

Last Man 581

Chapter 581 - Vol 8: Ch 581 – Forbidden Love

The 10 members of the Taekwondo Club already step forward after their names got called and Leng still instructing them before dismissing them.

“Everyone and for those members who are not called today, you don’t need to be got disappointed and discourage because they are still the Winter Cup and the Year-End Cup so do your best for you to be selected, understood?”

“Yes Coach Leng”

“Alright dismissed and we will meet next school term”

“Yes Coach Leng”

Then all the club members who are not called dismissed and separate to their own ways to their home, some of them living in the school dormitory while Leng is talking to the 10 representatives and to the two aces that are in charge to monitor and supervise them.

“That’s all for today and....” Got interrupted by Woo Jin

“Bing Wen, we are going now”

“Oh, I see, and thank you for the lunch again”

“You’re welcome” both Woo Jin and Tae Woo leave the clubs together with Leng since he is going to see them out because it will take months again for them to meet especially Tae since Woo Jin will attend School Reunion every year with Ina and occasionally visiting the school compared who just appeared after graduation.

Meanwhile, the 10 club members divided their group into two groups, the gents and ladies group. Both the Wong siblings seriously discussing what their Coach instructing them to relay yet someone suddenly shouts.

“YIKES”

All boys are now looking in the girl’s direction and except Wooji, all of them wonder at the same time.

“What’s wrong with Senior Leng / Ai Hua again?”

Wooji looking at Ai and replied to them “maybe Ai forgot about teasing or bothering her brother, right?”

“Indeed you are right Ji and you really know Ai Hua very well” tease Zhang Wei.

“Ai is my sister childhood best friend so that’s why Wei”

“Ah that’s right I forgot that one, ha, ha silly of me”

One of them shared what he realized but he will regret it later “ah that’s right and so aside from you Ji, both Shun and Akito are the only juniors here since all of us we’re all classmates”

Both Wei and Ji said in sync while both the juniors just looking at him as if they also said the same thing “you just realized it now? Indeed, you are really an idiot Qiang”

“... [almost got speechless and saying to his other friend who didn’t join them] save me, Louis”

“In the first place that’s your fault for realizing it now, idiot”

“...then just pretend you didn’t hear anything, okay?”

“As if we won’t,” both Wei and Louis said at the same time

“Ji please knock some senses for these two traitors here since they didn’t protect me well as their very own beloved best friends instead both of them backstabbed me without hesitation”

Ji ignored him while warning them at the same time “if Coach Leng happens to witness us that we are not discussing the incoming competition then I guess all of us must welcome the hellish world in advance you know”

“.....” The five of them got speechless because what Ji said is really the truth after all Coach Leng known to all his students as a Demon Coach and Demon Teacher but despite that one, nobody hates him because of how he teaches well instead he is too popular even with his weird title.

On the other hand, Ji ignoring all of them and looking at Ai worriedly as if asking her ‘what’s wrong, Ai?’ then returns to his Seniors and Juniors attentions when Ai looking at him just for a second so then the gent’s group are now discussing what they are really going to discuss.

Meanwhile on the other hand, after regrouping into two groups, the lady’s group already start discussing what they are really going to discuss because all of them already know each other since they were all classmates and friends with each other but then suddenly Ai shout.

“YIKES”

“What’s wrong with you this time Ai?” Being the oblivious one Yang asked Ai concernedly while the others are looking at her suspiciously as if saying ‘you are scheming again Ai’.

“I’m alright Yang and mind you guys, I’m not scheming something, it just that....” Pause on purpose to know if she has their attention on her.

“It just that and what is it Ai?” All asks in sync.

“It just that I forgot to ask a favor from the visitors of my brother today since they are his friend, so I’m asking a favor of them about introducing someone to my brother so that he can be settled in early years from now on and I don’t want my brother to be single forever so...” someone interrupted right away.

“NO, I mean don’t do that Ai”

All of them ask in sync “eh, what’s wrong Sophie?”

“N—no reasons but please don’t do that, okay Ai?”

“I won’t if you will tell me the reason and are we not all friends here?”

“We are Ai b—but I — I can’t tell anyone so”

Two girls who already guess the reason since they also experience it, ask her in sync “heh, d ——don’t tell us that you fell in love with Coach Leng / my brother?”

“E—eh how did the two of you know?”

“Just a hunch” answered Mina followed by Ai.

“From your weird reactions after hearing my plan for my brother Sophie, I realized that you do towards my brother”

“Please don’t tell your brother and anyone, okay?”

“Yes I won’t”

“Thanks and how about you guys?”

The others answered in sync “we won’t”

“Thanks”

“Sophie, I’m just curious, okay?” Sophie nodded for Ai to go on “so, why did you fall in love with that plain brother of mine and most of all my brother is around 13-14 years older than us, so why?”

“Ai age doesn’t matter and I can’t also explain why or how did I start falling in love with your brother but I can explain when because it’s around the time when I’m 12 that I happened to witness Coach Leng rejected his co-teacher confession at the garden area so since then I’ve been always observing him that it can’t help that I start to notice everything about him and my curiosity change to love so I don’t want you to introduce him yet to other girls and you can only do that if I got rejected by him, okay?”

“Eh, you confess?” Except for Ai and Mina, the other 3 girls ask in sync.

Both Ai and Mina got speechless while Sophie reminds them “you three, are you still not aware of our Demon Coach temper?”

“Of course we are”

“If you are then what would happen to me if I already confessed to our Demon Coach?”

“Either you will be get suspended from school or got kicked out both this club and the cooking club”

“Good that the three of you know that one and so why I’m still here if I did, huh?”

“.....” The three of them got speechless.

“Spare them Sophie since they still a novice if it’s about love and speaking about love, is it a forbidden love for you, right? You know teacher and student can’t be in a romantic relationship because it’s against the law, so why?”

“Of course I know that one Mina and that’s the reason why I didn’t confess in the first place after being in love with him for almost 4 years because it’s against the law so I just waited until I graduate and I only have 1 year left to wait, so Ai please make sure that no bugs can approach him before me, okay?”

“Well I cannot assure you that one after all that plain brother of mine is really popular here in our school but the one I can assure you is that no one except me, Woon, Ji and his friend can approach him within 3 steps away since that brother of mine is really have a heart of stone because what he witness to our parents so good luck in advance for winning my brother’s heart”

“Thank you, Ai”

“No need to thank me because you are our friends after all”

“Ha, ha, I never thought that Sophie here will be risking something by pursuing her forbidden love”

“I’m still going to pursue Mina and not compared with you, okay?”

“E—eh, what do you mean by that?” Only Mina asks since everyone has a guess what Sophie means.

“You are in a relationship with my Elder Twin Brother, right?”

Chapter 582 - Vol 7: Ch 582 – Taekwondo Matters to Love Matters

“You are in a relationship with my Elder Twin Brother, right?”

“E—eh, h—how did you know?”

“We know”

“Eh, we know, who do you mean?”

“Me, Woonan, Xui Ying, Yang, Ai, Wei, and Qiang”

“...” Mina got speechless because of not only one of them but all of her group of friends.

