

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 439– 440

Chapter 439

Shelly is not a friendly person. She has an aloof personality, and her job requirements are almost harsh. Because she usually uses her own work ability as the standard to measure the work standards of others.

In a company mechanism with brutal competition like MK, the idlers have never looked down the most, but Yingxin came to them, and those idlers rushed to flatter her one by one, and the result can be imagined.

In the large office of the marketing department, Shelly stepped on stiletto heels and stomped the floor. Finally, he walked to Tang Yan's desk and photographed a report that had been revised five times before and after it. On, "Is this what you gave me?"

Tang Yan shrank from the huge movement, stood up tremblingly, took the report in her hand and flipped through two pages. After confirming that it was the one she had handed in last night, she nodded repeatedly, "Director Gong, Do you have any other questions?"

"What's the problem?" Shelly folded his hands on his chest, his aura was cold and solemn, "I asked you to do specific data analysis and analogy to me. You add two innocuous numbers to me to be data analysis. Yet?"

"But..." Tang Yan swallowed her saliva, the cold sweat on her face was about to come down, she was shocked by Shelly, she didn't dare to look up, just glanced around quietly with her eyes, and found that everyone was head down, none of them. People dare to speak.

Don't dare to speak, a girl who was stealing breakfast next to her choked a bun in her throat and almost lost her breath.

"But in the previous report, there are no analysis items of the types you mentioned." Tang Yan gritted her teeth and said it aggrieved.

Shelly naturally won't give face, with a cold expression, "Since you handed the report to me, shouldn't you listen to me? Write another copy. I will see it before work tomorrow morning. If it doesn't pass, you just wait. Go and explain your personal work efficiency to Mr. Henry."

She glanced indifferently, and said disdainfully: "No company is willing to support idlers. Nowadays, a company pays attention to ability. No matter how old you are, are you old enough to pass the season?"

After speaking, she retracted her cold eyes, turned and walked away, just about to walk out of the office door, and ran into Xiao Zhang who had rushed over.

The man reacted, his body quickly withdrew to the side, Shelly raised his eyes and glanced at him lightly, "Tell Director Lu, her feedback form has not been sent to me yet."

Xiao Zhang touched his nose, and hurriedly responded: "It has just been sent, Director Gong, please check your mailbox."

Hearing this, Shelly withdrew his gaze, and when he raised his foot to go outside the door, he said lightly: "I see."

Until the tall and arrogant back disappeared from everyone's sight for a long time, there was still a deathly silence in the office, everyone seemed dumbfounded, and they all looked at Tang Yan.

Tang Yan also took a long time to sit down again, exhaled a long breath, and then secretly cursed: "Hold a chicken feather as an arrow."

At this time, the girl who was choked by the steamed bun filled a glass of white water, stroking her chest and sighed secretly: "It scared me to death. Fortunately, I didn't try to curse her. It's just a femme fatale."

After her words came out, there was another rustling voice in the office, and the thoughtful people looked at each other, both annoyed and fortunate.

Early the next morning, not long after Miriam arrived at the office, Song Bo came over again with a crutches, and knocked on her office door.

"Director, the deputy director called you over, in the big office."

Miriam squeezed her eyebrows and got up after a while.

As soon as I arrived at the door of the marketing office, before people entered, I heard a loud voice coming from inside, "Behind the slander of high-level leaders, even if I have not been here for long, I know this is a company ban. I will take this matter. Report to Director Lu and President Henry, suggesting that relevant staff be laid off. Do you have any comments?"

While listening, Miriam stepped in, and saw Shelly holding the black recorder in his hand, staring at the group including Tang Yan with cold eyes.

"What do you discuss about leadership?" Miriam pursed her lips and walked to a position side by side with Shelly.

Shelly didn't hesitate, and rang the recorder without saying a word.

After a rustling noise, Tang Yan's angrily roar came: "What MK company quit, I think her virtue was expelled from the company 80%, we have no brains, we still treat it as a treasure. I picked it back and offered it like a Bodhisattva, I really do."

After she finished speaking, there was another sound of water flowing in the audio, and then another voice sounded, with a hint of ridicule, "She is so beautiful and will flatter her. Didn't you listen to her? No one of us compares with seniority. It has to be President Henry, she can flatter her with anything, and I don't know if it was a special way to get in."

"Are you talking about her and Mr. Henry?" There was a "tsk tusk" voice from inside, and he giggled twice, "I think Ms. Miao is very reasonable. Look at that woman, she dresses decently every day, but I'm also a little fox, I'm afraid that he is not a natural vixen, maybe his education and work experience are fake."

After that, a group of people talked more and more vigorously, and talked more and more outrageously.

As the conversation inside was announced little by little, the three people standing at the forefront of the crowd lowered their heads, and their faces turned pale.

Miriam smiled and joked, "The quality of your recorder is good, and the sound is not distorted at all."

