

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 381– 382

Chapter 381

It was almost late at night when Bryan drove back to Jincheng. As soon as the car stopped in the downstairs community, he received a call from Lin Shui.

“What’s the matter?” He pondered for a moment, knowing that if it wasn’t something important, Lin Shui wouldn’t bother him so late, so he looked cold, got out of the car while answering the phone, and walked towards the entrance of the corridor. go with.

Sure enough, there was silence over there for a few seconds before he said: “Mr. Shao, Yan Ke said that the people from Xunyang have gone to City Two. It should be the investigation of what happened in Kyoto two days ago. The people did not come to Jincheng directly. I am worried that I have doubted it. It’s on Miss Lu.”

Bryan paused in his footsteps, and stood at the elevator door and glanced at the beating floor number, and finally replied inconspicuously: “I see.”

After hanging up the phone, the elevator door just opened, and he stepped forward without stopping for a moment, but his brows were already twisted.

As soon as he stepped into the house, a clear and beautiful figure came into view at the entrance. Tao Waner got up from the sofa and walked to a position less than one meter away from Bryan, with a gentle smile on his face, “Brother Chen, come back. Is it?”

After he stretched out his slender arm, he was about to pick up the briefcase in his hand.

Bryan looked cold, and after changing the shoes at the entrance, he took advantage of the situation and put the bag on the desk in the hallway, without any intention to pay attention to her.

At this time, Mother Shao, who was sitting on the sofa holding a wall, couldn’t stand it, and sneered coldly: “I am a guest at any rate. After I came, I made a table of meals and waited for you until now. Vice attitude, who will you show it to?”

If Bryan didn’t hear it, she turned into the restaurant and poured water. Tao Waner ate a little. Although her face was a little disappointed, she quickly calmed down. She winked at the angry mother Shao, and then followed up. restaurant.

“Are you hungry? I’ll prepare a midnight snack for you.” Tao Waner glanced at Bryan, his face instantly turned red, and he turned to head towards the kitchen, unexpectedly being caught by the man behind him. Arm.

She was surprised at first, and then turned around to face the man’s cold expression, and her heart became even more flustered.

His eyes were heavy, his eyes were straight on her face, and a gloomy and deep breath gradually gathered under his eyes, as if he wanted to see her through.

I can't tell whether his mood is good or bad at the moment, but according to most of the experience, he will never have a good face to himself, so his body shrank for a while, avoiding his eyes, and his body was also retreating.".....pain."

Tao Waner tried to withdraw his hand, but Bryan grabbed it harder, and the pain caused cold sweat on his back.

After confronting each other for a long time, he relaxed the strength of his hands, raised his thin lips slightly, and smiled somewhat self-deprecatingly, "My mother is really interested, I can find you out."

Tao Waner felt Bryan loose his hand, and took the opportunity to break free, rubbing his red wrist, and immediately aggrieved, "Brother Chen, I don't understand what you are talking about..."

Bryan narrowed his eyes slightly, his body straightened again, and he forced Tao Wan'er into a corner near the refrigerator, "Have you met Miriam, I know I have an ex-wife and two children."

Tao Waner bit her lower lip slightly, her eyes flickering at Bryan, and finally he nodded seriously, "I have seen it, and the baby has seen it too, it's very cute."

When the man heard the words, the cold atmosphere under his eyes became stronger, "In this case, you should know that I am not interested in other women. Your father is a doctor, and your mother is a university professor. An innocent family, there is no need to waste it with someone like me. youth."

His analysis was thorough, his tone was extremely cool, and he paused and then asked, "Unless you have a different plan, what is it, money?"

Tao Waner grew up spoiled, and has never been insulted like this. Hearing these words, his eyes were immediately red, his fingers curled up, and he said quietly: "I have my own job and I don't lack money. ,I just like you."

Bryan was taken aback for a moment.

At this time, her stubborn and unwilling expression looked like someone.

For a moment of dazedness, I saw her lower her head slightly, avoiding her sight, and her tone of voice was a little unwilling when she spoke, "I don't think there is anything good about this Miss Lu. The only place I lose to her is in your life. She came ahead of me in the order of appearance."

Having said that, he raised his hand and wiped the tears that had slipped to his chin, "But now that I have encountered it, I still want to try it. If you don't try, how can I know that you will not fall in love with me?"

After listening to her, Bryan leaned back faintly, and finally put his hands in the pockets of his trousers, and said in a deep voice, "Okay, I will fly to Kyoto this weekend. You will be with me."

Tao Waner felt that he was probably crazy. He would hear Bryan's words, his eyes suddenly became two copper bells, and his voice trembled, "You, what did you say?"

"I want to meet an important partner who lacks a female assistant. Of course, if you have other arrangements, I won't force it."

