Afterward, the group of lawyers comes to them and they are now properly signing the transfer of share and transfer of owner property and such necessary things needed to sign. Since anyone can own a share in S Country, Rei decides that Tae will be the one holding the shares for CA International and Group Company from Grandfather Hwang while she will be the one holding the shares for JL Hospital from Grandmother Hwang and as for the property it will be under the name of Tae since she's not a Senian.

After signing all the documents needed and preparing the needed requirements everyone is now eating the snacks provided by the hosts [the Hwang elders couple] and then Ji Min asks the lawyers casually.

“So how long will you process those matters?”

“Probably 1 to 3 months, Master Hwang”

“I see and the earliest for you is you must be done it within one month after all this young lady here already paid it in full”

“Yes, Master Hwang and we will do our best to finish it one month”

“Good and Rei, do you have any request to do so?”

“Nothing Grandfather and for now just let me know it’s already ready since I also need the Title for building the house and such things.”

“Yes no worries Ma’am and we will contact you right away after we are done processing all these things and if you are really in hurry then we can also apply for the Building Permit and such things needed for your application if only you are still looking for someone to process it.”

“Thank you for your offer Sir but I will decline it since I already have someone in my mind and I’m only lacking for the property title and such things.”

“Ah, I see”

“You guys, did you forgot that I already told you before that she’s the former Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company, did you or you are really underestimating our people, huh?” Retort Grandfather Hwang.

“No, we didn’t Master Hwang”

“You didn’t, you didn’t when in fact you really are and go now so then all of you can finish it within one month”

“Yes, Mr. Hwang” then the group of lawyers leaves right away.

“Then Grandfather Hwang and Grandmother Hwang, I’m also going to leave.”

“Yes, you may go now Young Lady Jun since you still have work to do, right?”

“Yes Grandfather Hwang”

“Good, good, and you must visit us again with that pretty man of yours, okay?”

“Yes we will Grandfather”

“Good, good, and please don’t tell this to my son or else I will hear something again from him”

“Yes Grandfather Hwang”

“Secretary Long”

“Yes, Master?”

“Please escort Young Lady Jun”

“Yes Master”

Rei didn't decline this one because for sure Grandfather Hwang won't accept anything from everyone in return or no response including her and luckily for her, he didn't force her to marry one of his unmarried grandsons since she's not the one who got the eye for the property instead it's her beloved husband and also Grandfather Hwang didn't force her to be the owner of this property. [S and A Residences or the abbreviation of Son and Annie Residences].

After Secretary Long escorted Rei to the 1st floor, he leaves right away and meanwhile Rei go directly to the parking area right away after all she still have works to do, well actually the M'dols Managers just gathering today at exactly 10 am since today is no works for M'dols Teams due to M'dols Members enlistment but in order to discuss the matters of disclosing the M'dols Members enlistment, they need to gather with Mr. Hwang and Artist Director Lina since she got back after her maternity leave. But then Rei late since it's already a quarter to 10 am and by the time she arrives at the CA Entertainment, she's already 15 minutes late that she also happened to bump with Tae's delusional ex-girlfriend.

Chapter 602 - Vol 8: Ch 602 – Contract not renewed

Rei's in a hurry since she's already 15 minutes late and after realizing that she's going to bump into someone, she hurriedly protects her belly then right away apologizes to that someone.

“Sorry, I'm in hurry”

“Oh, it's you Manager Rei, or let me just call you a cheater”

Rei got too familiar with her voice but she ignores her since she's really in hurry.

“Ignoring me huh, well your time will end in no time and no need to protect your baby after all you just pretending to be pregnant, tsk, tsk what a bitch you are”

Again Rei didn't reply but it doesn't mean that she really ignore her after all the moment she heard her voice she automatically turning on the pen recorder just to be safe then leave right but enough for her to heard other artists warning Li Danni.

“Hey, Senior Li what are you talking about, and did you forget that she's the Artist Manager here?”

“I didn't but I'm not scared of that bitch”

“Hey careful with your words and what if your contract won't be renewed because you offend Manager Rei?”

“Then let's see if she can really do that and I'm not scared of that bitch”

“It's up to you but don't blame anyone because I just warn you now”

Danni didn't reply instead she's looking to where Rei's going and then after realizing that Rei is going to the M'dols assigned studio, she sneakily followed her and happened to listen to their discussions.

Rua fzzasut fo ovu loptam frt usuzwmru al fizuftw ovuzu jfaoare dmz vuz.

“Geez Artist Manager Rei, you're late” Lina is the first one who notices her and then everyone looking at Rei when they heard Lina.

“Yeah indeed I am and sorry everyone for being late”

Mr. Hwang: It's alright Manager Rei and you may take a seat now, after all, it's supposed to be M'dols Team no work today but we called everyone since Artist Director Lina just got back.

Han: Right, right Manager Rei, and no need to feel sorry after all it's your first time being late but not an official one since it's no work for today.

Chi: So did you properly send off the three of them especially Tae, your beloved husband?

Rei: [Going to reply but then notice someone outside the door so she checks it right away but she found nothing yet she feels uneasy and fortunately the pen recorder it's still recording since she didn't turn it off]

All: Is there something wrong Manager Rei?

Rei: No nothing's wrong but I feel that someone eavesdropping on us outside the door.

Han: It might be your imagination Manager Rei after all it's impossible for paparazzi to sneak in here without security awareness.

Lina: [Already knows Rei well so she didn't hesitate to check it and indeed Rei is right because there's someone eavesdropping on them and no one can pass her eyes after all she was a former high-rank officer but then she pretends that she found nothing] 'eh, that's Miss Li Danni, huh. Let's see what she's planning for eavesdropping us [Mr. Hwang, Lina, and Rei] the top 3 important key persons of CA Entertainment.' Alright everyone there's no one outside the door so let's discuss it now.

All: Eh?

Lina: I said let's discuss it now.

All: You mean here and not the conference room?

Lina: Yes I mean here, after all, Manager Han you just said that it's impossible for paparazzi to sneak in here, so it's safe, right?

Han: Indeed I said it but what if some artists or staff heard our discussion then, Director Lina? [At the same time both Rei and Mr. Hwang are now looking suspiciously at Lina]

Lina: No worries after all they know the consequences of leaking the news before the PR Team. [Notice the two suspicious people and she said to them] unless it's didn't stated to their signed contract, right?

Mr. Hwang: You got a point in their Director Lina and it's alright everyone so let's discuss it here.

All: [Except Rei] Yes Mr. Hwang

Lina: Is there's something wrong Manager Rei?

Rua: Nm rmovare

Lina: Good and for now before we start discussing let us hear you first Manager Rei about your answer to Manager Chi's query, okay?

Rei: Okay and right I send them off properly especially to my beloved husband. [Everyone laughing since they know that she only send her husband and since the other two got send-off by their parents.]

Lina: Indeed the two of you are really such a loving married couple so now back to our discussion; we will only disclose the M'dols member's enlistment only if everyone already notices their disappearance.

Mr. Hwang: Hey, hey what are you planning? And did we already agree that we will disclose it one week after today which is the day of their enlistment, did we?

Lina: Yes we did Mr. Hwang and that's what the M'dols Managers and we agreed but then as the head of PR Team, I guess it's very reasonable for me too when I want to disclose it, am I right? [Everyone got speechless and indeed she's right since she's the Artist Director while Lina asks them again when they didn't reply to her] so am I right, right? [And without choice everyone nodded even Rei nodded hesitantly and she notices it] and why are hesitating to agree with me, Manager Rei?