“Don’t worry about that one because only us who know that you are in a relationship with Bro Louis and no one else knows aside from us even Coach Leng doesn’t know that one, well as expected for him to not know since he is a man who hates love and it’s a taboo for him so it will be very challenging for me to win his heart but I don’t know how to give up unless I got firmly rejected.”

Mina ignoring Sophie’s because she suddenly changes her loves matter to her own and asks her instead “so how did you know that I’m dating your brother, huh?”

“Duh, it’s very obvious because all your items are a match and most of all the obvious thing is my brother has your personal pen while you have my brother’s pen, if not for dating then what else?”

“.....”

“Are you supposed to hiding it or not?”

“We really thought that we really hide it very well you know”

“Hide it very well huh, are you really sure about that one or you are just really an idiot? From everyone points of views, it’s very clear that you want to disclose you are in a relationship with Louis as if both of you proclaim that she’s/he’s mine to our fellow students, luckily our juniors here are all simple-minded and simpleton one including our Demon Coach or else it’s already been disclosed already and the two of you might be got kicked out from the club because it’s no. 1 Club Rules and Regulations to not be in a relationship with your co-club members well that’s an exception from us because we’ve been your friends since 1st Grade” Ai said bluntly.

“...[Mina almost got speechless and asks Ai] I see and so do I need to break up with Louis then?”

“Idiot and why you do that? Don’t you love him?”

“I do but joining the taekwondo club and competing with his friends is really his dream so letting him go might be the best option than to be kicked out”

Hearing that one both Ai and Sophie who is still not in a relationship with the one they love got enraged and said in sync “what the heck and if you know that one then why did you date him in the first place, huh?”

Mina almost got speechless because the two suddenly said in sync but not so loud while the other three looking at them and all of them understands what Wona says from her eyes: ‘you continue with your matters while the three of us here will discuss the taekwondo matters so that we won’t face the consequences by experiencing the hellish world [punishing them by increasing their training routines] from our Demon Coach and not so loud so just chat with a low voice, understand?’

“Thanks”

“No worries and go with your talk but stay here or else we will be doomed”

All of the girls nodded in sync and so they proceed to their talks from Taekwondo matters to love matters but at least the other three are still discussing the Taekwondo matters or else they will totally be doomed. Both Ai and Sophie ask Mina again “so if you know that one then why did you date him in the first place?”

“Well, it’s because I really thought that I’m going to be got rejected because it’s been known from the whole campus that Louis is the super taekwondo idiot so I taught him that he doesn’t have other interests aside from taekwondo.”

“Heh, indeed he is and it’s quite surprising that you confess first Mina knowing that you are a very old fashioned one”

“Geez I’m not an old fashion one Ai and if compared to me, Woono is more the old fashion one it just that if I’m not going to confess then I might regret it after graduating so either regretting or moving up I guess it’s better for me to be got rejected instead for regretting it for the rest of my whole life so I gained my courage to be got rejected and confess to him not knowing that he accepts my confession”

Hearing that one both wondering at the same time, Ai first ‘heh, I also have the same thinking and only plan to confess my love to Ji when I graduate but never expect that Ji is the one confessing to me at the age of 10 but we are not yet a couple because Ji is still young and most of all I don’t want my brother of mine to be disappointed with me by violating the rules since our parents already betrayed us in the first place so that’s why he knows that I love Ji and everything about me but will only accept him when he’s 16. Now, thinking about that one, I guess I’m really the main reason why he still stays single until now while our parents are the ones teaching us to hate what love is but luckily for me I got to know it after meeting with Ji and I hope brother will do the same as me’ then looking to Sophie and continue, ‘is Sophie can really heal the hatred of my brother about love and can she really helps my brother that loving someone whom really love you is really wonderful thing in the whole world? Sigh, I don’t really know if it’s a good thing or not but if it’s Sophie then I don’t mind that she’s the same age as me, at least she will be my sister in law, not my stepmother knowing that Bro Bing is really like a father figure to me since he is the one raising me up.’

Sophie is next the one wondering same time with Ai ‘eh, I never expect that I and Mina share the same ideas by confessing to the one we love during or before our graduation and already thinking about getting rejected because we both know that they don’t share the same feeling but lucky for Mina since my brother also loves her while here I am will be rejected for sure because it’s only 1% for me to succeed and 99% percent will fail since until now I still didn’t take his attention towards me after joining the Taekwondo and it’s been few years since then, wait a moment, Coach Leng always take attention of Woono, d --- don’t tell me that he likes the type of Woono? No, no, that’s impossible for him since it’s been known how he hated love, as for Woono, she still didn’t catch interest in someone since she only cares about her brother, geez, these two only know how to care with their siblings that they failed to notice their surroundings, sigh. What I’m going to do for him to be interested with me?’ After wondering she’s looking at Woono and Ai that suddenly an idea struck her mind so she asks right away before she forgot.

“Woono and Ai”

“Yes?”

“Both of you got trained by Coach Leng before you start studying, right?”

“Yeah we did and why do you ask that one Sophie when in fact you already know that one, huh” answered a confused Ai.

“Can you both teach me?”

“Huh?” Ai got more confused while Woono got her point so she replied to her right away.

“You already good enough Sophie because you and Ai always changing ranks that you almost surpassed me if I will be lazy and so what I mean, you already good enough so you don’t need to become top since you already are.”

“That’s not what I mean Woono and what I mean is please both of you guide me well because I want both of your opinions if I’m ready to defeat our rival school or not, well it’s an impossible dream of mine since we’re talking about our rival school but nothing is impossible if I will try. I have 1 year to prove that one before I will confess so aside from the School Fair competition, I will try to win at least one competition from out of the three, so please?”

“Okay I and Ai will guide you but before that here [give something to the three ladies who’s talking about love matters] read this or else we will be really doomed if Coach Leng happened to asks us”

“Thank you Woono”

“You’re welcome”

And then a delayed reaction of Ai which she said it loud “eh, eh, so-Sophie, y — you’re planning to defeat our rival school?”

“Uh-uh I will but geez, you’re too loud....” Sophie got speechless and the same from everyone because suddenly someone interrupted them.

“Good and what a good determination you have, Sophie”

Chapter 583 - Vol 7: Ch 583 – A small ray of hope

Leng Bing Wen escorted his friends until where they park the car and ask them when he notices it's only 1 car for them.

"Eh, you came here with one car?"

"Yes Bing and I meet Tae Woo at our favorite coffee shop before we came here"

"Oh, I see then why not let's have a drink tonight?"

"Sorry Bing, I don't drink and my wife needed me at night"

"Same with me Leng"

"...geez the two of you please stop showing off that you already a married man to my face, okay?"

Not to be sarcastic, Woo Jin commented "then get married"

Tae observing Bing and ask him with concern "is there's something wrong?"

"Uh-uh" Tae didn't reply but his attention already on Leng as if telling him that he will be on his ears if he's ready to share and without hesitation Leng open up "it's because I don't trust love since I witness it with my own two eyes that my parents got divorced and then having a new family. At first, I thought that they only want a divorce because of their disagreements and arguments but later on, I understand the real reason because not more than 1 month after divorce both already have their own family, my mother is already 3 months pregnant while my father already has 2 kids aside from me and Ai so it means they been cheating on their back while they were still married to each other....." Tae cut him off.

