

Last Man 531

Chapter 531 - Vol 7: Ch 531 – The School Fair – Part 4

The couple got cut off with their conversation since they heard the MC voice for an announcement of the results for the Solo Category.

“And now the most anticipating one since it’s another kid from S Elite Academy. So for the Singing Competition Fair for the Solo Category, here are the results

3rd Place: S Capital City Standard Schools – 93.2%

2nd Place: S Ladies Academy – 93.8%

1st Place: S Elite Academy – 94.2%”

After announcing the result, the S Gifted International School and Academe Teacher in charge opposing the results because she didn’t believe the said results.

“What the heck? Are you all serious? Is the event organizer and judges got bribe by the S Elite Academy to let that little girl win?”

“Teacher in charge, please” The MC tries to stop her but only gets cut off by her.

“What? Is my accusation hit the nail?”

One of the judges got her microphone and asks “is our judgment is not believable to your eyes Teacher in charge of S Gifted International School and Academe?”

“Yes of course and how this little girl wins when in fact our representative is more deserves to win than that little girl of S Elite Academy; am I right?”

“Indeed Miss Lindy from your school is more deserved to win and have more experience compared to Miss Ellyn from S Elite Academy but are you forgetting where we are today, Teacher in Charge?”

“W—-what do you mean? And of course, I know that we are here for the School Fair” The teacher in charge didn’t get what the judge means meanwhile the judge calling the MC’s attention just to give the breakdown of scores for both Miss Ellyn and Miss Lindy.

The MC announces right away the breakdown of the results “Miss Lindy got 50% for the Vocal Quality, Dynamics 23.8%, Stage Presence 15% and 0% for the Theme with a total of 88.8% meanwhile Miss Ellyn from S Elite Academy got 50% for the Vocal Quality, Dynamics 25%, Stage Presence 9.2% and 10% for Theme. So it means that Miss Lindy from S Gifted International School and Academe forgot about the Theme for today which is cheering for your teammates that her rankings fall in Rank 6 meanwhile Miss Ellyn from S Elite Academy only got 9.2% for the criteria of Stage Presence because she still a little girl and that might because she is lacking for stage presence so she got deducted but she will be a formidable opponent when she got to experience more and Miss Ellyn got a total of 94.2 % and with a higher score, she got the first place. All right, let’s now welcome our winners on stage”

Ellyn, the young girl from S Ladies Academy and a young boy from the unknown school climb on stage and you can really tell that Ellyn is still a little girl based on their height differences though Ellyn is considered a tall girl compared to her age, as 5 years old girl she still considered small when she’s with her Senior and from the higher students. Of course, the MC didn’t let go of the opportunity and ask Ellyn right away.

“Miss Ellyn from S Elite Academy can I know how old are you and what grade you are now?”

‘Eh, is that allowed?’

The MC didn’t give up knowing and asking the teacher in charge when he didn’t hear a reply from Ellyn “Teacher in charge, can we at least know these two questions, okay?”

“Eh, is that allowed?” Teacher Chen asks it loud what just Ellyn thinking about.

“Well maybe since the Singing Competition Fair already went well, right?”

One of the curious judges also asks and gets his microphone then asks “then the little girl of S Elite Academy, can we know how old are you and what grade you are now?”

Ellyn looking to Teacher Chen and after she nodded, Ellyn answered “I’m turning 6 next month and will be 5th Grader next school term”

Everyone got dumbfounded because of her young age and her grade but then knowing that S Elite Academy is known for letting their students skip grades if they are smart enough and known for their reputation of having a massive of genius and influentials students then they didn’t ask more and just conclude in sync ‘ah, so she’s also genius one’.

“Ha, ha, ha, as expected of S Elite Academy and Miss Ellyn you surpass your senior Elise record since she joins first in here and wins the first place when she’s 8 years old and a 4th grader with 89%. Once again, congratulations to the winners”

Out of nowhere the spectators suddenly said in sync “1 more Song, 1 more song”

“Ha, ha, ha I guess our spectators here really want to listen to Miss Ellyn’s voice for the second time, so can you sing another 1 song for us?”

“Eh?”

“Please” then the MC suggests something and wants to slap the S Gifted International School and Academe representative hard, so he suggests “are you familiar with your Big Sister Lindy here what is she singing a while ago?”

Ellyn, as a naïve one she didn’t get the MC’s provocation and just nodded innocently.

“Good then please sings for us that one”

Ellyn doesn't know what to do and just looking to where her friends' seating then all of them just making a thumbs-up gesture that causes her to be dumbfounded then looking to her Uncle Tae who nodded as if it's a go signal for her to sing meanwhile Rei just pinch the space between her eyebrows because she doesn't want Ellyn to have a rival at such a young age though she already have since she win but then both the MC and judges provoke the S Gifted International School and Academe so they might get provoke so she wants to shake her heads but then seeing Ellyn waiting for her approval, she just give an okay signal. Of course by giving her signal Ellyn hold her microphone to level to her mouth then readying herself to sing.

“Are you going to sing one more song?”

“Hey, hey, everyone please you don't need to poach Miss Ellyn because she's still under S Elite Academy and still young but well, Miss Ellyn is really good a very good and amazing one. Elise, you really have a powerful junior.” Elise just only and having a proud expression even their aloof Student Council President have the same expression and of course the entire S'lites Family.

“Miss Ellyn, Miss Ellyn I'm curious if you have a professional coach?”

“Yes I do have”

“Ha, ha, ha, what a lucky little girl, she has an amazing voice, and now she has a professional coach. All right everyone, you can now have your lunch because at exactly 1 pm the hardest among the 12 Fairs will be held for this year's School Fairs before we officially end this School Fair for the year XXXX. So fill your stomach because we will be witnessing again of more amazing and genius young one”

At the backstage

All seniors of Ellyn hug her that she almost suffocates from their hugs and only lets go of her when their Teacher in charge warns them.

“Hug her more and we will lose our formidable contender then”. They hear her then everyone lets go and the teacher in charge hugs Ellyn right away “ah, I’m so lucky to witness your performance, Ellyn.”

‘Huh, so she just wants to hug Ellyn huh. What a weird Teacher?’

“Miss Ellyn” someone calling Ellyn as if they are close enough and everyone from Ellyn seniors is now on alert mode and automatically hiding Ellyn on their backs as if they are ready to attack the intruder including Teacher Chen, she also covers all of them, the S Elite Academy participants of Singing Competition Fair.

“Ah, everyone please relax I don’t have any ill intentions towards your junior and I just want to congratulate her, that’s all.”

Everyone is still suspicious of her intentions, after all, she’s been got face slap by the MC and the judges a while ago, most of all she got face slap by Ellyn when she sings the same song better than her.

Ellyn looking to her Seniors and said “relax Seniors and I will be alright with all of you here backing me so no worries” then the seniors give way to her “Big Sister Lindy if you sing along with the theme then I’ve been beaten black and blue by you”

“Ha, ha, ha, indeed, and congrats Miss Ellyn” then offer a handshake to her, Ellyn going to accept her handshake but Elise interrupts right away.

“Let me do the handshake Ellyn”

“You sure protective to your junior Elise but well I’m not crashing your junior after all we’re not the same age”

Accepting her handshake and both press hard that you can’t tell from their expressions of what they did. “Right and of course I know that one, after all, you already old enough yet want to fight with a grade school student so you need to protect your reputation, Miss Lindy. Ah, right you almost ruin your reputations because everyone just witnesses and sees how the grade school student of S Elite Academy beaten you black and blue since she also singing the same songs what did you sing a while ago without giving her all, so I guess you did know and aware how you lose, right?”

“Right but I’m easy to accept the reality Elise and I heard you’re going to debut this coming June”

“Indeed I am and so what’s your connection with my debut then?”

“Nothing but I warn you that you might not get debut after all my sister and her husband are also in CA Entertainment” then let go of the handshake and leave right away ‘what the heck? I just lose to a little girl? I thought I’m going to win since Elise is not on the participant’s lists for the Solo Category and that Teacher, what’s wrong with her? If she didn’t oppose then my results won’t be revealed. Idiot, idiot, idiot, and that Teacher is really an idiot one’. Because she’s too enraged, she didn’t notice that she bump into someone and apologize right away without looking. “Sorry” then leave the place without knowing who she bumps just now.