Rei: It's because I'm kind of uneasy if you delayed it to officially disclose their enlistment.

Lina: No worries, after all, I'm the Artist Director and I can handle it well so you don't need to be a worrywart instead you just need to focus yourself, okay?

Rei: As long as you are not plotting something.

Lina: I didn't. 'Well it's not me who eavesdropping first and I'm only playing along.'

Mr. Hwang; [Amusingly looking to his daughter and Rei since they really have a wonderful friendship then said to everyone] alright everyone and since Director Lina wants to disclose it only if everyone notices it then let's do what she says so, for now, let's dismiss and M'dols Managers you will temporarily be assigned to other artists of CA Entertainment so did you get your new assigned artist from Manager Rei?

All: [Except Lina and Rei] Yes Mr. Hwang.

Mr. Hwang: Good and Manager Rei we will wait for your return.

Rei: Yes Mr. Hwang

Then everyone dismissed and that someone already leaves when she heard the word dismiss from Mr. Hwang so the Team M'dols Manager failed to notice her but what she didn't know that Lina already notices her since Rei only have a feeling that someone eavesdropping on them but not sure the identity.

After making sure that everyone is already out of sight, Lina calls her father's attention.

"Mr. Hwang"

"Yes, and what's wrong?"

"To my office and also call Atty. Kei presence"

"Okay and so, how about Manager Rei's presence?"

"There's no need for her after all she's will be on her Maternity leave next week and I don't want to trouble her after all it's very hard to send your husband off"

"Okay and what time?"

"Right now"

"..." Mr. Hwang got speechless but he didn't wonder where she gets it since both he and his wife are also like that because they don't want it to delay so the only thing different is Lina like to play along since she will feel bored if it's not challenging enough and that's why she pursues the criminology course knowing it's a life-threatening career because it does have a lot of risky mission and that's also why Lina is not so different from her elder brother Lin because he also like a risky mission but not totally a life-threatening career.

A few minutes later, the three of them are now inside Lina's office and after seating down, Lina said it right away.

"I need Artist Li Danni's contract"

Mr. Hwang didn't ask why and he only asks this one "is there something wrong with Ms. Danni?"

“Uh-uh and so I need to review her contract first”

Without asking anything, Atty. Kei retrieves the copy from his laptop and printed a copy before giving it to Lina. “Here, Director Lina”

“Thanks, Atty. Kei” then reading the said contract while Mr. Hwang and Atty. Kei just waiting for her. After an hour, Lina just already done reading everything from the contract and so she said to them meanwhile at the same time highlighting some of the said contracts. “Okay, so from clause 4.2.1 it’s stated in here that you can’t eavesdrop on your co-CA Entertainment discussions if you’re not part of it unless you just happened to pass by in the middle of the discussions and you just leave as if you didn’t hear anything, right?”

“Yes you are right Director Lina and since you mention it now, don’t tell me, Miss Danni, violating it?”

“Indeed she is Atty. Kei and so now, here from clause 1.2.5 which stated that her contract is good for 12 years which happened to expire this coming June 07 but then why I didn’t hear anything about her since the moment I’ve become the Artist Director?”

Instead of Atty. Kei, Mr. Hwang is the one who replied to her “it’s because she’s been active in T Country after becoming famous in here rather the right words is after she’s done naming herself as the International Superstar”

“Okay and thanks for that Mr. Hwang, so it means she’s been active for 12 years?”

Both answered in sync “yes she is”

“And she got back here must because to renew her contract, right?” Both nodded in sync.

“Okay and since she’s been active for 12 years so it means her 30% of income has been forwarded fairly to her manager and agent which is us, right?”

“.....” Both didn’t reply since they are not sure if Dannie forwarded it fairly.

“Well, I guess I just need to ask the Accounting Department since it’s stated from clause 2.5.6 that the said Artist which is Li Danni must forward the 30% of income to her Assigned Manager and the Agent equally so now my main concern is how she is related to the M’dols Team?”

“.....” Atty. Kei didn’t answer since he starts joining CA Entertainment 10 years ago when he is still 18.

“Mr. Hwang, I guess you need to answer it since I joined here almost the same time with Atty. Kei but not so active like him since I’m still an officer that time, so how she is related to the M’dols Team?”

“She was Tae’s ex-girlfriend”

Atty. Kei got surprised “eh?”

While on the other hand, Lina just happened to know the reason why she’s eavesdropping knowing it’s breaching the contract “heh, so that’s why and for sure she’s still in love with Tae.” Right away her challenge mode switch on “he, he, interesting”

“Hey, are you plotting something, Director Lina?”

Agreed without hesitation “yes Mr. Hwang and so right now you just need not do anything instead you are just going to observe as a CEO of CA Entertainment while your subordinates pulling the weeds. Alright, Atty. Kei contact from the J Country if this Miss Li here have another contract aside from us since it’s also stated here from clause 1.1.1 that she must not have another contract from another company while she has an existing contract from us. Of course, we will do it secretly after all we are not aware of what she’s planning, okay?”

“O—okay Director Lina” Atty. Kei got goosebumps because he is now assured that Danni has some guts to challenge the Artist Director who happened to be the next CEO of CA Entertainment and this is why he didn’t court Lina because of her scary personality. Though both Lina and Rei are his goddesses then he did courting Rei only got rejected by her and both his goddesses are pretty and smart but the only difference is Rei have a kind personality while Lina has a scary personality just like this one yet the two of them is not easy to handle with because they are both have a strong personality and very independent one not like with his Xie since she also has a strong personality but very dependent to him so now he just realized that luckily he falls in love with Xie and very fortunate that he is not the man from of his two goddesses.

Lina senses that Kei is now looking at him and so she asks half-jokingly “what and don’t tell me you fall to my charm?”

‘At first, indeed I am’ Kei wondering while answering different thing “not a chance Director Lina after all I already have a girlfriend”

“Oh really and are you sure?”

“Yes Director” ‘since it’s in the past that I secretly admire you and nobody knows that one even Xie doesn’t know that one.’

“Ah, I see but then you also fall to Rei’s charm, right?”

“Eh, how did you know that one? D—did Manager Rei tell you that one? No, knowing Manager Rei she’s not that type to reveal it so how did you know that one?”

“Nobody told me and I just know it based on my observational skills so did you already tell it to Miss Xie?”

“Eh, and why? Do I need to tell it to her?”

“Oh my, oh my I can’t believe that you are also an oblivious one Atty. Kei and as a woman itself, please tell it to your Miss Xie or else it will lead to a very big misunderstanding one, okay?”

“Even it’s already in the past?”

“Yes, even it’s already in the past Atty. Kei and I will tell you this one, Miss Xie also telling you her past, right?”

“Yes she did and I know everything about her even her life experiences”

“See and it means she also trusts you this much but for you, you still not trust her that much” ‘Wait, why it sounds familiar to me?’ Lina asks herself since she also likes that before when her beloved husband shared everything with her while she stayed mysterious to her husband during that time when they are still not yet dating.

Hearing Lina, Atty. Kei realized it and gladly thanking her “thank you, Director Lina”

“You’re welcome and let’s do what we needed to do, by the way, where’s Mr. Hwang?”

Kei looking at where Mr. Hwang seats “eh, when did he leave?” And Lina just shaking her head since she also didn’t know when did her father leave.

Chapter 604 - Vol 8: Ch 604 – Not a CA Entertainment artist anymore

Danni didn’t do anything after hearing the M’dols discussions since she still needs to renew her contract first or else it will be going to nothing if she started to attack them, especially Rei and so she waited for the day of her Contract Renewal before attacking her.

