

Last Man 421

chapter 421 – Rei and Tae first press conference together after got slandered 2

Everyone in the audience for the Press Conference is still speechless because of Tae and then they only heard Tae asking his wife about something.

“Hon I’m already done with my own statements, so how about you, do still have one to add?”

Rei nodded and replied to her husband “for clearing my name you already explaining everything but I will still add another thing.”

“I see and go ahead Hon”

“Thanks, Dear.” Then Rei looking to everyone and continue “alright everyone here, I did declare that one knowing that it’s a live interview but it doesn’t mean that I didn’t do it out of impulse because I just did as what Manager and Wife right thing do for my artist and as a wife of my husband. I’m not that heartless and cold-blooded enough to watch my husband being slandered and got scrutinized by the viewers especially the live audiences without doing anything. As one of the Team Managers of M’Dols, I’m not that blind to accept the said invitation of that Live Interview for only a matter of 5 days allowance to accept the said invitation. I agree because I’m already aware that the Management of the said Live Interview was a subsidiary branch of H. EM Entertainment and as what JR revealed, we already got a lead of the main culprit, and whom it’s the CEO of H. EM Entertainment who try to hurt me and Tae. Since we don’t have enough evidence yet for the said CEO, I agree with the said invitation for M’Dols. It’s a gamble decision of me as the Time Manager because I’m not accurate of that but then during the live interview and in just a matter of seconds, the management really leaked edited footage knowing that we include an agreement in the contract that they must protect the reputation of M’Dols and its state in Clause 1.

So you will understand me of why I suddenly did and declared that one knowing that it’s a Live Interview and we’re keeping quiet because we didn’t yet fully grasp of the situation if we act fast and disclose it, everyone here will only think that we’re covering about something that related with the said issue. In order to get fully grasps of it, we wait for them to attack fully and let them caught off guard. We didn’t keep quiet and neither silence nor hiding anything since the team are all busy and have fully packed schedules during those days.

As for the Management of Live Interview, they really apologize but there's no sincerity of their apologizing towards me and to anyone from CA Entertainment especially to the M'dols Teams. If there is, then why the Management didn't even release a statement that they will fully be investigated what happens during the Live Interview of M'dols and how the footage got broadcast on their screen time. The only reason that they didn't release anything it's because they already planned it very well the moment we confirm the said invitation of the team appearance. They invite us in order for their planned to execute properly and will succeed then go according to what they plan. As for us, we accept their invitation in order to get solid evidence of their doings towards us especially to my husband Tae. That's the reason why they didn't release anything about investigating it thoroughly instead they focus on me and turn me to be the bad ones from the individual's perspective of S Nations.

All of you here in the audience along with the one who watches our live press conference, this is the only one I can say that I'm glad that I have married Tae, my legally and wedded husband, so as his wife I'm not going to become a fickle-minded one and easy to manipulate in order believe to any rumors that involved with my husband. If Tae happened to keep a secret from me then I will fully trust and respect him because I love Tae for who he is, most of all, Tae is my very own husband and my other half.

As for Actress Leng Ara, I will be surely suing you and see it in my own two eyes that you will get in jail. If Tae never mentions that I already meet you during their 2 days concert and that I also happened to one of the audiences that time, then I really forgot about it but luckily for me that I'm a Ceno, so I happened to have an Audio and Video Pen Recorder which was I always bring it with me. I'm bringing it always just in case and I will always press the record button every time I talk with a stranger, so in other words, I have proof that we don't know each other. Everyone here, I will play it now and all of you will be the witness that I didn't edit anything."

Rei playing the said video that already connected to the projector. It was during the first day of the concert of M'dols that Rei and the said actress happened to bump with each other; they watch and only heard the actress as a fan of M'dols. Rei also playing another video which was the second day of the said concert and that again, they happened to bump with each other again. From the video and recording itself, everyone who watches can really tell right away that both of them don't know each other.

All of them who watch the said recording either from the screen or their live press conference, reacting and thinking at the same time except the couple 'why do we feel that Manager Rei is more like the celebrity one compared to Actress Leng Ara, when in fact she's wearing makeup?' While wondering they heard Rei continuing her speech.

"That's for Actress Leng Ara calling since she asks that one and as for the CEO of H. EM Entertainment, for sure right now he already got dethroned from his CEO position. And so for the H. EM Entertainment conditions, at first we did plan that it will fully collapse and no other means for standing it up again but then since only this two persons who offended us, so we decide that we will spare them since they are a number of innocent staffs, employees and artist in there that are all innocent, so instead of destroying H. EM Entertainment we are going to change its foundation and fundamentals.”

All Media Representative asking Rei the same thing and at the same time “eh, we did plan that it will fully collapse, we decide that we spare them and what do you mean by that Manager Rei?”

“You will know it either tonight or tomorrow and so we are now finished with our press conference, hopefully, you will release a statement that it’s only the truth and nothing but the truth”

After that, the couple leaves right away leaving all the viewers, especially the media representative and paparazzo’s got speechless and dumbfounded, luckily for them that they record everything or else they will forget what they just heard from the couple.

Around 6 pm the couple becomes trending again with a lot of release statements from the different media outlets.

[Manager Rei and M’dols Jun Tae Woo already been married since last year]

[M’dols Jun Tae Woo confirm the identity of the twins that he mention last October and admit that they are the parent of the said twins]

[The Management of the Live Interview of where the edited footages got leaked is a subsidiary branch of H. EM Entertainment, the rival company of CA Entertainment.]

[Actress Leng Ara just been declared and got told of not a worthy Official Fans of M’dols by M’dols Jun Tae Woo personally.]

[All the said actress Leng Ara allegations are proven to be wrong by both the couple and JR]

[After the Live Press Conference of the couple, Manager Rei declared another strong statement that she will sue Actress Leng Ara and she must pay her retribution for causing trouble for them. As for the H. EM Entertainment, Manager Rei didn’t make any clarification or further explain what she means and only declare that they are planning to destroy the H. EM Entertainment at first but then spare them. Instead of destroying, they are going to change their foundation and fundamentals. Hearing this kind of declaration from Manager Rei, all of us are only asking one question from our individuals' thoughts and mind about what Manager Rei planning for H. EM Entertainment?]

chapter 422 – H. EM Entertainment

The two culprits who cause all of these commotions for the couple are still not aware that they've been got seen in the whole city of S Nations since they got live footage of their conversation and most of all their making out sessions.

After Rei aka JR's statement and revelation, the said actress and the CEO are still lying in the bed that its extension for Mr. Zhang's office is still thinking about the success of their plan.

"My, my I guess it's our win and we are the winner this time, huh"

"Of course it's our win and now you can be with Mr. Jun without worrying anymore."

"Thanks for that" then sleep right away followed by Mr. Zhang because both of them got exhausted from their bed activities.

The two of them been sleeping for the whole afternoon that they didn't happen to know that all their plans been backfired to them right and left that these two have no escapes anymore even a small hole. At exactly 6 pm same time that the Live Press Conference of the couple end, the two got awake because of a very loud knock from his door.

BANG, BANG the sound of a very loud knocking on the door.

"Did I tell you not to disturb me when I'm inside the ..." said the angry CEO but then got cut off.

Ignoring that his boss and the actress just got awake, then at the same time they covered their body with a bedsheet in a rush and inform them right away "too late for that Boss because everyone already has seen it and" the assistant got cut off by his Angry Boss.

He throws something to his Assistant and asks in a very angry voice “what do you mean by that?”

“See it for your own Boss and” explain but got cut off by someone and interrupting him right away.

Entered the premises and said to him right away “out of all people that you’re trying to hurt and offended, why did you offend the former Reputable Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company? Most of all, you also offended R? By offending them, you are really committing suicide.”

“G—Grandfather, w—why are you here?”

“Dad sorry for that and I guess it’s my fault that I pass my position to this useless son of mine and he only thinks of sleeping with H.EM Entertainment signed artists after deceiving us that he can handle and manager the company very well.”

“I’m a useless Son of yours, when in fact the H.EM Entertainment will never be like this if it’s not because of” He didn’t finish because he suddenly got a hard slap from his own mother.

PAK, PAK

“I didn’t raise you to become like this and do you think that we don’t know everything about what have you been doing then since you’ve become the CEO of H. EM Entertainment?”

“.....”

“And you Ms. Leng, we signed you here because we acknowledge your talents and yet you sleep this idiot son of ours when in fact he was a committed one?”

“E—Eh, Boss Zhang was a committed one?”

All answered it at the same time except the assistant “indeed he was but already been divorced last December and it’s Ms. Xie former Manager.”

“.....”

Right away changing the topic “Mom, Dad, and Grandfather why are you all here around this time? Wait, what did you mean by that awhile ago Grandfather?”

“You’ve been the CEO since 4 years ago and yet you don’t know anything?”

“About what and how it come related to me of being a CEO then?”

“Follow us to the conference room and as for you Ms. Leng, you are now blacklisted. We will compensate you for breaching the contract since you still have an existing contract here”.

“Hey, Mom and Dad what do you mean by that? I’m the CEO here, so I can decide everything without anyone interfering with my decision”

“Naïve”

“What?”

