

Last Man 441

chapter 441 – Finally their worries got release

Lina leaves right after bidding her farewell to her former colleagues and on the way to CA Entertainment because knowing her father, husband and friend are all worried about her, so she goes directly to them. It's almost 10 pm when she arrives at the CA Entertainment Premises.

On the other hand, the teams are still waiting for the update about her from Officer Cai. The couple Rei and Tae just call their parents that they are still in the CA Entertainment Premises for the team's urgent meeting of them and they ask about the twins.

Mr. Hwang and Wen just seating in the conference room silently but among them, they are the most nervous one especially Wen since he still has no update from his superior aka Officer Cai. Wen planning to call him but then knowing that they are on a mission, he didn't and just waiting for his calls but then again he didn't receive any calls from them. He looks to the other couple namely Rei and Tae, who's Rei already sleeping at Tae's shoulder that his worries getting worst since his wife is also pregnant and most of all almost 8 months pregnant.

Tae feels the sudden gaze from that someone and then looking to that someone who's gazing at him. After realizing who is it, he said to him with an assurance of his words though he understands what he feels right now because he is also a married man and husband himself who's very doting to his wife.

"Mr. Lu, she will be safe and Mrs. Lu is a strong woman, so nothing happened to her".

"Yeah I know and thanks for your words Mr. Jun".

"You're welcome Mr. Lu".

Mr. Hwang just looking at the two husbands meanwhile Tae's teammates and Managers except Rei got surprised again because of Tae's actions.

Almost 10 pm, Mr. Hwang suggests to the teams.

“Guys, all of you can go home first. I and Wen will both wait here for the updates of my daughter.”

Han speak as the representative of M’dol Managers “it’s alright Mr. Hwang, we will also wait for the update of Artist Director Lina”.

Yun speak as the representative of M’dols “same with us Mr. Hwang”

Tae also following up “I and Rei will also wait for Mr. Hwang especially knowing my wife, she will be getting worried more if she didn’t hear any updates of Mrs. Lu when we got home.”

“I see thank you guys but as for you Tae, you have two little ones waiting at home”.

“Yeah, and we will leave around 11 pm since the two little ones will be waking up around that time”.

At that moment all of them heard a knock from the conference room that causes Rei to wake up from that noise since all employees and personnel of CA Entertainment except for the Securities duty at night already got home.

All of them except Wen ask at the same time “eh, are we expecting another guest today?” Then they heard another knock again.

“Knock, knock, and knock”

Instead of San as the youngest of the Team, Wen automatically stands from his seat and opens the door while thinking that it’s Officer Cai.

“How is it...” didn’t able to finish since he realized who is it. “H—Honey, a — are you alright? Did you hurt somewhere? Did....” He got cut off by Lina because she knows that her husband will be throwing a lot of questions since he is really worried about her.

“I’m alright Wen” then hug him softly since she’s almost 8 months pregnant and continue, “I thought I was going to die, I’m already thinking that I will priority our daughter first before me but this necklace really help us. You have such a wonderful best friend Wen”

“I’m sorry, I’m.....”

“No it’s not your fault nor mine and no one’s at fault except the kidnapper since they got blind of revenge but nothing happened to me”

Rei also stands from her seat when Wen is the one opening the door along with Tae since he followed his wife. Their distances are so close with them but they didn’t interrupt them since they are still talking until that time when the two both silent and just hugging each other, Rei interrupt them.

“Are you really alright Lina?” Rei forgot to address her as Artist Director Lina.

On the other hand, Lina looking at Rei and didn’t mind what she called to her since she knows how worried she is. She releases her hugs from her husband and conversing with her friend. “Yes I’m alright Rei and by the way, how about you? I mean your twins are already for both of you, right?”

“They will wake up around 11 pm and looking for food so it’s still safe for us, I and Tae are waiting for your updates.”

“Thanks for your concern Rei and don’t forget that you’re also pregnant.” Rei didn’t reply to her instead she checking up on her that Lina notices her actions. “Rei, I’m really alright, promise. Although I really got kidnapped they didn’t do anything to me so I’m really fine at all.”

“I I see”

Lina smiled at her friend’s antics and then looking to his Dad who also has the same expression as Rei since her husband is paler compared to her as if the one who got kidnapped was her husband Wen instead of her.

“Dad, I got you worried”

Mr. Hwang clearing his throat since he got caught red-handed by his daughter of how worried he is and just state to her. "We didn't disclose about this matter since you know how the entertainment media works and of course the police forces working it confidentiality".

"I see and thank you for that Dad".

"Alright everyone, Managers, and guys thank you for worrying about my daughter, and please keep it confidential and no one else than us know about this matter."

"Yes Mr. Hwang"

"Alright let's dismissed and see you tomorrow"

"Yes Mr. Hwang"

"Wen and Lina, let's go"

chapter 442 – Checking the gender of the baby

The Jun couple leaves first after securing that Lina is alright while the other Managers and M'dols leave after the couple.

After the series of this trouble, the team slowly making at ease since Mr. Zhang already been caught but it doesn't count that they let their guard down and all of them including the entire CA Family are taking measures for the safety that they didn't know what the real situation except the team is since Mr. Hwang only instruct them to not let their guard down.

One week after Lina got kidnapped and rescued, Rei along with Tae, go to the hospital for a prenatal check-up of course the main reason is to know the gender of the baby. Rei just marks her 1st semestral of pregnancy thought she's already three months pregnant it's still not obvious that she's pregnant since her stomach still not bulging.

They arrived at the hospital and waiting for Doc Annie since she's still attending another patient. So while waiting, Tae and Rei just seating at the bench but suddenly Tae said out of nowhere that Rei didn't get what he means.

"3 months left Hon"

"Eh, 3 months left? What do you mean?"

Tae looking to his wife and taps her head "silly, 3 months left before I'm going to enlist and two years for us to not seeing with each other."

"T—that I almost forgot that one since you're always with me Tae and from what I know about here in S Country, you have a 1-day break from your enlistment every month so we can see each other 1 day every month, right?"

"Right but it won't be enough" Tae only reply this one and didn't tell what he really plan because he knows very well that his wife really trust him that much but it doesn't that he will take advantage of it because he knows that human nature has limitation although his wife almost doesn't have limitations, he will make sure that they will never separate with each other.

On the other hand, Rei observing her husband and notice that he had another plan but she didn't ask because Tae will tell at the right time, so she only replied to him. "Right that won't be enough but still you are lucky enough that we got married before enlisting since I'm not a Senian, right?"

Again Tae taps her ear "indeed I'm lucky enough that we are husband and wife or else I will be get worried while enlisting after knowing that my woman is surrounded by wolves."

"Ha, ha, ha silly and even if I'm Senian you still be safe because I won't ever break up with you". Tae got caught off guard and blush hard. "Eh, why are you blushing?"

"It's because of you"

Rei laugh and lay her head on his shoulder then ask him "you have my picture, right?"

