

Little Sweet 1451

Chapter 1451: Your mother, I, can't do it

"Move aside! We were hired by Boss Famous and will capture the old fart, Patriarch Yuan, tonight!" Taoist Devotee spoke with a forceful tone.

Only then did Ye Wanwan nod with consolation in her heart. They were finally acting properly...

"Blah, you d*mn quack! Since it's like that, we'll each serve our own masters and show off our true strength!" Spray of Flowers declared.

Then Spray of Flowers attacked Taoist Devotee's chest with his palm.

"You d*mn ladyboy, you dared to touch my chest?!" Taoist Devotee punched Spray of Flowers' face as he said that.

Spray of Flowers screeched. "I was just fooling around with you, but you seriously attacked me?! You messed up the make-up I spent hours on! Your mother, I, is going to fight to the death with you!"

In an instant, Taoist Devotee and Spray of Flowers tumbled together and all the chairs, desks, and stools inside the study were crushed and sent flying by them.

Upon seeing Spray of Flowers and Taoist Devotee dueling it out, Brick-moving Foreigner pointed at Iceberg Man, who was lying on the floor, and shouted, "Come! Let's fight! Come here, you!"

Iceberg Man merely adjusted his sleeping position and didn't seem interested in getting up. Seeing that, Brick-moving Foreigner continued to egg on, "Are you afraid of me? Why don't you pretend to be dead?! Why don't you get up if you're so capable?!"

Before Brick-moving Foreigner could do anything though, Iceberg Man suddenly pushed open the lid of his coffin and stepped into the coffin under everyone's eyes.

A second later, a "bang" was heard, and the coffin lid closed heavily.

Ye Wanwan: "..."

Brick-moving foreigner: "..."

"Boss Famous, this isn't my fault! You can't give me a bad rating for this!" Brick-moving Foreigner promptly turned around and looked at Ye Wanwan with a bright ingratiating grin.

Ye Wanwan wanted to say something but couldn't figure out anything to say.

On the other hand, Spray of Flowers didn't seem to be a match for Taoist Devotee and was suffering a little.

Spray of Flowers backed down and opened Iceberg Man's coffin. He looked at the placid Iceberg Man inside the coffin and said angrily, "Husband, help me fight him! He's serious!"

Ye Wanwan felt her head pound as she watched this scene. How long would this continue if they kept fighting like this?! Dawn was about to come!

"Spray of Flowers, Dead Man, I'll double however much money Patriarch Yuan gave you! Come and help me!" Ye Wanwan said.

The originally furious or sleepy duo turned energized within seconds of hearing that, and their eyes brightened.

"Ah... Sister Famous Ye, look at what you're saying... It's so vulgar to mention money with our relationship. My husband and I will definitely help you. Right, husband?" Spray of Flowers asked Iceberg Man, who finally sat up.

Iceberg Man nodded eagerly.

Patriarch Yuan jolted in fright upon seeing this. Everything would go downhill if these two deserted him!

"I'll triple however much this woman gives!!!" Patriarch Yuan hastily said.

"Sister Famous Ye, even though we have a good relationship, we're professional mercenaries with principles. Since we were hired by Boss Yuan, we must serve him single-heartedly, how can we jump ships suddenly... We can't do that. It'd seriously violate the mercenary principles. I'm sorry, your mother, I, can't do it!" Spray of Flowers said lamentably.

Chapter 1452: My good sister

"I'll pay quadruple." Ye Wanwan snorted.

"Boss Famous, with our relationship and your relationship with Captain, principles are bullsh*t! We're close like brothers from the same mom! We'll definitely help you!" Spray of Flowers looked at Ye Wanwan with a solemn expression.

"I'll pay tenfold!" Patriarch Yuan shouted angrily.

"Tenfold?!" Spray of Flowers swallowed his spit. "Boss Famous, sorry... We're principled mercenaries and can't be tempted by money!"

"Ah..." Ye Wanwan nodded. "I was planning to pay 100 million. Since he's paying tenfold, that's one billion, and it's two billion for two people. You should ask him for money first."

