Chapter 901: Apologize To Qingfeng

Assistant Gao glanced coldly at Jiang Qin and snorted. "Think carefully about whether you've offended that person. If anything goes wrong with this company merger, all of you will have to pay the price!"

Jiang Qin panicked. How could she have offended someone? It must be an employee who was blind and offended an important guest!

"Do you know what President Gu's relationship with the president of Qingfeng Entertainment is? You even dared to offend the president of Qingfeng Entertainment. I really admire your courage!"

Jiang Qin was so scared that her face turned pale. She said in horror, "I... I really don't know how I offended the president. My subordinates must be blind. How can they blame it on me?"

Assistant Gao replied indifferently, "Director Jiang, whether it's you or your employees who offended the president of Qingfeng, you should be the one to solve this matter. I advise you to apologize to Qingfeng as soon as possible. If you're sincere enough, they might forgive you and you can still keep your job."

With that, Assistant Gao smiled meaningfully. "I heard that Miss Xia and the president of Qingfeng Entertainment are good friends! You can get Miss Xia to help you! With her helping you plead for your case, anything can be resolved."

Jiang Qin's eyes lit up. How could she have forgotten about Xia Mengyan?! She rushed to the president's office without turning back. Xia Mengyan's expression froze when she heard the words.

All these years, she had been claiming connections with the president of Qingfeng Entertainment to gain many benefits, but she had never met him before. She did not even know if he was a man or a woman, nor did she know his age. Hence, she could not help Jiang Qin at all. If she rashly appeared, she would be exposed. At that time, it would be troublesome.

With that, Xia Mengyan picked up the phone, stood up, and walked to the window. She pretended to make a call and said helplessly, "I can't contact him. Maybe he's in a fit of anger! If you really offended him, why don't you visit Qingfeng and apologize? I don't think the other party will make things difficult for you."

Jiang Qin was mentally and physically exhausted. Why was Miss Xia so helpless? Wasn't she very close to the president? If she couldn't solve it, no one could help her.

After thinking about it, Jiang Qin could only brace herself and go to Qingfeng Entertainment. When she reached the entrance of the company, she was stopped by the security guards. When they found out that she was the director of Heavenly Voice Entertainment who specially came to apologize to the president, the security guards looked at each other with strange expressions. In the end, they let her in.

At this moment, Jiang Qin was standing at the door, extremely nervous. She thought for a long time but did not know how she had offended the president of Qingfeng Entertainment. Even if she were to apologize, she did not know where to start!

All these years, she had worked hard and used all possible methods to finally climb to the position of director. She absolutely could not lose this job. Fortunately, Miss Xia was the president's friend. No matter how angry the president was, he would probably show Miss Xia some respect. The matter would be resolved then.

After hesitating for a moment, Jiang Qin took a deep breath and knocked on the office door. Unexpectedly, the door suddenly opened. Jiang Qin mustered her courage and walked in. She originally thought that the chairman was a middle-aged man. After all, Miss Xia had called him her senior. However, the person she saw was a young woman.

At this moment, there was only a young lady in the room. She was sitting on the president's office chair and playing with her phone. When she heard footsteps, she slowly looked up. Jiang Qin was instantly stunned. She immediately swallowed the words of flattery and widened her eyes. "Why are you here?"

She never expected that Qiao Xi would actually be sitting in the president's office. Jiang Qin, who was originally prepared to apologize humbly, instantly became imposing. "Mrs. Gu, you're quite capable. You can even enter the office of Qingfeng's president as you please. I'm looking for the president. Where is he?"

Qiao Xi glanced at her coldly, then continued playing the game on her phone. Waves of battle noises came from her phone. She did not take Jiang Qin seriously at all.

"Say something!" Jiang Qin shouted in exasperation.

She still did not know how she had offended the president of Qingfeng. Now that she saw Qiao Xi, Jiang Qin finally reacted. Qiao Xi must have come to Qingfeng and exaggerated things to badmouth her to the president, so the president did not send anyone for the handover.

Jiang Qin shouted, "I was wondering why there was a problem with the handover ceremony. You must be behind it. I want to see the president!"

Chapter 902: Two-Timing

Qiao Xi didn't even raise her head as her long fingers lightly tapped on the screen. Her voice was indifferent as she casually said, "You're not worthy."

Jiang Qin glared fiercely at Qiao Xi and said unwillingly, "You even have the cheek to sit here, so how am I not worthy to see the president? I'm the director of Heavenly Voice Entertainment!"

"That's the president's seat, yet you're sitting there? You're too uneducated! Don't think that just because you're Mrs. Gu, you can do whatever you want. Miss Xia is the president's friend as well, but she's not as impudent as you. Don't you have any shame?!"

Jiang Qin stared at Qiao Xi's face and suddenly had a flash of inspiration. Qiao Xi's appearance made her one of the top beauties in the entertainment industry. If such a beauty appeared in the president's office, perhaps...

"What's your relationship with the president of Qingfeng? No matter what, you and President Gu haven't divorced yet. You're still Mrs. Gu in name. How could you do such a thing? You really don't care about President Gu's reputation at all!"

Jiang Qin had worked in the entertainment company for so many years and had seen these things happen often. Those small-time celebrities who had poor resources would rely on their faces to seduce men in power if they wanted to take a shortcut. However, Qiao Xi was Gu Zheng's wife. Instead of fulfilling her duties as Mrs. Gu, she actually seduced an old man?

"The president of Qingfeng and President Gu are friends, yet you still dare to be so impudent? If President Gu finds out, he'll definitely not let you off!"