Chapter 532 - Vol 7: Ch 532 - Elise and Julian 7

When Elise arrived at his dorm, he just let her sit on his bed while giving him the food for her lunch. The two eat together before he washes the plates that only use for the two of them. Before when he is not yet dating her, he always 1 each of his things but then it becomes a pair when they start to date.

After washing the plates, he is now on his desk and busy doing his student council works while listening to his girlfriend before hearing her asking if he is busy with his works.

“Ah, yeah I am and you already know that I will always busy every the School Fairs incoming”

“I see but is it still early for you to prepare? I mean we are still around November so why you need to prepare the lists this early?”

“Well some of the Teacher in Charge recommended junior students to represent our schools so that’s why we need to prepare the lists earlier”

“Then why not Julian? At least we have new middle school students to depend on”

“They are all from the Grade School Department, Elise”

“Eh, w—wait, what?” Then without waiting for his reply, she stands up and gets the lists from him, then reading it before seeing the names of their juniors mostly of their names have been recommended for all the fair to represent their schools. “This.....”

“I meet them last month, indeed all of them are amazing because they are the top among all the grade school students especially Junior Li Jinyu and Junior Jang Ken, the two of them. The Student Council Members of each department, School Teachers, and Proctors decide we will let them compete against the middle school and high school senior but then the two declined while they said that they will only compete for what their best forte is. We already considered it but we need to compete them against their seniors so that we can assure what our juniors good at.”

“And what is it?”

“For both Junior Li and Junior Jang will both Math and Universal Language as they said but we need to be assured since both of them always got perfect every examination. As for the other juniors of us, we will also need to test them. Oh, right it’s also the same with you Elise because you also going to compete against our junior.”

“No worries for me but he, he, he so there’s another you and Lian. By the way, speaking about Lian, I heard that you and Lian both got offered to skip grade but then you didn’t so only Lian now he already a University Student, is it because of me?”

“Uh-uh”

“Are you not sacrificing too much for me, Julian?”

“No it’s not too much and it’s worth it Elise”

“By the way, can you and I both going to represents our schools for the duet category just in case I will be lost my spot to our junior?”

“.....”

“I want to sing with you as my last high school competition and it would be a memorable moment for me that I’m going to sing with the love of my life. Of course, I will do my best and win against my junior.” Then looking at the lists again “well it’s only a backup since our junior here might also represent our school for the duet category along with this Junior Li of us.”

“Okay”

Elise going to jump and running around her boyfriend’s room because he just agreed to sing with her during the School Fair but then got interrupted since she heard her phone ringing even Julian stop what his doing and asking her in one word only.

“Who?”

Elise already retrieving her phone from her pocket and replied “an unknown number”

“Do you want me to answer it?”

“Nah, don’t worry my prince and you’re too busy so let me answer it, okay?”

“Okay and...”

“Hai, hai I know my prince and I will tell you after” then walk just a matter of distance from him and she already stands near the window before answering the phone. The phone call is from Rei and informing her to discuss her career then after few minutes, she hung up before informing her boyfriend.

“Julian it’s from the Artist Manager of CA Entertainment and I’m available today so I suggest right away to meet her now.”

Julian automatically close his notes and stands "let's go"

"Eh, are you sure but you are....."

"Indeed I'm busy but then my first priority is you, so I need to support you as your boyfriend and don't ever stop me from supporting you, my very own girlfriend, okay?"

"....." Speechless while blushing.

"Elise?"

"Alright, alright and let's go now" 'my gosh, it's only two years but this boyfriend of mine already at a high level in this matter.' She talks about how Julian so oblivious when she confesses to him at first but then now you can't tell that this young man here changes to being a love expert one, they already kissing passionately but they still didn't go further after all Julian is still 12 years old boy while she is still 16, though Elise already reaches the marriageable age she won't go further because she is dating a young boy so only kissing for now.

The two leave right away and then a few minutes they meet Rei. Both Julian and Rei discuss Elise's matters in just less than one hour.

"Julian"

"Mmm?"

"Let's have a date today"

"Okay"

"Are you not going to ask why?"

Julian shook his head and replied "I don't need to ask because after you got debut, our date will be rare and we only seldom meet since you will become a public figure. Of course, we can still call each other but it will be different because we will be making sure that we won't become the center of attraction from the media that will be going to ruin your career. I know that your movements will be managed by your manager but don't worry because I will do my best in my University Years and after years I can be proud to claim you that you are mine then standing beside you whenever I want to without worrying about the gaze of everyone. Of course, you can be at ease because it's your choice to select the best date for us to get married as long as it won't destroy your career".

"Eh my choice to select the best date for us to get married, are you sure?"

"I'm sure"

"He, he, he, he" Elise already plotting something to her mind but Julian interrupted right away.

"Only when I'm already 16 unless you want to get sued for pedophiles case"

"....." "How come he knows what I'm thinking?"

"You're the only ones who are so close to me aside from my mother and my elder sister, so no other girls can be close to me because you're the only one for me so I know what your thinking Elise"

"Geez it's no fun to have a man who's a genius after all but then it's my fault since I'm the one teaching the oblivious one and now he becomes a love expert. [Sighing] now I regret teaching you, so can you return to be the oblivious one?"

"....." Julian got speechless.

"Alright never mind that one Julian so where do you want to go?"

"Wherever you want to go as long as the two of us are together, I'm alright wherever it is."

“.....” Speechless while blushing then wondering ‘am I sure that this Julian here is my Julian?’

End of Elise and Julian chapters. Of course, it will be back after few chapters. Next will be the story of Julian’s friend and his Vice President, Lian story.

Chapter 533 - Vol 7: Ch 533 – Intuitions is too way strong

The Singing Competitions Fair ends very well and every spectator received their food pack lunch meanwhile the event organizer arranges the stage for the next fair that they will have 64 School participants to seats and each school have 2 representatives to compete for the incoming fair. Five minutes passed by, Ellyn still not back with them and Rei got worried because of the provocation from the MC and judges a while ago and of course, Ellyn performs better compared to that young girl so something might happen to Ellyn so she needs to check her niece just to be sure.

“Kids and Dear, let’s go to where Ellyn is”

“Okay”

Everyone stands up from their seats and goes where Ellyn is. They arrived backstage and Rei almost got bumped by a young lady and Tae automatically grab Rei on his right side so Tae’s shoulder got hit by the young lady’s heads.

“Thank you Tae”

“No worries but that young lady just now didn’t look to her surroundings and she almost bumps onto you so what if something happened to our youngest then?”

“Nothing happened to me so relax but just now that young lady....”

“Mmm”

“Maybe it’s my imagination only”

On the other hand, both Jinyu and Ken also have the same feeling what Rei feels, so they looking to where the young lady leaves.

“Bro Jinyu, that Big Sis is Miss Lindy right?”

“Yeah” and right away he messages his Butler.

[Yes Young Master and what time I will send the reports?]

[Just give it to me after the competition]

[Yes young Masters]

[Is Dad here?]

[Yes, Young Master]

[I see and how about Mom?]

[Master didn’t allow Madame to come]

Jinyu didn’t reply to his butler because he already knows that his Mom might be sulking again because she can’t witness it personally. Well, his Mom is too famous and popular so in order to protect her from the media and paparazzi, his Dad didn’t allow her to do so because this is very dangerous for her and he has the same opinion as his Dad. Goddess Li also wants to disclose that she's already married and has 3 kids but Paparazzi Li didn't allow it anymore because it will be dangerous to them especially to those who are jealous and envious of her. Jinyu didn't know but his Dad become more cautious but he didn't ask because he knows his Dad very well, so something might happen to his Mom that he become more cautious than before.

"Did you ask Bro Yan to investigate?"