"One billion?!" Taoist Devotee turned to Patriarch Yuan in surprise. "Boss Yuan, I admire your character a lot, so Little Sweetie and I plan to jump to your side too... Let's settle the bill first. You definitely can't pay in cash, so let's pay by card!"

“Four billion?! What kind of insane joke are you telling?!” Patriarch Yuan’s expression shifted. He hadn’t seen four billion in his whole life, let alone paying four billion!

How many Yuan families could he buy with four billion?!

“This woman did this on purpose. Since she said she’ll pay one billion, fine! Ask her for money first!” Patriarch Yuan wasn’t a fool and exposed the key point instantly.

Taoist Devotee, Spray of Flowers, and their group turned to Ye Wanwan in the next second.

Ye Wanwan said, “Do you think my Fearless Alliance doesn’t have this tiny amount of money? It’s just four billion... Tomorrow, go to the Fearless Alliance’s finance department to retrieve your money.”

If it’s just four billion in some small country’s currency, it’d just be $40,000, which would be $10,000 for each person...

Spray of Flowers and Iceberg Man knew Ye Wanwan had become the president of the Fearless Alliance.

Spray of Flowers walked to Ye Wanwan and grasped her hand. “Ah... Sister, your hand is turning tenderer. It’s about to match this sister’s hand. Look at how smooth it is; it’ll make people jealous... Sister, we shouldn’t mention money with our relationship. Even if you give me $10,000, I’ll definitely help you, my good sister, let alone one billion!”

He turned to Taoist Devotee and Brick-Moving Foreigner and angrily said, “What are you standing around for?! Hurry and capture this old thing already! Could it be that you’re waiting for my good sister to do it herself, you trash?!”

Upon watching Spray of Flowers, who shifted faces faster than the sky shifted the weather, Taoist Devotee and Brick-Moving Foreigner looked at each other blankly. They both spat at Spray of Flowers inwardly before acting and captured the dumbfounded patriarch of the Yuan family. Then they threw him on the bed with his arms tied behind his back and rope looped around his neck.

“You... you two are violating the mercenary guild’s rules! I’m going to report you to the mercenary guild!!!” Patriarch Yuan shouted, enraged.

“Blah! You shameless old geezer! Look at how old and ugly you are, yet you still recruit mercenaries like other people... And you want to report us? You need to stay alive before you can report us!” Spray of Flowers chortled while staring at the tied up Patriarch Yuan.

Iceberg Man took out something from his coffin and slapped it onto Patriarch Yuan. Instantly, it was like Patriarch Yuan turned mute, and he couldn’t speak anymore.

Chapter 1453: Mutually-in-love gu

Ye Wanwan was at a loss of words. In all the years she had lived, this was her first time seeing someone using something as mystical as gu...

Ye Wanwan thought for a moment, but before she could speak, rhythmic marching could be heard outside the door.

“To the people inside, listen up! We’ve already informed Asura and Lord Asura. If you don’t want to die, immediately bring out our patriarch safely!” an elderly man shouted angrily outside the study.

Everyone from the Yuan family was alerted due to the large commotion inside the study, but their patriarch was restrained right now, so they didn’t dare to rashly charge into the study.

“Asura?”

Spray of Flowers was startled briefly before saying with a smile, “Lord Asura is a difficult opponent, and they have the advantage in numbers. We should flee now, or else we’ll be in deep trouble when Asura’s people get here.”

“That’s true. Most importantly, Captain doesn’t have any animosities with Asura, so it wouldn’t be good if we have any direct conflicts... How about we retreat...” Taoist Devotee also bobbed his head in agreement.

Their gaze landed on Ye Wanwan.

Ye Wanwan was this group’s moneybag, so they had to listen to her.

Ye Wanwan was about to say something when she heard the sound of rope ripping from the bed.

At the same time, Patriarch Yuan, who had struggled up from his binding, leaped up from the bed and kicked open the coffin near Iceberg Man before they realized what was happening.

