

Last Man 88

Chapter 88 - Secretary Reina

She seated in the opposite corner and realize that her love rival for Secretary Han, what she thinks only eating in the corner. At first she didn't mind when she arrive but then got angry when she found out that she's not eating alone but with someone. She look again and then realize it's handsome man that he got jealous right away. She's a senior for 3 years but then she got defeated by this young lady who is 3 years younger than her and most of all not a Senian. She feels humiliated the moment she know that they almost sharing the same name and more humiliated when she become the Head Secretary in just matter of months compared to her experiences. She tried to act cool but then stand up right away when she didn't control anymore that her teams asking her.

"Secretary Reina where are you going?"

"To get water"

"But..."

"Are you ordering me?"

"I'm not Secretary Reina"

"At least you know" then she walk where she seated and pass them on purpose before interrupting them.

"Woah, Secretary Rei it's rare to see you here and most of all eating your breakfast here"

Rei pretend she didn't heard her to avoid a commotion and just continue eating.

"Pretending you didn't hear me and yet here you are flirting with a man" then looking to Tae "at least his looking good. But well too bad for you, now that you're already got tired of Secretary Han, so you're already flocking to someone else, so his your next victim. Well, well, Secretary Rei pretend to be an innocent one but deep inside you're a vixen hiding in your innocent pretense look."

Rei keep silent but she notice that Tae suddenly clench his fist, so she let have no another choice but at least to remind her.

"Rule # 40 : CA family from Business Department will not talk to their co Families about their private life.

Rule # 41 : CA Families must not spread a rumors that can damage the reputation of their co Families.

Rule # 42 : CA Families must respect to each other and especially to you're Superior.

Rule # 43 : CA Families must avoid creating or initiating trouble to their co-families.

Rule # 59 : CA Families are all welcome in the cafeteria and all of them are free of charge.

Rule # 60 : Failure to follow the 59 rules will be suspended for 1 day per rules violated and if didn't admit his/her mistake or without proper apology letter automatically kicked out.

I think Secretary Reina is aware of it, right?"

She became paler and paler everytime Rei remind the rules and that she stumble with her own words "tha—that"

"Secretary Meg did you record all of it?"

Meg is Rei assistant, so the moment Reina approach her, she automatically start recording their conversation and not just her but all Rei's Team. Head Secretary Department is Rei Teams and the moment she become their Head, she give a pen recordings of each from her teams instruct them to carry it everywhere and use it when it's necessary to prove that they didn't do anything. Even though it's only a pen recordings, you can't underestimate by its looks since it also record a video so that they can turn the table when someone telling them that they're making a fake recordings. Rei become weary of this because of Secretary Han doings that almost set her up if she didn't notice of it.

"Yes I recorded it all Secretary Rei and here" give the Pen to her.

"Thanks Secretary Meg, so Secretary Reina as you're Head Secretary you already disrespect me as you're Superior so you know the consequences and you must have a punishment as your disciplinary actions. This recording is prove that you violated at least 5 rules. I don't care if you spreading rumors about me outside in the company and all of us here are now standing within the company premises, so all of us here must follow the rules. It also applied to everyone, do you understand?" This is the first time that Rei shows her higher position to them.

"Yes Secretary Rei" except Reina because she doesn't believed what Rei said just now so she retort right away meanwhile Rei press the pen to continue recording when she notice her expressions..

"Recordings? Hah, what do you think of me for, an idiot? It's only a pen and it doesn't prove of my doings and Secretary Rei you reminding me about the rules and yet here you are violating it.

Rule # 45 : CA Families must not create a fake evidence or making excuses against their co-families, am I right Secretary Rei?"

Actually Rei don't want to get it big and don't want Tae to know that in Business Field is also a mess inside but different in the outside surface just like in the entertainment fields but since Tae almost exploded she doesn't have a choice and let him witness it instead. Actually Rei also did the same thing and press her pen recordings and in order to avoid being caught that she's like this by Tae she ask Meg instead. Rei also knows that all from her teams also did what her and Meg did. But unknown to her, Tae as being a certified stalker of her and seating in the corner with a glass wall, he saw Rei grabbing something on her pocket the moment this bit- approach his Rei.

"What now? You've become mute right away Secretary Rei, afraid that you're lying about your evidences?"

Everyone gulp especially from Rei's Team while Tae just observe his Rei.

“Trying to flirt of what Secretary Han taught you. You even poach this man by cooking food to him. Ha, ha you’re really an idiot Secretary Rei and yet here you are almost sharing the same name of me, you’re just a fake. Trying to lie that you’re not a Senian, who believes you, I bet you’re a Senian but just pretend you’re not. You only here for almost two years, who believes that you’re not a Senian when you are so fluent in Sean Language, did you think CA Families are all an idiot. Ah, that’s right everyone” she pause then Reina look to them, it become crowded because it’s almost 7:30 and all CA Families are here to eat, who will let go the opportunity with a special foods with a nourishment ingredients that it’s all free as long as you are a certified CA Families but only Rei who let this opportunity go. Rei is not an opportunistic person, she always pack her food, only select one simple dish and one bottled water and it’s always in lunch break.

When Reina called the attention to every one they listen attentively but just feel pity for Reina because they know who’s wrong and they know how Rei silent means.

“I think everyone doesn’t know but as you know Secretary Rei is just pretending and all of you become victims of her schemes, do you know why this Bit– here didn’t eat here in cafeteria everyday for almost two years? Ha, ha you don’t know about because you taught this Bit– is innocent, well let me tell you why because this Bit– was always sleeping of her sugar daddy”

“Are you done Secretary Reina?”

“Feel scared that I reveal you’re secret? Ha, ha, what are you going to do now, huh Bit–?”

“Are you done now or there still something you want to say?”

“There’s more, do you want me to reveal it?”

“Reveal whatever you want and I will listen to it. At least let me hear it”

“Acting Brave, then as you wish”
