

Last Man 49

Chapter 49 - Mei works like a detective

Mei and En just arrived in the prison. Because Mei didn't wear any make up nobody realizes who is she but then both of them who have a pretty and handsome face all passersby, prison personnels and other visitors can't help but will look at them. The two who already used of it just don't mind and Mei ask one of the personnel.

"We're here for the couple Mr and Mrs Meng"

"Oh, what a surprise? The two of you are first visitors of them."

'First? they already here for 2 months and yet no one'

"Ma'am and Sir, just follow us"

The personnel guide them and let them seat first then the personnel are calling the two prisoners.

"Mr and Mrs Meng, you have a visitors"

"Visitor's?"

"Yes and follow me"

The two follows, they see who the visitors of them but they don't know them but they didn't react and just seat as what the personnels told. After the personnel left and just guard outside. The four of them are seating opposite to each other with a window glass that separate them, the prisoners and the visitors.

Mei said it to them directly "I just know the two of you today but the two of you don't know who we are but don't worry we're not a bad person. Your daughter Meng Fang is one of the staff of us, so I know a little details about you. First, can you explain it to me why the two of you become board of directors 16 years ago?"

He answered right away because he can sense that this two are not sent by his brother who betrayed him "My father decide me to be the next CEO but I want to study and know the people first so I ask my father that I and my wife will become a board of directors first"

"Oh, then have you observe anyone who's jealous or envy of you?"

'What a smart woman?' "Yes"

"Okay, let's be quick because we only have 20 minutes for visiting you're here, just nod if I'm right"

"Go ahead"

"The one who's jealous of you is your brother and he is the mastermind of your car accidents 16 years ago, because of that accidents, one of your daughter died and then realize that his acting like a savior that he saves your family. That's why you've been working as an assistant to him, the three of you just want to have a normal life, that's why you work behind the scenes while your brother is the one getting the credit. After your brother became the President, the two of you got blackmailed by embezzling the company funds that without knowing that both of your names are one of board members and all evidence of embezzling are all pointing to the both of you."

"H---how did you know?"

"It's simple because power, authority and money is a source of evil and make trouble for us"

“So did I guess it right?”

“Yeah, yeah you got it right but how did you know?”

“Your daughter Meng Fang is the one who inform that you got blackmailed and I just analyze it”

“For now I’m going to meet our lawyers and we will catch the culprit”.

“M—-miss, why did you want to help?”

“We just want to help you Meng, you’re daughter and I’m sure both of you will be release here, so just trust us, alright?”

“T—-thank you” Mrs Meng can’t help but cry because no one will help them to oppose her brother in law and her husband just want to live a normal life because he don’t want to lose his wife and daughter.

“Five minutes left” the personnel remind them.

“Oh, it’s almost time. By the way Mr and Mrs Meng don’t worry your other daughter is alive and didn’t die from the car accident 16 years ago, my sister is talking her at this time”

“What?”

“Time’s up”

“Just trust us alright” the two of them nodded while Mei and En leave them right away. Mrs Meng told her husband “this time we will not let your brother off”

“Yes and I’m sorry for being incompetent Meilin”

“You just did that to protect us and you’re not incompetent Chen”

“Thank you Meilin and Fefe is in goods hands while fengfeng is alive”

“Shh....why are you crying Chen?”

“I’m glad that someone who we don’t know are willing to help us and yet my brother or my family didn’t want to help me”.

Meanwhile outside in the prison Mei heard her phone and notice that her brother already called many times so she answered it and they talk. After the call, Mei told her husband.

“We will wait them here My En. Bro En will coming here with CEO Meng and their lawyers”

“Oh, how fast? You, Rei and El are really siblings”

“What do you mean by that My En?”

“Never mind and let’s wait inside in the van. Some mans are already looking and stealing at you, My Mei”

“...” speechless because she don’t know if she laugh or cry. En already hold her and then the two of them got inside in the van. After 5 minutes they notices 7 mans arrives and all of them wearing a suit that they will know for sure that these 7 are all lawyers and maybe their client is a VIP that got prison. After another 10 minutes, Mei received her brother call and asking here directly.

“Where are you? We already here.”

“We’re inside the Van and before we get inside can you let CEO Meng and his lawyers...” before she can finish, the van suddenly open by En and her brother En said “we’re here, Mei this is CEO Meng, his assistant and his lawyers”

“Oh, come and hop in. Let’s discuss it first and it not suitable to discuss outside”

“Alright, let’s hop in CEO Meng and guys”

All of them got in and Mei automatically relay her findings.