At this point, Jiang Qin suddenly curled her lips into a proud smile. "However, if you can help me plead with the president of Qingfeng and get him to forgive me so that the handover ceremony can be completed smoothly, I'll definitely keep this a secret."

After the game ended, Qiao Xi put down her phone and said in a teasing tone, "So you're here to apologize, Director Jiang? But why do I feel that you're not sincere at all?"

"I'm not apologizing to you. Why do I need to show my sincerity to you?! When I see the president, I'll naturally apologize respectfully. You don't have to worry about that!"

Jiang Qin looked at her with a mocking expression. "Aren't you just relying on your face to seduce men? Back then, you seduced President Gu and got married to him. Now that you've taken a liking to the future of Qingfeng Entertainment, you're here to seduce the president. However, he's an experienced man. He won't be bewitched by a woman like you. He's just playing with you."

"If you continue to two-time and the matter is exposed, President Gu will abandon you and the president of Qingfeng will ignore you as well. You'll even ruin their relationship as friends. Your reputation will be ruined from then on. Can you still stay in Li City then?"

Seeing her indifferent expression, Jiang Qin was instantly infuriated. She threatened, "Qiao Xi, if you don't help me tide over this crisis today, then don't blame me for falling out with you. If President Gu knows that you've cheated on him, will he still let you fool around using the title of Mrs. Gu?"

As soon as she finished speaking, footsteps came from the door. The person knocked and slowly walked in with a folder in his hand.

Jiang Qin turned around. Wasn't this Mr. Li from Qingfeng Entertainment? Previously, everyone thought that Li Jiang was the boss of Qingfeng Entertainment, but in reality, Li Jiang was just an employee. To be able to make such an outstanding person like Li Jiang willingly work under him meant that the president of Breeze Entertainment was very capable. He must have something outstanding that could convince talented employees like Mr. Li. How could such a man like him like a woman like Qiao Xi?

Li Jiang replied respectfully, “There’s still one more set. There’s a problem with the data submitted by Heavenly Voice Entertainment’s public relations department. It needs to be checked again.”

Qiao Xi had a serious expression. “My time is limited. If there’s a mistake in the verification, I’ll just toss the work to Heavenly Voice’s public relations department and let them solve it themselves.”

Jiang Qin’s body instantly trembled. Wasn’t the public relations department under her jurisdiction? Why did Qiao Xi look like she was very familiar with Li Jiang? She was even speaking to Mr. Li in a commanding tone. Was she so arrogant because she was used to being Mrs. Gu?

At this moment, Jiang Qin’s mind was filled with the thought of meeting the president. She did not have time to think about it because if she did not get the president’s forgiveness, her career would be over. If she was fired by Heavenly Voice Entertainment, who in the entire entertainment industry would dare to hire her? Hence, Jiang Qin rushed over to stop Li Jiang as though she was grabbing onto her savior.

Li Jiang did not expect Jiang Qin to suddenly rush over. He took a few steps back in fear. “What’s the matter?”

Chapter 903: Humiliating Director Jiang

Hearing Li Jiang’s distant tone, Jiang Qin looked troubled. Her heart thumped, but she still had a trace of hope. “Hello, Mr. Li. I’m the director of the public relations department of Heavenly Voice Entertainment. We did make a mistake in our work, which has made the president unhappy. I’m here to apologize to the president. Mr. Li, can you bring me to see the president?”

“You’re here to apologize to the president?” Li Jiang’s expression was a little strange. He was silent for a few seconds before he suddenly laughed. “If you’re here to apologize, why do you still need me to introduce you to the president? The president is already sitting here. Where else do you need me to bring you?”

The president was already here?

Jiang Qin’s face was pale. She was stunned for a few seconds before understanding Li Jiang’s words. She instantly felt as if she had been struck by lightning, and the blood in her entire body seemed to have frozen. At this moment, she finally reacted. Why was Li Jiang so respectful to Qiao Xi and he even reported to her? It was because Qiao Xi was actually the president of Qingfeng Entertainment!

At this instant, Jiang Qin wished for nothing more than to faint. Her heart was filled with regret, and she wished for nothing more than to be able to transmigrate. If she was given a chance, she would absolutely not dare to offend Qiao Xi.

Li Jiang smiled. “I was wondering why our president was mocked when she went to Heavenly Voice Entertainment. It turns out that you misunderstood things, Director Jiang.”

Jiang Qin’s face alternated between green and white. Then, her body began to tremble slightly.

“It doesn’t matter if you’re unwilling to apologize, Director Jiang. Our president won’t force you. However, if President Gu finds out that you offended the president and ruined the handover ceremony, I don’t know what he’ll do to you,” Li Jiang said word by word, but it sounded like a death warrant to Jiang Qin.

Qiao Xi sat on the chair, and the corners of her mouth curled up slightly when she saw Jiang Qin’s sorry state.

At this moment, Li Jiang’s eyes suddenly turned cold. “If you’re unwilling to apologize, then leave as soon as possible. You’re really an eyesore standing here.”

Jiang Qin’s face turned red as she muttered in a low voice, “You’re the president of Qingfeng Entertainment. Why didn’t you say anything when you went to the company?”

If Qiao Xi had told her her identity earlier, everything would not have happened. She would not have needed to come to Qingfeng Entertainment to apologize. In the end, it was all Qiao Xi’s fault!

Li Jiang stood in front of Jiang Qin, his eyes filled with coldness. “Director Jiang, when our president went to the company, she told you that she was going to take over the company, but you already decided that the new president was Miss Xia. This is your negligence, yet you’re blaming it on the president now?”

