

Let Me be Your Ex Chapter 119– 120

Chapter 119

Someone took a picture of Mu Ming and shook his head, “Okay, don’t tease Sister Miriam.”

Miriam was startled, looking at the two of them in a daze, “What?”

Xiao Zhang glanced at Mu Ming and explained with a smile, “When you were away, he helped Henry Zong a favor, and he was corrected by Mr. Henry ahead of time.”

Miriam stayed for two seconds, then looked at him in surprise.

Mu Ming shrank back timidly, and said stiffly: “Miriam, Sister Miriam, listen to me to explain... Actually I...”

Before he finished speaking, Miriam slapped him on the shoulder and praised him without hesitation: “Good job! As expected, I brought it out.”

She was really happy for him.

After all, hard work in the workplace will not necessarily lead to gains, but with her, she still hopes to see that hard work and gains can be proportional.

Mu Ming was slapped by her slap. She was as cute as a husky. She recovered and smiled embarrassedly. “It’s all the credit of Sister Miriam. So, tomorrow night, if you want to invite everyone to dinner, Sister Miriam, you must come.”

Miriam raised her eyebrows and looked at him, “Congratulations on her successful conversion in advance?”

He laughed and said, “No, and congratulations on Sister Miriam’s return.”

“Yes, yes, we have to go tomorrow night.”

“Xiao Mu Ming, my sister will definitely prepare a big gift for you.”

Looking at the department’s joyous energy like a new year, Miriam’s pink lips curled up and smiled at him, “I will definitely go.”

She watched him walk over, he existed just like his brother, and he had to pass no matter how busy he was.

“Manager Lu, President Henry wants you to pass.”

President Henry’s secretary stood at the door and shouted.

“Okay, I’ll go right away.”

Waved to let everyone continue to work, she then went to Henry Zong’s side.

After a week’s work documents were piled up, Miriam’s desk was almost like a hill, and no one could be seen when she lowered her head.

It’s just that she hasn’t worked for a while, Xiao Zhang came in to interrupt her, and said, “Manager, Miss Fu from Long Teng, who is across from you, is looking for you.”

“Miss Fu?” Miriam looked up at him suspiciously from the file.

Why did Sophia come to see her again?

Xiao Zhang nodded and said something more, “However, I heard that this Miss Fu is not Secretary Fu next to Mr. Shao for a long time, and I don’t know if I made a mistake and was transferred to the branch from the grassroots level.”

Miriam’s eyes flashed suddenly.

Starting from the grassroots?

Sophia’s removal from the position of secretary Bryan told her, but she did not expect to let her start directly at the grassroots level, but the enterprise is not an officialdom, and no one who has worked for several years would be willing to start at the grassroots level, unless she is not the only one. To stay in Longteng.

This woman’s purpose was obvious from the beginning, and it was not surprising that she would choose this way.

Closing the signed documents and putting them aside, she continued to lower her head to work, and replied in a low voice, “Just say that I just came back to work today and I will make an appointment next day.”

Xiao Zhang nodded, “Okay.”

But within a few minutes he came back again, frowning in confusion: “Manager, Miss Fu said... she is here to express our condolences on behalf of Long Teng to see if your health is better... Are you...”

When Xiao Zhang just wanted to ask her what’s wrong with her body, she was interrupted by Miriam, “Maybe it was a sympathy to my mother, she probably didn’t figure out the situation, please invite her in.”

Xiao Zhang immediately thought that Mr. Shao and his manager were still friends, and it was normal to sympathize with her mother, and suddenly no longer doubted, "Oh, good."

After Xiao Zhang left, Miriam's plain pretty face immediately cooled down.

This woman wanted to threaten her about her pregnancy and her father.

Slightly squeezing the pen in her hand, her eyes gradually cooled, like cold water in a pond.

For a moment, Sophia's enchanting figure pushed the door in, and her delicate makeup was matched with a suit of professional work clothes, and she even wore the feeling of playing cards.

Looking at the woman whose face was blocked by a document behind her desk, she curled her lips, "It turns out that Manager Lu is really busy. I would have another appointment if I knew it."

Miriam put down the pen and looked at her with no expression, her voice was quiet, her aura was not let down at all, "Isn't there such a good excuse for another appointment another day?"

"That's not an excuse, right?" Sophia smiled leisurely, and put her slender fingers on the chair casually, standing and raising her eyebrows to stare at her white and clean neck. "Goodbye that day, I was very worried about Miss Lu's body. ."

Miriam's expression condensed slightly, her eyes down.

In just a few days, the scar on the neck could not be completely eliminated, she had to cover it up with some concealer.

"Don't worry about it, Sophia, here is the two of us. If you have anything to say, hurry up and leave. I still have to work." Her tone was extremely cold.

Sophia hated her in her heart and didn't feel annoyed on her face. She just sneered, "Since you let me in, it means that you understand the words of your assistant. I want to save you a little bit of face. You have to tell me. Is it direct?"

