

chapter 331 - Counter Measures

The team just seated and waiting for someone. Several minutes, the someone they waited for arrive in the conference room and that someone is none other the Legal Representative of CA Entertainment. A formidable, bachelor and popular in CA Entertainment but all of them from CA Entertainment doesn't know that he like someone and that someone is none other than Tae's wife and got rejected by him through message, of course Tae allow his wife to reject him personally since they are both from the CA Entertainment. After being rejected he didn't feel depressed and feel dejected instead he respect and admire more of Rei since she's very a straightforward person and didn't let him get hope that he have chance after confessing to her, though his not aware that Tae was the one who rejected him through phone message.

Mr. Hwang called him to come in M'dol Studio after the call but since his leaving 50 kilometers distance away from CA Entertainment, he took an hour to arrive at the studio meanwhile Tae's excusing himself and go to his wife office.

He turn her computer on and search everything about Je's Dating Rumors with his wife while searching Tae call his wife.

"Ring, ring, ring"

"Yes Dear, what's wrong?"

"Can I use your printer?"

"Yes you can, are you in the office?"

“Yes Hon”

“Why? Did they release another article?”

“You didn’t see it?”

“Well duh my dear husband said to me that I must take a rest after arriving home so then I follow you and just awake after your call, well it’s almost time for our twins to eat”

“Good and that’s my wife”

“So then are you going to save a copy of there statements in case they delete it?”

“Yes I will because I will not allow you to retrieve it as R”

“I already save a copy of there previous statements but I don’t have the latest one”

“Yeah I know but I need to save it and then make a hard copies just in case”

“I understand but you must also have a soft copy Dear, I have Compact Discs there inside the drawer”

“I see” then heard baby crying “our little boy is hungry now”

“Yeah I heard it, do you want to end our call?”

“Yes since you will be busy feeding our twins and you must take a rest after b.r.e.a.s.t.feeding them. Don’t forget to go to the hospital tomorrow and give me your updates”

“Okay but after I get the result then I think it’s best to tell you personally than to tell it thru call or message”

“Okay just tell me when you pick me up”

“Okay and go now or else that little boy will be crying loud that cause for Mom and Dad to wake up.”

“Hai, hai, bye Hon I Love You”

“I Love You too Dear”

— End of Call —

After the call, Tae go back to his own task for his wife and he doesn't want his wife to be have a dating rumors with someone not just because shes's a husband of her but for his own wife because it will cause bad to her reputation or rather someone will call her something bad though she didn't care because she knows the truth but for him and as her husband, it will painful for him to hear it so he need to do everything for his wife because if he witness a single tear from his wife, he feels that someone stabbing his heart hundred times.

At the studio

While Tae's busy making soft copies and printing hard copies for that release articles, his team wondering where he go.

Han : By the way, where did Tae go?

All : (Except Mr. Hwang and Manager Wang) Don't know Manager Han

Han : Geez, nowadays since last month which was the baptism of his twins, Tae suddenly change, I don't know if his Tae that we know anymore but then remembering what Manager Rei said yesterday, she's right because Tae is Tae, I think it's us who suddenly change, we didn't believe him that day and tonight let's go back what we are before.

Chi : Yeah, you're right Manager Han but since that day Tae didn't talk about it anymore.

Li : I think it's our fault.

All : (Except Mr. Hwang and Manager Wang all of them sighing and said at the same time) So did Tae tell the truth or not?

Tae : (pop out of nowhere and heard them) truth about what?

Aii : Nmovare

Tae : 'What's wrong with them?' (wondering then ask something to Mr. Hwang) Atty. Kei is still not here?

Hwang : His still on the way Tae

Tae : I see (then seat and can feel that his team looking to him, well again except Mr. Hwang and Manager Wang) what's wrong everyone?

Han : (everyone looking to him as if saying and asking him 'Manager Han asked Tae if what he said before was not a lie' and by that expression of them, he understand that they were all curious, so he ask Tae but only got cut off since someone already in the door) Tae, I need to ask .....

"Knock, knock, knock"

All : 'Geez, what a bad timing'

As the youngest one San is going to open the door but then Tae got him first and open the door.

Tae : Come in Atty. Kei.

Kei : Thanks (then notice something on his ring finger that very similar to his love) 'so this is the reason why Ms. Rei rejecting me, I see so she's already dating with M'dol Woo'

Kei : Thanks Mr. Hwang (accept the documents, sit and read all of it), I see so then how about the release articles or statements from them?

All : .....

Kei : I mean we need a copy for there release statements or articles so that we can counter attack with them or else it will be bounce back to us since we don't have any copies of there release statements.

All : (everyone start searching except Tae and then replied at the same time) deleted

Kei : Did you ask our Artist Director to release a statement that we will release an official statement regarding this topic?

Hwang : Yes I did instruct our Artist Director and this is our official statement (show his phone)

Kei : (Read the official statement from the Artist Director)

[I'm here again and yes this is the Artist Director of CA Entertainment. (Sighing) nowadays I don't understand the Entertainment News anymore will except for S Entertainment News since they are deserve to be on top. Alright, let's get back to our main topic, just because M'dol Li Je Han accompanied by a lady, you already claimed that they are dating? Woah, this paparazzi's can be suited to be a writer than this. But well, I as the CA Entertainment Artist Director, will release another official statement regarding this one who followed our team today, this is called Stalking which is punishable by law. Stay tuned for our another official statement and we will be sure that those who release false statement will to our team be surely punishable by law especially to those who's stalking to our team.]

Kei : Surely our Artist Director is really have a strong personality and this is the reason why they delete their statements. We cannot take any legal actions because we don't have any evidences against them and ...

Kei : (First one to react) thanks for this Mr. Jun and we can now counter attack with them. Alright I will do my best and it's now my task for the next type. Bye Mr. Hwang and everyone (leave but before leaving he whisper to Tae) take good care with Ms. Rei and you deserve to be with her.

Tae : I will and thanks (said mumbly but enough for him to hear)

Kei : (just smiling then bid his farewell).

The team dismissed and go to their team house. Not even an hour, Atty Kei as the Legal Representative of CA Entertainment release his official statement.

[I, Atty. Kei, the legal representative of CA Entertainment is now officially filing a case for those 4 paparazzi's who are stalking to our Team this morning and to those who release a false statements about our team will be given a chance if they release an official public apology towards them. M'dol Li Je Han is not with his girlfriend or nor dating because the one who accompanied him for his schedule this morning is our very own Artist Manager]

chapter 332 - Indeed I guess it right

After the Official Statement from the Legal Representative of CA Entertainment, all Entertainment news that release false articles received a legal doc.u.ments and attach of there statements with there very own official websites about the articles they release, although they already deleted it they can't deny because of this and again they make an Official Public Apology. As for those 4 paparazzi's who are stalking the team suddenly got fired from there employer and now hiding but then Rei take a picture of them so they are now wanted in the list. Although it's late at night, Atty. Kei filed the case thru online and submit their evidences of stalking, with this fast, efficient and quick actions and response from CA Entertainment, all fans especially from the M'dols are happy that they signed up with this kind of Entertainment and for those people who want to be an artist or celebrities are now aiming to signed up in CA Entertainment but well they know how hard it is, they still want to try.

Meanwhile around 11pm, as his usual routine, Tae go to his family.

“Our little boy is hungry again?”

“Yeah and then how did it go?”

“It went well”

“I see and wait for a moment Dear, I’m going to put our little boy in his crib first” (then Rei go to the guest room and lay him on his crib before going back to Tae “so then what did My Dear Husband do?” Tae tell everything to her and then only said to her husband “you did everything Tae and I only suggest to you to have a soft copies”

“No worries because it’s for you Hon. You’re achievement is yours and my achievements is yours”

“Silly, my achievements is yours and your achievements is for us, right?”

