

chapter 431 – A Remarkable Confession

After the sudden kiss of him, Meg left speechless and at the same time the Movie end which the light of the theater hall light up that it's like a perfect plan for him but it's only a coincidence since Han Yu also didn't believe of what he just did but then he didn't regret of what he's doing because he already knows that he's in love with her. He just observes the speechless lady with a red face until one minute, five minutes and fifteen minutes later Meg still remain in the position.

"Is it your first kiss?"

"....."

"Don't worry it's also my first kiss"

"Eh, really and this is your first kiss which in fact you are in Entertainment Fields?"

"Yes, though for my new movie and will release after promotion next month, I only kiss my co-star on the cheeks for real and the other scenes are only played with the angles of the camera so that's my first kiss."

"Now speaking about movies, you did it on purpose by watching the movie that you are in so that I can recognize you, right?"

"Right but for now let's go out here since they are still another movie showing for this hall"

“Yeah I guess so”

“So then that’s my love story Rei”

“You have a wonderful love story Meg and once again congrats, so that’s the day you began dating, right?”

“No, not that day Rei”

“Eh, what do you mean?”

“You will only know that one after we watch the movie”.

“Watch the movie, you mean we are going to watch it now?”

“Yes and let’s have a double date though we only watch at our house.”

“Our House, eh the two of you are already leaving together?”

“Not yet but it looks like it”

“.....” Rei got speechless since she already guesses the hidden meaning of it.

“You get of what I just mean, right?”

“Yes since I’m already a married one.”

“Ha, ha, ha I see”

“Now eating here and then watching movies later its looks like that we are doing now of what you did on your first date.”

“Ha, ha, right, right”

The two couples slash the former and current Head Secretary leaving their husband/boyfriend in silence are still chatting together and then leave afterward. The Jun couple follows them and then arrived at the place. They ride at the elevator and then entered the house.

“Actually Rei this unit was just bought after I and Han Yu became official. Though at first, I didn’t know the existence of this unit since the man here keeping it a secret from me then he only reveals it last December for our presents with each other as a couple”.

“Are you getting married then?”

“Tsk, you are still the Head Secretary that I know and no need for further explanation from me since you got it right away. Yes, you are right that we are getting married but we only going to registered our marriage in C Country on this coming Golden Week since I don’t know what this man here plan yet but I still trust this man.”

“I see then congrats in advance for your registration of marriage”

“Thank you and please take a seat” the four of them are seating at the same time.

Automatically Han Yu retrieves something from their Disc’s rack and then gives it to Meg.

“Here Meggie”

“Thank you, Sweetie” accepts the said disc and gets the disk inside the case before giving the case to Rei. “Here Rei this is the movie that we are going to watch.”

Rei accepts and then reads the title “My Enormous Goddess” meanwhile Tae just leans into his wife in order to look at the said Disc then whispers to his wife when he realized something.

“Hon, this is the way how the two become official because this anonymous screenwriter must be Mr. Han Yu, and then the title My Enormous Goddess is short for MEG.”

“I see”

Right at the moment, the said movie start and then both watching it seriously even the couple who already watched it many times are still not bored of watching the said movie and they have the same reactions as to how they watch it many times because it still fresh from their minds during that day.

—- Flashback —-

On the other hand, Meg already watch the trailer of the said movie last week and didn't comment anything because she trust Han Yu but then tonight her curiosity still at a peak, and in order to cure it, she asks him.

“Sweetie, I'm not criticizing it but all cast of this said movies are all newbie's and then the screenwriter is an anonymous one so what kind of movie that we are going to watch tonight?”

“My, my, my you really the type to ask if your curiosity is on peak but that's what I love about you”

‘Sometimes I wonder if he really teasing me or not since we just become a couple without proper confessing to me but then I also wonder when I start to love this man. Tsk, love is really troublesome, you don't know when, why and for what reason.’

“Why are you looking at me like that? Are you perhaps getting in love with me more?”

“Yeah indeed I'm getting in love with you more but you are so carefree you know.”

“They are no reason for me too afraid because indeed I’m dating you. Both of us are only in love with each other that both of us didn’t do anything aside from being in love with each other and it doesn’t mean that just because I’m an actor I have no right to fall in love when in fact I have right to because I’m also a human.”

“The movies are going to start now so then my Mr. Screenwriter Anonymous, what kind of movies is this?”

“.....” He got speechless because he caught off guard since Meg guesses it right.

“Ha, ha, you think that I didn’t get it, right?”

“Uh-uh”

“I’m a failure as your girlfriend if I didn’t notice this one.

M – My

E – Enormous

G – Girlfriend

That’s my name and then the story mainly focuses on the man. The two leads meet for the first time when they bump into the .....

“Alright, alright stop guessing and just watch because you will miss the important parts of this movie”

“Hai, hai and your Meggie will now focus on your movie.”

Meg is really right because the movie is a story about them and then just after three months of unofficial dating, the said two casts of the movie are also in the theater hall and heard the confession of the male lead. At the same time, Han Yu confesses to Meg with the same message in the movie in order for everyone to focus on the movie and will not find out that he just make a public confession.

“Meg, I know that being an actor is not an easy career of mine but I already love this career and hoping for you to support me fully without any restriction of yours because I always promise to you that I will never accept any rules that share an intimate scene with their co-stars because I already have you. Call me a psycho or anything because I choose this career but didn’t accept any roles if it’s going to intimate with his co-star but this is me, I only want to share my intimate scenes with the one I love and it’s you whom I love and the one I really love after my failure love of my fellow artist. Though it’s a failure, she’s the reason why I chose this job, and then she’s the reason why I never fail to believe that there’s one for me who deserves my love. So then Meg, are you willing to become my official girlfriend?”

“Silly, we become an unofficial couple so how come I will not agree to become officially yours?”

“So what’s your answer, Meg?”

“Yes, and are you willing to solely surrenders yourself to me knowing that you will always be partnered with a beautiful.....” stop herself because she heard the same thing from the movie itself, no missing words since it’s the exact words of what she just say now.

Han Yu smirking and then said to her, as usual, his words is also the same with the male lead cast of the movie “no need to surprise Meg because I already know you and of course I’m happy to surrender myself with you since you’re MEG, My Enormous Goddess”.

End of the Movie

As for the movie mania in the theater hall, they are all giggling when the lead casts of the said movie kissed and as for the couple, they didn’t kiss because Meg is still speechless of what she found out.

“.....”

“Are you that shocked that I got right of what you are going to say?”

Meg nodded and then unconsciously hugs her boyfriend while Han Yu explaining to her.

“So this time we are now an official couple since for the few past days we’re dating through mutual understanding but then I confess to you in this way because you might misunderstand me that maybe I’m only toying with you. I’m quite nervous that maybe you will out of town this month, so that’s why I ask your schedules for this month and luckily for me that your working place have also 15 days year-end breaks.”