“Yeah I have”

“Then every time you miss me, just look at my picture and if you also miss our babies then look at our family picture, okay?”

“Uh-uh” then c.a.r.e.s.sing his wife’s w.o.m.b “too bad I can’t see the features of our little boy since I’m already away the moment you give birth to him”.

“I can still send our youngest picture to you, remember? And wait, how are you really sure that it’s not our little girl?”

“My guts tell me that it’s our little boy and Hon”

“Mmmm?”

“Did you forget that we are here in S Country and not you’re Hometown Country?”

“I didn’t, why do you ask?”

“Well here in S Country, the enlists is not allowed to bring any devices while on Compulsory Service Duty”

“Eh?”

“Ha, ha, ha so you really forgot?”

“Uh-uh, so I can’t send any pictures to you for two years and then you can have any of those devices, right?”

“Among them, this is the only one- Alarm and Tracker Device, I can bring since it’s not yet out of the market. In other words, you can only check me where am I while in the camp.”

“I see and it means that we really got separated with each other for two years since no communications and other means for us to know our updates for that whole two years.”

“Silly” then Tae whisper to Rei “remember your identity Hon and you will know my updates if you use your other identity, right?”

Rei wrap her arms to Tae’s neck and replied to him very softly “right but then it will be unfair to you since you won’t know about my update and so to be fair, I won’t do that”

“I guess so”

Rei looking at him and closing her distance to kiss him that she forgot that they’re in a public place until one centimeter left to land her lips to her husband someone interrupting them.

“Ehem, ehem, and since when did you become aggressive Rei?”

“Eh?” Rei got surprised, unhook her arms then looking to where the voice came from. “And what do you mean by that Ms. Na?”

“Ha, ha, ha well just look to your surroundings and you will know why”

Rei looking at their surroundings and just realized what she means that cause her to get embarrassed but still defending. “W—what’s w—wrong w—with t—that w—when in fact I’m just going to kiss my husband and we’re legally married”.

“Ha, ha, ha right and you are right but then why are you stuttering?”

“Na, why are you teasing Rei? Go back to your work and don’t disturb Rei.”

“Tsk Mom I’m just here to warn this couple that they are in a public place since everyone is stopping their work and watch this PDA couple but then who knows that it’s Rei and Mr. Jun.”

“You already know from the start that it’s Rei and Mr. Jun but then you only come here to tease them, right?”

“Nah, I’m really here to warn them since everyone really watching them.”

“Ehem, ehem, and Ms. Na, where’s Rui?” Rei changing the topic because she’s already embarrassed enough though she didn’t do any wrong since they are husband and wife still they’ve become a PDA Couple. For her, she doesn’t mind if they’ve become a PDA Couple since they already married but among the watchers from the hospital they are kids with them, at least they really did not kiss since Na is fast enough to stop and that’s the reason why Na interrupt instead of taking videos since the patients who are kids are also watching.

“Oh, my Rui start staying at Jinyu after the holiday breaks since he will enroll this year. Oh, right I’m going to work now bye Rei and Mr. Jun. By the way Rei, you can continue what you did awhile when you arrive at your house and do more. Ha, ha, ha” chapter 443 – Confirmed, it’s a baby boy

Na leaves her mom and the couple speechless until when she’s out of sight comment it out loud.

“I wonder what Rui will become when he becomes a grown-up man knowing that his Mom is like this”.

“.....” The couple got speechless.

“Alright let’s come in Rei and Mr. Jun”

The two come in right away and Rei didn’t wait for Doc Annie’s instructions since she already knows what to do because it’s her second time already.

“Remembering your first day here Rei, it still didn’t come out from my mind since its very remarkable day”

“T— that” Rei got embarrassed.

Doc Annie also doing her job while talking to Rei “it’s alright Rei because no one will expect to have a calm reaction after knowing being pregnant and no mothers have a normal reaction since most of them will really have a surprising reaction. Though your reaction is quite unique since you didn’t know that you’re pregnant when in fact you already did s.e.x.u.a.l i.n.t.e.r.c.o.u.r.s.e with Mr. Jun but at least you did listen to your instinct because I have some patients who got miscarriage since they don’t know that they are pregnant.”

“.....” Rei didn’t reply and just listen since she’s almost got a miscarriage when she overworks herself.

Annie remembers it and said to her “oh, right you almost got miscarriage but at least Na is with you that time. Ha, ha, ha and who did expect that spoiled Na becomes your savior during that time, right?”

“Well during that time Na been advising me to get more sleep but then I didn’t listen to her”.

“And that day Na becomes more herself, thanks to you Rei. By the way, are you also not going to know the gender of your baby like last time?”

“No Mom since Tae will be enlisting this coming May” Rei started calling Doc Annie as Mom since both her and Na insisting Rei call her Mom since they already treat Rei as a family member.

“I see” then Annie focuses her attention back on her computer screen. Several minutes pass by, she prints the sonogram and gives it to Rei. “Here’s your sonogram Rei” Rei accepts the said sonogram from her. “Both you and Mr. Jun will have a baby boy. You’re estimated due date will be on August 10 this year. Since it’s your second-time pregnancy, you already know and aware of what the do’s and don’ts.”

“Thank you, Mom and we will be leaving now”

“You’re welcome and be careful”

“Yes Mom”

The couple leaves right away to her office and now they're inside the car. Tae's start the engine and drives the car but then suddenly change their direction away from their way home.

"Did you forget something Dear?"

"No I didn't but....." Tae has a gloomy expression that's why Rei butted in.

Rei notices his expression and butted in right away "even if you're away with us, I won't miss a day of telling to our babies that you loved them and how much you want to spend your days with them. Of course, I won't also forget to tell our babies that they have the best father and a talented father."

"You're exaggerating it Hon"

"No, I'm not"

"Ha, ha, thanks"

"So then where are we going?"

"Let's buy today for Rei Won clothes while we are still free today"

"I see and what about the two little ones?"

"Silly, of course, we will buy for the two little ones or else they will get jealous over with their younger brother"

"They are still babies so they won't feel anything but then how did you feel when you heard from Doc Annie that's it's a baby boy?"

“Well, I already guess it much but then after confirming that it’s really a baby boy I’m really happy that my heart almost exploding from happiness”.

“Ha, ha, ha you’re the one exaggerating Dear”

“I’m not” then right away he holds her hand and put it on top of his c.h.e.s.t “see?”

“Whoa, you really are.”

“Told you and don’t forget that you will name him Rei Won. Then you will let him see my music videos, my singing performance, and anything else that’s about me while I’m away. Of course not including my collection since it’s only exclusive for both of us and it’s not appropriate for them to watch it.”

Rei ignores the later part and asks him “so do you want our little boy Rei Won, to become like you?”

“It’s up to him including Woo Rei and Rei Woo and to our future children’s since I know you well Hon that you won’t interfere about our child’s dream since they are free to choose what they want, of course, we will only guide them as a parent, right?”

