

Last Man 451

chapter 451 – Manager Han Life Story 1

After being speechless for a moment, the Han family members are now talking with each other as if they didn't mind that they have guests listening to them, well they really don't mind since it's a team of the man of the house after all.

Yu: Geez Mom, did I tell you already that I'm just worried about her since Meg only informing me that she's going to meet her important person.

Yuri: Then why didn't you trust your wife then?

Yu: I trust Meg but I didn't expect that Dad is also there.

Han: And why you didn't expect that I wouldn't be in there when in fact that's my working place, huh?

Yu: Well Dad you are always too busy so I thought you're on your own schedule during that time so that's the reason why I didn't expect that you would be there.

Yuri: My, my why are you reasoning now Yu when in fact you are really worried about Meg and then you suddenly get out of my sight like a ghost. Geez, you're too lucky that I'm your Manager and at the same time your Mom, or else you will be already kicked out from the company since you almost ruin their reputation, right?

Yu: Geez Mom it's already in the past and why are you talking that one at this time?

Yuri: Well because you are too unpredictable and suddenly disappearing like a ghost so I just reminding you that matters.

Yuri: What do you mean by that?

Yu: You know what I mean Mom and remember when Dad brought Ella that time while visiting our workplace?

Yuri:

Ella: Oh I remember that one Brother and then Mom didn't tell me that you're my brother/cousin so I've become your fan when I saw one of your magazine covers. Now remembering and recalling that one I almost have a forbidden love story if I didn't know that you're my brother and cousin.

Yu: Good thing you know it earlier or else..... (Pause and let his Sister continue)

Ella: Good thing I know it earlier or else I will become a crazy fan of you Brother.

Yu: Tsk (tap his Sister's head) the first time I saw you, I suddenly feel that we have a connection, and then when both of us call Mom as Mom, we suddenly ask without hesitation.

Both: Is he/she's my brother and sister but how? (Then both of them laughing together when they remember that one.)

Yuri: Alright, alright stop with that and both of you are now stealing your Mom's limelight.

Bmov:

Han: At least you didn't forget that we have still our guests here and just make it short since we only have our breaks today.

Yuri: Yup, yup and so then guys here's our love story though it's more life story of this young grumpy man here.

— Flashback —

33 Years Ago, there's an 8 years old boy talking to his elder sister who's on her due date.

"Sis, Sis, are you really alright, right?" Ask by a worried younger brother of her.

"Yes Mi and your big sister, is really fine at all, it's just that I'm going to give birth to my son, your only niece within today."

"E—eh, t—then please wait a moment Big Sis, I will call a taxi and please make sure that you are really alright, right Sis?"

"Mmm, I promise and your Sister is strong at all, okay?"

"Okay" then the young boy leaves his pregnant sister and calls a taxi. After 15 minutes he got the taxi and then asking help from the taxi driver to help carry his Sister because she's pregnant and he is not strong enough to carry his Elder Sister. They arrive at the hospital and the young boy shouts to help her sister since she's now bleeding, the young boy still didn't know the term yet so he only shouts about too much blood.

"Doctor, Doctor please help my sister and she's suddenly got wounded out of nowhere and there's so much blood, too much blood".

Of course, the doctor is quite hesitating since they don't know yet if this patient can pay it or not. One of the doctors helps right away without hesitation and didn't mind if this family can pay the hospital bills or not since she values the life of individuals.

"Alright I will take care of it"

"Eh but Doctor...."

"You make a vow before you become fully pledge as a doctor right?"

“That.....”

“Alright young boy, your sister is on her due date and so it’s normal for her to bleed that much, okay?”

“O—okay”

“Alright follow me and I will take care of the forms later” then his sister got attended by the group of doctors and nurses. “Alright young boy, you will wait here outside of here since we’re going to attend your sister, okay?”

The young boy just nodded and asks worriedly “p— please make sure that my sister is alright, okay Doctor?”

“Yes, and I will try my best” then she entered the emergency room while the young boy is waiting patiently for his sister.

Three hours after, the said doctor got out of the emergency operation room and asks the young boy something.

“Young boy, can I ask you about something?”

“O—okay, and what is it?”

“Where’s your sister’s husband?”

“Eh, My Sister Husband but my sister is not married yet, she only has a boyfriend but I don’t know who”.

“Then where are your father and mother?”

“We don’t have a mother and father, why? Is there something wrong with my sister?”

Then there's suddenly someone interrupting them and speak in a universal language that the young boy didn't understand any of it. "We will hear you out, Doctor Hwang"

"It's you Mr. Long and Mrs. Long, but may I ask how are you related to the patient that I'm attending right now?" "This is her right?" Show a picture of her.

"Yes, she's the one I'm attending right now and....."

"Doctor Hwang, I'm not rude of telling you this but well you just become a resident doctor here at the age of 16, of course, they will let you in since you're a family member of the owners of this hospital without minding your young age and of course that woman you're attending right now is bearing the blood of Long, so are you taking responsibility if in case something happens to the heir of the Long then?"

"Well then if you really know her then we will let you decide if which one from them that you're going to save, the mother or the child?"

"Of course the child and who cares about that woman when in fact she only seduces my son"

The young boy happened to hear the words 'she seduces my son' react and defend her sister to them. "My sister didn't seduce anyone and please retract your words Ma'am" but then the young boy only got whacked by that lady without hesitating even that boy is only a kid.

"Don't ever lay your finger on me poor kid and you Doctor Hwang, do your job and go save the child."

"This is the waiver Mrs. Long and we need both of your signatures and the mother of the child." Then both Long's couple signs the waiver without minding that their's one life on the line and Doctor Hwang entered the emergency operation room but then got out and inform the two. "Mr. Long and Mrs. Long, the mother of the child won't sign".

"What? Ask her how much she wants or what she wants, we will comply with it as long as she will sign the waiver."

Then suddenly a woman in a wheelchair got out from the operation room and said with her strained voice. "I don't want anything from your family Mrs. Long but I only have one condition."

"And what is it?"

"Let me talk to my younger brother alone just for 15 minutes and I will sign the waiver".

"T— then go ahead and you must not escape or else you will know what will happen to you."

"I won't because I'm not the same with the both of you Mrs. Long. Mi comes here".

The young boy who's got whacked by the lady got up and approaches his Sister when she called him then ask worriedly "Sis, what's wrong?"

Whispering to her younger brother "listen to me carefully Mi" then the young boy just nodded "your sister will be gone a few hours later but I have money in our apartment and you must get it right away. I guess it's enough for you until you've become 15 since I have a hunch that something will happen to me the moment I'm in love with your uncle and bearing his child. Also, there's an address of your Uncle in there, your nephew Dad. He's a very nice man and a very kind man, he has the same name as you Mi, his Long Miru, inform him about your nephew and our son, and please make sure that you will get hold of your nephew, did you hear me Mi?" The young boy nodded again "good boy and let me see your face for the last time. Geez, you don't need to cry and just keep that promise to your Elder Sister with you forever, okay?" The young boy nodded again. "I love you Mi and sorry for leaving you earlier and leaving you alone."

"Alright I'm finished and let me sign the waiver"

"But Miss and please think about your brother, your brother is still young you know" Doctor Hwang oppose her decision and tried to persuade her to change her mind.

Mrs. Long didn't wait for her reply or else she will change her mind so she interrupted right away.

"Doctor Hwang, are you planning to sacrifice your career as a doctor in order to protect this poor of Sister and Brother Pairs?"

"I" Doctor Hwang got interrupted by the young boy's elder sister.

"Thank you, Doc but I trust my younger brother that he can keep his promises and I know very well that he is still a young boy but I already know that's it's my fate."

"T--- that...."