June 07 arrived, so both she and her assigned Manager got a message from Management for her contract renewal discussion without knowing that it’s her end. Along with her reluctant Manager, she arrived excitedly since she’s going to renew her contract then kicking out Rei and get back with Tae. She stops walking when she notices her reluctant manager.

“Hey, why are you being so gloomy? Oh, right you always said to me that I’m not going to renew my contract since that bitch is the Artist Manager and she’s the great asset of CA Entertainment, but looks who’s the winner now, it’s me and not that bitch Manager.”

“Yeah, yeah you win and since you think you are the great asset of CA Entertainment then please make sure that you are going to request to have a gold manager in your hands and not me who you only as your slave and not your Manager”

“Hey be grateful and at least I give you some of my income when in fact you did nothing”

“I did nothing huh”

“Yes you did nothing and you are just my Manager in the name so don’t think highly of yourself”

“Yes, yes I did nothing, and let’s see if you are still the super international Star if I’m not at your side. I did nothing because I only manage your schedules and accept what’s right for you. I did nothing because I only manage to accept the best choice and you are the one who’s working your best”

“Hey, did I just hear a complaint from you huh? I pay you by managing my schedules and only that because it’s me who did my best not you so don’t be ungrateful to me now.”

“Yeah indeed but that’s not what the contract stated”

“Huh, so don’t tell me you want the 15% share from my income even you didn’t do anything at all and shut up your mouth right now before I sue for being a manipulative manager”

“A manipulative manager, don’t you mean you a manipulative artist to her assign Manager?”

“I said shut up your mouth” then kicking her right leg from her pointed heels. The Manager just silently feels the pain while c.a.r.e.s.sing it to ease the pain. “Don’t overreact because I didn’t hit you hard and lucky for you that my husband still not teaching me the right technique or else I already witness your body flying away after my kick”.

‘Why am I assigned to this witch? Why Manager Rei is not yet around this time when the moment Managements appointed this watch for her assigned Manager? And most of all, why did M’dols Woo accept this witch confession during that time? Did he not notice that she’s only on her white lotus mode?' The Manager just wondering on her mind and at the same time c.a.r.e.s.sing her right leg since it still hurts.

"Hey, why are you not following me?" Then she followed while limping "you don't need to act because you're not an actress after all"

A few minutes later, they arrive at the Legal Councils' office and everyone is there except Rei since she's now on leave. Right away, Danni's white lotus modes switch on.

She knocks on the door patiently and heard come in from inside so she opens while greeting them "good morning everyone and am I late?"

"No, you're not late since you're on time"

"Eh, you are?" She didn't recognize her since she's only eavesdropping at that time.

"I'm Lina, the Artist Director of CA Entertainment and this is Atty. Kei, the Head Legal Counsel of CA Entertainment, and we joined here 10 years so mostly you didn't meet us"

"Ah, I see and that's why I've seen new faces" then she notices someone missing "eh, where's Artist Manager Rei?"

Lina retorts right away "how rare, you already know whose Artist Manager Rei is when in fact she's just celebrating her first year anniversary here last January, I guess you know her personally or more worst you have some personal grudges on her, so which one Miss Li?"

"Eh, what do you mean Artist Director?"

"Oh pardon for my rudeness Miss Li and so take a seat now"

"Ah, yes thank you Artist Director"

“So before we proceed to our discussions for today first let me know aside from me and Atty. Kei, who else from our group you didn’t recognize for?”

“I know everyone Artist Director and so since our Artist Manager Rei is not here, who is the one going to appoint me for a new manager?”

“Oh, you want a new Manager?”

“Yes”

“Why, you didn’t like your Manager? Did she didn’t do her job as your Manager then?”

“No I like my Manager but she’s getting married and she wants to resign so that’s why I need a new Manager”

‘What the heck? And since when did I become an engaged woman who’s going to get married, most of all I really want to resign but you didn’t approve of it, this witch is really a witch’

Everyone from the Legal Council is now aware of her breaching the contract but they are not aware of how Danni mistreated her Manager so now everyone is now looking at the Manager’s expression and only to see a pale face of her, so Lina stands up right away and approach.

“Hey, are you alright Manager Ban?”

“... [Didn’t expect that the Artist Director is kind and stutter replied to her] e—eh, oh, I’m okay A—Artist D—Director L—Lina”

“You’re not fine at all since the moment you arrived you’ve been holding your right leg” right away Lina lift up her pants and indeed she’s injured since it’s still bleeding. “See, you are injured”

Danni looking at her threateningly in everyone’s blindspot but she can’t fool Lina who’s a former high-rank officer.

“I’m fine Artist Director Lina and I just bump to a sharp edge before coming here”

‘What a great an excuse to protect her artist’ “Ah, I see and so everyone before discussing Miss Li’s contract let me escort Manager Ban .....” Lina got interrupted.

“I’m alright Artist Director Lina”

“No you’re not alright at all, it’s bleeding you know”

“But....”

Lina got it “I see and I won’t escort you to the clinic so let me treat your wound, okay?”

“Eh.....” Manager Ban got cut off by Lina.

“Indeed I’m the Artist Director, Manager Ban but it doesn’t mean that I will ignore someone who’s in pain and injured just because of my position and I’m also a human being but not a heartless human so let me treat it not just because I’m the Artist Director but because I’m a human being, okay?” Lina said while getting the medicine on the first aid kit then treating Manager Ban’s right leg when she nodded.

“You look like a mother, Director Lina”

“Thanks, Manager Ban, and now it’s done” right away Manager Ban crying for the first time after being bullied by her artist for more than 10 years. “Hey, why are you crying?”

“N—no I didn’t” Manager Ban deny right away.

“Heh, I see, and don’t tell that Miss Li here didn’t treat you kindly instead bullying you?”

Danni interrupts right away “sorry to interrupt Artist Director Lina but if I’m bullying my Manager then she won’t be my Manager for 12 years, right?”

“You have a point Miss Li but Manager Ban is an employee of CA Entertainment and not personally employed by you so what if Manager Ban only staying for 12 years because she is a signed employee of CA Entertainment, right?”

Danni’s real face almost exposed “What? I — I mean.....”

“Just kidding Miss Li and you just need to relax if that’s not true since I only assumed. Alright, let’s discuss it now.”

Chapter 605 - Vol 8: Ch 605 – Not a CA Entertainment artist anymore 2

Right away Lina goes back to her seat and everyone from the legal counsel team got goosebumps even her Father because Lina is really right on point and thanks to her career as a Police Officer since it’s getting sharper compared to her sharpshooting skills.

Lina didn’t know that everyone got thrilled and got goosebumps because of her observational skills and for the first time she fails to notice it because her focus now is fully focused on Miss Li and then asks everyone “alright everyone, do you need to go first?”

Everyone from the legal counsel team said in sync “you go ahead first Director Lina”

“Oh I see, then I will go first so now Miss Li before discussing your renewal, let me asks you first, so what do you think that we the Management and the Legal Counsel Team want to renew your contract?”

“Eh, is it because that I didn’t violate anything from what the contract said and it’s already for renewal?”

“That’s all?”

“Uh-uh”

“Well since you’re the Super International Star, I expect you to answer that you are a great asset to CA Entertainment but well your answer is an exceptional one so then let me rephrase my question, how did you not violates anything from what the contract said even once?”

“Yes I didn’t Artist Director”

“How sure are you that you didn’t?”