Miriam looked at the document in front of him, and suddenly laughed, but there was no smile on his face, and even a strong ridicule, "The first time I heard someone say a naked threat to face, why didn't you tell everyone directly? Are you Mr. Shao's girlfriend? I believe that many people still believe it."

"you!"

Bryan has always been a pain in her heart. She is his secretary. These years work is almost inseparable. Although the man's attitude towards her has not changed much, the company people don't think so. The scandal has been going on for a long time, even her I have to believe it, of course, the premise is that the thorn in the middle must be pulled out so that she can be comfortable.

Miriam saw her start to feel ashamed, her smile deepened and cooler, her pretty white face had a cool and heartless taste, "Don't you just want to threaten me about my pregnancy and my dad? Just these two Any exposure in China, I will be ruined and unable to stay in the company, even if I stay, I will be completely ignored."

"The reason why you are threatening is nothing suspenseful. It is just that you want me to stay away from Bryan and stop pestering him."

Sophia's charming face became cold, her fingers squeezed slightly, and she smiled deeply, "So...are you accepting or not accepting this threat? No matter which one, Miriam, you know, you can't follow me. Resistance is not a class at all. It used to be not, and it is not anymore. If I want to make you feel bad, there are really many ways. There are so many people like your father in this world, no one will refuse money. Things, I'll find two people at random, your father, your mother, and the money you owe will all be banged... all exposed."

"..."

Miriam stared at her silently, her eyes flashing coldly, and for a long while, she said with a low smile: "Really?"

Chapter 120

She picked up the phone, moved Xiubai's fingers a few times at random, and then pointed the screen towards her, and then said slowly: "If you let people know that Longteng is ranked today in the industry by selling his skin, I don't know. Is the whole Longteng people going to chase you? If they let the Longteng employees know that the secretary Fu they admire is so hungry, I don't know if they feel nauseous and nauseous, and Bryan...even if he is not interested in you, this This kind of video will pollute your eyes, right?"

When Sophia on the other side saw the video, her blood suddenly surged, making her eyes dark.

In Miriam's unhurried tone, her face gradually turned pale and frightened, and it was incredible. It could be expressed by the colorlessness of her face. Her eyes were almost torn apart. She gritted her teeth and rushed forward to snatch. Her cell phone.

"You, you... when did you take it."

Miriam avoided flexibly, retracted her mobile phone, and lazily said, "I saw it by accident when I went to Japan last time, but I have to say, Miss Fu, you have a really strong taste."

The old pervert who laughed like a pig cut her mouth.

Sophia stared at her bloody eyes for a moment, and sternly: "Miriam! Dare you, if you dare to let this thing out, I will definitely not let you go."

Miriam smiled and snorted coldly, "I won't let you go, my things, if you dare to say a word outside, I will send this video to the media."

Threat, who wouldn't.

"Miriam, you..." Sophia almost vomited blood and couldn't refute it.

The situation reversed so quickly that she never expected that she would have such a big handle in her hands.

Miriam put the phone in his pocket, took a file again, looked down, and said indifferently, "Don't let you go, as long as you can keep your mouth, then we will all be in peace, anyway. Sooner or later, I can't hide these things. I don't care if you are ruined. It's Miss Fu, but you are not married yet. Don't talk about Bryan at the time. Anyone from the rich family dare not want you, right?"

No longer to see what color her face had changed, Miriam finished speaking, and hurried, "I will continue to be busy. If there is nothing wrong with Miss Fu, I should go back early, otherwise, let the leader find out, but To be criticized."

The criticism of these two words is undoubtedly a deliberate sarcasm. She has changed from the secretary of the president to a small grass-roots employee. Except for Bryan, when did she see the faces of others, but now there is no way. To stay in Longteng, she can only bear it. With.

Suppressing her anger, she calmed down a bit, and was silent for a few minutes, looking at Miriam, and said Shen Shen, "Aren't you short of money now? How much do you want, sell me this video."

Miriam was startled, her eyes were as if she was looking at an idiot, and she smiled twice, "Sophia, do you think I am mentally retarded? Don't say that you took five million to let me leave Bryan. I didn't agree, you even give it today. I will not sell this video for 10 million, a life-time protector and a death-free gold medal. As long as you have a little brain, you will know which one to choose."

Sophia's eyes widened and looked at her incredulously, "I think you are stupid, ten million, you pay the debt, and the remaining money is enough for you to live with your parents for the rest of your life, even if I still report You, the money that the bad guys don't hold in their hands is reassuring, right?"

“ ... ”

Let alone whether her family is willing to spend this ten million, even if she can get it, if she turns around and is sued by her for extortion, then she will be over.

If it is not too speculative, Miriam is too lazy to continue arguing with her, “It’s my business to choose that. I’m still busy, Miss Fu, please.”
