

Last Man 55

Chapter 55 - Stalker of Rei

Everyone are still watching the CCTV recordings while Rei waiting outside for Meng arrivals. Several minutes pass, a taxi stop the entrance of the hospital and drop his passenger off. Rei notice a lady get off from the taxi, then she notice the passenger who got out from the taxi is wearing a uniform and it's their restaurant uniform, so she stand and approach Meng and said.

"I will help carry you that Meng"

Meng is caught off guard that someone's know her and she turn her head to look who's calling but then she realized it's her boss, not just shocked but dumbfounded because Rei wear a dress even it's so plain and simple but when Rei wears it, she looks very elegant and beautiful that she blurted it out.

"M—ma'am Rei you're so beautiful"

"..." Rei's speechless for a moment "let me help you carry that one Meng"

"It's alright Ma'am Rei and I can carry it all"

"Meng don't forget your a lady and that pack lunch are heavy, so it will be light if we divided it"

"But....but"

"It's alright Meng" then carry the other 2 plastic bags.

"By the way Ma'am Rei, why are you here in the hospital?"

"Just wait for awhile Meng, I will explain it to you later" then Rei look to the driver "thank you for dropping her off safely, Sir"

“You’re welcome Ma’am”

“Did you get paid already?”

“Yes Ma’am”

The taxi drive off then Rei said to Meng “let’s go now Meng, by the way before I explained promise me you will be calm”.

“Yes Ma’am Rei and Ma’am Rei if you don’t mind me, why did you change you’re clothes?”

“It’s related to this why we’re here but I will tell you directly” they’re already inside the hospital and Rei find an empty seat that’s only for them and make sure no one’s around, after making sure no one’s around Rei said to Meng “let’s take a seat first Meng”

“Yes Ma’am Rei” both of them seat and let the 4 plastics bags put in between while Rei still carry another plastic bag because it’s her clothes.

“By the way Meng if you’re not in the restaurant, you can call me either Sis Rei/ Ms Rei or whatever you want as long as it’s not Ma’am”

“Eh, really? Then, then, can I call you Sis Lou?”

“Uh-uh by why Lou?”

“Nah, it feels awkward if I call you Sis Rei”

‘Like father like daughter’ “yes, go ahead so what do you want to hear first, good news or bad news?”

“The later part Sis Lou”

“Alright be prepared because its really a bad one” Rei look to her again and seeing her seriousness, Rei continued “you’re sister got an accident and at this moment she was still in the operating room, for the good news you will see it when we were there.” Rei observe her reactions and she really didn’t react that much but she still notice her sad look for a moment. “you’re really a strong and tough Meng but you can cry if you want and you can lean on my shoulder.”

“Thank you Sis Lou and it’s alright I’m already used of it, this uncle of mine is really want us to be in the corner so that he can have it all what he want. I just wonder why I’m still young and have no power to oppose him, why I born to be a lady and not a man, why....” Rei cut off her

‘As expected of Meng, she’s smart and nice if you’re nice with her that opposite to her sister who’s also a smart but easy to get manipulate’ “Okay I understand but please don’t blame yourself, you have to be thankful that you’re not covered by all darkness, let your parents handle him and don’t dirt your own hands because as you know, you have a bright future, do you understand me?”

“Uh-uh but Sis Lou, my parents were already prisoned and got blackmailed”

“Don’t lose hope Meng”

“Uh-uh I never did but I don’t trust my uncle, because his too evil that he can do everything as long as he will diminished his rival even if it’s his own blood and flesh. And Sis Lou, you and you’re siblings didn’t fight for money, I wonder why my uncle become a monster?”

“Well as you know we fight if we have misunderstanding but all of us never let the money control us because our mother always remind us that money is a source of evil and trouble, so we will never let the money contol us instead we will the one cotrolling the money”

“Sorry for a blabbermouth Sis Lou and let’s go now” Before Rei can answer, a man suddenly interrupting them.

“Uhm...e—excuse me Miss?” talking to Rei but Meng is the one who answer instead.

“What do you want from us or can you even see we’re talking?”

“Geez Meng, it’s alright, maybe they want to take a seat, and Sir sorry for her manners but you can take a seat since we’re going now, let’s go now Meng”

“.....”

‘Ma’am Rei, I mean Sis Lou this man is hitting on you. I never expect that Sis Lou is a genius one yet very oblivious’

“Meng?”

“Ah, alright let’s go now Sis” didn’t mention her name so that this man well never know her boss name.

“Then, let’s go. Sir we’re leaving and you can take a seat” Meng and Rei leave right away leaving the man in a daze

‘I just want to praise her what she’s doing awhile ago when she save that lady and ask if I can be a friend of her. Din Lou Rei, who are you really and why CEO Hwang want you to be promoted as a Secretary. Well, I will meet you again when you arrive in S Country and for now I will go back first before I miss my flight’

It turns out that this man is stalking Rei the moment she left in the restaurant when he coincidentally see her when he was one of the customer in the restaurant after realizing that CA C City Branch is close today. Well he failed to witness that Rei is one of the owner of that restaurant. He followed Rei and just monitor her in far distance to avoid being discovered by her, because the accident is too sudden he almost lost sight of her and thankfully he ask one of the passerby and ask if they see her (picture of Rei) that got to know that Rei already ride in the ambulance. So he followed that ambulance right away and again just observe her in a far distance and will approach at the right time and never had a chance to eavesdrop..

At the EOR hallway, Rei notice that they just finish watching the CCTV recordings and Mei notice her.

“Geez Sis, why did you take too long to change?”