“Well it’s really a trauma for you to witness it but it doesn’t mean that you will close your heart and hate love because of that since you are you and they are they, you just need to trust what love is and you only need to be a proper husband to your future wife and a good father to your future kids so you don’t need to hate love because of them. Your parent’s action only means and warns you to not follow them and instead to do well for your own family in the future. Well, it’s proven already that you didn’t hate love since you really raise Ai very well alone and in your hands, though she’s quite a feisty one at least she had good manners and behaviors, so why are you afraid to open up?”

“...Tae”

Seeing Leng not so shocked expression, Tae smiles and continue “Leng you don’t need to be in a rush, and for your information, before I meet my wife I also have some bad experiences and almost want to live alone but it doesn’t mean that I hate love because of my bad experiences since there’s still a small ray of hope that I will meet the right one for me and the right one for me really comes to my life at the right time.”

Leng slowly wiping his tears and said “I’m glad that you are still Tae that we know”

“Of course I will always be the Tae you know but for now we will go now and let’s meet again in the next two years”

“Huh?”

Woo Jin just listening Tae carefully and indeed he is still the Tae they know until he heard the last part and notices the confused Bing,

“Conscription duty Bing that’s why two years”

“Oh, I see”

“Alright we are going now Bing and thanking you for taking good care of my two kids”

“Yeah you may go now and no need to thank me because that’s my job as their Teacher and Coach. Jin and Tae, let’s meet up again, okay?”

“We will” then Woo Jin start the engine and leave.

“Tae never fails to amaze me after all and indeed he is really deserved to be always Mr. Top 1 Forever. Alright, let’s go back to them and see what’s their strategy and technique how to win the discussion going on.”

Bing now on the doorstep of the club’s room and heard his Sister’s loud voice.

“Eh, eh, so-Sophie, y — you’re planning to defeat our rival school, are you dreaming?”

“Uh-uh I will but I’m not dreaming geez, you’re too loud....” Sophie almost got speechless and the same from everyone because suddenly someone interrupted them.

Leng got intrigued and then heard Sophie reply with full determination so he interrupts them right away “Good and what a full determination you have, Sophie”

Sophie almost got speechless and already in panic mode because what if he heard everything but it didn’t show to her expressions since she still keeping her calm demeanor and replied calmly “thanks Coach Leng”

“Bro Bing, are you a ghost?”

“Of course I’m not”

“Then can you at least announce your presence before scaring us?”

“The door is wide open and I suddenly heard your loud voice but I guess you are scarier than the g.....” whack “ouch, what’s that for?”

“Nothing and I just miss to punch you” ‘ho, lucky that this brother of mine didn’t hear anything.’ Then she is sighing in relief and the same with Sophie.

“So what’s your plan, Sophie?”

“I plan to hone my skills in both Taekwondo and cooking with the guidelines of Woonna and Ai, of course, I plan to become the champion and defeat our School Rival either this coming Sports Fest, Winter Cup, and Year-End Cup before I graduate”

“Woonna and Ai are both busy with other activities since they are going to represent our School and so at least as your coach for both clubs then let me do my job as well.”

Ai interrupted right away “hey Bro Bing, what are you” her mouth got covered fast.

“Yes thank you Coach Leng and please trained me well”

An oblivious Leng, he didn’t get suspicious and replied as what Teacher does “that’s my job after all and everyone let me hear your strategies and techniques so let’s start from you Ai.”

“Geez, it’s me again....” Complaining then sharing her strategy and technique, luckily Woonna already provides a strategy for Mina, Ai, and Sophie based on their ability and they only reading it or else they will face the consequences for slacking from this Demon Coach of them.

“Good and that’s suits you well Ai, how about you Xui Ying?”

And so on, Coach Leng asks about their strategies and techniques one by one then added some pointers that they miss before dismissing them since they will come back next month for the whole month of June to train, as for Wooji and Woonna they will only come and go since they only supervise them.

Chapter 584 - Vol 7: Ch 584 – Days left before enlistment

Visiting their former school together is very memorable for both Tae and Woo Jin after all they've been severed their ties for many years. Remembering this moment, Woo Jin suddenly said out of nowhere while driving.

"I'm really grateful for your wife Tae Woo"

On the other hand, Tae just focusing his attention on the music and heard Woo Jin so he is quite confused "huh?"

"I mean if it's not because of your wife then for sure I'm really a goner now and it never happened for us to become friends again that's why I'm very grateful to your wife."

Tae looking at him as if saying 'you're still talking that one?' But then he said differently "yeah indeed it's because of my wife and after my wife heard my story, she concludes right away that I still treated you as my best friend so she did her best to stop you that day"

Back to Woo Jin he also looking at Tae as if saying 'here we go again, showing off your wife' but he also replied differently "your wife really knows you Tae, and speaking about your wife, are you really alright leaving your wife for 2 years?"

"Heh, even I, I don't want to leave my wife for 2 years but then I can't postpone it anymore since I will be 31 this year which is the off age for enlistment luckily my wife is not a Senian or else I can't marry her yet"

"[Woo Jin's laughing at Tae's predicament and said] 2 years will just pass by without our notice or without your knowing Tae Woo, and its looks like you will only realized it like this 'huh, it's already 2 years and I'm going to see my wife now?' or be like 'Woah, I thought 2 years will be long for me but it's not that long huh', right?"

"Ha, ha, ha and says the guy who never been in the military duty"

"Well I'm exempted after all I belong to the Medicine Fields and luckily I know it from the start or else I can't avoid it"

“...[Tae almost got speechless and replied} I see and so that’s why after you graduate in the Business Fields you also want to be a doctor just because you only want to be exempted huh, what a sly of you Woo Jin.”

“Well, that’s one reason of it why and the main reason is in order for me to follow my wife’s path or else she will never notice my existence. Oh, we’ve arrived Tae”

“Mm and thanks for the ride Woo Jin” then Tae hop out “see you again after I got a discharge and I will meet up with you again, okay?”

“Yeah and that’s why you need to do, so see you again after 2 years” then Woo Jin drives off. As for Tae, he retrieves the car he parks at the shop then informing his wife that he’s on the way and driving right away to his home. Around 5 pm, Tae arrives at the house and realized that his wife is not in the living room so he asks his niece and nephew-in-law.

“Where are your Auntie, Ken, and Ellyn?” Asking the two who are both focused on watching anime at the moment.

Ellyn is the one replying since Ken is too immersed in the anime he watches “oh, you’re here Uncle Tae, and welcome home”

“Thanks and so where’s everyone?”

“Auntie Jun and Uncle Jun are with the twins while Auntie Rei is preparing for our dinner”

“She cooks?”

“Huh?” Ellyn got confused.

“Not cooking Dear because I only prepare the foods on the table since Mom is the one cooking the foods. Oh, right you need to change first”

Automatically Tae looking at his wife and give a peck kiss on her lips since the kids are with them so a long kiss is not good.

“I’m home and did you miss me?”

“Uh-uh and so, did you have a good day today?” Tae nodded and Rei continue “but before that change first and I’m going to listen to you after we’re done eating, okay?”

