

Chapter 961

Mu Qianji said inwardly, "This silly boy is really cheap." But Mu Qianji didn't regret giving Omi his service.

The two of them ate a sea of food, then found a hotel to stay in and slept right away, after all, they hadn't closed their eyes for 12 days.

And now, the Heaven's End Sect had discovered that the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus had been stolen, and suddenly, the entire Heaven's End Sect was petrified, incredibly.

What was even more incredible was the news that the Moonless Empire's Ten Thousand Year Ginseng had also been stolen.

The theft of the two greatest treasures had become a topic of hot discussion throughout the world, who was so powerful that they had stolen the two greatest treasures.

The Moon Never Falling Empire and the Heaven's Destruction Gate, simultaneously tracked and investigated.

Mu Qianji and Omi were now far away from the Heaven's End Gate, and were heading towards the third strange treasure, which was, the Water Ape Empire's Archaic Sacred Brain.

This Water Ape Empire was the place that Mu Qianji had invited Omi to when he was at the Star Ocean Academy, and Omi had refused because it was too dangerous. The Water Ape Empire wasn't a human, but a water ape, residing in a sea area around the Star Ocean Academy.

Mu Qianji and Omi would now head to the Star Ocean Academy and then to the Water Ape Empire.

The Water Ape Empire's Swift Sacred Brain should be the most difficult to obtain, after all, Water Ape wasn't a human, it was a sea beast, and to steal their ancestral treasure in the territory of a sea beast, it really wasn't half confident.

However, Mu Qianji had to give it a go. First URL m.kanshu8.net

Although water apes were not humans, they were the most similar sea beasts to humans, and humans were the apes that evolved from them.

And right now, the Supreme Emperor of the Moonless Empire, and the two masters of the Heaven's End Gate were sitting together.

"I heard that your Ice Crystal Snow Lotus has been stolen."

"Yes, your Ten Thousand Year Ginseng has also been stolen."

"Right."

They were relatively speechless, both feeling a hint of irony.

"Two of the world's five greatest treasures have been stolen, what do you think of this matter?"

"Obviously, it was the work of the same group of people."

"No, it wasn't a group of people, it was one person."

"A single person?"

"That day when my Moon Never Falling Empire's Ten Thousand Year Ginseng was stolen, I saw that person slip away from under my nose with my own eyes, and, looking at the figure, it was a woman, and although I didn't see her appearance, if I were to see her figure once more, I would definitely be able to recognize her."

"You're the Supreme Emperor of the Moon Never Falling Empire, the world's thirty peak Unity Realm powerhouses, but you let that thief escape."The Heaven's End Gate Master snorted.

"That thief could escape, and there was really nothing I could do that day, had I known that thief's second target was the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus of your Heaven's Expanse Gate, I would have lurked to your Heaven's Expanse Gate, and I would have surely caught him red-handed."

"Hoo, it is no longer meaningful to talk about this now, I came to find you today to discuss with you on how to catch this thief."

The Supreme Emperor of the Moonless Empire said with narrowed eyes, "Since that thief continuously stole the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng and the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus, it is very likely that she will steal several other strange treasures."

"Among the five wondrous treasures of the world, the Emperor Insect is legendary, the Vermillion Bird Grass has gone missing, and only the Water Ape Empire's Swallow Saint

The brain still exists in the Water Ape Empire."

"So, if that thief still has a thief's heart, his next target will definitely be the Archaic Sacred Brain."

"That's what I thought, and that's exactly why I came to find you today."

"You want to invite me to the Water Ape Empire with you?"

“Yes, I don’t dare to go there alone, the Water Ape is not human after all, it’s a sea beast, it’s not our clan, there’s no way to communicate, besides, that Water Ape Empire’s red-haired old ape is too terrifying, I don’t have the confidence to escape under his attack, if you and I go together, the two of us will face the red-haired old ape, only then will we have the confidence not to be injured by it.”The Master of the Heaven’s Expanse Gate said that the two of them, both of them, were one of the 30 pinnacle of the world’s Unity Realm, and the Moon Never Falling Supreme Emperor was ranked ninth among the 30 pinnacle, while the Master of the Heaven’s Expanse Gate was ranked seventh.