Jiang Qin was instantly speechless. As she looked at Qiao Xi’s smiling appearance, anger surged in her heart. She shouted loudly, “No wonder you said to me, ‘I hope you won’t regret your decision today.’ You were deliberately embarrassing me. You knew about the photos online, and you wanted to harm me!”

President Gu’s affair had caused an uproar. Qiao Xi would definitely investigate who was behind it. Perhaps she had already found out something.

Li Jiang said coldly, “Director Jiang, you’re thinking too much. Our president is usually busy with work and doesn’t have time to bicker with you. Are you worthy of wasting the president’s time?”

The truth was already in front of her, but Jiang Qin was still unwilling to believe it. After a long silence, she slowly lowered her head, and her voice trembled slightly. “Mrs. Gu, I’m sorry.”

Qiao Xi was only 20 years old. If she was really the president of Qingfeng Entertainment, wouldn’t she have founded this entertainment company when she was in her teens? How was this possible? Perhaps President Gu was the real boss behind the scenes and gave Qingfeng to Qiao Xi after they got married.

Suddenly, footsteps sounded from outside the door. A man wearing a navy blue suit jacket walked in with a trace of coldness. The moment he looked at Qiao Xi, the ice and snow in his eyes instantly melted, turning into a layer of warmth and affection.

Gu Zheng walked past Jiang Qin and walked in front of Qiao Xi. He handed a dessert bag to her and smiled gently. “Here, your favorite cake. I waited a long time to buy it.”

Qiao Xi took the bag and took out an exquisite box. She asked with a smile, “Ah Zheng, how did you know I wanted to eat this?”

Gu Zheng smiled gently. "I know what you're thinking, Mrs. Gu. You'll be in a good mood if you have some desserts. This way, you won't have to be angry with certain idiots."

As soon as he finished speaking, Jiang Qin felt a cold gaze land on her. It scared her so much that her entire body trembled. She looked up in fear and saw the brand on the dessert bag. She knew that this dessert shop was very particular about its workmanship. The ingredients were fresh and the desserts they made were limited every day. It was very difficult to buy them. A career man like President Gu would actually line up to buy cakes for a woman?

Chapter 904: She Lied

At this moment, Jiang Qin's mind was a mess. It turned out that the rumors of Mrs. Gu being abandoned were fake. President Gu clearly doted on her very much, but he was actually willing to waste precious time helping her queue up for desserts. What kind of favoritism was this? How could a man like Gu Zheng, who thought highly of himself, be so meticulous?

Jiang Qin's eyes were filled with horror as she retreated in fear. She even had the urge to run away. Just as she was about to leave, Gu Zheng suddenly turned around and said coldly, "Director Jiang."

Hearing Gu Zheng call her, Jiang Qin's body instantly trembled. The next second, she heard Gu Zheng ask casually, "In Qingfeng Entertainment, you should be addressing Mrs. Gu as 'President'. Do you think Mrs. Gu is unqualified to be the president of the two companies?"

Jiang Qin's face was pale as she lowered her head. If Qingfeng Entertainment was given to Qiao Xi by Gu Zheng, then the two of them had already known each other eight years ago. At that time, Qiao Xi was only a child.

Li Jiang walked forward with a cold expression. "Director Jiang, our president doesn't accept your apology. Please leave immediately!"

If Qiao Xi did not accept her apology, she would be chased out of the company before the two companies could merge. Jiang Qin did not know how she walked out of the door of Qingfeng Entertainment. She only felt weak all over like a walking corpse. When she dragged her tired body back to Heavenly Voice, many higher-ups were waiting for her in the company.

"Director Jiang, what did you do? How did you suddenly offend the president of Qingfeng Entertainment? What did he say?"

"Has the president of Qingfeng Entertainment forgiven you? Will he send someone over for the handover ceremony?"

Jiang Qin lowered her head, her body cold. She said while trembling, "The president of Qingfeng Entertainment didn't forgive me."

"What?" A higher-up's face instantly darkened. He roared at Jiang Qin, "President Gu cares a lot about this company merger. I told you a long time ago that you had to take this handover ceremony seriously, but what have you done? Qingfeng Entertainment won't send anyone over now. If President Gu blames us, who can bear the responsibility?"

Jiang Qin sobbed as tears welled up in her eyes. The higher-up took a deep breath. "Aren't you very close to Miss Xia? For now, you can only beg Miss Xia to plead for mercy. No matter what, she's a friend of the president of Qingfeng. If she pleads for mercy on your behalf, the president will at least show her some respect."

Hearing these words, Jiang Qin's eyes instantly turned vicious. She finally understood what she had done wrong. If Xia Mengyan had not come over early in the morning and pretended to be the president, even saying that she was very close to President Gu and President Gu did not like Qiao Xi anymore, how could she have offended Mrs. Gu?

It was all Xia Mengyan's fault! She lied! She was a b*tch!

"Miss Xia! You're finally here. Now..." Coincidentally, Xia Mengyan was walking over. The higher-up who spoke earlier immediately went forward to explain the current situation. Unexpectedly, before he could finish, Jiang Qin laughed crazily.

The higher-up frowned unhappily. "Are you crazy?! Why are you suddenly laughing?!"

"Mr. Pan, I'm laughing at this lady for not knowing the president of Qingfeng at all yet pretending to. It's useless to look for her now. She can't solve this matter at all." Jiang Qin looked at Xia Mengyan sharply.

