My parents just told me the truth what happened to me but it never appears it on my mind because of my loss memory and then I remembered it all after my parents got taken by the police officer and told their cases to them, I don’t know what to do after witnessing it with my own two eyes and then my sights became dark and I fell on stairs before I lost my consciousness I lay in the floor and realized that I hit my head hard but luckily it didn’t bleed then I just black out. Because only my parents and I living in the house no one knows what happened to me, I’ve been unconscious for 5 days and when I regain consciousness, I realize I still lay in our house and same position when I black out but then I regain my lost memory and remembered my twin sister, I and her have the same name because both of us born as an identical twins with gracefulness that’s why both of our name is Meng Fang. I remembered her but already too late because she’s already gone 16 years ago. Not only that, in just 5 days my parents proven guilty in the court for embezzling the company funds that I know that they we’re just blackmailed and I’m going to prove their innocence but it’s still too far for me because I got blacklisted in any business because of my parents and you’re the only one allowing me to get hired, so I’m really lucky to meet all of you Madame, Sir, Ma’am and Boss”

“No worries, I know my son and daughters well because they are not the type of persons to discriminate someone. For now may we know we’re your parents got imprisoned?”