“100% Artist Director Lina”

“Oh, I see and we’ll see then if you are or not, so Atty. Kei it’s your turn now”

“Yes Director Lina and so now Miss Li, are you aware of Clause 4.2.1, Clause 1.1.1, and Clause 2.5.6 from your contract?”

“Eh, that.....” Not aware and got cut off by Atty. Kei right away.

“Of course you will be not aware of it, after all, some artist never reviewed their signed contract and they only let the managers do the task since its part of their job description and that’s not a surprising thing since we already expected it and I guess I ask the wrong person, so Manager Ban are you aware of the clauses that I just mention now?”

“Yes, Atty. Kei”

“Good and care to mention it now”

“Clause 4.2.1 stated that you can’t eavesdrop on your co-CA Entertainment discussions if you’re not part of it unless you just happened to pass by in the middle of the discussions and you just leave as if you didn’t hear anything.

Clause 1.1.1 stated that the signed artist must not have another contract from another company while the signed artist has an existing contract from CA Entertainment.

Clause 2.5.6 that the said Artist must forward the 30% of income to her Assigned Manager and the Agent”

“Good and thank you for that Manager Ban, so now Miss Li after hearing the three clauses did it ring a bell to you?”

“Eh, and what do you mean Atty.?”

“Well, there’s a saying that thief won’t say the truth and I guess it’s the same for you, Miss Li, though you’re not a thief you are still a perpetrator and from the clauses, I mentioned just now, all of it you violating it and to refresh your mind. Let’s see the video on the screen, last May you’ve been eavesdropping on the M’dols Team discussion not thru passing by but on purpose and you only leave after they are done discussing for the meantime we are not yet what are you going for what you hear but let me warn you that CA Entertainment will be your enemy if you dared to leaked. So next, Clause 1.1.1, Miss Li, you are a signed artist of CA Entertainment but why is it you are a signed artist of Klea J Entertainment in T Country, well they already void your contract last few months ago but it still exists while you are an existing artist of CA Entertainment?”

“What?” Danni got surprised since she just knows it now.

“Oh, so it means you are not yet aware of that but I guess you’re underestimating the Klea J Entertainment, did you not know that the J of Klea is Jang and it’s had a connection of the Head Family of Jang, are you?”

“.....” Danni got speechless because she’s not aware after all she’s the one who signed the contract without reading and without letting her know her Manager.

“Well that’s not our problem and so now for the last clauses that I mention, Clause 2.5.6 and based on what we check from the Accounting Department, indeed you forwarded the 15% Share to CA Entertainment as your agent but then you failed to forward the 15% Share to Manager Ban who is the assigned Manager of yours, for the 2 years since your debut you forward 15% Share to Manager Ban but then it stops on the 3rd year and so on, so now are you still expecting that we the Management and the legal counsel team going to renew your contract knowing you breaching the contract not just once but twice?"

Her true colors got exposed "What? It must be because of that bitch, how dare she is? That Manager Rei just because I got her dirt she's now ruining my career, how dare she is?"

Lina being a true friend of Rei, asks and said to Danni "and why it's because of Manager Rei? Did she tell you to breach the contract? Did she instruct you to sign another company, not to forward the 15% share to your Manager, and to eavesdrop on their team discussion? She didn't, right? And so why are you so hostile towards Manager Rei? Is it because she's Mr. Jun's wife and you happened to be Mr. Jun's ex-girlfriend, right? We'll Miss Li, though I'm not here when that happened still I heard that you are the one who initiates the break up with Mr. Jun and witness by the M'dols Team just because he is not famous enough compared to you and now he is famous, you are assuming that Mr. Jun did it just for you, Miss Li I guess you need to face the reality and stop being a delusional one. So now, you may leave because you are not a CA Artist anymore and to advise you please stop what are you planning to do because not only Manager Rei is your enemy but the whole of CA Entertainment, that's a warning but if you don't then try us and we will see who laugh at the end. Manager Ban stays here.

"Who are you to tell me that one, huh? Are you the owner ..." Danni going to retort but got interrupted by Lina with a very stern voice, well she's a former officer so that's expected of her.

"The door is open and we don't want to listen from ungrateful brat even dogs know how to respect their owner.

"What..."

"Either you leave on your own or we will call a security to drag you out, your choice so which one?"

"I will curse everyone from ....." Lina didn't happen to get scared of her threat instead she retrieves to get her phone "alright, alright I will leave, and let's see who will laugh in the end."

"Yes leave now or else I will be the one dragging you out"

Everyone from the Management and the Legal Counsel Team along with Manager Ban and some CA Entertainment Personnel and artist who happened to pass by heard her evil laughs and her warnings “Ha, ha, ha, you just a Mere Artist Director and that bitch is just a Mere Artist Manager, well let’s see your end then along with CA Entertainment for having two bitches, ha, ha, ha”

Chapter 606 - Vol 8: Ch 606 – Didn’t listen to Lina’s warning.

Manager Ban suddenly shivers when she hears the witch and since she’s been treated kindly by Lina, she asks her with full concern.

“Uhm, Director Lina, will you be alright? She’s a Li after all”

Lina answered nonchalantly “of course I know that she’s a Li but what she didn’t know is I’m a Hwang.”

Except for Mr. Hwang and Atty. Kei “eh, so you mean.....”

“Yes Mr. Hwang is my father and not everyone knows of it since we are both strict to the rules, I’ve become Artist Director because I will know the foundation of CA Entertainment before I’m going to be the CEO, oh right not to brag I’m also a Lu now and related to the Li, the Li’s who’s the owner of JL Hospital so I’m not scared of her because I have 3 powerful families backing me up.”

“.....” Everyone got speechless.

“It’s rare for you to brag that I’m your father, huh”

“....” Lina got speechless this time since it’s the truth.

Then Manager Ban interrupts right away “I see so you will be safe from the witch family but how about Manager Rei then?”

“Don’t worry about her since she’s also back up with a powerful family, you might not aware of it but Manager Rei is back up with the Jang Head Family after all her younger sister is married to the heir of Jang.”

Except for Mr. Hwang, everyone got dumbfounded “eh?”

“Oh, right that’s a secret so please keep it to everyone since Manager Rei never uses the Jang Family to her own personal interest and she only treats them as a family member, not a powerful weapon.” Everyone nodded since that’s the Rei they know and Lina continued “so if got leaked, only these group of us can be the culprit for leaking it, understand?”

‘Eh, you’re the one who leaked it to us Director Lina’

Right away, Mr. Hwang asks his daughter though he already got an idea yet he still asks since not everyone knows why “enough with that Director Lina and so why did instructs Manager Han to stay here?”

“Oh, right I almost forgot that one and so Manager Ban please let us know how Miss Li treated you?”

“Eh..... that.....”

“Just tell us Manager Ban though I’m already aware that she bullied but it’s my assumption and didn’t hear it clearly from you, so let us know, okay?”

“Y—yes Director Lina and so this how Danni treated me.....” then she relays it to everyone how Danni bullied her [Manager Ban] after two years of her [Danni] debut and it’s started when they already at T Country because no one from the CA Entertainment monitoring her then by the time Manager Ban wants to resign, Danni will blackmail her using the Li’s family. Manager Ban is aware that Danni and the owners of JL Hospital are not related but then having a 5 chain Hotel in S Country is already wealthy compared to her who’s really a commoner, though her family members have small income it’s can’t be compared to a single account of the Danni so how much more if she’s going to oppose the whole Li and that’s the reason why she still stays to Danni’s side even knowing that she’s been bullied and mistreated by her. After her story, everyone is surprised and shocked after all Danni’s is a signed artist of CA Entertainment which known for entertainment has strict rules and regulations since they have a very strong screening of individuals including their personality and behavioral examination before debut. As for Lina she's that surprised to hear after all she already encounter many white lotus ladies and that includes her husband's ex-wife, so again she replied nonchalantly.