Patriarch Yuan had seen Iceberg Man retrieve his gu insects from the coffin, so he knew this mercenary, who was a gu expert, stored his gu insects inside his coffin!

Only then did Spray of Flowers and Taoist Devotee regain their wits. They were scared witless when they saw Patriarch Yuan reaching into the coffin. Dead Man’s gu was all stored inside that coffin!

Patriarch Yuan released a tragic laugh and scooped up a handful of unknown gu with both hands before he was about to throw it at Ye Wanwan and her group.

What would happen to them if they were hit?!

However, Patriarch Yuan was smart. His actions were merely a feint, and he waited until they stopped moving before throwing the gu toward Ye Wanwan.

Ye Wanwan was caught off guard and felt her body turn numb, as though thousands of ants were crawling over her.

Patriarch Yuan's smile froze suddenly. He didn't expect a number of gu insects to burrow into his body while he picked them up. He felt like they were nibbling everything inside his body.

A few breaths later, Patriarch Yuan collapsed onto the floor like a slab of mud and oxygen flowed out of him as he turned into a corpse.

Meanwhile, Ye Wanwan had a deep frown on her face. Her body felt like an inferno was raging through it, and every inch of skin was unbearably itchy and bright red.

At the same time, upon seeing Ye Wanwan surrounded by the Yuan family, Big Dipper and Seven Star led the elites from the Fearless Alliance inside urgently and killed their way through to create an opening.

Chapter 1454: It has to be with someone I like

When Big Dipper and Seven Star charged into the study and saw Ye Wanwan looking like that, they were shocked.

"Sis Feng... what happened to you? Sis Feng, don't scare me..." Big Dipper cried out with a panicked expression as he stared at Ye Wanwan.

"D*mn... Don't tell me Boss Famous was freaking poisoned by the mutually-in-love gu...!" Taoist Devotee exclaimed, dumbfounded as he looked at Ye Wanwan.

Iceberg Man nodded, providing affirmation.

"It really was mutually-in-love gu..." Spray of Flowers clicked his tongue.

Anxiety flickered through Seven Star's face as he hastily asked, "What's mutually-in-love gu?"

Ye Wanwan touched the itchy spot on her body and looked at Spray of Flowers too. "Mutually in love...?"

Why did I freaking get shot even though I was lying down...?

Who would've expected this trouble to arise when everything was wrapping up?

However, this gu poison's name sounded rather romantic. It couldn't be some fatal gu, right...?

"Ahem, well, the mutually-in-love gu... its victims have to do... those shy things with the person they like... Otherwise... they'll die! And they'll die very miserably! Blood flowing out of all their crevices, ulcers covering their mouths—they'll have a tragic death!" Taoist Devotee explained.

"Doing shy things with the person they like?" Big Dipper looked perplexed. "What are shy things?"

When Big Dipper said that, the five other people, including Seven Star, all looked at him like he was an idiot.

“It is... the crucial step before your dad and mom produce you... Do you understand now...?” Brick-moving Foreigner explained in a friendly manner.

Big Dipper nodded, finally understanding the meaning of “shy things.” However... why did this explanation sound so unsatisfying...?

“It can be resolved as long as she... does... does that thing?” Seven Star looked a bit awkward as he asked with a light cough.

“In theory, that’s the antidote to this gu.” Spray of Flowers shrugged with a nod. “So this gu isn’t considered some fatal gu and is fairly easy to counteract. Don’t worry!”

Ye Wanwan wore a complicated expression. “Wait, you said it has to be done with someone I like to counteract the gu?”

Spray of Flowers nodded. “That’s right. You can take care of it through a bang with someone you like! So this gu poison is utterly useless!”

Ye Wanwan: “...”

Ye Wanwan wanted to choke Spray of Flowers to death as she listened to his relaxed tone.

*F*ck! The one I like... I have no idea where the one I like is?! Who should I get to relieve the poison?!*

Isn’t this telling me to wait for death?