Seeing that she still had teasing thoughts, Shelly couldn't help but roll his eyes inwardly, before speaking, and seeing her expression suddenly cold again, he grabbed the recorder and held it firmly in his hand.

"Your imagination also makes me admire. Henry always has a deep friendship with his wife. You slander like this, do you never agree with the words 'human words are awesome'?"

Shelly was still reminiscing about the content in the recorder just now, and thought it was funny, "Say $educe, then I should $educe Director Lu too? After all, she recommended me to President Henry."

Miriam's eyes stopped for a while, and his gaze flicked between the three of them. Seeing that the eyes of the group of people flashed uncontrollably with stunned eyes, she curled her lips, "Henry always hates making things behind you, this one The recorder, I will hand it over to him in a while. As for Director Gong's suggestion to dismiss you, I also second it."

When the voice fell, Tang Yan's eyes trembled. She was confused again, and she understood a little at this time, yelling that her eyes were red, "You two are together? Are you kidding us!"

Miriam looked at the woman who was extremely out of control, her expression condensed, but she didn't deny anything.

“I gave you a chance. As long as you work hard, I won’t treat you badly. Just like Director Gong said, we Yingxin don’t raise idlers, let alone those who make trouble.”

After she finished speaking, holding the recorder, she gestured with Shelly next to her and left.

Unexpectedly, Tang Yan rushed over from behind. Before everyone could react, she raised her arms against Miriam’s lower waist and pushed her out, and at the same time yelled in her eyes, “Go to hell,” You are also worthy to have children...”

Miriam was caught off guard. She slammed into her high heels, and she rushed out. When she saw that she was about to fall to the ground, a figure suddenly rushed out and held her firmly.

Miriam calmed down, and a thin layer of dryness came up on her back. With the help of Liao Qiu’s body, she slowly exhaled a sullen breath, and said, “Thank you.”

“Are you okay?” All the people who reacted at this time came to be concerned, and Tang Yan was also restrained by Xiao Zhang.

Miriam waved her hand, her expression faint, “I’m fine.”

After that, her palms broke free from Liao Qiu’s hands, her expression changed, her inexplicable eyes staring straight at the woman in front of her, “Liao Qiu, come to my office at noon, I have something to say to you.”

After finishing speaking, she raised her foot straight again and went out of the door. She was about to step out of the door, but was unexpectedly blocked by a cold figure.

The woman asked if there was a seemingly non-existent smile, and looked at Miriam coldly, “You are indeed different.”

Rania stood by the door and commented lightly.

Chapter 440

After seeing Rania back, before entering the office, Song Bo jumped out from the side and raised his chin with Miriam, “Director, Liao Qiu has been waiting in your office after get off work at noon. Let her go to dinner first, and she said no.”

Miriam raised her hand with a gentle smile, “Tell Xiao Zhang to order a dessert for me. He is more familiar with Liao Qiu’s taste.”

Song Bo opened his lips. Before he could come down, he saw Miriam had pushed the door behind him and walked in.

The light or heavy opening of the door still alarmed Liao Qiu on the sofa. Looking from Miriam's direction, she could see her back trembling obviously, but she still did not look back until Miriam walked. Near, stand beside her.

"Director." Liao Qiu rubbed his hands before standing up.

An uneasy expression was floating on her face, and she was avoiding Miriam's eyes as she spoke.

Miriam stood there, took off his half-thick windbreaker, and gave a light "um". After that, I turned around and hung the windbreaker on the hanger beside the office chair, took a white envelope from the table and folded it back again.

Liao Qiu's eyelids drooped slightly. After seeing the envelope in Miriam's hand, he finally raised his head and looked at her uncontrollably, his eyes were covered with shock.

"I think you seem to be prepared enough to know why I'm calling for you?" Miriam sat down opposite, put the envelope on the coffee table, and pushed hard in front of her.

The difficult throat rolled up and down, Liao Qiu pursed his lips and said frankly, "Probably I can guess it."

"As long as you can guess, at least in terms of work ability, I did not misunderstand you."

A small gap was opened in the window behind him. At this time, a cold wind swept in and poured straight into the back of Miriam's neck, instantly filling his body with coolness.

She just paused because of this, but Liao Qiu quickly noticed, got up and went over her to close the window.

Miriam listened to the movement behind her, and continued to speak shallowly, "When I was in Kyoto, Shang Rui knew about the remarriage of Bryan and I so quickly. It is not excluded that he learned from other channels, but you and Xiao Zhang are still the most likely to provide. The person who gave him news."

As she said, she felt the coolness behind her instantly eased, and her eyes darkened a little, "You also heard the news of my pregnancy. The day I went to the hospital, I knew you were with me, so I went to the obstetrics and gynecology department. ."

"So, you really are not pregnant?" Liao Qiu stood at the window for a while, and suddenly curled the corners of her lips with a mockery."You have been guarding me from the very beginning. I know the time when Brother Zhang was behind you. It's a long time, so you have always believed him more."