“I see but then how did you do all of this? I mean you only have 3 months allowance for these preparations, so how did you do all of this?”

Han Yu just smiling and didn’t reply to her instead he hugs her back before leaving at the cinema theater hall or else he will lose control of himself.

— End of Flashback — chapter 432 – Another Incoming Storms

At the same time, the movie that they watch also ended, and then suddenly Rei asks the couple the same thing as Meg asks during that time.

“I never expect that you’re a romantic person Mr. Han but then how did you do all of this? I mean you only have 3 months allowance for this kind of preparation, so how did you do all of this? I do not doubt you since you’ve been in this industry for how many years but then doing it for months, it means that you have some connections, right? Well, it’s about your love story so no question that you will only finish the writing within a week but then all the newbie’s casts are all undersigned by CA Entertainment, and then it’s produced by CA Entertainment, so do you have some connection in CA Entertainment.”

“As expected of you Manager Rei and so it means that you already watch this movie, right?”

“Unfortunately it’s my first time watching it.”

“I see so you are really busy indeed and yes you are right since I have some connections in CA Entertainment.”

“Eh, what do you mean by that Sweetie?”

“I keep it from you since you inform me about the company rules and so to avoid it, I keep it a secret from you in order for you not to sacrifice your own career.”

“I see”

“So Manager Rei as your quest before yes I did have some connections since Bro Hwang Lin is my buddy and then Manager Han is my father.”

Both Jun couple reacts at the same time “Manager Han from our team?”

“Yes and then for sure Dad will be going to interrogate me since he’s there when I pick Meg in CA Entertainment today.”

“.....” Tae and Rei both speechless then wondering at the same time ‘Manager Han might be suited to become an actor just like his Son, huh.’

“W--- Wait, so don’t tell me that your Dad is there?”

“Yes but don’t worry my Father is more normal compared to my Mom.”

“Hope you are right since your Mother is really a weird one not in a bad way though because you’re Mom still acts young and then I never expect that both your parents are Manager.” Then looking to Rei and inform her “right, right Rei, the real identity of my future Mother-in-Law is my future husband Manager since his debut. It’s quite nerve-wracking because everyone from Han Yu’s colleagues didn’t know that his Manager is his Mom since she looks young and most of all acts like young. As for me, at first, I thought that Han Yu and his Mom have a past relationship since they look almost the same age but then after informing Mom that I'm dating Han Yu as for safety precaution just in case the media going to find it out that Han Yu is dating with me and as his manager, I inform her in order for her to have countermeasures but then I'm the one who got surprised because his Mom just said to me that thank you for loving my Son and please take good care of him, I'm in a daze before the words of his Mom truly sunk in my brain and mind."

"..." Rei got speechless for the second time.

"Now recalling that one, I guess my mom recorded it so I will ask later the video and let's watch it together".

"And why you didn't say anything to me that you're Mom is your Manager when I suggest you that time huh?"

"Because I want to see your reactions after knowing my Mom is my Manager and it's really worth it because you're a human after all."

"Huh? And what do you mean by that?"

"Nothing but I guess Mr. Jun understand what I just mean."

"Yeah I really did and Mr. Han you really have a good eye for finding your other half."

"Indeed and same to you Mr. Jun"

"Uh-uh and ...." Got cut off since the four of them heard a ringtone and Tae can recognize whose phone it is since it's his wife after all. "Eh, something's wrong?"

"Guess so but it Manager Han"

"Eh, it's Dad?"

Rei nodded then excusing herself from them “excuse me for a while and Tae just stay here with them, okay?”

Tae without choice just nodded and then the two who meet for the first time even they are in the same fields have time to chat leaving Meg in silence since she’s is not close with Tae. Of course, Han Yu is the one who initiates first, well men never feel awkward even though it’s their first meeting.

“So then Mr. Jun, how did you meet your wife?”

“Almost the same with you since my team car almost hit her but then I already catch a glimpse of her the moment she lands here and I don’t have enough courage of what you did to Secretary Meg, so I’ve become a stalker of Rei for years before I have and gain the courage to confess to her. As for the confession we also did the same thing since I also kissed her before confessing to her”

“Ha, ha so it’s mean that the two of us are the same peas in a pod.”

“Maybe you are right since Rei is a former Head Secretary after all.”

“Speaking about that one, Meggie why not becomes my Manager so that you can always be with me, right?”

“Huh?” Then Meg gives him a glare as if she’s not going to be his wife.

“Hai, hai I know that you are not going to give up your position as the Head Secretary since you’re Goddess is the one who gives you that position and I’m just kidding you know.”

“Good and now go ahead with your conversation, so please don’t mind me, Sweetie.”

“.....”

Meg observe her boyfriend reactions and then whisper to him "I heard from my colleagues that Mr. Jun here is very a quiet and chic type of a person but then now he is talking with you without this aura of him, so it means that he is really warmly welcoming you to be his friend."

Then it sunk into his brain and what Meg just said is really right.

Clearing his throat and calling his attention "Mr. Jun?"

"Yes?"

"I know it's our first time meeting but mind you to ask about this, are you alright if we become a friend?"

"You are the boyfriend of my wife friend and former colleagues, so I already treat you as my friend."

"I see and ....."

"Sorry to interrupt you Tae and Mr. Han but then we are going now."

"Eh, is it something wrong Rei?"

"Yes Meg so we are going now and let's catch up later"

"I see"

"By the way, Manager Han aka your father also inform me that Mr. Han you can visit him whenever you are free along with Meg since he's not aware that you already in a relationship with Meg".

"I see and so Mom really didn't say anything to Dad about me and Meg, huh."

“It seems so since he doesn’t know anything and we’re going now. By the way, thank you for inviting us”

“You’re welcome and let’s meet up again Rei”.

“Yes Meg”.

chapter 433 – Someone Got Kidnapped

Both Tae and Rei leave right away after bidding their farewell to the other couple. Tae didn’t ask anything from his wife and just drive on the way to the studio since he knows that the team will be having a sudden urgent meeting again and for what reason he doesn’t know why since his wife didn’t explain.

Rei looking at Tae and she falls in love again because of his understanding. Later she explains to him when they are stuck in traffic. “Tae, Manager Han informs me that someone got kidnapped.”

“Eh, someone got kidnapped but whom?”

“He didn’t inform me of who got kidnapped but I can guess it’s either Manager Su or Ms. Xie since Yun and Atty. Kei is both on the way to Sehu for checking them.”

“I see so who’s the informant?”

“Yun since he got a message from Manager Su that someone suspicious following them since yesterday and since then Manager Su didn’t message anything to Yun and today she’s out of reach. As for Ms. Xie, she’s also unreachable.”