The Heaven’s Gate ranked seventh strongest, didn’t dare to go to the Water Ape Empire alone, and had to invite the Moonless Supreme Emperor to go, which showed how strong the Water Ape Empire’s red-haired old ape was.

The Moonless Supreme Emperor nodded, “Fine, I also have the same intention, but what if that thief doesn’t dare to think about the Sacred Brain again?Wouldn’t we be wasting our time.”

“The world is so big, we lost the Ancestral Treasure, you and I can no longer retrieve it, keep watch in the Water Ape Empire, it’s the only way we can possibly catch the thief, even though it’s very slim, but it’s the only way already, no matter how slim it is, we have to do it.”

“Alright, then we’ll head to the Water Ape Empire with you, as long as that thief dares to steal the Swift Sacred Brain, I’ll definitely be able to catch her.”

Mu Qianji did not know in the slightest that the two most powerful people of the Moonless Empire and the Heaven’s End Gate had already reacted.

After spending a month, Mu Qianji and Omi finally arrived at the Star Ocean Academy, where they were going to rest and recuperate before entering the Water Ape Empire.

Returning to the Star Ocean Academy again, Omi didn’t feel the slightest bit as if it was his first time here.

As soon as Omi arrived at the Star Ocean Academy, suddenly, he was discovered by a person.

“Omi, you, you’re not even dead.”

Mu Qianji and Omi looked up, it was the president of Star Ocean Academy, the last time they met, this president wanted Omi’s flying ship, Omi deceived him and asked him to help go to the bottom of the sea to kill the sea beast, then Omi sucked the spiritual power of the sea beast, thus achieving his goal of improving himself. But now, Omi is suffering from spiritual reversal, which is also considered to be self-rewarding, thanks to the fact that he had taken the Emperor Insect before, and then he took the Ten Thousand Year Ginseng and the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus, so his health condition gradually recovered, especially after taking the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus, Omi’s realm not only recovered, but also went up a few floors, and now he also has a realm around the peak of the Unity Realm Perfection, only because his IQ receded and he can’t unleash the martial dao! The breath was only temporarily unreadable.

“Hey, sister, who’s that?” Omi looked at the man who called his name in confusion.

Mu Qianji snorted, “Whoever it is, forget about it.”

The president of Star Ocean Academy flew down, he had heard before that Omi was dead, killed by the head of the King’s Mercenary Group, but he had never expected to run into Omi here today.

However, even though he ran into Omi, he was no longer prepared to seek revenge on Omi, Omi was able to kill even the brother of the head of the King’s Mercenary Group, he may not be a match for a pinnacle of the Unity Realm.

When the dean saw that Mu Qianji was only a peak Unity Realm Perfection, the same as his realm, but with a bit of a dragging expression, he snorted, “What are you guys doing in my Star Sea Academy?”

Mu Qianji said, "What am I doing here at Star Ocean Academy, I don't need to report to you."

"Joke, this is my territory, and the island of Star Ocean Academy is mine."

"It's yours, but it can become mine at any time." Mu Qianji said.

"Talking out of your mouth, then let me see what you're capable of." The president of the Star Ocean Academy rushed towards Mu Qianji at once.

"Flipping River Palm." The dean paused to flip his palm, he practiced flipping the palm, when he flipped his palm, the entire river would flip over, in the past, he came to this island in order to practice this flipping palm, because the sea area here was huge, it was the most suitable for practice, later, he became the dean of the Star Sea Academy. But he was very ambitious, how could he be willing to nestle on this lonely island, he wanted to be a king.

When Omi saw the dean hit his sister, he immediately got angry and said, "If you dare to bully my sister, I won't spare you."

"Swoosh." Omi shot out his flying dagger, and the idea of certain death swept up.

"Ah." The dean's overturning sea had just been performed, and then Omi sliced his palm in half.

"You." The dean looked at Omi incredulously, he was actually, not an opponent at all, and even he didn't know why Omi was so powerful with just a small flying knife, after all, in this world, there were no people who knew the 'killing intent', and the only one who could comprehend the killing intent was currently the head of the King's Mercenaries.

"Hmph, if you dare to bully my sister, I won't spare you."

“Omi spare your life.”The dean knelt down at once. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Mu Qianji said, “Little courtier, forget it, there’s no point in killing a small person, besides, we still have to eat and stay here for a few days, it’s troublesome to kill him.”