"Please Doc"

"O---okay, and I will do my best to save both of you and your child."

chapter 452 – Manager Han Life Story 2

Unfortunately after two hours, the young boy's Elder Sister loses her life while the baby born safely without any complications found. Doctor Hwang / Annie was so frustrated because this is her first patient and yet she didn't save the two of them. She carries the baby to the family with a sad expression because she knows that the young boy will be all alone and already know that this family will not be taking good care of him.

"Congratulations, it's a baby boy Mr. Long and Mrs. Long"

"Tsk at least she gives birth to a baby boy. Alright call my Son right away and inform him that the baby is safe but we didn't save his girlfriend."

"Mom and Dad, Brother is already on the way here so don't call him at this moment since he's driving."

"Shut up Yuri and sooner or later, your Brother will forget about this woman and he will marry the right one we chose for him. Assistant, call him right away and inform him about his son."

"Yes Madame"

“Doctor, Doctor, my sister, my sister, what about my sister?” The young didn’t care about the Long since his only attention is his Sister.

Annie just crunches down and seating in the air in order to level her height to the young boy then hugs him while apologizing “sorry young boy, sorry because I failed to save her, sorry”.

“Tsk, I guess you really got in just because of your names and not your capabilities huh.” Insult by both Mr. Long and Mrs. Long.

A few minutes later there’s a commotion going on. “M— Madama and M— Master”

“What?”

“I— I inform Young Master Miru as what you instructed to me but then I suddenly heard a crash and Young Master Miru didn’t answer his phone anymore.”

“What?”

“I— I’m tracking Young Master Miru location now”

The young boy heard the name and on alert since he heard the same name while remembering her sister’s instructions. ‘Long Miru, is that Long Miru, my uncle, and the father of my nephew?’

“Told you Mom and Dad that don’t call Brother because he is driving at the”

“Shut up, will you?”

“Tsk”

Several minutes later, the hospital has activated its code blue emergency code which means there is a medical emergency occurring within the hospital. It means that Long Miru already inside the hospital premises but then he got crashes into another car that's also in a rush for emergency purposes.

One of the hospital personnel witnesses the accident so she automatically pushes the emergency alert button for blue code because she feels the life of the persons inside the car is in immediate danger because of the car crash impact. The doctors and nurses become busy because of this code and find Annie still crunching while hugging the boy.

"What are you doing Doc Annie? It's blue code and there's also a pregnant woman who got involved with this car crash".

"But..."

"You did save the baby's life and of course we have no control of individuals life and as a doctor, we only here to save them and try to prolong their life. So we must save them, is that you're motto? Doc Annie?"

"That..."

"Doctor, this time make sure that you will save both of them, okay?" The young boy encourages Annie.

"I will"

"Good girl" and tap her head, as if copying his Sister.

"Wait for me here, okay?"

"Okay" then Annie leaves right away and at the same time, the young boy heard the Long shouts.

"Miru, Miru please wake up and stay with us"

“Dad, Mom is that my boy?”

“Yes this is your Son, so stay with us, okay?”

“My girlfriend is already leaving me and leaving alone, so I will be with her and just take care of my Son, please. Yuri, please protect your nephew, okay?”

“No Brother, I can’t and I’m still young to protect him, so please stay with me, okay?”

“Please?”

“LONG MIRU, what are you talking about? You will be saved and you have to.”

“Sorry, Mom, Dad, and Yuri but I.....” then he suddenly loses his last breath.

Then the young boy suddenly approaches them when he heard the name LONG MIRU

“eh, is this Uncle Miru?”

“Who are you to call him Uncle?”

The young boy ignored both the Long’s and continues of what he is going to do “Uncle Miru, Uncle Miru and its Mi, younger brother of Sister Yuna. Eh, Uncle Miru, did you hear me?”

“.....”

“Uncle Miru, please wake up, please, please. Sis is not here anymore so.....” got interrupted since he got whacked again.

“Don’t call him Uncle because he is not your Uncle and I already told you that don’t lay your dirty hand from any one of us and especially to him”.

“You are a witch and a monster. You are bad and evil, you don’t deserve to live here. My Sister and Uncle Miru don’t deserve to die because they are both good people.”

“Who cares about what you just said now and you already alone in this world, so no one’s going to protect you anymore, poor kid”

The young boy suddenly grabs a pen from one doctor of the hospital who happened to pass the emergency hallway and suddenly stab it from the baby right arms then he got whacked again by the Long and at the same time, the baby is crying because he got wounded by his own Young Uncle.

“What did you do to my Grandson?”

Then the young boy declared to the Long Family “sooner or later, I will get hold of my nephew and all of you don’t deserve to have my nephew because you are all a monster.” And then the young boy escapes right away after declaring that one.

“Don’t let him escape, get him”

“Yes Master and Madame”

‘How brave he is to oppose with the Long Family, my Brother and I can’t even do that to my parents because we both know how powerful they are and yet this kid did it and declare that one in front of my parents. Interesting and I wonder how this boy will get custody of my nephew’.

On the other hand, the young boy Mi runs fast and goes to their rented apartment then gets the money and a calling card as what his sister instructs him then he leaves right away in order for him not to get caught by them. He hides right since he notices the Long bodyguards, who are following him; he also notices that they messing up everything in their rented apartment. He didn’t have anything and only the money which he doesn’t know how much and the calling card which stating the address of the Long residence.

'Sis, I don't know if I can keep my promises with you and I hurt my nephew with my own hands.' He didn't go out from his hiding because they are still looking for him.

"How did that kid run fast compared to us?"

"Just continue the search and he won't go that far since he is still a kid."

— Meanwhile at the hospital —

"What? And how did that kid escape? He is just a kid and yet he escapes from all of you."

"Sorry, Madame but he really runs fast compared to us".

"Tsk but then at least he didn't stab the baby that hard and my grandson didn't have a deep wound or else I will kill that kid with my own hands."

"Excuse me, Mrs. Long and Mr. Long, did you happen to see where the young boy is?"

"That boy is a murderer since he just stabs his own nephew."

"Then can you tell me what's their family name is?"

"They are Han Yuna and Han Miru, Doc"

"Yuri, what are you still doing there?"

"Sorry Mom"

"Stay here and that kid must be going back here since for sure he will going ask help from Doctor Hwang."

“Yes Madame”

chapter 453 – Manager Han Life Story 3 - A big misunderstanding

One week later, the young boy Mi who's hiding for a week and without eating anything now looks like a beggar anymore. Even though they are poor and an orphan, his Big Sister is really taking good care of him and so that's the reason why he has flawless skin but right now he really looks like a beggar because of one week of hiding without eating. Before getting out from his hideout, he looks around to the surrounding first and to be sure there's no one from them. After confirming that no one from the Long family is looking to him anymore since they thought that he already follows his sister's path. He got out right away from his hiding and then go to their rented apartment slowly and carefully since his hoping that he will get a pair of clean clothes for him to get change. Of course, the surroundings were all messy since the Long bodyguards destroyed everything since they, the Long's can use their money to threaten and blackmailing someone. Mi searching and searching until he finds one pair of clean clothes and he changed right away, of course, he also brings the dirty clothes with him and didn't bother to take a bath or else they will find out that he is still alive. After changing, he runs to the hospital and realized that they are still some bodyguards from the Longs, so he stops himself and hides at the corner.

‘They really guess that I might ask help from that doctor. Geez, they are really monsters and how come they are not sparing me when in fact I'm just only a kid. Now, I can't go back to where I study since maybe they will try to search for me there. Sis, what I'm going to do now and please help me.....’ then suddenly someone tapping his arm without minding the messy appearance that he stops wondering.

“Are you Han Miru?”

“W—— who are you?”

