all equally."

"Good."

Mu Qiancheng said to Omi, "Little Minister, wait for me here, Sister will go and bring back the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng to cure you, and I will be back within three days."

"Sister, I want to go too, little minister don't want to be here."

"Be good, sister can't take you with her, you play here, they don't dare to bully you, if they bully you or make you unhappy, come back and tell sister, and she will kill them, be good."

"Oh."

"Then sister is leaving." Mu Qianji glared warningly at Eugens and Old Toad Ghost, both of those two bodies trembled a bit.

After Mu Qianji left, both old ghosts were relieved.

The Toad Old Ghost was busy asking, "Brother, can the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng really cure this fool's brain?"

"Senior brother, how do I know, can't you see that the demoness just wanted to kill us, I was in a hurry and suddenly thought of one of the five wondrous treasures of the world, the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, and then I was in a hurry and let the demoness steal it, so we finally escaped for the time being. If we hadn't tricked her, we would have been dead already. That female devil entered the palace to steal the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, there will definitely be no return."

"But, our poison hasn't been removed yet, besides, what if she does come back alive with the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng? At that time, you lied to her that it can be treated wouldn't it be revealed?"

Eugens said depressingly, "If she really came back alive with Nine-year-old ginseng, then let's talk about it, even though I'm just saying what I believe, but Nine-year-old ginseng, it's one of the five wondrous treasures of the world, maybe, the blind cat met a dead mouse and really cured it?"

"Alas, we'll just have to see what the will of the heavens will be, I hope that this famous World's Five Wondrous Treasures can really cure this fool's brain."

"But it's just a pity, one of the five wondrous treasures of such a precious ten thousand year old ginseng, bringing it to this fool to eat, it's really a reckless waste, even the emperor wouldn't be willing to take it, it would be great if it was given to me, at least it can make me a few dozen years younger, it's a great tonic in a great tonic." Eugens looked fleshy for a while.

In this world, there were five major wondrous treasures, and the Lunar Empire's Ten Thousand Year Ginseng was one of them.

These five wondrous treasures, gathered countless sun and moon essences, what exactly was the effect, it was also impossible to say, after all, no one had eaten it in reality, only to see in historical records that someone had eaten it a long time ago, that effect was very great, the old man eating it a few dozen years younger was the most direct change.

Omi suddenly said, "I want to play games."

Toad old ghost sneered, "Fool, if you talk too much, I'll chop you to death, if it wasn't for you fool, I wouldn't have suffered this crime today."

"I want to play a game, you guys pretend to be dogs for me to play, hurry up."

"Yoho, and let us play dog, do I want to play your brother-in-law? Do you want to ride on your sister?"

Omi pointed at the two old ghosts and said, "Fine, you don't listen to me and bully me, when my sister comes back, I'm going to tell her."

"Hahaha, fool, you don't even know if your sister can still come back alive, we haven't found you to take it out on, and you're still here to provoke us. Senior Brother, why don't we teach this fool a lesson and take out this fury, just in case that demoness does come back alive, we'll use the technique of leaving no traces, I'll let the Drilling Heart Worm drill into his body and torture him severely."

"Fine, senior brother will see to it."

That old toad ghost suddenly grabbed out a worm the size of a needle and thread, looked at Omi and said, "Silly boy, enjoy the taste of the heart-drilling worm."

Omi snorted, "How dare you bully me, but little minister is not so easy to bully, sister told little minister, if anyone bullies me, beat him with a knife." One second to remember to read the book

“Phew.”Tang Zidun took out a knife and threw it at that old toad ghost.

“Ah.”In the next second, the old toad ghost let out a scream, the palm of his hand that was grasping the heart-drilling insect was split in two, just from the middle of the middle finger, and broke open all the way to the wrist, blood suddenly blazed out, and the old toad ghost let out a pig-killing roar.

“Ah.”Eogens was also stupid, he seemed to be able to imagine how much pain his older brother had to be in.

Omi said, “Let’s see if you guys still dare to bully Little Servant.”

“Ahhhh.”Old Toad Ghost fell to the ground and rolled over in pain.

Eogens busily walked up and said, confused, “Senior brother, although I know it hurts, it’s not so bad that you’re rolling on the ground, right?”

“Brother, go and help me take out the insect attracting bell, the drill heart worm, it’s burrowing into my body, ahhhh, it hurts.”

It turned out that Omi had just broken his palm into two halves with a single slash, and the Drilling Heart Worm he was holding on to took the opportunity to drill into his own body, Old Toad Ghost had to endure not only the pain of his palm breaking into two pieces, but also the pain of the Drilling Heart Worm.

After a painful ordeal, the Drilling Heart Worm in Toad Old Ghost’s body finally drew out, and the injury on his hand healed, after all, there was a Fifteen Grade Healer here.

Omi forked his waist and said, “Quickly say, do you still want to bully Little Minister.”