"Don't force it, don't force it." Tao Waner waved her hand again and again, her face overflowing with a smile before her tears were wiped off.

Upon seeing this, Bryan turned his body to the door, "Then you go back first, it is already late."

Bryan returned to the dining table and took a sip of the poured warm water when he heard the sound of the door opening and closing again and again.

Soon mother Shao came in from the living room with a navy blue shawl on her body, her arms hidden in the shawl, and she leaned against the door and couldn't help but criticize: "Smiling, a girl's house, will you not give it away when you go home alone in the middle of the night?"

"I didn't let her come, nor did I let her wait. If you really want to send it, you should also send it." Bryan took the chair out of the dining table and sat on it, his voice was neither light nor heavy, but faint. Tiredness.

Shao's mother choked with fire in her eyes, but when she thought of the conversation she had just heard outside the restaurant, her anger was mostly relieved, and she sat down beside Bryan and persuaded her: "If the girl touches, you can find that others are good, and they are certainly not much worse than that of Miriam."

Speaking of Miriam, I didn't think of the two children, their expressions turned gloomy a little, they stared and asked: "When will you bring my grandson back to me?"

Bryan currently doesn't have much thoughts about dealing with his mother's problems. Mother Shao sees his avoidance attitude, and she quarrels again, "That's the grandson of our Shao family. If you don't solve this problem yourself, you can hurry up. Marry Wan Er, have another one, or don't blame me for trouble with Miriam."

The man rubbed his eyebrows, his eyes were completely cold when he raised his head, and he looked at Shao Mu, "Why can't Miriam get into your eyes? I would rather find someone who looks like her in body and temperament or even personality to replace her."

Are you unwilling to accept her? You only consider the reputation and family business of the Shao family and ignore your son's sincerity."

After that, he got up and pushed the chair under him against the floor to make a sharp noise.

Shao's mother was furious and slammed the table, "Miriam, Miriam! Because of this woman, when did you not fight against me, and asked me why I didn't want to accept her? Since you can see her and Miriam looks like, can't you follow her mother's will to be with her? Even if their family is an ordinary working family, Mom recognizes it, it's better than Miriam!"

Bryan was unmoved by what he said, and his cold eyes fell down. Suddenly thinking of Tao Waner's words, he said lightly: "Sorry, I can't do it. The order of appearance in life is very important. Since I met her first, I can only accept my fate."

After that, she raised her foot and walked away, leaving Shao mother alone in the dining room for a long time, unable to calm her emotions.

Chapter 382

Before the weekend, Bryan received a call from Xun Yang unexpectedly. On the phone, the man still looked like a fool, and his emotional attitude did not show any abnormality. Bryan did not reveal it. After pretending to hesitate for a while, he confirmed the time of the meal with him.

After waiting until the weekend, he took Tao Waner to Kyoto to go to Xunyang's appointment.

Tao Waner listened to Bryan's words, her long hair was tied up and her head was tied behind her head, and she changed into a professional suit. When meeting at the airport, the man's eyes under the black sunglasses were unknowingly widened, and he didn't move. Looked at her sensibly.

"Is there any problem?" Tao Waner pulled a short suit and skirt. It was a little unnatural. She graduated from a medical university and always wore a white coat. This is the first time she has been dressed like this.

Thinking of the sound of the broadcasting station, he looked for the opportunity to converge his eyes, and replied in a dark voice: "No problem."

Then he turned to the direction of the boarding gate, and heard the sound of a woman stepping on high heels behind him.

It was already evening when I got off the plane. I took a taxi from the airport to the pre-arranged hotel. After arriving, there was already a waiter waiting specially downstairs. When Bryan came over and didn't wait for him to speak, he took the lead to say hello and sent the person to the private room. Direction cited.

Standing at the door of the private room, Tao Waner was obviously a little nervous. Before Bryan pushed the door, he couldn't help but grabbed him with one hand, his eyes filled with uncertain panic.

He lowered his eyes and said in a gentle voice, "You don't need to speak after entering, so there is no need to be nervous."

After speaking, he opened the door of the private room and went straight in.

At this moment, in addition to Xun Yang and his assistant Amy, there are also several older men. Bryan speculated that they should be Xun's old shareholders.

Sure enough, as soon as he stepped in, Xun Yang, who was watching the sound, got up and greeted him, and then reached out and swept the people next to him, "These are the directors of our group. Since we need to talk about the details of cooperation, Naturally, they are indispensable."

After Xun Yang finished speaking, his eyes fell behind Bryan not accidentally, Tao Waner smiled calmly on his face, but the palm of his hand was already sweaty.

"This is..." He looked at Tao Wan'er suspiciously with a look of inquiry.

Bryan turned his eyes slightly, "My assistant, Xun always don't care."

After speaking, he pulled the chair next to him and sat down, then motioned to Tao with a smile, "Sit down."

