

Chapter 541 - Vol 7: Ch 541 – The two boys temper

At exactly 4 pm the Universal Language Fair officially commence and all participants answered seriously because they know that it's a serious competition and all of the school's participants determined to defeat the undefeated school but what they didn't know is S Elite Academy always remind their students that they must not be overconfident because it will only kill them if they will. Each representative of each fair is all among the best of all students of their schools including the S Elite Academy, so it doesn't mean that they throwing their bunch of kids just because they are confident to win but because they deserve to be their representative after all they are the best among the best. Both Ken and Jinyu got offered first to be the Universal Language School Representative but then all teachers in charge recommend that they will be both representatives for Math Fair and let Jinxi and Yuhan be the representative for Universal Language Fair so that's how they become the representative of each fair after knowing that both fairs have free tuitions fees prizes for each fair and accept the said offer since they almost decline after all they still grade schools students. One week before the competition, Ken and Jinyu suggest that they will become the representatives of Universal Language instead of Jinxi and Yuhan but then after the seniors know that the two other boys are not their school representative anymore, both President Julian and his Vice President automatically assigned the boys for them to represents the fair that they've been involved, Julian to Jinxi and then the Vice President to Yuhan.

Each question for the Universal Language fair will only appear on screens for 20 seconds long. The two boys applied the same strategy by Jinyu reading the questions and let Ken answered without looking. Jinyu let Ken answered instead of him because Ken already learning Universal Language since he learns to talk while for him he just learned not more than a year so compare to him, Ken is the one who excels at this fair. As for Wong's siblings, they also applied what the two boys did, Ji by reading the questions while letting his sister answered without looking after all his sister is 2 years older by him and they've been learning Universal Language since 1st Grader so he let his sister answer based from their duration of learning.

All participants used different strategies but only the two top schools applied the same strategy since most of the school representatives let the one answered whose best among them and the other one will just remind their partner if they answered it correctly or wrongly.

Minutes by minutes the students answered seriously and at exactly 5 pm everyone is now fully focused on the scoreboard. The score appeared from lowest to the highest score and now the top 12 followed.

11. School Entry No. 64 – 130/175

10. School Entry No. 58 – 134/175

09. School Entry No. 15 – 137/175

08. School Entry No. 47 – 140/175

07. School Entry No. 50 – 145/175

06. School Entry No. 03 – 158/175

05. School Entry No. 24 – 164/175

04. School Entry No. 01 – 165/175 [Nobles International Academy]

03. School Entry No. 60 – 168/175 [S Ladies Academy]

02. Shvmmi Erozw Nm. 28 – 170/175 [S Gadout Irouzrfoamrfi Shvmmi frt Ahftuqu]

01. School Entry No. 32 – 175/175 [S Elite Academy]

Before the MC's going to congratulate the winners and instruct them to come on stage, the Nobles International Academy representative reacts right away.

“What the heck? They are cheating, S Elite Academy is cheating and how come they got a perfect score? It must because they tampered with these Answer Tab Devices” accused them while he said using the Universal Language one.

Both the Universal Language Fair Committee and the Teacher in Charge going to react because of his accusations but then they heard a cold voice and that it's Jinyu for now.

"Cheating? Are you sure? Just because we got the perfect score we are now considered cheating and you even attempt that our school tampered with this Answer Tab Device for us to get a perfect score, is that how you see? What if it's not us who got a perfect score, so are you also going to accuse them of cheating, or what if you got a perfect score, do will also accuse you of the same thing then?" Jinyu said in a very cold voice but not only that one since he also said it using the Universal Language, more accurate and pronounce very well compared to him that cause everyone to gasps.

"..... [He almost got speechless because of his wordings with proper pronunciation just like Universal Language is Jinyu spoken language.] T——the two of you are just a bunch of kids"

"Right we are really a bunch of kids and so what? Are there any rules in here that a grade school student can't participate?"

"..."

"To tell you frankly I'm only reading all the questions and all of them got answered by this boy here alone" everyone gasped.

"That...."

"Why, are you now sure and assured that we're really cheating because it got answered by this boy here?"

"....."

Jinyu looking at Ken and said right away "Ken, this young man here is accusing you of cheating, so what's your opinion about it?"

'Bro Jinyu, are you looking for a fight?' Ken wondered but then he looks at the serious expressions of Jinyu, so he also answered using the Universal Language one "oh, cheating but how did I do that? Each seat here have at least 1.5 meters distance unless I have a leaser eye that I can cheat it clearly but wait, the assigned schools seating above us is School Entry No. 24, left sides is School Entry No. 31, then below us is School Entry No. 40 and so did I just ask an answer from the spectators, but then the questions only appear every 20 seconds so how did I do that, unless I'm a flash, right? Wait for a moment, if we did cheat then how did I cheat? Oh, right mostly participants here are half Senians and half whatever their citizenships are, of course, it's also applied to me but are there any rules here that required your citizenship to participate in the competition, are they?"

"No there's no rules Ken but if it is then most of the participants here already disqualified without having a chance to seats their assigned seats, right?"

"Right but so the best possible is that maybe our school really tampered with the Answer Tab Device but then from what we know R is the one who protecting and securing the system of S Country, so did our school hired a top hacker more formidable than R to tampered our answer tab device for us to get a perfect score?"

"That a possible Ken but then from what we heard R is the top hacker globally so is our School really find better than R then?"

"Who knows?"

"Ah, wait there's also a hacker with a code name of JR so then don't tell me that our school able to contact JR and hired JR before the competition that's why we got a perfect score?"

"I also heard about JR, but then from what we heard JR only chose randomly and only help if that someone is really in need, so then, don't tell me that we are really in need, oh right we are really in need since we are just a bunch of kids, right?"

"Right, right"

Chapter 542 - Vol 7: Ch 542 – Showing the answer sheet of S Elite Academy.

The two boys are talking about any possibilities that they might be cheating without realizing that everyone is already dumbfounded and shocked because these two little boys have been talking non-stop and most of all they've been talking using the universal language one. S Elite Academy and their teacher in charge only got sweat dropped because they already know how these two boys showing their temper now since they've been provoked and the only one who can stop the two is Rei and no one else.

"S Elite Academy representative please calm down and there's no cheating at all, so both of you can relax now, okay?"

"....." The two little boys ignore the MCs.

"....." The MC's got speechless because he got ignored by these two boys,

The committee, organizer, and other Teacher in charge try to stop the two of them but then again they just got ignored since they've been talking nonstop about how they cheat and everyone heard it loud and clear, some student didn't understand it because the two boys are now talking the Universal Language fluently.

All school representatives including the one who accuses them of cheating thinking about the same time 'what the heck? They are already on the proficient level and so it's only a piece of cake to them'.

"Sis, Sis, see my two young masters are both amazing, are they perhaps an alien in disguise?"

"....." Her sister got speechless.

"Teacher in Charge of S Elite Academy please let your representatives calm down for now."

Teacher Wen tries to calm down the two but he still got ignored well he already knows that he will be ignored 100% and only one person can stop them and so he is now looking in Rei's direction.

At Rei's, Tae and the kid's sides.