“No because everything I did is for you alone Hon”

“Hai, hai, alright is all for me, so then Dear”

“....”

“Dear?”

Rei looking to her husband and just realized that his already sleeping then said to him “good job Dear and I Love You” kiss his forehead, stand up from the couch and then get a blanket to cover him while she sleep on the couch and her head on his l.a.p.

Around 3am, Tae wake up and just realized that his sleeping on the couch and sleep when he still talking to his wife but then he feels someone hugging his waist and realized that his wife sleeping with him on the couch “Geez, Hon by this I don’t know anymore what I’m going to do if you’re not with me” he c.a.r.e.s.s her face and look to the wall clock but didn’t get surprised instead he carry his wife and lay her on there bedroom but before leaving he kiss her forehead then leave. After returning to his team house, everyone is still on their dream land and just go to his room that share with Yun. He didn’t sleep back instead taking a bath and prepare for the day.

Around at the same all Team Managers well except Rei because of her irregular schedules awake and taking a bath to prepare for the day. At exactly 5am, the team are now in the studio for rehearsal of their live performance at 9am.

Meanwhile Rei arrived to her office at exactly 9am and got out at exactly 11am but didn’t go to hospital yet since she go back home and feed the two little one. Rei only go to the hospital after feeding the two little one and after she eat her lunch. She meet with Doc Annie first then go back to her office at exactly 2pm and message Tae that she already went to the hospital and she will tell him personally why she become like that yesterday.

At exactly 5pm, Rei message Tae that she’s already in the parking area and only to witness the panic Tae.

“W—-what’s wrong Hon?” (ask while sitting in the driver’s seat)

“Are you alright Dear?”

“Uh-uh but h—-how about you? What the Doctor says about you?”

‘So my husband of mine is really worried about me’ then said to him “here and that’s the result of why I become like that yesterday”

Accept the hospital report nervously then opening it slowly but before that he said to his wife “whatever it is, you will always be with me Hon”

Didn’t want her husband to be worried like that so she didn’t wait for him to open it and just said him “I don’t have any Terminal Illness Dear and your wife is in good condition. You’re wife just like that yesterday because indeed I guess it right and I’m pregnant to our second baby”

“P—pregnant?”

“Uh-uh”

Then Tae open it right away and only to see a sonograph result of his wife name on it ‘Jun Lou Rei’ while his wife explains to him.

“7 days from now I will be one month pregnant but don’t worry Dear because b.r.e.a.s.tfeeding while pregnant is safe. This time I’m not pregnant with twins but a single one. Let’s know the gender this time since you will be enlist on May 28 and my estimated labor is on August 10”

“Okay Hon, so you got pregnant on my birthday last month?”

“You’re counting it?”

“Uh-uh so then this c.o.n.d.o.m is really useless to me but well” extend his hand and touch his wife w.o.m.b which is still not obvious that she’s pregnant then said to her “if our youngest is a boy then let’s name him Rei Won”

“And if it’s a girl?”

“I will have a hunch that it’s a boy” (then suddenly his tears slowly falling from his eyes)

“Why are you crying Dear?” ask while wiping his tears

“I’m just happy Hon because you give me a wonderful family, you always there for me and you did everything to me. Then you will giving birth next year without me on your side but I know you will do your best and wait for me, I know you will raised our babies well but then....” didn’t continue because Rei interrupt him

Interrupt him because she knows what his going to say next “No Tae, you’re not a failure father to them and you’re not a failure husband to me, mmm?”

“Uh-uh” but Tae still crying

“Come here Dear” Tae approach her and she hug him then said to him “let’s have a family picture when my baby bumps become clearer before on your Enlistment Date so that if you miss us you will see us through our photos since visiting during your enlistment period is not allowed here in S Country.”

“Uh-uh”

“Alright let’s go now and eat dinner first before going to the venue”

“Yeah” then Tae start the engine and drive.

“By the way Dear don’t order or cook of my favorites one since our little one here love your likes though not including coffee you know”

“So that’s the reason why did you suddenly didn’t like the foods you like yesterday?”

“Uh-uh”

“I see then for sure it’s a baby boy”

“.....”

chapter 333 - Someone inflate the tire

Tae and Rei eat their dinner in the same restaurant which is very accessible to them and close to the venue because it's only opposite to the said venue. Compared yesterday than this time Tae didn't order his wife favorite foods since his wife said so. After eating they go to the Theater Hall right away and then again they wait for everyone to arrive.

Since Rei is pregnant, he didn't allow his wife to carry things even though it's only a light one. He even instruct his wife to stay close with him or if he will go performing she must also stay where can he take a look of her while performing and Rei just agree without complaining because she love Tae being like this.

While waiting for the Musical Teams to arrive, Tae seat beside his wife and c.a.r.e.s.sing her hair that everyone who arrives one by one witnessed how sweet they are and conclude that this two must be in a relationsh.i.p.s and dating but not flirting because they know how this two interact with each other since yesterday, everyone believe that they are dating but then one of them didn't believe of what she witness and it triggered her emotions because of there sweetness.

After the briefing of Musical Director, the musical starts and ends very well. On the next day, which is on the third day, one of the musical team arrive first before the couple and hiding somewhere to observe them. After hiding, the couple arrive and Tae got down first from the driver seat then assist his wife, that it can't be help that someone who's hiding somewhere witness it all.

'Eh, since when did my Woo know how to drive? And what's with this? Is she the Artist Manager? If she is then why she allow her artist to drive and now flirting with her own artist?' thinking then followed them sneakingly when they enter the restaurant.

After the couple sit at the same seat for the third time including now, Tae ordered right away and the two eat while that someone also sit not so close to them in order not to be found out and she also ordered the same thing. She didn't happened to hear there conversation because the couple only eating without conversation but it's enough for her to witness how sweet they are since Tae just happened to wipe his wife mouth. She ask the staffs from the restaurant about them but then she didn't receive any reply from them and got anything about them since they only say we respect our customer privacy and all of them replied with the same reply when she ask about them. She eat the food but suddenly got shocked because it's too plain for her taste.

'What the? This is her favorite, yuck' think then order again and this time it's a spicy food because she's a Senian.

After the couple left, she also left but got stop by the staff since she didn't pay her orders yet. After paying she leave right away and following them sneakingly, she did witness that Tae hold Rei hand and then find them at the place where she hide and witnessing the scene that she didn't want to witness.

"What's wrong?"

"Someone following us Tae and I don't know who it is"

"Then let's hide" hold her hand and find where to hide.

"Why are we hiding here, Tae?"

"Don't know Hon but is it exciting?"

"Exciting about...." got stop because Tae kissed her on the lips passionately

After the kiss he said "exciting just like this" and then got slap from his c.h.e.s.t but not hard because it's only a tap.

"It's your fault if someone saw us and become headlines tomorrow in Entertainment News. Alright let's go"

"Hai, hai" follow his wife and c.a.r.e.s.s his wife hair "don't be mad at me, okay?"

"I'm not mad, it just that I'm worried about you"

"No worries Hon because I'm your husband after all"

“.....”

The couple entered the Theater Hall and that someone just only witness how sweet they are and didn't heard their conversation, if she heard then for sure she must explode after hearing that word from Tae's own mouth when she always dreaming to hear that one from him to her.

