“You just eat a snack one hour ago”

“It’s nothing compare to meals”

“Silly”

Rei put the foods on the table and put aside the tray where the staff can easily keep it without disturbing them. Rei seat opposite to them and ask the staff.

“Can you give me 5 plates, please?”

“Yes, Ms. Rei”

“Here’s your plates Ms Rei”

“Thanks”

Rei distributing the plates to the kids first, placing half rice each of them, dividing the pork and chopsuey then opening their bottles first followed by her foods and bottle.

“Let’s dig in now and chew it very well”

“Uh-uh”

“Rei, can I join you?”

“Yes, Mrs Min you can join us”

“Thanks”

Her assistant Mr Do is sitting and eating where his friends are and Mrs Min saw Rei where she seated and ask if she can join them. Rei just agreed, introduce the kids and telling how she relate to the kids.

“Kids this is Mrs Min, your Aunt mentor during my internship and Mrs Min this is my nephews Ken and Ren while my nieces Ellyn and Lynel”

Pause a while and greet her “Nice to meet you Mrs Meng”

“Nice to meet you too kids” ‘so the kids are nephews and nieces of Rei. And Here we are, the others who envy Rei just speculating something else to ruin her reputations’ while thinking it, the kids suddenly stand and say thanks to her with a gesture of how they say thanks in J Country and T Country way.

“Mrs Min, thank you for taking care of Aunt Rei, as her Mentor”

Ken and Ren thanking her in T country way by bowing 45 degrees with their right hands on the c.h.e.s.t while Ellyn and Lynel thanking her in J country by bowing 45 degrees. Mrs Meng who caught off guard and don't know why they act like this because mostly the kids just thanking sincerely without any kind of gesture but these kids have and are already too sincere.

Rei observe Mrs Min and explain why they are like that "Mrs Min if you don't mind, my nieces and nephews just arrive 3 days ago, so they still not adjusted here and just thanking you in J Country and S Country way."

"Oh, so that's why. But how come they are fluent in C dialect?"

"They were born full C Citizen but grow up in different country but their parents never fail to teach them what their mother tongue dialect is."

"Oh, that's good and Rei you must continue eating while chatting me"

"Yes, Mrs Min"

Meanwhile the moment Mrs. Min approach her, their fellow co workers are nkw talking about them.

"Geez, this s-t, how come she tame the most strict senior Mrs Min"

"For you to know Mrs Min was a mentor of Ms Rei during her internship"

"Yeah we know but then how come I'm not to close to Mrs Min when she also my mentor?"

"Me too, Mrs Min was my mentor also. I bribed her but she didn't accept it."

"That's right and same here, I'm an heiress but how come I got beaten by that s-t and a commoner"

"If that's what we think, maybe Ms Rei hold a dark secret of Mrs Min"

“What do you mean?” But then stop because they notice the kids standing and said something to Mrs Min while bowing their heads.

“What the? Are they an idiot? How come they just bow their heads like an idiot?”

“So s-t is an idiot and her kids also an idiot”

——- Back to Rei and the kids ——

“Kids next time just say thanks without doing any gesture”

“Yes Aunt and sorry”

“No need and don’t be sorry kids you did nothing wrong. Just Aunt and your parents forgot to remind you about it”

“It’s alright Rei but these kids is really just like you and they’ve been raised very well.”

“Yeah and it’s because their parents are strict to them”

“Good, good, geez these kids are more educated compared to others” referring to her juniors

“Mrs Min if you don’t mind they’re still not studying at the moment”

“Eh, what do you mean, Rei?”

“What I mean Mrs Min, my nephews are just turning 3 years old and my nieces will be 2 years on next month.”

“W—what? (cough — cough)” got choke then Rei give her water then touch her back and slowly tapping it.

“Sorry to surprise you Mrs Min”

“So you’re not kidding and just telling the truth”

“Yes, Mrs Min it’s the truth”

“How come these kids are too tall compared to their young age?”

“Well both of them have a tall father, so they got it from their father genes”

“Well, well for sure they will be popular when they start studying.” Then whispering her “by the way I just notice they’re not chatting to us, are all of them shy?”

“Yes they are all shy but since a.d.u.l.ts are talking they didn’t dare to interrupt because it’s rude to do so”

“Oh, so that’s why” then whisper to Rei again “can you ask them something so that they will talk?” Rei nodded.

“Okay. Kids, Aunt wondering if it’s bad idea to bring you here in workplace”

“Eh, what’s wrong Aunt?” sad look while asking her.

“No, no that’s not what Aunt mean, you know Aunt love all of you, so it hurt seeing you sleep in a bad position like what you did awhile ago”

“It’s alright Aunt, as long as you’re with us it’s okay for us”

“Rei, Rei why not let them sleep in the sofa?”

“I don’t want to let my eyes out from them”

“Then how about under your desk since it’s big enough to their height”

“Ah, that’s right Mrs Min thanks for that”

“You’re welcome Rei”

“Uhm, Aunt?”

“Yes, what is it Ken?”

By looking at the cafeteria clock, he notice the time and remind his Aunt to avoid being late, and also to avoid getting insult by those fellow co workers of his Aunt “it’s quarter to 1pm and you’re still not done with your lunch”

“Ah, that’s right thanks Ken”

“Your welcome Aunt”

‘A 3 years old who already conscious of being late, how much more if he reach at the right age? He, he, this little boy will become more strict compared to me’.