Tae looking to his wife then holding his other hand to her hand and just comfort her because he doesn’t know what she’s going to say “whatever it is, they will be both alright because they are both raise from military backgrounds and don’t forget that you’re pregnant Hon, okay?”

“Uh-uh”

The whole ride going to the studio is very silent from the couple but Tae always checking his wife time by time until Rei said it to him.

“I’m fine Dear and I’m really lucky that I’m already at your side or else I already got kidnapped during that day.”

“Yeah but then it’s because of me that you almost got kidnapped.”

“I hope nothing’s going wrong or any bad happenings for this situation and hope it would be alright.” Rei really hopes it but then it looks like that what she hopes didn’t go well.

Around 8 pm, the couple arrives at the studio and everyone from the team is also there except for three persons of the team.

“You just arrive in time Manager Rei”

“Yes, Mr. Hwang but where’s Artist Director Lina?”

“She’s on the way here and let’s discuss it now while waiting for her”

Every one of them is discussing what happened yesterday and today but they didn’t found out anything suspicious until later Rei said to them.

“Then is it related to H. EM Entertainment?”

Everyone looking to Rei and at the same, they ask in sync “eh, what do you mean by that Manager Rei / Hon?”

“It just my guess but then both Manager Su and Ms. Xie are both former came from H.EM Entertainment then we just done dealing with the ex CEO of H. EM Entertainment, so maybe it’s still connected to it or not but then what if the ex CEO of H. EM Entertainment got an escape from prison and want a revenge against us, right?"

Mr. Hwang: You have a point there Manager Rei but then no one knows the real identity of Manager Su as his ex-wife so it might from them.

Han: Yeah but then Mr. Hwang what if the ex-CEO really got to escape?

Rei: Right and I didn't hear anything that someone escapes from prison so maybe I might guess it wrong. (Almost slip out her real identity but gladly the topic they are talking about is related in Entertainment Fields so everyone didn't feel suspicious from her and then again, they didn't feel suspicious because all of them also didn't hear anything from the Entertainment or Current News that someone escapes from the jail.)

All : (Except Tae) Yeah there's no news of Ex CEO escaping in prison.

Tae : (Just looking to his wife and then everyone is continuing discussing whatever possible reason of why one of them got kidnapped until he said to them) maybe my wife is really right that it's from H. EM Entertainment.

All : (Including Rei) eh?

Tae: It's not because I'm a bias one and just believe whatever my wife assuming but I guess Rei is really right and it's either one of them and they really seek revenge from us for what happened to them.

All: .....

Tae: Look, we only got a piece of news that Ex CEO of H. EM Entertainment got in prison after the verdict from the court but there's no any and no single photo of him that he really got in prison, so what if someone pretending to be him and the reality he hides and waiting to attack us, right?

All: T——that's impossible right?

Tae: Yes it's very impossible to play with our government authorities but as for the Ex CEO he can do it since he was been daring of leaking a fabricated video during that time knowing that R already protecting the security of S Country, right?

All: .....

Tae : (Looking to his wife who also has the same expression as everyone) Hon?

Rei: You have a point there Dear, so I'm calling Bro Lu now to confirm if the person got prison was the real ex-CEO or a fake one.

Mr. Hwang: Let me call my son in law, Manager Rei.

All : (Except Rei and Tae) Eh, Officer Lu is your son in law Mr. Hwang? So it means Artist Director Lina is your daughter?

All : (Including Rei and Tae) Uh-uh

Mr. Hwang: I see and yes he is my Son in Law. (Observing their expressions as if confirming him that Artist Director Lina is really his daughter, so he answered them truthfully) Yes, Artist Director Lina is my daughter and she's your future boss since she will inherit CA Entertainment at the right time.

All : (Except Rei and Tae).....

Right away Mr. Hwang called Officer Lu and informs him to check the identity of Ex CEO of H. EM Entertainment if it's fake or not.

Mr. Hwang: Alright guys let's discuss our countermeasure just in case something happened while waiting for my Son in Law report and then waiting for updates about Manager Su and Ms. Xie from Yun and Atty. Kei.

Again, everyone is discussing seriously whatever possible situations that they are going to face but all of them will never expect that they will face another situation that they are not even expecting of it. Everyone is still discussing but stops when they heard a knock from the door of the conference room in the studio and as the youngest one among the members, San opens the door only to see a man wearing his uniform in very tidy and very neat.

“.....” San got speechless because it the first time seeing him wearing his uniform since he always wearing a suit every time he picks up Lina based on his observation.

“What’s wrong Mr. Han San?” Asking him after seeing him standing in a daze.

“Come in Wen and why are you here? I thought you’re going to call me to inform me of what you just get from your report, right?”

“I’m here Mr. Hwang since it’s related to my work why I’m here.”

“You can call me Dad since they already know that you’re related to me.”

“I see but well Officer Cai, my head will be also here Dad so I will call you Mr. Hwang when he arrives here since the two of us are assigned for this case.”

“Eh?” All got surprised in unison.

chapter 434 – Where’s my wife?

All of them are shocked and surprised after hearing that one from the police officers because they only thought that it’s only possible that maybe he really got escaped but then after hearing that one from them, they already can guess that he might really use someone to pretend as being him.

Meanwhile, as for Officer Lu, he just observes them and just confirming from his mind ‘indeed they are really on par with my wife. As expected from the CA Families’.

Then he replied to Mr. Hwang right away “yes Dad, after receiving your call, I and Officer Cai go right away to Jail to check either if he’s a real one or fake. As you inform us awhile ago, indeed he is really a fake one and we are now searching for Mr. Zhang. We already release the Current News for a Wanted List of Mr. Zhang nationwide, one of our team also check the travel history of Mr. Zhang and he is still here in S Country and within our boundaries. At first, I and Officer Cai will be here together but then he let me go first in order to inform you in advance just in case he will be here for his revenge since you have just done dealing with them especially to you Rei, and Mr. Jun.”

“.....”

“Actually Wen he might already on the move since one of our team didn’t get in contact either from Manager Su and Ms. Xie.”

Someone interrupting them “excuse me to interrupt but what do you mean by that Sir?”

“You must be Officer Cai, right?”

“Yes I am Officer Cai, I and Officer Lu are both in charge of this case Sir.”

“I see and I’m Mr. Hwang, the boss of CA Entertainment, this is Manager Han, Manager Li, Manager Chi, Manager Wang, Manager Rei, Jun Tae Woo, Li Je Han, Im Woo Shi, and Han San Yu. By the way, let’s take a seat first.”

Everyone is seating again and San automatically closes the door because seeing the two police officers are with them, he can really tell and guess that what they are going to discuss next is a very confidential one.

Cfa: Il usuzwmru fzu fii vuzu?