'That Manager, for sure she's not a Manager and based from her looks she's not a Manager or maybe a newbie actress and she just try to climb My Woo bed's to achieve her goals. Using her beauty to seduce My Woo, what a sly move.' Then looking to where the couple park the car 'this is not My Woo car, so it's her' and searching to her phone of how to inflate the tire.

On this day nothing happened but on the fourth day something big happened.

The couple arrived at the same manner which is also the same time and eat their dinner at the same restaurant and same seat, this time that someone didn't follow them but instead greeted them at the venue when the couple arrive.

“Oh, are you always this early Tae?”

Tae didn't answered her and just asking in whisper to his wife “who?”

“.....” Rei's speechless of her husband actions but then greet to that someone “you're also early Ms. Xie”

“I'm not talking to you and you if you really want to achieve your goals, I think it's best for you to go to the board of directors than to be around with Tae”

“What.....” Tae going to react but got stop by his wife.

Understand what she meant already but she still asking “I'm quite confused of what you mean Ms. Xie but care to explain to me of what is it about?”

“You’re still young Miss but I think as your Senior, I guess I need to advice you that I’ve been with this industries for 15 years so if you really need to achieve your goal as an artist or celebrity earlier after your debut then I think you need to climb your board of directors bed rather than to Tae, you’re beautiful so for sure you will succeed it without problem”

“Oh but I think you’ve misunderstood something Ms. Xie since I’m not a celebrity nor an artist because I’m the Artist Manager of CA Entertainment if you won’t believe then it’s up to you. As for your suggestion, I think it’s your doing and not mine, so take that one and I’m not that low in order to achieve what goals I dream. So then how’s the bed of your board of directors, huh? Think carefully you said you’ve been with this industries for 15 years but you’re not famous enough, try search your own name and you will know if you really that famous who even sacrifice your body just to get what you are right now and see if that sacrifice of yours is worth of what you have now.”

“What?” Then trying to slap her but got stop when she heard Tae warnings.

“Try hitting her and even if you’re not a man I won’t hesitate to kick you right here and then”

MD : (Musical Director who just happened to arrive and heard Tae’s warning to her) what’s going on in here?

“Nothing Director”

“I’m not talking to you Ms. Xie, so Manager Rei what’s wrong?”

“Ms. Xie misunderstood me but I will give her a chance and I will pretend nothing happened just now but then if she cross my line, then I will be sorry in advance”

“Yes noted Manager Rei”

“Director?”

“Shut up Ms. Xie”

Then Ms Xie ask to her Manager in whisper “why they respect her that much?”

“I don’t know if you’re an idiot or not but search the name Secretary Rei or Manager Rei then you will know why”

“What?” Then search Secretary Rei and Manager Rei name, only to find out that the name have achieved many things and a reputable one as a Secretary and Manager but she didn’t believe that this is her because she think that she’s just a newbie.

MD : Alright let’s start.

The Musical team start as if nothing happened but then during break someone from the Security Teams informing Rei.

“Manager Rei, Manager Rei”

“Yes?”

“Are you the owner of the car with the plate number JLR1110?”

“Yes, why?”

“Come with us Manager Rei and you will find it out what happened”

“Okay” Rei look first to Ms. Xie direction before following the security personnels.

‘Did she know it’s me?’

As a concerned husband, he ask the team when he notice that his wife follow the Security Teams

Tfu : Wvfo vfnnurut?

MD : Ah, Tae it's just that someone inflate the tire of Manager Rei car.

Tae : Inflate? Who?

Staff 1 : The Security Teams are still investigating now Mr. Jun but then that someone is quite daring. Did that someone know and aware that Manager Rei is from C Country which is the same country where R came from? Geez, I don't know what happened to that someone when R fellowmen got bullied here in S Country and Manager Rei will ask help from R as a fellow countrymen to R.

Staff 2 : Right, right and look what happened to former actress Xia first she only got block listed but then got in prison since she did something wrong but well it's our fellow countrymen but how much more if it's R fellow countrymen?

Everyone except Tae shaking their heads and already imagining what will happen to that someone since Rei is from the C Country without knowing that R and Rei is the same person.

'S—she came from C Country? N—no one saw it was me so I'm safe, yeah I'm safe. Then I need to be sure to have My Woo before getting caught and will escape from here.'

MD : (Notice that Tae leaves and going to the same direction where Manager Rei leaves) Tae, where are you going?

Tae : I need to check her first Director and will back after knowing that she's alright (then leave right away after he said that one)

chapter 334 - Not just one but four

Rei followed the Security Team and all of them are now in the parking area and standing where Tae parked the car.

ST 1 : Sorry Manager Rei, we failed to stop that someone.

Rei : It's alright we cannot really foresee what's ahead on us (looking around and notice the CCTV's on each corner of the ceilings) those 4 CCTV's (pointing one of the CCTV's then ask) are they working?

ST2 : Yes Manager Rei

Rei : Okay, then I will ask a copy of CCTV footage tonight from 7:00 to 7:15.

All : Eh?

Rei : I have already suspected someone but I'm not sure if it's the same person.

All : Yes Manager Rei (then the Security Team leaves right away)

Tae appear in the said parking area but only to see his wife alone and inside the car, he then knocks the window before entering the car.

"Who?" Asked when he notice that Rei already hacking the systems.

"Ms. Xie"

"That woman"

"I already asked the Security Teams for the CCTV Footage between 7:00pm to 7:15pm because I notice that Ms. Xie left in the backstage and I assumed that she go here that time. And indeed she's the one who inflate the tires not just one but four of the tires. She escaped after noticing that the Security approach because of the car alarm."

“Are you alright?”

“Me? (Tae nodded) yes of course, you’re wife is fine and alright at all but the car is not since it’s became a victim by that desperate woman because for sure she witness how sweet you are to me and maybe she’s that someone who following us like a stalker. Alright let’s go now because Dear you still have 3 minutes left before your performance on stage.”

The two got out from the car and walk as a Manager-Artist Relationsh.i.p.s. As they got back where they are, the couple are still chatting that only them can heard it since they are talking quietly.

“What about the car, Hon?”

“I will call Manager Han to pick us up and then for her, she will pay for the cost of repair”

“You don’t need to show any mercy on her and if you will then I will do it instead, Hon”

“You don’t need to make any move and I know what I’m going to do. I will let you hear my plan Dear”
(then whisper to her husband)

“Don’t you think she will do that?”

“If she’s desperate enough then she will but then it will disclose to everyone”

“We will do with your plan Hon and I think it’s the right time for them to know”

“Okay”

After that Tae performing his best while Rei informing to Mr. Hwang of what happened awhile ago and then called Manager Han that before going home, she and Tae will hitch the team since her car tires got inflate by a desperate and jealous woman.

At exactly 9pm, the musical ends well even though they have situation at the backstage. At the backstage, all from musical team start leaving one by one and only four left which the couple, Ms. Xie and her Manager

Xie : I heard of what happened to your car Miss but I can give you a ride.

Rei : It's alright we can Manage

Xie : But it's not just one tire but four, right?

Rei going to reply but then she have an incoming call so she excuse herself because of the low reception at the backstage room while Xie smiling and then told her Manager.

Xie : Go first, leave me and Tae alone because I have something to talk with him.

Manager : But Ms. Xie

Xau : Gm.

Manager : It's up to you Ms. Xie but Manager Rei is not an easy opponent of you.

Xie : She's just a newbie actress and you just got bewitched by her. Go leave now

Manager : I quit as your Manager (then leave right away and then see Manager Rei in the corner and warned her) Manager Rei hurry or else that witch will seduce Tae.

Rei : Thanks (then hurriedly back to the backstage and only to witness the rage of her husband)

—Flashback—

After her Manager left, Ms Xie start seducing Tae and start unbuttoning her blouse.