“My Son Assistant please let this jerk know what the situations we are right now and just because of his own mess”

“Yes Madame”

Get his laptop and show the video that he just recorded then after showing it to him, he reacts wildly.

“What the heck is this? And all of you really believe this one rather than me, your very own son and grandson? What if I only got blackmailed by R just because I offended R, right?”

“Shut with that mouth of yours. Are you been watching it seriously? It’s not R who exposed your doings since R been suppressed by you just because of your edited footages that R happened to be the one who designed it along with C. So all along R keep quiet and didn’t interfere but you’re a big idiot. Just because you suppressed R, the top hacker among the hackers, you think you’re already safe? Naïve, because you never think that they are two types of hackers who’s been following R, first the hackers who respects and supports R since they treat R as their role model and the last one the hackers who’ve jealous of R because of its achievements that always being on the top. The one who exposed your doings is JR, the known hackers who just select randomly without asking anything”. Explain by the angered Grandfather.

“Not only with that because this video of yours that have been recorded by your Assistant was a live footage.”

“W—-what did you say, Mom?”

“I said live footage so mostly all of us here, the entire S Nations here are all now aware of your doings”

“Then I will just confirm to them that I’m indeed dating Ara and just say that Ara practicing for her new drama that I just helping her. Simple as that, am I right?”

“.....”

“Alright let’s call for a press conference and”

“Boss Zhang here” his Assistant shows another video.

“What about this one?”

“What?” then grab his Assistant phone, watching it along with Ms. Leng, and the more they watch the more they become pale and paler.

Around the end of the video, he asks his parents and Grandfather “what this Beautiful Manager means by changing the foundation and fundamentals of H. EM Entertainment when in fact she’s only an Artist Manager of CA Entertainment and one of the Team Managers of M’dols? How can she easily say that I’m already dethroned of my CEO Position when in fact she’s not even part of the board of directors or has a big share for H. EM Entertainment, right?”

His parents and grandfather just gives a big sigh then heard them in a serious tone “follow us in the conference room”

“Why do I need to follow all of you when in fact I’m the CEO?”

“Are you perhaps not aware that Mrs. Jun is the Former Reputable Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company?”

“What?”

“I see so you’re really not aware of it huh but well it’s too late for you since you really anger her this time, during that live interview of the M’dols she suddenly speaks up knowing that it’s a live interview with that kind of tones from her voice and that’s your last warning instead you angered her. And by the way Ms. Leng you can go now before the media or paparazzi will be coming back here again since they always coming here today since the scandals expose.”

Leng Ara hurriedly covers her body on another bed sheet and get her clothes somewhere around the floor then leave right away without minding that she’s still n.a.k.e.d, lucky for her since no one’s around anymore in the building premises. She then hops into her car without getting noticed by someone and then cried to her all heart contents. Later she goes home and searching it, again and again, indeed it’s the truth. All her efforts are now finished and she’s no escape.

The moment she left, Zhang go to the conference room right away and all the board of directors/shareholders are already there. When they got in, Zhang currently the CEO and soon to be dethroned ask them.

“Why are you all of here and?”

“Ignore him and did they change their decisions?” Grandfather Zhang interrupts his Grandson right away and asks all the board of directors/shareholders then realizes that all of them have disappointed expressions while shaking their heads. “I see so they didn’t agree huh so from whom of them going to take the CEO position, the Chairman, COO, and President then?”

“What are you talking about Grandfather?”

chapter 423 – The Major Shareholders of H. EM Entertainment

Hearing his Grandfather like that, he was confused because why do they need to change for new CEO Position, the Chairman, COO, and President when in fact they are the owners.

“What are you talking about Grandfather?”

“Are you really not aware of anything about the H. EM Entertainment shareholders?”

“They are all here right Grandfather? So why won’t I know any one of them when in fact they are all here. All of them are all shareholders and the Zhang got the position because we’re the biggest shareholders, right?”

“We are not the biggest shareholders in fact they are at least 5 shareholders before us. Please show him who the major shareholders of H. EM Entertainment are and let him know why the Zhang Family no longer holds of H. EM Entertainment.”

“Yes, Grand Master and, Boss Zhang, these are the major shareholders of H. EM Entertainment.

1. Jang Mei – 20% Share

2. Din El – 18.5% Share

3. Jun Lou Rei – 17% Share

4. Seo Bum – 12.5% Share

5. Lu Wen – 12.5 % Share

6. Zhang Family – 12.5% Share

5% for Grand Master Zhang

3% for Master Zhang

3% dmz Mftfqu Zvfre

1.5% for Boss Zhang

7. Rest of Shareholders – 1% of each Share

4 Years Ago before Master pass down his position to your hand Boss, H. EM Entertainment suffer a big financial problem and so the Jang Corp. investing us through Madame Jang Mei as their representative and she's the big shareholders of H. EM Entertainment for 3 years straight the moment you've become the CEO since she holds 55.5% Share, 37.5% Share for the Zhang Family and 1% each Share for the rest of Shareholders. But then last year around after the M'dols comeback from their concert suddenly Madame Jang Mei notifies Grand Master that a lady name Jun Lou Rei holds a share of 17%. Grand Master, Master, Madame, and the other shareholders meet her and only got to recognize that it's Secretary Rei, she didn't say anything and just leave right away after introducing to each other. And then same year around May, Madame Jang Mei notifies Grand Master again and said that there's a man name Din El who got the 18.5 % Share. Around October last year Mr. Seo Bum and Mr. Lu Wen just bought a share from Grand Master Zhang with an equal share. As for the positions, all of them decide that the Zhang Family Members will be the one taking the higher positions since they are busy with their own career and the H. EM Entertainment will remain its name because Grand Master asks them not to since it's a combination of Grand Master and Grand Madame Name."

"....." Got speechless because he's really not aware of this matter.

“That’s then after Secretary Rei declaration and warned thru live interview on the next day all of us here the minor shareholders got notified from the 5 major shareholders that they will take over”. Explained by Grandfather Zhang

“And that’s then. I guess that because you offended Secretary Rei, the 5 major shareholders along with Secretary Rei were never back down of their decisions, so by then they will really take over the H. EM Entertainment since they are the biggest shareholders.” Only guess by Master Zhang.

“I have guts that these 5 Majors Shareholders of H.EM Entertainment are all friends with each other since they come up with this conclusion.” Follow by his Mom.

“.....”

All of them in silence and suddenly one of them commands his Assistant “Assistant please call all of them and I want to talk to them, please.”

“Yes Grand Master Zhang”

Then right away the assistant calls Jang Mei first but then Grandfather Zhang’s phone suddenly rings and he answered right away and then pressing the hands-free mode while signaling the Assistant to cut the call for Jang Mei.

“Ring, ring, ring”

“Hello, Secretary Rei?”

“Hello, Grandfather Zhang, sorry to call at this time and I’m not a Secretary anymore, so you can call me Rei.”

“Ah that’s right you’re not a Secretary anymore and by the way Secretary Rei, about the H.EM Entertainment, I mean, are you really taking it over now or among the 5 of you will take over?”

“Sorry for that one Grandfather Zhang, we really implicate you about this one but don’t worry because only the current CEO will step down and will never get reinstated because he offended me and my husband, so starting tonight he will remain blacklisted from the H. EM Entertainment until the day we are no longer shareholders. As for the position you will remain the Chairman Grandfather Zhang, Uncle Zhang will be the new CEO and remain President while Aunt Zhang will also remain as the COO. All of us, Jang Mei, Din El, Me, Seo Bum, and Lu Wen decide that we will each give 2% Share for you, Grandfather Zhang it’s for free after all you’re the real owner and founder of your company. Our lawyers will be there tomorrow at exactly 9 am for the legal doc.u.ments, the transfer of share and as for the name of the company, it will still remain because you really value it, Grandfather Zhang. Don’t worry Grandfather Zhang we give you a share in exchange that we will change the foundation and fundamentals of H.EM Entertainment and also we will evaluate the employees and artists in order to avoid repeating the same mistake. So after receiving the legal doc.u.ments and transfer of share from our lawyers you will now the biggest shareholders Grandfather Zhang.

1. Zhang Family – 22.5% Share

15% for Grand Master Zhang

3% for Master Zhang

3%

1.5% for Boss Zhang

2. Jang Mei – 18% Share

3. Din El – 16.5% Share

4. Jun Lou Rei – 15% Share

5. Seo Bum – 10.5% Share

6. Lu Wen – 10.5 % Share

7. Rest of Shareholders – 1% each Share”

“Eh, that?”

“No worries Grandfather Zhang because H. EM Entertainment is yours after all and we just here to support you and that’s also the main reason why we’ve never taken any higher positions from the company”

“I see and so who will evaluate the employees then?”

“Your Family Grandfather Zhang since tomorrow you will get back your title as the biggest shareholders”

“Thank you, Secretary Rei and I apologize for my Grandson actions on his behalf”

“You’re welcome Grandfather Zhang and you don’t need to apologize towards me Grandfather Zhang but I will sorry in advance because your Son will be surely got rot in jail”

“Yeah he really deserves it and in fact, I will suggest to you that just kill him.”

