

Last Man 70

Chapter 70 - Scheme against Rei

On the first 5 days Secretary Han give Rei an examination about Sean Language that he didn't even teach this to her but well he really underestimated her because Rei is also self studying. After completing the design for the Security and Protection of S Country Government Sites she send it right away to Mr D on the third day so that she can focus more and study well.

"Secretary Rei here and answers this until lunch time and no cheating. I will be here to monitor you"

"Yes Secretary Han"

Rei received the sheet's from him and notice that his questions are not being teach by him.

"By the way Secretary Han who will check this paper?" Rei ask because it possible that he will check it thoroughly.

"One of the Company Legal Representative and he will be here on lunch time"

"Oh, thanks" then Rei answered right away.

'Let's see if you pass this one. Ha, ha I didn't even teach you this one'

'What's wrong with him that he became like this suddenly? Well, let's see if you tried to lie that I'm cheating. Glad I have a hidden CCTV's in this unit' Rei think while answering the questions.

That's right, she received her salary and her pays for the security and protection, so yesterday instead of Sunday Rei bought CCTV's sets for her safety using the salary she receives from the company. 3 cameras in the living room, 2 cameras in the guest room and 2 cameras in dining area. She already has a permit from the management of the building and of course CEO Hwang is aware of it but she still didn't meet him because the permit was done by the building management. Only the unit owner, building management and CEO Hwang will know if the unit has some changes.

Rei has CCTV recordings while Han is taking a video for his evidence if happens that Rei will be cheating perhaps. But to his disappointment Rei didn't cheat even once because Rei is not cheating and is advancing her studies. She answered seriously, before 12 the legal representative arrived, Han was the one opening the door while smirking then left his phone on purpose.

'Let's see and now for sure you will cheat' he got back after 30 minutes and said to Rei.

"Are you done Secretary Rei?" "Done cheating?"

"I'm done Secretary Han" 'you just back because you thought I will cheat since you know that you didn't teach me this one that appeared in your questions'

"Good and Secretary Rei this is Representative Lin, he will be the one checking the papers"

"Oh, okay and Good Afternoon Representative Lin"

"Same to you Secretary Rei but before I check your papers I need to ask Secretary Han"

"Go ahead Representative Lin"

"Secretary Han have you recorded a video of her during answering these papers because you know me that I hate cheaters the most"

"Yes Representative Lin, I have" he got his phone while looking at Rei. 'You're no escape Secretary Rei'.

Lin is very strict and conscious about cheater so he watch the whole videos without fast forwarding the video. Almost 4 hours that his done watching the video's and now checking Rei papers. Both Lin and Han already eat their lunch during the time he arrives while Rei didn't bother to eat because she's making sure that they didn't do anything behind her back eventhough she had CCTV recording but both of them are not aware of it, so she needs to be cautious.

"Good that you did not cheat Secretary Rei and I will check youre paper's now"

"Go ahead Representative Lin"

Han can't believe 'impossible, impossible how she didn't cheat? Maybe she just answers whatever it is and taugt she will get it right' his expressions changes and Rei notice it.

"What's wrong Secretary Han?" Lin heard her and stop for a moment then ask him also.

"Are you alright Secretary Han?"

"I'm alright Representative Lin and Secretary Rei"

"Oh" they said in unison. Lin continue checking Rei paper's while Rei just observing them and several minutes pass Lin done checking her papers

"Good, you got it perfect Secretary Rei and you don't miss anything."

"What, perfect?"

"Why are you so surprise Secretary Han? You're Secretary Rei Mentor, so you must be proud of her. Am I right?"

"Uh-uh you're right but I just never expect that Secretary Rei is diligent enough. And it's almost 5 let's go now Representative Lin."

“Alright and once again congrats Secretary Rei”

The two leave from her unit while Rei continue self studying in case there’s something more for Han scheming. Han directly go to his unit while Lin reporting to CEO Hwang. Awhile ago Lin is acting like nothing but behind this he know something amiss about Han, so he call CEO Hwang when he already inside in his car and report everything.

“Yes Representative Lin, how’s the language test of Secretary Rei?”

“She got it perfect and perfectly no missing but there’s something going on with Secretary Han.”

“So that’s why Secretary Rei ask permission from the building management about CCTV installing on her unit”

“Eh, she have CCTV? I thought she just arrive not less than a month”

“It’s already her privacy and security Representative Lin. For now pretend you didn’t know and let’s just observe Secretary Han. This plan of him is like a test of Secretary Rei and let’s see how she deal him.