Ye Wanwan forcefully endured the increasingly intense itching inside of her and took a deep breath before asking, “Is there a time limit?”

Spray of Flowers rubbed his chin and answered, “12 hours. It should be enough for you to find dozens of people.”

Ye Wanwan: “...”

Ye Wanwan looked at Iceberg Man, annoyed. “Can I... freaking ask... Knight-errant, why did you create such an odd gu poison? Is there a meaning behind it?”

Spray of Flowers giggled. “My husband said this mutually-in-love gu is a mutation of the love gu. It can be considered a research failure and defective product of the love gu...”

So what’s the love gu?

But Ye Wanwan wasn’t in the mood to ask. She urgently pressed, “Is there another method besides the solution you mentioned? Since he’s the one who made the poison, he must have a way to relieve it, right?”

Chapter 1455: You're about to die, so why are you still being picky?

Spray of Flowers answered earnestly, "My husband said this gu is a defective failure, so even he can't resolve it. This is the only method."

Ye Wanwan: "..."

Doesn't that mean I'm dead for sure?

Unless I can find Si Yehan within 12 hours...

Ye Wanwan relaxed slightly as she thought about that.

Although everything proved Si Yehan masked her memory and he stripped her of her freedom, she subconsciously knew the only person she would choose was still him...

If she really had to randomly find someone to remedy her poison, she'd face death without a doubt based on the rule that she had to do it with someone she liked.

"Isn't that easy?!" Big Dipper clapped his chest and confidently said, "Sis Feng, what kind do you like? I'll find them for you... Do you like seductively beautiful men, mature uncles, wolfdog types, or fresh meat?"

Ye Wanwan, whose consciousness was gradually turning hazy, darkly glanced at Big Dipper for mentioning the topic she wanted to avoid.

"You don't like any of them?" Big Dipper scratched his head and mumbled, "Sis Feng, you're about to die, why are you still being picky...? Forget it, I'll definitely find you whatever type you like..."

Upon receiving a lack of response from Ye Wanwan, Big Dipper briskly decided to make a judgment himself and immediately ordered people to start looking for men.

"Hehe, since you're fine, we'll leave now. Boss Bai, hurry and find someone to remove the gu. Also, remember to send the money to our captain's account, okay?" Spray of Flowers said cheerfully.

Fine? This is called fine?! Are there worse troublemakers than them?

They actually left just like that!

Soon after the four of them left, Seven Star swiftly ordered his people to seize control of the Yuan residence and dispersed unnecessary personnel.

A moment later, a subordinate under Big Dipper's orders brought a dozen or so men into the study.

Amongst these dozen or so men, there was the refined and gentle type, the abstinent and cold type, and the energetic and cute type. Every man had a different aura and style; their only commonality was their outstanding looks.

The leading man, who resembled a manager, said ingratiatingly, "Lord Big, I've brought all the people you wanted. What do you think? They're the most outstanding men in our store! I guarantee you'll be satisfied!"

Big Dipper examined the men and nodded while rubbing his chin. He led them to Ye Wanwan. "Sis Feng, take a look! We can keep whoever you like!"

Seven Star glanced at the dozen or so men and furrowed his brows minutely but didn't say anything.

When these men discovered they were coming to see President Fearless this time, they were all terrified out of their minds and thought they were going to die for sure. However, when they saw the girl in front of them whose fair face was paired with shimmering eyes, their eyes brightened.

The effect inside Ye Wanwan's body grew more intense; she felt like her bones were being gnawed on by thousands of insects and ants. As she panted rapidly, her eyes severely swept over those men. "Eyesores..."

The manager shuddered in fright. "Spare us, President! These are truly top quality goods from our store! We absolutely wouldn't dare to deceive you..."

Aren't Bro Flattop's standards too high?

What kind of celestial immortal does she want?

Chapter 1456: Who said the one I like is Emperor Ji?

Big Dipper looked miserable. "Sis Feng, I think they're quite decent already! How about you put up with them for your life?"