“Okay”

“Ken and Ellyn, wash your hands now”

“Okay Auntie Rei” only Ellyn replied.

“Ken?”

“Y—yes Auntie?”

“Pause that one and we will eat our dinner after washing your hands, okay?”

“Okay” Ken pause that TV right away and washing his hands at the washbasin then seating in the dining area and waiting for everyone while Rei also calling her parents-in-law.

Knocking the door though it’s already open and informing them. “Mom and Dad, the foods are now ready.”

“Oh, I see, and are we not going to wait for Tae?”

“Tae just arrived and already changing to our room”

“Oh” then laying Wu-wu at the cribs.

“How’s Wu-wu now, Mom?”

“Already fine now Rei and we’ve never expected that he got a fever today”

“Right but you don’t need to worry Wu-wu Rei since he is alright now” Tae’s Dad second the motion since Rei been worried after arriving at home.

“.....okay Dad and how about Re-re?”

“As usual she never cries after the twins pass 6 months old [Re-re and Wu-wu]”

“Mm.... I see” replied then Rei c.a.r.e.s.sing both her twins.

“Don’t worry Rei because Tae is also like that when he is 6 months old. Just like Re-re, Tae never cries after he pass 6 months old and just like Wu-wu, he also got a fever out of sudden” Tae’s Mom comforting Rei but she only listens and she continues “alright we will go first and I will let Tae call you for our dinner, okay?” Rei just nodded.

After few minutes Tae comes and notices his wife’s worried expression “is there’s something wrong, Hon?”

“Uh-uh, so before and after attending the mass, Wu-wu is very normal but then suddenly after you drop us here, Wu-wu suddenly got a fever and I’m going to inform you but then Mom and Dad stop me and said that I don’t need to trouble you and that it’s very normal for a baby to have a fever since they are metabolically active and they are right since he’s now fine as if he doesn’t have a fever a while ago”.

“Heh, I see” Tae replied while smiling then carrying Wu-wu “my baby boy, don’t trouble your Mama, okay?”

Wu-wu didn't reply since he is still 6 months old instead he just snuggles his small head to his father's embrace.

Noticing the reaction of his baby boy, both parents smiling at each other and Tae said to his wife "I guess Wu-wu already knows that his beloved father will be away to his beloved mother and he got worried for both his beloved parents so that's why he got a fever out of nowhere."

"Huh?"

"It's not scientifically proven but as my blood flows to Wu-wu then that's for sure"

"Then don't tell me during your enlistment period, Wu-wu will get a fever every time he got worried about us?"

"Probably and if that will happen then just make sure that Wu-wu can both sense our presence then he will be fine of course you need to seek a doctor on the next if he is still not fine."

"You have a point in there, Dear, and I will take note of that"

Tae's laughing out of nowhere and said "you just believe me like that and you won't call me I'm only imagining about the first one?"

"Nope, I won't after all Wu-wu just suddenly got fine maybe he already sense your presence so I will take note of that."

Hearing his wife like that, Tae just doesn't know if he will laugh or cry because of his wife's too much trust in him and it doesn't mean that he is against it instead he is so glad for that and that he makes a promise to himself that he will protect the trust of his wife and never betray his wife's trust. After carrying Wu-wu, Tae lay down his baby boy in the cribs and then carrying his baby girl to be fair then afterward he heard his wife.

"After you discharge our twins will be turning 3 while our youngest will be turning two"

"Uh-uh and please let them know that I'm their father, also" Tae got cut off by his wife.

"Also I will tell them how amazing you are, how talented you are, how you love them so much, and everything so that they can be proud of you Tae as their father."

"Thanks, Hon"

"No need to thank me because that's how you are Tae and right now let's go since everyone is already waiting for us"

"Right" then laying down his baby girl to the cribs.

The family members of different surnames yet related to each other are now eating their dinner and then proceeds to their next routines such as both Tae's parents are now taking care of the twins, Ken and Ellyn continue watching the anime to digest the foods they eat and sleep before 9 pm while the couple washing the dishes though it's only Tae since Rei just watching her husband back.

Rei said while seating at the chair and observing her husband washing dishes "surely I will miss this back of yours Tae"

"Heh, so only my back that you're going to miss, huh?"

"What do you mean by that? And it sounds like I only love you because of your back"

“He, he, then why did you say that surely you will only miss my back, huh Mrs. Jun so can you explain to me why?”

“Geez, I didn’t mean it literally you know because for sure you already know that I will miss the whole you, Mr. Jun, right?”

“Hm.... The whole me huh but I want more specific, Mrs. Jun so which one that you will miss the most, my body or my heart?”

“...[Rei almost got speechless and replied] I guess it’s your shameless I will miss the most.”

“Oh, you are not honest at all Hon and I already know which one you are going to miss the most, so let’s prove it now since I’m already done”

Rei got caught off guard so she’s blushing and replied while stuttering “huh....y—you really shameless Tae”

“Ha, ha, ha I didn’t even mention it specifically and you already got what I mean so that’s what you will really miss the most huh, indeed and that’s what I’m ...” pause because he suddenly got hit by his wife on his c.h.e.s.t “what’s that for?”

“For being shameless knowing that the kids are still awake and let’s go to the living room now since you have already done WASHING THE DISHES, right?”

“Ha, ha no need to emphasize the words washing the dishes Hon”

“Well I guess I need to in case your shameless running again”

“Ha, ha, ha and alright let’s go now, to our room”

“Huh?”

“Common Hon and it’s only days before I’m going to enlist so we must not waste our time. Both Ken and Ellyn already know not to stay late even it’s school breaks since they are both responsible kids so spend your time only with me, okay?”

“Heh, hearing that one, I’m sure that it really has a double meaning”

“Yup” Tae agreed without hesitation and continue “and instead of wasting our time here, let’s go to our room to do what we really need to do”.

“.....” Rei got speechless.

Right away Tae holds his wife’s hands and led her to their room so after almost an hour of sharing what he did for the whole day, Rei replied to her husband.

“Eh, so aside from Woo Jin you also meet another of your friend in the school, huh”

“Uh-uh and I’ve never heard about him. Its looks like I’m not really a good friend to him since I don’t know his what about for this past 15 years”

“Here you go again blaming yourself when in fact it’s not your mistake for not knowing and you’ve been busy enough. Well, being busy is not a valid reason for not meeting up with your friends but it doesn’t mean that you don’t care about them and it just because they know how busy you are especially you are in the entertainment fields so just by spotting you can only create many scandals which are not true so that’s why they never trouble looking for you, right?”

“... I don’t really know how to do with you, Hon”

“Ha, ha well it’s because I do love you after all”

Tae just sighing and didn’t reply instead he just c.a.r.e.s.sing his wife’s face and looking at her seriously while Rei wondering what her husband up to then asks when he didn’t say anything “is there’s something wrong, Dear?”