“Relax I'm not from the Long and I'm Hwang Min”

“Hwang Min, are you perhaps related to Doctor Hwang?”

“Yes she is my younger sister and I’m here searching for you since she won’t budge to bother me if I won’t find you. Geez, you’re really a kid and yet you really know how to hide yourself very well, huh.”

“Are you really sure that you are Hwang Min, Sir?”

“Yes, and if you want proof that I’m Hwang Min then here’s my ID” give his ID Card to Mi “by the way follow me first, or else they will notice us here.”

“Ah, right thank you, Sir”

“You can call me Brother Min, Miru”

“Eh, is that alright with your Sir?”

“Uh-uh”

“Okay”

Right away the young boy Mi’s follows him and then they hop in together of his car. Of course, the young boy didn’t hesitate anymore since he already saw his ID card and that he didn’t lie about his identity. When they are inside the car both of them are in an awkward situation but then the Teen Mr. Hwang breaks the ice and asks the young boy.

“Miru, how old are you?”

“I’m 8 years old Brother Min”

“I see” ‘He is still young and yet he’s already alone’ he wondered and his curiosity kicks in, so he asks the young boy “by the way Miru, how did your Mother and Father die?”

“My father died when I’m 3 and my Big Sister only told me that Father got accused by someone who’s jealous of him that he got in prison but then later on he died, the authorized government personnel only told my Sister that Father killed by an assassin and didn’t find anything since that assassin commits suicide after killing my father. As for my mother, I didn’t see her because she already passed away after giving birth to me just like my Big Sister. My Big Sister told me the moment she knows that she carried the baby, that if her baby is a boy then there’s a possibility that she will lose her life just like our mother. At that time I only thought that maybe my big sister only joking with me or just overthinking since our mother died when she gives birth to me but then I never expect that family curse is really within the bloodline of our genes.”

Mr. Hwang got surprised by that kind of information and only replied in just one word “eh?”

The young boy looking at the teen Mr. Hwang and assured him “that family curse is really true since my big sister has also gone and same with my mother when she gives birth to me. Big Sister said that it’s only applicable to a woman from Han’s bloodlines who gives birth to a son and I don’t know how many generations before its stops” .

Mr. Hwang cannot retort with that and then agreed before changing the topic “I see and so what grade are you now, Miru?”

“I’m just finished on my 3rd Grade Sir and turning 4th Grade this coming new school term but then I guess I can’t go to school because they might try looking at me in school and then I can’t transfer anywhere because I don’t have my doc.u.ments along with my report card since I only got this.” He explains while showing the money envelope and calling card to Min.

“Eh, where did you get that money?”

“My Big Sister told me to retrieve it below her bed at the apartment and instruct me that it’s enough for me to use until I turn 15 but then right now I don’t know what to do anymore” .

“Let me see that first”

The young boy didn’t hesitate and just give it to Min “here Brother Min”

“Thanks” then accept the said envelope and the calling card. “I see, so your Big Sister really knows that something will happen to her after giving birth to your nephew that’s why she leaves a lot of money for you to survive and this calling card belongs to Mr. Long Miru who might be the father of your Sister baby. The calling card has his own residence address and the Long residences but then I heard that Mr. Long Miru died on the same day as your Sister, so it’s not good for you to go there since they are still looking for you. I don’t know why they are trying so hard to look for you when in fact you’re just a young boy and I don’t believe that they are trying so hard to look for you just because you stab your own nephew by using a pen and they have another reason for looking of you Miru.”

“E—eh y—you know that one?”

Tap his head “I know since my sister just barged in my room that day and only said to me to look for Han Miru, the younger brother of her patient who just gone after she got failed to save her. So hearing your name, I didn’t know anything about who you are and my sister didn’t even explain to me what happened so I did investigate and know a little bit of what happenings. As for now, I will get a copy of your all doc.u.ments and records then I will enroll you in another school with tight security so that they can’t enter as they please.”

“Eh, t—then use that money and I will pay you back when I will earn money when I grow up.”

Min laughs then gives the young boy his money back and the calling card “here, this is yours, your Sister saves it for you, and that calling card will be necessary for you when you get custody of your nephew.”

“A—and how will I pay you, Brother Min?”

“Ha, ha, ha I don’t need anything from you Miru but then in the future and if you still insist to compensate then I just need you to join my family company is that alright with you?”

“Oh, okay I well”

“Good boy”

Chapter 454 - Vol 7: Ch 454 – Manager Han Life Story 4

Then right away Min drives his car to his family residences, the Hwang Villa, and just realized that the young boy who's seating at his side is currently sleeping soundly so he just let him be.

"Poor boy and how come they are really trying to get him when in fact he just a boy" at that moment, he press the auto-drive mode and calling his best friend from other country.

"Ring, ring, ring"

"Yes Hwang, I'm still busy at the moment, so please wait for a moment"

"Okay" Min best friend hold the calls and after almost 10 minutes, he heard him talking again.

"I'm now free Hwang, so then what do you need me to investigate knowing that you called me at this hour which is very rare for you to call me in the early morning?"

"Well I need to ask you a favor since I need you to investigate everything about Han Miru and Han Yuna, they are brother and sister here in S Country. Also please get me a softcopy of Han Miru of all his doc.u.ments and records."

"Okay and just give me 30 minutes Hwang"

"Thank you Meng and I will pay you for this"

"Nah, don't worry about that Hwang and is that all?"

"That's all and thanks in advance"

“You’re welcome”

At the same time both of them hung up, of course, Min didn’t take advantage of his friend goodness and kindness, so he transfers money to him but not that much to be sure that Meng will not return it back with a note ‘take it as your payment and it will be useful for your future software and equipment later.’

After 15 minutes, his friend Meng already sends everything to his email and he retrieves it right away since he already sets his car on the auto-drive mode the moment he calls his best friend. He reads everything and now he knows everything about the Han.

It seems that Han Miru father is a Head Secretary of Long Enterprises but then later on, he got blackmailed because of his capabilities and intelligence that cause him to be in prison but then again the Long are not satisfied of this punishment so they hired an assassin and instruct him to kill him. After the assassin killed Han Miru father, the Long instruct their Family Bodyguards to kill the assassin to cover the truth and to hide everything. All along the government authorities didn’t get anything except for Han Miru father got killed by an assassin and later on that assassin commit suicide. Many years after that incident, seems history repeats itself, Han Yuna, at an age of 20 years old got hired as the Head Secretary of Long Enterprises whom Long Miru, 30 Years Old is the current CEO of Long Enterprises at that time. Miru and Yuna are both professionals of their works but then after 3 years of being a CEO and Secretary in the same company, Miru discovered his feelings towards her and later on they have a secret relationship after successfully wooing Yuna for 1 year. 3 Months after being in a relationship, Yuna got pregnant and bear his child but then the Long Family discovered their relationship and forced the two of them to separate with each other. Both Long Miru’s parents offered a big amount to Yuna but then she refused it because her love towards their Son can’t compensate any amount. Since both the Long’s got refused by Yuna, they are both frustrated and so they release an engagement announcement between Long Miru and So Ara – mother of Lu Wen but then it got backfired right away because the So Family didn’t agree such agreement between them. The Long didn’t flinch instead they release another news that’s it’s because of Han Yuna, Long Miru Head Secretary who seduce him that cause of the Long and So engagement got break. On the other hand, Long Miru is not yet aware of his family doings since he’s out of the country and later on when he got back, he heard everything about it and too late for him since Yuna already kicked out from the Long Enterprises the moment his out of the country but then his mother suddenly calls him and inform that they know where Yuna whereabouts and now on labor at the hospital but then later on he got another call from his Mom but this time his Mom’s Secretary is the one talking to him and inform that his girlfriend Yuna give birth to a healthy boy but she didn’t survive. Long Miru knows that his family never acknowledge his girlfriend and he didn’t realized that the car is also coming his way so he automatically turn the wheel to the right side which only a wall of the hospital that cause him to crash with a very loud impact. He realized that his body got moved and on top of the stretcher then he heard his Mother calling his name many times until he saw a silhouette of his Yuna but never looks to his direction, he didn’t know why but then his Yuna looking very sad to both two directions. He looks to the other side and finds nothing then looks in other directions and it’s his Mom with a baby boy on her arms.