“If you continue with that plan of yours then don’t blame me because I won’t show any mercy of you”

“Oh, come on Tae, I don’t know if you’re already sleeping with that young lady but I can satisfy you more. She can’t give what I can give to you, so I guess it’s a win win situation for us, I will give you satisfaction and I will keep it secret between us” said while unbuttoning her blouse but before she take it off and show her bra she suddenly feel someone kicking her and her b.u.t.t meets on the cold floor. At least Tae still show mercy if not then this witch will already be flown out and hit her back on the wall.

“I did warn you, did I? And how did you know that it’s four tires and not one?”

“Everyone knows it’s four tires”

“No everyone doesn’t know because they only know that someone inflate the tire and not the number of tires unless you are in the scenes or perhaps you’re the one inflating the tire”

“I—I didn’t do it”

“Tell more lie and this time not just a kick but I will make sure that you’re bone will break so that you can’t walk anymore and inflate other tires aside from my wife. My wife is a kind person and never go on revenge because she’s like that but I’m different, so try me.”

“W—wife?”

—End of Flashback—

Rei : What happened here?

Xie : (Pretending to be a victim) M—miss, M—miss help me T—Tae trying to molest me, he suddenly grab me and unbuttoning my blouse, if I didn’t shout then you won’t be here on time and I will get **** by Tae.

Rei : (only looking to her husband)

Tae : She's lying

Xie : No, I'm telling the truth, you're a lady itself so you must believe me. He attacked me the moment my Manager left.

Rei : (approach her and crunch down) I'm not that idiot to believe you Ms. Xie and if you're talking about your Manager then I tell you that she's the one who warn me to hurry or else you will succeed in seducing Tae but well even if I'm late or not, he will not seduced by you. A piece of advice Ms. Xie I won't report the authority who inflate my tires when I already know that you're the one who inflate the tires of my car because you just got caught red handed by CCTV footage but it doesn't mean that I won't let you off since you will be the one paying the cost of repair. As for this situation I will let you off this time but if you're doing some outrageous just like this then sorry for not listening my warning, oh right this is my second time and last warning since you didn't listen to me. Now go now and reflect of what you did. (Xie directly standing up but then got stop by her) Wait.

Xie : Eh?

Rei : (give heavy slap to her face PAK, PAK) this is for seducing Tae in front of my eyes and go leave now or else I will change my mind.

chapter 335 - Manager Rei and Tae is in a relationship indeed

After the slap and warning of her, Xie suddenly running in fear as if someone will kill her.

Meanwhile after Xie out of sight, Rei show concern to her husband, she approach him, hug his arm and she ask him in Ceno without realizing that she speaks her dialect, gladly Tae already know of it.

"Did you see it Dear?"

"See what Hon?"

“Duh it her two mountains, you know”

“I didn’t because I already kick her before finishing unbuttoning her blouse”

“I see, geez I’m quite scared you know, what if she succeed seducing on you? I trust you Dear but I don’t trust that vixen. If I’m not pregnant then I also kick her out because that two slap is not enough for her. Woah, a desperate and jealous woman is really scary as what Mei and Lyn said to me. Well I also witness it to my ex best friend but I can’t believe it will happened again to me and this time not because of my crush but it’s because of my own husband. When her Manager warned me to hurry, I was going to run but then remembering my situation, I didn’t and just walk calmly because I know my husband and trust you. Well if I didn’t think rationally, then I already grab a gun from my hidden bodyguard and kill that vixen but then I’m in S Country so it will bounce back on me so at least I’m still rational and not got carried by my emotions. Geez, she’s lucky that I didn’t act irrational or else she will be killed by me. And if she won’t listen my warnings, then sorry for her but I will ruin everything of what she have. Seducing my husband is my greatest weakness and she’s crossing the line, so I will...” got stopped by her husband

“Neh Rei?” in a good mood

“Yes?”

“You’re jealous right?”

“Of course who would be not if someone witness of how a woman seduce her husband on her own two eyes?” (Tae just laugh hard) “why are you happy like an idiot, huh?”

“Because it’s my first time seeing you to be this jealous” (release the hand of his wife from his arm and then hug her) “you might not realize it Hon but you’re speaking in Ceno”

“Well duh I’m just mad over that vixen”

“Hai, hai, so then are we still going to proceed with your plan?”

“Uh-uh, let’s do it tomorrow at night and if she really reflect to her own actions or she won’t do any outrageous again then I can forgive her but well I expect less to her since she’s a desperate and jealous woman”

“I’ll do as you say Hon but first”

“Mm?”

“I will do this first” then give a passionate and deep kiss to her wife while Rei response to his kiss and wrap her arms around his neck. After they out of breath, Rei heard something and talk back in Sean.

“Who’s there?” then approach where the sound came and realized “no one’s here?”

“What’s wrong Rei?”

“Someone just saw us but I didn’t see who it is”

“It might be the Security Personnel since only the two of us here”

“Perhaps but let’s go now and that call awhile ago is from Manager Han”

“Yeah maybe they waited us now”

“Uh-uh” then the two walk to the parking area as if they didn’t kiss awhile ago and return to the Artist – Manager Relationship.

Han : Oh, you’re here Manager Rei and Tae

Rei : Did you wait long Manager Han?

Han : Not that long but have you meet Yun awhile ago?

Rei : Yun?

Han : I see so you did not meet Yun but first Tae go inside the car because we will be having a Managers to Managers meeting.

Tae : Yes Manager Han (then hop in inside the Team Car)

—Team Managers—

Rei : Not yet and not this time Manager Han but I already give her my last warning and how about the car?

Wang : I already called a car shop Manager Rei and they will get the car around 10pm.

Rei : I see so then how long it will be repair Manager Wang?

Wang : Looking to this car model and since the damage are the tires then it would be take within 24-48 hours.

Rei : I see and that's good to hear

Chi : You know what Manager Rei?

Rei : Yes?

Chi : You're the only one and first Manager that got attack from fans of M'dol and I never expect that Musical Actress Xie Lu Lu would be like this.

Rei : .....

Chi : Nah, it's just that Manager Rei is really a real beauty so someday if really happened that Manager Rei dated one of M'dol Members then their fans would be act like this.

Han : If they are obsess just like her then it would be and we will not wondering about but I think she's crossing the line this time since it's like that someone stealing her bias when in fact she's not committed to Tae. It would be reasonable if she's committed to Tae and acting like this but she's not.

Wang : Right and by the way Manager Rei?

Rei : Yes?

Wang : I will instruct the car shop to bill the cost of repair to Ms. Xie Lu Lu

Rei : Not yet Manager Wang because we will first wait for our Legal Representative to take in action since if we go directly to bill the cost of repair to her then she would be denied and claimed that shes's been bullied by our teams hence we're not yet showing the footage that it was her who inflate the tire, so for the meantime I will pay the cost of repair and will ask her to reimburse it together with the bill and receipt for the proof that I paid it. I'm waiting for her action and if she reflect then it would be not disclosed to the public and I will just ask the reimburs.e.m.e.nt to her privately without any legal action means, if not then she will face consequences of her own actions.

All : What are you planning Manager Rei?

Rei : You will know it later Managers but then if she's reflecting it then my plan will not be succeed and you won't know what is it.

All : 'What the? So, this is the angry Manager Rei?'

The Managers are waiting for the representative of car shop to arrive and retrieve Rei's car before leaving. Meanwhile the M'dol Members are also chatting when the Managers have meetings outside the team's car.

–Members Conversation–

The moment Tae hop in inside the car, his teams are questioning him one by one.