“Nothing but Rei during those 2 years, please make sure that they will be no bugs approaching you, make sure those 2 years you will only think about me and to our family members, make sure those 2 years you will always love me day by day even I’m away with you because I will also be making sure that those 2 years there will be no bugs approaching me, I will only think about you and my family members and most of all I will always love you day by day. 2 years will only be pass by as if it’s not really long to wait but those 2 years of being away with each other will surely miss a big part of our life after all we are not with each other but it doesn’t mean that it will become stain to our life because it will only helps us longing for each other more”

“Geez, seriously” Only said these words since Rei is now crying.

“Why are you crying, Hon?” He asks while wiping his wife’s tears.

“Same to you Dear and so why are you crying, Dear?”

“Because I will surely miss you, Hon”

“Silly” and then both of them are crying silently while wiping their tears with each other.

“Alright enough with that and you’re pregnant Hon, so for now, tomorrow the team will be having a fan meeting, right?”

“Yes and on the next day will be the team’s day off before the member’s enlistment”

“[Tae just sighing]”

“Stop being sad Tae and so let me become the active and aggressive one”

“Huh?”

On the next day, the couple only awakes when they heard a knock on their door.

Knock, knock and knock

Rei heard the knocks on the door followed by Tae and both slowly waking up.

“What time is it, Hon?” Ask a sleepy Tae.

Rei slowly looking at the wall clock since Rei just awake at the moment “quarter to 10”

“Heh, quarter to 10 huh” then suddenly both of them got surprised and shocked.

“We are late,” both said in sync.

“Ha, ha, ha yeah indeed we are since the fan’s meeting will start sharply at 10 am and yet we are still here”

“.....”

“Alright stop thinking about reasons why we are late since they are mostly known why and for now let’s take a bath now, then eating before leaving, right?” Tae said matter of fact while rising up from the bed.

“Indeed you are right and... [Rei got shocked again seeing her husband on his baby suit] T—Tae, you are still n.a.k.e.d.”

“Well same with you Hon and I got tired last night so I didn’t get the chance for me to change you and me since you suddenly become the active and aggressive one well I’m not complaining you know because I love it”

“...let’s take a bath now”

“You don’t need to cover yourself Hon because I’ve already seen it since Day 1 of our marriage”

“.....” Rei only got speechless.

After 10 minutes the couple has already done bathing and both got out of their room.

“Manager Han just called and said that you need to return his call”

“Oh, I see, and thank you, Mom, Hon you call Manager Han to inform him that we are on the way while I prepare the food for us, okay?”

“Okay”

“I’m already done cooking Tae”

“Thanks, Mom”

Another 10 minutes the couple already at the parking area and now inside the car.

“It’s already past 10 am” Tae heard his wife and looking at her amusingly while laughing “no need to laugh Tae and I know it’s my first time being late.”

“Ha, ha, ha, ha and so what Manager Han said?”

“I said to them that we will proceed what the plans go and we will come in through backstage”

“Okay”

“You don’t need to drive fast since I already informed Manager Han that we will be there at the venue around 10:30 am and you will be on stage at exactly 10:45 am”

“I know and I won’t break the traffic rules just because we are late, most of all it’s not safe for us so it means you’re my topmost priority over arriving early to work”

“Heh, I don’t know if I will be happy or cry for you Tae”

“Ha, ha, ha”

On the other hand, while the couple on the way to the venue, the team managers and members are already used to Rei’s time 30 minutes arrived before the appointed time so at exactly 9:30 am, all of them already there backstage while the staffs and personnel are already on standby since they did already done preparing everything such as props, amplifiers, microphones, and the likes even fans already inside the venue since they already open the gate at 9 am and will close quarter to 10 am, means that the couple just awake at the same time of closing the gate for their fan meetings.

The Managers and Members have been already used to fan meetings, concerts, live appearances, and live performances but still, they feel nervous especially today since they will disclose about their enlistment 2 days from now so when they arrived they didn’t notice the missing couple until Manager Han mentions Rei’s name.

“Right Manager Rei, as what the members changing planned from disclosing it to everyone including media into exclusive for fans only either official or unofficial one are confirmed but not sure if it got leaked, so what are we going to do if got leaked?”

“.....” Silence and no one answered from Rei after all she still sleeping at the moment with her beloved husband, Tae.

“Manager Rei?” [He just realized that both Rei and Tae are nowhere to be found.] “Eh, where are they?”

“Eh, are they not yet here Manager Han?” The members and managers ask in sync.

“They are still not here?” Manager Han asks again to confirm and all of them shaking their heads that cause him to get speechless then right away called Manager Rei many times but no one answered and same to Tae so left with no choice he calls their Home number.

Ring, ring, and ring

“Yes Hello and this is the Jun residences, may I know who’s the caller is?” Tae’s mom answered from her habit.

“Eh, is this Tae’s ancestral house?”

“No it’s not and it’s my daughter in law house so may I know who’s the caller is?”

“This is Manager Han, Mrs. Jun, and may I know where they’re about?”

“Both Rei and Tae are still here.... Wait, don’t tell me you have scheduled today?”

“Indeed we do and Mrs. Jun please inform them to return my call”

“Yes I will” then both hang up at the same time and the teams ask in sync.

“And so where are they?”

“Still in their house”

“Huh?”

“Believe it or not guys but both of them are still in their house maybe I guess they overslept, right?”

“T— they overslept and we’re talking about Manager Rei and Tae?”

“Unfortunately yes”

“...” All of them got more confused since they know how this married couple so professional with each other so the sudden news of they got overslept and will be late is still floating on their minds yet unsinkable. Meanwhile, the teams are still wondering when they heard Manager Han’s phone. Hearing the phone ringing, all of them automatically looking in Manager Han’s direction as if requesting to him to put it on loudspeaker mode and seeing their reactions in sync, he did without asking.

Ring, ring, and ring

“Yes, Manager Rei?”

“Manager Han sorry for not answering your calls and we are really sorry since will be late today due to oversleeping”

“...[Manager Han almost got speechless since he didn’t expect he really got it right and he only assumes that they overslept] I—I see and so what time will be you here?”

“We will be at the venue around 10:30 am through entering at the backstage and Tae will be on stage at exactly 10:45”

“Do we need to delay the time?”

“No need and just proceed what we planned Manager Han since for the whole 45 minutes the members will only talk to their fans without disclosing it yet and so Tae’s appearance won’t be affected.”

“I see”

“I’m going to hang up”

“Wait a moment Manager Rei”

“Yes, and what’s wrong?”

“We do as what we planned but then what if it got leaked?”

“Since the day we informed the fan club officers until yesterday the fan meetings announcement for today only circled to the fans both official and unofficial one so it didn’t leak. As for today, it will be safe because I already instruct the staff and personnel to sign them the non-disclosure agreement before entering the venue so no worries about that, alright Manager Han I’m going to hang up now since Tae hurrying me up”

Tot, tot, and tot

Manager Han only tell the teams this one: “and guys that’s it”

“A typical of Manager Rei, huh”

Chapter 587 - Vol 8: Ch 587 – Fan Meetings before enlistment 2

As Rei said, indeed they really arrived at the CA Entertainment around 10:30 am and they come in backstage then Rei meeting the team managers since Tae directly going to the dressing room.

Rei: Sorry guys we are really late today.

Han: No worries Manager Rei and it looks the fans didn’t ask about Tae’s whereabouts.