The Dean was sad inside, even his former students had surpassed him by countless amounts.

Mu Qian absolutely ordered the dean, “Go prepare a manor for me, as well as clothes and food.”

“Yes.”The dean lowered his head and said.

At this moment, a man from the late stage of the Unity Realm flew in from afar and excitedly shouted, “Dean, Dean, there’s news, I heard that there’s information about the Sucking Power Great Law in one of the memory stones on Martial Island.”

The dean, however, glared at the man and roared, “What are you yelling about, get out.”

“Uh, Dean, what’s wrong with you, weren’t you the one who asked me to help snoop around all these years.”

Mu Qianji was sharp-eyed and immediately saw that the dean didn’t seem to want anyone to know anything.

Mu Qianji asked, “Why do you want to find out information about the Sucking Power Technique?”

“It’s really nothing.” The dean was depressed inside, and stared hard at the person who just came running, when not to report at this time.

Mu Qianji didn’t have the patience to ask any more questions, and directly used mesmerism.

Although the dean was in the same realm as Mu Qianji, unfortunately, he was completely unable to resist Mu Qianji’s mesmerizing technique, it seemed that Mu Qianji’s overall strength had increased a lot because he had taken the Ice Crystal Snow Lotus.

“Say, why do you want to inquire about the Spirit Sucking Technique?”

The Dean said in a confused voice, “Because, there is a treasure, and to open that treasure, you need the God Sucking Great Law to open it.”

“A treasure?” Mu Qianji’s eyebrows furrowed.

“What treasure?” Mu Qianji asked.

“I’m not sure, but it’s very likely that it’s the Vermilion Bird Grass that was lost from the Beyoun Villa back then.”

“The Vermilion Bird Grass of the World’s Five Wondrous Treasures?” Mu Qianji was shocked, this news was too surprising, she was originally here to steal the Swift Sacred Brain, but she didn’t expect to stumble upon the information about the Vermilion Bird Grass, could it be that the heavens were really taking care of her? As soon as I came to Star Ocean Academy, I got news of the Vermilion Bird Grass.

“Say, where is that treasure?”

/> “That treasure is at the bottom of the Star Ocean Academy, I heard that back then, the young master of the Beyoun Villa, absconded with the Vermillion Bird Grass, and arrived at the Star Ocean Academy waters, and was chased by the pursuing soldiers, and finally directly blew up and sank the ship, hiding the Vermillion Bird Grass machine treasure chest together with the bottom of the ocean. That organ treasure chest was intricately made, about three meters long and wide, and weighed 100,000 jin, it was impossible to open that treasure chest, and I found that there was a destruction device inside the treasure chest, I couldn’t forcefully break it, but after years of research I found that if I could suck power, I could open that treasure chest.”

“So that’s it.” Mu Qianji was delighted and said, “Which seabed is the treasure chest at, take me down to the sea.”

“Yes.”

Mu Qianji ended the enchantment.

Dean came back to his senses and was busy saying, “You, what did you do to me?”

“Hmph, Dean, I know everything, now if you still want to live, immediately take me down to the sea, find that treasure chest, open it and see if there is really Vermilion Grass inside.”

“Ah, you you you, you’re despicable.” The dean yelled.

“Bang.” Mu Qianji slapped the dean back to reality.

“Dean, you don’t seem to have thought through your current situation, your little life is pinched in my hands at all times, do you want the treasure or your life?” Mu Qianji threatened.

“Ahhhh.” Dean hissed.

“Buzz.” Mu Qianji crossed the dean’s neck with a sword and said, “Still don’t know the time?”

“No, no, this is something I’ve been working on for decades, no, it’s mine, whether I can take it one step further, step into the Unity Realm Great Perfection, whether I can become a strong man at the top of the world, whether I can become the king of a country, it all depends on this, no, no.” Dean shrieked like a madman.

Yes, this was a dream he had been expecting for decades ah, I don’t know how many years ago, he had already been asking around for information about the Sucking Power Technique, when Omi first came to the Star Ocean Academy, Yi Tianxing had almost brought him to the dean. If Yi Tianxing hadn’t gone back on his word halfway back then and actually brought Omi to see him, then I’m afraid that the dean would have already opened that treasure.

