

Last Man 52

Chapter 52 - Accident

Meng and Rei just standing outside the coffee shop, when Rei is almost grabbing a taxi Meng running away from her and Rei almost got mad because of her stubbornness and a really spoiled one

“Silly, I told you don’t leave me and stay....”

The driver observe the two and just waiting when they will separate. Hurray, his target running away and before Rei could finish her warnings she heard an engine start and screech then bang. She witness it with her own two eyes, Meng got hit by that car, thrown out from the hit, lying in the street and her blood start to flow from her body to the road. Rei approach her right away the moment she got hit.

“Meng, don’t close your eyes you hear me”

“R—rei, he—”

“Don’t talk and just stay your eyes open” then Rei called 911 and someone picks up “This is Din Lou Rei, a car accident happens here in front of C City Azure/Residences, a lady is my colleagues that got hit by a car. She’s seriously injured and hurry, 5 minutes or else she will be dead”

“Yes Ma’am” then she heard that the other line hung up “guys there’s a car accident happened in C City/Azure Residences, that call is a friend who got hit and she must be a doctor because she only give us 5 minutes or else she will die”

“Alright let’s go and Team A Deploy”

“Yes Sir”

—Back to Rei—

A passersby start to surround and Rei ask them “whomever have a clean handkerchief please lend me and give me a bottle of water”

Since Rei is pretty, the guys automatically grab their handkerchief and bottle water then lend her “here Miss”

“Thanks and can you put the bottle of water beside me and just handle the handkerchief when I need it?”

“Yes, yes”

“Meng, you hear me don’t close your eyes, I will clean your wound and wrap it to applied pressure on it. No need to answer just open your eyes and make sure you stay it open” Rei said to Meng while she busying first aiding her.

She get one handkerchief from the passerby who handle it to her when she said handkerchief, rinse it from one bottled water, wipe the blood from a wet handkerchief and then get a dry handkerchief to wrap the wounds tightly in order to applied pressure. She did cover the head first, waist, arms and legs. When she wrapped the waist she asked the passersby to tie all 3 handkerchiefs to make it long. Rei did it swiftly, fast and quick in just 3 minutes, the passersby who witness it all didn’t even take a video because they were so amaze that they watch her in a daze. Rei after applying the first aid, she said to Meng “good girl and stay open your eyes Meng”

The ambulance siren already heard from where they are and Rei notice that they were still surrounded and told them “please give a way for the ambulance to get through”. The ambulance notice a group of people surrounding that victim of hit for sure, they park the ambulance, the rescuers get a stretcher, first aid kit then approach them. When they arrived, they notice a lady lying in the street while another lady assisting that lady. They also notice that the first aid already done and realized that the lady white shirt and white pants are almost covered by blood. Well Rei clothes in all white because they attend the mass and this is a family practice to wear white everytime they attend a mass, only her wearing a pants along the others female family members because she didn’t like to wear a dress.

“Are you Miss Din Lou Rei?”

“Uh-uh and thank goodness you’re arrived in just 5 minutes, hurry”

“Yes Miss”

Since the first aid already done by Rei, the rescuers just put Meng to stretcher carefully and one of them ask Rei “how about you Miss?”

“I’m alright and it’s her blood not mine” Rei notice that Meng slowly closing her eyes and warn her madly “silly don’t close your eyes and do you want to die?” Then approach Meng and hold her hand while said comfortably “don’t worry I will be here, just make sure to stay awake and you’ll be find” then Rei looking around to check if that man is still looking around and sighing a relief.

“Sir go to C City Hospitals it’s the nearest hospital from here”

“But that’s class A”

“Yeah I know and no worries”

“Okay” then instruct to his team driver “to C City Hospitals”

“Yes Sir”

On the way to the hospital, Rei get her two phones one by one because her left hand is holding with Meng right hand and she realized that she didn’t stop the recording of the CCTV and their conversation. She stop the recording of CCTV first then when she’s stopping for their recording of their conversation, she heard Meng hoarse voice

“R—rei, what are doing?”