Ellyn: Here we go again

Jinxi: Ha, ha, they've been accused of cheating so at least the two tried to find proof from that young man's accusations, you know.

Yuhan: Are they just childish then? And also did they forget that they are still in the competition?

Yuki: Well not even our Teachers can't stop the two so since that day [competing for school representative and also they got accused of cheating by their seniors since they defeat them without showing mercy] so then since that day no one and nobody from our S'lites Family to accuse them of cheating or else they will be like this.

All: [Sighing and said in sync] Auntie / Aunt Rei please stop the two childish genius boys, please.

Rei just pinches the space between her eyebrows and stands from her seats then approaches the two boys, luckily their assigned seats are just a distance from the two boys.

"Jinyu and Ken"

"Yes, Auntie Rei/ Aunt Rei?"

[Eh, hey is that Manager Rei?]

[Yeah she is and she is the wife of M'dols Woo]

[Wow, she's really a real beauty, huh]

"You are still in the competition" Rei ignored the spectators and just remind the two boys after getting their attention.

"Oh"

Rei then talking to the MC's and the Committee "sorry everyone but these two boys here have a little bit weird of temper and since they've been accused of being cheating then they will just find proof if they cheat or not so just let the young boy here from Nobles International School to show a solid evidence that these two boys are not cheating from his accusation so that it will be cleared."

Committee: I see and it's alright if we will show their answer sheets to everyone then?

Wen: As the teacher in charge then we will allow it.

Committee: I see and how about you, Ma'am?

Rei: I'm just the guardian of these two boys here, so what the Teacher in Charge decisions then just follows him.

Committee: I see and thank you Ma'am for stopping the two.

Rei: You're welcome [right away, Rei back to her seats]

The Committee calls the MC's attention right away and instructs to show the answer sheets from the Answer Tab Device Entry No. 32 and he also instructs some instructions.

"Alright everyone since S Elite Academy been accused of cheating then we will show everyone the answers sheets from Answer Tab Device of Entry No. 32 which is the assigned seats for S Elite Academy. Well, we will never reveal the answer sheets of participants since the School Fair founded every School Fairs since it might become a reference after all some questions will be used for the next fair but then this year Universal Language Fair is an exemption since S Elite Academy been accused cheating so the committee left with no choice but to show their answers sheets that proved they've never been cheating and so here's the answer sheets of S Elite Academy"

Everyone gasped because Ken writes in very clear words and most of all his penmanship is too nice, well having a former Teacher of S Elite Academy as his Mom and former Head Secretary of one Conglomerate Company as his Auntie then is not surprising that he has this kind of exceptional skills.

The committee interrupts them and added more evidence “it’s been clear that all participants here for this Universal Language Fair can never have a chance to cheat because all questions must be answered with one word as the correct answers and as for the answer sheets it must be answered personally from the participants by their handwritten using the pen provided by us and must be written only at the answer tab device. We, as the committee can also clarify that S Elite Academy never cheated because among all the participants here only the S Elite Academy representatives is the newbie here because all of the participants here except the two boys have been participating the Universal Language Fair for more than 1-6 years since they start representing their schools when they are 7th Grader, a Middle School Students. Every year we’ve been repeating at least 100 questions for the Universal Language Fair since it’s founded because we, as the committee didn’t want the participants to make it harder but we never expect that a newbie this year got it perfect knowing it’s their first time participating the competition and of course it’s not answered by both representatives instead it got answered by this little boy here alone. Even without showing any solid shreds of evidence, everyone can be witness that they, the S Elite Academy Representatives didn’t cheat after all they’ve been talking using the universal language as if it’s their spoken language. So without further adieu, S Elite Academy is the 1st placer for Universal Language Fair with a score of 175/175 and once again congratulations.

Everyone, please be witness that I, the Head Committee of the Universal Language Fair will be making an announcement that starting next year School Fair, Universal Language will always refreshing new sets of questions that consists of 40 questions for Advanced Level, 35 questions for Intermediated Level and 25 questions for Elementary Level with a total of 100 questions. As for the Tie-Breaker Rounds, the committees will be having a conversation or oral examinations to the tier using the Universal Language one, so proper diction and pronunciation are highly appreciated and will let them, the participants to be an advantage. Only those 2 rules got major changes and nothing else, so it means each School can still represent a repeater representative and newbie’s participants are always welcome. So that’s all and thank you” then give the microphone to the MCs before going back where the Committee seating while the Teacher in Charge of the Universal Language Fair of each school is now taking notes.

Chapter 543 - Vol 7: Ch 543 – Free Tuition Fees

All the Universal Language Fair participants except the top 3 Schools are now looking at School Entry No. 1 because they blame them for the sudden changes after all if they didn’t accuse the S Elite Academy of cheating then they are still have a chance to get the assurance of 100 points but then next year they won’t because of this idiot young man since he didn’t accept the reality that he got beaten by a grade school students. They stop wondering when they heard the MCs and now focus their attention on him.

“Once again, congratulations to our top 3 Schools, and before calling them on stage, I will roll call their scores.

3rd Placer – S Ladies Academy 168/175

2nd Placer – S Gifted International School and Academe 170/175

1st Placer – S Elite Academy 175/175

Each representative please come up on stage and claims your prize.”

6 Students come up on stage and before receiving the prizes; they go for the photo sessions then approach their teacher in charge afterward.

“Teacher Wen, Teacher Wen,” said the two excited boys as if they didn’t show their temper to everyone for a while ago.

“Yes boys I’m here and once again congratulations”

“You’re welcome” and then the two kids are now looking at each other because they contemplating between the two of who’s gonna and going to say what they’re going to say.

“Is there something wrong Mr. Li and Mr. Jang?”

In the end, Jinyu is the one saying because Ken is not really the talkative type and same with him but since he is the older one then he will do so “Teacher Wen here, it’s for Mr. Rin free tuition fees since his scholarship got revoked this year last term and as for the other one, please look for someone who really in needs for this, that’s all.”

“...” Teacher Wen got speechless

“Teacher Wen, are you alright?”

“Yes, I’m alright, and don’t tell me that the two of you just got 1st place because of the Free Tuition Fees?”

The two boys nodded enthusiastically, after all, they reach their aim and Jinyu explain right away before the teacher in charge misunderstood them “well that’s our main goal Teacher Wen but it doesn’t mean that we will let down the school, after all, we’ve been selected to represent the schools so we did our best to win”

“I see but then you still didn’t know about it?”

“Eh and about what?” Both Jinyu and Ken got confused

“Ah I see, so you didn’t know about it but well after Mr. Rin scholarship got revoked someone from the Secretary Department of CA International and Group Company already become Mr. Rin sponsor, so that’s he still a student of S Elite Academy and not a scholar anymore but instead Mr. Rin is now a sponsored student.”

“.....”

Right away Teacher Wen returns back the Free Tuition Fees Voucher to the little boys “here, it’s your own efforts to win this and so it will become sentimental for the two of you to select who’s really needed for this after all you already give 1st placer trophy to our school and it’s our pride. Of course, I will help the two of you if you didn’t happen to find who’s deserve to get a full scholarship to our alma matters.”

Right away the kids got escorted by Teacher Wen to them and leave first. After making sure that the Teacher is already out of sight both Ken and Jinyu ask in sync to Yuki without waiting for them to congratulate them.

