The chief police order his assistant to avoid anyone to be near them since they're listening a internal matters that's no one can know it because it's a private conversation while Rei find a nearest restroom which is near in admission area, get in from one of the cubicle and get the clothes from the bag which was bought by the police officer.

Rei remove her white shirt and white pants that almost covered by blood into a simply plain white dress. 'Did he think I like white? Mei paused then ask “what’s wrong Sir?”

“We needs R help and Sir, are you Mr Meng right?”

“Yes and what is it Sir?”

“Awhile ago you told us that R was a former trainee of yours”

“Yes that’s right”

“Our head department only had R email and it will take a days to receive a reply from R, then here you are as a former trainer of R, do you have any ways to contact R?”

“Uh-uh and I will try for that Sir”

“Thank you Sir”

“No worries because it’s our matters” “So now this phone of her from what I remember she bring everyday when I was a mentor to her. Then I can’t hack her details since she’s on top, wait Rei is my daughter colleague so I need to hack Fengfeng phone. After that he got his phone and hack his daughter luckily her daughter have Rei number even though she named it s-t company number, then he dialed it right away. Everyone looking at him and taught he just search R number.

"I can't get through but I will try and try until I'm connected" everyone nodded after 5 times try "I still can't get through"

"Try again Chen and do you have any number of R?"

"I only have one Dad" 'well her personal is here, so no way I will contact or else her identity will expose.

"But I will try again" and it get connected. Well he didn't put in speaker because her identity is always keep hidden except from her family because she tell them everything and she knows that it will never be get leaked because she trust her family and their emails or details are fully protected by her. The kids will know when they reach 16 and for now not's the time for them to know because they want them to be just a kid and enjoy their youth.

"Hello, this is Rei"

"Oh, you sure are carefree R" 'what if someone will hack this number,huh?'

"Mentor Chen? Aiyah, luckily it's you and you must hacking Ms Meng phone to get my details right?"

"Uh-uh because you're to carefree" 'well you're not that carefree since it's me and your family knows your identity'

"Ha, ha yeah luckily except my family you're the only one know my personal number"

"I need your help R to hack the CCTV recordings near the C City / Azure Residences" mention to avoid suspicious from them if he didn't ask why he ask for help.

"Yes Mentor Chen and I will send it to you"

“Thanks”

“You’re welcome Mentor Chen and I’ve never taught that Mentor Chen and Mr Meng is just one person”

“Why do you think, so?”

“Well you’re photos and in person didn’t look the same”

“Oh, I see”

“Mentor Chen thank you for not revealing my identity and I already sent it to your email, by the way, I separated each files, one for the CCTV recordings for the whole scene, one for the car owners and one for the 16 years ago accidents”

‘16 years ago, don’t tell me she hack my files without getting prompted. Tsk, tsk this Ms Lou, is quite scary’ Mentor Chen will call her Ms Lou because he feels comfortable compared to her other or last name.

“By the way what do you mean by owners R?” called R in order not to expose her identity.

“Oh, right at first I only suspected one but after listening again and again from the recordings of my conversation with your daughter, around the time I finished call for the emergency hotline there’s a man reporting to his boss, please take note that Mentor Chen because if you will not listen it carefully you will miss it.”

“Thank you R”

“You’re welcome and don’t worry I will charge you for free Mentor Chen since you’re the one who discover and enhance this talent of mine 3 years ago”

“But I only trained you for 2 months”

“And that’s 2 months really did help me after all, Mentor Chen the files I sent you are already in sequence and for now just open the file for CCTV recordings not the other files because it’s your internal matters and the two police officers are still there, well we must be a law abider but you must discuss it first to your family before you will release it to public”

“I understand R and thank you for your help and understanding”

“No worries Mentor Chen”

“Did you send everything to me, R?”

“Uh-uh, ah before I forget this is the other car plate number DY-4623 owned by Zhang Li”

“DY-4623 owned by Zhang Li, noted R and Bye”

“Bye Mentor Chen”

“How did it go Chen?”

“R already send me the CCTV recordings, Dad”

Except Mei, En, El and Mr Meng ‘what? how fast C and next R, can’t even do it. R is really scary, thank goodness R is a law abider or else’

“Then let’s watch it after we finished listening this one”

“Yes Chief Lin/Sir”

“You can play it now Miss”

Mei resume the recordings and after 15 minutes they already heard the whole conversation. Even the talk almost take for almost 2 hours, Mei just forward to the most important points and they just listen for 45 minutes, everyone who’s been witnessing it except En and El are thinking the same thing “these siblings are really amazing and quite scary sometimes”

“Let’s watch the CCTV recordings now”

Before Mr Meng can say it, Mei got him first “wait for a moment Sir, please take note this one, I’m sure his one of the accomplice” played that part and all them heard “see this man was reporting to his boss, and Mr Meng the plate number and person’s name you mention when you speak to R must be this man”

“You guess it right Miss Mei, what you say right now is the same as what R said to me”

‘What? I’m a Chief Police Officer but how come I didn’t take a notice any of it? I am that incapable compared to this Miss and to Miss Din, but base on their appearance both of them are still young.’

“Mr Meng, please retrieve what R send to you”

“Yes Sir, Assistant Lin can I borrow your laptop again?”

“Yes Master” grab the laptop from his briefcases “here, Master”

“Thank you Assistant Lin” then Chen open his email very fast and quick then saving the video files as what Rei said. Chen really surprise that she found out everything but well he knows she can do it because he have seen it once when he was still mentor to her.

“This is the CCTV recordings Sir”

“Good and please start it now Mr Meng”