Miriam does not deny this.

“At least it turns out that my partial belief is not wrong.” She said, her eyes dropped, “I can’t tolerate people who can’t be trusted. If I make a mistake once, I won’t be eligible for forgiveness. I know you just accept it. For Shang Rui’s money, but unable to resist the temptation to betray his colleagues, you are a big taboo.”

Liao Qiu understood Miriam’s meaning in a daze. He clenched his fists in an instant, walked up to her and stood still, “What do you mean?”

“I’ll give you the opportunity to resign on the initiative.” Miriam’s body leaned back again, speaking firmly and calmly, without any room for negotiation.”I originally wanted to treat you like Tang Yan’s group of people. , Report to the superior for expulsion, you should do this until you do this. If the file data is stained, what kind of blow will it affect your future career.”

As she said, she picked up the envelope again and shook it in her hand, as if a solemn reminder, “The person who betrays the superior can also betray the company secrets. You think you won’t, but it turns out you still did.”

The voice of Miriam across the air was cold and decisive.

Liao Qiu always thought that her heart was not as cold as it seemed on the surface. Until then, her back was wrapped in cold sweat, and she was terrified of many things, so she gritted her teeth, “You have not only been guarding me , Still designing me.”

“Yes.” Miriam admitted.

What made Liao Qiu feel cold was that Miriam seemed very calm about everything, and even the gaze that came over was a touch of triumph in sight.

“Then why don’t you report my matter and let the senior management fire me?” Her shoulders trembled.

This question inevitably reminded Miriam of something, and Liao Qiu came forward earlier than now. At least in the eyes of outsiders, she is still a pregnant woman. As a pregnant woman, she fell like this, and the result can be imagined.

“You are still young, leaving here to start again, there is still hope in life.” Miriam’s eyes were empty. After talking for a long time, she suddenly felt a little dry and dry, so she stood up, her eyes and footsteps moved towards the desk.

“I hope you can learn some lessons in this matter, otherwise, as I said, rising too fast may not be good for you.” As she said, she had already sat down at the desk and opened it at the same time. When the computer started to work, he urged, “Before get off work, I will receive your resignation report, otherwise I will hand in the envelope early tomorrow morning.”

She was immersed in checking the information and data, but did not pay attention to the woman standing by the sofa. It was not until a long time later that she heard a sound of footsteps, followed by a violent closing of the door, stirring the entire space.

Miriam suddenly paused when she tapped the keyboard with both hands, she turned her eyes away again, staring at the small envelope in her hand with deep eyes.

She would not allow it anymore, and a second name appeared next to her.

Liao Qiu returned to the office with a frightening pale face.

Because of the noise made by Tang Yan's group in the morning, everyone in the office was at this time. Knowing that Liao Qiu had come back from Miriam's office, they craned their necks and looked around, and did not dare to speak up. , I'm afraid I'm getting tired.

Staring at the four big words "resignation report" on the computer file, she lost her consciousness for a while, until she heard the knocking sound of "Kang Kang", she converged her mind.

Looking up and seeing Xiao Zhang's face full of peaceful smiles, he raised the dessert bag in his hand at her, "I heard that you are waiting to report to the director at noon. I haven't eaten any food. Go ahead."

Liao Qiu glanced at the time on the computer and smiled a little embarrassed, "Thank you Brother Zhang, but it's already over for work, you should take it home and eat it yourself."

The man's nerves were rough, naturally he didn't notice anything, he smiled, opened the dessert box and pushed it in front of her, "Eat it, the director asked you to buy it, and work returns to work. There is no reason to skip meals."

"Director?" Liao Qiu's eyes flickered, staring at some of his favorite delicacies in the past, but at this time he lost his appetite. She smiled awkwardly, took the spoon from Xiao Zhang, "Thank you Brother Zhang."

Everyone stretched their ears and listened, and they all guessed that Director Lu was going to reuse Liao Qiu, which hurt her so much.

Before Miriam got off work, Shelly pushed open the door of her office. Song Bo saw it stopped but didn't stop him. The tall woman slapped the door frame with a slap, causing pain in his back.

"Director..." Song Bo gritted his teeth, his eyes aggrieved.

Miriam smirked and waved at him, "Go ahead."

After seeing Shelly coming in, he stretched his arms straight in front of her, and sat on the opposite chair again, in a lazy posture like a three tabby cat dozing under the sun in winter.

“Do you have any advice from Director Gong?” Miriam pushed the information in her hand aside, so as to get her free time.

“It’s good for your company to be comparable to MK? My brother tricked me back. You are an accomplice. Sooner or later I will settle this matter.” Shelly finished speaking, raised his wrist and glanced at the time, then he took the thoughts of gibbering. They swallowed them back, “I’ll talk about other things later, just talk about the Longteng case, what do you want me to do?”