“Bro Yuki, you already got a sponsor?”

“Eh, and what do you mean by that?”

Both Ken and Jinyu looking at each other, then asking him in sync again “eh, you don’t know?”

“What about what Ken and Jinyu?”

“.....”

Ellyn: Yu and Ken, what do you mean by Bro Yuki already got a sponsor? Are you supposed to give the Free Tuition Fees prize to Bro Yuki?

Jinxi: Yeah that’s right Bro Yu and Ken, so what’s this already got a sponsor about?

Yuki: I..... I really don’t know that I already have a sponsor but do you happen to know who is this mystery sponsor of me, Ken, and Jinyu?

Both: [replied in sync] it’s not us okay and Teacher Wen just inform that’s it from the Secretary Department of my Uncle / Uncle Hwang Company.

All: [Kids] CA Entertainment?

Both: Nope, it's CA International and Group Company

All: [Now looking to Rei and ask] Auntie Rei/Aunt Rei, you're my/Bro Yuki sponsor?

Rei: No, it's not me and kids, I'm already a Manager so it's not from me though I really want to but I still myself since I don't want to hurt Yuki's feelings after all he might feel wrong since we know that Yuki won't ask from all of you because he won't take advantage that you are all Yuki's friend so I did not but if it's from the Secretary Department then maybe it's Secretary Han.

All: Secretary Han?

Rei: [Not aware that Yuri and Secretary Han already got married last Valentine's Day, so she just answered honestly] that's Yuki's future, Brother-in-law.

Yuki: Eh, Brother-in-law is my sponsor but how come I didn't know that one?

All: [kids] eh Sister Yuri already got married since when?

Yuki: S—she got married last valentine's day and sorry everyone I didn't inform all of you because knowing all of you, a—all of you might give big presents to my sister after I invite all of you and all of you just give Aunt Rei your allowance for the charity we form so I didn't inform because you are all too kind and I... I'm a—afraid that all of you might think that I — I only befriended all of you because of money.

All:

Jinyu: Silly, Bro Yuki, and in the first place you didn't know about our background so it means you didn't befriend us because of money and we always say to you that we treated you as our real friends and not because you are using us.

Jinxi: That's right Bro Yuki and in fact, you never ask anything to us, so don't be afraid, okay?

Yuki: Uh-uh

Yuhan: So next time Bro Yuki please don't keep a secret from us or else it will lead to a big misunderstanding from us, okay?

Yuki: Uh-uh

Yuki: Uh-uh

All: [Including Jinyu and Ellyn] Bro Ken / Ken

Ken: What's wrong? Did I say something wrong?

All:

Jinyu: Silly Ken and sometimes I wonder if you're the older one among us here because you always keep surprising us.

Ken: Huh? And what do you mean by that Bro Jinyu?

Jinyu: Nothing.

Ken: You sure? [Jinyu nodded while he whispers to him] are you sure? I did save you just now, remember?

Jarwp: [Snuuhviull jvaiu giplvare]

Ken: [Observe his red face] ha, ha, ha, just kidding Bro Jinyu and.....

Ken got interrupted because all of them suddenly heard a voice and calling someone of 'Two Young Masters and Two Handsome Little Boys'.

Chapter 544 - Vol 7: Ch 544 – The Wong's siblings

A while ago, the moment Ken and Jinyu are talking about any possibilities that they are cheating, their so-called disciple that the two boys still didn't accept him yet is already fantasizing them because of how amazing and cool they are when in fact they are still little boys. Wooji has been an annoyance to his Sister after seeing their results and becomes more an annoyance when the kids both conversing using the Universal Language one, of course when he realizes that his idols are his Two Young Masters Guardian, he becomes more annoying to his sister. After coming on stage he wants to approach them but got stop by his Sister because they still have to receive their prize but failed to approach them when he realized that the kids are now chatting with their Teacher in charge, he looks like a lost puppy that just got abandoned by his owner when the two little boys didn't notice him.

As his sister, seeing this brother of her, Woonna comforts him and said to him "Ji, we can still approach them before going home, okay?"

His sad face automatically transfer to happy when he heard his sister and replied excitedly "ah, right thank you, Sis"

At that moment, someone also running to their ways while saying excitedly to them "Sis Woonna and Bro Ji, Miss Pretty is those two handsome little boys from S Elite Academy guardian, right?"

“Anna”

“Come here Bro Ji and let’s go to them now before they are leaving”

“Hey, Ji and Anna” Too late to stop them because they already out of sight “what the heck with these two siblings of mine and why do I feel that I’ve just become a mother of two naughty kids?” She’s wondering it out loud while pinching the space between her eyebrows before following them.

Wooji: [Too excited] Two Young Masters, Two Young Masters, Two Young Masters

Anna: [In the same manner with her brother and also said at the same time] Two Handsome Little Boys, Two Handsome, Little Boys

Woon: [just arrive and enough to hear them since she’s running to catch up with them but only got to heard this one] ‘Please ignore me and pretend that I’m not your Sister’

Both: [Ken and Jinyu greeted Woon since only her who did introduce herself to them] Senior Woon

Woon:

Wooji: [Got jealous when the two boys call his Sister} what the heck? It’s so unfair Young Masters, you only greet my sister while ignoring me, your very own disciple.

Both: [Ken and Jinyu]

Aii: [Katl] uv, Ympre Mflouzl frt talhaniul?

Wooji: Ah sorry for my manners everyone but I’m Wooji, Wong Wooji, a disciple of these two young Masters here, and of course after 1 year I will be your seniors.

All: Huh?

Anna: Eh, 1 year? Is it supposed to be after 4 years, Bro Ji?

Wooji: Yes Anna but I change my mind after meeting these two young masters here so instead of moving schools for University, I decide that I will start my High School Years at S Elite Academy so are you coming with me then?

Anna: T—then all of us will move to S Elite Academy after 1 year?

Wooji: Yes that's right.

Anna: Count me in

Wooji: Good and we will also be a disciple of these two young masters here.

Anna: Eh, really? [Wooji nodded enthusiastically] whoa thank you Bro Ji and we are really siblings after all.

All: [Kids except Woon] 'are they supposed to wait for their parent's decision and just wait for this approval before making a decision? And what the heck with this disciple thing?'

Woon: [Break the fantasy of her siblings before it's too late for her to stop them] sorry to disappoint you guys but these two boys here still didn't accept the two of you as your disciples and guys, what era we are now? Can you just say it to become their friends instead of disciple, okay? And most of all, can you wait for our parent's approval before making decisions on your own?

Both:

Woon: Everyone, Manager Rei and M'dols Woo please don't mind my two siblings here because they are just both weird in their own way so sorry in advance if they are making you uncomfortable with their own weirdness.

All:

Woonas: By the way guys, I'm Wong Woonas, 15 years old and turning 12th Grader next school term. This is my Younger Brother Wong Wooji and 13 years old while this is my Younger Sister Yu Anna and 12 years old both of them will be 9th Grader next school term.

Jinyu: I see and nice meeting you Senior Woonas, Senior Wooji, and Senior Anna. I'm Li Jinyu, turning 9 years old and turning 6th Grader.