After reading all the Han's background, Min only wonder in one question "how come the Long didn't realized that they got a gem, Han Yuna is such a brilliant and wonderful lady but yet they are still looking for the right one for Long Miru when in fact their son already found the right one for him and recognize Ms. Yuna to be his. Well, Ms. Yuna is not an influential one so maybe that's the reason why they never acknowledge her." He still wonders and wonders before looking at the sleeping boy then this time he is now reading the boy school records.

"And then, here again, they are also going to lose another gem". Right away, he put his phone on his pocket and then unset the auto-drive mode before driving again. Several minutes passed by, he arrived at his family house, he unbelted the seatbelt and hop out outside the car only to see his sister again with the same manner.

"Brother Min, Brother Min, have you find the boy, I mean Han Miru, have you find him?"

"Yes I found him"

"Eh, then where is he?" Min didn't replied back and just walks to the other side of the car then open the car before picking up the young boy without hesitating if he is smelly or not.

"I— is he alright?"

"Annie you're a doctor remember?"

"Huh?"

"Silly" taps Annie's head "he is just asleep and for sure this young boy was tired of one week hiding from them".

"I — I see"

"I told you don't blame yourself for not saving his Sister and awhile ago Miru told me that all ladies from their family genes will be gone if they will happen and give birth to a son."

“Eh?”

“Maybe it’s genetic but I can’t really explain that well because I’m not in the medical field and for now let’s get inside”.

The two Hwang’s sibling gets in and then greets their parents. Min lay the young boy first to the couch before the Hwang family in discussion.

Chapter 455 - Vol 7: Ch 455 – Manager Han Life Story 5

The Hwang’s are discussing until they decide that they want to adopt the boy and Annie wants to be her younger brother since she’s the youngest of the family. They are discussing excitedly but later on, their excitement got stop by Min.

“Dad, Mom and Annie”

“Yes?”

“I understand your kindness and that you really want to adopt Miru but then before that one, we will let the boy decide first of what he really wants. Not to interrupt your excitement but from what I observe, Miru has his own reason for stabbing his baby nephew. I also got his school records and based on those records, he is a genius boy; I guess he got it from their genes after all since both his Father and Sister were both former Head Secretary. For now, I will give him an option to choose and after we heard his decision of whatever it is, we will respect his decision, is that alright with you all?”

“But...”

"It's alright guys and whatever he decides, we are still going to protect him even the day comes that he knows how to protect himself from them, is that okay?"

"Okay and we trust you Min / Brother Min."

The young boy who's sounds asleep suddenly moves a little bit and slowly opens his eyes then looks at his surroundings "eh, w—-where are we, Brother Min?"

"My Family House Miru....." right away he got cut off by Annie.

"A-are you alright?"

"Eh, Doctor Hwang?"

"Yes, it's me, and don't you know that I'm really worried about you?"

"T— that sorry Doctor Hwang and I break you're promised by waiting at you since I stab my baby nephew. I— I....."

"Shh, it's alright your nephew only got a little mark and it's not a deep wound."

"Eh, t— then it will heal soon?"

"....." All Hwang's got surprised and dumbfounded.

"I mean, I didn't really want to hurt my nephew but I did it just to leave a mark on him so that I can recognize him when I'm going to get him from them."

Min got right away of what his purpose and his reason then replied to him "I see so that's why you did it but then it will heal soon knowing that the Long's Family are an influential one though the hospital equipment right now is not yet advance and modernized but then later on it will be updated sooner or later.”

“Eh, then how long will it take Brother Min?”

“It’s just my opinion but maybe it will take between 5 to 8 years from now.”

“I see so I only have 5 to 8 years duration to recognize my nephew”.

“Well you will be since you have the Long’s Family Residence Address and from then on they might forget about your existence. As for you, I will give you two options to decide, so hear me out clearly, understood?”

“Y—yes Brother Min and w—what is it?”

“Don’t be scared since it’s for your own good, so then I have two options for you Miru, first, you will start staying here and become a member of our family but then you need to change your family name from Han Miru to Hwang” Min wasn’t able to finish his explanations since the young boy interrupts him.

“No, please don’t change my family name Brother Min, be— because, because that’s the only left I have that I’m still connected with my family, so please”

Min taps his head right away and said “I’m still not finished Miru and I understand you. Of course, we will respect your decision so option 1 is not your choice, so here’s the last and not but the least option, so you will stay in a School Dorm while studying and you will remain your name, is that alright with you?”

“Eh, s— school dorm while studying but my school doesn’t have, right?”

“Of course since you will transfer to another school and be a student of S Elite Academy this coming school term.”

“S — S Elite Academy, is that the school known for rich and geniuses students but then I’m not one of them, so can you select another school Brother Min?”

“Silly and it doesn’t mean that only those rich and geniuses can study in S Elite Academy because you just need to pass their entrance examination so that you can be a S’lites.”

“I see but then how about the school fees Brother Min?”

“It’s no problem since it’s either we will pay it for you or you need to apply for a scholarship, so which one?”

“What marks they need for a scholarship?”

“Maintaining a grade of 85 and above until you graduate”

“I see then I will apply for a scholarship and how about the mark for entrance examinations to pass?”

“As long as you get the 80% grade then you will pass from their entrance examinations.”

“I see then do I need to start studying now?”

“Yes since it’s only half a month left before the entrance examination for the new / transfer students and you only need to study since I will be the one processing your papers.”

“Thank you, Brother Min”

“You’re welcome and just don’t forget your promise to me then.”

“Uh-uh, I will”

“Good and by the way, are you hungry?”

The young boy shyly nodded and right away Min instructs their people to prepare food for them and the Hwang’s are eating together, after eating they let the young boy sleep in the guest room. On the next day, Min brought Miru to the shopping mall and buy clothes for him. Of course, Miru insists to use his Sister’s money left for him but then Min declined and just said to him that he will save it for his future. Since Min is already aware of the S Elite Academy rules and regulations, he didn’t buy anything for Miru that needed for school since the school will provide everything if you always stay on top, of course, Min knows that Miru can do it since he has already seen his school records. After buying all his clothes – kid clothes to teen clothes – they eat in the restaurant and Miru asks something personal from Min that he caught off guard.

“Brother Min, Brother Min?”

“Yes?”

“How old are you, Brother Min?”

“Eh, why do you ask that one?”

“It’s because you look so young and yet very m.a.t.u.r.e, so I got a little curious of how old you are”.

“I see but well I’m 17.”

“Eh, 17 y—you are younger compared to my Big Sister since she’s 24.”

“I see and Annie’s age is your age gap between your sisters, Miru.”

Miru automatically calculating his age between his Sisters and realize how old Annie is “eh, Doctor Hwang is still 16 and she already a doctor?”

“Ha, ha, ha you got it right Miru, and yes she’s already a doctor at 16 since it’s the legal age in here, though most of us here will be a degree holder at the age of 20, then for Annie’s case she didn’t since she skipping grades 5 times, so that’s why.”

“Mmm.... Then how about you Brother Min? I mean you’re a 17 years old teen, so you must be in school but then you are here with me, right?”

“I’m already a graduate student Miru and already working for my family company though on a break for my special mission.”