“Uh-uh, but then you really want from our children to follow you, right?”

“Yeah I really want it but then entertainment worlds are really messy and we both know that enough so I don’t want our children to face what we face right now.”

“You’re right but then I want you to be happy Dear. Well if someday one of them follows your lead then I’m making sure that they will be alright and of course, in the future, they will have Ken who protects them all”.

“Speaking about Ken, how his performance now?”

“Ken is a fast learner just like his Mom and Dad but then I teach him slowly since we’re not in a rush and of course he still has his studies.”

“As expected from your genes Hon” at the moment Tae parks the car at the nearest sideways and stops the car since his car doesn’t have an auto-drive mode then kisses his wife right away.

And when they out of breath, Rei asks him “why did you kiss me suddenly?”

“Don’t know but I have an urge to kiss you”

“Silly but then you forgot that they will notice us inside”

“Oh right we’re using the SUV at the moment and not yours”

“Well it’s not my fault if we become the entertainment headline news again”

“Yeah but then we didn’t do anything and we’re legally husband and wife.”

chapter 444 – Shopping for babies 1

Right at that moment, some paparazzo’s who are still following them got a nice view when Tae kiss his wife. So while the couple still on the way to the shopping mall, they’ve become trending again to the entertainment news.

[Entertainment Headlines News: M’dols Woo and Manager Rei kiss inside the car at Central Highway, read the articles for more details.]

Of course, some fans and anti-fans react after reading the title of the articles since the couple kissing while inside the car and at the same time they're at the Central Highway. Fans are only concerns about the two well being since they might get an accident while the Anti-fans are criticizing the two by reason for only showing it off that they love each other when in fact they're not that sweet when they're alone. But then when they read more details they got speechless since the couple car park at the sideways that they didn't obstruct in the middle of highways.

On the other hand, the Managers and Members who got rejected by Tae since they have another schedule read the said news.

"Oh, so this is the reason why we got rejected by Tae, huh".

"Geez Yun you've become like a fan of Tae but then I heard from Manager Rei that she has an appointment with an ob-gyn from JL Hospital and Tae is driving and escorting her so that's why they can't come here since Manager Rei appointment time also coincides with us."

"Yeah right Bro Yun"

"Right my a.s.s and aside from Manager Rei and that show off Tae, Manager Han is also not with us."

"Well Manager Han said that he had family matters to do and today is our free time before we become busy again"

After that explanation from Manager Wang, all of sudden the members suddenly speak out together.

"Then let's have a surprise visit to Manager Han".

"Hey, hey guys what are you talking about?"

"Are you with us Manager Chi, Manager Li, and Manager Wang?" Ask by all members of M'dols except Tae since he is out with his wife.

“But Manager Han said it’s family matters...”

“Nah we already a family since the time we debut and of course, aside from Manager Rei who recently we got to know her family members only Manager Han didn’t talk about his family so it’s time to know who are they, right?”

“.....” All the three Managers got speechless since San is really right and then all of them heard Yun something to San.

“San, while you’re at it call Manager Rei and invite the two with us”.

“Eh, but did Manager Rei still had an appointment today?”

“Not at the moment since they have already done with their appointment of course how well they did get this scope if the two are still in the hospital right?”

“Right”

Then San automatically dials his Manager Rei number and already set up it on hands-free mode.

“Ring, ring, ring”

“Yes, Hello San?”

“Did I disturb you Manager Rei?” “Not really since Tae is the one driving”

“He, he, he”

“What is it San and why are you calling my wife?”

“Geez Bro Tae and please control yourself or else the next article will be M’dols Woo and Manager Rei did the deeds in the car”.

“So someone got scope from us when I’m kissing Rei inside the car, right?”

“Yeah, and you kiss Manager Rei while you are in the Central Highway so please control your partner Tae or else you will be in danger of having an accident.”

“Ha, ha, ha why so gloomy Bro Yun, you will meet your woman in the next two weeks, remember.”

“It’s not about me and it’s about you silly”.

“By the way, Tae ignore Yun for the meantime, and let me ask if you still driving at the moment?”

“No, since we just arrived here in S Capital Shopping Mall, Manager Wang”

“Well that’s good but why are you careless of kissing your wife on a central highway?”

“Ha, ha, ha I don’t what kind of articles you read guys since it’s not the full details. I park the car first at the sideways stops before kissing Rei or else I will be get scolded by Rei personally if I’ve become careless.”

“....”

“By the way guys, why did you call? Sorry for not coming there but maybe we can catch up after here”

“It’s alright Manager Rei but then, you are supposed to have an appointment in JL Hospital, right Manager Rei?”

“Yes I have San but it’s already done and we’re here in the shopping mall to buy some baby necessities.”

“So then why are you calling my wife San?”

“We plan to have a surprising visit to Manager Han’s house since most of us doesn’t know about everything about Manager Han aside from being married and have two children.”

“Hon, what time right now?”

“It still around 10 am now so mostly we will be done after lunch.”

“Geez you really show off Bro Tae when in fact you have wrist-watch on your left hand”

“Well sorry by my left hand is holding my wife’s hands.”

The team ignoring Tae’s being show off of his affections toward his wife and they ask at the same time.
“Manager Rei, are you both free and coming with us?”

On the other hand, Rei received a signal from her husband “okay and so what time?”

“Let’s meet in there around 1 pm since its 5 kilometers away from Manager Han house”

“Okay”

“Alright, I’m hanging up now everyone since I and my wife are still going to shop for our babies’ necessities.” Then he hung up right away.

“Tot, tot, tot, tot”

“Nowadays Tae / Bro Tae become more person and human after meeting Manager Rei”.

Back to Rei and Tae

After Tae hung up the phone, Rei reminded him.

“It’s your teammates Dear and don’t be too cold to them, okay”

“Nah I didn’t and for sure they more feel that I’ve become a human after meeting since I’m always replying to them if it’s really necessary.”

“Just like me, huh”

“Nah very different to me, although we are both chic and cold type, you are more a person compared to me.”

“Huh?”

“Well no one other than me and your family members know about the real you but then you treated your friends and colleagues with fair and kind treatment and I observe that during those days that I’m still a stalker of you.”

“I’m really like that?”

Tapping her nose and said, “of course you are and that’s why I always fall in love with you more every day”.

“Silly” Rei blushing hard while smiling which causes Tae to almost loses his self-control.

Tae got caught off guard because his wife smiles while blushing and he whispered to his wife seductively “can I eat you tonight?”

“.....” Rei didn’t reply instead just tap her husband’s c.h.e.s.t and writing an ‘OK’ on her ring finger.

On the other hand, Tae got blushed because of her actions and then he realized something. "Ah, right I forgot to ask that one."

chapter 445 – Shopping for babies 2

"Ah, right I forgot to ask that one."

"Forgot to ask that one, about what?"