In spite of that, just now, the person he sent to help find out the news had returned to report that Wulin Island had information about the Sucking Power Technique, and that he only needed to go to Wulin Island, and he might soon be able to obtain the secret of the Sucking Power Technique, thus opening the treasure.

However, all of this was now fantasy, and he had no chance.

No wonder the dean seemed to have gone insane.

Bang, Mu Qianji slapped the dean and knocked him unconscious first, lest he really go crazy.

“You, carry him to where he lives.” Mu Qianji ordered that late Unity Realm person, he was the one who just let his mouth slip, otherwise Mu Qianji wouldn’t have known.

“Yes.”

A few hours later, the dean sobered up.

“My treasure.” As soon as he woke up, the dean climbed up.

Mu Qianji said, “Your treasure is no longer yours. I’m giving you one last chance now, take me to find that treasure, otherwise, I’ll kill you and then I’ll go find it myself, since it’s at the bottom of the Star Ocean Academy, I’m going to find it, it shouldn’t be hard, I hope you understand.”

“Oooh.” The Dean cried out, Vermillion Bird Grass, the five wondrous treasures of the world, losing it like this, there really wasn’t anything more heartbreaking.

“Still don’t understand? Then go die.” Mu Qianji was out of patience and killed with a sword.

“Wait, I’ll take you there.” Dean cried.

“Fine, then go now.”

“But if I take you there, you won’t get it, you can’t even open it.”

Mu Qianji said, “It’s not a problem for you to worry about.”

Of course Mu Qianji could do the Sucking Power Technique, it was just that Mu Qianji had previously scattered the Sucking Power Technique along with it, but for the sake of this treasure, it wouldn't hurt to practice it a bit more and scatter it again when it was finished.

The dean took Mu Qianji and Omi and entered the sea floor.

Dean took Mu Qianji and Omi and entered the seabed.

In one of the seabed rock crevices, he saw a large box about three meters long and wide, this large box is a very famous mechanism treasure chest, the structure inside is very complex, I heard that a long time ago, a mechanism master, using a meteorite outside the sky to build it, incomparably hard, want to force open, almost impossible, even if forced to open, will destroy the mechanism inside, and then start the self-destruct device. Precisely because of this, the dean had found this treasure for decades and hadn't been able to open it, and now as a dowry for others, one could imagine how unhappy the dean was.

Of course, whether the treasure inside was Vermilion Bird Grass or not, this was still to be confirmed, but the probability was already very high, because there had long been rumors that the thing that Beyoun Villa had used to hide Vermilion Bird Grass back then was the Organ Treasure Box.

Mu Qianji stroked the Organ Treasure Box, his heart was excited.

Mu Qianji drew her Burial Moon Sword.

"Dang." There was a sound of gold and iron, and an opening appeared in the treasure chest.

The dean was shocked when she saw Mu Qianji's sword and an opening appeared with a single sword.

“That’s impossible, no sword can make a mark.”

Mu Qianji snorted, “It’s just that you’re ignorant.”

“What kind of sword are you using? Why is it so sharp, no, it’s not just about sharpness anymore.”

“There’s no harm in telling you, the Burial Moon Sword, ever heard of it?” One second to remember to read the book

“Ah, it can’t be the evil sword that the Famous Sword Villa, has been guarding for generations, can it?”

“Yes, it seems you still have a bit of insight.”

Dean looked at Mu Qianji in surprise, I really don’t know how she got this famous sword, the old master of the Famous Sword Villa, but one of the thirty peaks of the world ah, only, now is dead. After his death, someone went to the Famous Sword Mountain Villa to look for this sword, but unfortunately, they were accused of stealing it, this matter is not only known to the old villa master, the other people of the Famous Sword Mountain Villa also don’t know where to go, if they knew it was in Mu Qianji’s hands, they really thought that Mu Qianji had stolen it.

Mu Qianji said, “How do we open this treasure?”

“This is a mechanism lock, only a mechanism master can open it, but I’ve been studying mechanisms for decades to open this treasure, but unfortunately I haven’t reached the level to open it yet. If I know the Sucking Power Technique, then it shouldn’t be difficult to open it again with my Organs Technique.”

Mu Qianji said, “Sucking power great method, I will, now I will cooperate with you to open this treasure.”

“What? You know the Sucking Power Great Law?”

“Yes. Don’t you believe it? Then I’ll let you experience it.” Currently Ton slapped the dean with his palm, sucking his power.