When both of them were seated, Xun Yang let out a little light in his hesitant eyes, and laughed and teased, "I thought Mr. Shao was really pure-hearted, and he had such a beautiful assistant by his side."

The smiles were all piled on his face, and his eyes were indeed faint, with deep exploration and consideration.

Bryan pretended not to know himself. After sitting upright, he raised the cup in front of him, "Everyone is precious. Since we are here to talk about cooperation, how about we get to the point?"

Everyone toasted to agree, and the gossip went on again, Xun Yang smiled, "Our board of directors has passed the resolution of cooperation, and we can get the support of Longteng. It will be of great benefit to our listing in New York. Ask Mr. Shao, how much financial support can we provide?"

Bryan glanced slantingly and raised her thin lips, "What is the number you talked to Fengrui before? I doubled it."

The crowd in the room seemed to be unbelievable. They all looked at each other, and finally looked at Xun Yang together. Seeing him half leaning on the back of the chair, his eyebrows were raised lazily, “Zong Shao’s tone is really not small. .”

Bryan stared at him with cold eyes, “It’s not a big tone, but a solid confidence. Since you know the entanglement between me and Shang Rui, you should understand the reason why I did this. It’s nothing more than stepping on him. Under your feet, and you and I can be a mutually beneficial and win-win party.”

Xun Yang fell silent as he said something. He placed a hand on the tabletop and tapped the rhythm as if intentionally or unintentionally. When Bryan saw this, he slightly constricted his eyes, got up and pushed away the chair under him, “I’ll go to the bathroom, Xun can always Think again.”

He pushed the door out, and waited for a while before coming back. As expected, the group of board members had already left. Apart from Tao Waner, only Xun Yang and his assistant were left at the dinner table.

When Xun Yang saw people coming back, he didn’t hide anything this time. The puny temperament on his body was also taken back, and he said with a serious face, “Bryan, you really did not use any means to defeat Shang Rui, even stalking people. I don’t hesitate to do the same thing?”

Bryan chuckled when he heard the words. He didn’t mean to deny, but he deliberately provoked: “Xun always said that I followed and beat people. If there is evidence, I can go to the police station to speak. If there is no evidence, such casual framing of others may cause fire at any time. .”

He raised his eyes and looked over, facing the man’s forbearing anger, Xun Yang admitted that he had suffered a dumb loss in this matter, so he stopped talking and just brought the topic back to the point, “I can promise to cooperate with you. When the group is listed abroad, the expected market value will at least double, so Mr. Shao invests more at this time, so that you are not?”

After a pause, he turned the subject, “However, something...”

Bryan understood the meaning of his words instantly, and the corners of his lips rose, “General Xun rest assured, as long as we keep the matters of our cooperation secret to the outside world and ensure that everything goes smoothly, I guarantee that Shang Rui will not know. You frequently meet with Mrs. Shang in private.”

“You...” When mentioned here, Xun Yang couldn’t help being furious, and almost all the veins on his forehead burst out, but in the end he was helpless, after thinking about it, and adding, “And my mobile phone, there are some private messages in it, Mr. Shao will not?”

Speaking of the mobile phone, Bryan inevitably thought of Miriam, but now he deliberately turned his head and cast his gaze on Tao Wan'er's body, curling his lips slightly and making a gentle smile.

"Relax, the announcement has affected Xun's image, and what good is it for me as a future partner? As long as Xun is always talking, I will naturally not do things that harm the common interests of both parties." The words were to Xun Yang. Yes, but his eyes fell on Tao Wan'er.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Xun Yang couldn't help but think a lot, and nodded himself, "Then I believe Mr. Shao."

I thought that there was no flaw in Bryan's words. Fortunately, there was no other particularly important information in the phone.

The conversation finally reached the result that both parties wanted. Bryan led Tao Wan'er out of the hotel and walked all the way to the intersection on the corner of the street before stopping.

He looked leisurely, staring at the passing traffic, and felt the breath of Tao Wan'er approaching him.

After a meal, although she didn't care to say a word, she quietly felt Bryan's unique charm, that kind of killing and decisive aura made her heartbeat a little out of control.

"Did they say anything during the few minutes I left?" During the period, Bryan deliberately left, just to keep Tao Wan'er by their side, so that Xun Yang could detect some clues he wanted.

Sure enough, I heard Tao Wan'er's "um", and added a little panic: "But I did what you meant. They should have misunderstood something."

Tao Wan'er didn't understand why Bryan wanted her to pose in front of the group of people who thought she had a close relationship with him. There was a vague guess in her heart, but she didn't dare to ask more.

As my thoughts drifted away, I heard the man coldly speaking, "I have some time to go to a place."

He looked up and stared at a building not far away, his eyes full of loneliness and affection.