Je : Bro Tae, if I remember correctly Ms Xie Lu Lu, is an official fan of yours, right?

Tae : Uh-uh

San : Then Bro Tae the reason why she's acting like this, is it because of Manager Rei?

Tae : Uh-uh

Shi : Woah, I pity with Manager Rei, she just did her task as our Manager and yet she's been attack by our fans especially your own fans Bro Tae.

Bi : Well they don't know who's Manager Rei is, so then by seeing Manager Rei accompanying one of us just like Bro Tae everyone will feel jealous especially Rei is really a real beauty one and they might be thinking that she's dating with that someone who she accompanied with.

Je : At least she only attack Manager Rei's car or else what would happened if it's Manager Rei herself.

All : ...(can't imagined what will happened especially Tae because his wife is pregnant)

San : By the way, Bro Yun why have you've been silent the moment you come in and then you got back with a red face as if you've done something bad?

Yun : .....

All : (Except Tae) or Bro Yun are you perhaps Mas....? (didn't finished there sentence since there Managers open the team's car but all of them can know what they are talking about since they have red face except for one and asking innocently)

Rei : Are all of you alright? Why are you having a red face when in fact the airconditioning here is still functioning?

All : (speechless)

Tae : (save his wife and just answer it without hiding) we chat about Man things Manager Rei

Rei : Oh I see

All : (speechless again)

Yun : 'Manager Rei and Tae is in a relationship indeed' chapter 336 - Do you want to confess?

The teams are now on the way to there team house but then Manager Han received a call from Manager Rei.

Han : Yes, what's wrong Manager Rei?

Rei : Ms. Xie Lu Lou inflate all my car tires and I already retrieve the CCTV Footage, so for now I would like to request if you can pick us, Manager Han.

Han : (got surprised of her report) w---what?

Wang : (Heard the surprise voice of Manager Han so he park the car first and ask him) what's wrong Manager Han?

Han : I will tell you later Manager Wang and for now let's go first to the Performing Arts Grand Theater Hall.

All : Eh?

Han : (Ignore them all and said to Rei) Yes Manager Rei we're going there and I will call you when we arrive at the place.

Rei : Okay and thanks Manager Han.

Han : You're welcome (then the two hang up at the same time and explain to them who's already have an expression as if asking to him of 'what happened?') we're going to pick up both Manager Rei and Tae since Manager Rei's car got inflate by Ms. Xie Lu Lou.

All : E—eh? Y—you mean Ms. Xie Lu Lou the Musical Actress?

Han : Who else if it's not her? She's Tae Female Lead for this musical live performance, I'm also quite surprised when Manager Rei report it to me but then Manager Rei is not a type of person to point out someone who's to take the blame and of course she's already retrieved the said CCTV Footage.

All : ..... (Speechless)

Wang : Manager Han you said she inflate Manager Rei's tires, so how many tires did she inflate?

Han : Let's just see it personally but Manager Rei said all tires.

All : All?

Manager Han just nodded why the team can't believe what they hear from him but then when they arrived at the place and when Manager Wang park the team's car near Rei's car, all of them hop out from the car almost at the same time and they really see it from their own two eyes that indeed, all Manager Rei's tires are now flat that leave them all speechless and just ask Manager Han in unison.

All : Manager Han what will happened to Ms. Xie Lu Lou?

Han : I don't know and she will be lucky enough if Manager Rei will not send an email to R to investigate it and tarnish her reputation in just one blow just because of this action of her.

Li : Is this Ms. Xie Lu Lou not aware that Manager Rei is from the C Country and same Country of R?

Han : It would be not like this if she know

Aii : .....

Han : Alright let's stop with this and we don't know what will Manager Rei's action about this one. Manager Wang please calls the car shop in order to retrieve and repair Manager Rei car before we're leaving.

Wang : Yes Manager Han (then call right away while Han also calling Manager Rei to inform her that they've arrived)

Yun : Manager Han I'm going to call Manager Rei and Tae (then leave right away)

Han : Eh, but I already called Manager .... (Not finish of his sentence since he just realized that Yun is already sprinting to where they are just like a runner).

Chi : (Asking after seeing him like that) what's with Yun today?

Han : Don't know and alright guys, go back to the car before some paparazzi's spotted us.

All : (Looking to Rei's car and heard the Head Manager instructions and they answered in unison) yes Manager Han.

Han : Why all of you are looking like that? Is this your first time seeing a flat tires?

San : Com'on Manager Han it's not our first time seeing one but it's our first time seeing a Musical Actress inflate the tire of a Manager and mostly of all it's our Team Manager who's a real beauty and on par with Goddess Li.

Meanwhile after Yun leave, he gets inside the venues and notice that's no one's around, he found one Security Personnel and asks.

Yun : Excuse me Sir?

SP : (Recognized him and replied) yes Mr Ha?

Yun : Is Manager Rei and Tae still around?

SP : Yes and I guess there's still in the backstage room.

Yun : Ah, I see thanks. (Then leave and go to the backstage room)

Performing Arts Grand Theater Hall have 12 backstages for each Venue hall and Yun forgot to ask from which Backstage they are but luckily for him he spotted Rei and going to call her but then he stop himself when he witness that Rei approach Tae not in a Manager manner but a lover instead since Rei wrap her arm to Tae's arm. Yun don't know what going on himself because of running, he hide somewhere near to them and eavesdropping them and heard their conversation but he didn't understanding anything since Rei speaks to her own dialect.

'What language is this? Is this Manager Rei spoken language in C Country? Woah it's really nice to her voice using her own language' thinking while looking to them and listening to them even though he didn't understanding anything but then he can still catch up and understand when Tae only calling their Manager Name without honorifics.

'Eh, Tae already called Manager Rei only her name, a—are they really dating?' while wondering he watch them again and only to witness that Tae kissing her and how she response to his kisses 'they are really dating' concluding while being heartbroken and suddenly make a small sound because he controlled his tears and running right away when he notice that Rei already notice something and approach where he hides and he don't want to get caught red handed by her. He goes first to the bathroom and washing his face in order for his teammates to not notice that he cried. After making sure that his alright, he goes back to the team as if nothing happened but his heart is in pain and crying silently. Thankfully his temmates didn't notice that he cried especially to San who's the most observative person after Tae. He seat in the car as if nothing happened but then remembering Tae kissing Manager Rei, he suddenly blushed while his heart in pain.

'Did Tae know it's me?'

Then he heard his teammates talking about their Manager Rei's car and then San asking him about the time when he got back.

'This two is really an observative one' and suddenly blush when all of them asking him about man things especially when Tae just said directly to Manager Rei that it's about this. He notices that Tae looking to Manager Rei lovingly and then Rei looking to him.

'I'm really an idiot for not noticing it and for not believing Tae at first. Geez, Tae is really a lucky man to have Manager Rei in his life'

The team arrives in the residence around 10pm and goes to there Team House right away while Rei also return to her home. The whole ride for them are still in the same routines for the team since they are chatting to each other but then it's their first time that's Rei is with them, so they are more excited even she only reply with the necessary one to answer just like Manager Han and Tae. All of them except the couple are not aware that's it the first time for Yun to be in silent for the whole ride.

When they arrives the team house, all of them go to there own room and take a rest. Tae didn't keep in silence and just ask Yun.

"Bro Yun, are you alright?"

“What do you think Tae I’m alright or not?”

“Based from your silence for the whole ride then you’re not alright at all Bro Yun and I guess it’s you who witness about me and Rei awhile ago, right?”

“You’re really married to her?”

“Uh-uh but do you want to confess to her?”