“Ah, it’s really the Sucking Power Method.”

“Hurry up, don’t dawdle, open the treasure.”

“Me.” The dean thought that they wouldn’t be able to open it even if he brought them down, but he didn’t expect that she would be able to suck the power of the Great Law of Power, now he panicked.

“Dean, my patience is limited, you have seen my Burial Moon Sword, even if you don’t help me open it, I can still slowly chip away at this machine treasure chest one sword at a time, I am so slowly chipping away at the machine treasure chest, it is not a powerful destruction, it may not necessarily trigger a self-destruct device. This treasure is not meant for you, if you can’t see through it, you will never be able to step into the Great Perfection.”

The dean sighed deeply, “It’s nothing more than that.”

After that, the dean had no choice but to perform his mechanism technique, and then let Mu Qianji use the Sucking Power Technique to cooperate, it took five hours, and finally, with a click, the mechanism box was opened.

This mechanism box was very complicated, three meters in length and width, about two and a half meters were all complicated metal structures, only the center half meter wide was the storage space, and right now this half meter wide storage space was holding a sealed

The box.

The Dean looked at the box with excitement.

Mu Qianji carried the box out and then rushed to the surface of the sea.

It wasn't long before he was back on the ground of the Star Sea Academy.

The dean was dead behind the butt, his eyes showing longing.

Mu Qianji was in a house and opened the sealed box.

In this sealed box, there was a martial arts secret, called "Bayer Cloud Palm", then, another sealed vellum, Mu Qianji cut the vellum and inside was a golden grass.

Both the dean and Mu Qianji's eyes were glowing.

Mu Qianji immediately looked at the dean vigilantly and said, "This Vermillion Bird Grass, it is not yours or mine, it is for Omi to use, you die this heart, in addition, this Beyun Palm, it is given to you."

The dean was helpless, although the Beyun Palm was also a mastery, it was less than a mention compared to the Vermillion Bird Grass.

In front of the dean, Mu Qianji took the Vermillion Bird Grass to Omi and said, "Little Minister, come, eat something, eat this."

"Sister, let's eat together, shall we."

“No, the amount of this Vermilion Bird Grass is not much, you eat it alone, you will only get sick if you eat it.”

“If sister doesn’t eat it, then Little Minister Chen won’t eat it either.” Omi said in a disturbed mood.

The dean beside him was busy saying, “Omi, your sister doesn’t eat it, so give it to me, okay.”

Omi said, “It’s mine and my sister’s.”

The dean swallowed his saliva and was depressed.

Mu Qianji had to say, “Little minister, then this way, your sister will eat a little bit, and you will eat all the rest, okay?”

“Good.”

Mu Qianji ate a small forked branch of the Vermilion Bird Grass, and the rest was given to Omi.

“Sister, it’s so bitter.”

“No matter how bitter it is, you have to finish it.”

Dean retained his saliva and stood to the side.

At the end of the meal, there was only a little root left, and the roots of the vermilion grass chewed a few times in Omi's mouth, which was dry and astringent, and immediately pooh-poohed the residue twice, spitting it onto the ground.

"Little Minister, how can you waste it."

"Sister, Little Minister doesn't want to eat anymore, it's all scraps."

Dean immediately lay down on the ground and used his tongue to lick the little bit of scraps that Omi spit on the ground, not only scraps, but even the little bit of spit tsk that Omi spit out was also licked clean.

Mu Qianji was speechless, but didn't say anything.

The dean ended up eating a bit of scraps after all, and it wasn't in vain that he had waited for decades for this treasure, and had even gone to learn the art of organism.

"Alright, now that the Vermilion Bird Grass has been eaten, little courtier, take a quick rest and let the medicine work."

Dean also scrambled to the other room and entered a closed state, although he had eaten some residue, the residue was somewhat useful as well.

Just like that, a day passed, Omi felt full of strength and roared, "Sister, I feel like I'm going to explode, I'm so strong."

"Boom," Omi punched out and trampled a house.

The power of this punch was straight up to 150,000 jin.

Mu Qianji laughed, "Omi, you have eaten four of the Emperor Insect, Ten Thousand Year Ginseng, Ice Crystal Snow Lotus, Vermilion Bird Grass, the five wondrous treasures of the world, after you recover in the future, don't thank me too much, this will be very significant for your future cultivation."