Tae whisper to his wife "I forgot to ask Doc Annie if it's alright with me doing it every night"

Rei almost got speechless because of her husband but then she still replying to him in a whisper "when I'm carrying the twins before we only allowed doing the deeds once a week but I guess it's different this time since I'm only carrying one so maybe it's alright for us and doing the deeds every night until your enlistment date, of course, you will do it gently and only 5 rounds every night, okay?"

"Okay but just to be safe I'm still going to ask Doc Annie about those matters"

"Okay"

"Alright let's go now since we will go to meet the team later." Then hold Rei's hands and they walk side by side. "Geez, it's our free time today yet we're going to meet the teams later and so what's the purpose of having free time today, huh?"

"Ha, ha, ha you're complaining my dear husband"

“Yeah, I’m really are.”

“Ha, ha, ha silly”

“Let’s visit here first, Hon”

Rei looking to the said shop and just realized that’s it’s a chocolate shop. “Eh, you want chocolate?”

“No not for me but for you, Ken, and Ellyn since it’s almost Valentine’s day”.

“I see”

Then the couple entered the said shop and buys some chocolates for her and the kids. Of course, some customers are looking to their ways, and then some asking Tae’s autograph including Rei as a married couple since they recognized the two of them.

A few minutes later after the couple left the said shop, again Tae suddenly looking somewhere, he stops followed by Rei and then looking at his wife. Rei, on the other hand also looking at her husband and quite confusing because of her husband’s actions.

Tae just smiles and whispers to his wife “my money is too useless because my wife also had her own money and most of all my wife didn’t like to wear jewelry.”

“So you want to buy jewelry for me?”

“Yeah I really, really want it but then you only have two necklaces which one of them is for that purpose and the other one is given by me when we are still dating, one ring for the wedding ring and then one pair of earring in order of the hole of your ears will not disappear.”

Rei quiet speechless and then looking to where Tae looking before deciding to go to that place “Alright, let’s go to that shop and you can only buy one piece of jewelry for me, is that alright for you?”

“Mmm,” he nodded while smiling and they go right away to that shop.

When they entered the jewelry shop, all personnel of the shop recognizes them and some are arguing who's going to attend them until then their Shop Manager stop them and she's the one attending the couple instead of them.

“Good Morning Ma'am and Sir, how may I help you?”

“I'm looking for jewelry that suited well to my wife”

“I see and please follow me Sir and Ma'am”, she leads the couple to the other counter which is a display full of earrings, necklaces, rings, and any other jewelry that you can find from the jewelry shop.

“These are the latest pieces of jewelry that we have Sir and Ma'am”.

Tae looking at the said pieces of jewelry while Rei just watching her husband finding the right jewelry for her.

A few minutes later, Tae point to one jewelry from that display “this one please Miss”

“Yes Sir” then she gets the said jewelry.

“By the way, Miss can you personalize it?”

“Yes Sir we can but then you need to pay an additional fee for the labor and you can claim it here after one week or we will deliver it at your doorstep.”

“Okay and here's the delivery address” Tae gives his calling card to the lady, of course, it's already updated since he used the address of their house, the Jun Residence, and the same with Rei since she also updated her calling address from Din Lou Rei to Jun Lou Rei since they're already disclosing their relationship.

“How will you pay it Sir, credit card, debit card, or cash?”

“Debit Card and here’s my card”

Several minutes passed by, the said manager has already done processing the payment and she asks Tae signature to confirm the said payment of his item. Of course, Tae gives the design for the necklace that he picks with ‘Tae ♥ Rei’.

They leave right away but then again they got stop by the passersby who recognized them and ask their autograph.

After being separated from his fans “geez my cap and sunglasses are both worth as my disguise every time I go out but this time it didn’t work anymore since my wife beauty is too recognizable that you can’t help it but be entrance with it the moment the eye of the beholder will land to your beauty, Hon.”

“Silly and is it because we already got another article during that time since the team said so, right?”

“Not at all”

Then Rei whisper to Tae “we can use our hidden bodyguards you know?”

He whispers back to his wife “then if we do that then they will know your identity, right?”

“Ha, ha, ha, right but I’m just kidding”

“Alright let’s go now to the baby’s station and then next to the Kid’s station”

Rei didn’t ask why they will go to the Kid’s station because she already knows why. It’s because Tae will be away from them for 2 years, so by the time he got discharge their twins will be two years and a half then Rei Won will be turning two. She only lets Tae picks the clothes for their kids since she will be with the twins compared to Tae who will be away with them for two years.

“Ah, Tae you still going to buy a baby crib for Rei Won?”

“Yes I will since the twins still using their baby cribs by the time you will give birth to Rei Won”. He replied then he found something and asks his wife “are you still going to visit your hometown when I’m not around?”

“Yes, and it will be on year-end but don’t worry because Ken and Ellyn are with me so they can help carry the twins”.

“I see and so I will buy this one” picks that item which is a baby carrier for his wife.

Tae picks and picks the items for their babies while Rei just following her husband since she wraps her arm to Tae’s left arm. After twenty minutes of picking items for their babies, they are now lining up for the counter and Rei gives something to Tae.

“Here Tae” give their joint debit card but Tae didn’t accept it.

“No it’s alright Hon and let me pay it”.

“Eh, then what about mine, it’s for our babies you know.”

“I know”

“Okay but only this time because I don’t want you to spend your money only for us and not with yourself, it’s your efforts after all. Of course, you have the right to spend your money on Mom, Dad, and Sis since they are your immediate family”.

Tae smiled and reply while tapping her head “silly and for your information, you and our kids are now my immediate family so you are now my first priority. Of course, it’s my job after all because I’m the wall of our house.”

Rei snuggle to him and said, “then what’s the use of my income?”

“For yourself, for Mama, for them – Rei’s siblings, nieces and nephews – and most of all for our kids”

“Eh, then how about you, are you not going to spend my money?”

“Of course I will but only the time when I’m already out of entertainment worlds.”

“Right but then you have such a large of savings you know”. Tae got amused because of Rei that it can’t help but he laughs out loud that only got reminded by his wife. “We’re in public you know.”

“I know” then whisper to her “but then who from us forgot that we’re in public that you almost kiss me, huh?”

“Geez it’s me but at least it’s only an attempt, not the one who kisses me on the central highway”.

“Silly and.....” He got interrupted by someone since they already in the counter area and their turn to pay.

“Excuse me, Sir”

“Ah, sorry I didn’t notice that it’s our turn already.”

“.....” The cashier got speechless but then return back to reality and asks the couple “how will you pay Sir and Ma’am?”

“Debit Card Miss”

“I see”

chapter 446 – Lunch Date

The cashier picks the items and scans the barcode of the items, after almost 15 minutes of scanning the barcodes since Tae buy a lot of items for their babies, the cashier just finishes with scanning the barcodes of the items and now processing the payment. Of course, the bagger also packs a lot of items. Two baggers assist the couple and put first the items inside the car, well the same with his wife, Tae also give tips to the two-baggers secretly since they are not allowed to accept any tips from their customers. They make sure first that the items are now inside the car before locking the car and go to a restaurant for their lunch date before meeting the team.