Mr. Hwang: We are still waiting for the other three from our team.

Cai: I see and while waiting for them let’s discuss it first if it’s alright with you Sir?

Mr. Hwang: Yes and go ahead, Officer Cai.

Cai: In the first place, our teams apologized for letting this situation happened but then it's already happened so no one at faults for this mistake but we are really sorry for not profiling Mr. Zhang very well and properly since after his verdict from the court, he come to our station without restraining. Alright let's get back to our main topic, we already inform all airports and ports for stopping Mr. Zhang in case he will leave and all patrols already deployed to their assigned location since he just around in the S Capital City. Aside from not able to contact your team, are there any suspicious persons following all of you within this past few weeks ago?

All : (Shaking their heads since no one's suspicious following them. )

Cai: I see so only that one. (Everyone nodded and just listening to him since Officer Cai as the Head Chief already discussing something with Wen without minding that everyone is with them since they are also involved in this matter.)

The two police officers are discussing the matters seriously as if the team are not there until then they suddenly stop their conversation since they heard someone knocking on the door. As usual, San opens the door and only to found out that it's Yun and Atty. Kei. The two who just arrive seating down the moment Mr. Hwang signals them to seat and then Mr. Hwang asks them.

Mr. Hwang: So Yun and Atty. Kei, what did the two of you find out in there? By the way, these two police officers here are the assigned ones for this case.

Both : (Have the same reaction from the team when they heard that these two police officers are the assigned ones for the case, in other words, for them this case is really a serious matter since the police officers are already involved in this matter. At the same time Atty. Kei answered Mr. Hwang's query after being surprised.)

Atty. Kei: Right Mr. Hwang, both Manager Su, and Ms. Xie are both safe although they got attacked this afternoon around 4 pm they still manage to escaped since the two of them have military backgrounds and of course both of them know martial arts. They have no led who's the main culprit since the attackers escaped right away. As for the phone, it got thrown out by the attackers the moment they attacked so that's the reason why they are unreachable. As the Legal Representative, I suggest for the two of them to cancel their schedules and going back with us but then the two insist to stay there. Since they insist, I recommend them to make a report to the authority, and right now they have police support for the meantime until this matter closely. As for the police matters, they agreed right away since news of someone escaping from jail got scattered in the whole S Nations. (The police force didn't disclose the identity of who escape from jail in order for that someone to not be alerted).

Cai: Noted and may I ask from which police station in there that you reported about this matter?

Atty. Kei: Sehu City, S Town Station.

Cai: I see and then (give instruction to Wen), Wen calls the Sehu City, S Town Station and asks for a copy of Manager Su and Ms. Xie's report. Also, tell them that they must protect the two of them before and an additional 3 days after this matter closed.

Wen: Yes Officer Cai.

Wen calls right away and then relay his instruction. Of course, Wen converses them in Senian Language but different dialect since Sehu City does not belong to S Capital City. On the other hand, Cai continues discussing with the team, and then Wen waiting for Cai to finish his discussion with the team. He just shows the said reports to Officer Cai until then Wen notices something and asking no one in particular from them.

"By the way where's my wife?"

Mr. Hwang : (Suddenly realized this one when Wen ask) now you mention Lina, where is she?

Rei : (Same with Wen, she also speaks and asking in no one in particular) is she on the way here already? I mean it's been almost 2 hours since we discuss this matter here but then Artist Director Lina is not yet here, so is she on the way? If we based on the penthouse to here, it will only take 10 minutes unless she has another appointment before here, right?

chapter 435 – Wen got panicked

The moment he realized that his wife is not yet around, he asks the teams and hoping for them to answer that she just excuse herself before he arrived but then after hearing his Father-in-Law he suddenly feels nervous, and then again Rei said something that causes him to feel more nervous and start to panic.

Wen : (Trying to persuade himself that it's only his imagination and ask again from them) did Lina just excuse herself before I arrived here, right?

All : (Except Officer Cai all of them shaking their head with a pale expression especially Mr. Hwang since it's his pregnant daughter they are talking about. Of course, Rei almost has the same reaction as Mr. Hwang and Wen but then Tae automatically holds his wife's hand right away the moment he heard Wen asking about his wife because he knows how it feels to worry someone especially if it's closely related to you.)

Wen : (Already in panic mode) t—t—then how long did Lina inform you, Dad, that she's on the way here?

Mr. Hwang: C—calm down Wen. (Also in panic but not the same with Wen while looking to his phone) Lina message me that she's on the way here at exactly 5:58 pm.

Wen : (Looking to his watch and just realized the time right now) forsake it's already 8 pm and Lina message me that she's on the way here after her check-up.

Right away he retrieved his phone and calls his wife without asking permission from his head chief since he's willing to get punished than to be following the rules of asking permission without knowing his wife's safety. He's a police officer that must protect the citizens of S Nation but then how can he be called a police officer if he didn't protect his only wife. He called not once but many times but all he heard from the other side of his wife's phone is only this one 'the number you dialed is currently unreachable.' He didn't lose hope and instead still trying to contact her but then he heard the same thing again and again which he suddenly crunched down from the floor and he doesn't know what to do anymore.

All of them looking at him like this and they don't know what they are going to do for him because they don't have any right words to comforts him because they still don't know of her whereabouts until they all heard him mumble and then blaming his own self.

“If I accompany her today then nothing will happen to her. What if she’s the one who got kidnapped and only using the two of them in order for the police officers to get lured from the main culprit away from the real target. What the heck I’m doing now, how come I didn’t accompany her today? Letting her get kidnapped’s my fault and my mistake, she can manage to protect herself and escape but then because of me I let her get pregnant .....” someone cutting him off and that someone is his Father-in-Law.

“Wen, no one’s at fault and it’s not your mistake, so don’t blame your own self. It still not confirm that she’s the one who got kidnapped, so you need to calm down, okay?”

“Uh-uh but Dad, it’s almost two hours and Lina is not the type to go out without an appointment. She always informs and updates of where she is but today....”

“Yeah, I know Wen because she’s my daughter after all and by the way, what time her appointment with Annie?”

“5 pm Dad”

“Alright, we will call Annie first and ask her what time Lina come in and got out on the hospital premises.” Mr. Hwang thinks positively but then to his dismay he only got a replied from his sister just like this one.

“She arrives here around 5 pm and then got out before 5:30 pm, why? Is there something wrong with Lina?”

To him, he only replied his sister “nothing’s wrong Annie” in order for Annie not to get worried since she’s also a worrywart person. On the other hand, Wen asks his Father-in-Law right away.

“So what did you find out Dad?”

Mr. Hwang plan not to tell him the truth but then he just letting the problem getting worse if he will not inform what he finds out, so left with no choice he relays what his Sister replied to him.