964

After a day of rest and recuperation at the Star Ocean Academy, Mu Qianji was ready to set off for the Water Ape Empire, the last wonder treasure, the Swallowed Sacred Brain, if Omi took the Swallowed Sacred Brain again, it would really be a big deal.

However, Mu Qianji didn't know that the Master of the Heaven's Expanse Gate and the Supreme Emperor of the Moonless Empire were already keeping an eye on the movements of the Water Ape Empire, and once they discovered someone intending to steal the Swallowed Sacred Brain, they would take action.

The next day, Mu Qianji and Omi entered the waters of the Star Ocean Academy and traveled in a certain direction.

A few hours later, they arrived near the waters where the Water Ape Empire was located.

And in the sky, the Supreme Emperor of the Moonless Empire, the Heaven's Extinction Gate Master, was watching the entire waters from a thousand meters high.

"Little Servant, we're almost at the Water Ape Empire, stay close to your sister."

"Mm." Omi nodded his head in a good manner.

Mu Qianji smiled slightly, but, suddenly, he felt a gaze from the sky.

“Moon Emperor, that sea to the east of the Water Ape Empire, there are two people on the sea, see if they want to go forward to the Water Ape Empire.”The Heaven’s End Gate’s Gate Master said.

“This is the range of the Water Ape Empire, usually no one comes here at all, go down and arrest them, if it’s someone who stole our supreme treasure, I’ll know as soon as I see her figure.”

The two of them rushed down towards the sea. First URL m.kanshu8.net

Mu Qianji immediately sensed it.

“No good, little minister, we’re in trouble, there are two peak human powerhouses rushing towards us, one of them has a scent that is extremely similar to the Supreme Emperor who attacked me in the Royal Mausoleum of the Moonless Empire that day, it’s over, they must have guessed that we would come here and are waiting for us.”

“Quick, dive to the bottom of the sea.”Mu Qianji couldn’t care less right now and immediately dived into the sea floor.

“Sister, why are you escaping so fast.”Omi asked, Omi seemed to sense the scent of fear on Mu Qianji’s body.

Soon, Mu Qianji rushed into the sea floor, while on the surface of the sea, the two strong men said, “Escaped into the sea floor, this person must be the one who stole our greatest treasure, chase after her, never allow her to escape.”

Saying that, the two strong men also rushed into the seabed.

Mu Qianji held Omi in tow, feeling like there was no way to get to heaven.

“Female thief, where else to run.” A roar came from above the ocean, the roar turned into sound waves in the water, impacting the two, the powerful momentum was not something that Mu Qianji could fight against at all.

Mu Qianji looked around, pulled Omi into a rocky crevice under the sea, and said to Omi, “Little Minister, we’re in trouble today, now whatever your sister tells you to do, you do it, okay.” Mu Qianji said anxiously. Mu Qianji felt that she was afraid that she was going to die today, there had never been such a big shadow of death inside her.

“Sister, are you going to leave Little Servant? No, Little Servant does not want to be separated from Sister, where Sister goes, Little Servant goes.”

“Obey.”

“No, I won’t listen.” Omi cried, as if he could feel the look on Mu Qianji’s body that was going to leave him.

Mu Qianji helplessly said, “Little Minister, play a game with your sister, okay.”

“Uh, play a game, sister, play what game.”

“Let’s play peek-a-boo and see who can stay still, okay.”

“Okay.”

“Then you hide in this rock crack, close your eyes, and if you move, you lose oh, like

If you win the fruit, your sister will be with you forever.”

“Good, little minister will definitely win.”

Omi stupidly closed his eyes and didn't move.

Mu Qianji stroked Omi's head and said inwardly, “Omi, we're going to be separated, good luck. If I die, please be sure to remember me, sister, always love you, goodbye.”

Mu Qianji lovingly looked at Omi who was seriously 'competing', then swam off into the distance and disappeared into the deep ocean in no time.

Those two strong men naturally went after Mu Qianji, and Mu Qianji played the game with Omi in order to protect him.

Mu Qianji did not have any chance of being alive today, otherwise she would not have said goodbye to Omi.

