

Last Man 50

Chapter 50 - Bailed out

After their discussions, they got out in the Van and entered in the jail. When they entered the Head Lawyers automatically said to the personnel.

Lawyer 1: "We're here to bailed out the couple Mr and Mrs Meng"

The personnel who is surprise and ask again "what?" then tell them something "you can't bailed them out, they already proven guilty and to have a life imprisonment".

Lawyer 1: "According to Article XX, Section X, stated that the persons involves will be get prison after the court decisions but both Mr and Mrs Meng proven guilty in just 5 days after the case got out and both of them we're already prison for 2 months without the decision of the court. For Human Rights Article XX, Section X, you can't prison the criminals if they didn't proven what they did. Let us know who's officers handle them"

"T—that"

Lawyer 2: "Where's your in charge?"

The prisoner in charge got out from his office because one of his team inform him that a group of people are here and somethings wrong. The moment he got out from his office he notice a group of people but not looking for trouble instead of group of stunning people, he wonder if all of them are celebrities.

He approach to where El, Mei, En, CEO Meng, his assistant and 7 lawyers then ask "what's the ruckus about?"

Lawyer 2: "Are you the one in charge?"

"Yes what's wrong?"

Lawyer 2: "I'm one of Mr and Mrs Meng lawyers and we're here to bailed them out"

Look to his team "bailed them out, why did you take it so long?"

"That...."

"What? Don't tell me you don't how the process is?"

Some personnels get his phone and tried to call someone but the other lawyer see it and stop.

Lawyer 3: "What are you doing, Sir? Who are you trying to call? Perhaps you're trying to call President Meng and inform him what the situation, right?"

"That..."

Lawyer 4: "Before we bailed out them I think we're going to investigate who's the accomplice of President Meng"

The in charge don't know all of it and just ask "what's wrong and how did it connect it to President Meng?"

Lawyer 4: "I think you're not aware what's your team doing so just observe"

"But I—"

Lawyer 1: "Yes you're in charge but we have the power for all you to be get fired right now if you don't want to cooperate, then let's try"

"Go ahead and let go the innocence"

Lawyer 5: "Obviously it's our job" one of the lawyer co-ed then pointing some jail guard and personnels who are now holding the phone "you, you, you, you and you stop what you're doing now"

"What do you mean Sir, I'm just calling my wife"

Lawyer 6: "Calling your wife during your duty, you sure are brave, do you know you already break the law as a civil workers?"

Lawyer 7: "Everyone who's been got point out from this man(Lawyer 5) please submit your phone to this man(Assistant Lin), and let's see if you're not trying to call President Meng"

Everyone who got pointed out give there phone to Assistant Lin and feel safe because the number of them is different to each other but still can get through to President Meng. They taught they will not get caught but unknown to them Assistant Lin is the next R, he didn't get award because R is the one who will received the most by just depositing the award to their account. Lin is being known the next R but he can never beat R but due to being next R, he got hired as an assistant of CEO Meng for almost 3 years now. Now he received the phone and start investigating it, he get his laptop again and start hacking. After 5 minutes he got a result and relay to them "all their numbers are all from President Meng"

Accomplice 1: "What, how did it happen?"

Lawyer 7: "Are you going to admit or not?"

Accomplice 2: "Yes, you're right and please let us off. All of our family members are captured by President Meng"

Lawyer 4: "Then why you didn't inform the police?"

Accomplice 4: "Our movements are all monitored by President Meng"

Accomplice : "So now you know and today for sure our family members will be their last day"

“Don’t worry I got the information without them knowing, so just pretend it didn’t happen” ‘Unless President Meng have R in his team but will for sure he doesn’t because R only accept if it’s legal and right means’

Well hacking is illegal but if they did it with a reason, in legal and right means then you got exempted in C Country government. As for R (Rei) she only hacks for government, for business who have victims of hackings and of course she creates a protection that no one can decode it.

Lawyer 1: “So today we will bailed out Mr and Mrs Meng”

Lawyer 6: “For the 5 of you just do what you’ve been asked by President Meng except today, understood?”

“Yes Sir”

Lawyer 3: “Ah, by the way have anyone of you report to him that Mr and Mrs Meng have these two visitors?”

“We still planning but you groups suddenly arrived”

Lawyer 3: “Good and except today continue to report President Meng about the couple but never mention him that they got bailed out, ubderstood”

“Y—yes Sir”

Lawyer 1: “As for your family members we will save them and we will inform you the moment they safe and in good place”

“Thank you, thank you”

Lawyer 2: "As a lawyers, all of you will let you go off but if you did it next time then we will never show mercy, understood?"

"Y-yes Sir"

Lawyer 7: "So how much the bail fees?"

"It's alright Sir, it seems this couple is also a victim of President Meng" then the incharge facing his teams "the two of you pick the couple and released them right now"

"Yes, Sir"

"My apology for my teams Sir and Ma'am"

"It's alright"

"Assistant Lin, all of us will be waiting inside the van"

"Yes, C"

"Shhh"

Lin got it right away, the CEO don't want them to know who is he so that's why he said that they wait them at the Van and he know what's Van he meant.