“Lina arrived in the hospital around 5 pm and leave the premises before 5:30 pm.”

“.....” all of them suddenly got speechless because they realized that the culprit has already been following her the moment she got out from the CA Building Pent House and yet no one noticed this one especially Lina and the Security Personnel of CA Premises. Meanwhile, after realizing this one, Cai asks Mr. Hwang.

“Mr. Hwang, can we ask for the footage here before Mrs. Lu leaves here?” already guess that the Pent House is on top of the CA Building based on what Rei said awhile ago.

“Ooh, right t—then.....” this time, Mr. Hwang is already in panic mode but still not the same with Wen who almost going to burst out.

Suddenly someone interrupting Mr. Hwang because that someone also realized that his boss already in panic mode “let me do it Mr. Hwang” then Atty. Kei calls the CCTV Footage Department and tells of what to retrieve”.

A few minutes later, that the said personnel from CCTV Footage Department knock on the door and just give the item to Atty. Kei then leaves right away. Kei gets his laptop, insert the disc, and then give it to Officer Cai since the other one is still in panic mode. Officer Cai reviewed it and then notice something from the said footage.

Paused the video and ask someone from the conference room “this car” pointing to the car “is it belongs to one of the CA Families?”

“Eh?” all of them only replied this one since they didn’t see the said video.

“Ah, sorry but can I connect it to any projector available here?”

For the first time after hearing Lina’s disappearance, Rei answers them “ah, right sorry for that one Officer Cai, and let me have that one first”.

Officer Cai gives the laptop right away to Rei then Rei connects it to the projector. After making sure that it’s already connected to the projector, she gives it back to him, the laptop along with the controller. Then Officer Cai pointing the said car and all of them except the couple react at the same time.

“Eh, is that your car Manager Rei?”

“By looking through this footage it really looks like my car since it has the same model, same color and most of all having the same plate number but then since the day Tae disclose our relationship I didn’t use my car until now so it’s always park in CA Residences.”

Officer Cai interrupts “it seems that the culprit is trying to use you, Ma’am, as the culprit covered and the culprit scapegoat. For now, can I ask any footage that your car been to park in your residence since then and until now?”

“Yes, and I will request a copy of footage from the Security Department in CA Residences to prove that I’m not involved and as for this, can I also add for the security report that I park my car since that day until now including the detailed report that either Tae or I will only start the engine of the car for its maintenance every day and didn’t use the car until now, right?”

“Yes, that would be precise Ma’am”.

Tae automatically makes a call and requests everything that Rei just said then replied to the said officer “Officer Cai the in charge only promises us that he will do his best so that he can send the said footage and detailed report within two days.”

“That’s long enough to wait for the said footage and report but we will try another means for that, so, for now, we are still not sure if Mrs. Lu is the one who got kidnapped or not but there’s a possibility she is but we are still lacking evidence.....” Suddenly someone is interrupting him.

“Uhm, about that one.....”

chapter 436 – A very worth exclusive...

“That’s long enough to wait for the said footage and report but we will try another means for that, so, for now, we are still not sure if Mrs. Lu is the one who got kidnapped or not but there’s a possibility she is the one who got kidnapped but we are still lacking evidence……” Suddenly someone is interrupting him.

“Uhm, about that one……”

All of them from the conference room heard him and suddenly turning their heads from that person who suddenly butts in the police officer/ him and they just realized that it’s Tae. The two important men of Lina who are still in panic mode and friends also have the same reaction when they heard him.

“Eh, what do you mean Dear / Tae / Mr. Jun / Sir?”

“I’m not sure if it got used by Mrs. Lu but then let me confirm it first from you Officer Lu”

“Y—yes and w—what is it, Mr. Jun?”

“You are friends with Mr. El, right?”

“Yeah I am and why do you ask?”

“Both you and I have someone important in our life that from C Country, mine is my wife and on the other hand you have Mr. El as your friend, so in other words we both have received something from them, right?”

“Eh, what do you mean by that?”

Rei also has the same reaction as Wen “yeah that’s right Dear and so how it connected to this matter we are facing right now?”

If they’re not in serious matters, Tae already taps his silly wife’s head but then since they are in, he replied with full seriousness. “I have this” retrieved a necklace from his neck and explain “my wife Rei here gives me this one because this is an Alarm and Tracker Device just in case something happened to any one of us". Both Rei and Wen got speechless until then Wen suddenly feels the vibration of the said device and almost caught off guard since he almost forgot about this device's existence, luckily El already testing it for him that day, or else today he will really be got surprised.

"Yeah I have this Mr. Jun but I don't know how to operate this one"

"Give me that one Bro Lu" then Wen gives the said device to Rei while Rei accepts her laptop given by her husband and gets the device from Wen.

"I never expect that this device will be in use but for now this is the log entry of the device that holds by Lina. So around 5 pm, the said device has already been activated by Lina, in other words, Lina already notices that someone is/are following her during that time. Between 5 pm to 5:24 pm, it's been on paused mode since she's inside the hospital premises but then at around 5:29 pm, the alarm device has a light of white which means Lina is in light danger. From then on before 7 pm, the alarm has a light of red which means that Lina is in danger during that time and now this time it goes to black which means she's really now in heavy danger. For Light Danger, you can go and save her without any backup but then if it's in danger you need to report it to the authority and have at least some police forcercs escorting you to rescue her. Unfortunately, it's already black so which means we need more back up because the culprits have their own weapons. Though the latter part is only my speculations knowing Lina, for sure her first priority is the baby on her w.o.m.b."

All of them listen to her and react at the same time except Wen and Tae "are you perhaps R?"

Rei just realized that she's almost blown her cover but she answered with some truth "I'm an IT Graduate, former Secretary and now Manager, so I know how to operate the computer."

"I see" everyone didn't feel any suspicious anymore but except one of them.

'In other words, these 3 siblings are real monsters in disguise and luckily they are all law-abiding citizens, or else I can already imagine the end of the world.'

"Thanks for that worth device that you have Officer Lu but how come is still not out of the market?"

“My friend said that it’s still a new device so it’s still for testing process” ‘forsake this is an exclusive device for El family and friends but then if it’s not for this then I don’t’ know what will happen to my wife Lina.....’ stop his wondering after mentioning his wife name and declared “now that we know that my wife really got kidnapped, I’m going to rescue my wife and Rei is that the place that they are in right now?”

“Yes this is the place that they are in right now but you need.....”

“No I don’t need to wait for any back up because how can I be called a police officer if I can’t protect my wife, so I need to save my wife first and I will be assured of saving her personally”

“...” Rei got speechless by him and she also doesn’t how to retort him since she will, as a wife also doing the same thing if she’s in the same shoe as Wen.

“No Wen, it’s dangerous and let others....”

