Meanwhile at the backstage, someone is really restless and his team ask him since they didn't take it anymore.

"What's wrong Bro Tae/ Tae?"

“Can you guys tell me who are the fans attending the concert this time?”

“Manager Han have the list, why are you like this? Yesterday and today you are really restless Tae”

“Mmm” then see the Head Manager pass by “Manager Han?”

“Yes, what is it?”

“Can I see the list for attending fans?”

“Oh, if you’re talking about that, it the same as usual but yesterday and today we have additional and it’s from the company business department”

All of them react because it’s unusual “what?”

“It’s from Business Department and I’m also surprise”

“Who and where?”

“I don’t know but I guess it’s alright since it’s on the VIP Area, so maybe Mr Hwang is the one who give the ticket”

Tae said it mumbly, his teammates and members didn’t heard him “it must be My Rei, since I become restless yesterday and today”

“Eh, what is it Tae / Bro Tae?”

That’s right, yesterday she’s too excited that she only bring her wallet and keys. The moment she grab her pocket, she just realize that she forgot to bring her phone and not just one because she forgot the two phones in her unit. Rei still use the same personal and company phone then only use different number because her number in C Country cannot be used in S Country, so she apply for her personal number since the company number is provided by the company. Rei only bring her personal phone and grab from her pocket then take a photo of the members and including him. The lady notice her phone and realized something.

‘Shit.... She must be a heiress because the phone she have is the latest model and unit that just got release last year and I can’t afford it because it’s too expensive. Then here am I bragging the cost of tickets to her’

Unknown to her, Rei already use that phone for almost 4 years and it’s given by Mei. Both T Country and J Country are known and most popular in their Technology, so either T and J, they’re always release the latest model and unit per by year but it’s different on the country since they still need rights and doc.u.mentations for the products in order for the products releasing. In order to release her tension, the lady chat her again.

“Ah Miss, my boyfriend is looking at me, did you see?”

‘Everyone are looking to every directions, so that they can interact there’s fan even we are seating. This lady here, I don’t know what she’s thinking but did she think me an idiot? Did she think that I still believe her that her boyfriend is one of them?’ then suddenly feel that someone’s staring at her, she look around first then look at the stage 'did Tae staring at me? Nah, silly Rei don't be paranoid many beautiful ladies are here. Oh, better take a picture of him since it's a perfect angle.'

"Hey, hey did you see, did you see?"

"See, what?"

"My Boyfriend is looking at me again?"

Rei just ask politely "Who?"

The lady almost answered but then got interrupted of her phone and she answered then excuse herself.

"Excuse me Miss but I'm going now, my manager called me just now and just tell my boyfriend that I'm going ahead" then sneakily leave right away.

'Boyfriend? I don't even know who is it and wait, that lady don't have a boyfriend among them and why did she continue lying? Well who I am to her? I'm just a stranger and telling that she's lying, it's not worth for me to know' then Rei got interrupted because the fans are shouting.

"My husband is looking to me"

"My boyfriend is looking to me"

Then Rei suddenly realized 'ha, ha, ha that lady must be really a fan and maybe crazy in love whomever fan she is' thinking while smiling.