Rei: I see and that’s good then.

Wang: [The car manager reminded them] please tell me that you didn’t go over speeding today.

Rei: Ha, ha, ha we didn't Manager Wang and both of us are law abiders, so no worries about that one.

Wang: I see

Li: By the way, where's Tae?

Rei: At the dressing room Manager Li. [And Manager Li just nodded].

Chi: Lucky for you Manager Rei, Mr. Hwang is out of town or else you will be scolded.

Rei: Ha, ha, indeed I'm lucky today and..... [Rei got interrupted by her beloved husband]

Tae: Hon?

Rei: Yes Tae?

Tae: What time I'm going to go on stage and where's my position?

Rei: [looking at her wristwatch] 5 minutes from now the chatting will be done and so they going to change their costume since you are already done changing you only need to stand at your position, second to the last after Bi of the left corner.

Tae: Oh, I see then I'm going now. [Then Tae leaves right and standing in his position.]

Chi: Hearing that one, I just realized that I'm not already the Escort Manager of Tae, huh and he already forgot that I'm the one planning for the stage formations and such things yet he didn't ask me instead he asks the Time Manager.

Aii: [Mfrfeuzl emo Inuuhviull]

Yun: [Heard Manager Chi comments since they are already done changing because they already used to change quickly] ha, ha, ha it can't be helped since Manager Rei is Tae's beloved wife after all Manager Chi.

Chi: Don't tell me you will also do the same thing to me when you will be officially Manager's Su Husband, huh?

Yun: Who knows but well Lucy is not part of M'dols Teams so maybe I won't. And you Tae, why did you stain Manager Rei's reputations by arriving early before the appointed time, huh?

Tae: Is it normal for me to have my wife's time first?

Yun:

Je: Ha, ha, ha, cat got your tongue Bro Yun but well Tae you really didn't restrain yourself, huh knowing that Manager Rei is pregnant, tsk, tsk.

Tae: Well it's normal for a married couple to be intimate with each other so I didn't do anything wrong and our mistake is only that we are late for oversleeping.

Han: Enough with those talks guys and the personnel already signal all of you to be on standby.

All: [Members] Yes Manager Han.

Han: Geez can't believe all of you talking like that when Manager Rei and Manager Su are here.

Su: Ha, ha, ha no worries I'm already used to it, and without you knowing, Yun is more shameless when we are alone compared to with the M'dols Teams.

Yun: Lucy?

Su: It's the truth, right?

Yun: [Almost got speechless and only wondering] 'yeah indeed it's the truth but you don't need to announce it, you know.'

Su: How about you Manager Rei, is Mr. Jun more shameless when he is with you alone or not?

Rei: Ha, ha, ha that's a secret and it's only exclusive for me.

Yun: 'See?'

Tae: [Looking to his wife being proud because she's not embarrassed anymore when someone talking about that kind of talks and said] I'm proud of you Hon.

Rei: I'm also proud of you Tae.

Tae: [Seeing his wife's expression for sure she didn't get what he means and so he laughs out of nowhere] ha, ha, ha, ha.

All: What's wrong?

Tae: Nothing [replied between his laughs]

P1: [One of the CA Personnel reminded the teams] M'dols on standby

All: [Members] Yes

At exactly 10:45 am, the M'dols Members go up on stage and they are performing 2 ballad songs and 1 a cappella song before seating at the provided seats for them. The fans didn't still get any clues or hints for what the purpose of this fan meeting today after all the announcement is not short of notice since it's been announced to the fan's clubs on last the day of April to avoid suspicions from them and that's what the managers agreed and they only change the plans by changing it to only exclusive for fans as per the member's suggestions. After the members singing 3 songs, all of them are now seating and Yun is the one talking after all he is the team leader.

"Everyone, thank you for attending today for this fan meeting and we didn't expect it's full capacity, well it's free so it will be no surprise to be full but then today is working day so we didn't expect that it's full capacity today knowing it's Monday today and we are really grateful for that."

"1, 2, 3, you are welcome M'dols Ha and we love you"

"Ha, ha, thank you and we the M'dols also love our fans" all fans are now giggling. "Shh" then they went all quiet "thank you and so then we will perform the very first song that we debuted as M'dols" Yun hinting the first clue yet the fans didn't notice it yet. After 5 minutes of singing and dancing the team members are almost out of breath.

"Ha, ha, never expect that we already this old and just realize that we do really have a powerful performance for our debut song."

"It's alright we don't mind M'dols Ha"

"Ha, ha I see and thank you, everyone, well it's already been 15 years since then so there's no surprise that we are this almost out of breath knowing our age are around 26-30 but for now we are now going to sing 6 songs which are each member's favorite songs, first is my favorite song followed by the member's age" Yun hinting the second clue yet the fans didn't notice it yet because they are too excited.

Each song has 3 minutes duration so it takes 18 minutes for all of them to finish and since all members, favorite songs are all ballad songs [which all about how the teams interact with their fans] the members are not out of breath yet because it's only singing a ballad song. Some fans are crying because they are starting to reminisce their memories with the members and some of the fans already rising up their suspicions when they heard the 6 songs that the members selected as their favorite but they are still not yet sure why.

Almost lunchtime that the team members have done performing by singing and dancing. Mostly they performed the songs that been rewarded and some of them are requested by their fans. Right now the members are already on stage after changing their costumes to black T-shirts and blacks with their team names logo. Even then the members didn't state yet their main reason for having these concerts exclusive for fans only so since they are still stating their reason some of them already assumes that it might be a fan service or might be they are going to disband and that, to begin with, the enlistment never comes to their minds. The members are casually chatting to their fans until Yun decides to tell since it's almost lunchtime.

"Everyone" Yun calling everyone's attention and all their fans suddenly keeps quiet since they are now paying attention to Yun. "I know some of you might wondering why we have today's fan meetings exclusive for the fans only because we, the M'dols are going to announce very important matters that need for our fans to know since you deserve to know, after all, all of you are supporting us since debut so everyone please understand us very well, okay?"

"Y—yes" the fans are confused but all of them wondering at the same time 'are they going to disband? But they are still young'.

Yun paused for a moment and deep breathily then disclose the reason for this fan meeting "I, Ha Ya Yun the team leader of M'dols hereby disclosed that we, the M'dols are going to enlist this coming May 26 which is the day after tomorrow. We, the M'dols are going to enlist at the same time and so we the M'dols will be on hiatus until we discharge. We, the M'dols can't promise that we come back as a whole group because we are still not discussing what are we going to do after we discharge but we, the M'dols are all aware that we must debut as a solo artist but it doesn't mean that we never value each of us as a team because that's how we became a team as M'dols. We know that all you must shock and get surprised by this sudden announcement so do we since we almost forgot that we are a Senian and already used to be as an artist until we received a letter from the government authority to remind us to enlist especially to me and Tae since we both almost reach the maximum age of limit. As planned before our Team Managers already decide that this announcement will be disclosed to everyone but then we the M'dols suggests to our managers this so they agreed because if not for the fans supports, we the M'dols never exist so we are very thankful for all of you because we exist because all of you and so we are really, really thankful and grateful for your time to supports us, to be with us and most of all to always defend us." Yun pause on purpose and every member stands then bowing in front of their fans while said at the time.