"Well that's expected since not only she's a Li princess but she also a Super International Star so that's two reasons alone can boost her ego and then she becomes like a delusional one because she still in love with Mr. Jun who become more famous than her which she misinterpreted that Mr. Jun do it for her sake and most of all Manager Rei existence suddenly appear out of nowhere so her real nature got exposed. Oh, right are you not going to sue her?"

Shaking her [Manager Ban] head and said: "no I can't sue her, after all, me and my family alone can't deal with Danni so as long as I'm not her Manager anymore then I will be glad for that."

"Well she's not already a CA Entertainment Artist and for now you will be vacant since Manager Rei is still on leave but don't worry since around August they will be new artists to debut so mostly you will be appointed from one of them, so are you alright with that?"

"Uh-uh and thank you, Mr. Hwang"

"You're welcome and how about you guys, do you still have to add or ask anything from Manager Ban?" Everyone shook their head "well that's all and so let's ....."

"Ah, Mr. Hwang, Director Lina, Atty. Kei and everyone" Manager Ban interrupted them.

And everyone answered in unison "yes, Manager Ban?"

"Uhm, how about the Management, are you going to sue Danni?" Everyone is now looking at Mr. Hwang's direction after all he is the CEO.

"Since Miss Li gives a fair share to CA Entertainment I don't have any complaint about that and we will just pretend that we didn't know about Miss Li breaching the contract which is happened to be the 2 Major Policy however if Miss Li didn't listen to Director Lina's warning then that's what she's looking because we the CA Entertainment will fight her fair and square" Mr. Hwang voice is more stern compared to his daughter.

“Ah, I see and if that’s happened then do you need my testament of how she’s bully me, Mr. Hwang?”

“There’s no need for that since you are afraid that Miss Li’s family might attack you so instead we find another solution for that and for your safety along with your family members please stay at the M’dols house for the meantime until it got cleared. I will be informed Manager Han’s about that so that you can be moved tonight”

“Eh, about that Mr. Hwang.....”

“It’s alright since it’s quite the CA Entertainment mistake for not monitoring the two of you, so just accept my arrangement in order for the Management to clear out our conscience, okay?”

“Y—yes Mr. Hwang”

“Good and everyone let’s dismiss”

“Yes Mr. Hwang”

Chapter 607 - Vol 8: Ch 607 – The Ban Family

The moment they got dismissed, right away Mr. Hwang calls Manager Han and informed about those matters and since the things of Team M’dols already cleared out before enlistment except the fixed furniture’s and the built-in appliances, Manager Han just got back to the CA Entertainment Premises again just to give the keys to Manager Ban.

As for Manager Ban, she got permission to leave and so right away she's going home for the first time to their family home since Danni been holding her up since then and finally going to meet her 12 years old son whom she leaves behind to her family members when her son still 2 years old that time.

Within an hour she arrives at their family home and it's a very commoner home that enough for a family of 8 to fit in. Manager Ban is the eldest among 5 siblings including her [1], her parents [2], her Younger Brothers [3], her younger sister [1], and her son [1] whom she conceived when she's 18 from her childhood best friend turn boyfriend that unfortunately died from illness without knowing the existence of their son. By the way from her son to her younger siblings they only have a gap of every two years. For example, her son is 12 and so to her sibling after her, her younger brother is now in his 20's.

The moment she steps on her doorstep, she's suddenly feeling scared and nervously knocking on the door after all it's been 10 years since the last time she saw her family members.

Knock, knock and knock. Manager Ban heard the family voice of her mother and then her son.

"Max there's someone outside; can you open it for me? Mother is busy while everyone is also busy studying"

"Yes, Mother" and right away Max opens the door that caught him off guard now standing in a daze.

"Max"

".....you're late Mommy," said in a very loud voice that everyone stops what they're doing and goes right away to them.

"Yeah I know and ....." before she's going to apologize, her Son hugs him right away then heard him.

"Whatever reason you have I can forgive you Mommy and at least you didn't forget about us but then Mommy are you aware that money is not important to me instead your existence is more important to me?"

"Yeah I know and ....." Manager Ban got interrupted again by her Son.

“Don’t apologize Mom it’s not your fault and I don’t know why but I know it’s not your fault, it’s not your fault, so don’t apologize, okay?”

“...” Manager Ban just got speechless and hugging her son tightly.

“Mommy I can’t breathe and .....” This time Max got interrupted by his family members.

“Naomi / Sis you’re back”

“Yes I’m back but everyone please pack your things and just pack your important things, we will temporarily move out today”

“Eh?” Except for her Son, everyone got surprised and dumbfounded.

“I will explain later”

Her Mother got paranoid and assuming things “Na—Naomi don’t tell me you’re a runaway prisoner?”

“...” Manager Ban got speechless while her Son answered nonchalantly.

“Mother what do you think about Mommy? And if she really is then she will not go back here in the first place, right?”

“Ah, that’s right and alright everyone let’s pack up”

Right away the Ban Family Members just pack up their important things mostly their clothes and phone since the other appliances and furniture’s got denied by Manager Han since it’s won’t fit her car, at least from the earnings that she earns from the company and a small share from Danni’s she saves what she earns so she did buy a car for their family use and such things for her family members aside her Son’s needs. After packing, they are now on the way to CA Complex and Residences.

[CA Entertainment compensating their entire employees by following the standard compensation and as for the signed artists they got nothing from the CA Entertainment since every expense before debuting that needed from the artist are all shoulders by CA Entertainment such as meal allowances, travel allowances, and likes so when the signed artists got to debut automatically they will get the 70% from each of their signing events and dividing fairly the 30% to the signed artist's Manager and Agent.

For Example, The M'dols one signed the contract as a group

Members will get 70% and each member will get 11.67% to equally divided the 70% share meanwhile the Agent [CA Entertainment] and the Managers [Han, Chi, Li, Hwang, and Rei] will get 30% so each of them will get 5% to equally divided the 30% share.

=2,000,000 Sean – Signed Contract <233,333.33 – Share for Each Member and 120,000 – Share for the agent and Managers each>=

And as for signed contract as individual

Tae will get 70% alone and the 30% share will equally divide to his assigned Manager for that signed contract and the Agent.

===1,000,000 Sean – Signed Contract <700,000 – Share for Tae and 150,000 – Share for the agent and 1 Assigned Manager each>===

And that's how they equally divide their share but then for Manager Ban, she didn't get the equal share because Danni's will get the 10% share from Manager Ban so, in other words, 80% will be hers, 15% for the Agent and 5% for Manager Ban

For example ===1,000,000 Sean – Signed Contract <800,000 – Danni's Share, 150,000 – CA Entertainment Share and 50,000 – Manager Ban Share>===

So luckily Manager Ban's still received her Semi-Monthly Income from CA Entertainment or else she can't support her family members especially her Son]

“Sis Nao, where are we really going and what’s the reason for suddenly moving?”

“You will know it where and I will explain later”

“Oh, I see”

“Sis Nao-Nao, you are not really a runaway prisoner, right?”

“I’m not and you just watch too much drama Mai”

“Eh but then brothers said that maybe you killed someone and that’s why you’re not serving that someone now”

“Hey, the three of you, what are you talking about to your sister, huh?”

“Well Sis Nao you’re a Manager of an Artist so mostly you have an artist assign for you so what if that Artist is a hypocrite one so that artist deserves to die, so Sis Nao, did you killed your assigned artist, did you?”