"I did"

"Don't worry Ellyn will be safe"

"I just need to be sure because Ellyn is too amazing after all"

"....." Ken got speechless

"Ellyn"

"Auntie Rei"

"Congrats"

"Thank you"

All the Seniors of Elite are surprised and dumbfounded because they are all from the High School Department so they didn't know that Ellyn's Auntie is Rei and they ask in sync. "Eh, Ellyn your Auntie is Manager Rei and the Artist Manager of CA Entertainment?"

Ellyn got confused and ask innocently "yes she is and what's wrong?"

Elise grab Ellyn right away then ask her softly "so your professional coach is Mr. Jun then?"

“Uh-uh, why and what’s wrong Senior Elise?”

“Ahh not just being talented but really have professional coach teaching you, huh”

“Huh?”

“Ellyn let’s eat now, your Bro Jinyu and Bro Ken will need to get ready for the next event”

“Ah right Uncle Tae, Senior Elise, Teacher Chen, and everyone I’m going now” then they leave right away but then someone following them and only notice when that someone calling one of them.

“Artist Manager Rei”

They stop and Rei replied, “yes Julian, and what’s wrong?”

He talks using the Universal Language and not aware that all the kids understand it after all he only knows that Ken and Jinyu are the only ones who can speak using the Universal Language one and assume that the two other boys give up being the representative because they don’t have the confidence to win while the other kids were all competing in different fairs. Even he assumes, he trusts all these kids because he noticed that were always in a group.

“Just now Miss Lindy from S Gifted International Schools and Academe warns Elise that she might not go to debut because her Sister and her husband are also in CA Entertainment”

“I see and noted that one. Then Julian, are you perhaps aware of Miss Lindy’s family name?” Rei ask since all participants of each fair didn’t compete using their full names, someone even using a screen name because what the important is just to represent your schools and goal to win so all participants free to use a code name, screen name, initials or your name.

“She’s a Li and I don’t know how she related to the Li’s who owned the JL Hospital but she always has ill intentions towards Elise. Elise comes from a political family and as for me I’m from the butler lineage so I can't really do much since I'm still a student, so Artist Manager Rei, please be sure that my girlfriend will be safe inside and outside the CA Premises."

At the same time after hearing that one, all the kids are now looking at Li's brothers as if asking if they are related to Miss Lindy and the two brothers just shaking their heads as if replying to their friends 'not related and only have the same last name of us.'

Well, they are really not related to each other because, among the Li's of JL Hospital, only Jin and Na is the one married to human being since the other two Li's are already been married with their works, Ian as the General Surgeon one and Gian the Neurologists that the Li family members never expect that this two who have a massive list of crushes are deciding to be only married with their works.

"I see so she's a Li; well we do have an artist with a last name of Li for at least 15 but all of them are not married and not one of them related to the Li's of JL Hospital. Of course, I will promise that nothing will happen to Elise when she's inside or outside of CA Premises."

"Thank you Artist Manager Rei"

"Julian..." Elise followed her boyfriend and call his name affectionately when she found him but change it right away because their juniors are with them with her usual tone "ah I mean President Julian let's go now and everyone is waiting for you"

"Okay"

'Too late Senior Elise, we already know that you and President Julian is dating' all kids wonder at the same time.

"Ah, right Junior Jinyu and Junior Ken do your best for this afternoon competition and then we will be still the undefeated school if the two of you win, so both of you do your best, okay?"

"Yes Senior Elise"

Elise giggling because of her two juniors who's too handsome and stunning in their own way "geez, too bad you're too young or else you will be both surpass the President and Vice President popularity"

"....." Both Jinyu and Ken speechless

"Elise, let's go now. Junior Jinyu and Junior Ken, please don't mind your Senior Elise, she just has a scatterbrain that's why."

"....."

"Hey what do you mean by that? Are you praising me or insulting me?"

"Let's go now and everyone please excuse us" then the two leave right away but still enough for them to hear Elise and Julian's conversation.

"Hey, are you sure that you're not lying about your age? I mean your 4 years younger than me but then you act the same as Artist Manager Rei, wait, how old Artist Manager Rei is? Don't tell me she's the same age as me?"

Julian got speechless and just taps her head but then said using the universal language one "that's why I really love you because you have a strong personality and kind mind."

"Hey, you're cheating Julian because you know that I can't speak and understand any language aside from Sean you know"

All the kids except Jinyu and Ken commented it loud "whoa, it's our first time seeing President Julian laughing wholeheartedly for the first time huh"

"Of course it will be our first after all President Julian is from the High School Department"

“Bro Jinyu is right, we didn’t even witness both of the Student Council President of Grade School Department and Middle School Department laughing freely so we’re just lucky to witness President Julian laughs, to listen to President Julian voice, and most of all to know his secret” then laughing.

“Silly Ken, President Julian just speaking using the Universal Language one since he expects that it’s only you and me know that one without knowing that these bunch of kids also understand it but well he only assumes that they don’t understand and he just trust that much. Well, he also didn’t know that you’re such a teaser and only thought that you’re a serious kid, tsk, you can’t really judge the book by its cover, huh”

Ken going to retort but then got stop by Rei right away “alright stop it Ken and let’s go now because we’re still going to eat then both of you need to concentrate on the incoming competition, okay?”

“Okay,” Ken obey and then just glared at Jinyu meanwhile Jinyu just laugh because this is the first time he wins against Ken, after all, they were always tied and Ken always teasing him.

Chapter 534 - Vol 7: Ch 534 – Too relaxed

The moment that Rei and Tae with the kids stand from their assigned seats, everyone from the Din’s Family Members feels something wrong especially to Lyn because of her maternal instinct.

Lyn asks no one in particular “neh, is Ellyn going to be alright? The MCs and Judges just provoke the Second Tier School you know especially to Ellyn singing too well.”

Mei: Don’t worry Lyn; Sis and Bro Tae are there so no worries.

Lynel: Auntie Mei is right Mom but well it’s really Sis Ellyn’s fault since she just sings without holding back.

Ren: Wow I never expect that I heard it from you Lynel when in fact you also didn't hold back.

Rick: Yup, yup since Lynel also singing without holding back last week for the C Country School Competition and even she wiped out all her rivals.

Lynel: Hey what do you mean by that Uncle Rick? I just sing for our School to win, you know, and even Bro Ren sings with his heart content that's why we got a perfect score. Well if I sings against Miss Elise from S Elite Academy and Miss Lindy from that school then for sure I will be rank 3rd, after all, I'm still lacking experience.

Rick: [After hearing that one from Lynel, he hug her right away] whoa that's why I like you so much little girl because you're so down to earth and never treat yourself as a mighty one, as expected of Mei's niece.

Lynel: Hearing that one from you, Uncle Rick, I don't know if you are a pervert or not.

En: [grab his nephew] enough with that Rick and luckily you're wearing a dress or else you might get in prison for being a pervert one.

Ren: [Looking to his older cousin and said it bluntly] are you sure you're my cousin, Bro Rick?

Rick: Yeah I am and come here, let me hug my genius.....

Ren: [Automatically hide to his mother back and said] don't ever hug me, Bro Rick.

Rick: Common Ren, you don't need to be shy it's only me your pretty-handsome cousin.

Mei: Rick stops it or else our sudden surprise visit will be known to my sister and are you a kid or not?

Rick: Okay and geez, Mei, I'm not a kid.

Mei: If not then don't act like one.

Aii:...

Right at the moment, the Jun Couple and the kids are just back to their seats. Everyone is sighing with relief when Ellyn is alright and fine. The Din's Family Members watch them eating their lunch quietly. Since it's still Saturday the family didn't know yet the updates since they will always know the updates of their family members here in S Country through Video Call but except this week and so one of them ask it loud.

"Neh, aside from our Ken, Ellyn, and Jinyu, those kids are also the representative for S Elite Academy?"

En: Don't know My Mei but well the MCs said a while ago that S Elite Academy also has a bunch of kids participating for this school year and only Ellyn compete today since Ken and Jinyu still going to compete but they didn't know it yet so maybe they have, right?"