“.....”

“By the way Secretary Rei, can we meet all of you because, among the 5 of you, I only meet you, Jang Mei, and not the other 3 of them?”

“They are all quite busy now Grandfather Zhang but I will inform them that you want to meet with them” Rei is right because Mei will be giving birth next month, El and Wen both busy accompanying their pregnant wife while Bum busy making out of his wife.

“Thank you”

“No worries and that’s all Grandfather Zhang, thank you for answering my call”

“No, it’s me who’s very thankful for all of you”

“Ha, ha, I see and Bye Grandfather Zhang”

“Bye”

=== End of call ===

chapter 424 – One Rules and Regulations got lifted

On the next day, Leng Ara receives a summon letter from the couple’s legal representative and their hearing will start next week every Wednesday and Friday until they will reach the maximum number of hearings before the court decision. At the same time, at the H. EM Entertainment around 9 am, five legal representatives representing the 5 Big Shareholders of H. EM Entertainment after Grandfather Zhang are now inside the premises and start discussing.

Indeed what just Rei said to Grandfather Zhang, all of them really give 2% each of shares for him for free in exchange for changing the foundations and fundamentals of H. EM Entertainment and all of them already done signing the transfer of a share, so the representatives just give the papers to Grandfather Zhang right away.

As for the dethroned CEO, no one knows from them that he escape last night and now been hiding because he wants to get revenge without thinking that he was the reason why he’s now like this. Not just dethroned by his position but he also disowned from the Zhang Family. He also happened to watch the Entertainment News about the couple and the actress, Leng Ara, with a glare at the couple.

At the same time in CA Entertainment after the issue of Leng Ara and Mr. Zhang cleared it’s been a month since then.

Everyone back to normal for all CA Families, the teams who are still doing their usual routines for the whole month, until one day at exactly 5 pm the team just got back from their last schedule of the day that they only happened to get shocked because they have a guest not one but a group that from the Business Department. Rei is the one who recognized them first because she's really familiar with her teams.

"Eh, is that you Secretary Meg and guys?"

All of them heard the familiar voice that they've never been heard for 1 year and greeted her together.

"Head Secretary Rei we miss you" then giving a group hug.

"I'm not your Head Secretary anymore and it's Secretary Meg, right?"

Except for Meg "Uh-uh it's Secretary Meg but she's too far from you Secretary Rei"

Ignoring that comment of them "by the way, are all of you here planning to have a bad reputation from other departments since all of you here are from the Head Secretarial Department that will be suspended in one go, huh?"

"Ha, ha it's been a year that you're not a Secretary anymore Secretary Rei and yet you still remember the rules huh"

"Secretary Meg, don't tell me you forgot that one, huh?"

"Nope, nope I will never forget that one Secretary Rei but will thanks to a certain someone" then looking to where that someone standing and talking to someone. Not only Meg but all from the Head Secretarial Department are also looking to them.

Rei followed where they are looking and just guessed "don't tell me that all from the Business Department are now allowed to interact from the Entertainment Department?"

"Bingo"

“Whoa, Secretary Rei you are really lucky to be surrounded by a lot of handsome men”

“Secretary Meg you’re talking nonsense again and by the way, this is my husband, Tae. Tae this is my fellow co-Secretaries.”

“Yeah Co-Secretaries but we’re under by her leads Mr. Jun”

“Nice to meet you, everyone”

Then everyone introducing themselves to each other and all from the Entertainment Departments are just wondering to their minds except Tae since he only sees his wife.

‘How come the Business Departments Employees are also a beauty one?’

San asks it loud “how come the Business Departments Employees are also a beauty one?”

“I guess you need to ask that one to Mr. Hwang since only one rules and regulations that been lifted from Business Department which is interacting from the Entertainment Department, Mr. Han and speaking about Mr. Han...” paused for a moment and calling that someone “Secretary Han, are you still not done talking to your woman?”

“W— woman, n—no you’re wrong Secretary Meg, Min and I are only friends with each other.”

“.....” Han got speechless.

“A friend only when in fact Secretary Han always dropping and picking you up since the day he got suspended until now. Not only that one, because you always holdings hands with each other even and then every time you bid farewell with each other. Oh, right you were also kissing in the lips when no one’s around since Secretary Han will only kiss your cheeks Ms. Rin if someone around. Whoa, so dropping and picking up every day, holding hands, kissing on the lips when no one’s around, and kissing on cheeks if someone around is only a friendly gesture between the two of you, huh and how much more if you're dating then?"

"Eh—eh, h—how did you know?" Both ask her while blushing.

"Well I'm always watching Secretary Han since he becomes an idiot after coming back here from J Country and on his first day of coming back here he causes a commotion by coming here then got suspended for a month then he has your photo on his screen saver since then."

"....." Both Yuri and Han got speechless.

"Eh, don't tell me you love Secretary Han?" asked all the Secretarial Department after hearing Meg's observations.

"What the heck? I'm not a m.a.s.o.c.h.i.s.t one or a sadist one to love Secretary Han and he is not my type at all. Of course, I already have a boyfriend who's more handsome compared to Secretary Han."

"Eh, you have a boyfriend and since when huh?" all from the Secretarial Department ask in sync including Rei.

"Hey, all of you, and what do you mean by that huh?"

"It's because you've been always following with Secretary Rei since the day Secretary Rei joined the team and become our head, so we thought that you're a lesbian, you're a lesbian right?"

"What the heck is that? I'm not a lesbian and Secretary Rei is my role model even she's younger than me by 3 years"

"Are you sure with that Secretary Meg?"

"And what's with that Secretary Han?"

“Because you’re the only one who didn’t get swayed of my handsomeness so I also thought that you’re a lesbian one”

“It’s not only me who didn’t get swayed by your handsomeness since Secretary Rei also did, she even becomes your mentee and yet she never acknowledges your handsomeness so don’t tell me Secretary Rei is also a lesbian one.”

“.....”

“Ah, right never mind that one, so then is really the two of you not dating and just a friend?”

“Yes, I and Min only a friend Secretary Meg”

“But you’re kissing on the lips right?”

“.....” Yuri blushed and going too answered but then someone calling her.

“Yuri”

“Eh, what happened?”

“Can I invite you for.....” Didn’t finished because someone interrupting.

Hurriedly wrapping her waist from his right arm “and what do you need to invite my woman, huh?”

“Eh, that..... I’m not asking her for a date and I’m a woman, not a man”

“.....”

“Geez, I leave you nowhere, and...” Going to leave but then she notices the teams and her goddess also “ah guys you’re here?”

“Yes”

“Manager Rei welcome back and good afternoon”

“Good Afternoon”

“Manager Rei can I invite you for tasting my new cake?”

“Is it a mocha flavor?”

“Uh-uh”

“Oh then I will taste one”

“Thank you Manager Rei and I will get it now.”

“Hey, Ms. Kang what about us then, are you not giving anyone to us?”

“Oh you need to become a goddess first Mr. Je”

“But we’re also Manager Rei teams.”

“Right, okay wait then, bye”

“.....” All from the Entertainment Department got speechless because of her since they still not use of her weirdness.

“Is she a lesbian?” Ask from the Head Secretarial Department and everyone from the Business Department just shaking their heads until everyone heard a very tender voice.

“Meg?”

chapter 425 – Secretary Meg Boyfriend

Everyone shook their heads after hearing that question from the Head of Head Secretarial Department and almost laughing because the Head Secretarial Department thought of Ms. Kang as a lesbian one, well they can really understand it why because of her weirdness and most of all because of her boyish haircut after all. They almost laughing out loud but then suddenly they all heard a very tender loving voice.

“Meg?”

Meg recognizes it right away and turning her heads where that voice came from “eh, why are you here? Are you supposed to be in N Country for shooting of your movies?”

“Yeah I supposed to be in N Country and I just arrived here, from the airport going here right away and sneaking in here because I just read your text after filming for today that you’re going to meet someone important of yours here in CA Entertainment, so whom are you going to meet? Are you going to break me off? Am I not really good enough to be your boyfriend?”

“Eh, Movie Star Han Yu is your boyfriend Secretary Meg?” ask by everyone except Tae and Rei.

“Yeah he is and just a worrywart person.”

“Sorry for being one then”

“Secretary Rei this is my boyfriend, Han Yu and Sweetie this is Secretary Rei, one of my important persons aside from you and my parents.”

“Nice to meet you Secretary Rei and I heard a lot about you from Meggie every day since the day we date that sometimes I’ve got to be jealous since she always mention you to me but well I understand it very because your Meggie role model after all” shaking their hands and looking to her before realizing it who “eh, M—Manager Rei?”

“Yes it’s me”

Meg and her boyfriend are talking with Rei then suddenly someone interrupting them.

“Secretary Meg and Secretary Rei we’re going now”

“Eh, you’re going now?”

“Yes we’re going now Secretary Meg before getting and having more dog foods because Secretary Rei with Mr. Jun on her sides, Secretary Han with Ms. Rin and then now Secretary Meg with Mr. Han. Geez, how come the top three beauty and brain of CA Secretaries are already not available and taken already, huh?”