Xia Mengyan's body trembled, but she quickly returned to normal. Her voice was still gentle, but there was a trace of guilt. "Director Jiang, how can you say that about me? You can't blame me even if the president refused to forgive you, right?"

"You said that you're friends with the president of Qingfeng, right?" Jiang Qin suddenly questioned, her voice suddenly sharp. "Then why didn't you know when the president came just now? The president was standing there, but you stole the position of the president and even used her reputation to deceive us! You're too scheming, Xia Mengyan!"

As soon as she finished speaking, the entire place was silent. Everyone looked at Xia Mengyan. Even the higher-up from earlier was looking at Xia Mengyan suspiciously. "Miss Xia, did you chase the president of Qingfeng away?"

If all of this was orchestrated by Xia Mengyan, it would have nothing to do with Heavenly Voice. At the very least, they could give President Gu an explanation.

Xia Mengyan's face darkened, and her voice trembled slightly. "Director Jiang, what nonsense are you talking about? I'm the new president. I haven't seen the president of Qingfeng since I arrived at the company. How could I have chased him away?"

"Are you sure? Why don't you think about it carefully?" Jiang Qin revealed a mocking smile. Her voice was as terrifying as a demon's.

Chapter 905: Sue Xia Mengyan

Xia Mengyan was about to answer when her body suddenly trembled. A figure flashed past her mind, and she instantly swallowed the words in her mouth. Her eyes were filled with disbelief.

Everyone had puzzled expressions. What did this have to do with Qiao Xi?

Xia Mengyan's lips trembled slightly. "No... Impossible!"

"Xia Mengyan! Stop pretending. You're not the friend of Qingfeng's president at all! Today, the president of Qingfeng personally came to the company for the handover, but you chased her away. That person is Qiao Xi!"

The anger and grievances in Jiang Qin's heart gathered into a ball as she vented everything out on Xia Mengyan. After her angry roar, the place was silent, and even the sound of breathing stopped.

After a few seconds of silence, Xia Mengyan stammered, "What nonsense are you talking about?! The president of Qingfeng and I are friends! How could that person be Xi Xi?"

"Then who's the president you're talking about? Why don't you call him out to confront us?" A man's voice came from the door. Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw Li Jiang walking in with Qingfeng's higher-ups.

"Miss Qiao Xi has been the president for six years. Miss Xia, don't you know this? If you didn't, why did you go around saying that you're the friend of Qingfeng's president?"

Li Jiang's words were light, but it was like a slap to Xia Mengyan's face, making her blush in shame.

When the higher-up of Heavenly Voice saw Li Jiang arrive, he hurriedly went forward to greet him. "Mr. Li, welcome. We're so sorry for not going out to meet you. It was Heavenly Voice's negligence. Please don't take offense."

Li Jiang glanced at that person and said indifferently, "Fortunately, the president and President Gu are husband and wife. Their collaboration won't be affected by certain people. If it were anyone else, it would've been absolutely impossible for them to agree to the merger. President Gu already knows that you've angered the president and is very angry. However, the president is soft-hearted and pleaded on your behalf. After all, we have to work together in the future. But..."

When the higher-up heard Li Jiang's words, his heart jumped. The next second, Li Jiang's gaze landed on Xia Mengyan. He snorted. "After our two companies merge, we'll be a family. But how did an outsider like Miss Xia become the president?"

Everyone gasped. Everyone knew that Xia Mengyan became the president because she said that she was a friend of the president of Qingfeng, but now that Li Jiang had already clarified this matter in public, she was clearly the one who cheated her way to this position.

"Miss Xia, you're not from Qingfeng or Heavenly Voice. What right do you have to be the president? Could it be that you want to steal business secrets? The company's legal department will be suing you. I hope you'll be mentally prepared. Remember not to impersonate someone else in the future to avoid trouble."

The higher-up of Heavenly Voice hurriedly said, "Actually, it's our fault for not investigating clearly. That's why we easily believed Xia Mengyan's words. Fortunately, the president is magnanimous and won't bicker with us. Xia Mengyan and Director Jiang's actions have seriously harmed the company's interests. We should indeed sue them!"

Jiang Qin had long expected her to pay the price for this, but she did not expect the company to sue her. She cried and begged for mercy, but Li Jiang's face was cold.

Xia Mengyan lowered her head and clenched her fists tightly. Her ears were buzzing. The surroundings were noisy, but she could not hear a word. Li Jiang's words kept repeating in her mind. What right did they have to sue her?

"Miss Xia, our president doesn't want to bicker with you, but when President Gu found out about this, he was very angry. The handover ceremony that he carefully prepared was ruined by an outsider, so what kind of punishment do you think will await you?"

Xia Mengyan took a few steps back, her eyes filled with horror. "What are you doing? I'm the eldest daughter of the Xia family!"

Li Jiang snorted and said disdainfully, "The Xia family? In President Gu's eyes, the Xia family is nothing. Miss Xia, wait for the lawyer's letter!"

Xia Mengyan's gaze was vicious as she gritted her teeth. She could only ignore everyone's disdainful gazes. She picked up her bag and fled from Heavenly Voice Entertainment in a panic. She had just reached the underground parking lot when she heard a woman's angry roar behind her. "Xia Mengyan!"

She turned around and saw Jiang Qin with bloodshot eyes. She rushed over crazily and grabbed her hair. She shouted at the top of her lungs, "You b*tch! How dare you lie to me? You're killing me. I've worked hard for so many years, but in the end, not only am I out of a job but I'm also being sued!"