They go to a Ceno Style Restaurant and pick a seat before selecting their orders from the said menu. Both Tae and Rei read the menus then order later.

“This restaurant has Ceno Style but then they use Senians Designs including for their menus”.

“Ha, ha silly and the owners of this might be a Ceno inspires so that’s why this restaurant has Ceno Style on it.”

Tae looking to the menu again and suddenly said to his wife “let’s find another restaurant Hon”

“You didn’t like it here?”

“Uh-uh, and I have the guts that they are and it has a different taste from the real thing.”

“I see but then we already seated here, so let’s just buy some dessert for not being rude, okay?”

“Okay and so what do you want?”

“You will let me chose?”

“Uh-uh”

“Then here” Rei points to a slice of Coffee-Caramel Cake and orange juice”

“Okay and that would be enough.” Then Tae calls one of the restaurant staff and order what Rei just pick. Several minutes, their orders got served. “Here Hon”

“You’re not going to eat?”

“Uh-uh”

Rei eat the cake and give some to Tae “here, it’s yummy and more delicious than my cake”

“Are you sure, Hon?”

“Uh-uh” then Tae gives a bite “and so how is it?”

“It’s yummy indeed but no one can beat you, so you’re cake is more delicious compared to this”.

“Tsk what a bias husband you are but then I guess the foods here are also yummy and.....” Rei stop when she realized that Tae is covering his mouth that it looks like he is going to vomit. “Are you alright?”

Tae nodded but still covering his mouth.

“I have water in my bag”

Tae grab the bottle from his wife’s bag and drink it then heard Rei worried voice.

“Are you really alright?”

“Uh-uh but then I suddenly urge to do that the moment I ate the cake.”

“I see” then Rei suddenly call the waiter and said, “can I wrap this and can I ask for the bill already?”

“Yes Ma’am”

“Why did you stop Hon?”

“It looks like that you’re the one having the symptoms compared to me and maybe our little boy doesn’t like it”

“Huh?”

“I read from some articles that it possible that the husband will be the one experiencing it rather than the pregnant wife and it’s proven from your actions Dear”.

“Huh?”

“I will prove it to you later but let’s go out from here first”.

“..... Okay,” Tae still confuse and only agreed to his wife.

After getting the take out cake and juice, the two leave the restaurant and didn’t need for signature since Rei paid in cash. 5 meters away from the restaurant, they found another restaurant and this time it’s a Senian Restaurant. Again they are looking for a table of two first, then take a seat before looking at the menu. They ordered their favorites and then they eat, this time Tae didn’t feel the same thing as what he feels before. In the middle of their eat, Tae’s phone rings and he answered.

“Yes, Bro Yun?”

"I and the teams are eating our lunch at the moment, so we might invite you and Rei here in Sen-Len Restaurant".

"Well I and Rei already eating our lunch so I might decline your offers."

"Tsk and by the way we will meet in the parking area since we park the team besides your car"

"Are you a stalker?"

"Ha, ha, ha not me but you are. Well goodbye, and enjoy your Lunch Date with Rei" then Yun hung up right away.

"Tsk Bro Yun quite gloomy today. Well, no wonder since his woman is not around. Good job Hon for giving her work."

"Huh?"

"Never mind and by the way they already here. They also happened to eat here".

"Eh, then where?"

"Never mind them Hon and let's enjoy our lunch date because we will meet them later."

Rei poke his cheeks and tease "don't tell me you've become jelly again?"

"Of course who would be? It's only rare for me to have my wife solo since the two of us are always with the team. Most of all I've been with them for 15 years already."

"Silly" Rei smile and stands, then she gives a peck kiss to her husband before seating down again "and you're the only one who can receive my kiss".

Tae holds his cheek while blushing “are you aware that we’re in public?”

“Yes I’m aware and that’s the reason why I only give you a peck kiss on your cheek”.

“Hai, hai but then they got a picture of you while giving me a peck kiss” explaining while pointing the other customers.

“It doesn’t matter since it’s only a” Rei got stop since Tae give her a passionate kiss.

“That’s the kiss I want” then returns to his seat and eats normally as if he didn’t kiss his wife passionately.

“.....” Rei got speechless while blushing and become awkward because the other customers are taking pictures of them kissing and this time it’s on the lips and a very passionate one compared to her peck kiss.

Tae understands Rei’s awkwardness and knows that his wife is not really a fan of showing off so he explains softly. “It’s alright Hon and it’s just, I just want us to become a PDA Couple before I enlist.”

“Geez silly and I’m not embarrassed about what you did since we are legally husband and wife but still I’m not used to showing off so it’s a little bit awkward for me but then don’t worry because I will be used of it, okay?”

“Okay” Tae agreed right away as if he just like a kid right now who got a new toy from his mother.

Rei notices and laughs smoothly “you look like a kid Dear”

“Geez Hon and please don’t compare me to a kid because you know very well that I’m not like that, right?”

“...” Rei got speechless while blushing hard.

“See and you really get what I mean”

“Silly”

“Hai, hai I’m silly but let’s eat now and we will wait for the team inside our car”

“Hai, hai Dear”.

chapter 447 – Waiting the others

At that moment, the couple eats their food while chatting and then pay for their food. Of course, Tae is the one paying it and now they are walking while holding hands to the parking area. They got passed from the jewelry shop before and then Rei something, so she asks her husband.

“By the way, what designed did you give awhile ago?”

“Secret and you will know the moment it arrived.”

“For sure it will be both have our names, right?”

“Who knows?”

“Tsk, neh Tae?”

“Hmmm?”

“I Love You”

“.....” Tae got speechless.

Rei looking to her husband since he didn't reply “I said I love you”

“Geez, I heard it Hon and you know well that I will be lost control of myself every time I heard that one from you”

“Eh and don't tell that you are now”.

“Yes you got it and look to my partner below”

Rei looking down and realized that it's really awakening up “geez, patience Dear, patience”

“I know but geez you really know how to tease me, huh”

“I didn't you know”

“Ah, here we are”

“Geez Dear your voice”

“I can't help it you know since you light the fire on me”

“.....”

“Tsk, they really park the team car beside our car”

“Are we waiting for them here?”

“Uh-uh but let’s wait inside”

“Okay and you also need to compose yourself, Dear”

“It’s not my fault you know.”

The two entered the car and after several minutes, Tae still didn’t back to normal since his partner is still active at the moment, Rei on the other hand just looking at him and said.

“I can only touch it since we cannot do that here because the car window is not tinted”

“O—okay but don’t get it to worsen, okay?”