“Yeah right and we are going now before it’s too late for us.”

The teams from Head Secretarial Department hurriedly leaving while Meg planning to talk with Rei more but then postponed it since her boyfriend is busy with his schedules, so they excuse their self from Rei first.

“Secretary Rei I really love to talk with you but then this boyfriend of mine is here so I need to be sure that his going back to the shooting located.”

“Yeah go ahead Secretary Meg”

“Meggie I did ask for my leave of absence and I will back tomorrow”

“Are you sure?”

He didn't able to answer her since he just noticed that his Secretary girlfriend already calling his Manager. Every time when he suddenly visits Meg or having a surprise visit without her knowledge, she always calling his Manager for his next schedule in order for him not to skip anything. Though at first he is quite surprised of her actions because he thinks that maybe Meg didn't trust him but later he found out that Meg only doing this because it's for his own career and then suddenly remember her words during that time.

‘Sweetie, I know it's too early for me to say this one since we just start dating not more than one month but I guess you need to inform your Manager about us just in case. And after your Manager know about us then you can give my number to your Manager so that I can also know how to balance our time to spend together that won't affect to your schedules. I request this one because I know how busy you are, so I need to know your schedules in order for you not to get tired and most of all, to keep your career in safe, okay?’

Remembering that one, he suddenly smiled that all the CA Families are looking to his direction and that they almost caught off guard but lucky for them they already used of the handsomeness of their fellow CA Families. As for him, he is busy looking to his girlfriend when he remembered that matter.

“Are you falling in love with me more?”

“.....” He got speechless while composing himself not to blush since he got caught red handed by his girl.

“Just kidding but sweetie your Manager said that you must go back next week and just wondered why did you suddenly disappear today but then after my call she already at ease since your Manager knows that I'm with you.”

“Well as what I told you awhile ago that I left right away after reading your message that you're meeting with your important person so my Manager doesn't know anything since I just left without permission.”

“Ah right and so when are you going back?”

“The day before the shooting resumes and I also want to spend my time with you since we didn’t celebrate our first holiday breaks together.”

“I see and since we’re already here, let’s wait for Secretary Rei off duty because I want to talk with her”

“Okay, go ahead with that and I will always follow your arrangement.”

“Thank you Sweetie and Secretary Rei, we will wait for you and Mr. Jun.”

“Okay then” then Rei and the Teams leave the two of them and now on the way to the team studio.

After seeing that the teams got out of sight, Meg boyfriend talks to her in quietly. “I didn’t expect that the Secretary Rei you mention to me every day is Manager Rei after all.”

“Yeah and same to me because I’m also not aware and didn’t know that Secretary Rei is already a Manager here in CA Entertainment”.

“I see and now I realized that you really have a tight company rules and regulations since you didn’t know that one when in fact you belong to one company. ❖❖”

“Uh-uh but then how did you come in?”

“I sneaked in”

“Eh?”

“Well after I read your message that you’re going to meet your important person, I book my flight right away from N Country to here in S Country and then booking a car for coming here from the airport. So the moment I arrived here I happened to see you and your co Secretaries entering here, I was pretending that I’m with your team but got stop by the Security Personnel’s left with no choice I waited outside until the M’dols arrived, I followed them and pretending again that I’m with the team but got stop again by the same Security Personnel's. The M'dols Team already entered here but then almost at the same time, someone instructing the personnel's and then they let me in."

"Eh, someone is letting you in but then who?"

"I don't know who is it but it's a pregnant woman."

"Eh, pregnant woman but who is it?"

"I don't know since I'm not belong here and not part of CA Family but then I can describe her, she's a beauty one and on par with both of you and Manager Rei. Based from her looks, I can guess that she's also your co CA Families and she's with her Police Husband."

"I see so it's a pregnant woman with her Police Husband, right?"

"Uh-uh and so do you know who she is?"

"I don't know but I'm sure that she's from the Entertainment Department since no one from the Business Department that got married with a Police Officer one but don't worry because I will tell Secretary Rei about that one and I will pass your gratitude for letting you in here in CA Entertainment."

"Thank you"

Then the couple is now talking about their activities since they didn't meet for almost 4 months because of Han Yu movie shooting schedules, the two almost forgot that they are seating in the lounges area of CA Entertainment but later got remind by Rei after almost an hour since she relay the next week schedule of the team before the team got dismissed.

Both Rei and Tae notice that the two are talking with each other while holding hands.

Commented it softly that enough for Rei to hear it "seeing this, I suddenly reminiscing our days when we are still dating Hon."

“Yeah but it’s different since we only chat inside our house.”

“Uh-uh and are we going to wait them?”

“Nah we won’t wait for them or else they will forget that they are in CA Premises and most of all we have our little ones waiting to us.”

“Yeah”

“Secretary Meg?” Only calling her attention by her name because she’s not yet familiar with Han Yu and most of all Rei never initiate to talk with the opposite s.e.x if it’s not about works or not her colleagues, friends and family.

Stop talking with her boyfriend the moment she heard her name and then looking to where the voice comes “eh, you’re already done for a day Secretary Rei?”

“I have my own reasons for that Secretary Meg”

“Ah right I forgot that you’re pregnant Secretary Rei”

“By the way where are we going now?”

chapter 426 – Double Date

Even though it’s a sudden invitation for her, Meg already knows where they are going because she already has a tentative plan, so after hearing that one question from Rei she answered right away.

“Let’s go to El & Lyn and Family Restaurant since I already made a reservation for 4 today in the early morning.”

“I see”

“Eh, you already count me in, Meggie?”

Rei just smiles while Meg explains “I didn’t know that you will be here Sweetie but for me, Secretary Rei and everyone from Secretarial Department, we always doing reservations for an additional of one every time we make a reservation just in case. I’ve been a Secretary for few years since I joined with the CA Families but this is my first time experiencing that the additional one is going to be occupied and it’s also happened to be my boyfriend.”

“.....” got speechless.

Just looking to her boyfriend and then go back with Rei “let’s go now, Secretary Rei”

“You go first Secretary Meg and we will follow both of you afterward since they are still paparazzi and media’s following us”

“Eh but why and for what reason that they follow you?”

“Yes we go ahead Manager Rei” Answered right away and then hold his confused girlfriend since she’s still a newbie if it’s about the world of Entertainment.

As for Tae and Rei, they also leave after them then hop in right away the moment they open the car. Tae didn’t ask anything about why Meg is not yet aware of the reason why because he already know and aware that the CA Family from the Business Department is not aware of the Entertainment News since they already used the company rules of not interacting with anyone from the CA Entertainment. Of course, most of them watch dramas, movies and etc but they never indulge their selves into it since they only watch for relaxation and leisure purposes.

Tae drives their way to their house first since they need to feeds their little one because every afternoon Rei will feed them thru b.r.e.a.s.t.feed. The moment they arrive, Rei automatically b.r.e.a.s.t.feeding the twins and after making sure that the two already sleeping, the couple excuses her in-laws and they leave right away.

Meanwhile, Meg and Han Yu already on the way to the meeting place. Meg didn't ask anything of why he suddenly interrupts her and as for Han Yu, he breaks their silent surroundings by explaining to her why.

"Both Manager Rei and Mr. Jun are still in trending and the top topic from any medium from the Entertainment Fields so that's the reason why they are still paparazzi and medias following them."

"....."

Looking to her who's only seating at the passenger seat since he is the one driving her car and then tapping her head while commenting on her "I know that you have a major rule of no to interact from anyone in the Entertainment Department of your CA Families but it doesn't mean that you are restricted also of not knowing anything from the Entertainment Worlds. It's been lifted today so you are now free, right?"

"Yeah I know but it's already become a habit of mine"

"And so how did you recognize Mr. Jun then?"

"I just happened to saw a picture of Secretary Rei and Mr. Jun that we can't help it that our Department discussed this one, well only a little bit of discussion since it's a rule for us not to but we already violated that rules. Luckily it's already lifted or else the whole Secretarial Department will get suspended for violating that rules."

"I see but well you need to know more about the Worlds of Entertainment since you only know me and Mr. Jun"

"Ha, ha, ha aside from you and Mr. Jun, I already know the other artists such as Mr. Ha Ya Yun, Mr. Li Je Han and etc..." Meg mentions all the artists signed under CA Entertainment.

"At least you already know a little bit of Entertainment Worlds but then all the names that you mention are all from the CA Entertainment and when did you study them when in fact that company rules just been lifted 3 days ago as what you said to me, right?"

“He, he, and are you perhaps underestimating your Girlfriend who happened to be the Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company?”

“I’m not and I’m just curious about when did you study since you mention many of them.”

“Well after knowing that it’s been lifted that day, I write a letter of the proposal that all Managers and Secretary from the Business Department will hold a meeting to discuss our co CA Families from the Entertainment Department and they will relay it to their every team in order for us not to disrespect our fellow co CA Families or happen to cross the lines. It’s only approved the day before yesterday on behalf of the CA Artist Manager since the Artist Manager was still busy at that moment, so we did discuss it yesterday and we will continue on the next working day.”

