

Last Building on Earth Chapter 5

While bandaging Wang Qin, Gu Manyao looked up at Wang Xuan and Zhao Lei and said, "Wang Qin's injury is serious, she must be taken to the hospital immediately, otherwise her wound will be easily infected."

Zhao Lei looked ugly and said, "But now the car has been knocked over, how can we go to the hospital? I can't get through the phone, and I can't find the exit."

Zhang Qianwen still looked terrified: "Why are there such terrifying beasts in this parking lot, did they escape from the zoo?"

Zhao Lei glanced at her and said, "Have you seen such a beast in the zoo? We don't know where it is now. It's obviously the underground parking lot of Longmao Plaza, but I just searched for a long time and couldn't find the exit. What do you mean? what's going on."

Gu Manyao said, "Where did that red car just appear from?"

When Wang Xuan heard Gu Manyao talking about the red car, his heart suddenly moved. He bypassed Zhao Lei's overturned car, and immediately saw the red car with the front of the car sunk in. Seeing the car's door was open, there was a large pool of blood on the ground. , he saw a woman in a red dress lying on her back in this big pool of blood, her eyes were round, her throat was torn open, and there was no breath.

Wang Xuan felt a discomfort in his throat after only one glance, and his whole body felt chills like an electric shock.

Although he was not timid, it was the first time in his life that he had seen such a **** scene with his own eyes. His scalp was numb and he dared not look at it again. He immediately sat in the driver's seat and found that the car keys were in the car, so he tried it immediately. Start the car.

"I hope the car isn't broken..." Wang Xuan thought silently in his heart, grabbed the steering wheel with both hands, stepped on the brakes, successfully started the car, and fell back two meters.

Zhao Lei and the others also heard the sound of the car starting, and when they saw Wang Xuan driving the red car, they immediately ran over.

Wang Xuan stopped the car and got off the driveway again: "Quick, this car can still drive, let's drive this car away."

While talking, he ran over again. Together with Zhao Lei and a few others, Wang Xuan was half-supported and half-lifted and stuffed into the car. This time, Zhao Lei sat in the co-pilot, and Wang Xuan drove.

After closing the car door, a few people calmed down a bit. Wang Xuan's driving skills were not much better than Zhao Lei's, but he was much calmer than Zhao Lei. He carefully reversed the car, ready to turn around and leave.

He remembered that the female driver just turned the red car from the load-bearing column here and hit Zhao Lei's car. There should be a way out on the other side of the load-bearing column, but when he turned the car carefully, However, he found that the other side of the load-bearing column was full of cars. There was a wall behind these cars, and there was no way for a car to drive out.

Zhao Lei also immediately discovered the problem, widened his eyes, and shouted in horror: "What's going on? I remember that this car rushed out from this side and hit my car, why is there a wall here? If this car was originally parked here, there should be an empty parking space here, it is impossible for all parking spaces to be parked, so where did this car come from?"

All five people in the car looked at each other, unable to speak.

Wang Xuan grabbed the steering wheel, stared at the row of cars in front and the wall in the distance, and said slowly: "There is only one possibility, we are no longer in the underground parking lot of Longmao Plaza, the time and space here is chaotic, I remember that the woman got out of the car to check the situation before the attack, and said something, she said she could see clearly, there was no car in front of her, where did the car suddenly appear, how could there be no movement at all ...I didn't think much about what this sentence meant at the time, I just thought she hit the excuse we said, and now I think about it, maybe she didn't lie, for her, our car may suddenly appear in front of her, When the incident happened suddenly, she panicked and mistakenly used the accelerator as the brake and knocked our car over."

Zhao Lei looked at Wang Xuan and said in a daze: "Wang Xuan, do you mean that we crossed while driving, and this woman also drove across, and everyone happened to cross together and hit each other?"

He often reads some novels about the protagonist's time travel, so when Wang Xuan said this, he immediately thought of those time travel novels.

Zhang Qianwen's face was full of fear, and she was about to cry: "Isn't time-travel all fake? How could we cross-travel, let's not go to the barbecue, I want to go home, Zhao Lei, it's all your fault for going to the barbecue!"

Wang Xuan listened to Zhang Qianwen's cry and she blamed Zhao Lei, and felt a little irritable in his heart, and said: "Don't cry, it's useless to cry and complain now, and these are just guesses, maybe we are still in the parking lot of Longmao Plaza. , in short, try to see if you can find a way out."

While talking, he drove around from the other side, and drove forward between the two rows of parked cars on the opposite side.

Gu Manyao comforted Zhang Qianwen softly. Although Wang Qin was seriously injured, her face was twisted in pain. UU reading www. But uukanshu.com gritted his teeth and said nothing, his performance was much stronger than Zhang Qianwen.

After finding out that there is no road here, Wang Xuan's mood has fallen to a low point. After Zhao Lei drove into the underground parking lot, everything the five of them went through after getting off the car, in retrospect, there are all kinds of anomalies, such as parking on this scale. Why was there a sudden power outage, and no one came to repair it for so long, and they couldn't find a way out after walking for ten minutes, but they didn't take it seriously at the time, and no one thought deeply about it.

Everything they have experienced now tells him that all this is abnormal, and they are only afraid that they will encounter an unimaginable situation.

Zhao Lei sat in the co-pilot, his eyes were straight, and he muttered: "You can't be wrong, we are afraid that we really crossed, otherwise why would such a terrible monster suddenly appear, I have never heard of any animal growing up. If it is like this, even if it exists, it should live in some primitive forests, how can it appear in the underground parking lot of Longmao Plaza? It's over... You say, will there be more than one monster here?"

As soon as these words were said, everyone in the car felt a chill in their hearts.

Zhang Qianwen was finally persuaded by Gu Manyao to stop crying. When Zhao Lei said this, her face that was full of fear became even more frightened, and she immediately started crying again.

Wang Qin cried weakly, "Zhao Lei, don't talk nonsense, you crow."

Gu Manyao suddenly said, "What Zhao Lei said has a certain possibility. We...have to plan for the worst."

Zhao Lei nodded immediately and said, "Yes, everyone is looking in the car to see if there are any weapons or something."

As he spoke, he opened the storage box in front of the co-pilot, and found that there were messy items such as lipstick and earphones, and a vehicle insurance contract was also stuffed in it, but there was no weapon for self-defense.