Ye Wanwan was suffering terribly and her whole body was enveloped in a turmoil. When she heard that, she brusquely snapped, "Do them yourself if you think they're good!"

Big Dipper choked. He hastily waved his hand to tell the manager to take everyone away upon seeing Ye Wanwan getting angry.

After everyone left, Big Dipper was distraught with frustration at Ye Wanwan's increasing torment. "Ah, Sis Feng, if you really don't like those people, how about... I sacrifice myself?"

"..." Ye Wanwan nearly spat out blood from this idiot. "Scram!!!"

"Alright!" Big Dipper briskly bowed and slipped outside in fright, closing the door with a swish.

Outside the door, Big Dipper and Seven Star started conversing in anguish.

"What should we do? Sis Feng doesn't like a single one of them? Sis Feng even dislikes someone with my looks! What in the world does she want?" Big Dipper sighed in despair.

Seven Star solemnly said, "We still have time, so tell them to keep looking and call over all the good-looking men in the alliance!"

"We have no other choice. There has to be one that Sis Feng will take a liking to..."

Seven Star and Big Dipper diverged into two directions and secretly summoned two batches of decent looking men to the Yuan residence.

Big Dipper had a pounding headache. "Can't we just randomly pick one? There isn't much time left! If we keep delaying it, Sis Feng will seriously die!"

Seven Star said gravely, "We can't. As that person said, this gu is called the mutually-in-love gu, so it was to be a man that Sis Feng likes. Otherwise, the result will be the same."

She would die of bleeding from all crevices.

"D*mn! Why's this so troublesome?!" Big Dipper raced toward Ye Wanwan. "Sis Feng, just what kind do you like?! Tell me something specific!"

Ye Wanwan's vision was turning increasingly blurry, and she was slowly losing control of her consciousness. There was only one face dominating every scene in her mind...

Heh, I didn't expect to die from such an absurd cause before I found who I'm looking for... before I uncovered the whole truth...

Big Dipper thought of something, and his expression shifted. He exclaimed, "Sh*t... Say, Sis Feng, you didn't take a liking to Emperor Ji, right... This... this is very difficult... I don't think I can do it... Emperor Ji is famous for being unattracted to women... It'd be very difficult for you to bang him!"

Big Dipper recalled how Ye Wanwan said "At least someone on Emperor Ji's level" back in the nightclub last time and was shocked out of his mind.

Even Seven Star's expression darkened. It truly wasn't possible if it was Emperor Ji.

There were countless women who coveted Emperor Ji in the Independent State, but not many actually dared to go after him.

After her mind cleared slightly, she glanced at the two of them and asked with raised brows, "Who said the one I like is Emperor Ji?"

Big Dipper instantly clutched his chest and relaxed. "That's great, that's great! It's great it's not Emperor Ji! It's great! Who is it? A word from you, Sis Feng, and I'll definitely abduct that person for you!"

Seven Star also nodded. "Who do you want, Sis Feng?"

There weren't many people in the Independent State they couldn't get if the president of the Fearless Alliance wanted them. It would be fine even if they forcefully abducted them.

Ye Wanwan looked down before glancing at Big Dipper and Seven Star. She casually tossed the teapot in her hand to the side and aloofly replied, “Lord Asura.”

Big Dipper: “...”

Seven Star: “...”

Dead silence stifled the large room after Ye Wanwan said that; even the air seemed to stop flowing.

Seven Star was shocked out of his wits while Big Dipper sprained his ankle and slammed into a nearby cabinet with a “bang.” He grimaced in pain and looked like he’d seen a ghost. “F*ck me! Sis-sis Feng! Who did you say you like?”

Ye Wanwan rolled her eyes. “Lord Asura. What? Didn’t you say you were going to help me abduct him?”

Big Dipper wanted to bawl. “Sis Feng... Sis Feng, don’t be so suicidal... you actually want to sleep with Lord Asura... Are you f*cking seeking death?”

Last time, at Lord Asura’s conference, he was merely casually joking about whether Sis Feng had a thing with Lord Asura or not. How could he have known that Sis Feng seriously coveted someone like Lord Asura?