“Eh, on a break for a special mission, don’t you mean I’m your special mission?”

“Brother Min, Brother Min?”

“Yes?” Find authorized novels in , faster updates, better experience, Please click #%E2%80%93-manager-han-life-story-5_51291114803614055 for visiting.

“Where are we going next?”

“We will visit your sister’s grave first and then after that, we are going to visit your school so that you can choose your dorm.”

“Okay”

Afterward, both Min and Miru go to the cemetery where his Sister got buried, of course, Min is the one taking care of it since his Sister asks him to do so and so he did. When they arrive at Miru’s family graveyard since Min buried her where her parents got buried, Miru cried silently. Min just watching him of how strong this kid hold his tears the moment her Sister give her last testimony to him and then he didn’t even have any reactions after knowing his Sister already gone except for bursting when he knows that the father of his nephew who also lost his last breath in front of his eyes and how he stabbed his baby nephew then declaring to the Long’s without hesitation before escaping from them. He only watches while c.a.r.e.s.sing his back and just let him cry. After almost an hour, Miru already had done crying.

“Thank you, Brother Min”

“Are you alright now?”

“Uh-uh”

“Are we going now or we are still staying here for another hour?”

“Let’s go now, Brother Min”

“Okay, and are you not going to give your family any flowers or light a candle for them?”

“I can’t for now since what if they will visit here and will know that I’m still here, right?”

“I see then let’s go.”

Chapter 456 - Vol 7: Ch 456 – Manager Han Life Story 6

Both of them go right away to the S Elite Academy and then Min is the one talking to the current principal of the school while Miru just seating beside him. The principal wasn’t able to recognize Min except being one of the excellent and top S’lites alumni of his batch since the Hwang is still not disclosing to the public that he’s already the CEO of CA International and Group Company and then the public including media doesn't know anything of who are the Hwang Head Family Members since they hide their identity very well though they use their last name Hwang still no one can recognize them that they are the Head Family because they only thought that they are just related to the Hwang's. Only those who are loyal employees, staff, personnel's and close friends will know their identity as the Head Family of Hwang.

After discussing Miru's transfer, the principal is now escorting them to the dorm and let Min chose the room for Miru.

"Are you alright with this room Mr. Hwang?"

"No, and let's chose another room because I don't want everybody to know that Miru is connected with the Hwang's".

"I see" then he led them to another room. "Then how about this, are you alright with this one, Mr. Hwang?"

Min looking to the said room and then ask the young boy "Miru, how about this? Is it to your liking?"

"Uh-uh but there's two-bed here, why?"

"Ah, that's because you will also have your dorm mate Mr. Han" the principal explains.

"..." Miru didn't answer and just looking at Min instead as if asking 'can I use one room just for me?'

Min looking at him and ask "so you want to use a room just for you?" The boy nodded. "I see then Mr. Principal, please let me see a room for only one person and it has the same arrangement with this room here."

"Eh, but as for now we can only accommodate the influential one who requests to only have their own room"

“Really, and are you sure with that?”

“Ahh— that, the student’s who also got the highest mark of his / her entrance examination can also get a room for their own”.

“Then, that’s no problem because Miru will get the highest mark.”

“.....” The principal got speechless.

“I will do my best Brother Min”

“Good”

The Principal led them to another room which only occupies one person per room. After securing that Miru likes the room, they go back to the Principal’s Office and continue discussing. Min will be back on the next day since he will submit Miru papers to the Registration Office and process the young boy enrollment. Two weeks before the said entrance examinations, Min hired Personal Teacher to tutor and teach the boy, though he trusts the boy’s intelligence still he just did it to make sure that the boy will pass because S Elite Academy is a more standard school compared to other local S Country schools. Miru studied and learn a new thing for two weeks while Min is also busy arranging Miru’s room to his liking. He also put a picture album of Miru’s family on the desk and arranges everything.

Day by day, the entrance examination arrives and Min personally escorts Miru to the school since he will serve as his guardian the moment he becomes a student of S Elite Academy. He only waits outside because Miru already taking the exams along with the other new and transfer students of S Elite Academy. Four hours after, they got the result and indeed Miru got the highest score with 92.8% rates that he will skip two grades, so instead of 4th Grader, he will be now a 6th Grader. Min congratulates him right away after knowing the result and then the Hwang Family give him a celebratory celebration for passing the entrance examination and now he will officially a student of S Elite Academy.

7 years later, Miru already a graduating student of S Elite Academy of University Managerial Department, and then 2 months left before officially leaving the S’lites campus permanently. And it’s been 7 years that he didn’t see Min and the Hwang’s. Of course, Min gives him the phone so that he can call and update his activities every time his free. As for him, he always calls Min every day but then become once a week when he becomes a teenager, and then he didn’t call him anymore only message about his reports and updates. Now he calls him after 1 year of not calling him and it's around 6 am when he calls Min, three hours before his classes start.

"Ring, ring, ring"

"Hello, who is this please?"

"E—eh, is this Mr. Hwang Min number?"

"Yes, it is" then he only heard that lady calling Brother Min. "Min, Miru is calling you"

"Eh, wait a moment, Mina"

"....." 'B—-Brother Min is already married but it's been a year right?'

"Yes Miru, and you call now, is there any problem in there?"

"T—that....."

"Ha, ha, ha you must be surprised that I'm already married, right?"

"Uh-uh and it's been a year but then you already are"

"Well you didn't call me for a year and I thought you're busy with your studies, so I didn't inform you about that"

"I see and Brother Min, did your wife know about my background?"

"No, she doesn't since it's your private matters but she knows you because of Annie. Geez that girl, she becomes talkative the moment she got married."

“Ha, ha it must be because she got married first before you Brother Min, and did I disturb the two of you?”

“.....”

“I must be but I will visit you Brother Min and everyone – the Hwang’s- before meeting my nephew for the first time”

“Oh, you’re now going and ready to meet your nephew?”

“Yes, Brother Min and I guess it’s time for me to meet him. I don’t know if he will recognize me or might know anything about me but I will do my best before filing the custody case when I turn 16 this year.”

“I see but then you need to be careful, okay?”

“Uh-uh I will and thank you Brother Min” and this will be the last time he will call him Brother Min since two months from now, he will call him CEO Hwang after joining the CA Families officially.

“Are you sure that you won’t call me Brother Min, anymore?”

“Uh-uh since you will be my boss two months from now but I won’t ever forget everything of what you did to me, Brother Min”.

“I see and congratulations in advance. By the way, we are going to watch the Mr. and Ms. S’lite tonight”.

“Eh?”

“Ha, ha don’t be shy Miru”

“.....”

“By the way, are you already done packing your things? If not I will send someone to help you out,”

“Thank you for that Brother Min but I’m already done packing my things.”

“I see and after you go out from your dorm, you will stay with my family before you turn 16 since you’re still not in legal age”.

“Okay, and Brother Min, are you sure that I won’t be disturbed you?”

“You won’t”

“Okay”

At night, the Hwang’s are watching the Mr. and Ms. S’lite of the year. Of course, Miru is the Mr. S’lite and the Ms. S’Lite is none other else, his future wife, Long Yuri.

The host announces the winners of the night excitedly “and our Mr. S’lites and Ms. S’lites of the year are none other than Mr. Han Miru, the youngest student from Managerial Department and Ms. Long Yuri, the youngest proctor from Managerial Department.”

On the other hand, after hearing the familiar last name, Miru is intrigued because he didn’t hear anything about a proctor with a surname of Long since she never his proctor, same with Min and the Hwang’s since they didn’t hear anything from Miru. All of them look to where Miru stands and just realized that he also not aware of it since he is standing in a daze when he already got it called.

“Mr. Han Miru?”

“.....”

