

Last Man 38

Chapter 38 - Confirm that she is a s--t

After being reminded by a 3 years old little boy both Rei and Mrs Min eat fast to avoid being late. Five minutes before 1pm they're now seating at their own desk, thanks for being reminded they catch up and avoid late for the first time. Rei remind the kids first.

"Tomorrow I will bring a sheet for you to sleep under my desk and for now endure"

"He, he no problem Aunt" replied in a low voice"

Then right away, Rei get back to work and take a quick glance to check the kids if they're alright or not. Seconds by seconds, minutes by minutes and hours by hours, the working for today end and Rei with the kids already waiting outside near the corner then got pick up right away. The co workers who witness it all and who are envy of her are again adding another story of her.

"Now it's confirmed she really a s-t"

Her fellow co workers see both Mr Do, Mr Li and Mr Zhang teasing them.

"You're innocent Ms Rei is really a s-t"

"Just getting pick up by a car, your conclusion it's already like that".

"No need to defend her, you also witness it right and she have 4 kids, so she's not an innocent one"

"How about you Ms Li and Ms Zhang both of you are not innocent anymore?"

“W—what?”

“Look at yourself before you judge”

“Don’t change the topic idiot and at least we don’t have kids not like your Ms Rei”

“I’m not changing the topic and same to you Ms Meng, why are you seducing a married m....” cut off by both Mr Li and Mr Zhang

“Don’t mind them Mr Do”

“Ha, ha the three of you can’t accept the reality””. Li and Ms Zhang you know what you just a shame to Li and Zhang. Both of you are.....” again got cut off by his friends

“Enough Mr Do and let’s go now”

“Oh, okay and sorry”

Even though both of them hate the two they can’t tell what’s on their mind because they shared the same last name but thank goodness they didn’t shared same blood and not related to them but just having the same last name they can just still stain their last name so they avoid it, they want to argue but they will not step too low for their levels. The three of them leave while the others laugh because they taught they accept their defeat.

Meanwhile the person who’s the main topic for them just arrive without knowing t her name almost create a trouble for them by simply witnessing that she got pick up by a van.

The family arrive at the same time when El arrive, the gate already opened by El so it's easy for Mei to park first followed by El. Ellyn and Lynel great their fathers the moment El done parking the car and getting out.

"Welcome back Papa"

"Same both of you Ellyn and Lynel"

Both parents ask their kids "so how's your day at your Aunt workplace"

"It's nice and wonderful then Aunt Rei is the most pretty and smart among all of them"

"Kids, don't be a bias just because I'm your Aunt"

"We're not bias and we're telling the truth Aunt Rei"

"Okay, okay and thanks for the compliment kids"

'Geez, Aunt Rei didn't believe us but well we're just telling the truth, well this is Aunt Rei after all'

"By the way Mama, I warn you that the cafeteria in the building where Aunt Rei workplace is, the foods ate really delicious and yummy, so don't be defeated to them. There prices are expensive but it's worth so don't let your guard down and do your best"

"Eh! Thanks Ellyn"

"Hey, hey my little boy Ken is that really yummy and delicious?" Mei ask because he know Ken is really a s.e.n.s.i.t.i.v.e how it is taste, well his not a picky one but if it's really that yummy and delicious so it's really that good, if not he will become sick and start vomiting because his taste and stomach is really that s.e.n.s.i.t.i.v.e. That's the reason why Mei start and learn how to cook because the moment the twins know how to eat and Mei celebrating it, they eat one of a local T eatery, Ken just eat without knowing that he is a s.e.n.s.i.t.i.v.e one and didn't like the taste, so Ken start vomiting and having a strong stomach, where Mei's reactions are very hilarious because the feeling of being a first-time mom who doesn't have any experience goes right away to the nearest hospital and Ken got admitted for this reason. During that time, En, who was assigned overseas and received an emergency call from his wife and even her family in C and J country received her emergency call, so Rei and everyone are aware of it. En got back right away and then Mei decides to start and learn how to cook, well she's not really a naive in terms of cooking skills but being the youngest one and being spoiled by En, she only knows the basics, so she needs to practice and learn.

"Yes Mom"

"Oh, Lyn, do your best"

"Uh-uh"

All of them get inside and said in unison "Ma/Grandma/Mama Grand were here"