Seven Star’s face was also dark. He was thinking the same thing as Big Dipper on this rare occasion.

Ye Wanwan nonchalantly glanced at Big Dipper from the corners of her eyes. “What? Why can’t I sleep with Lord Asura?”

Perhaps... she’d already slept with him!

A glint flickered in Ye Wanwan’s eyes as she recalled every detail of her meeting with Lord Asura. Although everything was flawless...

She decided to bet—bet that her instincts were right!

She didn’t have a plan to head to the ancient Si clan and scout for information yet. Moreover, her current situation didn’t give her any other choice, so why didn’t she take a gamble?

Although he always knew Sis Feng had a facial complex and liked good-looking people, he didn’t expect her to be driven by her thirst to this extent!

“Stop blabbering! Do what I say. I naturally have my own reasons!” Ye Wanwan snapped.

“What reason could you have...”

*Other than being blinded by your horniness... *

As Big Dipper roasted her, he was kicked out by her.

“This is gonna cost us our lives...” Big Dipper sighed in despair. “Ah, Seven Star, do you still suspect Sis Feng of being a fake?”

After all... they definitely couldn't find a second person in the Independent State who had such a gutsy personality and thirst for good looks...

As they conversed, Autumn Water rushed over.

When Autumn Water saw their shaken appearances, she asked with a frown, “Seven Star, Big Dipper, what happened? Why do you look like this? Isn't the Yuan family taken care of?”

She just received news that Patriarch Yuan died and the Yuan family devolved into chaos after turning leaderless, so Seven Star took advantage of the situation and seized their headquarters.

Big Dipper looked miserable and hastily explained everything to Autumn Water. “The Yuan family is taken care of, but something happened to Sis Feng!”

“Xiao Feng? What happened to Xiao Feng? Did she get injured?” Autumn Water looked worried.

“No... she was poisoned by gu... Old geezer Yuan wanted to drag someone down before he died, so Sis Feng was caught off guard and poisoned!”

“What kind of gu? Is it serious?” Autumn Water pressed swiftly.

“It's called mutually-in-love gu or something. She has to sleep with someone she likes to cure the gu...” Big Dipper explained the situation briefly.

Chapter 1458: Both roads lead to death!

After Autumn Water heard that, she laughed and relaxed. Wasn't that simple? She just had to call Emperor Ji here.

However, Emperor Ji and Xiao Feng's relationship had to remain a secret, so she didn't tell Seven Star and Big Dipper who he was. She just said, “I'll find him now!”

Before Big Dipper could reiterate the rest of the story, Autumn Water had walked swiftly away.

Even now, Big Dipper's legs and insides were trembling. He mumbled, “Lord Asura is impossible! Utterly impossible to obtain for the rest of her life! Unless Autumn Water can invite Emperor Ji... Perhaps there's a tiny possibility of making Sis Feng fall in love with someone else...”

But how could that be possible?! He was simply dreaming!

These two bosses—both roads led to death!

At the same time, in a large hall located in the northern part of the Yuan territory:

The man sitting on the throne had a pair of bone-chilling eyes that struck fear into people.

“My lord, the Fearless Alliance attacked the Yuan family, and the Yuan family is currently asking for our assistance,” a white-haired elderly man said while bowing underneath the throne.

The Yuan family paid quite a large tribute to Asura every month, so they naturally received protection from Asura. Now, a faction was attacking the Yuan family; it was the same as mercilessly slapping Asura’s face.

A moment later, the man slowly stood up from his throne. His eyes, unfathomable like the stars, emitted an indescribable icy glint.

“No need to pay attention to them.”

The red-haired man standing to the side, Jiang Yan, shifted his expression and volunteered himself of his own accord, “My lord, you have to attend to thousands of affairs every day, so we shouldn’t trouble you with such a trivial matter. Please allow this subordinate to handle this matter! The Fearless Alliance has been acting increasingly arrogant these days; we absolutely can’t allow them to run rampant any longer!”