“Mr. Han Miru you can come on stage now”

Yuri looking at his directions and wonders 'Han Miru, is he really that kid or not?'

Chapter 457 - Vol 7: Ch 457 – Manager Han Love Story 1

After being called by the host twice, Miru returns back to reality and comes up on stage meanwhile the host teasing him right away.

Host: Are you that shocked and surprised to have a goddess proctor just like our Ms. Han Yuri here?

Miru : (answered calmly) no and it's just that it's my first time knowing that we have Ms. Han Yuri here as one of the School Proctor.

Host: As expected from the advanced class since you've never had any proctor every time you have your examinations since your class adviser is also your proctor. Of course, you never know about our Ms. Han Yuri here because she joined 3 years after you become officially a student here. Well, our Ms. Han Yuri always our Ms. S'lite for 4 years straight and it's her 4th time this year but still it's your first time meeting her today that's why the advanced class of your batch are all not aware of every new proctor here.

Miru: I see

Host: By the way everyone, before I interviewed our Mr. and Ms. S'lite of the year, please bear with me but I will tell everyone here that Mr. Han Miru here, been always the winner of Mr. S'lite since he become 10th Grader but then he always decline and right now he can't refuse since it's part of the program as a University Graduating Student of here. (Then he tells Miru achievements and everyone clapping their hands because they were all aware of it of how he will always stay on top since the day he enrolled in the school) and now for Ms. Han Yuri, what are your comments about our Mr. Han Miru as a proctor point of view?

Yuri: Well I always heard about his achievements from everyone of here and as a proctor, I'm amazed because of his achievement that you can't help but ask questions to your mind, is he really 15? Or either is he really that genius? Well, he really is but still, it's quite shocking because we have another young genius student again and they will continue the honor of S'lites. I tell you honestly when I'm still a student here and as one of the top, all of us only have at least 88-90 grades but then later after we graduate, all our juniors always surpassing us per batch graduates and we will just wonder always about this 'thank goodness that we are not their batch mates or else we are nothing if we are. (Alumni's such as the audiences, teachers, and proctors are laughing because Yuri stating the fact and they are also wondering that one). Alright, that's only my opinion and Mr. Han Miru, can I ask you one thing?

Miru: About what Proctor Han?

Host: Oh my, how brave of you Ms. Yuri?

Yuri: Well let's ask this one thing from him and for all single here who's interested in Mr. Han Miru will know after hearing his answers.

Host: I see, so what is it then?

Yuri: Do you have a girlfriend?

All : (Everyone single who's interested in him got excited about what would be Miru's answers.)

Host: My, my our students here even single teachers and proctors are quite curious of Mr. Han Miru answers, well you can't help it since he is a total package, after all, Mr. Han is such a handsome, tall and smart one, yet only thing is, he is still 15.

All: Age doesn't matter Teacher.

Host: Ha, ha, ha right, right but mind you guys Mr. Han Miru is still a graduating student here and especially to those single teachers and proctors here or else you will be kicked out only if you win the heart of Mr. Han Miru, so now Mr. Han Miru, what's your answer of what Proctor Yuri ask just now?

Miru: Well as for courtesy then I will also ask Proctor Yuri if she's already married or not?

Host: Oh my, oh my what a brave student to ask that one from Proctor Yuri, so then Proctor Yuri, which one?

Yuri : (Suddenly she familiar with the scene when that young boy bravely declared to her parents that one after hearing the way he asks the question just now) 'that kid is really him but then why it looks very different? It's been 7 years but why it's very different and why he didn't change his last name if he is really that kid?' (Wondering while staring at Miru)

Miru : (Feel the sudden gazed from her and called her attention) Proctor Yuri?

Host: Ha, ha seeing you being like this Proctor Yuri, don't tell me you're also one of the proctors who are interested in Mr. Han Miru here, am I right Proctor Yuri?

Yuri: Might and maybe I will be one of them if I don't happen to have my first love and it's just that Mr. Han Miru here is really reminded me about my first love.

Host: Ha, ha, ha maybe Mr. Han Miru's father is your first love.

Yuri: Ha, ha, right, and maybe since Mr. Han Miru is 15 here but I'm still 24, so it must be Mr. Han here is look-alike with my first love.

Host: I see and so now Mr. Han Miru, it's your turn to answer now.

Miru: Okay and here's my answer, I don't have any girlfriend nor interested in anyone and didn't dream to have any relationship at the moment because I still have one goal to achieve, though I have my Brother Min, Sister Ann, Father and Mother here still I need to achieve it because that's what I promise to them, so sorry for being like this but this is the real me. Thank you and by the way (looking to the host and the program in charge then ask) can I go now?

Host: Eh?

Yuri: 'Brother Min, Sister Ann, Father, and Mother? Is he really different from that kid? I mean he is not that kid right, since he only has his Sister that time? No, and what the heck, I'm back to zero again but ...' (Stop her wondering when she notices Miru going to go down on stage and suddenly stopping him by holding his right hand)

Miru : (didn't wait for the Host and in-charge reply so he goes down right away but then suddenly someone stops him by holding his hand and realize who is it) eh, Proctor Yuri?

Yuri : (Got surprised while caught off guard but she already holding him and told the most reasonable reason when in fact she just doesn't want him to go away again) the program still going on and of course you are a graduating student, so you must oblige one of the School Rules and Regulations, am I right?

Miru: Ah, that's right, and thank you for reminding me that one Proctor Yuri.

Yuri: Good then let seat down in there. (Provided seats for the Mr. and Ms. S'lites)

Miru just nodded and then Yuri lead him to their seats, when they are seating down, Miru reminded her to let go of his hand since he won't leave the program anymore while Yuri let go of her hand without any unnecessary movements when in fact she's very nervous because she got to hold his hand on an impulse and without thinking, so she is quite flattered because this is the first time she holds his hands.

The School Program runs and ends smoothly then gives its closing remarks before dismissing all the audiences such as the parents, family, relatives, school teachers, school faculties, and students.

Chapter 458 - Vol 7: Ch 458 – Manager Han meet his nephew

On the next day, Miru visits the Hwang's Villa for the first time after 7 years of staying at the school dorm. The Hwang Family welcomes him wholeheartedly and once again congratulating him in advance for attaining the Managerial Degree at such a young age. They celebrate and chat before taking a rest for the whole night, of course, Miru got introduces by Min's wife and Annie's Family Members. Miru once again got to sleep in their guest room since tomorrow he will be going to see his nephew and still unknown if he will be got to meet and have a chance to talk with him but at least he is now on his move to get hold of his nephew.

Around 8 am, Miru bid his farewell to the Hwang Family and didn't ask anything from them since aside from her Sister money's that he still didn't spend even one Sen because the S Elite Academy gives him allowances as a Scholar Student and incentives for always being on top. After bidding his farewell, he rides a taxi and goes to that place, the place where the Long's are staying and residing. After almost 2 hours of riding the taxi, they arrive and he hops outside. He is thanking the driver first before closing the car door and then standing at the villa but still can't be compared to the Hwang's Villa. Right away, Miru looking at the calling card that he keeps for 7 years and looking at the address that stated one of the walls – Welcome to the Long's Residence and Villa.

'This is it, you are nowhere to go Miru and you must keep your promise from your sister to get your nephew from their hands'.

On the other hand, from the 3rd floor, there's also a kid standing and looking to his windows and notice someone visiting them that he got intrigued because there's nobody dares to visit at this family villa after all.

'Eh, who is it? Is it Sister Yuri or the two monsters?' He wondered and then his curiosity on a peak, so he approaches near the window and looks who it is. 'Eh, it's an unfamiliar car but who is it?' At the same time, Miru hops out of the car and the kid sees him who almost looks the same as him. 'Eh, is he a doppelganger of me?'

