

Chapter 42 - Perfect Venue

After the foods got distributed by Mr. Li everyone are now digging their own plates and eating. While eating they continue to chat and chat except the trio because they don't want to have a conversation with Rei, even though Rei just listening to them and attentively taking care of the kids.

Mr Do who's still eating and have foods from his chewing mouth said "t-he foo-ds her-e a-re real-ly y-um-my an--d deli-cious"

"Don't talk when your mouth is full, Mr Do"

"Tsk, tsk, I am ashamed of you as a friend of mine, Mr. Do. Our Little Ren already know and aware of it in his young age and yet here you are, tsk, tsk"

Mr Do who already done chewing his food react "I just wonder if you really my friend or not, Mr Zhang"

"Of course I am, if not then I would not bluntly said it or even prank you." Commented directly that cause for them to laugh.

Time passed by, the others are still busy talking to each other while talking, meanwhile Rei is busy feeding her nieces and nephews that all of them witness her movements and react at the same time well again except for the trio.

"Ms Rei, you really love your kids that much"

“Eh” looking to them surprisingly because they said it together but knowing their seriousness she replied them “of course I am” then continue to her only thoughts ‘ of course I will show them how much I love them because they just arrived and yet here I am, without even a month of bonding with them, I will be going to leave them in a week from now’.

“Even without replying us, it really show how much you love them, Ms Rei”

“Thanks Mrs Min”

“Ah, by the way, Ms Rei”

“Yes, what is it Manager Xiu”

Before he speak, Manager Xiu spotted a vacant space of the shop that he knows it would be for any events and as for him, his been looking around for a venue where the Farewell Party of Ms Rei will be held and that, no wonder he eats his breakfast here in the shop this morning the moment they open. He is one of the 100 customers and just seated in the first floor so he didn’t see this space right now.”

“Just wait Ms Rei and let just pay our foods first”. ‘No wonder I’ve been looking around since the day Ms Rei accept the promotions and yet I didn’t found perfect venue for her, then now the venue just opposite to our workplace’.

“Ah, that’s right”

Mr Li who’s been doing the ordering awhile ago, so he automatically raise his hand and said “excuse me Sir, can we have now our bill?”

“Yes Sir” the staff walk and go downstairs then he got back with the bill on his hand “this is your bill Sir” then waited for their payments.

“Thanks” Mr Li looks at the bills and said “so aside from the four kids, let’s divide the bill into 19” adding Mr Xiu.

“Tsk, how come I will pay the portions for the s–t kids?”

“Ms Meng”

“It’s alright Manager Xiu and Mr Li just divide it to 23 to be fair and square”

“But they we’re kids”

Except Rei, the kids and the trio everyone taugt including the other customers who heard them ‘tsk, tsk the four kids portion is equal to one a.d.u.l.t, how greedy she is”.

The price is not that high because it’s cheap compared to other shop but their foods is for a high class standard already and yet the price is low. They taugt it’s just for attracting customers but sooner or later they will realize that the price for today is just 3% discount to the actual price, for example the regular 50 price is just price for 48.50

“Okay and we will divide it into 23” he said the total amount to pay, divide and they automatically give their share to him “here it is” the pay is in exact amount.

“Yes Sir and I received the exact amount” he accepts the money and before he walk Manager Xiu stop him and said.

“By the way, can we talk to your Shop Owner or anyone of the shop owner or from any of the shop management?”

‘The other one is already with you Sir’ but then answered in different “Yes Sir I will ask my bosses first”

“Thanks” he left after replying you’re welcome to him.

Meanwhile Ms Meng who suddenly get nervous the moment her superior ask for the management and she ask curiously “M—Manager Xiu why do you want to talk to the Shop Manager?”

“Well aside from almost making a scandal, I still have something else”

“B—”

“Ms Meng who are you to stop me? From what I know, you’re not my superior right?”

“M—my apology Manager Xiu”

“At least you know”

The staff arrive and give the receipt to him “Here’s your receipt Sir and this is the money for the kids portions because our boss said that the kids portion will be free of charge since it’s our opening today” well Mei are inside the office and accidentally heard them from security device, so she decide the kids to be free of charge except Rei to avoid in suspicions. After witnessing it, Mei inform the cashier that the moment Ray give the payment from any of them and will edit the bills then return the excess to the customers and said the kids will be free of charge.

The staff and the cashier didn’t ask why because they already know why because the moments that the others customers will pay, Boss Mei will instruct them to edit the bills and tell them that the kids will be free of charge since it’s their opening today and they know that she just monitoring customers who have a kids with them. They didn’t inform the customers because it’s mystery promo from the shop.

Mr Li accept the money and receipt, then he notice that the amount from the bill change to the amount where the kids portion have been not added and give to Rei the money while saying “you’re so lucky Ms Rei because your kids is free of charge. Here for your kid’s portion”

“O—oh, thanks. And Sir, please give thanks to my boss”

"Y—yes Ma'am" almost blurted out his boss name but then turning to Manager Xiu "by the way Sir, my boss will be here any minute and my boss is a little bit busy, so please wait."

"Thank you and say thank you to your boss for giving time for me"

"Yes, Sir and for now can I bothered all of you?"

"Yes, what is it?"

"The shop are handing out a survey form for all of you as being part of the customers in our opening day and asking for your precious time to answered it, so if you have, can we ask the favor?"

"Yes, yes you can. Give them the form to my subordinates"

"Thank you Sir"

"How about the kids?"

"We will also give them the survey Sir"

"Your heard it kids so answered it thoroughly and if you don't understands any of it just ask your mother or any of us"

"Yes Mr Xiu"

"Ah, you don't need to worry Sir because the kids survey is different pattern from the a.d.u.l.t.s pattern" show the two example survey to them.

Everyone can see the differences of the a.d.u.l.t and kids pattern. A.d.u.l.t pattern is a normal survey pattern form meanwhile the kids are in ill.u.s.trations pattern for example they draw any foods and have three reactions such as happy face, normal face and sad face. Even Rei and the kids don't know about it react the same thing as what everyone reactions the moment they see it.

"How cute?"

"Thank you and my bosses will be happy for that compliments Sir and Ma'am" he distributed it to them and some of the staff also distributed it to the other customers who got received their change and receipts. They received the form and answered the survey thoroughly before they give it to the staff.

"Thank you Sir and Ma'am"

"You're welcome Sir" then notice his boss approaching him "ah my boss is here, Sir"

"Ray, who's looking for me?" she already know who but still asking

"Ah, it's their group Boss Mei" pointing them and almost saying it's Ma'am Rei group but didn't repeat the almost mistake he did awhile because all of the staff are most fresh graduate well except for the chiefe because Lyn is the one who select them while the sisters just listening and agreed if they meet the qualifications.

"Oh so it's them" then looking to Rei and the kids with an amusing expression.