Chapter 906: The Truth Behind The Rumors

Xia Mengyan had been pampered since she was young and was the eldest daughter of the Xia family. She was the center of attention wherever she went. Naturally, no one would quarrel with her or hit her. It was her first time seeing someone act as crazily as Jiang Qin.

Jiang Qin pulled her hair forcefully. Xia Mengyan gritted her teeth in pain and ignored her image as a socialite. She reached out and grabbed Jiang Qin's hair as well. "You're too stupid. That's why you were deceived by me. You deserve it!"

"If you hadn't said that you were the president, how could I have offended Mrs. Gu?" Jiang Qin shouted while panting. She was so angry that her entire body was trembling. She wished she could tear Xia Mengyan into pieces.

Xia Mengyan's face was ferocious as she fought with Jiang Qin. Coincidentally, a few people were walking over not far away. Xia Mengyan was afraid that others would see her in a sorry state, so she shook Jiang Qin off and quickly got into the car. "Let's go!"

After the chauffeur replied, he stepped on the accelerator and the car quickly drove away. The window was still open, so Xia Mengyan could clearly hear their conversation. “She’s really shameless! She pretended to be the president and even chased Mrs. Gu away. She’s still a noble daughter nonetheless, so how could she throw away her reputation for the position of president?”

“She even said that the president of Qingfeng Entertainment is a senior. Actually, Mrs. Gu is only in her 20s. She’s even a few years younger than her! She doesn’t even blush when lying!”

‘Qiao Xi! Just you wait!’

After calming down, Xia Mengyan suddenly sensed that something was wrong. Qiao Xi was chased out of the house 10 years ago. Six years ago, she was still a child. It was already unexpected that she was able to eat her fill and wear warm clothes. How did she have the ability to found Qingfeng Entertainment? This was impossible! Was Qingfeng Entertainment the property left to her by Xia Yunqiu? Since it was left to her by Xia Yunqiu, it should belong to the Xia family!

What right did Qiao Xi have to rely on her identity as the president of Qingfeng to suppress her, the eldest daughter of the Xia family?

After returning to the Xia family, Xia Mengyan sat on the sofa with messy hair. Her eyes were red as she sobbed softly. Xia Cheng’s expression was gloomy as he slammed the table. “Qiao Xi! She’s too impudent!”

Xia Mengyan’s tears trickled down as she choked. “She clearly went to the company for the handover, but she didn’t tell me and made me lose my reputation in public. Moreover, Qingfeng Entertainment was established six years ago. At that time, she was only 13 or 14 years old. How could she have had the ability? I’m guessing Qingfeng must be Aunt Yunqiu’s inheritance.”

Xia Mengyan wiped her tears. “I’m just guessing, but this is the most reasonable possibility. Although Aunt Yunqiu has passed away, she’s still your daughter. The assets she gave to the Qiao family were enough for the Qiao family to squander for so many years. She must have left Xi Xi a lot of assets too, so I think Qingfeng Entertainment was also one of Aunt Yunqiu’s assets.”

Xia Cheng’s gaze was cold. Their Xia family did not even have such a huge entertainment company, yet Xia Yunqiu actually handed the company to a teenage girl?

“Yunqiu is my daughter, and Xi Xi is my granddaughter. If you have time, get her to come home for a meal. Coincidentally, we should look into Yunqiu’s assets. If she’s really unwilling to interact with the Xia family, then the assets that belong to the Xia family should be returned.”

Xia Mengyan revealed a victorious smile. Since she could not deal with Qiao Xi, she would let her grandfather deal with her!

Heavenly Voice and Qingfeng were being merged. Qiao Xi and Li Jiang were so busy that they did not even have time to eat. Many things had to be dealt with immediately before the company could continue operating. Everyone was only done at nine at night.

The news of the two companies merging instantly spread throughout the internet. The artists in the company also reposted the news on Weibo. Netizens commented: [When President Gu attended the annual meeting of Heavenly Voice Entertainment, he said that Heavenly Voice was for a friend and it would be returned to that person one day.]

[I heard that the new president has already taken over. Who is it?]

[The president is Mrs. Gu! Heavenly Voice is a gift from President Gu to Mrs. Gu. The two of them have known each other for many years. They're really too loving!]

[Love? But someone exposed President Gu's affair yesterday!]

[I finally understand why President Gu didn't come forward to explain yesterday. It's because after the merger of Heavenly Voice and Qingfeng, all the rumors will be proven to be unfounded. If President Gu really wanted to abandon Mrs. Gu, why would he give Heavenly Voice to her? If it weren't for the fact that he really liked her, President Gu wouldn't have founded Heavenly Voice Entertainment at all!]

Chapter 907: The Person In Her Dream

After everyone finished their work, it was already 10 o'clock when they walked out of the company. Although it was early spring, the night was still very cold. The cold wind blew. Qiao Xi wrapped her coat tightly around her body when she suddenly heard footsteps behind her.

Gu Zheng was wearing a black jacket and held a white windbreaker in his hand. His deep eyes swept over the thin suit Qiao Xi was wearing, then he draped the windbreaker in his hand over her and asked softly, "Are you cold?"

"Yes, it's fortunate that you're here." Qiao Xi buttoned up the windbreaker and waved goodbye to Li Jiang. At this moment, there were only the two of them at the door. Qiao Xi looked at the neon lights in the distance and took a deep breath. "When I founded Qingfeng, I always thought that Heavenly Voice was my greatest rival. I didn't expect that one day, the two companies would merge and I would even become the president."

