

Life at The Top – Chapter 1472

What happened was easy to understand but was incredibly insulting.

When Greg said this, he did not react too much. After all, he was used to this level of humiliation. However, was he not still humiliated deep inside?

Now, he was not the good-for-nothing son-in-law living at his wife's parent's house. Back then, anyone could step on his head and bully him, but now, he was the boss of Blau Mobiles. He was in charge of so many people and tens of thousands of dollars in funding.

Even though Jasper was the one who gave him this, Greg discovered his self dignity and confidence during this process. He also found a life with purpose and goals.

However, all of this was almost destroyed by Vinny's slap.

Slam!

The loud voice of a palm on the surface of the desk shocked everyone.

Greg lifted his head to look over and saw Jasper's dark face.

"Is there anyone else doing business like this in this time and age? This is not a business, this is daylight robbery!"

"Does he think he's the boss? 5 million to buy Blau Mobiles? My first investment was 20 million in cash. To this day, I've invested about 38 million in this company in cash alone. I still haven't included the result of the research from a while back. Vinny is such a scheming rat."

Jasper had finally found an opportunity to vent the pressure and anger he had been facing recently. Now, he was going to release all of it.

However, even if this did not happen, Jasper would still slap Vinny back without hesitating after being met with a request like that.

"What's wrong with you?"

Jasper lifted his head and scolded Greg without hesitation.

“He made you come back with just one slap. You’re a man and you’re just going to let him slap you i? If he slapped you once, you should slap him back twice. Did you think he would kill you?”

Greg lowered his head and said timidly, “I was worried that I’d cause trouble for Blau Mobiles.”

“What trouble?”

Jasper’s tone was sterner now.

“Yes, I am the boss of Blau Mobiles, but you’re the person in charge of this company. You built this company with your own blood, sweat, and tears. If you’re so scared of everything, don’t start a business! Just go back home and look after your kids!”

A man like Greg almost burst into tears after being scolded by Jasper. His eyes were red and his head was lowered. His entire body was shaking gently.

It was unknown if he was angry or feeling humiliated. Eric did not even dare to breathe too loudly as he stood to one side.

He finally saw the big boss’ boldness and authority.

Greg was good at managing a team, but he was too soft. It might be because of his past experiences, but he would often make light of everything.

This was not a bad thing, but as the person in charge of a company, he needed to be either authoritative or calm depending on the situation. Unfortunately, Greg only knew how to be the latter and never the former.

After seine time, the employees in Blau Mobile became used to their boss being a yes man.

This was not good for a company's development in the long run.

However, Jasper was different. This statement caused Eric's scalp to turn numb. He felt hot air rising to his brain and he wanted so badly to go out there, grab Vinny, and slap him twice across the face.