Even if Lord Asura found it beneath his dignity to attack the Fearless Alliance, they couldn’t allow continuous provocation from the Fearless Alliance to slide by like this.

Jiang Yan was about to continue persuading Lord Asura when Lin Que suddenly burst in like a gale of wind and rushed forward with a fiery expression. He covered Si Yehan’s ears and said, “Ninth Brother, Ninth Brother! I just heard a piece of shocking news!”

Lin Que turned urgent and hastily whispered, “After the Fearless Alliance took over the Yuan family’s headquarters, Big Dipper and Seven Star suddenly secretly searched for a bunch of young and handsome pretty boys and fresh meat and brought them into the Yuan residence...”

Upon seeing this, Lin Que quickly continued, “To help you keep watch on that girl, I looked into it... Ninth Brother, do you know what I discovered? Ye Wanwan was accidentally poisoned by gu during the fight with the Yuan family!”

However, what did Wanwan being poisoned have to do with her subordinates urgently scouting young men?

Lin Que cautiously observed Si Yehan’s expression as he said with trepidation, “According to a reliable news source, that gu poison is called mutually-in-love gu. The poisoned victim must... must mate with another man or woman to relieve the poison... Otherwise... their mouths and tongues would get ulcers and they'll die by bleeding from all openings on their faces..."

When Lin Que finished speaking, Si Yehan's eyes shattered like a mirror and lost all its calmness.

Lin Que didn't dare to conceal anything and resumed. "While I was scouting for news, I also Autumn Water from the Fearless Alliance rushed out of the Yuan residence and seemed to be heading for... for Emperor Ji's estate..."

A second later, a crisp snap and Lin Que watched blankly as the handle under Si Yehan's hand was crushed... Crushed...!!!

Chapter 1459: Invite him for sleeping

He cautiously distanced himself from Si Yehan before comforting him. "Ninth... Ninth Brother, calm down... I'm not done yet..."

"This gu poison can't be relieved by banging a random person! It must be with the man the victim likes or else it's useless! So, aren't you the only one who can relieve this gu poison, Ninth Brother?!"

However, Si Yehan's expression didn't improve at all after hearing that and darkened a few degrees instead.

Lin Que suddenly thought of something and murmured, aghast, "Sh*t! Wait... what if that girl falls in love with someone else..."

As soon as he said that, the handle under Si Yehan's hand turned into complete smithereens.

"Jiang Yan, prepare the car." The man abruptly stood up, a blizzard mixed in his low voice.

Jiang Yan was startled and promptly asked, "May this subordinate ask where my Lord is going?"

"The Yuan residence."

Jiang Yan's face filled with joy. "Yes, this subordinate will prepare the car immediately!"

That's great! Lord Asura will finally attack the Fearless Alliance!

The Yuan family elder next to Jiang family was also incredibly excited. "Thank you, my lord, for standing up for my Yuan family! As long as my lord shows up, the Fearless Alliance will definitely become stricken with terror!"

He wondered what Lin Que told Lord Asura that caused him to fly into a terrible rage like this and personally seek out the Fearless Alliance.

Anyhow, the Fearless Alliance was going to die for sure!

Upon seeing this, Lin Que also panicked and rushed up. "Hey, wait for me! I'm also going, I'm also going! I can disguise myself! I absolutely won't be discovered!"

Big Dipper gulped. "What... what should we do? Do we really have to go and abduct Lord Asura?"

Big Dipper pursed his lips. "But Sis Feng specifically said she likes Lord Asura. What else can we do..."

Seven Star's brows tightly burrowed together, and he thought about it for a moment before saying, "Continue to send people to choose some young men. If the main store doesn't have any, go to the branches to get them. Pick some that... resemble Lord Asura's looks and aura."

"Please... Is someone with Lord Asura's appearance and aura that easy to find?" Big Dipper was rendered speechless. "But we'll try it as a last resort to fix this hopeless situation! There's nothing else we can do! I'll deal with it immediately!"