Gu Zheng pulled her into his arms, his warm chest transmitting warmth to her. Then, he held her hand and got into the car. "Heavenly Voice was originally a company under Gu Corporation, so you have to go to Gu Corporation's headquarters tomorrow to sign some documents."

Qiao Xi nodded and leaned against his shoulder tiredly before closing her eyes.

20 minutes later, Song Shiyu parked the car at the entrance of Longwan Residential. He had just turned around to ask the president and Young Madam to get out of the car when he saw Gu Zheng hugging Young Madam. The president signaled at him to not make a sound. It turned out that Young Madam was already asleep.

Song Shiyu quickly got out of the car and opened the door of the back seat. Gu Zheng carefully carried Qiao Xi out, and the two of them went upstairs.

Qiao Xi's mind was heavy. There seemed to be someone standing in front of her. That person's voice was very familiar, and it sounded like the Gu Zheng she remembered from her childhood. His tone was equally calm, but it carried a trace of immaturity. She wanted to see the person before her clearly, but her vision was blurry. No matter how hard she tried, she was unable to approach him.

She tried to use all her strength. Just as she was about to approach that person, she heard a mature man's voice. "Xi Xi?"

Qiao Xi abruptly opened her eyes and gasped for breath.

Gu Zheng's deep eyes were filled with gentleness. He reached out to grab a tissue and gently wiped the sweat off her forehead. His voice was low and magnetic. "What did you dream of?"

Gu Zheng knew that she had something on her mind, but he did not continue asking. He naturally changed the topic. "I heard that you've been playing games with Gu Yao recently? What game is it?"

Qiao Xi was stunned for a moment and gritted her teeth. That b*tch Song Shiyu must have told Gu Zheng. She smiled and shook her head. "No! I'm very busy with work. How could I have time to play games? You must have heard wrongly."

Seeing her guilty look, Gu Zheng could not help but smile. "I didn't say I wouldn't let you play. You don't have to rush to deny it."

As a top hacker, he had naturally come into contact with competitive games. He had also watched professional competitions. There were many professional players in Stars. He knew that Qiao Xi liked to play games, but she usually played with others and never teamed up with him.

Gu Zheng stroked Qiao Xi's cheek. "I want to play with you."

Qiao Xi raised her eyes in surprise. "Forget it. Those games don't have much technical content. They're meaningless to you."

Gu Zheng smiled. Ordinary competitive games did not interest top hackers like him, but if it was with Mrs. Gu, he would be very interested in playing. He asked, "You're also a top hacker. Why do you like to play that game, then? And you even play with Gu Yao."

Qiao Xi was stunned for a few seconds. Why did she feel that these words were laced with a little jealousy?

She hurriedly explained, "Gu Yao and I play the same game, but the difference in our levels is too big. We can't play together, so we play by ourselves."

Gu Zheng instantly understood. It turned out that Gu Yao's rank was too low and he could not form a team with Qiao Xi, so he could only watch Qiao Xi fight in the game while expressing his admiration for her.

Qiao Xi yawned, and her eyes were slightly sore. She lay lazily on the bed and said coquettishly, "Ah Zheng, I'm so tired! I'll sleep first. Wake me up in the morning. I still have documents to handle."

Gu Zheng covered her up with the blanket and said gently, "Sleep well. I'll help you handle the documents."

After Qiao Xi fell asleep, Gu Zheng picked up her phone. He had just unlocked the password when a game interface appeared on the screen. Mrs. Gu kept saying that she was too busy to play games, but she was clearly still playing before she fell asleep.

Chapter 908: The Allure Of The Game

Gu Zheng had always thought that Qiao Xi and Gu Zheng were playing a competitive game, but the animation on the game interface was too childish. He frowned and tapped on the screen. A line of words appeared clearly: [Welcome back! Dear Princess Xi Xi, please help Lisa choose a dress to attend the dance.]

The corners of Gu Zheng's mouth suddenly twitched. The phone in his hand was like a hot potato. He suddenly felt a little awkward.

This was actually a game for little girls where one did makeovers? This was the game Qiao Xi and Gu Yao were playing together?

Gu Zheng sat on the chair and could not calm down for a long time. He looked at the game interface in a daze. He was very curious about the allure of this game. It actually made a man like Gu Yao so obsessed. Hence, the domineering president, Gu Zheng, downloaded the makeup game that countless little girls liked.

The next morning, Gu Yao went downstairs early as it was the day of the official merger of Heavenly Sound and Qingfeng. However, he realized that the butler and Song Shiyu were not around. Gu Zheng was the only one sitting on the sofa with his phone.

The living room was filled with game music. Gu Yao suddenly stopped in his tracks and looked at Gu Zheng in shock. His brother was also playing a game? Was he still Gu Zheng?

Gu Yao approached with a strange expression. Gu Zheng looked up and glanced at him before focusing on the game again. Gu Yao suddenly became nervous. Could it be that Gu Zheng knew that he was playing this game? What was wrong with him playing this game? At first, he only watched Li Xing'er play the game. Then, he became curious about the allure of this game, so he downloaded it.

Looking at Gu Zheng's expression, Gu Yao could not help but gulp. He was afraid that Gu Zheng would laugh at him, so he decided to take the initiative. He placed his hands behind his back and pretended to be calm. "Hey! Gu Zheng, how old are you? You're actually playing this game that little girls like? You're a man! You're playing makeover games like this? How inappropriate! If news of this gets out, it'll damage your dignity!"

Gu Zheng sneered without turning his head.