“What’s for reason Tae when you already her husband?”

“Yeah indeed there’s no reason for you to confess, but I think it’s best for you to release it all and let Rei know how you feel. At least if you confess, you’re heart will not be in pain anymore since you did heart to heart talk with her. I know it’s like I’m gloating but I know how you feel Bro Yun”

chapter 337 - Yun Confession

After hearing that suggestion from Tae, Yun is confused whether he will or will not but then he asks him again to be sure.

“Can I really move on after I confess?”

“Yes you will Bro Yun after you confess and its best if you let her know, well as her husband its kind of awkward hearing someone confessing to my wife but then because I know you for 15 years then I will let you confess to her and you will know how she respond to you, though you already you know that you will be rejected because she’s my wife”.

“Yes I already know that I would be rejected for sure but is it really alright for me to confess?”

“Well frankly speaking is not alright with me and I said awhile ago it’s kind of awkward for me but I will give you an exemption because I already respect you and treat you Bro Yun as my Brother”.

“Okay I will”.

“Then let’s go”.

“Eh, right now?”

“Uh-uh and don’t delay it more Bro Yun or else you will not easily get to move on and you will fall in love deeper with my wife.”

“.....” (Speechless but suddenly feel that Tae grab him by his arm and just realized that they’re already standing outside of her house).

“Don’t worry Bro Yun because I won’t interfere you’re talk with my wife” (said to him then open the door using key and the two entered the house).

Rei just awake and wait for the two little angels to ask for food. She’s seating in the couch and notices her husband entering the house. “Eh. Dear it’s still quarter to 11? (She ask before realizing that Yun is with him) Ah, Yun you’re here.

“Hon, Bro Yun has something to say to you, so then I’m not going to disturb the two of you. (Then leave right away and go to the guest room)

Rei wondering her husband doings on her mind before asking Yun. ‘What’s wrong with him?’ “You already know about us?”

“Uh-uh”

“I see and let’s take a sit first Yun.”

“Thank you Manager Rei (sits and then asks her) are you aware what I’m going to say to you Manager Rei? ❖❖❖

“Just a guess but go on Yu and I will hear you.”

“Thanks Manager Rei and yeah maybe you guess it right but I think I will let you hear this even though it’s already late for me. I already notice you Manager Rei during your Live Interview and I always looking up to you, I didn’t have the guts to meet you even you’re working in the same company but assigned in different department. Then when you join us I’m quite surprised and shocked that I finally meet you but on the very first day I misunderstand you except Tae since his the one defending you when we first visit here as a team. At that time, I only thought that I only admire you because of what you are but then day by day I just got to know you and tonight I just realized that I already love you after witnessing you and Tae kiss. I’m very slow to realized my own feelings and always denying it everytime my heart start beating fast when I meet you, only then it’s already late for me when I realized that I love you Manager Rei. My heart always hinting me that I like you but my mind keeps denying until now my heart wins and in pain because of not listening to my own heart and it’s me who hurt my own heart for not listening it.”

“.....” (Speechless after hearing his confession)

“You can reply Manager Rei”

“I don’t really know what I’m going to reply to you Yun but I guess I can only say one thing to you Yun that you are destined to be with someone else. Although the one you love right now is me, in the future the right one for you is still there waiting for you and the two of you will meet at the right time which is your destined to meet. You will be feel lucky because that the right one for you is only looking at you and only loving at you. As for you, you need to move on about me because I’m just a pass by for you like a wind or maybe I’m just here to be your Manager and a Friend. Maybe that’s the reason why you are late for realizing that you love me because I’m not the right one for you”.

“Is it based from your own experience?”

“Perhaps since I only have someone I admire and didn’t confess to him because I’m confused if I like or love him. The time when I thought that I love him someone already got him though they have there own story but for me, when Tae comes in my life, I suddenly realized that Tae is the right one for me because I cannot live without him. How about you Yun? Can you live without me, right?”

“Of course and why would I not live without you Manager Rei?”

“See and that’s it, I’m just a pass by for you and the right one for you is that one you can’t leave without her or even a day you can’t be at ease but be worried about her.”

“Is that really true?”

“Yes and you will do everything for that someone that you will think it’s not enough even you almost do everything just for her.”

“I see bu in what way?”

Thinking hard then replied “hmmm... For example Tae, he ..... (Got covered her mouth by her husband hand)

“That’s your own homework Bro Yun and for you to realized what is it all about. I won’t let my wife tell it when in fact we’re still not having our wedding ceremony.”

“.....” Yun got speechless because of Tae’s action.

“Don’t worry Bro Yun because you will know it after you meet the right one for you” (release his hand from his wife mouth and seat beside her).

“Yeah and for sure I will, so then aside from me who else know about the two of you that you’re in a relationship and married?”

“Aside from both of our family, Mr. Hwang, Manager Wang and now you Bro Yun.”

“Eh, Mr. Hwang knows?”

“Of course he is.”

“So when the two of you start dating and got married?”

“I and Rei become an official couple last May 12 and got married but only registering our marriage last Jan 2 this year.”

“I see, so that’s why you’re defending Manager Rei during her first day as our Manager.”

“Hai, hai. I need to defend her because I’m already her husband that time and I’m also doing the same thing as her boyfriend if we’re not yet married”.

“So then where are your twins?”

“Sleeping but want to see them?”

“Uh-uh and by the way Tae?”

“Yes?”

“If ever I still didn’t meet the right one for me then when you hurt Manager Rei, then I will snatch you’re wife and become you’re rival.”

“In your dreams Bro Yun, thought we don’t know what will happened in the future, I will do my best not to hurt My Wife (looking to Rei) and I also trust Rei that whatever challenges for us, she will be here for me and I will also be here with her.”

“Alright and stop feeding me dog foods. So then can I look your twins?”

“They’re sleeping Bro Yun but you can still look them (stand from the couch) let’s go Hon and Bro Yun.”

Then the three of them walking and go to the guest room to look the babies. Yun just observing them and notice how happy they are as a family.

'It would be best if I will also found someone who also love me dearly just like Manager Rei and Tae.'

chapter 338 -The couple laid a trap

Around mid-night the two eldest of M'dols are now back to their team house and now laying on there own beds while chatting before sleeping.

"Neh, Tae the one Manager Rei admire, is it you right?" asking him when he remembers Rei words.

"It's not me Bro Yun but the one Rei admire is an idiot for not realizing that he loves her but well I'm glad that he did that since Rei comes to my life".

"Eh, it's not you?"

"Ouh-ouh, it's not me and that man is not yet aware that Rei is already married to me but well too bad his an idiot for not controlling himself since he got knocked out and pregnant someone and that someone is Rei's best friend though that one never treat Rei as her bestfriend because of him".

"Hey, can you tell me what it is and don't keep me hanging, okay?"

"I want to tell you Bro Yun but well I can't because that's not my life and Rei only tell me that one because I'm her husband. When I'm still dating Rei, she didn't tell anything that not's about her life".

"....." got speechlessbecause of him

"By the way Bro Yun" thinking something when he recalls something about him.

"Yes?"

“You’re quite strong since you didn’t cry after confessing to her and got rejected but then you cry when you witness us kissing in the backstage”.

“.....”.

“Alright let’s stop now. Let’s take a sleep and hope tomorrow will be a peaceful day especially at tomorrow night”.

“And what do you mean by that Tae?”

“.....” No answer from him because Tae already sleeping.

“This idiot really likes hanging me about something but well I’m glad to know this other side of him. Loves can really soft a person hearts, huh? And can I really become like that, when I meet my other half, someday? Who knows when but I’m excited to meet my new love. ‘Bye Manager Rei, my first love and I will be always be an elder brother to you because I will always support both of you and Tae.” He sleeps after mumbling.

