

Last Man 35

Chapter 35 - This Weekend?

After Rei telling it directly to them Mei laugh and said "You know Sis, you're really a boring one, without telling it in suspense way but instead telling it directly."

"Well sorry for being one Mei"

"So when are you going to leave?" asking again without bothering to look at the itinerary given by Rei and just put it on the center table."

"Next weekend Mei"

The kids only heard weekend since they're still watching Frozen "eh, this weekend Aunt Rei?"

"No kids, Aunt will leave next weekend"

As being the elder one, Ken turn off the TV and all of them are now paying attention to Rei.

"But....."

"Shhh.... Let Aunt finish first Ken" he nodded and Rei continued "this weekend will be the last day and one month after they talk about my promotion which is also the due day of my decision, so they give me another week to prepare for all necessary of mine. Wednesday is the last day of my work in here, after that day will be my farewell party, then next day my rest day before the day I'm going to leave. Your Aunt already requested that I'm going to bring my nieces and nephews in my workplace starting tomorrow until my last day so that we will have more bondings before I leave. But promise to Aunt that you will behave in my workplace."

"Yes Aunt"

“Sorry kids Aunt didn’t expect that I’m going to leave so soon” Rei expected that she will leave in one month and never thought it will be so soon.

“It’s alright Aunt and it proves that Aunt is really important from your workplace”

“Thanks Ken”

“Your Welcome Aunt Rei, but promise us after you will be settle in S Country and done with your internship please call us when you’re on break.”

“Yes, I promise.”

“So...”

“No worries my little boy Ken, your dad and I will drop you off and pick you up everyday since we will visit the shop for checking and inspecting.”

Oh!”

“Mom knows you well my son. So, Rei what time you’re going to leave?”

“I still didn’t look my itinerary, I only know when I’m going to leave since the manager said so. Wait, I’m going to look at it first” Rei open the envelope and look what’s inside.

“Oh, this is my working Visa, portfolio, itinerary and travel allowance”

“Sis, let me see your Visa” not minding the travel allowance one because it’s not for her and know some company rules and regulations.

“Here it is” she give her Visa to Mei while looking to her itinerary “My flight is schedule to depart at 7am, so I will be in the airport at 3am.”

“Woah, you have an early flight Sis Rei”

“Yeah, that’s right Lyn”

“Sis, sis”

“What’s wrong Mei?”

“Your visa is no validity date so it’s mean you can work in S Country as long as what you want”

“Eh but I thought visa have a validity date?”

“Yeah it is but this Visa of yours means your company have a stronger connections in both government”

“Oh!” no comment from them because Mei, En, Lyn, and El also have no validity date for their working visa but they decide to resign except En to stop working overseas because they misses their sister and mother that much but they arrive the moment Rei is going to work abroad and they know it’s her time and that’s why they support her and not planning to stop her.

“So all of us here we’re going to drop you off in the airport during that day. So kids are you also going to drop off your Aunt?” They nodded “okay that settled and for now let’s not waste our time for bonding with your Aunt.

They watch another movie before going to their own room. Again, the kids are sleeping beside their Aunt without chatting and just feel the presence of their Aunt because they know they will misses it when there Aunt are already in S Country.

“Let’s go kids, Ma be careful and contact us if something’s wrong”

“I know Rei and all of you be careful”

They leave and now on the way to Rei’s workplace and will arrive sooner, Mei is the one driving the van while her husband seating beside her.

“Mei, just drop us around the corner in my workplace”

“Okay” then Mei drop them near her workplace. “We’re here Sis and kids behave while your Aunt is working, alright.”

“We know Mom/Aunt Mei and bye bye”

After making sure they step near the entrance of the building, Mei turning opposite and stop to where their shop is.

On the other side, as usual Rei arrive 30 minutes before the working hours and to her suprise her co workers are already in the office and stop what they’re talking about.

All of them ask Rei in suprise

“Ms Rei, is that your kids?”