Ken: I'm Jang Ken, turning 7 years old and turning 6th Grader

Yuki: I'm Rin Yuki, 10 years old and turning 6th Grader

Jinxi: I'm Li Jinxi, turning 8 years old and turning 5th Grader

Yuhan: I'm Min Yuhan, turning 8 years old and turning 5th Grader

Ellyn: I'm Din Ellyn, turning 6 years old and turning 5th Grader

Woonas: Nice to meet you everyone and

Wooji: Wow, wow, amazing all friends of my two young masters are also 1st placer of each fair, huh. [Then recalling it with an excited tone]

Anna: Whoa so it means that we will both become disciples of these amazing young masters then?

Wooji: Yes, yes we will and, [Suddenly he realized that he almost forgot his Goddess] ah, Manager Rei sorry for my manners and I almost forgot you.

Rei: It's alright but both of you are amazing as well.

Wooji: He, he, he, thank you but we are too beyond by my two young masters here Manager Rei.

Rei: Nah you have your own strength and weakness so it also the same with Ken and Jinyu but I guess instead of having master and disciple relations, then the two boys here are more at ease by becoming friends with each other.

Wooji: Eh but it's too lowly of me to be their friends, after all, I'm not that amazing compared to my two young masters here.

Rei: You just watch too much drama Wooji and all of them will ignore you if you're going to call them two young masters, so I advice you to become their friends if you don't want to be ignored.

Wooji: Eh but

Woo Jin: Wooji, Woon, and Anna let's go now.

Wooji; Dad I'm [He suddenly feels that someone put something on his hand and then heard that someone.]

Ken: Our groups of friends always have a study group every Saturday at 1 pm and what I give you is my Auntie Rei's address where we always have our study group, so welcome to our group of friends, Senior Wooji.

Wooji: [Almost crying] t--thank you.

All: 'Eh, they are all weird' [wondering while eating the cookies] 'wow, it's yummy.'

Chapter 545 - Vol 7: Ch 545 – The Din's Surprise Visit

Each kid is leaving one by one after they got picked up by their parents and as for the Din's Family Members, they are just waiting for them and that they will be only of them before approaching them. A typical of Mei, she's the one who talks first among her family members and as for her baby boy, is now carried by Ren and En still carried the elder baby boy.

Mei: My boy Ken and Ellyn, you are both amazing, congrats.

Both: [Ken and Ellyn] thank you, Mom / Auntie Mei.

Mei: You're welcome [then noticed that the two of them are carrying the same pouch] what's that?

Both: Cookies, a new friend give it to us. [Replied and then both approaches their twins to feed them the cookies]

Both: [Ren and Lynel react at the same time] hey, what are you feeding ... [too late since it's already inside on their mouth] wow, it's yummy and where did you buy this?

Ken: A new friend gives it to us, a senior one.

Ren: Mm I see

Kur: Il oval Mua-ur?

Ren: Uh-uh

Ken: Let me carry him.

Ren: Give me the cookies first.

Ken: Here

Mei: Hey, give me some.

Rick: Me too

Ken: Eh, you are here Bro Rick?

Rick: Of course I'm here to cheer up my Younger Cousin and if I didn't come then I didn't witness how amazing my younger cousin is.

All: [Kids] eh, then don't tell me that all of them are on point?

Ken: Mm..... not all of them but at least we answered some questions that almost the same from the reviewer and guidelines.

All: [Kids] I see.....

Ren: Ah, right I have something to give you Bro Ken.

Ken: And what would it be?

Ren: It's a sec.....

Rick: [Retrieve the gift from inside the Van] here Ken, your Brother Ren bought it from the prizes that he got and let me tell you, Ken, Ren got half a million from the prizes at the age of 6.

Ken: [Received the gift and Ren didn't bother to wrap after all it can't be fit] an electric guitar? [Blue Electric Guitar] thanks but Ren your aware that I don't know how to play so why give me this?

Ren: [Glaring to his Bro Rick because he just gives it before him and then replies to Ken] no worries and I'm aware of it Bro Ken. It just that I want you to know how because we will accompaniment together and of course, you have Uncle Tae with you so you will learn, okay?

Ken: Okay I will try my best and again thanks I will treasure it, Ren.

Ren: [Blush and explains] it's my birthday present to you Bro Ken and congrats.

Ken: I know and thanks.

Ren: [Whisper to his Brother] I didn't buy a gift for Ellyn and Lynel because I know you and Bro Jinyu will, so instead of piano I just buy two score sheet books for them, I will ask a favor that you will give it Ellyn after all I'm not here.

Ken: No worries.

Aya: Ken and Ren get inside the van first and we will chat later when we arrive after all your Auntie Rei is already 4 months pregnant, so let's not get your Auntie tiring out, okay?

Both: Yes Grandma

Ken: Auntie Rei, I'm going to ride with Mom and everyone, is that okay?

Rei: No worries and you've missed them very much especially your parents, right?

Kur: [Gmo uqgfzffllut larhu Rua bplo uknmlut vaq jvaiu giplvare ovur rmttut val vuft lvwiw]

Ellyn: Same with me Auntie Rei, I'm going to ride with Mom and everyone because I already miss them so much.

Rei: Okay and so we will go first

Mei: You must arrive before us Sis and no doing it in the car, okay?

Rei: We won't silly

Mei: My, my, where's my sister who always got blushed every time I tease, huh?

Rei: I'm already a wife for more than a year and I'm already a mother, so it's not a surprise that their changes to me, right?

Mei: Tsk, what a bummer

All: Mom / My Mei / Mei, let's go now.

Mei: Hai, hai, we're going now.

So the family members are now on the vehicles, car for the Jun Couple while Van for the Din's Family Members. Ken is riding along with the family members so the couple is alone in their car. They go at the same time and few minutes passed by, they arrive at CA Residences. Rei informs the security about her family members so that they won't get blocked by them. They arrived around 6 pm and since Rei already informed her family members are here, they eat their dinner at the same time hence her parents-in-law already prepared the food. After eating they are now in the living room and chatting except for Rei's parents-in-law since they are washing the dishes. Rei's mother who sees and witnesses it all comment not so loud to Rei.

"Rei, don't let your mother-in-law and father-in-law work too hard, okay? They already babysitting the twins and yet you let them prepared the foods then now washing the dishes, I don't want them to misunderstand you, okay?"

"....." Rei got speechless after all her parents-in-law insist.

==== Flashback ====

After discovering that her family members are here without informing her in advance and just discovered after her phone call to Mei, Rei calls the house and informs her mother-in-law.

Ring, ring, and ring

“Hello”

“Mom, it’s Rei and I need to inform you that around 6 pm, let’s meet at Savory Restaurant”

“I see but for what reason, my dear?”

“My family members are here and so let’s eat our dinner in the”

“Eh, they are here?”

“Yes Mom”

“Then let me cook for our dinner”

“Eh, but you will be busy Mom. Both you and Dad already helping us enough so.....”

“No worries my dear because we are family and of course it’s not every day that your family members will be here. So let me prepare for our dinner, okay?”