"Thank You, everyone and we all love you"

The entire fans already crying the moment they heard Yun's announcement and they become sadder when they heard everyone at the same time so their tears never stop and the same with the members.

Yun continues his speech while wiping his tears while the members are listening to him and at the same time wiping their tears "everyone we know that it's really the saddest moment for us but we the members can't stop us to enlist after all it's mandatory to us to do so as a Senior Citizen but even we are away and we will be on hiatus, we always never forgot all of our fans because we are here because all of you and so since it's almost lunchtime, we the members are treating everyone for lunch and the company personnel will distribute to everyone so that for our last day before enlisting the members and the fans will be eating together. As we eat, the staff will play a video recording from us to our fans.

After the signal from Yun, all the assigned personnel distribute the packed lunch to the fans, and while they distribute the VCR lift up to show the summary of their activities. The assigned personnel making sure that all the fans have their pack lunch before signaling to the team leader of M'dols. Yun sees the signals and so he blesses the foods.

"Alright let's dig in" and then at the same time the VCR for each member played randomly.

VCR of each member

[Hello everyone and this is the Cute Main Vocalist of M'dols, Li Je Han. I know that's on May 24 will be the saddest day because we will announce our enlistment and you might feel it's so very sudden well indeed it is but for us it's not since we already aware of it last year and that's why you might wondering why for the last January until now our schedules have been fully packed because we will be going to enlist soon and everyone please you don't need to worry about me and my co-members because we will do our best during the whole duration of our enlistment. Everyone I love you and this is your M'dols Li Je Han forever.]

[To our loyal fans either official or not this is your M'dol Bi and I have this video message recording to comfort all of you since you already know about our enlistment, right? Indeed it's very surprising and that's why we've been busy since Jan 1 this year because we already know our enlistment. Sighing, if someone asks me if I regret entering the Entertainment Fields then I will reply proudly that I'm not because I and M'dols have loyal fans who always there for us and so I'm really, really grateful for everyone I love you, and thank you for supporting us since debut.]

[Mic test, mic test ha, ha just kidding since I know it's working and this is San, the forever youngest of M'dols. Everyone on May 24 please mark that day and all of you don't forget that day because that day will be the best memorable day for us, the members, and all of you, the fans, you ask why? It's because you will witness the other sides of us on that day since it will be rare for the fans to see us crying especially Bro Tae after all he is known as the chic and quiet type. You might wonder why I say that we will be crying, it's because we will leave our fans on hiatus, temporarily or might forever because it will depend on what will happen to us in the following years but all you must trust us because you are with us since debut so thank you for always with us]

[Is it already on, Hon?

Yes, it's already on Dear and you can start recording your message for your fans now.

Okay] then the fans who already done eating suddenly shout because they notice that Tae carrying both the twins.

[Hello everyone and to all of our loyal fans, all of you must be already aware that I'm not good with words though I'm really talkative type towards my loved ones and to my family members still I only talk long if it's really necessary me to do so and that's includes my fans but then now I don't know where I start after all this message of mine will be played after you know our enlistment so to ease the sadness of our loyal fans I'm going to introduce you my greatest gifts that I received, my family members, my fans, my wife Manager Rei and now my baby twins so here they are.]

Chapter 589 - Vol 8: Ch 589 – The reason 2

The fans never expected that they will see the twins thru Tae's VCR message but then they can't take any picture because it's also included from the non-disclosure agreement they signed so instead of taking pictures the fans only imprinted it into their minds. Then after looking at the video of the twins all of them heard Tae again from the VCR message.

[Alright everyone I know all of you will be sad because of our sudden revelation of our relations and it will never change since it's already scheduled that I and my co-members will be enlist 2 days after our enlistment revelations but please keep in your minds that whatever happens to us in the future M'dols will be always M'dols and exist because all of you so thank you and we love you all]. Then Tae waving his hands and holding the small hands of both twins before waving it to the camera that's why he said we instead of I.

After Tae's VCR message, Shi video message pops up right away [hello everyone, this is Shi, Im Woo Shi at your service and for sure this video message of mine will be played on the same day we disclose our enlistment but keep it in mind that I'll be enlisting along with my co-members but it doesn't mean that we will also disappear forever because it's only for 2 years, I'm not sure if we will come back as a team but what I'm assured is that M'dols will always be M'dols, I love you all and thank you for being with us since debut.]

End of the VCR Message of each member but then the fans notices something and react in sync.

"Eh that's all and then how about M'dols Ha?"

Yun gets the microphone and said "as expected of our fans because all of you really notice that I didn't have a video message and it means you're paying attention so thank you, everyone. I didn't leave any video message because I did it on purpose because today aside from revealing our enlistment I also have a very important matter to reveal." Yun pauses on purpose in order to observe their reactions and not just the fans because all the members are looking at him as if saying, 'Bro Yun, don't tell me.....' they stop looking surprised when Yun nodded and now paying attention to the fans then heard all of them said at the same time.

"Eh?"

"What do you mean M'dols Ha?"

"Another very important matter to reveal, what is it?"

"Alright everyone I will reveal it but first I'm going to seek approval of our Team Managers since they also not know about this one." Yun stops for a moment and now looking at the Team Managers' location.

Meanwhile, after Yun talking about another important matter to reveal, the Team Managers are now looking at Lucy.

“Heh, so that’s why you are here today huh,” all the M’dols Managers said in sync.

“.....” Lucy got speechless because she didn’t know about it.

All the M’dols Managers are observing Lucy’s reaction and as the Head Manager, Manager Han is the one talking with her “eh, you don’t know about it?”

“Uh-uh and Yun just invited me today without telling me why”

“Never expect that Yun has this side huh”

“So do I Manager Han but then Manager Han, Yun already looking all of you for approval to reveal.”

“Geez, what’s the purpose of our refusal when in fact he already opens it up” then Manager Han gives a signal to Yun and it means to wait for a moment then right away he instructs Manager Chi, the escort manager. “Manager Chi, go up on stage and you know what to do”

“Yes, Manager Han” then Manager Chi leave and go up on stage.

“Luckily Tae is not the same with Yun,” Manager Han said it loud.

Rei got it right away and replied “yeah indeed after all Tae inform everyone about our relationship to disclose while keeping me in the dark”

“Even they are not the same, both of them are really a team, after all, Yun keep me in the dark and not only me because all of you also keep in the dark” Lucy retort right away that causes the Managers to laugh meanwhile back on stage, Manager Chi got another microphone and reminding the fans.

“Alright everyone and before Yun going to reveal something very important matter, can you promise that you won’t forget about the clauses you signed of the non-disclosure agreement?”

“Yes we promise Manager Chi”

“I see and can all of you recite the 2 clauses you signed in the agreement then?”

“The first clause, whatever the M’dols Members going to reveal today for this fan meeting will always be hidden and only us, the fans who attend today will know it.