The kid looking around outside and then after making sure that no one's around especially the bodyguards and maids, escape using his route and got down from the 3rd Floor to the ground floor using the rope. He walks right away and goes outside by using the secret passage provided by his sister Yuri. 'Sorry Sister Yuri I violate your order by going outside even it's not an emergency situation for me.'

When he goes out, he calls the attention of that someone.

"Hey you Sir, it's private property and so the one you're looking for might not be residing here".

Miru heard a kid's voice and then looking from where but only got to be in a daze because the kid who's telling him that one really looks like of him. On the other hand, the kid is also in the same manner and situation because the moment Miru turns his body towards his direction, he is also in a daze because they really look alike and only one question comes up to his mind but he didn't realize that he ask it out loud.

“Are you perhaps my father?”

“.....” Miru got speechless while the kid’s answered his own silly question.

“Ahh, sorry for that silly question of mine Sir and you might not my father since you are still young from the way how you look and your features.”

“It’s alright and by the way kid, how old are you?”

“Me?”

“Yes”

“I’m 7 and how about you Sir?”

“I’m 15 and by the way can I ask your name?”

“T— that....”

“Ah right I’m still not introducing myself but I’m Miru so how about you?”

“Uhm Sir, can I go and approach near you?”

“Yes, you can” then the kid approaches him right away and suddenly dragging him away from the entrance gate.

“Sorry for dragging you right away Sir Miru but we are right in front of the entrance gate and someone might discover us so I need to drag you before it’s too late for us” ‘especially me and will get punish again by the two monsters again.’

“It’s alright and by the way can I look at your right shoulder?”

“Eh, what and for what reason Sir Miru?”

“You will know it at the right time kid but not this time” then Miru looking right away to his right shoulder and then notices the wart that got stab by a pen from him.

The kid looking at him and then ask “how do you know that I have something on my right shoulder, Sir Miru?”

Miru didn’t answer and just looking at him then hugging him right away while feeling sentimental.

“Eh, why are you crying Sir Miru? A—- are you really perhaps my father?”

“I’m not but I know who is your mother and father”

“Eh, really and you really know my parents?”

“Uh-uh”

“Are you sure that you’re not lying to me, Sir Miru? I mean my Sister told me that my parents are already gone but then my Sister parents told me that they happen to pick me up and I almost got kidnapped the moment they know that I got adopted by the Long’s and that’s why I got this wart since they are trying to hurt me but then my Sister told me with a different story that someone important to me left a mark on me on purpose so that someone can recognize me right away. I don’t know who’s to believe at first but then later on I trust my Sister more than my Sister parents since they are always hurting me and blame me for what happened because my Sister Elder Brother passed away because of my existence, although my Sister told me that Sister parents love me when I’m still a baby, Sister Mother b.r.e.a.s.tfeed me while Sister Father taking good care of me but then, later on, they suddenly change year by year.”

“They hurt you?”

“Shh, keep it a secret Sir Miru because no one can fight Sister Parents since they are an influential family”

“I don’t know if you believe me or not but I’m that person who you got that wart from and I’m your Mother’s younger brother, so in other words, I’m your uncle”.

“U—uncle, y— you a—are my uncle?”

“Yes”

“T— then can you please get me from them, please?”

“For now I can’t but I will be within this year, so can you wait for me for another year?”

“Within this year and not now but why?”

“Because I’m going to fight your custody from them and right now I’m still a graduating student so if I will fight it now, 100% I will lose your custody because I’m still a student but don’t worry I will get hold of you within this year, so can you wait for me then?”

“Okay, I will wait for you but then in two conditions of me, are you alright with it?”

“Okay, and what is it?”

“First you are going to visit me here every weekend around 2 pm and last not but at least I will call you whatever I want after you win me from them, is that alright?”

“Okay and that’s a deal”

“Thank you” then this time the kid hug him and said to him softly “please get me from them as soon as possible because I almost can’t do it anymore though my Sister always protecting me but still it’s not enough because I always hide my room if Sister is not around. They didn't even let me go to study but then my Sister tutoring me secretly and on her parent's back, so please get me from them, okay?"

"I will and by the way who's that Sister you're talking about?"

The kid heard of a car incoming so he bid his farewell right away that he didn't hear what Miru ask from him "ah they already here, bye-bye Sir Miru and don't forget to meet me again here in the same place and at 2 pm. Bye, bye" then he runs right away.

Chapter 459 - Vol 7: Ch 459 – Manager Han Love Story 2

On the same day, Miru arrived at the Hwang Family Villa and tells everything about how he meets his nephew for the first time, and then Min drops him off at his schools since he still has classes before graduating. So from school to the Long Villa's and vice versa Miru always travels every weekend since he didn't forget his promise to his nephew. And so he always visits his nephew every weekend at 2 pm and chatting for one hour, he even teaches his nephew other things if in case he doesn't have any topic to chat about to his nephew since he is not a talkative type. Two months later, Miru graduate, and at the same time, he turns 16. He also reported his first day of work and then officially calling his Brother Min as CEO Hwang. And another 3 months later, his nephew turns 8, of course, he buys a small cake for him that the kid glad because it's his first time celebrating his birthday with blood-related to him unknown to him that his Sister Yuri who always celebrated his birthday is also blood-related of him.

"Eh, this is your first time celebrating your birthday with your family member?"

"Uh-uh because my Sister is not my blood-related Uncle and of course I'm only an adopted from them so I never did".

"You said that your Sister is the daughter of your supposed to be adopted parents right?"

"Yes, and is there something wrong?"

"Yes but I will tell you everything after I fully got hold of you and next month the hearing for your custody will begin"

“Eh, really and are you sure?”

“Yup and maybe today or tomorrow they will receive the case for the right of custody from the family court.”

“Then—then can I start staying with you now, Uncle?”

“Not yet since we are still going to fight your custody from them and you’re Uncle is still going to face with them face to face.”

“I don’t understand anything but you must win okay, Uncle?”

“I will and alright you can leave now or else they might catch you here”

“Ah, right, bye-bye Uncle”

“Bye-bye and take good care”

“I will”

As Miru predicted, the Long’s got the letter from the court. Of course, they are both surprised because they never expect that kid is still alive that they thought he already died along time ago and now he even dares to fight custody for that boy.

“Tsk, that kid still alive? And how will he fight with us when in fact he just a commoner, most of all he is an orphan and who just appears out of nowhere. It’s like a battle of Lion and Kitten”. The witch grandmother sneer and then the witch husband aka the Grandfather instruct his Secretary right away.

“Call Yuri and instruct her to go home right away for family matters”

“Yes Master”

And that's the reason why Miru told his nephew to go back now since he predicted that they just received the letter today and have them going home early for discussion. After making sure that his nephew already inside his room, he gives a signal to his nephew that he is going now and this time he got his car provided from the company- CA International and Group Company.

The Right of custody hearing is scheduled every Friday and they will have 12 hearings before the family court decides the final decision of who's going to get the rights for the kid and so it did take 3 months. One day before the final decision tomorrow, Miru and his nephew are secretly meeting again at their secret place but Miru didn't brainwash his nephew at all because he wants him to decide wholeheartedly.

"Neh, Yu?"

"Yes, Uncle?"

"Tomorrow will be the final decision so if I win, do you want to stay with your name or have another name?"

"Sister named me Yu, so it will remain Yu, Uncle since Sister never mistreated me and she always protects me every time Sister's parents hurting me"

"Are you going to be sad that you will be away with your sister then?"

"A little bit but I will be with you Uncle, my only blood related"

"Tomorrow will be the final decision and the family court will also ask you where do you want to be with but then after your final choice, I will tell you everything but you must not resent of whatever it is, okay?"