An hour passed, Omi didn't move a muscle, although he was almost unable to hold his breath, but he had to win, and he couldn't lose if he won to be with his sister forever. So, in time he felt like he was about to suffocate, and he didn't move a bit.

In this way, I don't know how long it took, but Omi seemed to have suffocated himself to death, and his body floated weakly, like a corpse, along the ocean current.

When Omi opened his eyes again, he found himself lying on a bed in a thatched hut.

Omi had no idea how long it had been, it felt like a century.

The last thing Omi remembered in his mind was that he was in the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, first he was attacked by the King's Mercenaries, Yi Tianxing and his wife, as well as Wei Sakura all died, and finally, the Fire Demon fell to the ground due to his severe injuries, and he met another beast, Omi was no longer able to escape due to his veins being cracked, so he stayed to delay the beast and let Wanderlust escape with Xiao Meng in his arms.

In the end, Omi once again performed the Sucking Spirit Great Law and killed the beast, but unfortunately, he himself suffered a strong spiritual reaction because he performed the Sucking Spirit Great Law again.

Omi fainted, and in his confusion, Omi felt an even bigger beast swallow him and the beast into his mouth together.

Omi exerted his last strength and once again performed the God Sucking Magic, and finally, killed the beast that swallowed him. Omi, who was already experiencing spiritual revulsion, performed it again, which was simply adding fuel to the fire. Omi felt a splitting headache, as if he was going to die, and a lifetime of images flashed through his mind in a flurry.

Then, Omi completely lost consciousness.

When he woke up again Omi found himself lying on a bed in a thatched room, the bed was made of straw.

Omi felt as if it had been a century long, as if there were many things he couldn't remember, as if there was still someone or something very important he had forgotten.

"Father, he's awake." At this moment, a woman at the entrance of the thatched room shouted out loudly.

Omi looked at the woman, a woman in animal skin with two leaves stuck to her chest, covering up the crucial points, but only two points.

The woman walked over to Omi's bed and looked at Omi in surprise.

Omi asked, "You are?"

"Handsome, you're finally awake."

"Where is this?" Don Omi asked.

"Just go out and take a look."

Omi stepped out of the thatched cottage and took a look, it was an isolated island, surrounded by the sea, and on a distant beach, there was a man dressed as a fisherman, dragging a fish with many freshly caught fish in it.

965

High up on this island, there was a thatched hut with many coconut trees growing around it.

The man fishing in the distance smiled, "You're awake."

"Here is? Why am I here? Omi asked, he was obviously in the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts definitely didn't have an ocean, that was too far away.

“Oh, if you’re asking me where I am, honestly, I can’t answer you, you can see for yourself, there are oceans everywhere, and I’d like to know where it is.”

“Why am I here?”

“Oh, I can answer that for you, but about six months ago, when I was fishing, I pulled you out of the sea.”

“What do you mean, six months ago? Fetch me out of the sea?”

“Yeah, you’ve been asleep for half a year, I thought for sure you wouldn’t wake up, I wanted to throw you into the sea a long time ago, but, ahem, my daughter hasn’t seen another man in her life, so she wouldn’t let me throw you away, so she said that even if I were a specimen, I’d have to keep you.”

The girl was suddenly shy, “Father, people are embarrassed.”

“Uh, what do you mean.”

“Haha, truth be told, we fell into the ocean and then drifted here twenty years ago because of a plane crash. We didn’t know where it was, and I had no choice but to live on this island, but fortunately, there was a woman who drifted to this island just like me. After that the woman and I lived together on this island, slowly, a man and a woman, you know, and after that my daughter was born. She’s only seen one man since she was born, so my daughter is very happy since you’ve drifted here. I was going to see you for half a year without waking up, must be a vegetable, to throw you to the sea, my daughter is hard to see a man, how can I throw you ah, hahaha. Kid, my daughter has been scrubbing your body every day for the past six months, and several times a day oh.” Remember the website .kanshu8.net

“Ah.” Omi’s chrysanthemum tightened, looking at that young girl, that young girl was shy, no wonder Omi felt incomparably clean, dare to say that in the past half year, every day, he was scrubbed several times by this young girl who had never seen a man’s body ah, Omi’s pure body was all she saw.

The man said, "Don't be shy la, coming to this island, it's fate, anyway, you won't have any other women to match you, afterwards you two will be a pair, all of us, try to make this island more populated, afterwards we will be a little more lively, hahaha."

