

Last Man 53

Chapter 53 - Investigation

“Yes, it’s me”

“That blood is it from the victim who got hit?”

“Yes it is”

“When I got this case I heard your request it for dealing it secretly, have you suspected someone as the culprit of this case?”

“Yes but I’m still lacking something, so I can’t discuss it you Sir, my apology”

“I understand and you said that you’re willing to cooperate, am I right?”

“Yes, I’m willing to cooperate”

“Good, I will be going back here again and I will check the place first”

“Yes Sir”

“Just call me Chief Lin, Miss Din”

“But I’m not one of your men or subordinate, so I can’t call you that Sir”

‘OMG, this pretty lady is the first one to decline Chief, if it someone else they’re already flocking around with Chief’

“I understand Miss Din, I will back after I’m done checking where the accident happens”

Then the two police officers left right away and on the way to C City / Azure Residences for investigating the place and other necessary thing for the case, meanwhile Rei seat back again and continue where she left off, after 10 minutes she completely hack the accidents 16 years ago and she found out everything of what Mr Chen keeping all along, he didn’t even notice that it’s been hacked because he never get prompted that someone hacking it.

After protecting it so that’s no one can trace who hack it, the two police officers back again and ask, at the same time everyone arrives but didn’t interrupted them.

“Miss Din, there’s something I need to ask you?”

Rei stand while replying him “Yes what is it Sir?”

“Are you really sure it’s not hit and run?”

“Yes I’m sure, is there something wrong, Sir?”

“Yes, because we we’re questioning at least 10 peoples who witness the accidents and all of them said that it was hit and run.”

“It’s not what they say, I heard you also heard that someone report and claim that the victim didn’t make it and the 10 peoples you questions are only telling what they see and not the whole scene”

“What do you mean by that Miss Din?”

“Before the accident happened, I call the victim around 10am while waiting at the coffee shop which is opposite to C City / Azure residences, the car who hit the victim was already park and waiting the target but then didn’t make a move because a police car patrol at that time. When the victim got out the residences 10 minutes after the call, that car monitored her and when she get inside the car park at 10:12am near the shop and then when we go out 15 minutes before 12 and she get out from my line of my sight then the car hit and disappeared right away”

“...” the Police Officer speechless because Rei tell it in detailed way without making any expression.

“So Sir is it hit and run or attempt murder?”

‘Uwah, this pretty lady her is sure is brave, how can she question Chief?’

“My mens still checking the CCTV near the area, by the way did you note the car plate number?”

Before Rei replied his phone ring and excuse himself ” Excuse me for a moment Miss Din, I will answer this first”

“Go ahead Sir” then the police just answered without moving.

“Report”

“Chief, the CCTV both opposite street didn’t record today’s situation”

“How about the residence and the coffee sheep CCTV’s?”

“Same result Chief, no recordings today. Our IT specialist can’t decode or hack it, it seems it protected well, Chief is this R doing?”

“What? Are you insane? R never do the illegal things and means. Go back to the station and wait for my call, I’m disappointed with you.”

“Yes Chief” then heard the other line hung up ‘Chief, R is the best IT specialist, so R is the most suspect’

“Sorry for that Miss Din and you heard my question before right?”

Rei nod and reply “DY-3264”

Facing his men and command “go tell that idiot (the men in the call) to investigate this DY-3264 in just 5 minutes”

“Yes Chief” ‘Chief, did you forget? Among R, C and you’re brother next R, no one can beat them’ but he still obey what his Chief command.

“Let’s wait for this matter Miss Din and if you don’t mind”

“I don’t mind Sir”

“Report and don’t disappoint me this time”

“C—Chief? (cough, cough) sorry Chief but you will be disappointed again, we can’t get information and details for the car plate number you provide because the car didn’t exist. I guess we need help from your brother or either C but then if it’s R doing, I’m afraid we can’t deal this case Chief”

Since it’s get to this matter, even himself already suspected that R was behind all of this.