“...[Manager Ban got speechless since they got it right but why she needs to kill Danni knowing that she won’t benefits by killing her instead she will only dig her own grave if she will, so she replied to her brother nonchalantly] and so if I killed my assigned artist, what will happen to all of you if I got in prison, huh?”

“...” Her three brothers got speechless.

“Sis Nao-ao killing a person is a bad thing and did Mother and Father teach us to be a good one even someone hurting us, right? And then, and then if you got in prison then who will help Mother and Father for our daily expenses since we are still studying? And then, and then Maxi won’t see you again, right?”

Right away the three brothers comfort their younger sister before the elder one going to explode “relax Mai, Sis Nao didn’t do anything and it’s only our assumption, okay?”

“Are you sure?” Mai got suspicious of her three elder brothers.

“Uh-uh and if we lie then Sis Nao is not with us today, right?”

Right away Max tell bluntly to his young aunt and only call her name because Mai said so because she is still young “Mai you know what if you keep acting like that nobody will like you and stop being childish by repeating your words like and then, and then, okay?”

“Grrr..... So what Maxi? I’m still 14, okay?”

“Yes you are already 14 but you’re already a Teenager, right?”

“Indeed am I but so what Maxi?”

“Well as I said a while ago if you keep acting like that then nobody will like you, you know”

“So what I’m still 14 so I’m still young not compared to these three brothers of mine. Look Bro Liam is already in his 20’s then Bro Mao is 18 while Bro Al is 16 yet the three of them still single, so what’s wrong with me being 14 then?”

“....[Max almost got speechless] yeah you’re right and you win Mai”

“Well I always win”

The three brothers wondered in sync ‘no, you didn’t win Mai and it’s just that Maxi won’t fight you back because more importantly, you are his Aunt’

While Manager Ban interrupts them right away “right speaking about your age, Liam and Al both of you are graduating students, right?” Liam for his tertiary level while Al for his secondary level.

“...” Both got speechless while Mai laughing at her brother’s predicament and at the same time Max controls his laugh.

Seeing everyone’s reactions, Manager Ban already has an idea what’s wrong and just guess it “so don’t tell me both of you got repeated a year and you will only be a graduating student next year?”

Both Brothers replied proudly “bingo” which got Max to laugh hard.

“Ha, ha, ha, I don’t really know why you are so proud of that Bro Liam and Bro Al” the three brothers also didn’t want Max to call them Uncle so Max calls them Bro.

“.....” Both Liam and Al got speechless because they don’t know if they got insulted or got pitied by their own nephew.

“Forget about that Maxi because we won’t really get what they are thinking after all they are only Basketball Genius and an idiot for all the things that are not about Basketball”

“And what do you mean by that Mao?”

“I mean what I mean after all I’m already a graduating student of Teaching Course while Maxi will be Grade 10 this coming July, see both of us are skipping two grades though Mai didn’t skip grades at least she maintains her 85 marks unlike you two, so are you sure both of you are really from the Ban Family Members?”

Chapter 608 - Vol 8: Ch 608 – The Ban Family 2

Hearing some taunting words from Mao both brothers reacting at the same time and right away complaining it to their parents.

“Mother and Father, Mao is at it again”

“Not an idiot but always complaining to mother and father”

Both said in sync “so what? And by the way, Mother, are we really a Ban after all only the two of us from the siblings as the idiot one and we never get 85 marks since the highest we get is 76, so are we really?”

“Yes you are”

“Then why Mother?”

“That....” Mother Ban got speechless because she doesn’t know how to explain it since she doesn’t want to hurt Father Ban’s feelings and now looking to Naomi, the smartest among the Ban for help.

After seeing the looks from her mother, Manager Ban clearing her throat first and slowly explaining properly to her brother in order not to hurt her father’s feelings “Uhm, I guess it’s genetics Liam and Al.”

“Eh and how it becomes genetics Sis Nao?”

“Well Mother is smart but as for father, he kind of an idiot one but not a real idiot one since he never repeated a year though he never gets 90 marks at least he got 89 from PE and the rests of it are 76 so that’s why it’s genetics.”

“So that’s not our fault for being an idiot, Sis Nao?” Ask both Liam and Al.

“...eh, I guess?”

Then both brothers laughing proudly and Mao reminded them again “hey don’t be so proud because nowadays the company only looking for excellent workers and so you don’t need to relax that much.”

Liam replied proudly “no worries, no worries because if no one accepts me as their workers then I will just be a Basketball coach.”

Followed by Al “same to me and I will just be either an Assistant Coach or the Head Coach”

“...[Mao almost got speechless and said to them bluntly] Liam and Al, you know what, I kind of worried about the future’s of the two of you and also to your future family” Mother Ban, Manager Ban, Mai, and Max also agreeing to their mind.

Once again Liam replied proudly “that’s easy and I will look for an idiot wife then”

Again followed by Al “right, right or just like father we also meet a smart wife just like Mother, right?”

“.....” Everyone got speechless.

And for the first time Father Ban speaks “alright enough with that, so Liam and Al what’s your PE Marks?”

“Eh, why and what’s wrong Father?”

“Just tell me what your PE Marks is”

“Did I just a while that I and Al only got the highest marks of 76 so probably that’s PE Marks and the rests are 75”

“Then that’s not genetics anymore since I got 89 on my PE Marks during my school days”

“Eh, for real father?”

“Uh-uh”

“Sis Nao is not genetics for us for being an idiot one?”

Before Manager Ban reply, she realizes her father’s glaring at her as if saying to her: say its genetics and you won’t be my daughter anymore, let’s see. ‘Ha, ha, ha, Father, Mai got your childishness huh’ then replied to her brother as if she didn’t see her father’s glares. “Well, it won’t be genetics if you won’t get 89 for PE Marks so make sure you got 89 Marks for PE and it will be genetics for sure.”

“Eh, really Sis Nao, and are you sure?”

“Uh-uh, and everyone let’s go out now since we’ve arrived before father speaks and Father don’t worry since what I said is the truth so don’t be mad instead you will feel grateful since Mother still feel for you knowing she’s one of the top 10 of the class yet she only falls to you who always the top 1 list of the class last lists and only the two of your kids got your genes, so relax, okay?”

“Naoki, don’t worry about Naomi, she’s just too blunt, okay?”

“Yeah I know and just like you Mia”

“Right, right and I’m lucky that I got Mother genes, Father and so let’s go out now.”

“.....” Everyone got speechless including Father Ban because they really idolize Naomi for teasing their strict Father and aside from Mother Ban, only Naomi can do that bravely since everyone is afraid of Father Ban because he is really strict.

So right away, everyone hops out of the car while still speechless because of Manager Ban, and then suddenly all of them got gaped including Manager Ban since she never stays at CA Residences even Annex C because of Danni.

“Eh, we are staying here, Naomi, Sis Nao/Mommy/ Sis Nao-nao?” asks everyone

“... [almost got speechless] yeah I guess but just for temporarily”

“No problem even it’s only one day, I don’t have any complaint Sis Nao,” Liam said proudly.

“And for the first time I agree with you Liam” agreed Mao.

“So Sis Nao which floor we are staying on?”

“Let’s talk when we are inside, okay?” need to be cautious after all no one knows about the M’dols Members enlistment aside from the fans but as for Manager Ban, she only knows that nobody knows about this matters even the fans since no one told her this matter and only heard from their discussions today.