“It’s alright Dad I will making sure that Lina is safe and both of us will return safely so I’m going .....”

“Officer Lu”

“Yes, Officer Cai?”

“I understand you right now and I know how you feel but today you have no exemptions to be assigned this case, so let me and our other teams in charge rescue her. Knowing that your wife got kidnapped for sure you already thinking to kill the culprit without waiting for the said order but even if we’re giving orders to kill the culprits, you have no exemptions because you will be charged as it’s a personal conflict since and because you are related to her. In other words, if you killed the said culprit, you will also be got in prison because your wife is the one who got kidnapped and you will be charged as your personal conflict and not related to your career. Do you get what I mean Officer Lu?”

“T— that y—yes Officer Cai”

“Now let me and our team handle it while you wait for her with them. I will promise to you that we will rescue her within tonight. You don’t need to worry anymore because we already know where your wife is right now and if they will counterattack us then I will not hesitate to order and command our team to kill them all. I promise that one to you Officer Lu”.

Wen only nodded while Cai leaves the conference room after asking something from Rei and bidding his farewell to the teams. “Ma’am, can you connect it through my phone?” Rei didn’t reply and just connect the device to his phone. “Thanks and I’m going now.”

chapter 437 – A revengeful attack

On the same day, Lina got out of the penthouse from her parents without worry but then when she got out from the premises and already standing in the parking area along with her car on her side, she suddenly notices a familiar red car.

‘Weird, that’s Rei’s car but what I know of her, she never used her car the moment the two disclose their relationship with each other until now and only used it again after Mr. Jun got discharged.’ She’s wondering and then hops inside her car but holds the necklace from her neck then checking something from her compartment. ‘Hope, Wen will notice this warning and glad I have this’. She didn’t message anything since it’s only her assumptions and drive right away but then she notices that the car followed her. ‘So someone is targeting me but whom other than Mr. Zhang? Nah, maybe I got it wrong.’

Lina’s guess is right but she’s doubtful of her assumptions so she’s continued driving and arrives at the hotel premises. Again she notices that the car also parking at the same time as her, she tried to peek but since it’s the same model as Rei’s car, you can’t see inside because of the design of the glass window. She gets inside as if nothing happened until after her check-up, she goes back to where she parked her car and then messaging to her Dad that she’s on the way to them only then someone grabbing her phone and throw it out on the floor before stomping the phone from his shoe.

“Get in and don’t shout or else I will kill you right here and then”

Lina without choice she gets in and wonders. ‘I can kill these four persons here without any hesitation but then both I and my daughter are in danger if I will act on impulse. If I will get my gun in my compartment then there’s a possibility that they’re going to knock me out and I will hurt my baby.’ After wondering Lina just observes the persons who kidnapped her until almost two hours drive they arrive in a remote area. She also notices that similar Rei’s car also followed them.

The kidnappers hop out and then two of them hold Lina on both her sides; Lina didn't struggle with them in order to avoid getting in danger more. She didn't get blindfolded by them and so she saw everything. They entered an abandoned space and then heard the boss.

"Did you succeed in kidnapping the Artist Director of CA Entertainment?"

"No boss because we failed to recognize who is their Artist Director since the day we monitored them but then we managed to kidnap one of the friends of Artist Manager Rei."

Looking to his men's and the one they kidnap then commented "oh I see and at least you got one with a beauty."

"..."

Lina recognized the boss and ask "You managed to escape?"

"At least you know me, so I don't need to introduce myself to you and if you blaming someone then blame Manager Rei why did you got kidnapped. Alright put that woman to that room". Replied Lina then commands his men.

'They prepared 4 Rooms? Did he plan to kidnap four from the CA Entertainment?' The moment they lock the room, she heard them talking since she notices that another person's entering the room and reporting to Mr. Zhang. Of course, the room they prepared is not a closed room since they look like a prison cell.

"Boss"

"What?"

"Ms. Xie and her Manager manage to escape from our clutches".

“What?”

“Both of them know martial arts”.

“And why did you come back here when you didn’t manage to kidnap both of them?”

“Because they already have police force protection”

“Eh, so they act fast huh”

“.....”

“How about Manager Rei, did you manage to kidnap her?”

“No boss since Manager Rei always on guard and always escort by Mr. Jun”

“That bitch”

“Alright dismissed and secure all the places”

“Yes Boss”

All his men are deployed while he approaches Lina’s room and then seating down outside. Lina just observes him and didn’t make any move yet but then she already gives the signal to her husband by holding her necklace. She realized that Mr. Zhang has both guns on his waist.

Mr. Zhang, the main culprit of the kidnappers also looking and observing at the said lady since he doesn’t know who she is. He is quite intrigued because he didn’t sense fear from her and commented it loud. “Whoa, you’re quite brave, are not you?”

“What’s the reason for getting scared when I’m already here?”

“Ohh, you are really brave huh.”

Lina didn’t answer him that cause him to angry and grab his gun before pointing at her.

“I can kill you right here and then if you won’t answer me.”

“Then what kind of answer you want from me?”

“Are you Manager Rei’s friend?”

“I know her because she’s our Artist Manager”

“Are you her friend or not?”

“Not my friend” ‘Of course she’s my best friend and my sister’.

Mr. Zhang got speechless because if she’s not a friend of Manager Rei then how can she blackmail or threatened her. If his men succeed by kidnapping Ms. Xie and Manager Su then he can have Rei’s weakness by submitting him since she knows the two. Yet his men’s kidnapped an unknown lady and her connection with Manager Rei is also unclear. On the other hand, Lina’s just continue observing Mr. Zhang.

After realizing that his men’s kidnapped an unknown lady, he observes Lina again and just realized how beautiful she is and her predicament.

‘At least my men’s are not that useless since she’s really a beauty one and w—wait’ “are you pregnant?”

“Yes”

“Who is your husband?”

“Lu Wen”

‘Lu Wen? Why it sounds familiar?’ Of course, it sounds familiar to him since the day he got dethroned by his position, his Grandfather Assistant discusses the name of the major shareholders of their company and Lu Wen is one of them but then poor to him he can only tell that it sounds familiar since he never meet him and no one knows their identity except Rei and Mei.

“Alright you will be free but I have one condition for you”.

chapter 438 – Become Mine

Hearing that question from him, she wonders ‘what kind of condition it is?’ She already knows that she can’t escape without any scratches or without any wound and of course whatever it is no condition can be a benefit to her but she still answered and ask since he might angry again and maybe press the trigger of his gun.

“What kind of condition it is if I agreed and if I’m not what would happen to me?”

“If you agreed then you will be free but you need to divorce your husband and become mine.”

“And if I won’t agree?”

“Then you will be died without seeing your baby and so what’s your decision?”