“Okay but don’t groan in order for us not to be discovered here.” Tae just nodded while Rei inserting her right hand into his pants and c.a.r.e.s.sing his partner. To make it not obvious, the two of them are looking at their phones. Tae controls his groan because if not, he’s only getting it worst since Rei only helps to compose again and lets his partner calming down. After 30 minutes of c.a.r.e.s.sing her husband’s partner, Rei feels that it’s already not hard and already return to normal.

“Is it okay to stop now?”

“Uh-uh, thanks Hon” then Rei pull out her hand from his pants and applied sanitizer to not being caught with the team.

“That’s good then and I will spray the car to erase the evidence, okay?”

“Yes, you can” then Rei spray the car right away and then put it inside the compartment. At the same time, both of them heard a knock from the window that they said in sync.

“What the and that was so close enough”. Then the two looking at each other but then they didn’t get have any reactions for not getting caught and both turning their heads as if they’re fighting.

'Tae, that was so close enough. Close enough for being caught from your teammates and managers'. Tae reprimanded himself and then open the car door as if nothing happened, he goes out and approaches the team.

"Geez, you're too slow guys and Managers". Yun said frankly "geez you must glad and very thankful for all of us since we give you time to be lovey-dovey with Rei".

"Huh?"

San follows up "don't pretend Bro Tae since the moment you and Sis Rei leave in the restaurant, you cause a commotion since you passionately kiss her".

"You saw that?"

All said in sync "of course who wouldn't be when in fact you kiss her in public"

"....."

"So then are you thankful for us Tae, for giving you 30 minutes to satisfy yourself, right?"

"I'm not that weak Bro Yun and 30 minutes is not enough for me, how about you? Are 30 minutes really enough for you?" Yun suddenly blushes because of Tae's comment while Tae thinking the right answers for his question 'though 30 minutes is enough for me to calm down'.

Since Yun got teased back by Tae, he ignored him and knocking the car window again for Rei to go out. Then Rei got out and heard the leader complaining about her husband.

"Rei, Tae teasing me again".

"Is that true Tae?"

“Well Bro Yun teasing me first so I just tease him back”

Rei including the other members and Managers got speechless because of these two members who are both older among their teammates. While being speechless all of them are looking at them skeptically.

Both Yun and Tae notice their expression and they ask at the same time “what’s wrong?”

All of them answered together “both of you look like a kid fighting for your Mother’s attention”.

“Kid?” they nodded while the two answered in sync “well my Rei / my Lucy know very well if I’m really a kid or not”.

“.....” The team except Rei got speechless.

On the other hand, Rei changing the topic right away, or else what’s the reason why she did that a while ago if her husband partner will awakening up again after calming it down for almost 30 minutes.

“Right guys and Managers, so why do we need to give Manager Han a surprise visit?” She already knows their reason for gatherings here since Tae already explained it to her.

“Ah right and speaking that one Manager Rei, the members decide to suddenly visit Manager Han because all of us here are not yet aware of his family members except for knowing that he’s married and have two children.”

“I see but then Manager Wang, did Manager Han told us that he has family matters today?”

“That’s what I said to them but they are unstoppable”

“I see then did you buy something for them since we’re going to visit them uninvited?”

After hearing that one from Rei, all of them got speechless because they really didn't buy anything for Manager Han and his family members. "....."

"I see but then Tae and I already bought something for Manager Han and his family members so I guess this will serve as Team Presents, right?"

"No, it's alright Manager Rei and all of us well contributing each for our presents to Manager Han since your present is for the two of you as a couple". After Manager Wang's reasoning out, the members and the other members are contributing money and give it to him. "Alright, 10 minutes guys, and wait for us here". Both Manager Wang and Manager Li leave right away to buy something for Manager Han.

"Are you supposed to shop for baby necessities today, right Tae?"

"Geez Bro Yun you're underestimating me and what do you think of my wife, huh?"

"....." Yun got speechless and the others except Rei said at the same time "here we go again".

chapter 448 – Manager Han surprise house visit 1

At exactly 10 minutes, the two Managers who buy something in a rush for Manager Han got back from them and then they leave. The teams are using the Team Car drive by Manager Wang while the couple on their own car which Tae is the one driving. The team car going first followed by the couple's car and after a few minutes of the drive, they arrived at Manager Han's place. They know the place but it's their first time visiting Manager Han's house.

Both Manager Wang and Tae park the car appropriately and now all of them are standing outside the gate of Manager Han's house. The members and the Managers are skeptical since Manager Han residing in a big house that causes them to hesitate if they are going to press the doorbell or not.

Yun: Neh Rei?

Rei: Yes?

Yun: I remember that you said before that Manager Han belongs first to CA International and Group Company, right?

Rei: Oh right I said that one and why did you ask?

All : (Including Tae since Rei is not the type to tell other's personal stories) t—then what Manager Han position before? (All of them realized that Tae is also not aware so they ask in sync) eh Tae / Bro Tae you don't know?

Tae: You already know my wife well so I don't know anything except my wife's background.

All: I see then Rei please tell us?

Rei: Well you can ask that from Manager Han when we entered his house since I only heard from my Seniors and Superior that there's a Head Manager in the Main Branch who always got an excellent award every year from the moment that Manager join the family until he leaves,

All: That's Manager Han?

Rei: Uh-uh now let's press this one. (Then Rei press the doorbell right away)

Dare, tmre, tare, tmre

And then all of them heard a female voice, Han's housekeeper.

"Yes, who it might be?"

All of them looking at Rei and without choice, Rei is the one conversing with the housekeeper.

"We are here to visit Manager Han and we are his teams."

“Okay and I will inform Sir Han for a moment”

“Thanks and we will wait here”

The housekeeper leaves right away and then presses the intercom connected to the study room.

“Sir Han, there’s a visitors for you and they are waiting outside”

Manager Han pause a moment and ask “visitors today? Did they give their names?”

“No they didn’t but the lady said it’s your team Sir and they are in a team compose of 1 pretty lady, 3 old men, and 6 pretty men”.

‘1 Pretty Lady, 3 old men and 6 pretty men’s, don’t tell me it’s them?’

“Sir Han?”

“Ah yes let them come in and instruct them to wait for me in the living room since I’m still busy at the moment.”

“Yes Sir” then the housekeeper leaves right away.

“Eh, Dad you have another visitor aside from us?”

“You stay here and we are still not finished talking”

“My, my, my, you are still grumpy my husband?”

“Of course how would I be? When in fact I’m the only one who didn’t know anything even the maids and housekeepers already know about it, huh?”

“Ha, ha, ha well you’re too busy on your own and I want you to be surprised but then never expect that this son of ours suddenly visit in your working place that the covers got blown”.

“The three of you stay here and I will entertain the uninvited guests for a moment.”

Manager Han’s wife replied “okay and have a good time with your guests”. Then smile right away.

“I know you well my wife but don’t suddenly go out, okay?”

“Okay”

“Are you sure?”

“Yup, yup”

“You really are?”

“Geez I can’t believe you, we are married for 38 years but you didn’t trust me until now?”