Everyone is now looking to Rick since he is an expert in researching and so after seeing their looks, he replied right away. "Right, right and I will look for it" retrieve his laptop from his bag and then searching for S Elite Academy before relaying it to everyone with a grade school representative only.

S Elite Academy champions for Science Fair School Representative Mr. Yuki, a grade school student.

S Elite Academy champions for Linguistic and Geographic Fair School Representative Mr. Yuhan, a grade school student.

S Elite Academy champions for Essay Fair both Short and Long Essay School Representative Mr. Jinxi, a grade school student."

Rick is not familiar with his younger cousin friend so he didn't know who are they when he mentions the name and so he just commented it "wow so aside from my younger cousin and his partner for this competition, S Elite Academy have a group of a bunch of kids with a monster gene."

Everyone is looking at him like he's an idiot and forgot that Rick is not aware of Ken and Ellyn's group of friends.

"Hey what's with that and why all of you are looking at me like I'm an idiot one, even you Mrs. Din?"

Aya: The kids' names you mention just now are all Ken and Ellyn's friends.

Rick: Huh?

Mei: [Just realized that Rick is not aware of whom are they, so she explains right away] ah, right you still didn't know them Rick. Look [pointing where they are seating] the one's seating beside your younger cousin Ken is Jinyu, his partner for this incoming competition and then to Ken left side is Jinxi, that's the boy who got the first place from Essay, followed by Yuhan for the first placer of Linguistic and Geographic then Yuki for the Science Fair.

Rick: [Got speechless and got a pale face because of too much from them]

Mei: Hey, what's wrong with you Rick? Are you alright?

Rick:

Ren: Bro Rick, are you alright?

Rick:

Lynel: Uncle Rick, are you alright?

Rick: [Return to earth wherever he come from] uhm, I'm alright and it's just that Mei, you really have a monster gene huh.

Mei: Among them [pointing them] Ken is only my son and Ellyn is my niece okay? So it means those 4 kids are not mine.

Rick: 'Is Mei really a genius one, and how come she didn't get what I meant just now?' Alright, I know that one but I never expect that Ken and Ellyn's group of friends is all monsters just like you.

Mei: Well Ken is my son so of course it's expected that his group of friends are like him, after all there's a saying that tell me who are your friends are and I can tell who you are, right?

Rick:

Ren: [React right away after his Mom] eh Mom if that's what you say then you mean Bro Rick friends are also like him?

Mei: Wow Ren talking about that one you might be right but then Rick is a loner one, if not then why he is here with us, right?

Ren: [Sweat dropped] Mom, that's not a good thing to say, you know.

Mei: Ha, ha, ha, just kidding but well I did say the truth since Rick really doesn't have a real friends after all he is really a loner one. Well, Rick has some acquaintances but some of them only approach him because he is a Jang and some of them bully him because of his weird habit.

Ren: I see but well even though Bro Rick likes to wear women's clothes at least he is not a greedy person and he is a very nice Brother. We can't also force someone to change each habit because all of us have different habits and instead of accepting Bro Rick's weird habits they just criticize Bro Rick without knowing him more.

Rahc: Rur

Ren: Mm?

Rick: Can I hug you?

Ren: [After knowing that he doesn't have friends he agreed] okay. [Rick automatically hug his younger cousin and cried because only his Uncle En, Mei, his parents, the Din's Family Members and now Ren understand his weird habits and accepts who he is] you're crying, Bro Rick. [He said while patting his back as if comforting that he will be alright]

Lynel: [Standing at the back of Ren and witness Rick crying so she c.a.r.e.s.s his face] don't cry Uncle Rick or else your makeup will be ruined and you will become a scary Uncle.

Rick: Y—you little girl, you really know how to mess the situations, huh.

Lynel: Huh?

Rick: [Almost speechless and said] don't worry it's waterproof. Thanks, Ren and Lynel. [Release his hug to his younger cousin and change the topic right away] look out at your Brother Ren, Ken is too relaxed as if he didn't have incoming competition today.

Ren: [Looking to Ken] nah Bro Ken is only looking relaxed but deep inside he's too nervous after all it's his first time competing. [Looking to his Brother again and then thinking something but he didn't realize that he said it loud.] Good Luck Bro Ken and I know you can do it; you're my elder brother after all.

All: [Just watching Ren and smiled because he didn't realize that he said it loud.]

After seating from their assigned seats, all of them eat their pack lunch provided by the sponsors of the School Fair quietly. After eating they seat while waiting for the program to commence. Everyone didn't know that Ken got nervous until Rei said it.

"Relax Ken, you will be going to be alright and Jinyu will be with you, okay?"

"....."

All kids except Ellyn react at the same time "eh no way, you're nervous Ken?"

"Everyone Bro Ken just looks relaxed but deep inside he's too nervous, so yes he is nervous."

"Eh, really but why we don't feel it?"

Rei answered the kids on behalf of Ken since he is just too nervous about his own "it can't be help kids, after all, it's his first time competing for school though all of you might be also your first time competing for this School Fair at least all of you did have the experience to represent your class for S Elite Academy competition and as for Ken, it's different from Ken after all he just skip grades right away and then become the representative so that's why he's too nervous, well he might already compete at school to decides who's going to represent but today will be different since it's a school fair."

Jinxi: I see but then how about Ellyn, Aunt Rei?

Rei: Ellyn already performs thrice before this competition though it's for family events, remember it's Meng wedding and then my wedding. [Rei didn't mention during the Christmas party since the kids are not in there so it will be useless if she mentions that one.]

Jinyu: [Remembering how he meets Ellyn for the first time he suddenly blush but then back to normal and comfort Ken] you will be going to be alright Ken after all we're here and most of all we've been brainstorming so no worries.

Ken: [He nodded and then looking to his Auntie before asking] Auntie Rei, can you call Mom, Dad, and Ren?

Rei: Okay I will.

The participants are not allowed to bring any devices or else they will be automatically disqualified for being suspected of cheating so Ken asks his Auntie to call them since his phone was left alone.

Ring, ring, and ring

“Hello Sis”

Rei notices right away that Mei answered her call in just a matter of seconds and then heard the same background noise “Mei?”

“Ha, ha, ha, yeah we’re here and we’re one of the spectators but don’t say it to them, we want to surprise all of you but geez you’re no fun at all.”

“Ken wants to speak to the three of you”

“Okay” then Mei heard Rei say to Ken that it’s Mom

“Hello, Mom?” Ken said using the Ceno Language.

“Hello, My Ken and don’t be nervous okay? Win or lose you will be always our number one and so just do your best, okay?”

“Uh-uh but then my school is an undefeated school”

“Yeah but then your school selects you so they trust you and so you need to trust yourself just how we trust you. No matter what your results no one will blame you so just relax and be at ease but don’t be to be overconfidence because it will kill you, so just always stay calm and relax”

“Uh-uh thank you, Mom and I’m alright now”

“That’s my Ken and do you want to talk to your Brother and Dad?”

“Nah it’s alright now Mom, you and Auntie Rei are enough for me. Bye-bye”

“Bye”

— Ert md hfii —

“Done?”

“Yes Auntie Rei, thank you”

“That’s good to hear” and then Rei said the same thing as Mei “win or lose you will be always our number one and so just do your best, okay?”

Ken laughing after he heard that one from his Auntie.

“Did I say something wrong?”

“No it’s not and it’s because you just said what Mom said just now, Auntie Rei”

“I see”

Yuki: [First time hearing Ken talking to another language] eh, Ken what language did you talk just now?

Ken: Ceno Language and that’s my original language, Bro Yuki. Eh, wait what’s my original language. Janes, Ceno, Sean, or Universal Language?

Ypca: Hpv?

All Kids except Jinyu got speechless.

Jinyu: You're back to your normal condition Ken

Ken: And since when did I become an abnormal one, huh?

Jinyu:

At the same time, all of them heard the MC's announcement.

"Alright everyone either from the spectators, participants, in-charge, and scorer 10 minutes from now the Math Fair will be commencing. As for the participants please come to your assigned seats according to your school number entry"

All the participants are now leaving their family members and all the spectators except S' Lites sides gasped when they realized that the representative of their School are both a bunch of kids from their uniforms and all the participants are wearing their school uniforms to represent their schools. The MC didn't realize it yet since he is still giving instructions.