"Me." Omi's scalp tightened.

That man patted his daughter's shoulder and laughed, "Daughter, you've been looking forward to it since you were a little girl, and you're finally looking forward to a man, this is happy, hahaha."

The young girl was very embarrassed.

At this time, a woman came out of the woods in the distance, that woman was also wearing animal skins, with two leaves attached to her chest.

This woman must be this man's woman, the woman who drifted together on this island after the plane crash back then.

"You two cultivate your relationship, if you cultivate your relationship well, you can start your man-making plan tonight, hahaha." The man patted Omi's shoulder again, then walked away, seemingly happy.

Omi looked at the ocean, and a little bit of a trance, feeling like his head, missing a long memory, and that there were some very important people to forget, but, couldn't remember anything .

Omi immediately inspected his body, and realized at once that his body had changed so much, his physical quality was surprisingly good, whether it was the meridians, or the tendons, bones, strength, and essence, they all had a non

The usual high quality has improved, and Omi's martial arts realm has reached the peak of the Unity Realm Perfection.

“Strange, my physical quality has improved so much, I had broken my meridians and my spirit reversed, I thought that I couldn’t possibly be alive, why have I woken up now, my physical quality has improved so much, even my martial arts realm has improved so much. How long had I, in the end, been asleep? How did I drift from the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, to this lonely island?”

“It’s just that it’s good to be alive, no matter how he drifted here. Mei Qian, Xuan’er, Xiangyun, how are you guys doing? And Xiao Meng, Big Brother Tianya, have you escaped from the Beast Forest? I really want to get back to you guys.”

“The priority is to leave this lonely island, God knows where it is and how far it is from the nearest continent.”

At that moment, the young girl beside Omi called out softly, “Hey, what’s your name?”

“Uh, hello, thank you for saving me, thank you, my name is Omi.” Omi was busy coming back to his senses and thanked the young girl.

“It was my father who saved you, not me, by the way, my name is Su Vacheron, I’m eighteen years old, and you? How old are you?”

“Oh, I’m, like, twenty-two, I think.” Omi said uncertainly, for Omi didn’t know how long he had been asleep, and Omi felt that it must have been more than six months, for he always felt as long as a century had passed.

“Ah, but I look at your appearance, you’re not older than me, you’re only seventeen or eighteen years old.”

“Really, if you don’t believe me, take a picture of you in the water.”

“Alright, Sutachin, thanks, can you leave me alone.”

“Good.”

Su Vacheron walked away, and Omi sat alone on the beach, wondering what to think about, there was always too much to think about after such a long slumber.

What Omi was thinking about was how to get back.

Also, Yi Tianxing and his wife, Wei Sakura and their deaths, this revenge will be avenged.

Omi vowed that he would take revenge on the King’s Mercenaries, the head of the King’s Mercenaries, didn’t he have more than a dozen brothers? Since he didn’t even cherish other people’s brothers, he had no right to have brothers, Omi vowed that he would kill his brothers one by one, and finally, kill him himself.

Omi clenched his fists in secret.

However, Omi felt a surge of fear as he remembered his strength, his thick kitchen knife, Omi felt a surge of fear now that he thought back on it, it was too strong, almost routinely, as long as the knife was out, it was bound to break into two halves, before the opponent could react, it was usually already in two halves.

Honestly, Omi had never seen such a powerful blade before, and within himself, Omi couldn’t think of any move to deal with it, even his Ghost Wheel Resolve couldn’t dodge it at all, it was simply like the killing intent comprehended by those Ancestor Realm powerhouses in his previous life.

“Wait.” Omi suddenly sat up from the beach.

“Sure-kill intent? Must kill? That king’s mercenary leader, that blade technique of his, couldn’t it be, the idea of certain death? It wasn’t because of the blade at all, but, rather, the idea of a sure kill? Heavens, this is a martial idea that only a Master realm powerhouse could comprehend? Don’t tell me it’s true.” Omi was shocked, if it wasn’t for the sudden thought of the Ancestor Realm, he wouldn’t have reacted.

Omi felt terrifying for the talent of that king’s mercenary leader, and even felt that he wouldn’t be able to take revenge at all.

Omi hadn’t realized it at the moment, but in fact, he had also comprehended the idea of certain death.