“Continue with your investigation and report to me if you find something”

“Yes Chief”

“Miss Din, I think you didn’t explain why did you meet up the victim, am I right?”

“The victim is my colleague at work and the victim name is Meng Fang”

“So mind me telling what did you talk for almost 2 hours Miss Din?”

“That’s something private Sir”

“You said awhile ago that you’re willing to cooperate, so why not now? Are you aware that doing this, instead of witness, you’re the main suspect?”

“Yes I’m aware of it Sir but the CCTV recordings can prove that I’m innocence”

“Then what if I tell you that all CCTV in that area don’t have any recordings today? The plate number you give doesn’t even exist. If I’m you, I will reveal what did you talk about”

“Sorry to disappoint you Sir but our conversation cannot be disclose even you’re a police officer”

“Then I need to put your name on suspect list, Miss Din”

“If that’s you can conclude Sir then go ahead”

“I see you’re confidence Miss Din then I and my men.....”

Before he finished his sentence there’s someone interrupting them.

“Sis, are you alright?”

Because the two officers are very tall. Rei move aside and said to her sister.

“I’m alright Mei but you’re late”

“Aiyah, we got....” Mei realized the clothes of Rei almost covered by blood “what the, are you alright Sis? Did you also get injured? No, you’re alright but why are you almost covered by blood?”

“This blood is from Ms Meng”

“What?”

“Assistant Lin go buy her a new clothes”

“Yes C.....”

“It’s alright Bro, I already bought one and I need your help, can you hack the CCTV of the C City / Azure Residences, C Snackbar and Coffee Shop, the 2 CCTV’s near their area and this car with plate DY-3264, I will command you not a request from your younger brother but as a police officer”

“Yes I will try Wei and give me 15 minutes”

“Go ahead Bro”

Everyone’s waiting and after 15 minutes “sorry Wei, I can’t hack because it’s been protected very well”

“So even you Bro can’t handle it, I guess either Miss Din or R is behind all of this”

“Give me a try”

“Mr Meng/Master/Chen?” everyone except Rei and the two police officers

“Yes just give me 5 minutes” after 5 minutes “sorry I didn’t get through to the recordings of CCTV but the DY-3264 was owned by Lin Huan”

“Eh you are R?” everyone except Rei, Mei, El and En

“I’m not R, I’m C and R was my former trainee”

“It’s alright Sir at least I got a lead but Miss Din here and R is still suspect for this matter”

“I can assure you both R and Miss Din was not behind all of this”

“Yes Chen you’re right and Miss Din you can disclose what did you talk with my granddaughter”

“You are?”

“Ah, Rei this is CEO Meng”

“Oh, alright thank you Bro El. Mr Meng and Mrs Meng mind you that Ms Meng said something that you will be hurt for sure”

“No worries”

“Wait a moment, Sis go change first you’re in a mess”

“Here” the police give the bag to Rei, that they happen to pass a clothes store and remember that Miss Din was almost covered by blood, he also want to buy her a lunch but he didn’t in order to avoid being misunderstood from her since he was a police officer.

“Oh, thank you Sir and I will refund you for this”

“No need and it’s my courtesy as a police officer”

“Oh, then I won’t mind and thank you for this Sir. So everyone before I let you hear what I and Ms Meng conversation, I guess you need to know that I threatened her by kidnapping her parents” again Rei didn’t let them react and continued “but don’t worry I just did that in order for her to meet me, well I and Ms Meng are not that close and a little bit off. I didn’t kidnapped them and just threatened her, so here (give her personal phone to Mei), just play that Mei, don’t worry I didn’t edit any of it to avoid any suspicion and I’m going to change, please excuse me”

“ ... ”

“Ha, ha don’t worry my Sis is just like that but she’s not a bad person and I will play it now”

“Go ahead, Tea....” before they finish calling her as a Teacher Mei, the recordings play and all of them heard their conversation.