“So this is what I got, both Mr and Mrs Meng got blackmailed by his own brother not just once but he did something worse, he is the h mastermind of the car accident 16 years ago, making a false report that the family died from that accident and only one got survive which is the other Meng Fang who now being his daughter because he adopt her and then now he blackmailed the couple for embezzling company funds which is for sure his the one who did it and last CEO Meng”

“Yes”

“Do you know that both Mr and Mrs Meng are one of the board of directors in subsidiary branch?”

“What?”

“Oh, so based of your expression you don’t know, so your youngest son lied to you and never mention that he put their names on the list of boards of directors, you’re not aware that the two of them working behind the scenes then the one who took the credit is this son of yours. Because of his performances you decide to let him become the President but not the CEO one because you plan to give that title to your granddaughter whom you taught that the only who one survive to that accidents. Perhaps he only told you that this two names are the one who embezzles the company funds and give you a copy of this evidence that point of them, after looking all the evidences you told your son to handle it and let them punish for their acts.”

“...” he was speechless because what Mei said is right and she never miss a thing meanwhile the 7 lawyers are all listening and write down what Mei said. At first they we’re all dumbfounded of what Mei found out but as a lawyer they observe that this woman is a genius and smart one.

“CEO Meng?”

“Go ahead”

“Can I look the copy of that evidence?”

“Assistant Lin did you bring it?”

“Yes CEO Meng” open the brief case then give it to CEO Meng.

“This is the copy of the evidence”

“Thanks CEO Meng” Mei received the documents and study it quietly. After 5 minutes, she said “Sir?”

“Me?” Mei nodded “what is it?”

“Please check this 10 banks accounts”

“Huh?”

CEO Meng got the point and said to his assistant “Assistant Lin investigate these 10 banks account who names under and make it quick, my son and his wife already in prison for 2 months and it’s my fault for not reviewing it well”

“Y—yes CEO Meng” he did it right away

“CEO Meng don’t blame yourself and you can’t blame anyone but you must punish your son for what he did. Your son became like this because of power, authority and money, you can’t blame why he become like that because his the one got tempted and doing this crime of his”

*T—thank you and I don't know how to repay all what you did”

“No worries CEO Meng, we just want to help Meng, our staff”

After 5 minutes, Assistant Lin interrupted them “C—C”

“Tell it directly what did you find out”

“Each account is all under the name of President Meng assistants and secretaries”

What?”

“I guess your lawyers CEO Meng already know what's wrong and how did they got blackmailed, but first is this lawyers of yours or your company lawyers?”

“My lawyers, at first I was bringing all lawyers with me but because of Engineer EI, I suddenly realized that there's something wrong so I only have my lawyers with me”

“Good, good and now Sir you already conclude for this matter right?”

Before the lawyers replied, Assistant Lin suddenly recognized En and Mei.

“O—oh my gosh”

“What's wrong Assistant Lin?”

“C—CEO Meng these two are Captain En and Teacher Mei”

All of them asked in unison “what?”

Assistant Lin who still single even he already on his 30's but because he is a fan of Goddess Mei, he always checking the news of her, when he read the articles about her goddess dating Captain En, he hack the information of En in shipping fields and he only knows how he looks because his info is strongly protected so after knowing is just a rumor, he sighed of relief. He tried to hack Mei info but it's also strongly protected. Well it's strongly protected because Rei is an IT Graduate so nobody can hack her family informations because Rei is the most known genius IT specialist and that's why she earn money that much and also one of the mysterious top rich individuals in IT fields and she was called R.

"So the rumors about the two of you dating are really true"

"Sorry Sir but our dating phase already end and now she already my wife 3 years ago"

"Eh?"

"Okay, okay My En enough of that and now all of you know our identity but don't mind us and let's get back to our main matter. So lawyers please share your views"

The Head Lawyer is the one who share their all conclusion "Thanks Teacher Mei, and here are findings: Mr and Mrs Meng got blame that these 10 banks account are there Secretaries and Assistant even the truth that all of them are President Meng peoples. All of this are already planned by President Meng 16 years ago and he just executed his final move because CEO Meng, his father already trusted him. For the car accidents we don't have concrete evidence."

"For that evidence I'm sure Mr Meng already have it and just keep it without revealing"

"How?"

"I talk Mr Meng awhile ago and his aware of his brother schemes, so he must have evidence that can prove it"

"You're right Mei but because Mr Meng love his brother and family, he just take the blame and never want to reveal it. So CEO Meng what are you going to your other son?"

“My Eldest Son and his own family already suffered enough so this time this monster will be punish whatever’ its means. Let’s go now and bailed my son and his wife”

“Yes CEO Meng”

Both El and Mei just observing CEO Meng then they follow them, En know the reason why they’re looking like that and just said them.

“We can’t help that thing My Mei and El. It’s the younger brother who did it all without even blinking to hurt his own flesh and blood”

“We know”