“Okay” agreed Al and then all of them entered the premises, as for the Security they already know since Manager Han informed them in advance. A few minutes later they arrived at the last floor and Naomi didn’t get confused about which room since Manager Han draws it for her so right away she opens the doors using the key then all of them got inside while got surprised because it’s bigger compared to their family home so all of them pinch their own selves except Naomi since she has already seen one from Danni’s own house. So after seeing her family member’s reactions she reminds them right away.

“Everyone we are only staying here temporarily and it’s related to why I ask all of you to pack your things right away because somehow I offended someone but I didn’t really offend her because she’s the one who’s at fault but she never thinks that way.....” She pauses because she didn’t know how to start explaining.

Before everyone going to react, her Son’s Max hug her and said to his mommy “Mommy just tell us everything and don’t hold it back, okay?”

“Uh-uh and Max you are just really like your Father, who always sense something’s wrong with me”

“I see and that’s good then, so tells us everything before Daddy going to scold me in my dream, okay?”

Then right away, she tells everything to her family members that leaving them shocked and dumbfounded because they heard about Danni achievements, most of them loved her as a Super International Star but they did know that Naomi is her agent but not with Max because he feels something wrong with her every time he watches her on-screen and one time he even fights with his classmate who treat Danni’s like the goddess that he rebut right away that she might a witch, a real witch but his classmate never listen to him and so they fight. Fortunately, it happens when it’s already the end of the class and they fight on the road pavement when suddenly Danni’s commercial appears on the billboard so both of them didn’t get called at the guidance counselor but now Max just know why he never likes her and it’s because his Mommy got bullied by her.

So after hearing his Mommy story, he suggested right away “then Mommy please resigns right away, okay?”

“No need for me to resign”

“Eh?”

“Because she’s not a CA Entertainment Artist anymore and so right away the CEO decides to let us stay here temporarily because we will be the number one target of her”

Chapter 609 - Vol 8: Ch 609 – Didn’t listen to Lina’s warning 2.

Afterward, the Ban Family Members are chatting and talking about Naomi’s bad experiences with Danni then putting their things neatly. M’dols House has 5 rooms but the Ban Family only use three rooms, 1 for the parents, 1 for the boys and 1 for the girls [Max decide to sleep beside his Mommy because he really misses his Mommy too much] so then after settling their things, they eat their dinner since at exactly 5 pm, the security inform Manager Ban that there’s a food delivery for them with a note. Naomi got confused but still accept the food and now already at the house.

“Where the foods come from?”

“I don’t know guys but there’s a note on it so lets me see it first” and Naomi retrieves the notes while everyone standing at the back of here so that they can read the note.

[To Manager Ban and the Ban Family Members

Enjoy your stay at M’dols House and even it’s only temporarily please feel free to feel like it’s yours.

These foods are your housewarming gifts and hope all of you will like them.

From: The M’dols Team Managers]

[PS: The note was written and same the food ordered personally by Manager Han but since he is a loyal married man, he used the M’dols Team Managers named in order not to be misinterpreted by the Ban’s Family after all Manager Ban still a single lady.]

“Eh, M’dols you mean this house is M’dols House?” everyone asks in sync.

“Everyone I didn’t know that all of you are fans of them”

“Mommy we are not their fans it’s because we are not their official fans or unofficial it just that we know them because we always watch them on TV” Explain by Max.

“Right, right Sis Nao-nao and Maxi even want to meet Manager Rei because aside from Goddess Li [not the witch Li], Manager Rei is Maxi, next goddess”

“Hey, shut up Mai, and Manager Rei is not my goddess, it’s just that I want to meet her personally in order to see how pretty she is”

“Eh, how rare for being you like this and seeing you being embarrassed Maxi?”

“.....” Max got speechless

“Max she’s really pretty and she can be on par with Goddess Li but then you still didn’t meet Goddess Li personally, right?”

“Eh, [suddenly got shy but still replied to his Mommy] a—about that Mommy I already meet Goddess Li and it happened 8 years ago during Mao school event since Goddess Li got invited to be the host of School Event that I accidentally bump into someone while running and having ice cream on my right hand luckily that someone is Goddess Li and she didn’t get mad at me even the ice cream land to her dress instead she helps me stand on my feet again” shyly admit since Goddess Li is the one who apologized first before Max when in fact it’s his fault.

Naomi already imagined that scenario and seeing her son’s reaction she already got it so she said to her son “well as expected of Goddess Li after all she starts from scratch and so after she apologizes to you, did you also apologize?”

“Uh-uh and she said to me that I need to be careful running around because what if I bump into a scary Auntie or Uncle and won’t know what will happen then so starting that day I’m not running anymore if I have ice cream”

“I see and that’s so like you Max...” Naomi got interrupted by her two younger brothers who are very late to react.

Both Liam and Al said in sync “eh, the M’dols huh and the known pretty man, I see”

Mao retort right away “the two of you are too late and what about it?”

“No comment Mao and we only said the known pretty man, that’s all so don’t get mad, okay?”

“Now, now and enough with that guys and let’s eat now after all the foods been special orders by the Team M’dols Managers, right?”

“Right” and everyone eats for the first time in the M’dols house.

After eating, everyone is now seating on the couch. All the kids are now studying and no escape from both of basketball genius since Naomi is with them now and so while the kids are studying the a.d.u.l.t’s members are just surfing their phone using Naomi Wi-Fi connection since they are still awkward to use the things which they didn’t property owners. After almost an hour, the kids take a break and so they are now using the phone then suddenly out of nowhere Mai calls her Sister’s attention.

“Sis Nao-nao”

Stop what she’s doing and ask her younger sister “yes Mai?”

“Witch Li post something to her SNS Account” already calling Danni’s a witch because she bullied her beloved sister.

“.... [Naomi almost got speechless but she gets who’s the witch Mai mention] and what she post about?”

Mai read it loudly. [Hu, hu, hu, I’ve returned here to renew my contract yet I only heard that my contract is not renewed and I know nothing why but I heard that it’s because of Manager Rei] that’s what she said that it become trending after posting 10 minutes ago and also it gains a lot of likes, shares, and comments.

Oh right the trending comments are like these

[Eh, Manager Rei, you mean the wife of M’dols Woo?]

[So this is the true nature of Manager Rei, huh and just because you are pretty Miss Li, Manager Rei targeted you because she’s afraid. Afraid that M’dols Woo will be swayed by your beauty and Manager Rei will be living alone when her husband notices you, so she didn’t renew her contract for her own personal interest, what a selfish woman she is.]

[CA Entertainment, we need a legal reason for why Miss Li contract not renewed or else we assume that Manager Rei have some indecent relationship with the CA Entertainment Directors after all why Manager Rei is the reason for Miss Li not renewed contract when in fact she's only a mere manager, so give us proper explanation]

[Miss Li tells us the truth after all CA Entertainment is known to be treating their employees and artist fairly but hearing this one from you, I guess CA Entertainment also hiding their true nature]

[Miss Li no need to treat CA Entertainment kindly because they priority Manager Rei compared to you who helps CA Entertainment grow for more than decades yet they listen to whatever Manager Rei dictates. They will deserve to be crushed down by both Manager Rei and CA Entertainment, so tell anything that you know because we will fully support you so don't be scared because they deserve it.]

Mai stops reading and informs everyone "there's many more Sis Nao-nao but I can't tolerate reading it because Manager Rei is not a bad person instead she's the one who is a bad person, a real witch."

Naomi got amused by her sister's reaction so she asks her amusingly "is that so? But you never meet Manager Rei, right?"