Toad Old Ghost and Eogens' angry beards were trembling, in the end who was bullying who now, the two of them had cursed: he damn, IQ degraded like this, still so able to fight, in the end what kind of monster.

"Quickly say, still dare to bully the little courtier."

nbsp; "Don't dare." The two old devils said very unhappy inside.

"Hmph, then do you want to listen to the little minister's words."

The two old ghosts bit their teeth and very much said, "Yes." Both of them seemed unable to raise their heads, it was too humiliating to be bullied like this by a fool whose IQ was just that of a child, if word got out, they themselves would be too embarrassed to claim that they were the number one poisoner and number one healer of the Moonless Empire.

"Good, now then, play with Little Minister, both of you, pretend to be puppies, and whoever doesn't look like one, Little Minister will beat him with a knife."

"Ooooooh." The two old devils cried out, thinking that the deviless was gone and could breathe a sigh of relief, but I didn't expect that this little devil was even worse, and would use a knife if he didn't agree. After half a day of playing, the two old ghosts were both bruised and battered, fortunately there was a fifteen-grade healer here, or else they would bleed to death.

Right now, Mu Qianji was mixed into the ranks of the palace maids.

And, using the bewitchment technique, Mu Qianji had made a preliminary inquiry: the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng was hidden in an extremely secret place, a place that only the Supreme Emperor and the King knew about.

Mu Qianji began to sit down and think about where this hidden place was.

“If, if I were the Supreme Emperor of the Moonless Empire, then I would definitely not hide such a precious Ten Thousand Year Ginseng by my side, in case someone came to steal it, hiding it by my side would be the most dangerous. Where is the safest and most unexpected place to hide it?”

Mu Qianji pondered hard.

Mu Qianji could only inquire about it to this point, because, no matter how much he inquired, this hidden place would only be known by the King and the Supreme Emperor, and there was no way to know anymore except to directly ask them both.

Mu Qianji said, “Hidden inside the palace, this possibility is not very high, such a precious ten thousand year old ginseng, it will definitely be coveted by countless people, hiding in the palace, in case a strong person comes to find it, it is also not safe, then, where exactly would they hide it?”

Just at this moment, two palace maids passed by not far away, and one of them said, “There’s going to be a ceremony in a few days, and the higher-ups have ordered down that the royal cemetery must be quickly and thoroughly repaired.”

Hearing this, Mu Qianji’s eyes lit up.

“That’s right, hiding in the Royal Cemetery, this possibility is rather high, the Royal Cemetery, not inside the palace, but not too far away either, so that it can be unexpected and also protected in time. Haha, Royal Mausoleum, I should go to this place now and search for it, perhaps, really lucky to find it in the Royal Mausoleum.”

Mu Qianji was overjoyed, ordinary people wouldn't have thought that such a precious ten thousand year old ginseng would be hidden in the cemetery.

Mu Qianji immediately left the palace and headed straight to the Royal Cemetery.

The Royal Cemetery didn't have many guards other than a few guards, and besides, Mu Qianji's strength wasn't weak, so the average person wouldn't expect anyone to come to the cemetery, which was the place where the ancestors of the past generations were buried.

The royal cemetery was in the northwest corner of the palace, about a few kilometers away from the palace, on a small hill. A single grave on the small hill covered hundreds of square meters, and each grave was built as a luxurious, dead man's villa.

On the surface, it looked like just one luxurious tomb, but Mu Qianji knew that underneath each tomb, there was a large space, equivalent to a basement, where coffins were kept, as well as some burial objects and even some living people to accompany them.

If the Lunar Immortal Empire's Ten Thousand Year Ginseng was really hidden in the Royal Cemetery, then it must be hidden underneath one of the graves, a place that must be very secret.

Mu Qianji scanned the entire cemetery, there were at least a few hundred graves, which one of them had the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng buried underneath it? It was a problem, it was always impossible to excavate every grave and go into the ground to look at it, it would be easy to be discovered with so much movement, and since it was hidden here, there was no doubt that the King of the Lunar Empire, as well as the Supreme Emperor, would always be consciously paying attention to this side. But their consciousness, in the eyes of others, would have to become unconscious again, or else it would attract attention from others.

Mu Qianji was quite clever, and immediately said, "It's impossible for the hundreds of graves here to have ten thousand year old ginseng hidden underground. This is because, in case someone searches this place, they will definitely lift up every tomb to look for it, so if I were them, just in case, I would hide in some of the most inconspicuous places around the cemetery. But this most inconspicuous place is one of the easiest places for someone to consciously notice."

"Where is this most inconspicuous place?" Mu Qianji hid on top of a tree and scanned the entire cemetery. Those hundreds of graves were obviously the most conspicuous place, as Mu Qianji scanned the surroundings of the cemetery, and suddenly, there was a place that caught Mu Qianji's attention.

