

Chapter 39 - El & Lyn and Family Restaurant

Early morning, the family are slowly waking up one by one, the couple En and Mei who's the one assigned to cook for today are almost done for their foods meanwhile the other family members are now taking a bath and preparing themselves to be ready. The kids are already seated in the couch and now waiting for Mei/Mom signal that the breakfast is ready.

After minutes passed by, once again Mei, En, Lyn and Rei are on the way to where they are going. They drop off Rei and Kids first at the same place where they dropped them off yesterday while Mei turns the Van into another side after making sure that they got inside safely. Rei enters to her workplace with the kids and her co-workers are still on the way because they didn't get called by their Manager for a meeting like what happened yesterday. Rei greeted some of her co-workers before going to her desk, she sits and grabs something from her backpack then looking to the kids while giving instructions.

"Kids all of you can sleep under my desk and if you want to sleep, you can sleep" Rei puts neatly one of the sheets on the tiled floor "all of you can come here now" the kids approach and now sit on that sheet while she said to the kids "and here (give another sheet) use it if you're getting cold" then suddenly Lynel as the youngest one well Ellyn is also a youngest but she is so chic and Lynel is the one who is really childish that observes her Aunt and suddenly laughing and giggling "He, he"

"What's wrong Lynel?"

"You're really like a mother to us, Aunt Rei"

"Oh, so it means I'm qualified to be a mother?"

"Uh-uh" all of them agreed.

"Well let's see what's your Aunt's future for that"

"Aunt Rei your kids will be really lucky to have you."

“Uh-uh, but Ken I think Aunt is more lucky if I will have kids in the future. Okay, okay and now if all of you feel hungry just ask Aunt, alright?”

“Uh-uh”

Rei still squatting under her desk and her jealous co workers just arrive that didn't see her react.

“Oh, what a scene. I never expect that Ms Rei will be late today or perhaps she's still rolling on the bed.”

“Yeah, so that Early Bird will be late today”

“Just because the three of you almost late, don't drag Ms Rei to be like the three of you”

“Then where's Ms Rei, Mr Do?”

Rei who just instructing and talking to the kids who heard them suddenly getting up and interrupting them “Oh, I never thought they will be a day that Ms Meng, Ms Li and Ms Zhang will miss me. Ah, thanks for that Mr Do”

“Y—you, since when did you arrive?”

Rei didn't answered them but instead remind them because she didn't heard that they punching their time cards yet. “1 minute left before 8”

“What?” Then the three of them who realize what it is are automatically walk where the bondy clock is and all of them hurriedly punching in but because the three of them got trouble who will punch in first, they waste the 1 minute left and the three of them who will be not late if they give way are now all late by 5 minutes because they argue and argue but stop when Manager Xiu scold them.

“What are you arguing about the bondy clock will not run away?”

All of the co workers who witness them suddenly laugh silently including the kids that can picture it out them even they didn't see.

All of them taught including the kids 'how come the three of them got hired if they're acting like this?'

Rei did the same routine of what she's doing by bringing the kids to her workplace, to the cafeteria, let them sleep if they're sleepy and waking them up if she already done working. Rei always did the same thing and now, 2 hours before 5pm, they have 30 minutes break and that all of them are now seating in the couch while eating a burger with drinks that sponsored by their company. Rei's fellow co workers are talking about something that Rei almost forgot that tomorrow will be the opening of their first family restaurant.

"Hey, hey guys tomorrow is the opening of that shop"

"Right, right and they already have a signage. How fast it is? Imagine a week before is still that building without occupant and now they're already preparing for the opening tomorrow"

"Those two pretty ladies must be really a rich heiress and the two of them must be a sibling since the name of the shop is EL & LYN AND FAMILY RESTAURANT"

"Yeah, yeah but you know what? The van that always parking near at the said shop is look familiar?"

'Ha, ha it's really look familiar because you always see me that I got drop off and pick up by that van with the kids. And no they're not sibling but in law and that two ladies are the mother of these kids' Rei answered by her mind only.

"So let's try it tomorrow after our work, okay?"

"Yeah right"

“Count me in” all of them agreed and Rei didn’t answered so one of them ask her.

“How about you Ms Rei?”

“Ha, as if she will go. I bet she will be pick up again”

“Just mind your own business Ms Meng you’re a heiress but how come you can’t compare to that two pretty ladies who seems the owners of that restaurant?” all of them already see Mei and Lyn faces because their shop is just an opposite direction from thsm so they’re many chances to see them like when they’re on break or during lunch time that they will go out.

“Ha, ha”

“What’s wrong kids?” all of them are now chatting to the kids except for the three ladies because the four of them don’t like them and will not talk or replied to them, well we already know why.

“Mr Li, Mr Li what are you talking awhile ago?”

“I said Ms Rei can compete to that two ladies, and who you are again?”

“Geez Mr Li, it’s Ren, Ren”

“Oops sorry, sorry because you and your brother is really look alike”

“Well duh of course it is Mr Li, when did you see that the identical twins have different face?”

“Speaking of you Ms Ru, can you recognize who is who?”

“Of course it easy, the quiet is Ken while Ren is the talkative, right?” They nodded “See, I’m right”

“Stop it Ms Ru and Mr Li but for now Ren why are you asking Mr Li to repeat it again?”

“Well I’m just wondering if Mom can really compete to them?”

Rei and the other kids amaze by Ren reason because he didn’t mention who is Mom and them but they know what he mean except for Rei co workers because they taught Ren is talking about Rei as his Mom.

“Of course it is your Mom talking about, she’s really pretty and can compete to them”

“Oh, thanks Mr Zhang”

“By the way, Ms Rei are you going there tomorrow?”

“Uh-uh, I will” and continued to her mind only ‘how come I will not come it’s my family first shop after all’.

They still chat but then they heard two voices remindindinn them “3 minutes” everyone look and now know who it is.

“Ha, ha Ken if you will be that serious you will become like Mrs Min” Ken just a shrugged them while Mrs Min react

“Hey, hey, what do you mean by that Mr Do?”

“Nothing”

Rei looking to Ken and ask “getting bored?”

“Nah, I’m just happy” said while smiling that cause all the ladies except Rei to squeal including Ms Meng, Ms Li and Ms Zhang

“OMG, you’re so handsome Ken” squealed by Rei females co workers

“Ha, ha too bad for all of you Ken is still a little boy” retorted by the male workers.

“Shut up”

Rei who looks to her fellow co workers don’t know if she will cry or laugh but then called the kids “now, now come here kids and let them be like that” the kids approach their aunt and the others react at the same time

“Ms Rei you’re such a meanie”