“You’re exaggerating it, its 18 years not 28 years and I trust you but you’re an unpredictable one”

“I know and now, go and entertain your guests”

“Okay, and I must say the three of you must stay here and don’t go out, okay?” They nodded.

“Then how about me Dad?”

“You also stay here Honey”

“Okay” ‘But then Dad only said the three of them so I’m not included since Dad only pointing Mom, Brother, and Pretty Sis, so I’m not included, right?’

—- Outside the House —-

Tae asks his wife “Neh Rei, what do you think? Is Manager Han letting us in or not?”

“From what we know about Manager Han, he might let us in and then shooping us since he did tell us that he has some family matters”.

All ask in sync “then did Manager Han already know that’s it’s us?”

“What do you think guys?”

“He might know already, geez as expected of Manager Han”.

“Come in first Sir’s and Ma’am.” The team entered and then the housekeeper led them to the living room. “Sir Han will go down later, so Sir’s and Ma’am please wait a moment.” Then leave right away and then back with 2 other maids bringing snacks for them.

“.....” The team got speechless while the maids and housekeepers leave them after dropping their snacks on the table.

The housekeeper and the two maids thinking at the same time ‘Sir Han guests are all stunning and gorgeous, are they also celebrities like Young Sir?’

San: Geez, what the heck? Why we are the ones who got surprised instead of Manager Han?

Je: You are right San and maybe we didn't expect that Manager Han living in such a big house like this?

Yun : (Looking at all of them and realized that the couple didn't look surprised.) Eh, Tae and Rei, both of you already expecting Manager Han will have the house as big as this one?

Tae: Rei has friends who are residing in a villa. 'Of course, my wife's hometown house is much bigger than this, and then we also visiting the Li's Mansion (Paparrazi Li and Goddess Li Family House). Geez, now I remember, how about Bro En family house then?'

All: Really? (Tae nodded)

Wang: You guys, you look ignorant for seeing and witnessing a big house like this when in fact, all of you also have a bigger house compared to this one, right?

All : (M'dols Members) do we really have a big house?

Wang: Manager Chi covers me up.

Chi: Okay (get his phone and show 6 photos of the house then said) I send photos to your phone and so the first to last photos are Ha Family House, Jun Family House, Li Family House (Je), I'm Family House, Li Family House (Bi) and not but least Han Family House (San).

All : (Members got speechless)

Wang: See it's bigger than to your Managers Houses and of course, Manager Han is much bigger compared to us, Managers.

All : (Except Tae and Rei) eh then, how about Rei Family House?

Wang: Don't ask me guys, aside from knowing for the first time Manager Han house, all of us are also not aware of Manager Rei house except Tae, right?

Automatically all of them suddenly realized that indeed they didn't know about Rei at all and now looking at the couple.

chapter 449 – Manager Han surprise house visit 2

Being reminded by that from Manager Wang, all of them automatically looking at the couple since they only realized it now that they never know anything about Rei and what they only know is her house here in S Country at CA Residences.

“Now, now, guys and Managers, what are you all looking to us like that?”

“You know why Manager Rei”

“Alright, my family and I are currently living in a 3-story house”

“At least one picture of your family house, Manager Rei?”

“Okay and I.....”

“Let me do it, Hon, geez guys and Managers but I only send one picture, okay?”

“Okay” then Tae sends the picture of his wife and in-law's house and it's only the 3 story house not including the outside and inside the house, since he only sends the house itself. All of them received it and commented loud “I see, so it’s really a normal house at all, huh, and very different from what we imagined.”

“.....” Tae got speechless and Rei quite intrigued by what her husband send, so she’s looking at his phone and just find out what it is.

On the other hand, Manager Han arrive and heard their comments “whoa, how rude all of you guys?”

“Eh, when did you arrive here Manager Han?”

“This is my house after all and forgives me for having a normal house and didn’t fit what you imagine.”

“Huh?”

Tae helps them so that Manager Han will not get mad since he did tell them that he will have family matters to attain today. “Ah, they didn’t mean it to your house Manager Han since I just send Rei’s family house so you heard them and only commented about Rei’s house.”

“I see and geez guys how did all of you convince Tae and Rei to be here?”

“Ha, ha, ha, we have our own ways, Manager Han.”

“Yeah you have your own ways guys but did I tell everyone that I have to attain my family matters, today?”

“.....” The teams are now speechless and now looking to Rei’s direction and asking for help since only Rei can retort towards Manager Han since these two are on par with each other.

Rei got dumbfounded because of the team but then she saves them right away “sorry for coming here uninvited Manager Han but here’s your presents and sorry for disturbing you”

“It’s alright you already here but I can’t entertain all of you guys here for a moment since I’m still attending my family matters, are you alright with that?” Every one of them is nodding their heads. “Did you already except that I can’t entertain you yet you are still visiting here?”

Yun answered him frankly “yes Manager Han and Manager Rei also expecting that you’re going to shooing us for that reason but then I guess Manager Rei expecting too much since you let us stay here.”

Manager Han got speechless and decides to stay for a while by seating on the couch beside Manager Chi and then realized that the teams are not yet eating their snacks.

“All of you are not eating your snacks?”

“Eh?”

“Ha, ha, ha don’t worry guys the snacks are safe and there’s no poison at all”.

“Eh?”

San: M—Manager Han, y — you’re quite scary when you’re at home, huh.

Han: Well San if you’re in my stand and already telling your teams that you will have family matters to attain and yet they are still coming uninvited, so what will you feel?

San: S—so Manager Han you are really angry?

Han: Not angry but just getting upset because you didn’t listen to me in fact you even get involved with the Team Managers especially your Manager Rei who are the most respecting privacy of individuals right?

All:

Wang: Relax Manager Han and if we really disturb you then we are really going home now.

Han: No need since you already here and already disturbing me.

Han: Now speaking about that one, the housekeeper who attends all of you guys a while ago is informing me that I have visitors and that they are in a team composed of 1 pretty lady, 3 old men, and 6 pretty men.

All: 1 Pretty Lady, 3 Old Man, and 6 Pretty Man.

Han: Yes, that's what the housekeeper describes all of you.

All : (Except Rei since she's now talking with Manager Han about the team schedules) 'Pretty Lady must be Manager Rei, the 3 old Man must be us/Managers and then 6 Pretty Man must be the members/us.

All : (Managers) w—wait a moment, we are the old Man's Manager Han?

Han: Oh, you just realized it now? (The members and Rei controlling their laughs)

Wang: How rude, I'm only 37.

Li: Same here since I and Manager Chi are still 36,

Chi: That's right and it means you're the old man here Manager Han since you just turn 41.

Han: Hey, what are you talking about and the four of us are all old man here since it's just 2-3 years gap from us.

All : (Managers except Rei) right and only Manager Rei who have a gap of 12 years from you Manager Han / me.

Rei: (got speechless)

Han: Now guys go and have your own discussion since I and Manager Rei are discussing the schedules of the team.