"You're unconvinced? Do you believe that I'll tell Qiao Xi?" Gu Yao had an arrogant expression.

"So?" Gu Zheng replied disdainfully.

Gu Yao looked at Gu Zheng's indifferent expression and was suddenly a little angry. It was not easy for him to have something on Gu Zheng, so how could he let him off so easily? He put on a shameless posture. "You're the president of Gu Corporation and the head of the Gu family. How dare you hide in the living room early in the morning to play a game meant for little girls?"

"Time is money. Every minute you have is so precious, yet you're actually using it to play games? I was really wrong about you. You've really disappointed me."

Gu Zheng sneered and continued playing the game, not taking him seriously at all. Gu Yao sat beside Gu Zheng, and his gaze subconsciously landed on his phone screen. He asked in surprise, "How did you pass?"

"You want to know?" Gu Zheng raised an eyebrow.

Gu Yao nodded without hesitation. "Yes!"

"I also want to know why you can't pass such a simple round." Gu Zheng's tone was indifferent, but there was a trace of disdain.

Gu Yao was embarrassed and snorted angrily. "I don't play this game. Don't malign me!"

"How do you know it's difficult to pass if you haven't played it before? Are you still gonna lie to me?" A trace of ridicule flashed past Gu Zheng's eyes as he quietly watched Gu Yao pretend.

Gu Yao was still unconvinced. "I just saw Li Xing'er playing. I downloaded it, but I didn't play it at all!"

"You don't play it?" Gu Zheng pointed at the friend list on the screen. Gu Yao's name was displayed there. "If you don't play this game, why is your name here? Moreover, it shows that you've already passed 130 rounds."

Gu Yao wanted to cry but had no tears. How could he have forgotten about this? It was too awkward for his brother to realize that he played such a game.

On the other hand, Gu Zheng clicked into Gu Yao's homepage curiously. Suddenly, the corners of his mouth twitched slightly. Then, he looked at his silly brother in disdain. "Gu Yao, your game name is Yao Yao?"

After breakfast, Gu Yao complained to Qiao Xi with an aggrieved expression. "Sister-in-law! Control Gu Zheng. Is this how he treats his younger brother? He looks down on me for playing the makeover game and even mocked my username!"

Only then did Qiao Xi realize that she had forgotten to exit the game interface yesterday. Gu Zheng should have seen it.

Gu Yao was indignant. "What's wrong with playing a makeover game? What right does he have to look down on me? I've decided that from today onward, I want to be an internet-addicted youth! I want to play a difficult game!"

Chapter 909: Uninvited Guests

At Gu Corporation's headquarters.

Gu Zheng nodded and held Qiao Xi's hand as they got out of the car. Under the burning gazes of everyone, Qiao Xi was slightly uncomfortable. "Gu Zheng, I'm just signing a contract. There's no need to make such a big fuss, right?"

As soon as she entered, Qiao Xi saw the special decorations around her. Everyone bowed to the two of them. Gu Zheng held her hand and walked straight to the elevator. Everyone was curious and afraid, so they could only take a few glances.

"So that's Mrs. Gu!"

"Have you all heard? Yesterday, Mrs. Gu went to Heavenly Voice Entertainment but was stopped by two women. They said that Mrs. Gu wasn't worthy of President Gu at all and she didn't have the ability to manage the company."

After the two of them went upstairs, someone immediately sent over the contract and documents. After Qiao Xi signed the paperwork, she took a deep breath and said, "Actually, the person who founded Qingfeng was my mother. She was also the one who named Qingfeng Entertainment. I only saw it in her notebook. I found that notebook when I was packing up my mother's belongings. Later on, it was almost burned by Xu Mei. Fortunately, I managed to salvage half of it, so it's still fresh in my mind."

Hearing Qiao Xi's words, Gu Zheng frowned. Xu Mei was really evil. Letting her spend the rest of her life in prison was letting her off easy.

"When Mom died, this entertainment company had yet to be officially established, but it was already in its infancy and was left to Mr. Li to manage. Mr. Li and his son have been working hard for this company all these years. If it weren't for them, Qingfeng Entertainment wouldn't exist today. I'd even be willing to give all the company's funds and power to Mr. Li. Unfortunately, Mom didn't have the chance to see Qingfeng Entertainment at its peak now.

"Mr. Li used the start-up funds left behind by my mother and his savings over the years to manage Qingfeng Entertainment with difficulty. At that time, the company only had one artist and no resources.

With Eldest Brother's help six years ago, Qingfeng Entertainment finally made a splash in the entertainment industry."

Gu Zheng pulled her into his arms and chuckled. "Then I have to thank Shen Yu. Without him, the two companies wouldn't have been able to merge today."

Qiao Xi lowered her eyes and was about to speak when her secretary suddenly called. "President, there's an old man in the hall. He claims to be Young Madam's grandfather and wants to come up."

Grandpa?

Gu Zheng's gaze turned cold. "No."

The secretary informed the receptionist, who replied in embarrassment, "Old Master, the young madam is very busy and doesn't have time to see you for the time being."

In reality, the receptionist was already used to dealing with people who tried to get close to the president. There had been more than 10 people who said they were the president's family members. These people must know that the president had a bad temper, so they started pretending to be Young Madam's relatives.

The receptionist looked at the old man and the young lady in front of her helplessly. "I'm sorry, but please come back another day."