“I see and don’t tell me that you only discuss all the artists of CA Entertainment?”

“Yes but then we already know about one of the staff from the Entertainment Department because it’s Secretary Han girlfriend and thanks to him that the rule of interacting with anyone of the Entertainment Department been lifted since we just heard that Secretary Han resigned because he’s violating the major company rules but then his resignation didn’t get approved instead he only got a suspension for one month.”

“So Secretary Han is really that important to CA then, right?”

“Yup and he is one of the important people of CA. All of us heard that not only Secretary Han doing the same thing as what he did since they were the two most important people of CA who were willingly sacrifice their position because they violated the major company rules. As for the other one before Secretary Han, it happened three years ago and the first one it happened a very long time ago but until now it’s a mystery to us.”

“The other one before Secretary Han, is it Manager Rei then?”

“Eh?”

“It’s only my guess but I read from the article that Manager Rei and Mr. Jun been dating for almost two years so mostly your descriptions that it’s happened three years ago is very fit with Manager Rei since

Mr. Jun disclosed that Manager Rei been their Manager of the team last year, so maybe it's her because she's the former Head Secretary as what you always said to me, right?"

"E—eh, are you sure?"

"I'm not sure but it's just only my guess."

"Now you mention that one maybe you really right since Secretary Rei is a person who never violates any rules so maybe when they are dating, she's willing to sacrifice her career just to be with Mr. Jun. Ah, right so how about the other one then?"

"No idea but maybe it's a former CA Family from Business Department that got promoted and transferred to Entertainment Department".

"Mmm, you're right. Ah, we're here Sweetie."

"Are we going to wait for them here?"

"I will wait for Secretary Rei here and you go first Sweetie, just say to them it's for Xi Meg."

"Okay" then he wears a cap and sunglasses for his disguise before leaving his girlfriend in the car.

Meg just observes her boyfriend and then commented through her mind only 'what a hard life of being an actor one since he is not free to go out on his own will'.

Meg waiting for the couple and after several minutes of waiting, they arrived. She then approaches them and heard Rei asking her about something.

"Are we already late?"

"Nope since I didn't tell you of what time and let's go now."

“Okay”

“It’s really true that you and Mr. Jun have been stalk with a number of persons huh.”

“I already told you and it’s either paparazzi or a representative from any Entertainment Medias. Of course, you must be careful since you are dating your boyfriend.”

“.....❖❖❖...”

The three of them entered the premises and some of the staff of the said restaurant know Rei as one of the bosses since they happened to witness their wedding reception but they didn’t get fl.u.s.tered instead just doing their own task. One of the staff assists them in where their reservation table which Han Yu already waiting for them.

When Han Yu realizes them, he stands right away and then pulls a chair for his girlfriend in order for her to seat and same with Tae. Now the four of them already seating while looking at the menu provided by the staff that assists them awhile ago. If it’s only Tae and Rei then for sure Tae ordered it right away without looking since he already knows what to order, mostly the menu of his wife that contributed for the Family Restaurant but then since they’re the one who got invited, they wait for the one who invites them as a sign of respect and courtesy as being the invited one. At the same time, Meg interrupts the two who just waiting for her.

“Ah right Secretary Rei and Mr. Jun; is it alright with you if I’m the one ordering for our foods tonight?”

“I don’t mind that one Secretary Meg but I’m pregnant so it’s best for you to order my portion anything from the menu of JRT”.

All Menus of El & Lyn and Family Restaurant in every branch got upgraded just like this for example:

– Menu of DEA – From Menu of Din Elvi-Aya.

– Menu of DEL – From Menu of Din El-Lyn.

– Menu of JRT – From Menu of Jun Rei-Tae.

– Menu of JME – From Menu of Jun Mei-En.

– Menu of RSC – From Menu of Restaurant Selected Chefs.

Both Tae and Rei already aware of it since Mei inform them this one the day before they returning back to S Country meanwhile as for Meg, after hearing it from Rei she replied right away.

“You’re right Secretary Rei because the Menu of JRT is really yummy and delicious but I preferred the Menu of DEA and DEL. How about you Mr. Jun? And so among these 5 menus of abbreviations, which one whom you prefer the most, is it the same with your wife choice then?”

“Uh-uh” Tae answered right away without pausing and hesitation.

“.....” Meg got speechless because of him but then returns to reality and ordered their food. After ordering the said staff leaves them and they are now chatting.

chapter 427 – Meg Love Story 1

The moment that the said staff leaves their table after taking their orders, Meg telling her brief love story to Rei without waiting for her about asking how did the two of them meet because she already knows that Rei never initiating it to ask since she always waiting when they are going to open up without feeling any pressure from it.

“Ha, ha knowing you Rei, I will not wait for you to ask me about how the two of us meet because I will never hear it from you if I will wait for you”. She suddenly talks and converses with Rei using a different language that both Tae and her boyfriend Han Yu didn’t understand anything.

Rei replied by asking her using the same language “and why are you speaking in Nianes then?” It’s N Country Language.

“Well, Han Yu can speak and understand the Universal Language so I chose the Nianes one since I only understand the other languages and can’t speak, not like you who understand every language and can speak half of all languages out of 65 since you can speak at least 32 languages. Of course, we’re outside so I need to in order to protect my boyfriend’s privacy.”

“I see”

“Are you willing to hear my love story then?”

“It’s up to you Meg”

“Hai, hai. Geez, if I don’t know you well then it really looks that you’re not interested in your friend’s love story and not either treating me as one of your friends or colleagues.” She commented it aloud using the Nianes language then right away sharing her love story.

—- Flashback —-

Rei started last year at the beginning of the year as one of the Managers of M’dols and the same for Meg since she also starts last year as the new assigned Head Secretary. Meg already a Secretary that belong to the Head Secretarial Department before Rei, so she’s not that naïve for her new assigned position, so without making any mistakes she did it flawlessly just like Rei though she also reviewing the notes that given by Rei every night.

A few days later, the Business Department of CA always conducts and having 2 medical check-ups for the entire staff and employees of the Business Department every January and July, so this time Meg is the assigned one since Rei already got promoted and not with them. She needs to go to JL Hospital in order for her to submit all the names of her co CA Families and in order to get an appointment scheduled for the check-up of her co CA Families in the Business Department.

Meg arrived at the hospital without any problems and already done submitting the names of her co CA Families as well as got an appointment schedule. Hence she’s already done with her task, she leaves the Hospital Premises, not in hurry and just walking not in a hurried way but then she suddenly bumps into someone when she's not in hurry.

"Ah, sorry I didn't notice you, Sir".

"It's alright I'm okay..." didn't finish because the lady that he bumps leave right away.

Meg going to leave right away but then got stopped by someone who accompanied that someone who bumps her "please wait a minute Miss."

Meg looking around but then no one's around other than her and that two persons, so she asks that someone while pointing herself "eh, you mean me Miss?"

"Yes it's you and you need to follow us."

Meg got confused but as a Senian herself, she didn't ask anything and just follow them because maybe they got injured when in fact this man is the one who bumps into her. Meg just realized that the two entered one of the VIP rooms of the Hospital but no one's around since it's very empty no patients and no visitors in the room.

'Eh weird, how come a Hospital Room here doesn't have any patient here? Perhaps, are they visiting an invisible person? Or they are not.....' wondered but got stop by that someone.

"Miss sorry for instructing you to follow us but I need to ask your name and your ID just in case something happened to this Man."

Looking at that Man and find nothing's wrong with him so she asks "is he injured by me?"

"No nothing happened to him but I need to ask your name and ID just in case"

'Just in the case about what, are they perhaps a VIP one? Well then maybe since they have this kind of Hospital Room, right?' Wondered but didn't ask it loud and just telling her name. "I'm Xi Meg and this is my ID" give her national ID to that woman who asks her and not the Company ID just in case. "My contact details already at the back of my ID, so feel free to call me in case something happened to this Sir here."

That someone accepts the said ID, looking at it and read her name then replied "yes thank you for that Ms. Xi" taking a picture of her ID, back and front then said, "Here's your ID and you can leave now Miss."

"You're welcome" accepts her ID then Meg leaves right away meanwhile the two are chatting with each other.

"Manager, is she pretending that she doesn't know or recognize me?"

"There's a possibility that she recognizes you but seeing her reactions I guess she knows when to cross the line but then I still ask her name and ID just in case she will blackmail you especially you met her in here, the hospital where you happen to shoot today as part of the movie that you are the lead cast. It's still not yet announced and disclose but how come she appears out of nowhere the moment we arrived here in the hospital? So it's either it's only a coincidence that you bump into her or either she's following us and make it for you to bump into her."

"Yeah and thanks for your quick response Manager then..." And someone interrupts him.

"You're really an early bird Bro Han and tsk, tsk you are really still famous and popular because someone still stalking on you, huh."

"Same for you Ha"

"Then who is it this time?"

"My Manager already has her details."

"You really lucky to have a Manager like her but unlucky for you since she's already a married one. By the way, is it still a beautiful woman from your fans or a gay this time?"