Lina didn’t answer yet because she’s still not aware of her husband already notices her signal the moment she got kidnapped and already on the way to rescue her. Of course, she will never agree with him because she rather chose to die than be with him, and for now, her most priority is that her baby will be safe and delivered before she dies. On the other hand, Mr. Zhang just observes her silence and said to her.

“You don’t need to rush your decision since you will be here and of course no one can know that you’re here since it’s a remote area. Oh-oh, if you still believe that R or that JR will know your location then I will tell you in advance that no one’s from them can locate you because we surely plan that this is a remote area, in other words, no devices in here and that’s the reason why I instruct my men’s to destroy your phone or any devices that you have. Well, well we are also making sure that your car already deactivated your GPS Tracker.” He then stands and continues “alright I will leave you here and give you time to decide if you’re willing to live or die”. Then he leaves right away but it’s only a matter of distance since Lina still heard them.

‘Geez, that’s the husband of mine for sure he still not notice my signals and knowing him for sure he already in panic mode. Hope that he will make it in time’ then heard them discussing something.

His other’s men just arrive and report about his mission.

“Boss, the police forces already deployed many officers in whole S Nations and they also an article about one prisoner escape”

“Oh, they didn’t reveal who it is?”

“Yes, Boss but it’s clear that they’re talking about you and no worries because they just only realize it now.”

“Of course how would be I careless this time when I’m still not avenging to that bitch doing and because of her I’m now miserable.”

“Speaking about Manager Rei, Boss our teams still can’t get in touch with her boss”

“No worries because we will surely meet”

“Eh, but how Boss?”

“Idiot and what’s the purpose of having the same car as her?”

“Ah, that’s right”

Then Mr. Zhang has a loud evil laugh and suddenly heard his men’s.

“Boss, what about the lady we kidnapped?”

“She will either become mine or die”

“I see so then how long she will decide to be yours or die, Boss?”

“Who knows how long since no one will know this place and of course nobody can save her.”

After then, all of them playing cards while Mr. Zhang goes to his room since this is the place he’s been hiding since the day his pretender got in prison. He didn’t feel any worry because he is assured that no one can know this place without knowing that they already got a hand with it because of a single necklace, well no one knows that this simple necklace is an Alarm and Tracker device.

Meanwhile, Lina already thinking about how to escape in case her husband didn’t notice her signal but of course, she trusts her husband that he will notice it and save but she still thinking about how to escape and making sure that her baby will be alright. Several plans already planted on her mind on how to escape. She already taking note of the place and also taking note of who’s the stronger and weaker one among her kidnapers.

Luckily for her that these kidnapers didn’t tie her hands or torturing her or else she already died before giving her husband a signal where she is.

15 minutes before the police force rescue her, Mr. Zhang got down from his room and talk to her again.

“By the way, are you hungry?”

“No, since I’m already full before I got kidnapped by your men’s.”

“I see and by the way what’s your name?”

“Lu Lina”

“Your name suits you very well”

“Thanks and yet you yourself don’t deserve to have your name” .

“What?”

“Same to you”

“My, my you really don’t like to have a conversation with me, huh?”

“If you’re in my shoe, are you also willing to converse with your kidnappers?”

“Ha, ha, ha you have a point there but then sooner or later you will become mine so I guess you need to use to have a conversation with me.”

Lina changing the topic “neh your real target is not me but our Artist Manager, right?”

“Of course she is but don’t worry because she will also become mine if they will catch me.”

“Oh, then how come our Artist Manager becomes yours if you will get in prison then?”

“No worries and by the way have you notice that the moment you hop out from your car, your Artist Manager Rei’s car is also following you?”

Lina pretending not to be aware of this matter and replied to him innocently “eh then don’t tell me that you also car napping our Artist Manager Rei car?”

On the other hand, Mr. Zhang is to assume that no one can locate their location answered her innocently “well at first we’re going to but then CA Premises Security is very tight so I just provide the same car with your Artist Manager plate number.”

At the same time after he replied to her, his men suddenly interrupt them with a very haggard expression and messy appearance.

“Boss”

“What?”

chapter 439 – To the rescue

Officer Cai leave right away the CA Entertainment premises after instructing his co officer, Officer Lu with the team. Afterward, he goes right away to the station and meets his teams then discussing how to rescue the hostage, Lina. On the way to the place, Officer Cai email R to retrieve the said CCTV Footages, and several minutes he received the said footages. On the other hand, he also asks if R can retrieve any footage about the place of the hostage-taking and unfortunately R only replied that they are in a remote place with no any devices from them even phone.

After almost two hours of the drive, they arrive and all of them automatically position their assigned place and they surround the place. Officer Cai as the head, used his megaphone and announced.

“You’ve been surrounded by us and surrender or else we will use another method in order for all of you to surrender”.

At the same time, Mr. Zhang men’s got surprised because the police forces already know where they are when in fact they kidnapped the lady, not within 24 hours or a day. Though they all surprised all of them also positions their firearms and pointed to the individual’s police officers and waiting for the command of their boss. On the other hand, one of them running to where his Boss and then suddenly interrupt his Boss with a very haggard expression and messy appearance because of being surprised that they got found out.

“Boss”

“What?”

“T—the ....”

“What the heck are you going to tell me?”

“We’ve been surrounded by the police forces?”

“What?”

“The police forces are here”

“That fast?” His man’s only nodded and he instructs. “Stay here and guard this lady. Don’t let her escape”

“Yes Boss”

The moment Lina heard him, she secretly smiled and already that she will be saved then wondering about something ‘tsk, Wen is really fast huh. This device is really worth and who’s that friend who gives Wen this one.’ After wondering, Lina observes the surroundings then after knowing that Mr. Zhang already out of sight, she slowly put her arms from the cell and hit the said man on his neck that causes him to collapse and unconscious right away. Lina opens the cell prison gate but just realized it’s locked and so she seated back then waits for the police to rescue her while pretending that she didn’t hit the man awhile ago. She already knows that her husband is not with them since she already knows that right now Wen is not in the right mind and maybe he will kill all of the kidnapers out of anger.

On the other hand, the moment Mr. Zhang step out outside, he heard the head of the police.

“Mr. Zhang we know that you’re the boss for this operation so we request for you to surrender peacefully and ....”

Mr. Zhang interrupts Officer Cai and instructs his men.

“What the purpose of doing all of this when I’m just going to surrender peacefully”. He didn’t wait for the police force to reply and instruct men right away. “Kill them all and no one other than them knows this location”.

After hearing their boss’s command, they automatically attack and they don’t care if they’re going to die because being in prison is worst than losing their life and it’s only to them because they believe and trust Mr. Zhang’s principles without knowing that they choose the wrong path. Of course, their family members already got paid secretly by Mr. Zhang in case they will lose their life. All of them only heard the changing sounds of the guns for just a matter of 10 minutes and all the men’s of Mr. Zhang already lying on the ground without life anymore since the team who rescue Lina are all from the Special Force Team that all of them are all sharpshooter.