Yun: Eh, Manager Han and Rei are still working even it's your breaks today?

Han: Oh so you realized it's your breaks today Yun and yet all of you are here, right?

Yun:

San: Scary, M—Manager Han become scary again.

Han: Alright stop disturbing us since I and Manager Rei are discussing your valentine's day special and we only have 4 days left. Good timing that you are here since I'm going to call Manager Rei for this matter.

All: Huh?

Han: You're too loud guys, especially you Je.

Je: S—scary Manager Han.

Han is going to reason out with Je but then someone interrupting them.

“Mr. Handsome 1, Mr. Handsome 1, my Dad is not scary since he is just only being grumpy for the time being.”

chapter 450 – Manager Han Family Members

“Mr. Handsome 1, Mr. Handsome 1, my Dad is not scary since he is just only being grumpy for the time being.”

All of them are now turning their heads from where the voice came from and all of them heard the father and daughter conversation.

“Ella, did I tell you not to leave in the study room?”

“Eh but Dad you didn’t point me out since you only told us the three of them, so I guess it’s Mom, Brother, and Pretty Sister, right?”.

“..... Then go back to the study room and wait....”

Ignore her Dad for a moment and looking at the M’dol members while asking them one by one “Mr. Handsome 1, Mr. Handsome 1, what’s your name?”

“Eh, you mean me?”

“Yes, so what’s your name?”

“Je Han, Li Je Han”

“I see so then you’re my Prince No. 1 and how about you Mr. Handsome 2?”

“San Hu, Han San Hu”

“I see then how about you Mr. Handsome 3?”

“Woo Shi, Im Woo Shi”

“Mmm..... Then what about you Mr. Handsome 4?”

“Hu Bi, Li Hu Bi”

“Good and nice to meet you, my 4 Princes”

Then Je asks curiously while pointing to Tae and Yun “eh, then how about the two of them?”

“They are too pretty and handsome for me, so then My Queen, what’s your name?”

That member who got point out by the little girl is too surprised and confirming if it’s really him “e—eh, you mean me?”

“Yes My Queen”

“I—- I’m Ya Yun, Ha Ya Yun” Yun still too surprised because his being treated like a queen by a kid.

“I see even your name really deserves to be a queen huh”

After hearing it all members control their laugh or else they will be got hit by their team leader while their Team Managers just watching amusingly to Yun reaction.

“How about you, what’s your name Majesty?”

“Jun Tae Woo little princess” among all the members, Tae is the one who’s really good with children so he knows really well how to interact with the kid very well compared to the a.d.u.l.ts one except his wife and family members.

“Thanks, Majesty, and this pretty goddess here, who is she?”

“This is my wife, Jun Lou Rei, your majesty wife little princess. Then princess, how about you, what’s your name?”

“How rude of me Majesty for not introducing about me yet asking my princes, my queen, and majesty along with majesty wife names when in fact I still didn’t introduce myself yet. By the way, I’m Han Ella, Majesty”.

“I see Han Ella and your name suits you very well Princess”

The Members and Managers didn’t get surprised by Tae’s interactions with Ella because they already know that Tae will always be like this every time he interacts with the kids and pets. Both Ella and Tae are still conversing with each other until Manager Han interrupts them.

“Sorry for interrupting you my highness but then your Father is instructing you to go back to the study room and wait for him patiently, is that alright with you my highness?”

Ella notices the three shadows approaching and replied to her father “your highness going to obey you, Father but then Mother, Brother, and Pretty Sister are now already here, so am I still going back?”

“What?” Then Manager Han looking at his back right away and just realized that his family members are already here, in their living room.

“Tsk, tsk don’t be such a grumpy my husband since we only follow Ella to get her but then it’s too late for that since she found out first before us.”

“Mom, in the first place you really didn’t have any attention at all to bring Ella back, if it is, then why you also dragging both of us here?”

“...” Manager Han’s wife got speechless because she got caught off guard by her son.

“Eh, it’s you Mr. Han Yu?” Ask by M’dols Managers and Members except for Rei and Tae since the two already know the Han Yu is a son of Manager Han.

Ella: Whoa, all of you here know my brother?

All: Brother, you mean Mr. Han Yu?

Ella: Yes he is my Brother (pointing all of them one by one), this is my Pretty Sister, my Mom, and my grumpy Dad for the time being.

All : (Managers except Rei) eh, don’t tell me you already have Mr. Han Yu at the age of 8, Manager Han?

Han: Whoa, you’re quite imaginative guys and Yu is my Elder Sister son but died when she gives birth to him so that’s why I’ve become his Dad.

All: (Managers and Members answered in sync) I see.

Han: So you guys (looking to members and Rei) also thinking that I have him when I’m 8? (Everyone nodded which causes him to get speechless then asking on his mind only). ‘What the heck they are thinking about me?’

Wang: And so Mr. Han Yu’s biological father?

Wife : (Manager Han’s wife) Yu is my elder brother son but then my elder brother also died on the same day his wife died since he was too surprised by the sudden news of his wife passing away and that he didn’t realize that the car approaching him on the same direction that causes him to change the wheel to the other side but then got him to hit a wall and got caught in the car accident.

Rei: Eh, then both of you are taking care of Mr. Han at a very young age then?

Wife: Nah I'm already 16 at that time and my husband is still an 8 years old boy, so Yu got raise by his grandmother / my mother since the day he born though it's only for one year since they turn into a real monster from a monster and then become my Son when I got married to this grumpy young man here.

All : (All of them have a confused look)

Wife: Alright, alright we will take a seat first and I will tell the story of how I meet my grumpy young husband and become the father of his nephew. (Then she seat right away along with her daughter, son, and soon to be daughter in law.) Anyway before telling you the stories let's introduce each other first and by the way I'm Han Yuri. (Then everyone introduces themselves accordingly by age, members first followed by the team managers) eh, so you are Rei, the one that my Son been jealous of all along with since Meg here always mentions your name to my Son.

Yu: Mom?

Yuri: Yes and is there something wrong with what I said?

Yu: Nothing

Yuri: I see so then here's our story.....

Wang: Uhm Mrs. Han sorry to interrupt you but I guess we're going now and we will listen to your story later since we really disturb Manager Han, you're husband today.

Yuri: Nah, don't mind that one since my grumpy young husband just become grumpy since he's the only one who didn't know about my Son and Meg relationship so that's why.

All: Eh, the only one?

Yuri: Yes the only one since the housekeepers, the maids, and my circles of friends already know that Meg and Yu are in relationsh.i.p.s and getting married on the golden week so that's why he becomes grumpy all of sudden.

All: Eh? (Then all of them looking at Manager Han's direction and feel sympathy for him because he got left out especially from his own family members.)

Yuri: Well, well I really want to surprise my husband since he is very busy with your team's schedule guys but then this unpredictable son of mine suddenly visit his Dad working place since he was thinking that Meg is cheating with another guy so then that's the reason why my husband become aware of it.