“O—okay and I will transfer money for the budget Mom”

“It’s enough my dear and you always transfer money to us every payday so no worries”

“I see and inform me Mom if it’s not enough”

“Uh-uh”

“Ah right Mom along with my family members Ken cousin is also with them”

“Noted my dear, so is there anything else?”

“Are they alright?”

“Yes the twins are always behaving and never cries”

“I see and thank you Mom”

“You’re welcome my dear”.

Then both hang up at the same time. Tae’s mother really fortunate that Rei is her son’s wife after all she is really kind and nice then even she’s busy working, she still had time to spend with her twins and husband.

===== End of Flashback =====

Chapter 546 - Vol 7: Ch 546 – Who is Mama child me or my husband?

Noticing that Rei’s parents-in-law were busy, Aya as Rei’s mother can’t help but react right away and said to her daughter.

“Rei, don’t let your mother-in-law and father-in-law works too hard, they already babysitting the twins and yet you let them prepared the foods then now washing the dishes”

“.....” Rei got speechless after all her parents-in-law insist.

“Sis, don’t tell me that you’re bullying your parents-in-law?”

Before Rei reacts that comments from her sister, her mother-in-law defend her right away.

“No, it’s not what you see Mei, in fact, Rei is very filial to us. Whenever she’s at home, Rei always attending her twins and she’s also the one preparing food for us after work. We didn’t even feel that I and my husband are babysitting our grandchild since Rei is the one who always attending to her twins. We only feel that we are babysitters if Rei is at work so Rei never bullied us.”

“Oh, I see and I’m just kidding Auntie Jun” Mei defend herself since she just teasing her sister but it got backfired right away.

“Right, my dear and Tae go change first, same with you Ken and Ellyn”

“Alright” then the four of them go to their room and Tae’s Mom is the one attending her in-laws though it’s only a chat between her and Mei.

Minutes by minutes, they got back, and both the couple notices that only the Din’s Family Members are in the living room, so the two ask at the same time.

“Eh, where are they, Mom and Dad?”

“.....” No one answered from them since they didn’t know who the couple is got ask for.

Tae looking at his wife because his in-laws are quite weird today meanwhile Rei just pinch the space between her eyebrows because this is one of her family member’s antics so she asks again and this time in one particular. “Mei, where are Mom and Dad?”

“Oh so it’s me you ask for, well Auntie Jun and Uncle Jun got back to their room along with the twins since your twins got sleepy. Neh Sis, your twins quiet have a temper, huh.”

“Huh?” Rei didn’t get the point of what Mei means but Tae got it and ask Mei.

“And why do you say so, Mei?”

“Well, a while ago we are chatting though it’s only me and Auntie Jun, then suddenly the twins just grab Auntie Jun’s attention by grabbing her clothes” explains while looking at Rei.

“And why are you looking at me like that huh, Mei?” Rei retort while glaring at Mei.

“Look, look, guys if the Jun baby twins know how to talk then we can hear the same thing as what Sis said just now. Geez, Sis, the twins really got your temper, huh”

“.....” Rei got speechless.

Then Tae laugh and replied instead of his wife “well that’s natural Mei since my wife is the mother of my twins. It also applied to you since both Ken and Ren got your temper also”

“Huh, and what do you mean by that Bro Tae?”

“.....” Tae got speechless while wondering ‘indeed my wife and Mei are really Sister’.

“Ah, right Mei and guys, where are you planning to stay?”

Everyone is now looking at Rei as if saying ‘is that obvious that we are staying here?’

“Geez, that’s what not I mean since I thought you book your accommodation after all you already know that my in-laws along with the twins are occupying the guest room but well if you didn’t then it’s not a problem since both Ren and Lynel will sleep at Ken’s and Ellyn’s room. As for you Ma you can join with us in the meantime while you are here.”

“Nah, don’t worry about me Rei, I can join with either Ken and Ellyn room’s and of course I don’t want to interrupt the two of you, after all, Tae’s will be enlisting this coming May so don’t ignore your husband for the sake of me, okay?”

Rei blush while asking her mother “who is your child me or my husband?”

“Of course it’s you Rei and that’s why I told you not to ignore your husband for the sake of me”

“.....” Rei got speechless.

Hearing that one from Aya, Mei laugh right away “ha, ha, ha, now you know what it feels when Mama always saying that one to me Sis but how about us, where are we going to sleep?”

Rei glared at her sister but then asks her “did you already forget that both the girl’s and boys’ rooms have 3 beds each?”

“Oh sorry Sis I just give birth last month so I still have a baby brain on me but then if Mama is sleeping either from Ken or Ellyn’s room, then Bro El and Lyn will be sleeping here on the couch. Ah, Mom just stays with Ellyn and Lynel because I’m going to stay at Ken’s room because I’ve missed my son so much.”

“No worries” Aya agreed right away while both El and Lyn just nodded since they know that Rei has lots of extra bed sheets so they won’t worry about getting sick.

“So we already have done discussing that one and now, how long are you going to stay here, Mei?”

Mei looking at her family members and right away they have a talk with eye to eye conversation. Rei didn’t happen to see it since Mei turning her body and only her back that she sees.

===== Eye to eye conversation =====

Mei: Leave it to me guys, okay?

Er: [Jplo immcare om val jadu frt crmjare vuz, Mua jaii emare om ouflu vuz Salouz fefar lm vu bplo fezuut] mcfw

Both: [Ken and Ren] Mom, are you serious? Auntie Rei is pregnant, so what if she lost her temper because of you, Mom?

Mei: No worries My Ken and My Ren

Both: [Ken and Ren] j....just don't tease Auntie Rei too much.

Mei: Okay

El: What are you planning, Mei?

Mei: It's a secret Bro El and so, just leave it to me, okay?

El:

Lyn: Tsk, tsk, Mei you never change and you still the Mei that we know, huh.

Mei: Well it's me that you're talking about after all.

Both: [Ellyn and Lynel just nodded while reminding their Auntie] Auntie Mei just don't tease Auntie Rei too much.

Mei: Leave it to me.

==== End of their eye to eye conversation =====

At the same time, while the family members are having an eye to eye conversation except for the couple, all of them forgot about Rick's existence and so after hearing Rei's query, Rick almost answered her fortunately Mei is fast enough that stop him on time before spoiling her plan.

"About that Rei, we....."

“My gosh Rick”

“Eh, eh, what’s wrong Mei?”

Chapter 547 - Vol 7: Ch 547 – Teasing Rei

Mei’s plan for teasing her Sister almost got spoiled by this nephew-in-law of her and luckily she’s fast enough to stop him before it’s too late for teasing her sister.

“About that Rei, we.....”

“My gosh Rick”

“Eh, eh, what’s wrong Mei?”

The family members except the couples are now controlling their laugh or else before Rei got explodes from Mei’s teasing then it will be Mei and the one will explode instead of Rei if they laugh meanwhile Rei just looking at them suspiciously but she didn’t get what it means and only guessing.

“Eh, so you are only staying here for 1 day and then going back tomorrow then?”

Mei answered right away before this sister of her notice something fishy “no we are not going back tomorrow instead we will be going back one hour from now.”

“Eh, then if you say so then you already late for your boarding time but well you use the Jang’s plane so it’s not a problem for you”

“So this is not useful huh”

“Huh, did you say something Mei?”