Hearing that one his Manager thinking 'how awkward it is, knowing that Mr. Han love her and she's the reason why he is here in the entertainment fields but well both of them are celebrities and artist at the same agency, most of all their job is to act so maybe they only concealed their awkwardness with each other.'

"She's a beautiful woman but I'm sure that she's not one of my fans."

"I see so not your fans but maybe an unofficial one of yours or worst one of anti-fans of yours, right?"

"We can know it today or tomorrow if she's an anti-fan or not".

"Hopefully she's not one of your anti-fans but well it's her loss if she will blackmail you since your Iron Manager will counterattack with her and no holes for her to escape."

Laughing then replied "right and it's really her loss if she will"

"Ms. Ha and Han, I guess you need to review your script first before the Director arrived since he knows it as a perfectionist one." The manager of Han reminded them.

"N....." the two replied but got cut off since the Movie Teams already arrived and the Director instructs.

"Alright, Lead Casts prepare and we will begin at exactly 9 am."

"Yes Director"

chapter 428 – Meg Love Story 2

The shooting for his upcoming movie for the day ends very well and then they didn't hear anything from the Entertainment News that related to Han, so his Manager and he alone feel at ease and relaxed because of this matter.

Though they didn't anything, on the next day they are still monitoring just to be safe but then they didn't hear anything on that next day and most of all they didn't meet again with Meg until one week later both Han Yu and his Manager notice her.

"Eh, she's that one right Manager?" Asking his Manager while pointing to where Meg stand.

"Yes she is and here I thought that she won't blackmail you since it happened a week ago but then I guess we got it wrong."

"Yeah and so..... Eh, she's not going to approach us?"

"I guess she won't since seeing her reaction for sure she didn't notice us."

"Hopefully you will be right for this and" Stop his very own self since he notices that Meg talking to one of the nurse males with a happy expression of her. "So she's here because she's visiting her boyfriend, right?"

"Maybe and let's go now before that Director will arrive."

One Month after, the two didn't happen to meet in the hospital again when in fact Han is always in the hospital for the whole month since the day he bumps into her because the hospital premises is one of the major places for the movie hence it's about a Doctor and VIP Patient love romance movie. Han Yu acts as the VIP Patient and Nan Ha as the attending Doctor of him. After shooting the whole clips and scenes in the hospital for a month, the Movie Teams and staffs are now in N Country since it's his home country in the movie. Han Yu acts as a VIP Patient and a Nianes one that happened to get sick and admitted in S Country before returning to his home country, so after filming in S Country, they are now in N Country for the next set of the movie.

The Movie Teams and Productions are paying an amount in order to use the company for the movie itself and of course, it's a Subsidiary Branch of CA International and Group Company that it happened that Meg is also there in the same place. Han Yu notice her but ignored since he only thinks and wonders that maybe he is only imagining about her but then during their shooting breaks, as what happened in their first time meeting, again the two bump with each other, and this time Meg is the one bumping into her since she's in a hurry that she didn't notice Han Yu approaching her that she accidentally bumps onto him. Not a light bump but a heavy one that almost lost her balance but because of Han Yu's quick reflex, she didn't fall and got a half embrace from him.

"Sorry, are you alright, Miss?" Quiet surprised by the sudden situation so he asks using the Sean Language and then recognized her. "Eh, it's you?"

At the same time, Meg also said at the same time using the Nianes one and didn't hear what he said and ask. "Sorry but I'm in hurry."

"You are a Senian, right?"

"Yes I am but sorry Sir I can't entertain you since I'm in a hurry" answered Sean and trying to leave his embrace but then got pulled by him.

"Who are you trying to fool here? And here Miss, why are you following me even in here? You can really recognize me, right?"

'Is this Man an insane one? But wait this is CEO Hwang's subsidiary branch, right? So maybe I'm wrong?' "Sorry, Sir but I didn't understand what you mean and I'm really in a hurry so here's my ID just in case if you still have some issues that concern me" explaining while putting her Company ID in his pocket since he is wearing a polo shirt. After putting her ID in his pocket, she's already thinking that she will request a new one just in case it will get lost since this man does not belong to N Country Branch. She's trying to pull his hand which still holding on her wrist and trying to escape since she got cornered between him and the wall.

"Sorry for holding you tight and doing this to you but who are you really and why do you always following me?"

"Sir I don't really know who you are because it's our first time meeting with each other." She replied and of course, she didn't lie since she already forgot that they meet with the same setup one month ago.

"First time meeting with each other, are you sure? If you are then you are a big liar."

"I'm not....." someone stopping both of them and Han Yu already let go of her.

Interrupting the two, mostly it's for Meg since she doesn't know whose Meg talking with and said using the Nianes Language "Secretary Meg why are you still standing there? We are both in hurry and need to go with Mr. Yawen place" then suddenly realized that Meg talking with a Man in a very close distance. "Eh, did I disturb the two of you?"

"You didn't disturb anything Secretary Wayne" 'instead you saved me from this man' only thinking at the later part since she just heard that the man knows the Nianes Language one then approach her.

"You didn't tell me that you have a boyfriend here in N Country Secretary Meg."

"That man is not my boyfriend and it's just, I guess he mistook me for someone else."

"Ha, ha, ha right since you're not a celebrity instead of the Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company but then still, you can be on par with the beauty of celebrities especially in your country so maybe he mistook you of his idol."

"Hearing that one from you it really looks like sarcasm but well talking about that one then the perfect fit for that description is none another one but our only one Secretary Rei."

"Yeah right and alright let's get back with our work and I will drive you there since you just arrive today."

"Thanks, Wayne"

"You're Welcome Meg"

Han only heard the first part of their conversation when someone interrupting them and then wondered at the same time. 'Secretary Meg, she's a secretary?' Then notice someone cleaning the premises and ask him using the Nianes one "Uhm, excuse me, Sir?"

"Yes Sir?"

“Secretary Meg?” Only uttered this name since he was not sure if he really heard it right or not and of course he didn’t know where she works.

“Eh, you don’t know Secretary Meg?” Han just nodded and following the flow. “She leaves just now along with Secretary Wayne, wait, are you perhaps visiting her, Sir?” Han nodded again “oh I see but then you won’t meet her since Secretary Meg will be back to S Country tomorrow since she just came here today for an emergency and she’s not based from here because she belongs from the Main Branch of CA International and Group Company...” Going to continue but then someone stopping him before it’s going to be late to stop.

“Just because Secretary Wayne and Manager Yawen are not here today, it doesn’t mean that you are now free to violate the company rules, am I right?”

“Ah, sorry Ma’am”

“Good and now go back to your work.”

“Yes Ma’am”

“Mr. Han sorry about that one but we have a strict rule of not talking to our co-CA Families especially if it’s about our Senior, so sorry for that.”

“Eh, Senior you mean Secretary Meg is already your Senior?”

“Yes she is but I can’t give you any full details of her and excuse me, Mr. Han”.

“Yes, go ahead” ‘A senior when in fact she’s younger than me by 2 years since I saw it from her National ID that she provided one month ago.’ Of course, his Manager already done forwarding the picture of her National ID to him since his Manager just take a picture of her ID before returning it to her on that day and as for him by remembering about the ID one, he just realized that Meg putting something to his pocket. He is going to retrieve it but then his Manager interrupting him since it’s almost the end of their breaks.

“Are you done eating with your early lunch?”

“I didn’t eat yet”

“Eh?”

“No worries Manager and I can manage it”

But to his dismay, he got it wrong because the Perfectionist Director didn’t take them to rest and then didn’t give them a lunch break because he will be making sure that they will only take it not more than a week since they only have one-week permission to use the premises and that’s the reason why the Director give them a break for early lunch around 10 am for them to shoot without stopping.

Han Yu Manager looking at her worriedly but then he only signaling her by thumbs up that it means that he can still manage and not that hungry. Around 4 pm, the Director dismissed the teams and each artist return to their assigned Hotel.

chapter 429 – Meg Love Story 3

When they got back from their assigned Hotel, Han Yu secretly retrieved the ID from his pocket that luckily for him it didn’t fall from all his movements from the shooting for the day, as if the ID of her had been glued to his pocket. After retrieving it from his pocket, looking for it, he is very surprised by his discovery but since he’s an actor he knows how to conceal his shocked expression very well so his Manager didn’t notice anything.

‘So she’s really the Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company, huh’. He wonders after his discovery.

His Manager notices that the assigned artist didn’t touch his food yet and while reminding him “eh Han, are you not going to eat?”

“I’m going to eat Manager but no need to assist me since I can handle it.”

“Okay and let me remind you that we need to arrive therein in the very early morning tomorrow, okay?”

“Yes Manager” paused then asks his Manager “by the way Manager”

“Yes?”

“Your daughter knows about me right?”

“Of course she knows about you and she’s one of your fans, if not then why I did ask for your autograph then?”

“Right but she’s only 5 years old, right?”

“Yup and she knows you because you’re really a popular actor and not just because you are connected with each other but then too bad for her since she still not allowed to watch your movies since it’s not appropriate for her age hence most of your movies are always a romance genre.”

“Yeah I know but did you inform her about me?”