"Everyone please be quiet and silent please....." he pauses and continues "I'm now going to give instructions for our participants for the Math Fair hence at exactly 1 pm the competition will start and commence without pausing" again, he pauses for a moment then continue "okay, thank you for your cooperation everyone and now participants we have three levels for the Math Fair, the first level will be easy with a total of 100 questions and good for 15 Seconds per questions, the second level will be medium with a total of 50 questions and good for 30 Seconds per questions then the last level will be the hard one with a total of 25 questions and good for 1 minute per questions. All questions will be projected on this big screen here and all participants will answer on the Answer Tab Device found on your assigned table. Participants will use the time wisely because the question will move to the next question and so on as long as that it will connect to the Answer Tab Device. So if you happened to answer question number 1 beyond the time limit then it will be automatically the answer for question number 2. Participants, please raise your hands if all your Answer Tab Device are blinking." Everyone is raising their hands. "Okay that's good and it means that it's functioning well. Participants, please take note that the device will be blinking for you to answer each question and will be having a steady green light indicating the next questions. Any question?"

One of the participants raising the hands and already got a signal from the MCs to go on.

S Gifted International School and Academe: Sir, how do we know if it's not working?

"Good questions Miss from S Gifted International School and Academe, don't worry the device will be off if it's not working. So if it happened to not functioning well, the Math Fair Organizer will give another Answer Tab Device since they will get prompted that it won't work anymore but for participants, you don't need to get worried since it already tested many times before today's competition" everyone nodded while the one who asks him gives her thanks since her query got answered.

"I see and thank you, Sir"

"No problem and anything else here?"

S Ladies Academy: Is there's a device to let us know that it's already time over?"

"Thank you for reminding me about that one Miss, there's no device Miss and so you need to mind the time limit. So participants as I said awhile please mind the time and the Answer Tab Device will be on steady green light indicating for the next question." Everyone nodded "anyone else?" Then Ken raised his hand to ask one important question.

"Sir"

The MC's looking at him and quite dumbfounded before he said to him "ah boy, please go back to your Mom and we're having a competition here at exactly 1 pm" everyone participants are now looking to Ken's way and all participants got surprised and dumbfounded because of his appearance, though both Ken and Jinyu are tall as a Grade School Student then their face is still a babyface especially to Ken even though his turning 7.

"Uhm Sir, I'm one of S Elite Academy representative"

“Eh?”

Chapter 536 - Vol 7: Ch 536 – Are they mocking us?

The MC's is still speechless and dumbfounded but then the S Elite Academy Teacher in charge automatically approaches Ken right away and then asks him.

“Is there any problem Ken?”

“Ah, no problem Teacher Min, and I just need to ask from that Sir if we can be assured that this Answer Tab Device here won't have any bugging problem the moment we answer that's all”

One of the organizers answered Ken's query since the MC's still dumbfounded and dazed because of S Elite Academy Representatives.

“There's no problem about that one little boy and you can assure that it won't have any bugging problem because both C and R is the one designing and encrypting those devices.”

“Thank you, Sir” glad that his query got answered then Ken seat down but then Jinyu also stand up and ask about something.

“Sir, that screen [pointing at Screen with the same arrangement of their assigned seats with their School Entry Number and with 0 marks of all from 1 to 64], what it indicates for?”

[What another little boy from S Elite Academy?]

[Shah, quite and S Elite Academy might be too overconfident for representing two little boys for this Math Fair]

[Are they mocking us?]

[They must be after all S Elite Academy see their selves as mighty and high. Tsk, what with these two little boys representing them?]

[So it means S Elite Academy going to lose this fair?]

[Tsk all the participants here are all from the High School Department yet the S Elite Academy are only throwing a bunch of kids to us, is S Elite Academy planning to let go of their Undefeated Title this year?]

[S Elite Academy might be thinking that they will win again after all they are a bunch of kids who got the win for the 4 competitions a few days ago, well they just got lucky because no one gets higher school against their school.]

[I heard that S Gifted International School and Academe got their Student Council President to represent their School who's known to be a Math Genius, last year she almost got on 1st place but then got beaten for the tie-breaker rounds.]

[S Elite Academy will be finished for sure, how dare of them representing two little boys instead of their High School Representative?]

Meanwhile at the assigned seats for S Gifted International School and Academe

"Sis it will be easy for us to win, right?"

"Don't be fool Ji, look at those two, indeed they are little boys but then among all of us here they're the only one who asks that kind of question even I didn't think that one so you don't need to judge their appearance because we still don't know how capable they are."

"So it will be a hard battle then?"

"Uh-uh and I'm not sure how far I can go since S Elite Academy is not that insane to represent two little boys just for show so it will be hard for us"

“I see” and both of them are now looking to the two little boys from S Elite Academy.

Both Ken and Jinyu heard some of them but they ignore it instead they just wait for the answer that Jinyu ask a while ago.

“Excuse me, Sir, S Elite Academy Representatives are still waiting for your answer regarding that Screen” S Elite Academy Teacher in charge remind both the MC and one of the organizer.

The MC’s already back to reality and heard all the opinions from different schools, only the Top 3 Schools didn’t have and show any reactions because they are all cautious.

“Ah sorry for that Teacher in charge and that’s the screen is indicating all the participant’s seat arrangement with their School Entry on the top left side and at the center indicating their scores.”

“Okay thank you. Ken and Jinyu don’t you have any questions?”

Both are just shaking their heads and the Teacher in Charge goes back to his assigned seats.

“Alright everyone, 3 minutes from now the Math Fair will be officially commenced and participants, all of you will know that you will be eliminated from each round by appearing on the answer tab device screen with eliminated words and your score will be also appear on Screen. So now good luck participants.”

At the Jun couple and bunch of kids seats

Jinxi: My, my, they are judging the two monsters based on their appearance.

Yuhan: It can’t be helped after all they didn’t know how monster they are.

Yuki: And of course they didn’t know that Ken is younger compared to his height. [Jinyu and Ken are now the same height]

Ellyn: You know what guys; I just want to know between the two of them who's smarter, is it my Bro Ken or Yu?

Both: [Yuhan and Jinxi ask someone who's the two monster classmate] So Bro Yuki who's smarter between the two?

Yuki: Eh? [All of them nodded their heads in sync since they were all curious] Uhm I don't know that one even our Teachers and classmates are not aware who's smarter between the two because they always got perfect score every quiz and examinations either in a group or solo activities then they always tied, remember?

All: [Nodded their heads while speechless]

Jinxi: Aunt Rei, who's smarter between Ken and my brother?

Rei: Mmm they are both on the same level but then when they grow up it will show who's between the two.

All: Who?

Rei: Both of them will be top in their own fields, Jinyu will be in the Medicine Fields while Ken in the IT Fields so each their strengths will be their opposite weakness, Ken for Medicine Fields while Jinyu for IT Fields.

All: I see and in other words, both of them will be still a monster if they grow up.

Rei: 'And how come they got that kind of conclusion?'

The kids already know their family backgrounds except for Din's Family backgrounds after all it will be only exclusive for the family members. They just know that Ken wants to be in IT Fields because of Rei's influence without knowing that Rei is R and Jinyu because of his family background.

Ren: My, my, my, they are underestimating my Brother and Bro Jinyu.

Mei: Right and just like you My Ren but I've never expected that I will also witness Ken asking the same thing as what you ask last week. Ah, you're really a twin brother because you have the same thinking, same personality, and same characters.

Rick: What? Don't tell me you doubt your own sons Mei?

Mei: I'm not, idiot.

En: My Mei you forgot that they don't have the same favorite colors, remember?

El: Right Mei but then how come only S Elite Academy representing a bunch of kids for the Math Fair?

Lyn: El, it's because they didn't dare to lose so they only chose from the High School Department but I guess the School Entry Number 32 partner is also not from the High School Department.

Mei: Now mentioning that one maybe you're right Lyn and maybe around from Middle School Department?