“No, and I didn’t say anything but well Sis I’m just kidding that one”

“O I see and so how long are you going to stay here then?”

“A year”

“What?”

“I said we are staying here for a year”

Once again Rei got tease by Mei and lost her temper “Mei, are you kidding or an idiot one?”

“I’m not kidding Sis and of course you know that I’m not an idiot one”

“If you are not, then why did you decide to stay here for a year? It’s alright if you and Bro En will stay here for a year but with all the family members along, it’s not a good idea and you even drag Rick with you. Tomorrow I will reprocess all of your traveling doc.u.ments and instead, for a year it will be only one week because that’s the best for all of you. Both Ren and Lynel will move schools so they need to pass the entrance examinations while Bro El had his works and it’s not good for him to out of work for a year unless he is the owner of it. As for our family business, we have our Manager in there and our trusted employees but then Lyn need to supervise them so that our staffs won’t feel that they got abandon by us since you Mei already staying in T Country, so change it right away and don’t be an idiot one.”

“But Sis, we already planned everything. Bro El already resigned from his works and just going to apply after this 1-year vacation of us in here meanwhile both Ren and Lynel will be going to take up next school year entrance examinations so that’s not a problem for them. As for Lyn, she didn’t want to stay alone so she agreed with our plan and as for Rick, he won’t got bankrupt, so don’t change it, okay?”

“MEI”

“Sis, please?”

“No, and just do what I say. You already a mother of 4 kids so don’t be a childish Mei.”

“Then how about Bro El’s resignation, are we just going to waste it because you oppose letting us stay here for a year, are you that heartless Sis?”

“No I’m not and I just say that one because we all know how everyone works hard looking for a job and yet....” then Rei just realizes it now “wait for a moment, Bro El is not this unreasonable one, and also I don’t believe that Bro El just going to throw his job without thinking the pros and cons so don’t tell me that you’re teasing me again, Mei?”

Right away Mei laughing hard and said “y— you just realize it now Sis?” then laugh for her heart’s content.

“.....”

“Ha, ha, ha, ha, you did change though it’s only about that aspect [romance] then, then you are still you Sis because you got fall again of my teasing” again and again she laughs without reserve.

“So how long are you going to stay here?”

“We are.....”

“No more teasing me or else I will slap you for real”

“Tsk, what a bummer and I...” then receive a glare from Rei “alright, alright I will stop geez, you really have no fun at all Sis but well, we are staying here for 1 week even though we are really planning to stay here until you give birth but then as what you say, Bro El works will be affected since he can’t leave his work for more than 15 days and the kid's entrance examination will be next month so that's why we only stay here for a week and will be back on your delivery date."

"That's good then but since you didn't inform me that you will visit here today along with everyone then both I and Tae can't go with you because we didn't ask about our absence of leave from our working place so our schedule has been packed."

"No worries and you really don't need to guide us here, after all, I, Bro El, and My En is not new in here, so no worries Sis"

"I didn't say that one and can you accompany Mom and Dad along with the twins then?"

"Oh, really Sis and are you sure that one?"

"Yeah I'm sure that one as long as you won't kidnap the twins"

"Ha, ha, ha, ha, you got me first Sis"

Ignoring her sister "so Rick, how about you and where are you planning to sleep?"

"I can sleep here, Rei" pointing to the couch.

"I see"

Then right away, Mei laughing and everyone looking at her as if asking her 'and why are you laughing huh, My Mei / Mei /Auntie Mei / Mom?'

"Ha, ha, ha" still laughing and explain between her laugh "it just that, ha, ha, ha, Bro El, ha, ha and Lyn, ha, ha, can't" stop because her mouth got covered by En and he whispers to her. "My Mei, you don't need to laugh at their predicament and it's the same with us because we will be staying with our sons, remember?"

Mei automatically stops laughing and said to her Sister right away “Sis helps me book a hotel, two rooms, okay?”

“Eh, is that really necessary Mei?”

“Yes it is unless you let me and Lyn sleep in your room and you’re going to kick out your husband for a week in your room just to be fair with us, so which one do you prefer?”

“Alright wait a moment I will book now which is just near here, satisfied?”

“Good that you know Sis”

And if that’s Rei before then for sure she will answer without hesitation to them ‘what’s wrong kicking my husband in our room, it’s only a week so it doesn’t matter.’ But this time she didn’t answer like that because she knows now, how important for a husband and wife to sleep together and missing a day it’s like missing a part of your life especially this time because Tae will be enlisting so their days is very important for Rei and Tae.

Chapter 548 - Vol 7: Ch 548 – Curing Mei’s boredom

Right away Rei retrieves her phone and searches for a hotel that’s just a near distance, within just 3 minutes Rei got one before relaying it to them.

“Here Mei, it’s a 5-star hotel [The Scarlet Garden Hotel] and just half a kilometer away from here. I book two VIP Rooms for you and Bro El though I didn’t pay it yet.”

“Tsk, stingy”

“Just kidding and I already paid it. I already send the booking confirmation to your phone”

“Wow you are really my sister Sis, thank you”

Ignoring Mei and talking to her brother “Bro El, I also send the booking confirmation to you”

“Thanks, Rei, and I also received it.”

“You’re welcome”

Out of nowhere, Mei suddenly said it excitedly “alright let’s go now My En”

“.....” En got speechless but also stands up while carrying their newborn twins.

El follows then bidding their farewell to them, “Ma and everyone we are going first” they nodded.

Ken interrupts right away and calls his father’s attention “Dad”

“Yes?”

Ken signals his father to crunch down and whisper to him right away “I have gifts for Ren and Lynel, so please help me with the shipping process, okay?”

“Okay I will”

“Thanks, Dad”

“My little boy Ken, what are you whispering about to your Dad?”

“He, he, he and it’s a secret Mom”

“Oh?”

Ken changing the topic right away because his mother is too clever on her own and might discover it so he changes the topic right away “take good care of my younger brothers Mom”

“That’s Mom’s job, Ken. Alright, we are going now and everyone, we will be here around 7 am tomorrow to follow our first itinerary though we are going to attend the mass first, okay?”

“Okay”

Then the Jang and Din couple leave the Jun House leaving the family members got speechless after all these two couples can’t really sacrifice 1 week for not being intimate with their loved ones.

Several minutes passed by, everyone is now inside their rooms after chatting about the sense or nonsense topic. Aya is staying in the girl’s room while Rick staying in the boy’s room so no one sleeping in the living room since the two couples are now staying in the hotel.

En is the one driving the rented Van and after several minutes they arrived at the place. Indeed it’s really a 5-star hotel but then it’s not globally known since it does only have 5 branches in the whole S Nations.

“Mei, we are going first”

“Eh, are you that eager Lyn?”

“Idiot I’m not and we just going to change the twin’s diaper”

“Ah, I see and shoo, shoo” Mei shooing the Din’s couple right away and the couple didn’t comment about it since they already used to it and that’s one of Mei’s antics so they just leave the two without commenting. “So My En, how about our twins then?”

“Not yet”

“I see and let’s go now”

The two walk hand in hand, Mei carried the youngest baby boy using the baby carrier on her front and the same with En. Mei presents the booking confirmation and right away they got assist by the hotel staff. At that moment, Mei heard something.

