Tae return and back to normal of being a silent and cold type opposites to being a talkative when Rei is with him. Their overseas concert tour and fan meetings already done for this year, so now the teams focus is for local concert, fan meetings and activities.

Meanwhile Rei just consume her vacations by staying in the house, attending mass or buying supplies goods for 3 days only because she got assigned for being the representative and in charge for evaluating the performances of her fellow co-workers either juniors or seniors.

For the whole month before the recognitions and awards ceremony, Rei travel all over the branches of CA International Company and do her task for evaluating them fair and square. Rei didn't even bother for the language barrier since all of the family from CA in Business Department know the Universal Language, so she doesn't any have problems about the language. For the whole month, Rei got to visit all the 280 branches with a thousands of employees of each branch but she didn't complain and just accept the task without asking or complaint.

Rei is so busy for this task, so without knowing of her knowledge, every night from the day she leave someone always standing outside of her unit and wait for her at least an hour but to his disappointment, he didn't saw a glimpse of her or even the changes from the door lock.

"Where is she? It's been three days since Rei got back to work after her vacation, right?" ask himself mumbly and then he try to press the doorbell again and wait.

"Ding, dong, ding, dong"

"Is she's not around? Geez, why I didn't ask her phone number?" he wait for at least an hour but he didn't hear any sound from inside of her unit even though he knows that all units in the CA Complex and Residences are all sound proof but he was sure that no one's inside because he didn't heard any sound from opening of the door and that's then he realize that the door is locked through outside.

"Where is she? It's almost midnight and wait don't tell me she stay in someone else place? No, no don't think about that, she's your woman Tae and believe her. Tsk,I will be back again and again until I see her after my teams are already sleeping."

Every night he visit at her unit, check and wait for an hour but only received the same responses by hearing no one's around and the door still lock at the same time.

For the whole three weeks, he did it every night and then one week left before Rei got back from her task, he start to feel nervous and getting more worried than what is he now. To release his anxiety, he didn't keep it quiet and just ask the team leader by referring Rei as that person.

The team are on standby before their Radio's live cast.

"Uhm Bro Yun" the teams all quiet after hearing him while the leader of the team answered him calmly.

"Yes, what is it Tae?"

"Uhm, I need to ask you Bro Yun, it's a person I know that person almost got hit by a car but that person said it's fine and nothing's wrong"

"That person will be fine Tae, as what that person said"

"Mmm.... but then what if it that person didn't appear for almost a month?"

After hearing it again everyone answered in sync but they have no idea that Tae is talking about Rei because they think maybe it's just someone they know or their friends.

"Maybe that person is in pain Bro Tae / Tae"

“That’s what I think first but that person house is always lock for almost a month”

One of his teammates answered “Then Bro Tae maybe that person is living to that person lovers or maybe that person family’s”

‘Rei family’s is in C City and My Rei doesn’t have a lover’.

“Bro Tae?”

“Mmmmm”

“Bro Tae, Bro Tae what if that person got killed without you knowing?”

After hearing it, everyone look to that members who’s asking that silly kind of question and all of them didn’t notice the shocked expression of Tae. The team leader turn his head to Tae and Tae is fast enough to change his expressions.

“Tae, don’t listen to Hu and his query is just kidding with you”

“Yeah that’s right Bro Tae”

“Mmmmm” ‘What if My Rei got killed or even killing herself because she’s lonely?’ but then got interrupted by Yun.

“Tae, if that person is the person you know then believe that person”

“Uh-uh” ‘Yeah that’s right, My Rei is My Rei so trust and believe her Tae’

Then everyone ask together “So Tae / Bro Tae, who is this person you’re talking about?”

They didn't get reply from him even Manager Wang didn't feel suspicious even though he almost hit Rei for almost a month by now and then one of the staff approach to them and said.

"M'dols be ready and the PD will now call you're presence" they just nodded and wait for the PD to call them. The PD called them and afterwards they begin their live casting and then again at night Tae always sneakily get out from their unit and visit her unit but again and again Rei still not around of her unit.

"Do I need to ask Mr. Hwang about My Rei? But then again what if Mr. Hwang will got an idea that I love her. No, no, that's a bad idea of yours Tae, just patiently wait and after this week and Rei still not here, then just Mr. Hwang about this and sacrifice by being discovered of your feeling to her. Right, right, I just wait her before I act without thinking."

Tae is busy with his schedules and the teams schedules then now Tae is busy with checking the unit of his love while his love is also busy with her task without knowing of his doings. Rei is so serious of her task because even though she just visit in C City Branch for at least 2 hours, she didn't visit her family even she misses them so much because she knows that this trip of her is for the company and as a serious of her, she already inform her family that she will visit the C City but just only for the task she got assigned and she can't steal time for escaping for meeting them up. Knowing Rei, the family of her understood right away even their shop is just an opposite direction and they know how serious Rei of her career.

After another week pass, Rei arrives in the CA Complex and Residences by riding a company service van and drop her off.

That's right, Tae didn't notice that her car is just parking in the parking area if her because his too nervous and almost think any possibilities what happened to her. He even forgot how capable Rei is because the only he think is what happen to her and where is she. He totally forgot that Rei is also genius one because he only think her safety and whereabouts.

Late at night and almost midnight Tae is still standing outside of her unit while Rei already riding the elevator and press the last floor

"Ding"

Tae didn't hear the sound of the elevator and just standing outside of Rei unit while Rei walk away from the elevator and then notice someone standing outside of her unit.
