

Last Man 25

Chapter 25 - Family discussion

After seating down side by side and all of them are now comfortable with their seating position and they continue their discussions. Mei's family are seating in the right side while El's family in the left side, the kids are seating in the middle of their parents and Aya seating in the middle of Mei and El.

"So El and Mei, Rei didn't tell you where she works now because she's still a newbie in the company and it's already been 7 months since she works but she didn't tell about this to you because she wasn't sure about her employment status but I assure you that Rei joins in a law abider company not any some underground one, she also get the salary very well and until now Rei doing her best to become a regular one. Rest assured because I know where she work but I let Rei, be the one to inform you and not me."

"We understand Ma" both El and Mei.

"By the way Ma, how about Sis lovelife?"

"All of us will know if Rei have one but for now it's still the same, Rei still not found the one for her"

"How about Vin?" except kids

"I don't know but one time when Rei arrived, her eyes are swollen and red, maybe she cried but she didn't explained it to me why" so it turns out that Rei's mother notice her.

"Oh is that so?" Aya nodded "then their two reasons for that."

“What is it Mei?” the four kids just keep silent because the a.d.u.l.ts are talking and they just listened attentively.

“One, Sis got rejected or two, Vin’s taken”

“Oh!”

“Well, well it’s alright because Sis just see Vin as a friend and not in a romantic way”

“Why?”

“Eh, you didn’t notice?” they nodded except the kids

“Let me ask you Lyn, how did you express your love to Bro El when you’re not a couple yet?”

“Eh?” then blushing hard

“Com’on, you already married for 2 years and half then you have kids already so no need to be shy”

“Geez Mei you didn’t change at all and you’re still the same”

“I know, now speak, Lyn.”

“Okay, well for me I visit El everytime I’m free, I call him everytime I miss him, I message him everyday and I spend my day when I’m available to El.”

“Thanks Lyn and how about you my dear husband, My En?”

Blush but then replied his wife right away "I always message you even you didn't reply, I always request a video call even you rejected the call, I always visit you here from T country when I'm on my vacation leave even you shunned me out, then I always pursue you until you say yes"

'Dad, you're really in love with mom. Well thanks that you're not giving up and now your happily married with Mom and Mom is also in love with you' both Ken and Ren thinking the same.

"So after Lyn and My En explain how they express their love, we can now compare Rei to what she feels to Vin right.?" they nodded and thinking the action of Rei towards Vin but only Mei said it out loud. "So Sis Rei never visit Vin when she's free, never call him and never message him, Sis only answered his calls once a year and Sis only message when it's Vin birthday or any special occasions but only greeted and never intend to visit or meeting him. I think Sis always free when we talk about reading her favorites novels, comics and manga. Even watching dramas and music videos, so Sis have many free if we're talking about that but when it's about Vin, she always seems busy, right?" everyone nodded then En realized something and said.

"Both of you My Mei and Rei are really sister's at all, you act the same but at least even you never reply to me, never answered my call and shunned me out, once a month you will message me, reason out that you're busy and request a video call for me and checking me if I am safe and which hotel I stay after you shunned me out."

"So, who's heartless your wife or your sister in law?"

"No one My Mei, you did that to me to test how sincere I am and Rei just did that to Vin because she didn't love him and only like him as her friend. If Rei found special someone and close to her heart, then she will truly love him like what you feel to me."

"Woah..... My En since when did you know my Sis very well?"

"Rei is your sister after all, so she will act the same like what you do because Rei is your sister".

"Oh.... so you know that I like you during that time when you're always annoying me and disturbing me all the time"

“My Mei is not annoying and disturbing, it’s my way to pursue you. Of course I know and that’s the reason why I’ve never give up.”

“By the way Mei, when are you coming back in T Country?”

“Ah, that’s right Ma, we will stay here now for the rest of our life, I and Kids will visit T country once a year starting next year, with or without En since we don’t know when his back or vacation if his on board.”

“That’s good, that’s good to hear. Your Bro El and his family will staying here for their own goods, El will work in C Electric Company starting monday and Lyn will open a shop after they discuss with Rei for the best location and the budget. So what’s your plan Mei?”

“Oh, really what a coincidence so Bro will be staying for the rest of their life but as usual since I married En, I’m now a housewife so only En will work and the kids will be studying here, Ma.”

“Good, good but En are you sure you’re not letting Mei working again or even opening a business.”

“No Ma, I’m not bragging but being an international captain and international navigator, I received my pay very high so I will not let Mei working and become a haggard wife. Opening a business, Mei can’t do it because she can’t handle stress and too lazy for taking care of others and also I want Mei only taking care with me and our kids, I’m not allowing her to get out when she’s alone because she’s too pretty.”

“Geez..... what are you worried about and why are you so afraid, you’re my husband already”

“Uh-uh, I know but I can’t trust other men what if they snatch you behind my back?”

“Now, now don’t worry about that En, Mei is not easy to snatch....”(En, Ken and Ren thinking the something ‘Yeah Ma/Grandma, My Mei/Mom is not easy to snatch but she is too friendly and kind and that’s why others taugt she’s seducing them’ ” by the way En, if Lyn needs help, can you allow her to help?”

“Of course she can, but please don’t let Mei walking alone without anyone accompanying her.”

“We assure you that En.”

“Geez Ma, I’m already a mother of two boys and yet Sis can go out alone without anyone accompanying her.”

All together including the four kids “it’s because Rei/Sis Rei/Aunt Rei is an aloof and cold one”.

“Ha, ha all of said it in one.... Wait, how come you kids know your Aunt Rei is like that?”

“Because Mom from the first look of Aunt Rei even in the video chat you can sense her aloof and cool type but when you know her, she’s truly likeable one. Well I think everyone who looking to Aunt Rei first will be mersmerized because Aunt Rei is pretty like you Mom but they never dare to approach her afraid that they will be shun out right a way without even nearing their distance to Aunt Rei.” Ken explained because his the older one among them and they just nodded, agreeing that his right.

Meanwhile when they still discussing and chatting they didn’t notice the time and someone already barking outside because the one they’re talking about just arrive and opening the gate using her keys.