“Yes CEO Hwang”

On next day, Han invite two managers from the head department and instruct them that they will select one tourists spot each that he personally suggested. He give them at least 10 tourists spots then the two managers choices are Senians Shrine and S Falls.

Han, Rei and the two Managers are in the parking area, standing while talking each other.

“Are we really going there, Secretary Han?”

“What’s wrong Secretary Rei?” ‘Are you scared? Heh....glad that I didn’t teach you where this tourist spot located’

“No nothing it’s just that...”

“Go ahead Secretary Rei, just tell you’re worries and we will adjust”

“Sir both of you’re choices are in the opposite direction because Senians Shrine is in North Side while S Falls is in South. From here to Senians Shrine is 15km away while from Senians Shrine to S Falls is 35km away. So if we’re going now we need at least 18 hours for the time travel without taking a break or stop over, time right now is 8am so we will be back around 2am in the morning. Are we still going?”

“...” the three of them are speechless because they are full Senians but they didn’t realize the distance and travel. Han didn’t give up and said to her.

“Then let’s go first to Senian Shrine and tomorrow will be S Falls.” ‘Do you think I will give up easily? I know you don’t know where it is”

“That’s a good idea Secretary Han, now Sir and Secretary Han please hop in”

All of them hop in inside the car, the two managers at the back, Han on driver’s side while Rei is the one driving using Han car.

On their way, the ride to Senians Shrine are so quite and silent leaving only the music and after almost 4 hours they arrive.

“We’re here Sir and Secretary Rei”

“Oh, right”

‘How did she know?’

“By the way Sir and Secretary Han it would be best if we eat our lunch first”

“Oh, then please suggest where we going to eat Secretary Han”

“I think it’s better for Secretary Rei to decide”

“That’s right, that’s right”

“Let’s see.....” Rei try to think because she’s playing with Han.

‘Now, let’s see if you know a good shop and these two here are both picky eaters’.

“Well I need to be frank with you, I’m still new in here so I don’t know if it’s your taste but I will try. Follow me since it’s just a walking distance”

They follow her and Rei is right because it just a walking distance because 10 minutes they arrive in a simple and cozy restaurant. At first they didn’t heard about this shop and on first impression is really simple but when they get inside many foreigners and local are falling in line to be get served.

“Oh, we can’t eat and the line is long”

“Yeah right, Secretary Rei let’s find a new place”

“Secretary Han and Sir don’t worry, just stay there” without waiting for their reactions, Rei go to the reception area and said that enough of them to hear.

“Good Afternoon, I already have my reservation for Din Lou Rei and good for 4”

“Yes Ma’am, I will check first” then a few minutes “please follow me”

“I will call my colleagues f.....”

“We’re here”

“Ah that’s good then everyone please follow me” she guide them and let them seat before giving the menu.

All of them order depend on their taste, as for Rei she already book in advance, well it’s because Han is too predictable without even using her tactic by hacking his personal information, she can tell what’s going on his mind. They eat then one of the two managers pay the bills since his the senior among them. Leaving in the restaurant, go to Senian Shrine and then just sight seeings for half an hour. After looking around, they go home right away and they arrive 30 minutes before 5pm.

Next day, on the same accompany they go to S Falls. Just like what they did yesterday, they also repeat the same routine and Han didn’t give up of his scheming but will Rei just playing around.

During the cooking examinations, Han even invited two Master Chief so that Rei will be become the laughing stuff while Rei don’t know if she laugh or not.

‘Do he really need this? I will just become a secretary and yet how come we’re now here’

‘Ha, ha let’s see if you pass this two Master Chief that both known for being high standard and a critics’

“Alright Secretary Rei please prepare 3 main dish, 2 side dish and 1 dessert”

“Any kinds of ingredients are there and now we will give you 4 hours and you may start now”

They are now in the event hall of the culinary school of one of the chief. It’s a famous culinary school and have connections with CA International Company, this why Han can contact them all because he use the company name without knowing that his movement are already monitored by CEO Hwang. Rei start preparing the ingredients and now begin her cooking show. The Two Master Chief just watching her thru the screen monitor and can’t help but praise her instead of criticizing her.

“Secretary Han, this lady here is a professional”

“Yes by looking at her preparing the ingredients and cutting it, look she’s sure have talent for this field.”

After 4 hours, Rei done cooking and now the two master cheif taste the foods that she prepare and what Rei receives are all praises and compliments then suddenly she receives an invitation.

“Secretary Rei here and keep it, if you change your mind then call me and you will be automatically my apprentice”

“.....”

“Also this one Secretary Rei, it’s you’re choice if you want to be his apprentice or my assistant chief”

“.....”

Rei speechless and just receive their invitations then go home right away.