That place was a most filthy place, there were some incense candles, silver paper, and some offerings scattered there. Every day, the cemetery had a special person come to clean it, offer incense, and send offerings.

The thing that caught Mu Qianji's attention was not that this place was filled with offerings, but rather, this place was right in front of a few palace halls a few kilometers away. Any corner of those palace halls could be swept here at a glance.

Mu Qianji said, "If my guess is correct and hidden in the cemetery, then this place must be the most likely place to hide the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng. It is both within the cemetery, which one would not expect at the moment, but it is also in the most inconspicuous location of the cemetery and a few kilometers away where the palace can still be best monitored, what better place to hide the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng than here?"

Yes, there was no better place than this one, hidden deep in the woods away from the palace, in case someone accidentally found it? This is definitely not a risk to take, hidden in the palace, if others came to rob it, the first place they would think of would be here.

Mu Qianji seemed sure that this place, nine times out of ten, really did hide the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng.

Now, it was just a matter of waiting for the late night to fall, and late at night, Mu Qianzhu would make his move.

Late at night, Mu Qianji, wearing his night clothes, sneaked into the cemetery, a few crows were cawing desperately somewhere, adding a bit of creepiness to the dark and unforgiving cemetery, and the whole cemetery felt creepy as well. The first website m. kanshu8.net

“Swoosh” Mu Qianji waved his hand, a few leaves swung out and killed those crows, Mu Qianji was cautious, what if these crows were trained?Therefore, it was safer to kill those few crows.

In fact, Mu Qianji really guessed correctly, those crows were really trained, and as soon as Mu Qianji entered the cemetery just now, those crows started cawing.

What Mu Qianji didn't know was that the crows she had just killed were just a few of them. When Mu Qianji had just entered the cemetery, the other few crows had already flown towards the palace.

Unfortunately, Mu Qianji didn't know that.

Mu Qianji immediately made a move and palmed the pile of Chop down on the place where the sacrificial trash was.

“Boom.”The ground trembled, and Mu Qianji immediately felt that there was a huge stone blocking the bottom, there really was something wrong, a good place to pile up trash, why would you bury a thick stone, I'm afraid it was difficult to enter here.

However, Mu Qianji wasn't nervous because, this was all within Mu Qianji's expectations.

Mu Qianji had already guessed that there must be a very hard, and very thick stone blocking it.

Therefore, Mu Qianji made a quick decision and took out a large packet of something from his nightclothes, this was, explosives.

This large packet of explosives was enough to blast that huge rock in one go, and then, as soon as it shattered, Mu Qianji could slap it through. Of course, even if she didn't use explosives, Mu Qianji could still shatter it, but, it would take longer, and also consume her internal strength, in case the Moon Never Falling Empire was alerted, it would be more than enough.

"Gaga, gaga. Quack, quack, quack." A few crows flew on the roof of an imperial palace hall, crunching and cawing.

Inside the palace hall, an elderly man didn't realize it at first, but in the next second, he suddenly realized it.

"No good, it must be someone breaking into the mausoleum late at night."

This elderly man, who had rolled over and was already asleep, was the king of the Moonless Empire, Moon Mang.

And in an underground, albeit very deep underground, an old man with a pale face also opened his eyes at once, and in the next second, this old man rushed to the ground, and then fled to the mausoleum several kilometers away.

"Boom." In the cemetery, a loud bang was made, and a large bag of explosives exploded, unfortunately, it didn't blow through, however, cracks had appeared, Mu Qianji slapped down, and suddenly, the huge stone split into five pieces, and Mu Qianji's entire body also immediately rushed into the cavity underneath the stone.

The cavity was about three meters deep and two meters wide, and only then did Mu Qianji discover that the cavity, in fact, was dug out of a huge stone raw, which led to the fact that all sides had to break the thick stone to enter the cavity, fortunately, Mu Qianji was ingenious enough to bring explosives, or else it wouldn't have been so easy to enter.

At the edge of the cavity, buried in the stone, there was a box, this box looks very high grade, at least do not have to worry about being corroded by water.

Mu Qianji didn't have the time to open the box and verify if it was a ten thousand year old ginseng. Because, anyway, it's already here, you can only take this box if you open the box, as well as if you don't open the box, so why waste time to open it, thus giving the enemy an increased chance of finding it.

Mu Qianji picked up the box and rushed to the ground in the blink of an eye.

"Bang." As soon as Mu Qianji rushed onto the ground, a strong palm strike suddenly flew through the air, it was from a strong man who was several kilometers away.

This person who came from a few kilometers away with a palm strike was the famous Moonless Empire Supreme Emperor, worthy of being one of the thirty strongest peaks in the entire world, still incredibly strong even from a few kilometers away.

"Wow." Mu Qianji only felt her body as light as a feather, and suddenly flew down into the distance, fortunately it was a palm strike from a kilometer away, if it was close, then she would definitely die.