Aya: Okay enough with that guessing and we're here for cheering Ken and not to guess the participants if they are High School, Middle School, or Grade School, right?

Aii: Raevo

Chapter 537 - Vol 7: Ch 537 – The School Fair – Part 5

All participants are now waiting for the competition to commence. Some other schools are underestimating the S Elite Academy since they just represent two little boys for their representative but then the top 10 schools especially the two top schools after S Elite Academy didn't let go of their guard or else they will be doomed. Some participants are relaxing their minds before going for the battle and then some of them are discussing their strategy just what the two little boys did.

"Ken, for the easy level you will answer it all. I will read the questions for you and you will answer them without looking at that screen so that we won't miss the timing to answer. As for the Medium level let me do the answer and you will read the questions."

"I see Bro Jinyu and for the Hard Level we will both read the question in silent then answer as fast as we can then comparing our answers with each other before you will answer on the tab while I'm reminding you of the time limit, right?"

"Uh-uh"

"We can do it Bro Jinyu"

"Yes we will"

Then both said at the same time "for free tuition fees and for piano"

Everyone heard the MC's reminders

"Alright everyone 20 seconds to go please be in mind that it will a non-stop so please mind the time limit. Okay and after I count, all of you may start now, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1"

All Participants are now using their own strategy and focus their attention on the competition. The spectators and Teacher in charge are all quiet and cheering them silently to avoid them disturbing their concentration, except for where the bunch of kids is seating since they commented on every question but not so loud that just enough for them to hear their conversation.

Yuki: What the heck? They really give 15 seconds per question, are they all monsters?

Jinxi: Bro Yuki you're too noisy

Yuhan: I don't know how Ken and Bro Jinyu still concentrates but it's 15 seconds still too short for you to answer Math questions even it's an Easy Level you know.

Ellyn: My mind going to explode guys

Both: [Yuhan and Jinxi] what? Don't tell me you're answering each question?

Ellyn: Yup I did but I didn't catch up it's too fast for me and now my mind is going to explode now.

Yuhan: You just need to watch and silently cheering them up you know

Ellyn: Eh, really?

Yuhan:

Yuki: Don't worry Ellyn I can relate with you because I also tried to answer and my mind going to explode any seconds by now.

Jinxi: Then don't answer for the sake of your mind.

Yuhan: You two you're not the representative so you don't need to answer it, okay?

Jinxi: Right, right and especially you Bro Yuki, you're the Science Fair champion so how can you react like an ordinary one, huh?

Yuki: Well Math and Science is very different you know

Rei: Now, now kids stop with that and look out at the screen monitor. All 64 schools have the same scores and 20 questions to go.

All: Eh? [Then all the kids looking at the Score Monitors' screens and indeed every participant have the same score.] 'Are they all monsters?' How can they answer math questions as if it just a yes or no question?'

Well, it is expected, after all, it's an easy level and all of the participants are the best among the best so it will be a shame if they will get eliminated on Easy Level. Each of their Teacher in charge sighing in relief when they realize that their representative is still safe and that didn't get eliminated for the first round but then on the Medium level one by one got eliminated every 30 seconds since they didn't catch up answering the questions and so after 15 minutes, out of 64 half of them continue participating but then at the end of the Second Round there are only 16 Schools can continue for the Final Round.

The participants who got eliminated looking at the scoreboards and they are two schools that have the same perfect score, of course, they didn't know which schools yet after all the organized didn't announce and disclose their school entry.

"Auntie Rei, Auntie Rei"

"Yes, Ellyn?"

"What's Bro Ken and Yu's school entry?"

"28"

Rei: Indeed

All: 'What a monster indeed?'

Tae: Ah, right kids' number 32 are the representative from the S Gifted International School and Academe

All: Eh and how did you know Uncle Tae?

Tae: By their school uniforms kids.

All: I see

Tae: [Whisper to his wife] Woo Jin and Roux kids are both smart huh

Rei: Yeah indeed

Tae: So how about our kids then?

Tae: Not them Hon and what I mean is our own kids, so which kids are smarter, my kids or Woo Jin's kids?

Rei: [got speechless]

Tae: Nah, they must be but my kids are smarter after all I have an amazing wife

Rei:[got speechless for the second time]

Ellyn: Ah, Auntie Rei look, 5 questions to go and the final round will end but the two schools still got a perfect score so how will Bro Ken and Yu win then?

Rei: Tie Breaker Ellyn

At the same time, the MCs announce who's the 3rd placer before announcing the next announcement.

"Alright, everyone our 3rd Placer for the Math Fair is from the Nobles International Academy with a score of 170/175. As for the 1st placer and 2nd placer, we will be going for the Tie-Breaker Rounds since the two schools are tied with a perfect score. The tiebreaker will be having the same rules for the Hard Level and so one mistake from between of the two schools will be automatically the second placer while the school who got it right will be the 1st placer, so now may I call the School Entry Number 28 and 32 Representatives to go on stage for the Tie-Breaker rounds."

Four students standing up from their assigned seats and now go on stage, of course, every one of them gasping because the two of four of them are the little boys who represent S Elite Academy based on their school uniforms.

"I— I never expected that these two little boys got a perfect score and may I know your School Entry Number?"

"28" Both answered in sync.

"I see 28 and so number 32 is assigned for S Gifted International School and Academe. Miss and Young Boy, how do you feel now?"

"....." The two siblings didn't answer because they are still concentrating but suddenly someone shouting from the student's spectators' sides.

"Sis Woonna and Bro Ji, please win and got the 1st place"

"Hey Anna, are you insane? You're cheering our rival school?"

"Nah S Ladies Academy already eliminated so it will be alright now"

“.....”

“Ha, ha, ha, I never expect that S Gifted.....” got interrupted because someone also cheering for S Elite Academy.

“Bro Jinyu/Yu and Bro Ken go for it” cheered both Ellyn and Lynel in sync as if the two practice this cheer.

Chapter 538 - Vol 7: Ch 538 – The School Fair – Part 6

After hearing the cheer from the rival schools both Ellyn and Lynel suddenly stand from their seats and shout to their heart’s content as if they practicing it since they just said in sync, well aside from being twins they also want to cheer the two.

“Bro Jinyu/Yu and Bro Ken go for it”

“Eh, did I just hear Lynel’s voice just now?”

“Who’s Lynel, Ellyn?” Ask by Yuki since he still didn’t meet Lynel.

“Ah Bro Yuki, that’s my twin younger sister but they are not living here so how can I hear my own twin’s sister’s voice just now?”

All the kids said in sync “we heard it, Ellyn, if you happen didn’t call Bro Jinyu as Yu perhaps you are imagining it but we really heard it”

“Auntie Rei, they are here?”

“Uh-uh they are here to witness and cheer up the two of you and Ken”

“I see and so when?”

“I don’t know when they arrive and I only know that they are here when I called Mei”

“I see and is it Bro Ken aware of it, Auntie Rei?”

“For now yes, look, Ken already looking where he heard Lynel voice just now”

At the Din’s Family Members sides

After cheering, Lynel suddenly realized and crunched down right away “oops, sorry everyone I can’t help it and just want to cheer the two of them because they are too amazing since they got a perfect score.”

Aii:

Ren: Geez, Lynel you’re too excited now look Bro Ken already found us and now waving at us.

Lynel:

Mei: Now, now you have already blown our cover so why not waved at Ken to let him know that we are here for Ken, okay?

Lynel: O— okay Auntie Mei ... [Then waving back at Ken]

Mei: By the way Ren for your Math Fair you got 170/175, right?

Ren: Yes Mom and we got lucky to win 1st place but then here in S Country both Bro Jinyu and Bro Ken along with their rival schools got a perfect score huh, what an amazing battle.

Rick: Are you not jealous that your Bro Ken smarter compared to you?

Ren: No need to feel jealous and why would I be? Instead of being jealous, I'm proud that Bro Ken is my brother.

Back to Ken and Jinyu

After hearing Lynel's voice, same with Ellyn, Ken can recognize it right away "eh, Lynel is here?"

