

Last Man 29

Chapter 29 - Rei's opinion and decision

After Ellyn asking her, everyone are focus and now looking to Rei seriously, Rei going to answers them but her sister, Mei ask her first.

“Rei tell us first, I think knowing you being a cunning and clever, you already made a decision, right?” Rei nodded “so can you share it to us?”

The three kids are still hugging their Aunt Rei while Ken hugging his mom but he pays attention of his Aunt.

“Uh—uh, I really don’t know that you guys arrived and staying here for your own good. I already made a decision that I will agree for that opportunity because all of us know that opportunity only knock at once, so I will not let it go for this offer into nothing. I didn’t inform Mama because I’m worried that Mama will be alone but I came up with a conclusion that I will accompanying Mama wherever I go, I will shoulder all expenses of Mama for her travel expense and other miscellaneous. I also plan to inform Mama today after my work and then after we agreed each other, I will let inform regarding this matter. Our home will be lock but I will request a security agency to monitor our house everyday and the payment will be banking basis. I don’t know how long I work in overseas, so I will back here every year for the cleaning maintenance of our house. But who knows that the day I plan to tell Mama about my final decision both of my siblings family are here, so maybe agreeing the offer is the right decision right?”

“Yes Rei, go ahead and accept it. You’ve already done enough for our family, so this time worry about your future. El and Mei are already here so let them taking care of me.”

“Right, right Sis, don’t worry about Ken and Ren, I and En are here, so you need to agree that offer”

“Same to me Rei, I and Lyn well both handle our daughters”

“Who knows, maybe you will meet your fated one in S Country.”

All including the kids “En/My En/Bro En/Dad/Uncle?”

“What’s wrong with that guys? I’m just stating the truth and as the next oldest beside Mama, I have a guts that Rei will be meeting her fated one in S Country.” That’s right En is 12 years older compared to his wife Mei and his premonition will becoming true in the near future of Rei.

“Geez My En, Sis will be in S Country for work not for romance. Sis not like you, just because you study here and then you meet me because I happened to be one of your teacher.”

“Uh—uh, you’re right My Mei.”

“Okay, never mind that one. So Sis you must agree that offer and you only have a week left.”

“Okay, I will and thanks for your support.”

“Geez, we’re a family after all.” except the kids.

“So Kids even me will be far away from you someday, Aunt will never forget about all of you and will always love you, it also applied to you Ken”

Ken looking to his Aunt, the moment he heard his name from her and then his eyes become wet all of sudden from his tears.

“Oh, oh I didn’t meant it for you to cry Ken, now, now come to me and don’t be cold to your Aunt.”

Ken approach his Aunt and hug without hesitation then apologize for what he did awhile ago “I’m sorry Aunt Rei for brushing you off awhile ago.”

“Uh-uh, I understand Ken. I know how you miss me because I also miss you. Mmm.... so how will you punish Aunt for leaving you someday?”

“Uh—uh I will punish Aunt Rei for leaving me”

“Ken?” both En and Mei

“It’s alright Bro En and Mei, it’s my suggestion after all, so Ken what do you want?”

“For now not yet but in the future I will tell you what is it”

“Oh, then Aunt will wait for that.”

“Yeah, how about me and Sis?” Lynel complained.

“It’s the same for the three of you, so what is it?”

“I will sleep beside you Aunt Rei” both Ren and Lynel sais then looking to each with a surprise expression

“Is that all?”

“Yes Aunt, effective tonight until you leave.”

Looking to each other again and laugh.

“Okay, how about you Ellyn?”

“Same with Bro Ken, Aunt Rei”

“Okay”

“Mom/Ma, I think Bro/Sis is not my twin” Ren and Lynel said then continue “it’s like we we’re the twin” pointing each other.

After hearing them both Ken and Ellyn said it together “ idiot, we have the same face and feature, so why did you ask the obvious one who’s your twin?”

“It’s because we’re idiot and you we’re smart?”

Ken and Ellyn sweat drop and thinking the same thing ‘both of you are smart but the only thing different is both of you we’re simpleton and a naive one.’ while the a.d.u.l.ts laugh after hearing them.

“Now, now kids are you sleepy?”

“We’re not Gandma/Mama Grand”

“Oh is that so?” they nodded “but we will have to discuss something” the kids have a pouting face “okay, okay all of you can hear it but promise never interrupt us, alright?”

“We promise Grandma/ Mama Grand”

“Good.” Then looking to Rei and straight ro the point “Rei, Lyn and El plan to open a restaurant so they want to hear your opinion about the best location and budget for the opening of the shop.”

After hearing this from her they have a disappointed looks and said it together except Rei “Geez Ma, we taught you’re asking something else but it’s turn to be this one.”

Aya get the point right away what her draught meant “we will talk that later and this topic is more important compared to that one”.

“Oh” only Rei didn’t know what the’re talking about but she have a hunch that’d it’s about her.

“So Rei what’s your opinion about that one?”

Rei become serious and replied in just one statement with perfect and precise plans “it’s a good idea Ma since Lyn is a professional cook but never pursue it since she works in different field in J Country for her own goods, the best location for is near at my office. I already have one space and the ownership already turn over to me so you can use it. For the design, you will just simply design it in a simple manners and the structure you must have a simple entrance way so that it’s accessible to all ages for your costumer. My fellow coworker’s and other employees always take their lunch at the restaurant which is really expensive but they don’t have a choice because other shop are very far from the place they work. By the way as a starting business and for your opening you must have a promo and just set the price affordable for a minimum wages worker. So if you have this budget (write a budget and let her show to them) for all the materials, accessories and equipments needed for the shop you can open the shop next weekend. Also you don’t have to worry the design and structure of the space since last month it’s already done furnishing only left for your shop design. If you want we can visit tomorrow but for now let’s see how much you’re budget and we will adjust it for the changes.”