Big Dipper hastily relayed the order before looking at the time on his watch. "We don't have much time left... We'll probably have to make double preparations! We'll need to find fresh meat! But we'll also have to invite Lord Asura!"

Seven Star glanced at him like he was an idiot. "Invite? How are planning to invite him? And what will you tell him after inviting him here?"

"Ahem... I'll say... say that the president wants to invite him for sleeping?"

Seven Star: "..."

"Ah! Who cares?! We'll discuss it after I make a trip to Asura! With Sis Feng's personality, if she takes a liking to someone, we can't pull her back even with nine bulls! Of course, we might have some possibility of pulling her back if there's someone better looking... but the problem is, where could we find someone prettier looking than Lord Asura...?"

While the duo anxiously racked their brains for a solution, a subordinate rushed inside in an utterly panicked manner. "Lord Seven! Lord Seven! Not good! We're in big trouble!"

Chapter 1460: That scene was unimaginable

"What are you making an uproar about?" Big Dipper irritably admonished.

What could be worse than Sis Feng's current situation?!

The subordinate gasped for air as he pointed at the main entrance and reported, "Asura's people are here!"

"What did you say?"

“The Yuan family and Asura’s people are on our doorstep! And Lord Asura also came here personally!” the subordinate replied, terrified.

Big Dipper and Seven Star met each other’s eyes in shock.

Big Dipper was about to speak when Seven Star interrupted him, “No! We can’t allow Sis Feng to see Lord Asura!”

“Why?!” Big Dipper was anxious.

“With Sis Feng’s current situation, we can’t predict what she would do!” explained Seven Star.

Big Dipper nodded frantically. “That’s true... What if Sis Feng turns monstrous and does that to Lord Asura on the spot...”

That scene was simply unimaginable!

The subordinate nodded and quickly left.

Big Dipper was about to go insane. “Ahhh!!! Lord Asura actually came to visit personally! He doesn’t really want to destroy our Fearless Alliance, right?”

Seven Star rolled his eyes. “Now you know to be afraid. What were you doing earlier?”

He didn’t agree to attack before, but this guy kept urging Sis Feng to come.

“First, we analyze the situation! Remember, we mustn’t let Sis Feng know Lord Asura is here!”

Lord Asura really did come personally, and there were a few elders from the Yuan family, Jiang family, and a guard-like man next to him.

“Welcome, Lord Asura! Pardon us for not going out to meet you!”

As soon as the elders from the Yuan family saw the two of them, they angrily glared at the duo. “How dare you act like the host?! This is our Yuan residence! Your Fearless Alliance came here to provoke us and killed our patriarch! You’ve gone too far!”

Seven Star’s gaze chilled. “Elder Li’s words are remiss. It was clearly your Yuan family who terrorized a branch of our Fearless Alliance first; our Fearless Alliance merely acted in self-defense! As for Patriarch Yuan's death, it was completely unrelated to us! He wanted to poison us with gu but killed himself instead out of carelessness!"

When Si Yehan, who remained silent, heard the words "poison us with gu," a cold glint flashed through his eyes.

"You're spouting utter nonsense!" a Yuan family elder shouted furiously.

Seven Star's expression didn't shift at all. "Patriarch Yuan's corpse is in the rear courtyard. You can examine him yourself."

"He has only himself to thank for this!" Big Dipper interjected indignantly. Not only that, but he caused Sis Feng to be so miserable!

Jiang Yan coldly rebuked them. "Who do you think you are? How dare you stand here and speak to our esteemed Lord Asura? Where's your president?! Tell her to come out already!"

Seven Star said, "Apologies, but the president is feeling unwell today. You can speak to me if needed."

A Yuan family elder snorted. "Heh. Feeling unwell? I wager she's probably terrified, so she's hiding and is too scared to come out!"

Jiang Yan said next to Si Yehan's years, "My Lord, it's true that the Fearless Alliance killed the patriarch of the Yuan family. We must give them an explanation."

Wanwan's situation was probably trickier than Lin Que's description...