"They are here Ken?"

"Yes if not then why that cheer call you Bro Jinyu / Yu at the same time?"

"You're right" Ken is now looking around where the voice came from and spotted every one of the Din's Family members and right away he waved at them. "Ken, we're still competing you know"

"Ah, right" then stop waving at them.

"They are all here to cheer the two of us, so we must not let them be disappointed, okay?"

"Uh-uh" Ken becomes more determined because everyone is now here and cheering for the two of them.

"Alright thank you for the three little girls cheering up our participants here and for now we will now go to the Tie Breaker Rounds. Participants you can take a seat now, No. 28 please, the two of you go to the assigned table at my right side which will be now for A Entry while No. 32 go to my left side for B Entry."

The four of them nodded their heads and go to their new assigned seats.

“Alright, participants be now ready and on count to 10 you may start, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1”

“I’ve never expected that the two schools didn’t go back down so please wait for a moment for further instructions.” Then the MC approaches the Math Fair organizer and instructs him right away before announcing it. “Okay for two school representatives Teacher in Charge, please come up on stage and discuss to your representative who will be the one from the two of your representative going to represents your school and face one on one for the Tie-Breaker Final round.”

S Gifted International School and Academe

Teacher: So Miss Wong and Mr. Wong, who will be the two of you going to represent our schools?

Wooji: Of course it will be Senior Wong, Master.

Teacher: I see and Miss Wong, are you confident to win?

Wooona: I will just do my best Master.

Teacher: You must be Miss Wong, so win after all they are just a bunch of kids and it’s your last competition so you need at least to beat your 2nd placer position.

Wooona: I will just do my best Master.

S Elite Academy

Ken: Yes Teacher Min

Min: Although you're only a kid, show them how S Elite Academy is, okay?

Ken: Yes Teacher Min

Min: Are you alright with my decision Jinyu?

Jinyu: No questions from me Teacher Min and I also trust Ken.

Min: Good and Ken, just remember that win or lose you prove enough, and S Elite Academy will not blame you, so just relax and do your best, okay?

Ken: Yes Teacher Min

"Alright, times up and please let only the representative stay on stage" pause to let the Teacher in charge and one representative go down from the stage then continue "and may we begin after my instructions, so right now they are 25 questions going to pop out randomly on this screens either it's easy, medium and hard level. For the easy one, you only have 10 seconds, medium level for 15 seconds, and hard level for 30 seconds. The score will not show your scores and only then we can know at the end of the Tie Breaker's final round. To my count of three, the round will officially commence. Are you now ready?" Both Representatives of the two schools nodded. "Okay 3, 2, 1 timer's start now"

Everyone is now watching seriously because they don't know what the score for the two schools yet after all it will only show at the ends of the Final Tie Breaker round. Because of the lesser time limits at exactly 7 minutes, all questions got to stop and the two representatives are seating properly without showing their fl.u.s.tered expression.

"Alright everyone and I hope it will end now after all they only have 7 minutes to answer all 25 questions and so now let's reveal their score at the same time."

Everyone's eyes are now fully focused on the Scoreboard

Entry A [S Elite Academy]

Easy Level – 10/10

Medium Level – 8/8

Hard Level – 5/7

Total – 223/225

Entry B [S Gifted International School and Academe]

Easy Level – 10/10

Medium Level – 6/8

Hfzt Lusui – 4/7

Total – 220/225

All the surroundings become silent for a moment because they didn't expect this little boy representing the S Elite Academy is a monster in disguise even Din's Family Members are also surprised though they know that Ken is really smart on his own but they didn't expect it after they only give lesser time to solve the questions without them knowing that Ken becomes more determined because his family members are complete and cheering with him.

--- Rei, Tae and Kids ---

Ellyn: [Way too surprise] Auntie Rei, Auntie Rei, and B—— Bro Ken win 1st place, d—— did I see it right?

Jinxi: [Pinching his face] I'm not dreaming and we did see it right Ellyn.

Yuhan: [No comment because he is speechless because of his childhood friend]

Yuki: My, my, my, Ken is really a monster in disguise huh

Rei: [No comment since she's also speechless and no words can come out from her mouth]

Tae: [Looking to his wife surprised looks and said] Ken win 1st place Hon and you really have amazing genes.

Meanwhile, on the other side, Din's family members are also speechless just what Rei did except for Rick because he is the one who reacts first, luckily for him that he is not that loud or else everyone will look at his direction with a very complicated expression because he said it in gayish tone.

"Oh my gosh, oh my gosh, my younger cousin is really like you Uncle En and Mei. What the heck, how the two of you produce two monsters huh? W—— Wait and how about these 2 boys then, d—— don't tell me they also inherit your monster genes?"

Luckily everyone from the Din's Family Members didn't hear his comment since they are still dumbfounded and looking proud to Ken.

Back to the present

Ken is also surprised by his result because he already expected that he won't win because of the time limit, he sees it again and again before pinching his face.

"Ouch, it's hurts" then looking to his Auntie first as if saying 'I did it, Auntie Rei, I did it.' And then to the other family members before running and hug Jinyu. "Bro Jinyu, Bro Jinyu, we win, we win 1st Place"

Of course, Jinyu also has the same reactions with Ken by seeing it again and again before pinching his face but before he feels the pain from his pinch, Ken already hugging him.

“You did it, Ken”

As for the MC’s he just returns back from his shock after Ken runs to his teammates and announcing the result.

“S Elite Academy is the champions for this Math Fair with a Score of 223/225 meanwhile the S Gifted International School and Academe is the 2nd placer with a Score of 220/225. Now may I call the top 3 School representative and claim your prizes?”

Each representative comes on stage and they only received a voucher, after all, they can’t carry the prizes and so it will be delivered to their school’s address right away and the school will deliver it to each representative house. As for Ken and Jinyu, they win two branded pianos.

“Once again congratulations to the winners and we have 5 minutes breaks before proceeding to the last even of this School Fair Year XXXX.”

Chapter 539 - Vol 7: Ch 539 – Formidable Opponent

The Teacher in Charge of S Gifted International School and Academe can’t believe on the said result of the Math Fair but he can’t ask questions because it’s a live competition and all of them witness how their School Representative got defeated by their School Rival and it’s a boy, a little boy. Since he cannot question the Math Fair Organizer, he just asks his representative because she’s the best among the best of their schools but he got interrupted by Woon.

“Miss Wong, I

“Sorry Master but I really did my best and my loss is worth it after all I have met and against with a formidable opponent.”

“Now excuse me for a while Master” then walks in a different direction.

Noticing his Sister walking in a different direction, and so he asks her right away “Senior Wong, where are you going?”

“Of course, I’m going to congratulate my formidable opponent, Junior Wong”. Then she walks right away and approaches the S Elite Academy representatives. “Boya, congratulations”

Ken looking to where it is and got surprised because it’s their School Opponent “eh”

“I’m Wong Woon and just call me Woon”

“Eh, but are you not older than me?”

“Indeed I am, but it’s alright for you to call me Sis Woon or Senior Woon”

“I see then I call you Senior Woon”

“Thanks, Boya, and I did lose to you fair and square, so let’s be and going to compete next year, okay?”

“Uhm, I’m not yet sure of who will be the representative for our school next year, Senior Woon”

“I see but well I still want to compete with the two of you for my last competition before graduating”

“Eh, Sis, is it suppose to be today will be your last competition?”

“Yeah indeed Ji but I just meet formidable opponents and rival now”

“.....”

Ignoring her speechless brother and ask the two boys from S Elite Academy “by the way, may I know what strategies you did to get a perfect score knowing the time limits is short?”

‘Eh, is it alright to let your opponents know your strategy?’ Ken asks his own self after hearing that question from the young lady of their rival schools.

Jinyu just looking at Ken since he didn’t get what this young lady means and she only wants to know whose she’s against during the competition, so he answered instead of Ken. “During the easy level, I just read all the questions and let my partner answers them. So for the medium level, we did vice versa by me answering the questions while my partner read the questions and as for the Hard Level we both read and answer the questions and it also applied during the Tie Breakers round before selecting my partner to be the one facing one on one for the Tie Breakers final round.”