Mr. Zhang just realized that he is the only one left from his team, so he gets in right away and goes to where they put Lina. When he arrived at her room, he realized that the assigned man to guard her already laying on the floor and unconscious.

“What did you do to him?”

“Oh, him” pointing to the said man “he just unconscious so he still alive”

Looking at his men and kick him hard on his stomach while said it loud.

“Useless”

At the same time, he gets the key and opens the cell prison gate then directly holds Lina while pointing his gun at her.

“Follow me and don’t make any move or else I will kill you right away.”

Of course, Lina already that she will be in danger especially her baby in her w.o.m.b if makes any necessary move to struggling him, so left with no choice she walks along with Mr. Zhang since Mr. Zhang holds her while pointing the gun at her head.

They walk slowly and the moment they step outside, Mr. Zhang shout right away to the police forces.

“Let me escape or else this Lady here will be killed right away”

“We will let you escape but release the lady”

“For what reason, to get me killed, no way”

“We will hear your demands and just release the lady”

“Then swap her to Manager Rei, Rei the Artist Manager of CA Entertainment”.

“We will but first let her escape”

“No way and I will only release her if I already see it my own two eyes that Rei is standing in front of me”.

“Alright we will call her right now”

“Eh?” Then Mr. Zhang heard a dial tone that caught him off guard without knowing that it’s only an act from Officer Cai because he knows very well Lina’s personality.

At the same time, the moment Mr. Zhang caught off guard Lina automatically elbowing his stomach very hard and said.

“Now” then Officer Cai automatically point his gun to Mr. Zhang and hit his hand first that cause him to release his hold from the gun and then got hit by his right knee that he loses his balance.

chapter 440 – Who are you?

Mr. Zhang suddenly felt the hard hit from his stomach and crunch down that unknowingly he release his hold from Lina and at the same time his hand suddenly got hit followed by his right knee. He didn't know what happened since it's only a matter of seconds just like a wind that passes through and then at the moment, he suddenly feels something on his head that he realized it's his gun.

He got wide-eyed since the one pointing the gun to him is the lady that his men's kidnapped and asking her while stuttering.

“W—-- who are you?”

“Lu Cindy, former Police Officer”

“W-- What?”

“Tsk, at least know who you got kidnapped”

Mr. Zhang realized that she got his gun and asks “are you not afraid that they will find your fingerprints on that gun?”

“Thanks for your concern but I'm not that idiot to hold a gun without precaution.” Of course, Lina put her handkerchief on top of the gun before retrieving it.

“Are you alright Officer Cindy?”

Cai approach Lina while his team retrieving the dead bodies of Mr. Zhang men “Yes I'm alright Officer Cai and inside their one-man lying outside in the second room.”

“I see” then instruct his men “go inside and get that man”

“Yes Sir”

Officer Cai handcuffed Mr. Zhang right away and get the gun from Lina while heard her asking leisurely as if she didn't get kidnapped.

Lina observes the surroundings and comments it loud “you kill them all? Wait not all of them since this man and that man are both alive. But geez Officer Cai you really show no mercy from them.”

Officer Cai got dumbfounded but still reply to her “we left with no choice but to kill them since they're attacking with us.”

“I see”

On the other hand, Officer Cai said frankly to Mr. Zhang “you're lucky enough that Officer Cindy is not an officer anymore or else the moment you hostage-taking her you already been shut dead”

“..........”

Lina ignores his comment and just said to Officer Cai “Officer Cai that's the cars they used and one of the cars that they used has the same plate number as the CA Artist Manager plate number.”

“Thanks for the info Officer Cindy”

“By the way where's my husband?”

“He.....” wasn't able to finish since his team interrupts them.

“Officer Cai we’re already done retrieving the dead bodies of kidnappers”

“Good and ...” he is still not able to finish because his team once again interrupt him when they realized the identity of the lady.

“Eh, O—Officer Cindy?”

“Yes it’s me and it’s been a long time since I last meet you guys”

“.....” they got speechless and wondering at the same time. ‘Of course, you suddenly disappear without bidding your farewell’.

“Ah, Officer Cai that’s my car and I’m going first”

“Eh, you’re not going to the hospital first?”

“I followed them without restraining and of course they didn’t tie me up nor even torturing me, so I’m alright at all and nothing’s wrong.”

“.....” This time Officer Cai got speechless because he also one of the police officers who don’t understand her personally including Lina husband when they are still colleague at that time except for both Cai and Wen only know her personality as an officer.

“So Officer Cai, can I go first?”

“Okay but first let me check your car safety before letting you go.”

“Thanks and don’t worry I will visit the station for my testimony about them along with my husband”

Again, Officer Cai got interrupted “eh, Officer Cindy you got married?” And then suddenly come to their minds of what Officer Cai said to them since he only informs the teams that family members of Officer Lu got kidnapped. “Eh, your husband is Officer Lu?”

“Yes he is my husband”

“💎💎...” speechless once again and then wondered at the same time ‘so they really become a couple’.

“You can leave now Officer Cindy and go to our station tomorrow for your testimony”

“Yes Officer Cai” right at the moment, Lina hops in right away and then drives her way. She realized that the GPS of the car is already been activated by Officer Cai, so she didn’t lose her way, of course, she didn’t get blindfolded so she knows her ways.

At the same time, the moment Lina leaves all Officer Cai teammates bombarding him with the same question.

“Eh, Officer Cai you know that Officer Cindy and Officer Lu got married?” asked many times by his teammates.

“Officer Cai, Officer Lu supposed to have an ex-wife to that actress, right?”

“Alright stop asking me those questions because we are still on our mission and you will ask that again to Officer Lu personally, of course, you will ask him during his break times.”

‘Tsk, who dare to ask Officer Lu that one?’

After identifying all of them, they have a conference and release all the names in order for the family members to retrieve their bodies. Meanwhile, Mr. Zhang directly drops him off of the Main City Jail since he is a wanted list, of course instead of 15 years imprisonment, he will be now facing life imprisonment due to his serious numerous cases such as murder, human trafficking, kidnapping, a.d.u.l.tery, and severe cases of fraud. He didn’t have a charge for jailbreak since in the first place he used it as a fake person just to be him.

All family members' employees of H.EM Entertainment also heard the news about him and indeed luckily he already got kick out and disown by Zhang or else they will receive another bashful comment from the citizens and become the center of attention of the Medias. Well, the Zhang already got back their powers of H. EM Entertainment but they still follow the said agreement and always be careful because if the major shareholders will join forces then they will never get a chance to have it again.