And the second clause, no taking any pictures including videos and like only imprinted it to our minds”

“Okay, that’s good, and thank you, everyone. Now, Yun, you can reveal it now”

“Yes, Manager Chi” then Manager Chi leaves the stage silently meanwhile Yun taking a deep breath and now starting to reveal the very important matters to their fans. “Everyone....” Yun pause on purpose for the fans to pay attention to what he is going to reveal. “I, Ha Ya Yun or M’dols Ha already not available and means I’m now taken.”

“Eh?”

“Yes I do have now a girlfriend and allow me to introduce her to all of you here if that’s alright all of you”

“Yes and go ahead M’dols Ha”

“Thank you and all of you are the best fans ever”

“.....” Fans got speechless while their tears slowly slipping down because their biases really trust them much and then they observe that Yun going down from the stage before approaching to where the Managers are and he holds a pregnant lady that all of them got shocked.

“Ha, ha, ha everyone calms down and this is not Manager Rei or else I will appear on stage with a black-eyed of both eyes or more worst I’m already in the hospital from being beaten by Tae black and blue”

“.....” Fans got speechless because they really think it is Rei and then realized who it is since both of them already on stage. “Eh? M --- Manager Su?”

“Yes it’s Manager Su and all of you have a good eye to recognize her right away. Indeed she’s pregnant and I’m the father but then it doesn’t mean that I’ve become suddenly not available because I got her pregnant because we both have our consent of it and we already dating last year and it’s around December.”

“M’dols Ha, M’dols Ha”

“Yes, and what is it?”

“How long she is now and when she will give birth?”

“She will be 4 months on June 5 and her expected due date will be on November 05”

“Is it a baby boy or a baby girl?”

“Baby girl”

“What would be the name of your baby girl?”

“It will be secret for now but then the fans will be the ones who will know after my girlfriend safely giving birth to our baby girl”

“M’dols Ha”

“Yes?”

“Manager Rei will be also giving birth this year, so are you and M’dols Tae planning to arrange the baby?”

“How did you know that Manager Rei will be having a baby boy this year?”

“Ah, so it’s a baby boy and M’dols Ha I didn’t mean that incoming baby but what I mean is Manager Rei baby boy but then it’s also the same so are you planning to arrange your baby girl to one of M’dols Woo baby boy”

“Who knows but well if that happened in the future then I will gladly accept it without hesitation after all it came from the genes of Tae and Manager Rei.

Chapter 590 - Vol 8: Ch 590 – The Day before Enlistment

The fans have been asking about Yun and Lucy’s relationship but then at exactly 2 pm they wrap up and commencing the end of the fan meeting for today. After dismissing the fans, the team has a short discussion and separately leaving with each family member after all without their fan’s realization all their family members are also on the guest’s list.

Tae and Rei have been chatting on the way to their home followed by his family members along with the twins since they are going to bond tomorrow before Tae going to enlist officially except for both Ken and Ellyn since they have class today and the next day.

“I never expect that Bro Yun did disclose his relationship with Manager Su.”

“Ha, ha, right and same with the Managers but after hearing Yun talking about that, all of us didn’t look surprised since we got to know the reason why Manager Su is with us”

“Indeed but then how about Ms. Xie then?”

“She doesn’t have scheduled for today so I guess Manager Su already arrange it when she got invited by Yun for today’s event”

“Ha, ha, so I guess that’s the advantage for both of I and Bro Yun to have a Manager partner since we never had schedules conflict”

“Yeah I guess and by the way where are we going tomorrow?”

“That’s a secret Hon”

“I see”

“By the way, are you not going to change your mind?”

“Change my mind, you mean letting Ken and Ellyn come with us tomorrow?”

“Yes since both of them have good marks and it will be only 1-day absence, geez my wife is really a strict Aunt”

“Ha, ha, ha but well I think about it and I will inform both my siblings” then right away Rei messaging her brother and sister at the same time.

[Bro El and Mei, tomorrow is the day before Tae enlistment, and will be having to get together with my in-laws but then I didn’t allow Ken and Ellyn to go with us after all they do have class tomorrow so is it alright for me to allow them to be absent in the class tomorrow?]

Then Mei replied right away [no problem with me Sis and don’t be too strict with my Son or else my baby boy will be like you].

Followed by El [as long as Ellyn doesn’t have exams tomorrow then it’s alright for me]

[Geez Bro El you’re too serious and what if Ellyn really has.....]

[Mei you forgot that it's still school breaks for them]

[Eh, then why did you say they have class today and tomorrow if it's still school breaks huh?]

[Ken is one of the student council along with Jinyu so they make some preparations in schools since the Sports Fest in here-S Country will be in July and if you ask about Ellyn then Ellyn just tagging along with their group of friends.]

[Heh, I see]

[Don't mind about Mei, Rei and just do what the best thing to do and I'm going to end this now since I still have work, bye]

[Bro El sure will be like my old man, right Sis?]

[And how about you Mei, are you not busy today?]

[I'm always busy but I do have a lot of free time if it's about my family members so how about you, huh?]

[...[Rei almost speechless and ask Mei] are you supposed to be in the meeting today?]

[Eh, how did you know? Don't tell me Sis that you didn't respect privacy anymore, huh?]

[Remember you tell us last Sunday that you must not be disturbed for the whole last week of May since you will have a meeting for the whole week, right?]

[Oh right I did say that one and alright I'm going to end it now since my old man here already glaring at me, bye-bye.]

At the same time, they arrived at the CA Residences followed by her in-laws. Rei just hops out assisted by Tae when she heard her sister-in-law.

“Rei, Rei I tell you the twins got their personality from Tae-nyah”

“Yeah they really did but what they are doing now that you can tell right away Sis Tia Wen?”

Tia Wen got interrupted by Yu-Mei “well Wen been chatting non-stop until both twins cover her mouth and it’s quite surprising to witness it after all the twins are still turning 8 months old”

“Geez Sis, are you really my sister or not?”

“Of course I am”

“Yeah, yeah you really are and Tae-nyah.....” stop because she heard Tae saying this one to his twins.

“Job well done Re-re and Wu-wu”

“Tae-nyah”

Then everyone from the Jun family members laughing and stops when they heard their mother/mother-in-law for Rei.

“Alright stop with that and let’s get inside now” and all of them get inside the CA Residences premises then ride the elevator together, of course being Tia Wen, she again chatting non-stop but then again both twins covered her mouth that cause all of them to laugh and heard Tae praising the twins again.

Ding, they arrive at the last floor and Tia Wen complaining her brother to Rei.

“See Rei and it’s still early for you to leave this brother of mine.”

“Tia Wen” all of the Jun family members warns her.

“It’s alright Mom, Dad, Tae, and everyone since I didn’t put it in my heart and I’m aware that Sis Tia Wen just kidding and didn’t mean it seriously”

“Wow you’re so lovely Rei,” said while going to hug Rei but got stopped by Tae.

“My wife is almost 7 months pregnant so hugging her is not allowed”

“Huh I see yet you always eating her up”

“Tia Wen”

“Everyone all of us here are all a.d.u.l.ts so no worry.... [Then realized the twins are with them] oops I forgot the twins are with us but well they don’t understand it so it’s ... [again her mouth got covered by the twins] geez, don’t tell me they understand it?”

“Nope they didn’t and my twins just stop you because you’re too loud Sis and you disturb their napping time”