Already expecting this answer from them “I see and the two of you are.....” got interrupted by her brother.

After hearing that these two little boys answered the math questions at ease and without hesitation, his fan mode becomes activated and said right away to them.”Young Masters, can you accept me as your disciple then?”

“.....” Ken and Jinyu got speechless.

“Ji, what are you talking about? Are you an idiot?”

Ignoring his Sister “I’ve been a disciple of my Sister since birth and I already defeated her many times except cooking because I only know to eat, so now after knowing that my Sister got defeated by the two of you, can you accept me as your disciple?”

“....” Ken and Jinyu speechless again

“Ji, are you an idiot?”

Still ignoring his Sister and ask the two “can you, can you? Please because I want to have a formidable master and before this disciple of yours going to challenge the two you, so can you?”

Both Jinyu and Ken ‘what is he? He is more unpredictable compared to my younger brother [Jinxi and Ren].’

“Ji, are you still aware that these two boys are from the Grade Schools Department of our rival schools, right?”

“Now speaking about that Sis, you’re right. And so what grade you are now young masters?”

Both answered in sync “5th Grade”

“Eh, really and it’s both of you?” Both nodded “wow, wow amazing but you’re still young so how old are you now?”

“I’m turning 9 and my partner turning 7”

“Whoa, whoa amazing my two young masters is older than me by 4-6 years”

“.....”

Woonah just pinch the space between her eyebrows and said the fact to her brother “Ji, the two boys are still not accepting you as their disciple and forsake Ji, you’re already 13 years old, so please act like one, okay?”

Ignoring his Sister “all right, I already made a decision”

Woonah already guesses what is it but still, she asks after all this brother of her is really an unpredictable one “and what is it then?”

“I and Anna will both transfer to S Elite Academy after graduating from the Middle School Department and both of us will become a disciple for these two young masters here”

“.....” Woono got speechless this time because as she expected, her brother is really an unpredictable one and he even drags his younger sister with him.

“Alright young masters, just wait for a year for your two disciples, okay?”

“.....”

“Ji, you will be the next Student Council President after me, remember”

“Nah it’s alright because I only accept it because of you but then since you’re going to transfer school after graduating then I will follow you and of course our school won’t collapse just because we’re moving schools, so no worries”

“No worries huh and now I will be trouble for looking another one to be the next student council president, idiot”

Didn’t hear his Sister and since he is busy talking to the two boys even though he is the only one talking.

Both Ken and Jinyu just said in sync “your sister is talking to you”

“Eh?” Both nodded “no worries my sister can handle it and by the way, may I ask my two young masters” got interrupted by someone.

“I’ve been looking the two of you”

“Sorry Teacher Wen”

“It’s alright and now, let’s go”

“Uh-uh”

At the same time, the Teacher in charge of the Wong siblings also looking for them.

“Miss Wong and Mr. Wong, I’ve been looking the two of you”

“Sorry Madame”

Chapter 540 - Vol 7: Ch 540 – The School Fair – Part 6

5 minutes Breaks is now over and the assigned MC’s is already on stage while giving instructions.

“Now, may I call the attention for all of the participants for Universal Language Fair to seat to your assigned seats according to your School Entry Number”. All participants gather and already seating down to their assigned seats except for two schools since it’s still empty. The MC’s notice it since the scoreboard screens didn’t light for those two schools’ School Entry Number. “May I call the attention of the representatives of School Entry No. 28 and School Entry No. 32 to come at your assigned seats?”

“.....” No response from the School Representative for School Entry No. 28 and No. 32.

“Teacher in Charge for School Entry No. 28 and No. 32 please let your School Representatives seat down to their assigned seats within 1 minute or else both schools will be automatically disqualified.”

Right away the teacher in charge go to backstage directly since they didn’t see the Math Teacher in charge come out together with their representative and after 30 seconds the representative of both schools are now seating at their assigned seats and everyone gasped because of their representatives after all the 4 students are both representatives for Math Fair which the 1st Placer and 2nd Placer of the fair that just finished after 5 minutes. This time all school representatives didn’t look down on the S Elite Academy little boys representative anymore since they already witness that these two boys been dominating the Math Fair with only 2 mistakes.

As for the Entry List, it got change since Entry No. 32 is now assigned for S Elite Academy and the same for the other school.

“Sis, my two young masters are also both representatives for Universal Language, they are really amazing.”

“I did see it Ji and concentrate, okay?”

“Okay, I will”

“Alright and since everyone is already here then I will now give the instructions. For this Universal Language Fair, all participants will be going to answers 175 questions randomly. From what we know they are 6 levels for Language which consists of Beginner, Elementary, Intermediate, Upper Immediate, Advanced and Proficient Level but since Universal Language is not S Country spoken language because it’s Sean so for this Fair, the Universal Language Fair committee only provides 60 questions for both Elementary Level and Intermediate Level while 55 questions for Advanced Level, with a total of 175 questions. All questions are written in Universal Language here on this monitor screen and so automatically all answers must be written in Universal Language in your Answer Tab Device found on your assigned seats, failure to do so then the Answer Tab Device will automatically mark wrong of your answer even if you answered it correctly but you writing it in Sean Language. If we happened to meet for Tie Breakers then I will give further instructions if we have a Tie Breakers rounds. Time right now is quarter to 4 pm and at exactly 4 pm the Universal Language Fair will officially commence and will end at exactly 5 pm if we didn’t happen to meet for Tie Breaker Rounds. Any questions from the instructions I give just now?”

“.....” No one from the participant’s schools raising their hands since they heard it loud and clear.

“I see and so how about the S Elite Academy?”

Both Ken and Jinyu are shaking their heads.

“I see and what about S Gifted International School and Academe then?”

Both Wong’s siblings are also shaking their heads.

“I see so no questions from the top” got interrupted by someone.

“Excuse me, Sir,” said using the Universal Language one.

The MC’s alerted since this participant is quite a show-off one but he didn’t get fl.u.s.tered and answered him using the Universal Language “yes and what is Entry No. 1?”

“How do we know that my fellow participants here are not cheating?”

“Aside from the answer tab devices, there’s no other way that your fellow participants can look for other answers so no worries Entry No. 1”

“I see but how about tracking the score, is it a live counting, or will only appear after all 175 questions appeared in that screens?”

“It will only appear on that screen young boy after all 175 questions appeared”

“I see that’s good then”

“Do you still have any questions, Nobles International School Representative?”

“No I don’t have any questions Sir and that’s all I’m concerned about” then he takes a seat but you can still see his proud expression and already considering that they will defeat the top 3 schools especially the S Elite Academy.

Each participant of 64 School Entry Lists understands the conversation between Entry No. 1 and the MC’s after all they’re the representatives for this fair. Most of them are half Senian and half of the different citizenship wherever they are from, only the Wong’s siblings and Jinyu were the full Senian since Ken is not because he is dual citizenship by blood [Ceno and Tanes].

“Alright everyone please be ready because 3 minutes from now the competition will officially commence” they nodded and at exactly 4 pm the competition will begin without pausing.

“Neh Sis, are my young masters will be alright, after all, they’re the only ones who are from the Grade Schools Department, right?”

“They will be alright Ji and have you seen their looks just now?”

“Yeah I did and after that boy seats, my two young masters changed their expressions. Aiyah, Aiyah, even the competition still didn’t start I can already tell that S Elite Academy will be the champions.”

“...” Got speechless and wondering ‘how about us, are we going to win or not? Geez, is this brother of mine aware that we are here to compete and not to admire our rival schools?’

“Sis, sis”

“What?”

“I’m honored to compete here today after all I did meet my two young masters”

“Be serious Ji”

“Of course I will and I will let my two young masters know that I deserve to be their disciple”

“.....” ‘Are you really sure that you are serious about that one?’

“Why are you looking at me like that Sis? I’m really serious and I promise we will be the 2nd placer for this fair, so just relax, okay?”

“Yeah I know and hope my pointers will be useful to the two of us”