On the next day, the Team did what they’re usual routines are and then at exactly 5pm, Rei picked up her husband in the studio and again Tae is the one driving going to the theater hall.

“Eh, how fast?” Tae asking when he hops in since his wife car was fully repaired like nothing happened yesterday night.

“Well it’s only tires, though it’s quite expensive you know since it cost 50,000 Sen for 4 tires including labor works. Hope the plan we will not be executed tonight and forever remain a plan, Dear”.

“Yeah but well it’s depened on her and I told you don’t show mercy on her”

“Yeah but she’s your Official Fan for whole 15 years Dear and she just doing her best for 15 years without sacrificing her body and that’s the reason why she’s not yet famous now”

“Did you investigate her?”

“Uh-uh and she’s undersigned with H.EM Entertainment but didn’t get famous because she declined her boss offer to sleep with him. At first I thought it was her who’s bad but then it’s her Manager, no what I mean another Manager of her, the Manager is the one who always accepting the boss offer to sleep with someone on higher rank and especially to the boss of H.EM Entertainment. Well duh, she almost seducing you but that’s the first time she did since she always avoiding contact to someone especially it’s opposite gender to her but then you’re her main bias and because out of jealousy she did that since she witness that you’re so sweet to me and most of all she did witness that you’re kissing me on the other day because she’s the one who’s following us that time.”

“So then what are you planning Hon? For me I’m not sorry for kicking her because she tried seducing me and she almost hurt you but wait what do you mean by another Manager of her?”

“Hai, hai I know so we still proceed our plan and hope she won’t be covered by darkness and having a darkheart. For her Manager I still don’t know since I don’t investigate it thoroughly since I only search for her basic details.”

“I see and it would be best if she’s not or else she will really get laid from our trap. Well it’s not our Trap since you’re the one who’s thinking about this plan.”

“Silly, it’s our plan and you will be the one executing it”

“Aside from us, who still know our plan?”

“I already asking permission from Mr. Hwang”

“And what did Mr. Hwang replied Hon?”

“Well duh, he only say, oh, you’re now start disclosing you’re relationship, go ahead, go ahead Manager Rei and he also suggest that we can just kiss in the public and then boom, case closed.”

“.....” Tae got speechless

"I also have the same reaction with you Dear and I was thinking that time 'is he really our Boss?' but then he already treat me as her daughter and Mr. Hwang is the one who know that we're in a relationship for long, so he must quite eager to know when we are now ready to disclose our relationship."

"Yeah but it would only depends to her actions"

"Hai, hai and Dear what if she didn't react of what we expect of her reaction and instead doing something we didn't expect or rather I got my calculations wrong?"

"Let's just see it with our own eyes, oh, right we arrive Hon"

"Okay"

Then the couple walk and again, they eat their dinner at the same restaurant with same order. Tae orders both of their favorite and will both eat their partners' favorite food. After eating they go to the Theater Hall right away and wait for the other team. Everyone is confuse since Manager Rei didn't expose Ms. Xie doings but they didn't know that this two couple laid a trap for her and it's her own decision to be get trapped by it or not.

At exactly 7pm, the live musical start without problems and during breaks also nothing happened. Every break Tae will talk to his wife while Rei suggesting something to her husband to be more expressive even though the musical director already satisfied with his performance. Tae listen to his wife suggestion and do what she told him to do so that it lead his performance to become more better that cause his wife to smile.

"Don't smile like that" warning her when he notices her smile.

"Eh?"

Whispering to his wife "You will steal another hearts"

“Silly I just smile because of your performance”

“I know and...” someone interrupted him.

“Tae on standby and it’s your turn next”

“Yes Director”

Rei give something to her husband “here drink your water first to avoid you’re mouth dry”

Accept the water bottle “thanks”

Then after drinking the water, Tae got back to his performance and then its end well.

chapter 339 – Sonography

Ms. Xie witnesses it that something fall from Tae’s pocket and she picked it up.

“Tae, there’s something fall from your pocket”

“...” pretending didn’t heard her and follow his wife.

“Tae, wait”

“What’s this?”

“It’s not something to do with you” but that someone suddenly grab it from her “what are you doing? That’s not yours and did you say that you’re already quitting as my Manager?”

“You’re still under the H.EM Entertainment and what is this?”

“Don’t know about that one but what are you doing here?”

“Do you think that you can be freely free after I leave? Dream on Lou because boss will only let go of you after you’re sleeping with him”

“Why not you do it on your own and don’t involve me with that, you are all a trash”

“See that one again and I will be surely get your younger brother stop his medication”

“You cannot blackmailed me with that because you and the entertainment never pays my brother medication”

“Shut up and don’t think that I don’t know about yesterday incidents because it’s you who did inflate the tires. You might feel relax now but don’t act naive because that Artist Manager of CA Entertainment already have a copy of that footage of yours”

“They are not all like you who always blackmailing something to your artist for your own good”

“Geez if you’re really wise enough Lou then I think you more famous than Goddess Li or the M’dols group but look what happened to you, you’re already here in this industries for 15 years and yet you’re not famous enough, if you just sleep with our boss then you’re already famous along time ago and now being bless with a luxurious life.”

“I’m not an idiot for that to sell my body just to achieve my dream” then try to sneakingly grab that paper from her manager but then failed to do so.

The manager slowly opening the folded ultrasound thermal paper and her eyes suddenly got wide eyes.

“Who’s the owner of this?”

Ignoring her manager, she walks right away and leaving her alone in the backstage 'so Mr. Jun and Manager Rei are really indeed in a relationship and will become a parents soon' she wonder while walking and her tears suddenly flow on her own as if her tears have a life. She's walking fast so that no one can see and ride her car then leave right away without knowing that her boss is already plotting something to her.

"Heh, heh what a lucky item I have from you and this is a sonography result of Jun Lou Rei. Wait, Jun Lou Rei, who is this lady? Is she perhaps Mr. Jun girlfriend? Wait, she already have Mr. Jun last name, perhaps she's Mr. Jun arranged wife and accidentally get her pregnant. It would be not that Artist Manager since she's still a young lady and she didn't look like a pregnant lady. Based from what I saw Lou expressions that time when she's calling Mr. Jun maybe it get falls from where it from and Mr. Jun didn't notice it. Ha, ha, ha what a lucky day for me, indeed. Sorry Lou but I need to use it for my own good".

After thinking and brainstorming on her own, she gets her phone and calling her boss right away.

"Boss"

"What? Did that Lou agreed to sleep with me?"

"Still declining it boss but then I have good news for you"

"What is it? And don't be a useless wife to me?"

"I have found sonography here in the backstage, want to know where did I found it and who's left this one?"

"What? Don't ever try to blackmailed me because I didn't touch you since the day of our arranged marriage during wedding night until now"

"Yeah, yeah I know because you're also the same as the Ex CEO Min and you just collecting celebrities and artists for your own d.e.s.i.r.e. If I know you're like this then I would not agreed to this arranged marriage of us, you're just a bastard"

“Yeah you’re married a bastard husband but did you succeed of what task did I give you? Just a simple one task for you but what happened, it’s been 4 years but you didn’t succeed it by agreeing Lou to sleep with me and always firing the entire manager that I assigned for her.”

“For what reason that I’m firing them out, I didn’t let my guard off or else you will already sleeping with her longtime ago. By doing all this, you just act like you don’t have a mother? And dream on, you’re just a lunatic and a bastard. Oh, right just forget what I said awhile ago.”