“No I’m not and she only knows about you from the TV Screen that you as the model of one of the brands you modeled and then she searches about you. My daughter only happened to know that you’re connected with each other after my husband and her who suddenly come and visit me in the company.”

“I see”

“And why are you asking that one then?”

“I just wondered that a 5 years old little girl already knows me so maybe a grown-up woman must be aware of me, right? But then that little girl is connected with me so maybe some grown-up woman can’t recognize me, right?”

“Not because she’s connected with you but of course they can recognize you right away because who wouldn’t when in fact you rank after Bi Yu, the hottest star of S Country, right?”

“Yeah” “But then how come this lady Xi here doesn’t recognize me? Did she pretend that she doesn’t know me? Yeah maybe she pretends since CA International and Group Company also have their own Entertainment Company, so maybe she already used to meeting artists and celebrities’. Wondering and then ask his Manager again “by the way Manager, when are we going back to S Country?”

“One Month from now, why and don’t tell me you already forgot about that one?”

“Eh, one month and it’s not a week?”

“How rare that you really forgot about that one and yes it’s one month from now because only one week for the CA N Country Branch since we proceed to the next location here in N Country Branch after completing the whole scenes in CA N Country Branch.”

“I see and after this, how long are we going to stay in S Country then?”

“It depends on your next schedules since the whole month of March is scheduled for your promotion of the movies”

“.....”

For another month, the movie teams and productions are shooting the movies without any problem. As for Han Yu, every night he always tries to call her many times but then he doesn’t know what he’s going to talk about so he always stuck up by looking at her company ID until after one month the teams return back to S Country. When they arrived at their assigned talent agency, Han Yu excuse his own self and reasoning out to his Manager that he is going to visit his family members before he becomes busy again because he knows that he will be busy for sure. After riding to his own car, he got his phone then looking to that said number of Meg, at first he was hesitating to call her or not but then later, he gained his courage and he is able to press the call button that he got stuck up for it for a month.

“Ring, ring, ring”

On the other hand, Meg is ready on her way to her office but then suddenly she got a phone call.

“Eh, it’s an unregistered number, and who?” Wondering and at the same time answering the phone just in case is very important. “Yes hello?”

“U—Uhm, is this Miss Xi Meg?”

“Yes, speaking and whom I’m talking with?”

“This Han Yu”

“Han Yu I see but then Mr. Han I guess you got the wrong number though I share the same name I never know someone with the name Han Yu.”

“I didn’t get it wrong and of course I already meet you.”

“Eh we already meet but when?”

“2 Months ago, when I bump onto you at JL Hospital”

“Eh we meet 2 Months ago and I bump onto.....” recalling that day and she remembers “ah, that’s right I just remember it now, and are you perhaps injured?”

“Yeah I’m injured” ‘not my body though but somewhere inside of me and I don’t know where.’

“I see and right now I’m on the way to my working place so then if it’s alright with you let’s meet up during lunchtime. Just inform me where we are going to meet; I’m alright with any place as long as it’s around the capital which it’s very convenient for both of us.”

“Okay and I will inform you then”

“Copy” then the two hung up the call at the same time. Both of them are on the way to CA International and Group Company for different reasons since Meg going there because it’s her working place after all meanwhile for Han Yu he just going there without reason and without knowing why.

Around 8 am, he notices all CA Employees entering the premises and he is quite surprised because of their stunning looks when in fact they are from the Business Fields until then he stops his wondering when he saw a glimpse of Meg before he heard them talking and her voice.

“Good Morning Secretary Meg and you almost got late for the first time in your life.”

“Yeah since I arrived very late yesterday from N Country”

“I see and let’s go now or else I will stain your record for letting you late for the first time.”

“Ha, ha right but well I just wonder where Secretary Rei now.”

“Wherever Secretary Rei is, for sure she will always be safe because we both know that she’s a very rational and reasonable person”

“Yes”

Then Meg and her colleagues get in without noticing that someone observing and eavesdropping on them, especially Meg.

“So she’s really a Secretary of CA International and Group Company” confirm on his own since he thought that she’s only left her fake ID Card on him. “Wait, she just from N Country and how come we didn’t meet?”

Of course, he didn’t meet her since the shooting location got changed and he also doesn’t know her schedules.

At first, he plans to wait and just follow her but then he realized that by doing this he will look like a stalker so he left right away and visit his family's house since he has a lot of time before the appointed time that they're going to meet. When he arrived at his family house no one's around since both his parents are working and his sister in school. He didn't tell anything to his parents by messaging them since he is still not aware of why he is adamant to meet her even though he only meets her twice. Of course, he is still not aware of why he is doing all of this in order to meet her.

Around quarter to 12, he arrived first and reserves a seat then informing her through message.

[I arrived here at El & Lyn and Family Restaurant. No need for you to bother finding a seat for us since I already have and just look for Mr. Han Yu's table.] Several minutes passed by he received a reply.

[You arrived very early of our appointed time. I excuse myself to reply to you since I'm still waiting for my out. I will be there 15 minutes after 12, thanks.]"

"15 minutes after 12? What is she, a robot? It's taking 20 minutes from there to here." He didn't bother to disguise since he knows that this restaurant respects the privacy of their customers and he didn't worry for the other customers since he will just request from the management for them to keep it a secret if ever they will recognize him. He also didn't bother to look at the time since he knows that it will take 20 minutes to be here and not 15 minutes so instead of waiting for her, he just browsing and looking at the entertainment news.

Lucky for him that he didn't steal a picture of her and looking at the pictures while waiting for her or else he will be caught off guard since Meg arrived earlier than what she says 15 minutes that she will arrive.

"Mr. Han?"

At exactly 12 pm, Meg is the first one punching in her time card among all of her colleagues that caught them a surprise.

"How unusual for you Secretary Meg, are you perhaps having a date?"

"Not a date but I'm going to meet someone since I injured him"

“Eh?” All from the Head Secretarial Department react at the same time.

“Two months ago I bump into him and I guess I injured him. Alright, I’m going now” then leave right away and leaving her colleagues dumbfounded.

“Eh, bump and what kind of bump that Secretary Meg injured him?”

“Of course it’s not a bump when you happened to meet in the same place from a different direction since I never heard someone that injured from bumping with each other.”

“Yeah for sure Secretary Meg meant that she might almost meet a car accident that day and bump that someone that cause for him to get injured.”

“Right, right but you know Secretary Meg is a very good driver and she follows the rules since she’s next after Secretary Rei, after all, right?”

Everyone nodded and then at the same time “if Secretary Meg makes a clear explanation then we would be never being like this.”

Meg is known from CA Families as a genius one but later got change after Rei entered and joined them but then later she got her title back after Rei’s exit. She’s been a Secretary for almost 5 years after Rei exit but she always pays respect and honor Rei as her Senior and Superior even Rei have less experience compared to her because she knows that Rei deserves it.

Meg told him by texting him that 15 minutes after 12 pm she will arrive but because she already knows the shortest way, she arrives at exactly 12:09 in the meeting place.

“Good Afternoon Ma’am how many are you or perhaps do you have any advance reservations?”

“Good Afternoon and table for Mr. Han Yu”

“I see” and then giving instruction to her colleagues through her walkie-talkie radio without looking at the reservations lists, the said staff assists her right away since he is very famous as an artist meanwhile Meg notice the staff reactions but didn’t ask anything since the said staff just only doing her job. “Assist for a companion of Mr. Han Yu table”

Several Seconds another female staff approach Meg and then assist her “Ma’am please follow me this way”.

Meg follows the staff and then led her to a table for only two as if they are really on a date.

“Thanks” after thanking her and in order not to be rude, she waits for the said staff before confirming if this man is the same person that she bumps last two months ago. “Mr. Han?”

On the other hand, Han Yu didn’t get fl.u.s.tered and just raising his head “oh, it’s you Ms. Xi and please take a seat.”

“Thanks” taking her seat and notice some customers are looking at Meg’s ways ‘why they are looking at me like that? Is this man perhaps a VIP, CEO, or an influential one?’ It didn’t come to her mind that maybe this man is an artist since she’s too serious about her own ways.

“.....”

“.....”

Both are awkward with each other but then Han Yu is the first one to break their awkwardness since he is the man after all.

“Let’s make our order first, okay?”

“Yes go ahead”

“I will treat you so order what you want”

“Eh?”

“I’m the one who chose this place so it’s my courtesy that I will treat you, right?”

“Yeah but.....”

“Okay let’s pay it half, are you alright with that?”

Smile and replied to him “okay”

He caught off guard and almost blushing because she smiled without any caution at all, to conceal this, he calls the staff right away by signaling him and then makes his order right and ask her. “How about you Ms. Xi, do you want to add our orders?”

‘You already order much and they are only two of us here, are we sure that we can finish it all?’ But she only complains through her thoughts and just only shaking her head to him.

chapter 430 – Meg Love Story 4

After taking their orders the said staff left their table and then the two returns to their awkwardness since Meg didn’t prolong their conversations after shaking her head. As for Han Yu, he didn’t initiate their talk since he is left speechless because he can sense that this lady in front of him didn’t want to converse with him that much. Han Yu is really a famous actor but he will never be disappointed if someone won’t recognize him because it means that he is only famous to those who are watching his movies, to his fan who’s following him and to those someone who always attacking him as his anti-fans.