“Planning to call the police for this and you, can you save your energy, please?” Meng just smiling to her “silly and just endure it for awhile we almost there and when the doctors already operates you, you can close your eyes” then Meng still smiling more and more “are you a m.a.s.o.c.h.i.s.t?” If Meng not seriously injured she will laugh for sure because right now she just realized that she misunderstood her and Rei just a Tsundere. Rei at the same stop the recording of their conversation and called 119 to report.

“Hello?”

“Hello, this is Din Lou Rei, I want to report to you that quarter to 12, my fr... my colleague got an accident in front of the C City/Azure Residences”

“We already receive a report that the victim is already dead”

“From who?”

“Some passersby”

“Sir you received a fake report and we’re now on the way to C City Hospital, I’m willing to cooperate but please deal it secretly because I guess the one who you got that report was one of the accomplice”

“What’s.....?”

“We already arrived in the hospital, I’m not lying because during our talk you heard a siren background right, I’m hanging up now and just find me here, please deal it secretly.

Rei hung up her phone and almost got upset, Meng observed her and have a confuse expression then Rei said to her “you idiot stop worrying and just mind your own self. My gosh, you’re really a m.a.s.o.c.h.i.s.t”

The rescuers just observe them while they carry Meng with the stretcher into the hospital beds and assist the doctors to lead the patient inside the emergency operating room and Rei remind Meng “don’t close your eyes if the doctors didn’t start operating you alright?” Meng nodded “good, I’m going to fill your forms first and do the necessary for your hospitalization.”

On the other hand, Rei didn't mind her clothes covered by blood but the other patients, nurses and doctors can't help but worried about her.

Patient 1 : "T—that Lady is she alright?"

Patient 2 : "Wha—what happen to her?"

Doc 1 : "The two of you stop worrying, you're both patients and Nurse you should assist her"

Nurse 1: "Yes Doc"

Rei heard them but didn't mind and just approach to the admission where she see the sign admission department .

"The patient who just got inside in the emergency form is my colleague and I need to fill her form."

"Ye—yeah Miss, wait for a moment" get the admission sheet then give it to Rei "here Miss"

While filling up with Meng names, birthday, gender, status, age and address she ask "how much the fees?"

"Ah, this sheet is the breakdown of the fees Miss and since you're friend got inside the EOR, you have to add an additional payment. You can pay the minimum fees for her medical supplies and medical needs first then if it's reach the limits, the hospitals will give the hospitalization bills and the medicine is not included."

"Oh" Rei read the breakdown of the fees and realized that the maximum package is good offers because it's unlimited until the patient got discharge and will have a refund for the excess, and if she choice the minimum she doesn't know when will Meng got discharge because she's seriously injured and the culprit is still lurking around so without hesitation Rei said to her "Miss I will use the maximum one but can I know the level of your protection and customer privacy?"

"Yes of course and no worries both C and R are the one who designed our privacy and protection"

"Oh, okay" 'I design their protection, since when? Ah, that's right Mentor Chen ask me that time' "By the way Miss, I only have only little cash of me, so do you accept debit card?"

"Yes Miss, we do"

"Okay" Rei get one of her own account debit card that not use for her IT skills pays "here"

"Just wait for a moment Miss and I'm still processing you're payment first"

"Go ahead"

Before the Admission personnel give the card back to Rei, a nurse interrupted her and said to the lady

"Miss you're seriously injured and you must get operate right away"

"Ah, no it's alright and it's not my blood, the person who got operated in EOR right now is the owner of this blood."

"That...."

"It's alright and thanks for your concern, Sir"

"Based on your posture, you're really fine, so I'm going now"

“Are you alright Sir? Your face suddenly get red”

“N—no it’s nothing” then the male nurse walk away.