[Eh, is that Rei? The woman that stole my husband and cheating behind my back, right?]

[What are you talking about? Didn’t you hear that Manager Rei is pregnant? That lady just now is not pregnant so you must mistake her for Manager Rei]

[Right, but then they really look alike, and did we hear that they already have twins? Just now that lady carrying one of the babies with them along with that man and it must be the twins since they look alike but that man is not my husband, so what it means?]

[In other words, Manager Rei is cheating behind her husband’s back and Mr. Jun is not the biological father of the twins. Wow just wow, as expected that entertainment is really like this huh and I’ve been blind for many years by Mr. Jun façade, so Danni, are you really the real wife of Mr. Jun then?]

[Told you before but you didn’t believe me]

[So what are you doing now?]

[Well I’m just going to observe this woman who stole my husband before disclosing the real her to everyone]

[Good and you must claim what yours, Danni]

[Yeah I will and thank you, Clara]

[I'm your best friend Danni and I will be a witness if you reveal it to everyone] she said while showing the picture of them.

[Oh, you got the evidence and now that woman won't have a chance to escape. Alright go now and I still need to secure more evidence]

[Yeah you must and bye Danni]

[Bye] 'Ha, ha, ha, who expect that by escorting my best friend here, I happened to discover something, and that woman who stole my husband is just trying to get my husband to be with her when in fact she's a cheater. So she's not really pregnant and just pretends that she really is in order to control my husband, what a real schemer'. Wondering while she approaches the receptionist and asks something to the lady in charge "Miss, that woman just now is Jun Lou Rei, right?"

"L—-Lady Li, good evening"

"I ask you if that woman just now is Jun Lou Rei or not?"

"Lady Li, I'm sorry to say this one to you but I need to protect our client's privacy and it doesn't mean that just because you're the owner's daughter you can do what you want it's our customer privacy after all"

"Tsk what an idiot and pack your things, you are now fired"

"I will rather be jobless than to cross my morale" then leave right away.

The hotel receptionist leaves without hesitation but at the lounge area someone stopping her and that's the woman who just presents their booking confirmation a few minutes ago.

"Miss"

"Eh?"

“Please follow me and I have something to talk to you about”

“Eh?”

“Just now, that lady asks if I’m Jun Lou Rei, am I right.”

“Yeah she did but why?”

“I can sense that you’re a good person so I have something to offer you if that’s alright with you?”

“M— — —Ma’am, it’s alright and you don’t need to worry about me. I don’t know you but I know who’s Ma’am Jun Lou Rei, after all, she’s my role model so I rather become jobless than selling my morality or more worst my body.”

“I won’t ask you about that lady information because I already know that she’s Li Danni, the eldest daughter of this hotel owner, and of course she’s a superstar in T Country with an existing contract in here. I’m just intrigued because just now she asks about my sister, Jun Lou Rei is the one who books a room for us and that’s my sister’s name.”

“Eh, t—then just now.....”

“Yes I heard everything and I just call your attention because you just talk back to the daughter of your boss and for sure you will be blacklisted here since you just offend the Li’s, so I will ask you to join our company, are you alright with that?”

The receptionist really knows and aware that she just offend the Li’s but after one month of working here, she can’t help but going to offend her because she can’t take it anymore by ignoring that spoiled brat although she always got advice from her colleagues either to ignore her or riding her shoes just to get a promotion. Hearing their advice is quite tempting but still, then she didn’t do it because it will against her morality, so she rather wants to be promoted from her own capability and achievement instead of stepping her morality just to be got promoted.

Chapter 549 - Vol 7: Ch 549 – Saving an innocent person

The moment Mei and En walk after got assisted by the receptionist and the hotel staff, Mei heard someone mention her sister's name and so she stops in order to eavesdrop on their conversation.

"My En you go first and just inform me which room for us," said while giving the baby boy to En.

En didn't ask anything since he also heard that someone mentions his sister in law name "oh, alright and be care....." stop because Mei already out of sight. "Geez, this wife of mine but well that someone is just digging her own graveyard."

The hotel staff didn't understand what they are talking about since the two are talking in Tanes and just remind him by calling his client's attention "Sir?"

En replied with two words only using the Sean Language "let's go", so the hotel staff assists this client of him to their room without asking anything since it's not part of his job to talk about their client's privacy. When they arrive on the 15th floor, En got to meet his in-laws and now talking in Ceno.

"Oh, you are also staying on the same floor El"

"Oh, it's you Bro En but where's Mei?"

"Saving an innocent person again and a while ago someone mentions Rei"

"Oh...." Then El pause because he notices that's the hotel staff is still with them and waiting for them since he still needs to assist En for their room. So he let him do his job first and leaving right away after doing his job. "Is Mei safe then?"

“There’s a hidden bodyguard around with her”

“I see and let her be since Mei quite bored right now, after all, she’s been restless this day since she can’t voice out when someone looks down Ken though it’s already been proven that it’s not true from Ken’s result but what can we do, Mei didn’t voice out her own and didn’t protect Ken as her mother”

“Right and by the way where’s Lyn?”

“Inside the room and I just got out for calling then informing the two of you”

“Oh, so you have a bad signal inside?”

“Uh-uh”

“Too bad for a 5-star hotel, huh”

“Bro En?”

“What?”

“Nothing and it must be hard for you Bro En” [talking about leaving En along with the twins meanwhile her Sister planning something again].

“No worries El and this is one of the reasons why I’m so in love with Mei”

“Right it’s useless for me to say it to you and I don’t know why you’ve been so in love with this silly sister of mine”

“Huh?”

“Nothing and go inside now, the twins already start waking up now”

“Right” then En gets inside their room and the same with El.

“Lyn, I will leave you here for a moment”

“Eh, what’s wrong?”

“Mei is at it again”

“Oh, okay and be careful”

“I will and thanks” then El kisses his wife and leave right away.

“Geez, both brother and sister are at it again, for sure someone talking about Rei. Sighing, they really have such wonderful sibling relationsh.i.p.s” wondering it out loud before looking at her baby girls “my baby girls you must have wonderful relationsh.i.p.s with your elder sisters, okay,” said and kiss the foreheads of the babies.

Back to Mei and the hotel receptionist

Mei still observing the dazed receptionist and of course, she knows that this girl just realized what she did just now.

“Alright and Miss let’s take a seat there first” pointing to the lounge area.

“.....” Still dazing at the moment so Mei just grabs the girl’s hand and lets her takes a seat.

After 5 minutes the receptionist still dazing so left with no choice Mei just poke her cheeks and the receptionist almost shout.

“It’s me Miss and I thought you just abducted by aliens so I just let you know so that you won’t be abducted by them”

“Huh?”

“Alright, so are you really that shocked that you might get blacklisted since you just offending the princess of the Li?”

“Uh-uh”

“No worries although they are the owner of this hotel, they are not that influential one but well you really just tainted your portfolio so before it’s too late for you, you must apologize properly to that lady and if you want to resign then you must submit a resignation letter.”

“I see and thank you, Miss”

“If you decide to work for me, here’s my calling card, and look for me within this week. Oh, right what’s your name?”