“Wait”

“What?”

“I will agree our divorce, if you agreed that one”

“I won’t believe you because you always talking that one to me if you’re bargaining things to me”

“I’m real this time”

“If you’re real this time then let’s meet tomorrow at Civil Bureau Registry and let’s handle this divorce by agreement”

“What?”

“I would give this sonography to your hands after I have legally divorce to you bastard”

“If you’re pretty just like Lou and the celebrities that signed on me, then I’m already sleeping with you”

“No thanks I’m not interested with you bastard. If you won’t be there at exactly 8am then sorry but this sonography that I have in my hands will turn on the ash. Bye”

“You witch” Tot, tot, tot then his phone got thrown out again.

‘Hope this time we will divorce, geez Dad looks what you did to me? You said that I can be fully happy marrying him because his a nice man and this is your death wish for me? If not for your death wish then I didn’t marry this bastard when I’m 25’ after her call to that bastard husband of her, while wondering she go to her car and seat at the driver’s side but before she start the engine she received a call from that someone and tell her to go at the meeting place after this call.

‘Eh, how did she know my number? Geez, that young one really and she deserve to have that name.’

After the call she did go to that place and meet not only the one who called her but instead the whole team who’s now waiting her.

“I thought you’re not going to come here Ms. Su Lucy or rather Mrs. Zhang Lucy.”

“As expected of you Manager Rei but how did you know my identity when in fact no one knows that I’m married with that bastard”

“There’s a small bead in that sonography and it’s a pinhole camera recorder”

“I see and you’re really from the C Country Manager Rei”

“Yeah then take a seat first Ms. Su”

chapter 340 - Su Lucy

After Tae pretending that he didn’t heard her calling his name, the two of them walk not fast but not so slow and still enough for them to hear their conversation but not the entire one since both of them already out of sight. Tae still the one driving and heard his wife

“Change of plan Dear and let’s go to the studio first”

“Okay” then just heard his wife calling Mr. Hwang.

—Phone Conversation—

“Yes Manager Rei? Is your plan got succeed?”

“No Mr. Hwang and we only executed the plan. Ms. Xie really changing after that day and already reflecting on her own actions but then we got another problem. I will let you know later Mr. Hwang and can I request if we have an urgent meeting tonight?”

“I’m alright with that Manager Rei but how about the team, are you going to tell them about the sonography and are you going to disclose your relationship to the team?”

“I will ask Tae first Mr. Hwang” [Neh Tae Mr. Hwang asks if you are going to tell the team about us?]

[Not yet but we can only call Manager Wang and Bro Yun, since they’re already know about us]

[Okay] “And Mr. Hwang, Tae....”

“Yeah I heard it Manager Rei, so then what else?”

“That’s all Mr. Hwang”

“I see but can I call Atty. Kei, Lina and Lu Wen to come, just in case?”

“Yes Mr. Hwang”

“Okay”

—End of call—

“You’re really right Hon and it really happened of what we didn’t expect”

“Yeah Dear”

“But you already expecting it right, I mean you’re already investigating it, so then it’s that the Manager who you mention that she’s the one who manage her to sleep with the Boss of H.EM Entertainment but didn’t succeed”

“No it’s more complicated Dear” then Rei explain everything to her husband after she investigate it thoroughly.

“What kind of husband he is?”

“They just married in an arranged marriage”

“Whatever it is, he already married her and yet what he did? Look what happened to Bro En two elder sisters, both of them got married in an arranged marriage but it’s very different to him”

“Well we cannot really know what’s on their minds since all of us have our own decisions making”

“Yeah you’re right Hon, so then what are we going to do next?”

Rei tell her plans to him which he only agreed and they arrive at the CA Entertainment. Tae park the car first and then the two go out, again Tae assist his wife but they didn’t holding hands with each other since they’re out instead they only do as Manager and Artist Relationship.

When the two arrive, Mr. Hwang and the others are already waiting them in the studio and they enter around at the same time in the conference room.

Mr. Hwang : So then what’s your plan Manager Rei?

Rei : Let's just watch and hear it first Mr. Hwang (then setting up the laptop in the conference room and connected it to the projector. All of them witness and heard everything, then commented at the same time after)

All : A Manager and wife of Mr. Zhang?

Rei : Yeah we heard it from her own mouth but then I ask the Musical Director who she is and he only know that she's Su Lucy and Ms. Xie Lu Lou Manager for 4 years but I think there's something we don't know yet (already know but this time she's not using her other identity as R since Rei only have a guess), so then I ask the Musical Director for her number, which he didn't decline and give me her contact number, so I will call her now and let her come in, if it's alright with you all?

Mr. Hwang : Yes go ahead Manager Rei and it's really important to know it first before counter attacking them without knowing the whole story.

Atty. Kei : Yes that's the best idea Manager Rei

Lu Wen : You're lucky that you're a Ceno Rei or else you didn't have chance to know this matters.

Rei : Yeah right. Alright and I will call her now (then call her right away and said) Ms. Su, if you don't mind its Manager Rei and can you meet us in the CA Entertainment? (Then end of call) she just hung up on me.

Mr. Hwang : Let just wait if she will come or not (then all of them nodded)

While waiting inside the conference room, Lucy also on the way and because she didn't confirm if she will come or not, no one waiting her outside but then the security already got notified by Mr. Hwang just in case if she comes, so she park the car without problem when she said that she's going to meet with Manager Rei and the Security Personnel just only give her a direction to where the conference room and where they are waiting for her. She went first to the restroom area and then when she go out, she stumble onto someone that cause her to lose her balance, not only that because she fall directly onto him and now on top to that someone that cause them to kiss on their lips.

“T—-that, I’m sorry”

“It’s alright and next time make sure that you didn’t stumble on to someone” he sit up but then there position become more intimate since Lucy is still on top of him “uhm, it’s better if you get off first”

“Ahh, that’s right sorry” then hurriedly stand up from that position and luckily she didn’t wear a dress or skirt today or else she will become more embarrassed then walk hurriedly because she’s too embarrassed for that. She’s now standing in the studio of M’dol and knocks the door as if nothing happened awhile ago.

“Knock, knock, and knock”

Yuri who just happened to pass at the studio and ask her “Uhm, are you Ms. Su, perhaps?”

“Yes I am”

“Oh, then just get in and they are waiting for you in the conference room”

“I see thanks” ‘Woah, how come they welcome me warmly?’ She gets in then as she get in she meet someone who called her.

“Oh, I thought you won’t come here Ms. Su Lucy or rather Mrs. Zhang Lucy”

“As expected of you Manager Rei and how did you know that I’m Mrs. Zhang?”

“There’s a bead on that thermal paper you got from Ms. Xie and come here, we’re waiting for your arrival even though we’re not sure if you will come here or not.”

“A bead which is a Pinhole Camera Recorder with Sensor, am I right?”

“Yes and you heard it?”

“Yes because it’s originated from C Country and you are really from C Country Manager Rei”

Rei knocked first and the two entered in the conference room.

“Ms. Su is here guys”

All : I see

Lucy : .... (Speechless since she didn’t expect that not only Rei who’s waiting her but the one’s waiting her is almost the whole team.)

Rei : Take a seat first Ms. Su (then the two sit at the same time but then the surroundings become awkward and Rei break the silence or else no reason for this meeting) since you know about the bead, then for sure you know why I call Ms. Su here, right?

Lucy : Yeah

Rei : I see but then before that we’re waiting someone who’s not yet here since his excusing himself awhile ago, can you wait for a moment Ms. Su?

Lucy : I’m alright with that Manager Rei.