"I won't since Sister told me that revenge is bad especially if it's violence against family so that's why she always protected me against her parents."

On the other hand, while the two Uncle and nephew are chatting with each other, Yuri arrived earlier because tomorrow will be the final decision of the custody rights and she returns early because she didn't keep what her Elder Brother told him to do before he lost his last breath.

'Brother Sorry but I didn't keep it'

"Welcome back Young Miss"

"Mmm.... by the way, is Yu in his room"

"Yes Young Miss"

"I see" then Yuri climbed upstairs and open her nephew's room only to realize that he is not around, 'Where is he? Is Yu aware that Mom and Dad are always coming early since the day they received that letter? Tsk, that kid he is too carefree.'

"Oh, Yuri you're here and where's that kid?"

"Inside the bathroom, since I'm going to walk with him"

"I see and you must secure that kid won't leave us and that Han Miru must never get hold of that kid"

"Mom that kid is your Grandson and he is Yu"

"Shut up and I never acknowledge that kid especially when that kid has that woman looks".

"Yuri your only job is to secure that kid will decide to stay with us and not with that kid Uncle".

"Same to you Dad, Yu is you're" Yuri got cut off by her Dad.

“Go and just do your job, if he won’t listen to you then we will make sure that he can’t appear tomorrow in court”

“.....” Yuri is angry but she can’t retort back because she knows how powerful her parents are and then wonders again after realizing it ‘geez that Han Miru is really sure brave since he really fights my parents but, wait for a moment, is that Han Miru – the Young Brother of Yu’s Mother – and that Han Miru – the top student of S Elite Academy University Managerial Department is only one person? Geez, Dad and Mom why you don’t want me to appear in court so I can confirm if they are one person? Ah, right where’s Yu right now and don’t tell me he goes to that place again?’

Chapter 460 - Vol 7: Ch 460 – Manager Han Love Story 3

After realizing that Yu might be at that place, Yuri goes right away but then got stop by his parents.

“Eh, where are you going Yuri, and are you supposed to walk with that kid?”

“Ah, Yu escape from me and run right away after changing so I’m going to follow him right away”

“Tsk not just looks from that woman since he even got his attitudes and behavior from that woman”

“Yet you didn’t teach him proper etiquette and manners” Yuri retort softly.

“Did you say something Yuri?”

“Nothing Mom and Dad, I’m going now” then she runs right away.

“.....”

After running from her parents, Yuri goes to that place and then notice her nephew before calling him.

“Yu”

The kid still talking excitedly to Miru then hear his name and turn around before realizing who called him “eh, Sister you already arrived?”

Yuri slowly approaches before realizing that there’s someone with him and recognize who is he. “Yeah, I already arrived, and are you aware that..... eh, M——— Mr. Han Miru?”

“It’s you Proctor Yuri and I never expect that you are really from Long’s Family since I thought you just happen to share the last name with them.”

“T—— that”

“Eh Uncle Miru and Sister know each other?”

Yuri got surprised when the kid recognize him “y—you already know him?”

Yu replied excitedly “Uh-uh and I can’t wait to stay with Uncle Miru since I met Uncle”.

“Ah” Yuri had a very sad expression and pretending she didn’t then continue “I see and good for you Yu”

“Mmmmm” Yu nodded excitedly and failed to notice her expression then continue talking with his Uncle until Miru instruct him first.

“Go inside at the car Yu and you will see my birthday present you in there”

“Eh, really Uncle, and you still have a present for me?”

“Uh-uh” then Yu running where his Uncle parks the car and get inside right away.

“You can seat first Proctor Yuri” right away Yuri seated near him but not so close since they have a distance from her to him and then he continued “I know everything about what your parents did to Yu and thank you for always protecting Yu all the time”

“Did Yu tell you anything?”

“Uh-uh and everything”

“I see and so you really going to get hold of him, huh”

“Yes Proctor Yuri but still I’m not sure if I win tomorrow since I still didn’t have enough evidence about what your parents did to Yu, though I already submit my DNA Test Result to prove that I and Yu are blood-related”

“C--- can you retract your custody rights just for me and I will promise that I will protect him, so please?”

“I know that you don’t want to be separated by Yu since you’re also blood-related to him and you’re his Auntie but then how about your parents?”

“T--- that”

“I know how much you love Yu but then if he will stay with you forever then Yu will always be in his room and he won’t have any chance to mingle with other people. When he’s grown up, he will know everything by his own will but then he will resent your parents forever and it might also happen to you, so I don’t want it to happen. Well, that’s only my second reason since I have my main reason for it, and do you remember what I said during the Mr. and Ms. S’lite on that day?”

Yuri tried to recall and replied, “you mean you’re goal is to get hold of Yu?”

“As expected of you Proctor Yuri and you’re right because that’s what I promise to my sister before she passed away, so right now....” Miru got cut off because he notices Yu coming his way to him.

“Uncle Miru, Uncle Miru”

“Yes?”

“How to use this one and what is it?”

“That’s a video game and....” get the box from him then continue “you can choose from these 3 games and insert it here for you to play though you will only play it in your free time”

“Free time, you mean I’m going to school?”

“Yes of course but then for now I guess I’m going home now”

“Oh, you’re going home now, why?”

“Silly” then tap his head “both of us still don’t know the final decision tomorrow and if I win then it would be the last time to spend your day with your Sister here, am I right?”

“Right but Uncle please make sure that you will win tomorrow, okay?”

Miru laughing heartedly with a very carefree expression that causes Yuri to caught off guard and turn her head right away before he notices her blushing face “I will”

“Okay and see you, tomorrow Uncle”

“Uh-uh and see you tomorrow Yu” then Miru leaves but stops for a moment since his nephew calling him.

“Uncle, Uncle?”

“Yes?”

“This” he rising up the video games and shows it to him “please, teach me how to play these, okay?”

“I will”

“That’s a promise then, okay?”

“Yes and it’s a promise”

“S— since when did you meet him?”

“Eight months ago Sister and at first I thought Uncle Miru is my father since we look alike but then he’s not and it’s impossible since Uncle Miru is too young to be my father.”

“I see and aside from knowing that he is your Uncle did he say anything else?”

“No he didn’t Sister and Uncle is not a talkative type so if he’s out of topic, he just teaches me how to read and write. Ahh, right he always brought me any reading and writing materials every weekend visit of me but I can’t have it since your parents will know that there’s someone I meet so Uncle always carrying it every he visits. Uncle Miru only told me that there’s something he’s going to tell only if he got hold of me and then he did tell me that whatever it is I must not resent someone since it’s bad, don’t know why Uncle told me that one but I guess Uncle also like me, I mean living alone without any blood relatives in your surroundings.”

“I see and by the way did your Uncle tell anything about tomorrow?”

“Mmmm..... Uncle Miru only told me that tomorrow will be the final decision tomorrow to know if he can get me from your parents and then he even ask that will I be lonely if I will separate from you Sister”

“Then what’s your answer, Yu?”

“I answered that only a little bit sad because I will be away with you Sister since you always protecting me from your parents but then if I won’t, I would be a prisoner forever in my room and will always be ignorant of the surroundings. Luckily Uncle Miru didn’t get away from me after knowing that I’m an ignorant kid and a kid who doesn’t know everything even my last name I don’t have. I’m too scared that Uncle Miru might not go to get me because of not knowing anything and I even pretend that I’m not ignorant but then later on Uncle Miru caught me off guard and then start teaching me. I ask him if he will go far away from me after knowing that I’m an ignorant kid but then Uncle said that he won’t do that because I’m his nephew and whatever it is he will do everything for my sake” then Yu crying and hug his Sister, unknown to him his Sister is his Auntie after all.