"Yes Sir"

All of them left and now waiting the three of them inside the Van. After they left the couple just got out from the prison and see the man who bailed them out, again they don't know who is he because the two of them are just working behind the scenes and Lin became assistant for the almost three years.

Assistant Lin is first time meeting the eldest son and his wife, even though they got prison for 2 months the two of them just still looking stunning and gorgeous.

“Thank you for bailing out us, I and my husband, Sir”

“Just call me Assistant Lin. Let’s go Master and Lady Meng”

“.....”

“You guys don’t forget what you’ve been told to do”

“Yes Sir”

“Good and this time you must do the right thing”

“Yes Sir and once again thank you”

Then the three of them left and approach where the Van park.

“The five of you are really lucky that you’ve given chance because those 7 who’s been doing all talk are lawyers and all of them are the best barrister in our country.”

“W—what?”

“You heard me but you got me disappointed this time, even you’re family got captured you still didn’t do the right and instead taking another victims who also innocent.”

Meanwhile at the Van

“Engineer El, Teacher Mei and Captain En, thank you, thank you”

“Eh, CEO Meng?” all of them are surprised because CEO Meng cried and his already on his 70’s

“I don’t know, I don’t know, if the three of you didn’t discover it earlier, I don’t know what I’m going to do”

“CEO Meng please calm down and relax because you’re already on your old age”

“It’s alright, I know my limits and I’m glad that you’re willing to help us”

“No worries as long as we help you without any ill intentions, that’s all that matter”

“What—” got cut off because Assistant Lin open the Van

“CEO Meng, we’re here”

“Dad?”

“Chen, my son are you alright?”

“Uh-uh”

“Father?”

“Yes its me Meilin, sorry for being late but the two of you are alright and safe now”

“Uhm, sorry for being interrupting you’re reunion but it safe if you talk inside the van”

“Ah, that’s right and thank you for reminding us Teacher Mei” all of them got inside

“No worries”

After getting in, his son ask “Dad how did you know the two of them? Are you the one who sent them to visit us?”

“We just meet them today and they’re the one who help us, for now Chen do you have evidence that proves your brother crimes and schemes”

“Yes I have dad and I always keep it inside my files, I don’t have a hard copy because it easy to steal and do you have a laptop?”

“Yes I have, Master Meng”

“Can I borrow it?”

“Yes” grab his laptop again and give to his master “here Master Meng”

“Thank you Sir”

“His my assistant, Chen. Call him Assistant Lin, not Sir”

“...” and doing something to the laptop. His movement was fasy and quick, just what Assistant Lin did when he check the phones awhile ago. After 5 minutes, he shows his files “Dad this is what Chen Wei doings”

“He—- he was the one who did tampering your car personally?”

“Yes dad and I already know about that but in order him to believe that Wei will succeed, I pretend that I fall from his trap so the three of us got save but then I never expect that he did something worse, to be sure that his schemes will succeed, that night he change my car with the same car with a tampered breaks and the fuel tanks leaked”

“Do you have that evidence also?”

“Yes Dad”

“Send it all to my lawyers and they will be doing for that matter”

“Yes Dad, so Sir can I have all your emails but first let me check the levels of protections”

“Don’t worry about that, all our emails are safe because R is the one who creates the protection” then give their emails.

Both Chen and Lin “R? as in R the top hackers and IT specialists?” they nodded

“That’s good and I already send the files”

“Now we’re done with this. Don’t worry Chen and Meilin, your name will be cleared”

“Yes Dad/Father”

“What are we going to do now Engineer El and Teacher Mei?”

“I will call my sister first, CEO Meng”

“Go ahead Engineer El”

El contact Rei right away but her lines is busy, then contact but still busy “I can’t connect through my sister, CEO Meng”

“Just try to call”

“Bro El who are you calling?”

“Rei, why?”

“Oh, I already get it through but Sis still not answering so I called again and again”

“...” everyone sweat dropped and speechless

“Ah it got through and connected to her”

CEO Meng is going to instruct to put it on loud speak but Mei already did it before him because they heard a lady voice on the other side of phone.

“Oh, Mei sorry for answering very late but I got a problem in my behalf.” Before they going to ask why, what, where, when and how, Rei already told them right away without delaying “I and Ms Meng is a little bit off, you already know that. First I call her and to meet me but Ms Meng is a spoiled one so she rejected and hung up on me, so in order for her to answer I make a way and that’s she willing to meet me. I show her first the photos but she can’t recognize it and Ms Meng miss the important one, I will tell you all the details when we meet. So after we almost done our talk Bro En give me a call and after that we continue talking, we left and then Ms Meng suddenly running away from me and got hit and run and now I’m here in C Hospital, Ms Meng is still in Emergency operating Room. Come here right away and by the way Bro El is now with you, so the two of you must done with your task. Come here in C Hospital right away, no delay. Bye”

“...” all of them who heard her are all speechless except El, Mei and En”

“Ha, ha that’s my sister and let’s go now”