‘What a weird nurse?’ then Rei heard her phone ringing again and again. “Excuse me for a moment Miss, I’m going to answer my phone first”

“Yes go ahead Miss”

Rei find a place that no one can heard her then answered Mei. After talking to Mei, she got back to the admission area while the woman who attended her notice of Rei and said “done miss, here’s your card and if you don’t mind me, the hospital will use this card details for the refund if you didn’t reach the limits”

“Yes, go ahead”

“After you’re patient operations Miss, the hospital will automatically put her to Suite Room 101”

“Okay. By the way if some police officers ask about Din Lou Rei, it’s me and just tell them I’m outside in Emergency Operation Room”

“Eh? P—police.....” didn’t finished because Rei already walk. “What happen?” and her queries got interrupted because of the talk of the visitors.

Visitor 1 : “Eh, there’s a hit and run in front C City/Azure Residences?”

Visitor 2 : “Yeah I heard that the lady died right away even she got save by her friend who’s a Doctor”

Visitor 3 : “Unlucky for her”

Visitor 4 : “Well who will be got save when you’re been seriously got hit”

Meanwhile at the hallway of Emergency Operation Room, no one's around and only Rei sitting outside waiting for the operations to be done. While waiting Rei get a headset from her bag and watch the CCTV recordings again. After calling 911, Rei heard someone speaking and repeat it again to that part then heard it clearly

"Boss Mission Accomplished, target down. The Lady who's been with her at the coffee shop witness it but she's so innocence and pure"

"Yes boss and I'm going now"

'So he called the mastermind' Rei watch the video again that she notice and realized it's really look hit and run if you just the time frame of the accident but no one escape from her because she knows that they monitor Meng every movement so it's an attempt murder. It just look like hit and run because after he hit Meng he drive away from the scene. And then she notice another car stop the moment that car disappear from the scene, a man get down from the car and approach the scene like a curious passersby but then he get his phone and called someone. Rei take note the plate number DY-4623.

'DY-3264 and DY-4623' after noted the plate number Rei hack these plate number for the car details and information. In just a minute, she found out its own by two different man : Lin Huan and Zhang Li, then again 3 minutes Rei hacked their profiles and background, she realized something 'so President Meng hired an IT specialist as his assistant from the top 5 list, I see so no wonder he's too reckless' but well she completely hack these two people and both of them previously got fired out by Meng Li Han even these two are the members of board of directors, the father of Meng Chen and Meng Chen Wei because 20 years ago they tried to kidnap and kill the two sons of his but then 4 years later they become a personal driver of Meng Chen Wei. 'Wait don't tell me that these two are also an accomplices for the previous car accident' before Rei going to hack for this information, Rei heard someone calling her.

---Awhile ago before the police arrives---

All visitors, patients, nurses and doctors heard a police siren getting nearer and nearer. After few minutes, two police officers with a tall height, broad shoulder and having a strong aura arrives and get inside in the hospital. The police go right away to the admission area and one of them ask the lady.

PO 1: "Is there Miss Din Lou Rei, here?"

Because this two police are too handsome, the lady who attended Rei awhile got struck and flustered
"Tha—that"

PO 1: "I'm a police" show his ID card

'Obviously you are Chief, since you're wearing a police uniform'

The other lady who also working in the admission area was already married and didn't flustered when she answered them "Yes, she just here awhile ago and she instruct that if some police officers will look for here just go directly to Emergency Operation Room"

The Chief Police office didn't talk and let his men talk instead.

"Thank you, Ma'am and where's the way?"

"Just go straight to that direction,Sir"

"Chief, let's go now" the two police officers walk and chat.

"Do I look scary?"

"No you're not Chief"

"Then why they become like that when they see me?"

"....." 'Chief you're just too handsome' "ah, that lady there is she Miss" before he could finish the name, his chief already ask.

“Are you Miss Din Lou Rei?”

‘Chief don’t be like that or else this lady here will become fl.u.s.tered and cannot answered us before we questioned her’

Then the lady stop what she’s doing and turning around to see who’s calling her. The moment that the lady turn around one of the police got blush ‘what a pretty lady? Eh, Chief got fl.u.s.tered? (blinking his eyes) Na, it’s just my imagination.’

After knowing that the one who’s calling her name is a police officer, Rei automatically got up from her seat and answered politely.

“Yes it’s me”