“I’m Chang Pia”

“I see and nice to meet you, Miss Chang”

“Nice to meet you too Ma’am.....” trying to read the calling card name but she can’t read since it’s written in a universal language and she just an ordinary Senian citizen.

“Mei”

“Nice to meet you too Ma’am Mei”

“Good and just look for me if you really decide to work for me, okay?”

“Yes I will Ma’am Mei and can I go now?”

“Yes you can go now”

“Thank you, Ma’am Mei”

“You’re welcome and next time if you really meet another spoiled brat please just ignores it, in that way you can still protect your morality, okay?”

“Yes Ma’am Mei and I will take note of that flaws of mine”

“Good” then the receptionist leave right away and at the same time, El arrived.

“Who is that Mei?”

“Geez Bro El, can you at least let me know your presence before asking me? I thought your just a ghost just now.”

“Sorry for that” then take a seat opposite Mei and asking her directly “is someone bothering Rei?”

“Not sure for now Bro El but then do you know Miss Li Danni?”

“Who’s that?”

“..... [Almost speechless but she already knows and aware that this brother of her only cares for 5 women and 4 girls in his life namely, their dear mother Aya, his dear wife Lyn, his mother in law, Rei, of course, her, the most beautiful sister of him and his 4 beautiful daughters] that someone I mention just now is the one who mentions our dear sister’s name”

“I see but from what we know we didn’t hear the same name you just mention that she’s one of Rei’s friends, so how it is related to Rei?”

“Well brother dear I just heard from her that Sis steal her husband and then Sis cheating behind her husband back”

“Direct to the point Mei and don’t run around the circle”

“Tsk, what a bummer”

Chapter 550 - Vol 7: Ch 550 – The wonderful relationship of the Din’s siblings

El as the elder brother of his siblings, he always concern and worries about his sister’s matter. Right now he didn’t comment about Mei’s comments since he already used to it and the best thing to do is to ignore her or else you will fall deeper by her teasing if you ridings her flaws.

“Alright Mei what is it and what did you hear from that lady?”

“Tsk, what a bummer you are Bro El. Why are you and Sis didn’t have the same reactions when in fact you are both siblings, right?”

“Mei”

“Hai, hai and I will tell now.” Then Mei tells everything that she hears and makes a conclusion on her own. “So then Bro El, Miss Li, and Sis is not compatible with each other, I mean we both know that Sis is really a cold and chic type but it doesn’t mean that she’s not kind and friendly because we know how Sis is, so knowing her well, it's impossible that Miss Li will be a friend with Sis and hearing she called Bro Tae as her husband for sure she's either knows Bro Tae before Rei or more worst she's a crazy fan of Tae"

"Yeah and that will be possible, so for now let's inform Rei about her so that she won't be caught off guard if this Miss Li will attack them"

"Nah, let's not disturb Sis and Bro El we won't let Sis got worried for nothing because she's pregnant you know"

"Okay and if that's....."

"Ah, I change my mind, let's go now and inform Sis because she is more a planner compared to me"

"Did you just say that we won't disturb her because she's pregnant?"

"Yeah I did but I change my mind now, so let's go"

"...did you forget that Bro En is the one holding the Van key, huh?"

Cling, Mei just show the key to El and replied "no worries I have it and so let's go"

"Don't tell me you let Bro En caught off guard by being sweet to him and then stealing the key from him, right?"

"Bingo, ha, ha, you really know me well Bro El but I didn't steal the key because I just borrowed it from my husband though he didn't know, alright let's go"

"...can you at least inform Bro En that we're going to Rei so that he won't get worried for you for nothing then?"

"But....."

“Mei”

“Hai, hai I will. Geez, you’re no fun at all Bro El and My En will know it since he already used to it”

“Yeah, he already used to it Mei but then what if he lost his patience with you, huh? For sure he will leave you for good and if I put you on Bro En’s shoes what you feel then?”

“Eh.....that, I....”

“I know you are just teasing Bro En because you love to tease for the one you loved the most and that’s why you always tease us your family members but then there’s a difference. For us, your family members you can tease whatever and whenever you want because all of us will always be your family members but it will be a different matter for Bro En because he is your husband, although you’ve been married in C Country which divorce is against the law in our country, Bro En is not a Ceno and he is a full Tanes so he might separate with you when he is out of love to you before deciding to leave you for his own good and find someone who never teases him so just because you love him very much so you can tease him whenever and whatever you want but don’t forget that Bro En is a human being and he has his own limitations so you need to be a proper wife of Bro En, okay?”

“Okay Bro El and you have a point in there since I always tease My En but he never complains to me”

“That’s good and before we’re going to Rei, let’s inform our partner for them to not be getting worried about us, okay?”

“Okay Bro El”

At the same time, both siblings called their own spouses and inform them where they are going. Of course, both Brother and Sister didn’t know that what En love the most is being a tease by Mei because he already knows and aware that the person who got tease by Mei the most is the one she really loves the most so he never complains about his wife teasing him because it’s proven that Mei really love him the most especially Mei never cross the line and she always teases him if he is in good mood and then she becomes a loving and caring wife if he is in bad mood. After receiving the call from his wife, he wonders if his wife is alright or not since he didn’t tease him as usual.

“My En”

“Yes?”

“I and Bro El we’re going to Sis, so we will back after we’re done talking with Sis, okay?”

“Okay and please be careful My Mei”

“I will and take good care My En along with our twins”

“I will. My Mei, are you alright?”

“Yes I am and what’s wrong?”

“N....nothing and come back right away”

“Uh-uh” then both hang up at the same time meanwhile En wondering about the unusual antics of his wife.

‘Is My Mei alright? If she’s alright then 100% sure she will say this one ‘My En, I and Bro El we’re going to Sis so don’t miss me too much, okay? Or she will say ‘I will always be careful My En because I still have our kids waiting for their beautiful mother of them and of course my old man husband waiting for his beautiful wife’ and most of all she will say ‘of course I will be alright and nothing will happen to your beautiful wife My En because I do have a lot of hidden bodyguards around me and that’s show how My En love me since he always priority my safety, so don’t be a worrywart My En because I’m just going to Sis residence. Is she really alright? Maybe she’s not in the mood to tease and just telling me directly, yeah right, she’s not in the mood to tease me, yeah that’s right...’ stop wondering when he heard the twins crying and need to change their diapers, so he go to his twins right away and stop worrying for nothing.

Meanwhile at the brother and sister sides, after calling their spouses they leave right away at the lounge area and ride the van right away. Of course, the two didn't fail to notice that Miss Li been following them and taking a picture of them.

"Oh, we have a guest Bro El"

"For sure that lady is assuming that you are Rei and thinking that you also cheated with me"

"My, my, my, this one week of us in here might not be boring huh"

"Are you planning something again?"

"Yep and I'm planning to play mouse and cat with Ms. Li" then Mei laughing like a real schemer.

Looking at his younger sister and then at the side mirror who has Miss Li's reflections. "I pity that lady"

Mei didn't hear it clearly since she is now busy planning how to play mouse and cat "huh?"

"Nothing" then starts the engine right away.

"Geez, you are really such a bumner Bro El"