"Uh-uh Sis Nao-nao but Maxi said that Manager Rei is a good person and you can tell it right from her face which full of honesty"

"I see and....."

"Sis Nao-nao please helps Manager Rei and she's not involved at all yet the witch targeting her"

"No worries and let us the a.d.u.l.ts handle it or rather let the CA Entertainment handles it since I'm still waiting for my new assigned artist, okay?"

"Okay"

Then Naomi wonders to her mind only 'so she really didn't listen to Director's Lina warnings, huh. Well, she's really digging her own graveyard this time after all she barks without knowing that the peoples she barks are also protected by a loyal dog not compared to her who is just a spoiled dog who only know to barks and brag that she's a spoiled dog.'

On the other hand, Max looking at her Mommy worriedly and said right away to her "Mommy, you don't need to feel worried about that witch, okay? After all, that witch who you serve does not really deserve your care so don't do anything to protect her, okay?"

"Silly child, I didn't retaliate to her because it's bad to do so and it's also for our sake but this time I'm not that idiot to protect her after all it's her fault for not listening and most of all for not realizing that she's the one at fault"

"I see and that's good then"

Chapter 610 - Vol 8: Ch 610 – The witch continue attacking.

On the next day, CA Entertainment never replies to the accusation of Danni because if they did then it looks like they just stepping an ant who just happened to pass by so they wait until the ant fully biting them means they wait until all Danni's have got exposed.

On the other hand, Danni's feel satisfied after knowing that CA Entertainment didn't reply about her accusation and right now she's on cloud nine because she thinks that it's really because of that bitch [Manager Rei, since she thinks that Rei is a bitch] fault without thinking that it's her fault for breaching the contract. She waits until lunchtime but then she still found nothing about CA Entertainment so again she posts another statement to her SNS Account.

[I'm a loyal Artist of CA Entertainment but now I've been thrown like rotten garbage, CA Entertainment is this how you treat me who's been an artist in your company for 12 years? Or I'm really not comparable to the Artist Manager of CA Entertainment, who is Manager Rei since she also happened to be a pretty one, right?]

Again her post becomes trending again, it also has many likes, shares, and comments by many citizens of S Country but still, CA Entertainment didn't respond again. So every day Danni's posts always become trending.

[Day 3

I will only shut my mouth if CA Entertainment will give me reasonable reasons]

[Day 4

Since CA Entertainment never gives me reasonable reasons then sorry for not shutting my mouth and so I guess I already know why Manager Rei is targeting me and it's because I'm Tae's ex-girlfriend. Yes, the Tae I mention is none other than the M'dols Member Jun Tae Woo but Manager Rei you don't need to target me after all it's already in the past and you are Tae's wife, so be a professional one.]

After this post, everyone interest got pique so they are now looking for updates about this matter after all it's about Tae matters while at the Ban Family Members everyone interest got pique but different from everyone since they were all dumbfounded and shocked but then before they react all of them just heard Naomi this one.

"Don't ask me if it's true or not since it's really the truth that the witch was Mr. Jun's ex-girlfriend. Even I, can't believe that Mr. Jun used to like the witch but I guess he just blind that time and as for targeting who, it's the witch targeting Manager Rei, so right now let's just us stay and observes what will happen to the bitch, okay?" Everyone nodded and Naomi already calling Danni's a witch after all her siblings and Max will only believe that she still feels concerned for her if she won't call her a witch so since she didn't then call her a witch is too easy for her.

On Day 5 and Day 6, the witch didn't post anything but on Day 7, she goes out from her house [own house] since she still didn't inform her family members knowing that CA Entertainment still no response to any one of her accusation so she's targeting Rei first since she thinks she's only a mere manager without knowing that it will be too late for her to inform her family members and as for Rei she only heard the entertainment news after attending the mass with Ken and Ellyn.

Danni is aware that some entertainment media already know where she lives and so she goes out on purpose to personally got interviewed by them. So she guesses it right since the moment she goes out she's been surrounded with a lot of entertainment reporters and only asks about Manager Rei like why Manager Rei targeting her and such things. As for her being a white lotus then it's easy for her to do and replied as if it's really the truth.

[Day 7

Reporter 1: Miss Li, why Manager Rei targeting you?

Reporter 2: Miss Li, from what we know you've never meet Manager Rei since you just back here so why Manager Rei targeting you?

Reporter 3: You're Mr. Jun's ex-girlfriend but why Manager Rei still targeting you when in fact she's already Mrs. Jun?

"Everyone please ask me one by one, I'm only one here, and yet you are so many here but I guess everyone is really curious why Manager Rei is targeting me right? [Everyone nodded] well it's because I hold some dirty secrets of her but that not's me to reveal it after all it's her personal matter because what I want from her is to be a professional one. So Manager Rei you don't need to try to target me to protect yourself instead you really need to be a professional one and so please let my contract renewed or else I will reveal your dirty secrets before clearing your name, so which one of your choice? I will wait for your response Manager Rei in one week and that's all everyone". Then get inside her house again leaving the reporters in confusion and then it become trending again.]

On the other hand, after attending the mass Rei, Ken, and Ellyn on the way home just happened to pass by and the one who first notices the witch is Ken.

"Auntie Rei, Auntie Rei"

Still stuck in traffic and replied to Ken "yes Ken?"

Pointing on the billboard viewing the recoded interview of the witch "that lady is been called by Bro Rick a witch so let' see if she's really a witch, okay?"

“Hey Ken calling a person a witch is a bad thing you know”

“Oops sorry but let’s just watch it, okay Auntie?”

“Okay” and slightly opening the window but still didn’t see who’s Ken mention since she park the first at the safe road before slightly opening the car window “so who’s that lady that got called by.....” Rei got cut off since she now heard the reporter’s questions.

“Eh, Auntie who did they mean Manager Rei? Ah, it’s you Auntie since they mention Mr. Jun and Mrs. Jun” said both Ken and Ellyn

“Shh and let’s listen to it first, okay?” both nodded.

After hearing her answer, Rei right away is signaling Ken and Ellyn to quiet since she’s now calling Lina through on hands-free mode.

Ring, ring, and ring

“Yes hello, Rei and you’re calling me now because you just know that your name becomes trending nowadays, right?”

“... [Rei almost got speechless and asks] did you watch her interview?”

“Oh I did and so what’s this dirty secret she’s talking about?”

“..[then Rei tells her everything that Danni’s discovered and it’s just a misunderstanding but she got so confident after collecting fake shreds of evidence that cause Lina to laugh hard] so now Director Lina I ask you when you are going to clear up these things huh?”

“Still early Rei and we still didn’t get what she all got so for now let’s just wait for that. As for you, you just need to enjoy your leave while you’re at it since you will be busy after giving birth. Oh, right I will call you when is the right time for you to respond, okay?”

“I will only respond after giving birth so maybe it will be taking a long time for me to respond but I guess it will be interesting to know what she got so let’s just wait.”

“Wow, Rei since when did you become a challenger when in fact you will strike right away?”

“....if I’m not pregnant then I might strike already”

“Ha, ha, ha, right and are you not asking about this renewed contract?”

“Well the fact that I’m not even aware of renewal of contract then I guess the company didn’t renew her contract and as for the reason, of course, it must be breaching the contract. Even my presence there and then she knows that she breached the contract then, of course, I won’t consider renewing it if even if she asks me to pity her since it’s her fault for breaching the contract in the first place. Alright, Lina just inform me everything so I won’t be left behind, okay?”

“Okay and promise you won’t do anything about it, okay?”

“Promise, after all, I’m pregnant and Tae is not with me so I need to be careful.”

“Good”