‘Either this lady here really didn’t recognize me or not a fan of mine’.

As if Meg heard his thought, Meg is now curious because time by time the other customers are always looking to their way especially to this man, so to cure her curiosity, she asks him. “Uhm, I’m not being rude but are you perhaps a famous person?”

“Why do you ask that one?”

“For killing and curing my curiosity so I ask because some of the customers here are always looking to our direction and especially you.”

“Great observation from you but don’t mind them”

“Yeah and so are you really a famous one?”

“Not bragging though but yes” ‘of course to my fans, anti-fans, and media’s only’.

“Eh, really and are you sure?”

“Uh-uh”

“I see then from which fields, I mean are you a VIP, a CEO or any from the influential one so which one?”

“.....”

“Silence means yes but then seeing your expression I guess I got it wrong. So you are not a VIP, a CEO, or any from the influential one but then observing the other customers here who always looking to our direction it means that you are a famous person, so aside from that, are you perhaps an” She didn’t finish since their orders just arrived.

“Here’s your order Sir and Ma’am”

“Thanks,” Said both of them in sync and at the same time.

Han Yu gets something from the table and give it to her “here this is for you and I don’t know if it’s your taste but I can assure you that it’s very delicious and yummy thought it’s a Ceno specialty”.

“Eh, how did you know that it’s a Ceno specialty?”

“I’m a regular here since the day it’s open and the new Manager here is a friend of mine though I didn’t hear from him, I know that it’s a Ceno specialty since I love the Ceno specialties and anything that it’s about C Country.”

‘What a vague explanation’ “I see but well it’s really a Ceno specialty and this restaurant is owned by a family. Here, it’s only a branch and the main branch is at C Country, C Town City.”

“Eh, how did you know that one?”

“I know that one from my work experience. Of course my senior and my superior is a Ceno one so everything that connected to her, I study and learn because she’s my idol” Then continue talking about her and only stop when she heard the man clearing his throat. “Sorry, I can’t help and just blabber my mouth to you whom I just meet”.

“It’s alright Ms. Xi and don’t forget to eat”

“Ah, that’s right, and thanks for reminding me that one”.

Han Yu just observe her and looking at his phone if his Manager already looking for him that he notices the time.

“Eh, it’s almost past 1 pm, are you not going to be late for your work?”

“No worries it’s Saturday today so it’s only half day work for me”

“I see and by the way Ms. Xi?”

“Yes?”

“After this, are you still free?”

“Yes and why?”

“Can I invite you to a movie?”

“Eh, you mean watching a movie?”

“Yes”

“But did you call me because you are injured after I bump unto you, right?”

‘Who in this world that got injured after him/her bumped into a person? Even she didn’t get injured after bumping her to me not once but twice and yet she’s still thinking that I got injured because of that? Oh wait, maybe I can use this reason that I can still meet her’ “For the time being I’m alright but I will inform you if I feel something wrong, okay?”

“Okay and so what kind of movie we are going to watch?”

“Let’s decide when we arrive at the theater then.”

“Okay, and do I also ride in your car?”

“No, I will ride in your car”

“I see and how about your car then?”

“No worries since I will just inform my friend that he can use my car”

"I see"

After eating, Han Yu ask for the bill and let Meg see the bill, at first they decide to pay it half but then Han uses an excuse for him to pay the bills.

"Let me pay this bill and also the movie tickets but I promise that I will never pay even 1 Sen for my hospitalization bills if really something wrong with me because I got injured from that bump since it's your responsibility, are you okay with that?"

"Deal and no matter how big it is you will never interfere with me even its 1 Sen, understand?"

"Uh-uh" 'no worries because I'm not injured.' Then he pays the bills and the two left the restaurant.

"Are you going to drive?"

"Yes"

"Here" gives the car key to him.

At exactly 2 pm they arrive at the shopping mall and go right to the theater hall area. Meg just seat in the waiting area while Han Yu buy movie tickets and their snacks, so she had no idea what they are going to watch but she noticed something about him.

"Here's your share" give the popcorn and soda to her.

"Thanks and by the way"

"Yes?"

“Why did you wear a cap and sunglasses the moment we got out of the car?”

“So that no one will look to our directions just like the customers at the restaurant awhile ago”

“I see but yet they are still some passersby looking to our directions”

‘It’s because you’re too pretty on your own’ thinking then suddenly holding her face without knowing why.

“Eh, is there some dirt on my face?”

Making excuses right away because he also doesn’t know why “n—not a dirt but there’s a fallen eyelash”

“I see thanks and what time of the movie we’re going to watch?”

“It’s a romance movie with a title I can’t leave my eyes to you”

“Mmm..... And who are the leads for this movie?”

“Han Yu and Li Yun”

“Woah, what a coincidence that you have the same name as the lead actor, and then we are going to watch Goddess Li”

He sat beside her then ask “how did you know that’s Li Yun is Goddess Li?”

“Common Goddess Li is very famous wherever you go and I know her because I’m a fan of her. She always partnered with Mr. Han Yu in whatever movie they are going to appear in. As a fan I ship her to be with Mr. Han Yu since they are an unbeatable love team here in S Country but then a few years ago there’s a scandal involving Goddess Li, Actress Nan Ha and Actor Han Yu but I didn’t believe anything of it because I know that they are only a victim of a scheme of who are the envy of them though I don't know the whole story since it's been deleted from the system and protected by R. Well it's been a few years ago and after the scandal release I did realize that nothing's going on with Actor Han Yu and Goddess Li since every intimate scene they have the two will always use a body double."

"Eh, how did you know that one?"

"Common I just said a while ago that I'm a fan of Goddess Li so it means I'm always following her. Even after the scandal got deleted I'm still assured that Actor Han Yu still love Actress Nan Ha and I still hope that someday they will" paused when she realized about something.

"Eh, what's wrong?"

"Wait a moment; your name is Han Yu right?"

"Yes, why?"

"....." She didn't reply because she's searching on her phone and just realized who he is "eh, you are him?"

Tap her head "silly and took you 2 months to recognize me. Let's go" offer his hand after tapping her head.

"A--am I going to hold your hands?"

"It's up to you since I already offer my hand for you to hold it."

"T-- that" then hold his sleeve "how about here?"

Blush "I--- 'm alright with that."

“Geez unbelievable and why do I feel that we have a date today?”

“Well it’s really a date since we are outside and by the way, I only respect Goddess Li as my Senior not in a romantic way and the one I love is not Goddess Li but it’s Actress Nan Ha. Though it’s already in the past it will not erase in my life that I love Actress Nan Ha.”

“Eh?”

“You really have an amusing reaction, you know.”

“.....” ‘What the heck and why do I feel that he is teasing me?’ “Eh, we are seating beside each other?”

“Of course and where do you find that someone watching a movie together seating in different seats huh?”

“.....”

The movie they watch officially starts and they just watching seriously, rather it’s only Meg watching it because it’s just released last week and Meg has no time to watch because of her busy schedule. As for Han Yu, he already watches the premiere along with his co-stars so it’s not his first time watching it and he already knows the story instead he is seriously looking at Meg and observe her.

“Neh?” Just realized that this man is looking at her “eh, is there’s something wrong with my face?”

“N—nothing” ‘she caught me off guard again and now what she would think of me after being caught that I’m looking to her?’

“I see and by the way when you are doing this intimate scene, where are the two of you when they shoot the scene?”

“In our own schedule but how did you know that it’s our double body and not us?” Right away Meg pointing the flaws of how did she know.

“As expected of the Head Secretary of CA”

“You investigate me?”

“Well I have my own sources but I didn’t investigate you”

“I see and by the way, you said that you love Actress Nan Ha so why did you also use your double body when you also have a screen time of intimate scene with her? Well, every time that you will appear in the movie with Goddess Li and Actress Nan Ha, you will always have intimates scenes but there’s one time that I watch a movie of you with Actress Nan Ha since my friend recommended it to me because she loves the story and remembering that one, that movie with a title of I can’t forgot about you, have a lot of intimate scenes but you didn’t grasp that opportunity at least once even the kissing scene when in fact that director is known to be famous of perfections, right?”

“...” Han Yu got speechless because that movie released before the scandal and this lady here still remembered as if it got released one month ago.

“Eh, did I say it wrong?”

“No it’s not and you really remembered it well”

“I see and for my query...”

“I will let you know after I know you better and in the meantime let’s continue to watch the movie or else you will miss the main part of this movie.”

“Yeah right” didn’t get the message of the first part since she will really miss the main part if she will continue talking with her.

At the same time, Meg returns her focus to the movie while Han Yu is still looking at her and observing her.

After looking at her face thoroughly he realized and mumble “now I already know the reason why I did all of this, huh” then he suddenly holds Meg’s face that caught her off guard, and blush.

“W—what’s wrong?” Ask him while blushing

“...” he didn’t answer instead he just lean in and give her a passionate kiss then said to her “I guess I’m already in love with you Meg”.