Xia Cheng's expression instantly darkened. This unfilial daughter, Qiao Xi, was actually refusing to see him? Qingfeng Entertainment, which was in her hands, occupied half of the variety shows in the entertainment industry. Its annual income was very considerable. That was Xia Yunqiu's asset, which meant it was also the Xia family's asset. What qualifications did Qiao Xi have to keep it all for herself? She should give Yunlou and Mengyan some shares.

He had given Qiao Xi face by personally coming to Gu Corporation. He did not expect that Qiao Xi would actually refuse to meet them.

Xia Cheng pointed at Xia Mengyan who was beside him and glared at her. "This is the young madam's sister, and I'm the young madam's grandfather. Are you sure you've reported it to Qiao Xi?"

The receptionist revealed a formal smile. "We've already reported it according to the standard procedures. The president has said that he won't be seeing you today. No matter whose relative you are, as long as the president doesn't agree, we don't have the right to let you in. Why don't you call Young Madam? As long as she agrees, I believe the president won't refuse."

Xia Cheng's expression darkened. Seeing this, Xia Mengyan hurriedly said gently, "Xi Xi is arguing with us. We can't contact her, so let us in."

As soon as she finished speaking, the receptionist's patience ran out. She said with disdain, "So many people come and claim to be the president or young madam's relatives. Our president and young madam are busy, so how could they have the time to meet you? Please leave!"

Xia Cheng was so angry that his beard trembled. He snorted. "Bastard! They're refusing to meet us? Mengyan! Let's go!"

Chapter 910: She's Young And Insensible

Xia Mengyan looked helpless. "Grandpa, don't be angry. Cousin is now the wife of the president of Gu Corporation. She's arrogant, so she looks down on us. Your health isn't good, so don't be angry. Let's go home first."

When the people at the side heard this, they instantly frowned. There were many people in the company, and the news quickly spread throughout the entire company. Mrs. Gu had just taken over the position, yet she did not acknowledge her grandfather anymore? No matter what, he was her grandfather. The old master personally came to the company to look for her, but she refused to see him?

"Is Mrs. Gu so heartless?"

"She's young, so it's normal for her to fool around considering how much President Gu dotes on her. However, Mrs. Gu is insensible. Could it be that President Gu doesn't know what's going on? He's actually letting her fool around?"

"I heard that President Gu went to a meeting. It must be because Mrs. Gu doesn't want to see her relatives, so she instructed the front desk to chase her away."

Hearing the crowd's discussion, Xia Mengyan lowered her head and smiled sinisterly. When she looked up again, she frowned and looked troubled. "Grandpa, let's go. Cousin must be too busy to see us. She's not looking down on us."

Xia Cheng snorted. "As an elder, I've already come personally, but she's unwilling to see me. What is she so busy with that she doesn't even have time to meet me for a few minutes?"

With that, Xia Cheng coughed violently, looking heartbroken.

Xia Mengyan helped him vent his anger and said with a bitter smile, "Grandpa, she's married to President Gu now and doesn't care about us anymore. Why are you angry with her?"

"This is too much!" Suddenly, someone could not help but say, "Just because she's married to the president, she can be arrogant and refuse to see her elders? What's there for her to be arrogant about?!" At this moment, a young man in a suit walked over. He was not an employee of the company but was here to discuss a collaboration with Gu Corporation. He comforted Xia Mengyan softly, saying, "Miss, don't be anxious. I'll help you ask around."

With that, the man walked toward the front desk, his eyes filled with anger. "Even if she's the wife of the president, she can't refuse to meet her elders! The old man came all the way to the company just to see his granddaughter, but she refuses to pay attention to him. Isn't that too unreasonable?"

After being questioned like this, the receptionist suddenly lost her confidence. "The president said..."

“How could President Gu not want to see his elders? It must clearly be Mrs. Gu’s idea! She’s young and insensible. Don’t you understand? The old man couldn’t contact his granddaughter, so he rushed all the way here. However, you insist on not letting them in. If President Gu blames you, can you bear the responsibility?”

The man turned to look at Xia Mengyan. Seeing her red eyes, his heart softened. “Don’t be sad. The matter will be resolved.”

Xia Mengyan lowered her eyes and smiled bitterly. “Thank you. Actually, I’m already used to it. Xi Xi is wilful, but she’s still very kind. If she finds out that Grandpa dragged his sick body to see her, her heart will definitely soften.”

“You’re welcome. I just can’t stand to see a beauty suffer. I’m an employee of Jiye Corporation. No matter what, I’ll help you to the end today!”

Seeing Xia Mengyan’s aggrieved look and tears, his heart immediately ached. “If Mrs. Gu still doesn’t want to see you, I’ll go upstairs and look for her to reason things out. She actually made her grandfather wait here—”

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw Qiao Xi slowly walking toward them. Her indifferent gaze swept across the crowd before she finally looked at Xia Mengyan. Before Xia Mengyan could speak, the young man stood up and reprimanded, “Mrs. Gu, your grandfather has been waiting for you downstairs for a long time. You didn’t answer his calls and refused to see him. You even asked the receptionist to chase them away. You’re too much!”

Qiao Xi glanced at the nameplate on the man’s clothes with an indifferent expression. Xia Mengyan was really charming. It had only been a short while, yet someone was already standing up for her.

Xia Mengyan smiled proudly. No matter what her grandfather had done in the past, he was still Qiao Xi’s grandfather. If Qiao Xi did not acknowledge him as her grandfather, she would be unfilial! Even if she held a high position, she would still be despised by the world.

“Xi Xi, you’re married to President Gu now. I can understand that you want to cut ties with us and are unwilling to interact with us, but...” Xia Mengyan looked sad and could not help but sob.
